8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shū'shãn to destrõy' them, to show it unto Es'ther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hã'tãch came and told Es'ther the words of Mór'de-çái;

10 Ágain' Es'ther spake unto Hã'tãch, and gave him cõmmãnd'ment unto Mór'de-çái;

11 All the king's sèrvants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden scèptre¹, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mór'de-çái Es'ther's words.

13 Then Mór'de-çái cõmmãnd'ed to answer Es'ther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escãpe' in the king's house more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou áltogèther holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from ánother place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destrõy'ed; and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 Then Es'ther báde them return Mór'de-çái this answer;

16 Go, gáther togèther all the Jews that are present in Shū'shãn, and fást ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fást likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law; and if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mór'de-çái went his way, and did

according to all that Es'ther had cõmmãnd'ed him.

CHAP. V.

NOW it came to páss on the thírd day that Es'ther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over ágainst' the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal thrõne in the royal house, over ágainst' the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Es'ther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Es'ther the golden scèptre that was in his hand. So Es'ther drew near, and tõiuched the top of the scèptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Es'ther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Es'ther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Hã'mãn come this day unto the bãn'quët² that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Hã'mãn to make haste, that he may do as Es'ther bath said. So the king and Hã'mãn came to the bãnquet that Es'ther had prepared.

6 And the king said unto Es'ther at the bãnquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be grãnted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be pèrfõrm'ed.

7 Then answered Es'ther, and said, My petition and my request is;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grãnt my petition, and to pèrfõrm' my request, let the king and Hã'mãn come to the bãnquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said.

9 Then went Hã'mãn forth that day joyful and with a glad heàrt: but when Hã'mãn saw Mór'de-çái in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation ágainst' Mór'de-çái.

10 Nevertheless, Hã'mãn refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zè'rèsh his wife.

11 And Hã'mãn told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him ábõve the princes and sèrvants of the king.

12 Hã'mãn said moreover, Yea, Es'ther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the bãnquet that she had prepared but myself; and to-morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet all this ávãileth me nóthing, so long as I see Môr'de-çai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 Then said Zê'rêsh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to-morrow speak thou unto the king that Môr'de-çai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Hâ'mân; and he caused the gallows to be made.

CHAP. VI.

ON that night could not the king sleep; and he cômmand'ed to bring the book of rêc'ords of the Çhrôn'i-çes; and they wêre read before the king.

2 And it was found written, That Môr'de-çai had told of Big'tha-nâ and Tê'rêsh, two of the king's çâm'bêrlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king ã-hâç-û-ê'rûs.

3 And the king said, What hôn'our and dignity hath been done to Môr'de-çai for this? Then said the king's sêrvants that ministered unto him, There is nôthing done for him.

4 And the king said, Who is in the court? (Now Hâ'mân was come into the ôût'wârd court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Môr'de-çai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the king's sêrvants said unto him, Behold, Hâ'mân standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Hâ'mân came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to hôn'our? (Now Hâ'mân thought in his hêart, To whom would the king delight to do hôn'our more than to mysêlf?)

7 And Hâ'mân answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to hôn'our,

8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king usêth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown-royal which is set upon his head:

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to hôn'our, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to hôn'our.

10 Then the king said to Hâ'mân, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Môr'de-çai the Jew that sitteth at the king's gate: let nôthing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Hâ'mân the apparel, and the horse, and arrayed Môr'de-çai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to hôn'our.

12 And Môr'de-çai came âgain' to the king's gate: but Hâ'mân hastened to his house mourning, and having his head cöved.

13 And Hâ'mân told Zê'rêsh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zê'rêsh his wife unto him, If Môr'de-çai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail âgainst' him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they wêre yet talking with him, came the king's çâm'bêrlains, and hastened to bring Hâ'mân unto the banquet that Ës'thêr had prepared.

CHAP. VII.

SO the king and Hâ'mân came to banquet with Ës'thêr the queen.

2 And the king said âgain' unto Ës'thêr, on the second day, at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Ës'thêr? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be pêrforn'ed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Ës'thêr the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request.

4 For we âre sold, I and my people, to be dêstrôy'ed, to be slain, and to perish: but if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tóngue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

5 Then the king ã-hâç-û-ê'rûs answered and said unto Ës'thêr the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst prêçûme in his hêart to do so?

6 And Ës'thêr said, The âd'vêrsary and enemy is this wicked Hâ'mân. Then Hâ'mân was âfrâid before the king and the queen.

7 And the king, ârîçing from the banquet of wine in his wrâth, went into the palace-gârden: and Hâ'mân stood up to make request for his life to Ës'thêr the queen; for he saw that there was evil dêtêr'mined âgainst' him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace-gârden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Hâ'mân was fallen upon the bed whereon Ës'thêr was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they cöved Hâ'mân's face.

9 And Hâr-bô'nâh, one of the çâm'bêrlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Hâ'mân had made for Môr'de-çai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Hā'mān. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Hā'mān on the gallows that he had prepared for Mōr'de-çai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

CHAP. VIII.

ON that day did the king Ā-hāš-ū-ē'rūs give the house of Hā'mān, the Jews' enemy, unto Ēs'théer the queen: and Mōr'de-çai came before the king; for Ēs'théer had told what he was unto her.

2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Hā'mān, and gave it unto Mōr'de-çai. And Ēs'théer set Mōr'de-çai over the house of Hā'mān.

3 And Ēs'théer spake yet again' before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Hā'mān the Ā'gāg-ite, and his device that he had devised against' the Jews.

4 Then the king held out the golden sceptre tō'wārd Ēs'théer. So Ēs'théer arose, and stood before the king,

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Hā'mān the son of Hām-méd'a-thā the Ā'gāg-ite, which he wrote to destrōy' the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

7 Then the king Ā-hāš-ū-ē'rūs said unto Ēs'théer the queen, and to Mōr'de-çai the Jew, Behold, I have given Ēs'théer the house of Hā'mān, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

9 Then wére the king's scribes called at that time in the third mōnth, that is, the mōnth Sī'vān, on the three and twentieth day thereof: and it was written, according to all that Mōr'de-çai cōmmānded, unto the Jews, and to the liētēn'ānts, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from Īn'di-ā unto Ē-thi-ō-pi-ā, a hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And he wrote in the king Ā-hāš-ū-ē'rūs' name, and sealed it with the king's ring; and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young drōm'edaries:

11 Wherein the king grānted the Jews which wére in every city to gather themselves togēther, and to stand for their life, to destrōy', to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey,

12 Upon one day, in all the provinces of king Ā-hāš-ū-ē'rūs, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth mōnth, which is the mōnth Ā'dār.

13 The copy of the writing, for a cōmmāndment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against' that day to āvēnge' themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's cōmmāndment. And the decree was given at Shū'shān the palace.

15 And Mōr'de-çai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a gārmēt of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shū'shān rejoiced and was glad.

16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and hōn'our.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's cōmmāndment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

CHAP. IX.

NOW in the twelfth mōnth, that is the mōnth Ā'dār, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's cōmmāndment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them,)

2 The Jews gathered themselves togēther in their cities, throughout all the provinces of the king Ā-hāš-ū-ē'rūs, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt; and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the liētēn'ānts, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mōr'de-çai fell upon them.

4 For Mōr'de-çai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mōr'de-çai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shū'shān the palace the Jews slew and destrōy'ed five hundred men,

7 And Pār-shān'da-thā, and Dāl'phōn, and Āš'pa-thā,

8 And Pōr'a-thā, and Ād-a-lī'ā, and Ā-rid'a-thā,

9 And Pār-māsh'tā, and Ā-rīs'a-ī, and Ā-rid'a-ī, and Va-jēz'a-thā,

10 The ten sons of Hā'mān, the son of Hām-mēd'a-thā, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that wēre slain in Shū'shān the palace was brought before the king.

12 And the king said unto Ēs'thēr the queen, The Jews have slain and destrōy'ed five hundred men in Shū'shān the palace, and the ten sons of Hā'mān; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is thy petition? and it shall be grānted thee; or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Ēs'thēr, If it please the king, let it be grānted to the Jews which are in Shū'shān to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Hā'mān's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king cōmmānd'ed it so to be done; and the decree was given at Shū'shān; and they hanged Hā'mān's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that wēre in Shū'shān gāthered themselves togēther on the fourteenth day also of the month Ā'dār, and slew three hundred men at Shū'shān; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that wēre in the king's provinces gāthered themselves togēther, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand (but they laid not their hands on the prey)

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Ā'dār: and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that wēre at Shū'shān assembled togēther on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Thēre'fōre the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Ā'dār a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending pōrtions one to ānōther.

20 And Mōr'de-çāi wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that wēre in all the provinces of the king Ā-hāš-ū-ē-rūs, both nigh and far,

21 To stablish this āmōng them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Ā'dār, and the fifteenth day of the same yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending pōrtions one to ānōther, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mōr'de-çāi had written unto them;

24 Because Hā'mān the son of Hām-mēd'a-thā the Ā'gāg-ite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised āgainst' the Jews to destrōy' them, and had cāst Pūr (that is, the lot) to consume them, and to destrōy' them:

25 But when Ēs'thēr came before the king, he cōmmānd'ed by letters, that his wicked device, which he devised āgainst' the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Pūr'im, āfter the name of Pūr: thēre'fōre, for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen cōncērn'ing this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ōrdāin'ed, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time, every year;

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Pūr'im should not fail from āmōng the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

29 Then Ēs'thēr the queen, the dāughter of Āb-i-hā'il, and Mōr'de-çāi the Jew, wrote with all authority, to cōnfirm¹ this second letter of Pūr'im.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ā-hāš-ū-ē-rūs, with words of peace and truth,

31 To cōnfirm' these days of Pūr'im in their times appointed, according as Mōr'de-çāi the Jew and Ēs'thēr the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves, and for their seed, the matters of the fāst'ings and their cry.

32 And the decree of Ēs'thēr confirmed these matters of Pūr'im; and it was written in the book.

CHAP. X.

AND the king Ā-hāṣ-ū-ē'rūs laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.

2 And all the acts of his power, and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mōr'de-cāi, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the Ch'rōn'i-cles of the kings of Mē'di-ā and Pēr'si-ā?

3 For Mōr'de-cāi the Jew was next unto king Ā-hāṣ-ū-ē'rūs, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

CHAPTER I.

THERE was a man in the land of Ūz, whose name was Jōb; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

3 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-āsses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters, to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Jōb sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all: for Jōb said,¹ It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Jōb continually.

6 ¶ Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Sā'tān came also among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Sā'tān, Whence comest thou? Then Sā'tān answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Sā'tān, Hast thou considered my servant Jōb, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

9 Then Sā'tān answered the LORD, and said, Dóth Jōb fear God for nought?

10 Hast thou not made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land:

11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Sā'tān, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Sā'tān went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Jōb, and said, The oxen were ploughing, and the asses feeding beside them;

15 And the Sa-be'āns fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chāl-dē'āns made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Jōb arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,

21 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this Jōb sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

CHAP. II.

AGAIN² there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Sā'tān came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

² ū-gēn'.

2 And the LORD said unto Sā'tān, From whence comest thou? And Sā'tān answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD said unto Sā'tān, Hast thou considered my sērvant Jōb, that there is none like him in the earth, a pērfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fāst his integrity, although thou movedst me āgainst' him, to dēstrōy' him without cause.

4 And Sā'tān answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin; yēa, all that a man hath will he give for his life:

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 And the LORD said unto Sā'tān, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life.

7 ¶ So went Sā'tān forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Jōb with sore boils, from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a pōt'shērd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down āmōng the ashes.

9 Then said his wife unto him, Dōst thou still retain thine integrity? Curse God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What! shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Jōb sin with his lips.

11 ¶ Now when Jōb's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Ēl'i-phāz the Tē'mān-ite, and Bil'dād the Shū'hite, and Zō'phār the Nā'ama-thīte: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him, and to cōm'fōrt him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes āfār off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads tō'wārd heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and nōne spake a word unto him: for they saw that his griēf was very great.

CHAP. III.—

AFTER this opened Jōb his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Jōb spake, and said,

3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man-child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from ābōve, nēither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness sēize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year; let it not come into the number of the mōnths.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary; let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who āre ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; nēither let it see the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mōther's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11 Why died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghōst when I came out of the belly?

12 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest,

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves;

15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or as a hidden untimely birth¹ I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

17 There the wicked cease from trōub'ling; and there the weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

19 The small and great āre there; and the sērvant is free from his māster.

20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul;

21 Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid trēas'ures;

22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and āre glad when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?

24 For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my roarings āre poured out like the waters.

25 For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was āfrāid of is come unto me.

26 I was not in safety, nēither had I rest, nēither was I quiet; yet trōuble came.

CHAP. IV.

THEN Ēl'i-phāz the Tē'mān-ite, answered and said,

2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be griēved? but who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous² cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, they that plough iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blāst of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.

13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, 14 Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit pass'ed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes; there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his Maker?

18 Behold, he put no trust in his servants; and his angels he charged with folly:

19 How much less in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20 They are destrōy'ed from morning to evening: they perish for ever, without any regarding it.

21 Dóth not their excellency which is in them go awāy? they die, even without wisdom.

CHAP. V.

CALL now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou turn?

2 For wrāth killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one.

3 I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swālloweth up their substance.

6 Although affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither dóth trouble spring out of the ground,

7 Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly up'ward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause;

9 Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvellous things without number:

10 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields:

11 To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the frō'ward is carried headlong.

14 They meet with darkness in the day-time, and grope in the noon-day as in the night.

15 But he saveth the poor from the swōrd, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

16 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth; therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Āl-migh'ty.

18 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up; he wōund'eth,² and his hands make whole.

19 He shall deliver thee in six troubles; yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death; and in war from the power of the swōrd.

21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tóngue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the fiēld; and the beasts of the fiēld shall be at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not sin.

25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.

26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season.

27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it for thy good.

² rhyming with bóund, sóund, &c.

CHAP. VI.

BUT Jōb answered and said,
2 Oh that my grief wēre thoroughly weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances togēther!

3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: thērē'fōre my words āre swallowed up.

4 For the arrows of the Āl-mīgh'ty āre within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God do set themselves in array āgainst' me.

5 Dōth the wild āss bray when he hath grāss? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch āre as my sorrowful meat.

8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grānt me the thing that I long for;

9 Even that it would please God to dēstrōy' me; that he would let lōdse his hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have cōm'fōrt; yēa, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for I have not concealed the words of the Hōly One.

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brāss?

13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

14 To him that is afflicted pity should be showed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Āl-mīgh'ty.

15 My brēthren have dealt decēitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pāss āwāy;

16 Which āre blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:

17 What time they wax warm they vanish: when it is hot, they āre consumed out of their place.

18 The pāths of their way āre turned āside; they go to nōthing, and perish.

19 The troops of Tēmā looked, the cōmpānies of Shēbā waited for them.

20 They wēre confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and wēre āshāmed.

21 For now ye āre nōthing; ye see my cās'ting down, and āre āfrāid.

22 Did I say, Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance?

23 Or, Deliver me from the enemies' hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

24 Teach me, and I will hold my tōngue; and cause me to understand wherein I have ērred.

25 How forcible āre right words! but what dōth your arguing reprove?

26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which āre as wind?

27 Yēa, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now, thērē'fōre, be content; look upon me: for it is evident unto you if I lie.

29 Return, I pray you, let it not be in iniquity; yēa, return āgain', my righteous ness is in it.

30 Is there iniquity in my tōngue? cannot my taste dīſcern' pērvēse' things?

CHAP. VII.

IS there not an appointed time to man upon ēarth? āre not his days also like the days of a hireling?

2 As a sērvant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as a hireling looketh for the reward of his work;

3 So am I made to pōssēs' mōnths of vanity, and wearisome nights āre appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I ārise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with wōrms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 My days āre swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and āre spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes āre upon me, and I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth āwāy; so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, nēither shall his place know him any more.

11 Thērē'fōre I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a wātch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall cōm'fōrt me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then thou scārest me with dreams, and terriest me through visions:

15 So that my soul chōdōgeth strangling, and death rather than my life.

16 I loathe it: I would not live alway: let me ālōne; for my days āre vanity.

17 What is man that thou shouldst magnify him? and that thou shouldst set thine hēart upon him?

18 And that thou shouldst visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me ālōne till I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have sinned ; what shall I do unto thee, O thou Prēšērv'er of men ? why hast thou set me as a mark āgainst' thee, so that I am a burden to mysēlf ?

21 And why dōst thou not pardon my transgression, and take āwāy mine iniquity ? for now shall I sleep in the dust ; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAP. VIII.

THEN ānswēred Bi'dād the Shū'hite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things ? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind ?

3 Dóth God pērvērt' judgment ? or Jóth the Āl-migh'ty pērvērt' justice ?

4 If thy children have sinned āgainst' him, and he have cāst them āwāy for their transgression ;

5 If thou wouldst seek unto God be-times, and make thy supplication to the Āl-migh'ty ;

6 If thou wērt pure and upright ; surely now he would āwāke for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the sēarch of their fathers :

9 (For we āre but of yēs'tērdāy, and know nōthing, because our days upon ēarth āre a shadow :)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their hēart ?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire ? can the flag grow without water ?

12 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other hērb.

13 So āre the pāths of all that forget God ; and the h̄yp'ocrite's hope shall perish :

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand : he shall hold it fāst, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his brānch shooteth forth in his gārdēn.

17 His roots āre wrāppēd ābout' the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 If he dēstrōy' him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the ēarth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cāst āwāy a pērfect man, nēither will he help the evil-doers ;

21 'Till he fill thy mouth with laugh-ing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame ; and the dwelling-place of the wicked shall come to nought.

CHAP. IX.

THEN Jōb ānswēred and said, 2 I know it is so of a truth : but how should man be just with God ?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot ānswēr him one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in hēart, and mighty in strength : who hath hardened himself āgainst' him, and hath prospered ?

5 Which removeth the mōūn'tains, and they know not ; which overturneth them in his anger ;

6 Which shaketh the ēarth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble ;

7 Which cōmmāndeth the sun, and it riseth not, and sealeth up the stars ;

8 Which ālōne spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea ;

9 Which maketh Ārç-tūrūs, Ō-rī'ōn, and Plēi'a-dēs,¹ and the chāmbērs of the south ;

10 Which doeth great things pāst finding out, yēa, and wōndērs without number.

11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not ; he pāsseth on also, but I percēive him not.

12 Behold, he taketh āwāy, who can hinder him ? who will say unto him, What doest thou ?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I ānswēr him, and chōōse out my words to reason with him ?

15 Whom, though I wēre rīgh'teous, yet would I not ānswēr, but I would make supplication to my Jūdge.

16 If I had called, and he had ānswēred me : yet would I not beliēve that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wōūnds without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong : and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead ?

20 If I justify mysēlf, mine own mouth shall condemn me : if I say, I am pērfect, it shall also prove me pērvērsē'.

21 Though I wēre pērfect, yet would I not know my soul : I would dēspīse' my life.

22 This is one thing, thērē'fōre I said it, He dēstrōy'eth the pērfect and the wicked.

23 If the scōūrgē slay suddenly, he will laūgh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The ēarth is given into the hand of the wicked : he cōvereth the faces of the judges thereof ; if not, where, and who is he ?

25 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

26 They are passed away as the swift ships; as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself;

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?

30 If I wash myself with snow-water, and make my hands never so clean;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

33 Neither is there any days-man betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me;

35 Then would I speak, and not fear him: but it is not so with me.

CHAP. X.

MY soul is weary of my life: I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; show me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldst oppress, that thou shouldst despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,

6 That thou inquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

7 Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

8 Thine hands have made me, and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, wo unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction;

16 For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion; and again thou showest thyself marvellous upon me.

17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 Are not my days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,

21 Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;

22 A land of darkness, as darkness itself: and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

CHAP. XI.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

5 But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;

6 And that he would show thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know, therefore, that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

7 Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

10 If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?

11 For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also: will he not then consider it?

12 For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

13 If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it.

far āwāy, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yēa, thou shalt be stēadfast, and shalt not fear:

16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pāss āwāy:

17 And thine age shall be clearer than the noon-day; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yēa, thou shalt dig ābout thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and nōne shall make thee āfrāid; yēa, many shall make suit unto thee.

20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not ēscāpe, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghōst.

CHAP. XII.

AND Jōb ānswered and said, 2 No doubt but ye āre the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferiour to you: yēa, who knoweth not such things as these?

4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he ānswereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp dēspīsed in the thought of him that is at ease.

6 The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God āre secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

7 But āsk now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the ēarth, and it shall teach thee; and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these, that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mākīnd?¹

11 Dōth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat?

12 With the āncient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

13 With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built āgain; he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up; also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the ēarth.

16 With him is strength and wisdom: the dēcīved and the dēcēiver āre his.

17 He leadeth counsellors āwāy spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.

² gērd'eth

18 He lōdseth the bond of kings, and girdeth² their loins with a gir'dle.³

19 He leadeth princes āwāy spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

20 He removeth āwāy the speech of the trusty, and taketh āwāy the understanding of the aged.

21 He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

22 He dīscōvereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 He increaseth the nations, and dēstrōy'eth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them āgain'.

24 He taketh āwāy the heart of the chief of the people of the ēarth, and causeth them to wānder in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

CHAP. XIII.

LO, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferiour unto you.

3 Surely I would speak to the Āl-mīgh'ty, and I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye āre fōrgers of lies, ye āre all physicians of no value.

5 O that you would āltogēther hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk dēcēitfully for him?

8 Will ye accept his pērsōn? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should sēarch you out? or, as one man mocketh ānōther, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept pērsōns.

11 Shall not his excellency make you āfrāid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances āre like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me ālōne, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintāin⁴ mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for a hŷp'ōcrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

19 Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tōngue, I shall gīve up the ghōst.

⁴ mēn-tāne'.

20 Only do not two things unto me ; then will I not hide myself from thee.

21 Withdraw thine hand far from me ; and let not thy dread make me afraid :

22 Then call thou, and I will answer ; or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are my iniquities and sins ? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy ?

25 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro ? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble ?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess' the iniquities of my youth.

27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths ; thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth-eaten.

CHAP. XIV.

MAN that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down : he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such a one, and bringest me into judgment with thee ?

4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean ? not one.

5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee ; thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass :

6 Turn from him that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again', and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground ;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and wasteth away ; yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he ?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up ;

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not : till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 Oh that thou wouldst hide me in the grave, that thou wouldst keep me secret until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldst appoint me a set time, and remember me !

14 If a man die, shall he live again' ? All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.

15 Thou shalt call ; and I will answer thee thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 For now thou numberest my steps ; dost thou not watch over my sin ?

17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones : thou wāshest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth ; and thou destrōyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailtest for ever against him ; and he passeth : thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not ; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

CHAP. XV.

THEN answered Ēl'i-phāz the Tē'mānite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind ?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk ? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good ?

4 Yea, thou castest off fear, and restrainest prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou chōdest the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I ; yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born ? or wast thou made before the hills ?

8 Hast thou heard the secret of God ? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself ?

9 What knowest thou, that we know not ? what understandest thou, which is not in us ?

10 With us are both the gray-headed and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee ? is there any secret thing with thee ?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away ? and what do thine eyes wink at,

13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth ?

14 What is man, that he should be clean ? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous ?

15 Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints ; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight :

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water ?

17 I will show thee, hear me ; and that which I have seen I will declare ;

18 Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it :

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 A dreadful sound is in his ears : in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers;

27 Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness: the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity; for vanity shall be his recompense.

32 It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

CHAP. XVI.

THEN Jôb answered and said,

2 I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.

3 Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you.

5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief.

6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged; and though I forbear, what am I eased?

7 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

9 He teareth me in his wrath who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.

11 God hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.

13 His archers compass me round about; he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach; he runneth upon me like a giant.

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on mine eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.

19 Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high.

20 My friends scorn me; but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.

21 Oh that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour!

22 When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

CHAP. XVII.

MY breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me.

2 Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye continue in their provocation?

3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath made me also a by-word of the people, and aforetime I was as a tabret.

7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be astonished¹ at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against' the hyp'ocrite.

9 The righ'teous² also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.

11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day: the light is short because of darkness.

13 If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

14 I have said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother and my sister.

15 And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

16 They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our rest together is in the dust.

CHAP. XVIII.

THEN answered Bil'dād the Shū'hīte, and said,

2 How long *will it be ere*³ you make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak.

3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?

4 He teareth himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for thee? and shall the rock be removed out of his place?

5 Yēa, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

6 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him.

7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down.

8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.

9 The gin shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall prevail against' him.

10 The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.

12 His strength shall be hunger-bitten, and destruction shall be ready at his side.

13 It shall devour the strength of his skin: even the first-born of death shall devour his strength.

14 His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle; and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.

15 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

16 His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.

17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.

18 He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

19 He shall neither have son nor nephew⁴ among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.

20 They that come after him shall be astonished at his day, as they that went before were affrighted.

21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

CHAP. XIX.

THEN Jōb answered and said, 2 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

3 These ten times have ye reproached me: you are not ashamed that ye make yourselves strange to me.

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

5 If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against' me, and plead against' me my reproach;

6 Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

8 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

9 He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.

11 He hath also kindled his wrath against' me, and he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies.

12 His troops come together, and raise up their way against' me, and encamp round about' my tabernacle.

13 He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

14 My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer: I entreated him with my mouth.

17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I entreated for the children's sake of mine own body.

18 Yēa, young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against' me.

19 All my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.

20 My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.

22 Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 O that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!

25 For I know that my Rē-dēem'ér liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

26 And though, after my skin, worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God:

27 Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.

28 But ye should say, Why persecute we him? seeing the root of the matter is found in me.

29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgment.

CHAP. XX.

THEN answered Zō'phār the Nā'a-mā-thīte, and said,

2 Thērefōre do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste.

3 I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

4 Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth,

5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hÿp'ocrite but for a moment?

6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds:

7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found; yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

9 The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.

10 His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.

11 His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;

13 Though he spare it, and forsake it not, but keep it still within his mouth;

14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of āsps within him.

JOB. Job showeth he hath reason to be grieved.

15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.

16 He shall suck the poison of āsps: the viper's tongue shall slay him.

17 He shall not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of hōney and butter.

18 That which he laboured for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.

19 Because he hath oppressed and hath forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away a house which he builded not;

20 Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that which he desired.

21 There shall none of his meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.

23 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.

26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places; a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

27 The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

CHAP. XXI.

BUT Jōb answered and said,

2 Hear diligently my speech; and let this be your consolations.

3 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?

5 Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow cālveth, and cāsteth not her cālf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dānce.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

14 Thēre'fore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 What is the Āl-mīgh'ty, that we should sērve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God distributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 They āre as stubble before the wind, and as chāff that the storm carrieth āwāy.

19 God layeth up his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrāth of the Āl-mīgh'ty.

21 For what pleās'ure hath he in his house āfter him, when the number of his mōnths is cut off in the midst?

22 Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that āre high.

23 One dieth in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet:

24 His breasts āre full of milk, and his bones āre moistened with marrow.

25 And ānōther dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleās'ure.

26 They shall lie down ālike in the dust, and the wōrms shall cōver them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine āgainst' me.

28 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where āre the dwelling-places of the wicked?

29 Have ye not āsked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens,

30 That the wicked is resērvēd to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrāth.

31 Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw āfter him, as there āre innumerable before him.

34 How then cōm'fōrt ye me in vain, seeing in your ānswers there remaineth falsehood?

CHAP. XXII.

THEN Ēl'i-phāz the Tē'mān-ite ānswered and said,

2 Can a man be profitable unto God, as that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 Is it any pleās'ure to the Āl-mīgh'ty that thou art rīgh'teous? or is it gain to him that thou makest thy ways pērfect?

4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brōther for nought, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for the mighty man, he had the ēārth; and the hōnourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows āwāy empty; and the arms of the fatherless have been broken:

10 Thēre'fore snares āre round ābout' thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cōver thee.

12 Is not God in the hēight of heaven? and, behold, the hēight of the stars, how high they āre!

13 And thou sayest, How dóth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14 Thick clouds āre a cōv'ering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the cir'cuit ¹ of heaven.

15 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden;

16 Which wēre cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a flood;

17 Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Āl-mīgh'ty do for them?

18 Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 The righteous see it, and āre glad; and the innocent lāugh them to scorn.

20 Whereas our substance is not cut down: but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.

22 Recēive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine hēart.

23 If thou return to the Āl-mīgh'ty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put āwāy iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

24 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ō'phīr as the stones of the brooks.

25 Yēa, the Āl-mīgh'ty shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Āl-mīgh'ty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be estāb'lished unto thee; and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 When men are cāst down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the hūmble pērsōn.

30 He shall deliver the island of the innocent; and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

CHAP. XXIII.

THEN Jōb ānswered and said,
2 Even to-day is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the words which he would ānswer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

6 Will he plead āgainst' me with his great power? no; but he would put strength in me.

7 There the right'eous¹ might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

8 Behold, I go fōr'wārd, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot pērcēve him:

9 On the left hand, where he dōth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:

10 But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

11 My foot hath held his steps: his way have I kept, and not declined.

12 Nēither have I gone back from the cōmmānd'ment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

13 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

14 For he pērfōrm'eth the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things āre with him.

15 Thērē'fore am I trōubled at his presence; when I consider, I am āfrāid of him.

16 For God maketh my hēart soft, and the Āl-mīgh'ty trōubleth me:

17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, nēither hath he cōvered the darkness from my face.

CHAP. XXIV.

WH^Y, seeing times āre not hidden from the Āl-mīgh'ty, do they that know him not see his days?

2 Some remove the land-marks; they violently take āwāy flocks, and feed thereof;

3 They drive āwāy the āss of the fatherless; they take the widow's ox for a pledge;

4 They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the ēarth hide themselves gēther.

5 Behold, as wild āsses in the dēs'ērt, go they forth to their work, rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yūildeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap every one his corn in the fiēld, and they gāther the vin'tage² of the wicked;

7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no cōv'ering in the cold;

8 They āre wet with the showers of the mōūn'tains, and embrace the rock for wānt of a shelter;

9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor;

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take āwāy the sheaf from the hungry;

11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their wine-presses, and suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wōunded crieth out; yet God layeth not folly to them.

13 They āre of those that rebel āgainst the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor ābide in the pāths thereof.

14 The murderer, rising with the light, killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thiēf.

15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me; and dīsguīseth his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the day-time: they know not the light.

17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they āre in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the ēarth: he beholdeth not the way of the vine'yards.

19 Drōught³ and heat consume the snow-waters; so dōth the grave those which have sinned.

20 The womb shall forget him; the wōrm shall feed sweetly on him: he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

21 He evil entreateth the barren that beareth not, and doeth not good to the widow.

22 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

CHAP. XXV.

THEN answered Bil'dād the Shū'hīte, and said,

2 Dominion and fear are with him; he maketh peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise?

4 How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 Behold, even to the moon, and it shineth not; yēa, the stars are not pure in his sight:

6 How much less man, that is a worm, and the son of man, which is a worm?

CHAP. XXVI.

BUT Jōb answered and said,

2 How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?

4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

5 Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.

6 Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no cōv'ering.

7 He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

8 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.

9 He holdeth back the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloud upon it.

10 He hath cōm'passed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end.

11 The pillars of heaven tremble, and are astonished at his reproof.

12 He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.

13 By his Spir'it he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked sērpent.

14 Lo, these are parts of his ways; but how little a pōrtion is heard of him? but the thunder of his power who can understand?

CHAP. XXVII.

MOREOVER, Jōb continued his parable, and said,

2 As God liveth, who hath taken āwāy my judgment; and the Āl-mīgh'ty, who hath vexed my soul;

3 All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils,

4 My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tōngue utter deceit.

5 God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove my integrity from me.

6 My righteousness I hold fāst, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up āgainst' me as the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the hŷp'ocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh āwāy his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Āl-mīgh'ty? will he always call upon God?

11 I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Āl-mīgh'ty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus āltogēther vain?

13 This is the pōrtion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Āl-mīgh'ty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the swōrd; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death; and his widows shall not weep.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house as a mōth, and as a bōth that the keeper maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him āwāy in the night.

21 The east wind carrieth him āwāy and he departeth; and, as a storm, hurl-eth him out of his place.

22 For God shall cāst upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

SURELY there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.

3 He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away for men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread; and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires;¹ and it hath dust of gold.

7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?

13 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.

14 The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 When then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.

22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;

25 To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

26 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder;

27 Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

28 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

CHAP. XXIX.

MOREOVER, Job continued his parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

3 When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;

6 When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil;

7 When I went out to the gate, through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street;

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

19 My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand.

21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

22 After my words they spake not āgain'; and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cāst not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that cōm'fōrteth the mourners.

CHAP. XXX.

BUT now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdāined to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yēa, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For wānt and famine they wēre solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste:

4 Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper-roots for their meat.

5 They wēre driven forth from among men, (they cried āfter them as āfter a thief,)

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they wēre gathered together.

8 They wēre children of fools, yēa, children of base men; they wēre viler than the earth.

9 And now am I their song; yēa, I am their by-word.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

11 Because he hath lōdōed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let lōdōe the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push āway my feet, and they raise up āgainst me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my pāth, they set fōr-wārd my calamity, they have no helper.

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking-in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind; and my welfare pāsseth āway as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me: the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are piērced in me in the night-season; and my sinews take no rest.

18 By the great force of my disease is my gārmēt chānged: it hindeth me ābout' as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cāst me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dōst not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself āgainst me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my substance.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

24 Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.

25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul griēved for the poor?

26 When I looked for good, then evil came unto me; and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boiled, and rested not; the days of affliction prevented me.

28 I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.

29 I am a brōther to dragons, and a companion to owls.

30 My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burnt with heat.

31 My harp also is turned to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.

CHAP. XXXI.—

I MADE a cōvenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what pōrtion of God is there from ābōve? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strānge punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Dōth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hasted to decēit;

6 Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked āfter mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to my hands;

8 Then let me sow, and let ānōther eat; yēa, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been decēived by a woman; or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;

10 Then let my wife grind unto ānōther, and let others bōw down upon her.

11 For this is a heinous crime; yēa, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

13 If I did despise' the cause of my man sērvant, or of my maid-sērvant, when they contended with me;

14 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and, when he visiteth, what shall I ānswer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

17 Or have eaten my môrsel¹ myself âlone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided her from my môther's womb;)

19. If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without còv'ering;

20 If his loins have not blèss'ed me, and if he wêre not wârmèd with the fleece of my sheep;

21 If I have lifted up my hand âgainst' the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate;

22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder-blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.

23 For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;

26 If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness,

27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 This also wêre an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is âbôve.

29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him;

30 (Nêither have I suffered my mouth to sin, by wishing a curse to his soul;)

31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

32 (The strânger did not lodge in the street; but I opened my doors to the traveller;)

33 If I còvered my transgressions as Âd'âm, by hiding mine iniquity in my bò'sôm;

34 (Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?)

35 Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is that the Âl-mîgh'ty would ânswer me, and that mine âd'vèrsary had wri'tten a book:

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me.

37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near unto him.)

38 If my land cry âgainst' me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain;

39 If I have eaten the fruits thereof without mòney, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life;

40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of bårley. The words of Jôb are ended.

CHAP. XXXII.

SO these three men ceased to ânswer Jôb, because he was rîgh'teous² in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wra'th of Ē-lî'hû, the son of Bâr'a-çhêl the Bûz'ite, of the kindred of Râm; âgainst' Jôb was his wra'th kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.

3 Also âgainst' his three friends was his wra'th kindled, because they had found no ânswer, and yet had condemned Jôb.

4 Now Ē-lî'hû had waited till Jôb had spoken, because they wêre elder than he.

5 When Ē-lî'hû saw that there was no ânswer in the mouth of these three men, then his wra'th was kindled.

6 And Ē-lî'hû, the son of Bâr'a-çhêl the Bûz'ite, ânswered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was âfrâid, and durst not show you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man; and the inspiration of the Âl-mîgh'ty giveth them understanding.

9 Great men are not always wise; nêither do the aged understand judgment.

10 Thêrê'fore I said, Hearken to me; I also will show mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye sêarched out what to say.

12 Yêa, I attended unto you; and, behold, there was nône of you that convinced Jôb, or that ânswered his words:

13 Lést ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now, he hath not dirêcted his words âgainst' me; nêither will I ânswer him with your speeches.

15 They wêre âmâzed; they ânswered no more; they left off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and ânswered no more,)

17 I said, I will ânswer also my part; I also will show mine opinion.

18 For I am full of matter; the spirit within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 I will speak, that I may be reîfresh-ed: I will open my lips, and ânswer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person; neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my Māk'er would soon take me āwāy.

CHAP. XXXIII.

WHEREFORE, Jōb, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tōngue hath spoken in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightnes of my heart; and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The Spir'it of God hath made me, and the breath of the Āl-migh'ty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up;

6 Behold, I am according to thy wish in God's stead; I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee āfrāid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy;

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13 Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh once, yea, twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed,

16 Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction,

17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an inter'preter, one among a thousand, to show unto man his uprightnes;

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him; and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 He looketh upon men; and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

28 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man,

30 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Jōb; hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak; for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAP. XXXIV.

FURTHERMORE, Ē-lī'hū answered and said,

2 Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge:

3 For the ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat.

4 Let us chōōse to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Jōb hath said, I am righteous. and God hath taken away my judgment.

6 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.

7 What man is like Jōb, who drinketh up scorning like water;

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men?

9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therē'fore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: Far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Āl-migh'ty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Āl-migh'ty pervert judgment.

13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world?

14 If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;

15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this; hearken to the voice of my words:

17 Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man more than right, that he should enter into judgment with God.

24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men in the open sight of others;

27 Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways:

28 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

32 That which I see not, teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

33 Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

34 Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

35 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 My desire is, that Job may be tried unto the end, because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin; he clappeth his hands amongst us, and multiplieth his words against God.

CHAP. XXXV.

E-LI'HU spake moreover, and said,
2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

3 For thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds, which are higher than thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art, and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry; they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty:

10 But none saith, Where is God my Maker, who giveth songs in the night;

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.

15 But now, because it is not so, he hath visited in his anger; yet he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain: he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAP. XXXVI.

E-LI'HU also proceeded, and said,
2 Suffer me a little, and I will show thee that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the poor.

7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he showeth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and cōmmandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and sērve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in plēasūres :

12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hÿp'ocrites in hēart heap up wrāth; they cry not when he bindeth them :

14 They die in youth, and their life is āmōng the unclean.

15 He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression :

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked : judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrāth, beware lēst he take thee āwāy with his stroke : then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.

19 Will he ēstēem' thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people āre cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity : for this hast thou chosen rāther than affliction.

22 Behold, God exālteth by his power : who teacheth like him ?

23 Who hath enjoined him his way ? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity ?

24 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it ; man may behold it āfār off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not ; nēither can the number of his years be sēarched ont.

27 For he maketh small the drops of water : they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof,

28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle ?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and cōvereth the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them judgeth he the people ; he giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds he cōvereth the light ; and cōmmandeth it not to shine, by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 The noise thereof showeth cōncērning it, the cattle also cōncērning the vapour.

CHAP. XXXVII.

AT this also my hēart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He dirēcteth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the ēarth.

4 After it a voice roareth : he thundereth with the voice of his excellency ; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice ; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the ēarth ; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man, that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind ; and cold out of the north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given ; and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud ; he scattereth his bright cloud,

12 And it is turned round ābout' by his counsels ; that they may do whatsoever he cōmmandeth them upon the face of the world in the ēarth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mērcy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Jōb : stand still and consider the wōndrous works of God.

15 Dōst thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine ?

16 Dōst thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wōndrous works of him which is pērfect in knowledge ?

17 How thy gārments āre wārm, when he quieteth the ēarth by the south wind ?

18 Hast thou with him spread out the sky,² which is strong, and as a molten look'ing-glāss ?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him : for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak ? If a man speak, surely he shall be swālowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds ; but the wind pāsseth and cleanseth them.

22 Fair weather cometh out of the north : with God is terrible mājesty.³

23 Toūch'ing the Al-mighty, we cannot find him out : he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice : he will not afflict.

24 Men do there'fore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

THEN the LORD answered Jōb out of the whirlwind,¹ and said,

2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

3 Gird² up now thy loins like a man; for I will demānd' of thee, and answer thou me.

4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5 Who hath laid the mēasures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner-stone thereof,

7 When the morning-stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth as if it had issued out of the womb?

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swād'dling-bānd for it,

10 And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

12 Hast thou cōmmand'ed the morning since thy days; and caused the day-spring to know his place;

13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?

14 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

15 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken.

16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

17 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare, if thou knowest it all.

19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof, 20 That thou shouldst take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldst know the pāths to the house thereof?

21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?

22 Hast thou entered into the trēasures of the snow, or hast thou seen the trēasures of the hail,

23 Which I have reserved āgainst' the time of trouble, āgainst' the day of battle and war?

24 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

25 Who hath divided a water-course for the overflowing of waters; or a way for the lightning of thunder;

26 To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

27 To satisfy the desolate and waste ground, and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

28 Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

29 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

31 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Plei'a-dēs,³ or lōse the bands of ō-rī'ōn?⁴

32 Canst thou bring forth Māz'za-rōth⁵ in his season? or canst thou guide Arç-tū-rūs⁶ with his sons?

33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cōver thee?

35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?

36 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven, 38 When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?

39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions, 40 When they cōuch in their dens, and abide in the cōvert to lie in wait?

41 Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wānder for lack of meat.

CHAP. XXXIX.

KNOWEST thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

CHAP. XL.

MOREOVER, the LORD answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

4 Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay my hand upon my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken, but I will not answer; yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 ¶ Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind,² and said,

7 Gird³ up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayst be righteous?

9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

10 Deck thyself now with majesty⁴ and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath; and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together, and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 Behold now behemoth,⁵ which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the cōvert of the reed, and fens.

22 The shady trees cōver him with their shadow; the willows of the brook cōm'pāss him ābout'.

23 Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jōr'dān into his mouth.

24 He taketh it with his eyes: his nose piērceth through snares.

CHAP. XLI.

CANST thou draw out *lĕvī'athān*¹ with a hook? or his tōngue with a cord which thou lettest down?

2 Canst thou put a hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

4 Will he make a cōvenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a sĕrvant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall thy companions make a bān'quet² of him? shall they part him āmōng the mĕrchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish-spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cāst down even at the sight of him?

10 Nōne is so fiērcē that dare stīr him up; who then is able to stand before me?

11 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can dīscōver the face of his gārment? or who can come to him with his dōuble bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth āre terrible round ābout'.

15 His scales āre his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to ānōther, that no air can come between them.

17 They āre joined one to ānōther, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 By his neesings a light dōth shine, and his eyes āre like the ey-lids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething-pot or cāl'dron.

21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 The flakes of his flesh āre joined together: they āre firm³ in themselves they cannot be moved.

24 His hĕārt is as firm as a stone; yĕā, as hard as a piēce of the nĕther millstone.

25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty āre āfrāid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.

26 The swōrd of him that layeth at him cannot hold; the spear, the dart, nor the hā-bĕr'gĕ-ōn.

27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brāss as rotten wood.

28 The arrow cannot make him flee: sling-stones āre turned with him into stubble.

29 Darts āre counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.

30 Sharp stones āre under him: he spreadeth sharp-pointed things upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

32 He maketh a pāth to shine āfter him; one would think the deep to be hoary.

33 Upon ĕāth there is not his like, who is made without fear.

34 He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

CHAP. XLII.

THEN Jōb ānswered the LORD, and said,

2 I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.

3 Who is he that hideth counsel with out knowledge? thĕrĕ'fōre have I uttered that I understood not; things too wōnderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will dĕmānd' of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have hĕārd of thee by the hearing of the ear; but now mine eye seeth thee:

6 Wherefore I abhor mysĕlf, and repent in dust and ashes.

7 ¶ And it was so, that, āfter the LORD had spoken these words unto Jōb, the LORD said to Ēl'i-phāz the Tĕ'mān-ite, My wrāth is kindled āgāinst' thee, and āgāinst' thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my sĕrvant Jōb hath.

8 Thĕrĕ'fōre take you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my sĕrvant Jōb, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering; and my sĕrvant Jōb shall pray for you, for him will I accept; lĕst I deal with you āfter your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my sĕrvant Jōb.

9 ¶ So Ēl'i-phāz the Tĕ'mān-ite, and Bil'dād the Shū'hīte, and Zō'phār the Nā'a-mā-thīte, went, and did according as the LORD cōmmān'ded them: the LORD also accepted Jōb.

10 And the LORD turned the captivity of Jōb, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Jōb twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him all his brēthren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house; and they bemoaned him, and cōm'fōrted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piēce of mōney, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

12 So the LORD blēss'ed the latter end of Jōb more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-ässes.

13 He had also seven sons, and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first Jēm'i-mā; and the name of the second, Kē-zī'ā; and the name of the thīrd, Kēr-ēn-hāp'pūch.

15 And in all the land wēre no women found so fair as the daughters of Jōb: and their father gave them inheritance among their brēthren.

16 After this lived Jōb a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

17 So Jōb died, being old and full of days.

PSALM I.

BLES'SED is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful:

2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree plānted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are like the chāff which the wind driveth āwāy.

5 Thēre'fore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM II.

WHYY do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the ēarth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel togethēr, āgainst' the LORD, and āgainst' his Anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their bands āsūn'der, and cāst āwāy their cords from us.

4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wṛāth, and vex them in his sore displēaṣ'ure.

6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zi'ōn.

7 I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the ēarth for thy pōssēs'sion.

9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in piēces like a potter's vessel.

10 Be wise now, thēre'fore, O ye kings; be instructed, ye judges of the ēarth.

11 Sērve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wṛāth is kindled but a little. Blēss'ed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSALM III.

A Psālm of Dā'vid, when he fled from āb-sā-lōm his Son.

LORD, how are they increased that trouble me? many are they that rise up āgainst' me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. Sē'lāh.

3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.

4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Sē'lāh.

5 I laid me down and slept; I āwāked: for the LORD sustained me.

6 I will not be āfrāid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves āgainst' me round ābout'.

7 Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Sē'lāh.

PSALM IV.

To the chiēf Muṣi'ian on Nēg'i-nōth.

A Psālm of Dā'vid.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged

God favoureth not the wicked.

PSALMS. Dā'vid's complaint in his sickness

me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Sē'lāh.

3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Sē'lāh.

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness; and put your trust in the LORD.

6 There be many that say, Who will show us any good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM V.

To the chief Musiq'ian upon Nē-hilōth.

A Psalm of Dā'vid.

GIVE ear to my words, O LORD; consider my meditation.

2 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness; neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destrōy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy; and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

10 Destrōy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels: cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

PSALM VI.

To the chief Musiq'ian on Nēg'i-nōth upon Shēm'i-nith. A Psalm of Dā'vid.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, how long?

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: O save me for thy mercies' sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim: I water my couch with my tears.

7 Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity: for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The LORD hath heard my supplication: the LORD will receive my prayer.

10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

PSALM VII.

Shig-gā'ōn¹ of Dā'vid, which he sang unto the LORD, concerning the words of Cūsh the Bēn'ja-mite.

O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me;

2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yēa, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy);

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yēa, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine hōn'our in the dust. Sē'lāh.

6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger; lift up thyself, because of the rage of mine enemies; and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commended.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes, therefore, return thou on high.

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

Shig-gā'yōn.

10 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

11 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

14 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness; and will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

PSALM VIII.

To the chief Musiq'ian upon Gît'tith.

A Psalm of Dâ'vid.

O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thine enemies; that thou mightst still the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers; the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands: thou hast put all things under his feet:

7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9 O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM IX.

To the chief Musiq'ian upon Mûth-lâb'bên.

A Psalm of Dâ'vid.

I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will show forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained¹ my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destrôy'ed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy! destructions are come to a pèrpet'ual² end; and thou hast destrôy'ed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment;

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zî'on: declare among the people his doings.

12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

14 That I may show forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zî'on: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Hig-gâ'on.³ Sê'lâh.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

19 Arise, O LORD; let not man prevail; let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O LORD; that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Sê'lâh.

PSALM X.

WHY standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

² pèr-pè'tshû-âl.

³ Hig-gâ'yôn.

7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud; under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking-places of the villages; in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor.

9 He lieth in wait secretly, as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croûcheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it.

12 Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless.

15 Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

16 The LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear;

18 To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

PSALM XI.

To the chief Musiçian. A Psalm of Dā'vid.

IN the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

2 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eye-lids try, the children of men.

5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked, and him that loveth violence, his soul hateth.

6 Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and a horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.

1 rî'tshe-ûs.

PSALM XII.

To the chief Musiçian upon Shēm'i-nith. A Psalm of Dā'vid.

HELP, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart, do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things;

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

6 The words of the LORD are pure words; as silver tried in a furnace² of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve¹ them from this generation for ever.

8 The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

PSALM XIII.

To the chief Musiçian. A Psalm of Dā'vid.

HOW long wilt thou forget me, O LORD! for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God; lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

4 Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

5 But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the LORD, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

PSALM XIV.

To the chief Musiçian. A Psalm of Dā'vid.

THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt; they have done abominable works; there is none that doeth good.

2 The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

3 They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD.

2 fūr'nîs.

5 There wēre they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

6 Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor; because the LORD is his refuge.

7 Oh that the salvation of Iſ'ra-ēl wēre come out of Zi'ōn! When the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jā'cōb shall rejoice, and Iſ'ra-ēl shall be glad.

PSALM XV.

A Psālm of Dā'vid.

LORD, who shall ābide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 He that backbiteth not with his tōngue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach āgainst' his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes a vile pērson is contemned; but he hōn'oureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and chāngeth not.

5 He that putteth not out his mōney to usury, nor taketh reward āgainst' the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

PSALM XVI.

Mīch'tām of Dā'vid.

PRESERVE me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee;

3 But to the saints that are in the ēarth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after ānōther god: their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

5 The LORD is the pōrtion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

6 The lines are fallen unto me in plēas'ant places; yēa, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel; my reins also instruct me in the night-seasons.

8 I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

9 Thērē'fōre my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth; my flesh also shall rest in hope:

10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; nēither wilt thou suffer thine Hōly One to see corruption.

11 Thou wilt show me the pāth of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are plēas'ures for evermore.

PSALM XVII.

A Prayer of Dā'vid.

HEAR the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry; give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

3 Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nōthing: I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

4 Cōncēr'n'ing the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the pāths of the dēstrōy'er.

5 Hold up my goings in thy pāths, that my footsteps slip not.

6 I have called upon thee; for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

7 Show thy marvellous loving-kindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up āgainst' them.

8 Keep me as the apple of the eye; hide me under the shadow of thy wings,

9 From the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies who cōm'pāss me ābout'.

10 They are enclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

11 They have now cōm'pāssed us in our steps; they have set their eyes bōw'ing down to the ēarth;

12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it wēre a young lion lurking in secret places.

13 Ārīše, O LORD, disappoint him, cāst him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy swōrd:

14 From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their pōrtion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid trēas'ure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

15 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I āwāke with thy likeness.

PSALM XVIII.

To the chief Musīc'ian. A Psālm of Dā'vid, the sērvant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Sāul: and he said,¹

I WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The sorrows of death cōm'pāssed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me āfrāid.

5 The sorrows of hell cōm'pāssed me about'; the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he hēard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the ēarth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and wēre shaken, because he was wrōth.

8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals wēre kindled by it.

9 He bōwed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly; yēa, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place: his pavilion round ābout' him wēre dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds pāssed; hail-stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail-stones and coals of fire.

14 Yēa, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discōm'fited them.

15 Then the channels of waters wēre seen, and the foundations of the world wēre discōvered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blāst of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 He sent from ābōve, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they wēre too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

19 He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments wēre before me, and I did not put āwāy his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright before him, and I kept mysēlf from mine iniquity.

24 Thēre'fōre hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eye-sight.

25 With the mērciful thou wilt show thyself mērciful; with an upright man thou wilt show thyself upright;

26 With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure; and with the frō'wārd thou wilt show thyself frō'wārd.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.

28 For thou wilt light my candle; the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, his way is pērfect: the word of the LORD is tried; he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

31 For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

32 It is God that gird'eth¹ me with strength, and maketh my way pērfect.

33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet and setteth me upon my high places.

34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bōw of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also given me the shiēld of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: nēither did I turn āgain till they wēre consumed.

38 I have wōunded them that they wēre not able to rise: they āre fallen under my feet.

39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up āgainst' me.

40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies, that I might dēstrōy' them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was nōne to save them: even unto the LORD, but he ānswered them not.

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind; I did cāst them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall sērve me.

44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strāngers shall submit themselves unto me.

45 The strāngers shall fade āwāy, and be āfrāid out of their close places.

46 The LORD liveth; and blēs'sed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exālted.

47 It is God that āvēn'geth me, and subdueth the people under me.

¹ gērd'ēth.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies; yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

49 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

50 Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and showeth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

PSALM XIX.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

THE heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament¹ showeth his handy work.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard.

4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun;

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit² unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple:

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes:

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and the honey-comb.

11 Moreover, by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors! cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

PSALM XX.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

THE LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob defend thee.

2 Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion.

3 Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt-sacrifice. Selah.

4 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.

5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.

6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed: he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

8 They are brought down and fallen; but we are risen, and stand upright.

9 Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call.

PSALM XXI.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

THE king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!

2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.

3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days for ever and ever.

5 His glory is great in thy salvation: honour and majesty³ hast thou laid upon him.

6 For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.

7 For the king trusteth in the LORD; and, through the mercy of the Most High, he shall not be moved.

8 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies; thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against thee; they imagined a mischiefous device, which they are not able to perform:

12 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

PSALM XXII.—

To the chief Musician upon Aſſe-lēth. Shāhār. A Psalm of David.

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

³ *mād'jēs-te.*⁴ Ā'je-lēth.

2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; and in the night-season, and am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Īṣ'ra-ēl.

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered; they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

8 He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb; thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb; thou art my God from my mother's belly.

11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near; for there is none to help.

12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bā'shān have beset me round.

13 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 My strength is dried up like a pōt'shērd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For dogs have compassed me; the assembly of the wicked have enclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.

18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vēs'tūre.¹

19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD; O my strength, haste thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog.

21 Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.

22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

23 Ye that fear the LORD, praise him: all ye the seed of Jā'çōb, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Īṣ'ra-ēl.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard.

¹ vēs'tshūre.

25 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied; they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart shall live for ever.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember, and turn unto the LORD; and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

28 For the kingdom is the LORD's; and he is the governor among the nations.

29 All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him, and none can keep alive his own soul.

30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the LORD for a generation.

31 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

PSALM XXIII.

A Psalm of Dā'vid.

THE LORD is my shēp'hērd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pās'tures:² he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they cōm'fōrt me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

PSALM XXIV.

A Psalm of Dā'vid.

THE earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein:

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and estāb'lished it upon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? and who shall stand in his holy place?

4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jā'çōb. Sē'lāh.

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye evērlās'ting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye ēvērlās'ting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Sē'lāh.

PSALM XXV.

A Psālm of Dā'vid.

UNTO thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be āshāmed; let not mine enemies triumph over me.

3 Yēa, let nōne that wait on thee be āshāmed; let them be āshāmed which transgress without cause.

4 Show me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy pāths.

5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mē'r-cies, and thy loving-kindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me, for thy goodness' sake, O LORD.

8 Good and upright is the LORD: thērē'fōre will he teach sinners in the way.

9 The meek will he guide in judgment, and the meek will he teach his way.

10 All the pāths of the LORD are mē'r-cy and truth unto such as keep his cōve-nant and his tēs'timōnies.

11 For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

12 What man is he that feareth the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall chōdōse:

13 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the ēārth.

14 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will show them his cōve-nant.

15 Mine eyes are ever tō'wārds the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

16 Turn thee unto me, and have mē'r-cy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.

17 The trōubles of my heart are enlarg-ed: O bring thou me out of my distresses.

18 Look upon mine affliction, and my pain: and forgive all my sins.

19 Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hat-red.

20 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be āshāmed; for I put my trust in thee.

21 Let integrity and uprightness prē-serve me; for I wait on thee.

22 Redeem Iſ'ra-ēl, O God, out of all his trōubles sins, and for help in affliction.

PSALM XXVI.

A Psālm of Dā'vid.

JUDGE me, O LORD; for I have walk-ed in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; thērē'fōre I shall not slide.

2 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and my heart.

3 For thy loving-kindness is before mine eyes; and I have walked in thy truth.

4 I have not sat with vain pē'rsons, nēi-ther will I go in with dissemblers.

5 I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked.

6 I will wāsh mine hands in innocency so will I cōm'pāss thine altar, O LORD:

7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wōn-drous works.

8 LORD, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine hōn'our dwelleth.

9 Gāther not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men;

10 In whose hands is mīs'chief, and their right hand is full of bribes.

11 But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be mē'r-ciful unto me.

12 My foot standeth in an even place: in the congregations will I blēss the LORD.

PSALM XXVII.

A Psālm of Dā'vid.

THE LORD is my light and my salva-tion; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be āfrāid?

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3 Though a host should encamp āgainst me, mine heart shall not fear; though war should rise āgainst me, in this will I be confident.

4 One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek āfter; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.

5 For in the time of trōuble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me: he shall set me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up ābōve mine enemies round ābout me: thērē'fōre will I offer in his tabernacle sār'c'rifiċes of joy; I will sing, yēa, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mē'r-cy also upon me, and ānswer me.

8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face, my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

9 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy sērvant āwāy in anger: thou hast beer my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up āgainst' me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

14 Wait on the LORD; be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

PSALM XXVIII.

A Psālm of Dāvīd.

UNTO thee will I cry, O LORD, my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands tōwārd thy holy oracle.

3 Draw me not āwāy with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity; which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them āfter the work of their hands; render to them their dēsērt'.

5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall dēstrōy' them, and not build them up.

6 Blēssed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield: my heart trusted in him, and I am helped; thērfōre my heart greatly rejoiceth, and with my song will I praise him.

8 The LORD is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed.

9 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

PSALM XXIX.

A Psālm of Dāvīd.

GIVE unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: wōr'ship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth; the LORD is upon many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of māj'esty.¹

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars; yēa, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lēb'a-nōn.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lēb'a-nōn and Sir'i-ōn like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kā'dēsh.

9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to cāve, and discóvereth the forests: and in his temple dóth every one speak of his glory.

10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yēa, the LORD sitteth King for ever.

11 The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

PSALM XXX.

A Psālm and Song at the dedication of the house of Dāvīd.

I WILL extōl thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me ālive, that I should not go down to the pit.

4 Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

5 For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.

7 LORD, by thy favour thou hast made my mōūntain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

8 I cried to thee, O LORD; and unto the LORD I made supplication.

9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

10 Hear, O LORD, and have mērcy upon me: LORD, be thou my helper.

11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dān'cing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and gir'ded² me with gladness;

12 To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

PSALM XXXI.

To the chief Musīq'ian. A Psālm of Dāvīd.

me speedily : be thou my strong rock, for a house of defence to save me.

3 For thou art my rock and my fortress : thēr'fōre, for thy name's sake, lead me and guide me.

4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me ; for thou art my strength.

5 Into thine hand I commit my spirit : thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

6 I have hated them that regard lying vanities : but I trust in the LORD.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mērcy : for thou hast considered my trouble ; thou hast known my soul in ādvēr'sities ;

8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy : thou hast set my feet in a large room.

9 Have mērcy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble ; mine eye is consumed with griēf, yēa, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with griēf, and my years with sighing : my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones āre consumed.

11 I was a reproach āmōng all mine enemies, but especially āmōng my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance : they that did see me without fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind : I am like a broken vessel.

13 For I have hēard the slānder of many : fear was on every side : while they took counsel tōgēthēr āgainst' me, they devised to take āwāy my life.

14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD : I said, Thou art my God.

15 My times āre in thy hand : deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that pēsecute me.

16 Make thy face to shine upon thy sērvant : save me for thy mērcies' sake.

17 Let me not be āshāmed, O LORD ; for I have called upon thee : let the wicked be āshāmed, and let them be silent in the grave.

18 Let the lying lips be put to silence ; which speak griēv'ōūs things proudly and contemptuously āgainst' the righteous.

19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee ; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men !

20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man ; thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tōngues.

21 Blēs'sed be the LORD ; for he hath showed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

22 For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes : nevertheless thou hēardest the voice of my supplications, when I cried unto thee.

23 O love the LORD, all ye his saints : for the LORD p̄sērv'eth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your hēart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

PSALM XXXII.

A Psālm of Dā'vīd, Mās'chil.

BLES'SED is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is cōvered.

2 Blēs'sed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old : through my roaring all the day long.

4 (For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me) my moisture is turned into the drōught of summer. Sē'lāh.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD ; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Sē'lāh.

6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayst be found : surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

7 Thou art my hiding-place ; thou shalt p̄sērv'e me from trouble ; thou shalt cōm'pās me ābout' with songs of deliverance. Sē'lāh.

8 I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go : I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding ; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked : but he that trusteth in the LORD, mērcy shall cōm'pās him ābout'.

11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous : and shout for joy, all ye that āre upright in hēart.

PSALM XXXIII.

REJOICE in the LORD, O ye rīgh'teous ;¹ for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harp : sing unto him with the psāltery, and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song ; play skilfully with a loud noise :

4 For the word of the LORD is right ; and all his works āre done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment : the ēarth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD wēre the heavens made : and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gāthēreth the waters of the sea to-

They are blessed who trust in God.

PSALM:

Dā ād prayeth for his own safety.

gēther as a heap: he layeth up the depth in store-houses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him:

9 For he spake, and it was done; he cōmmānded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blē'sed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; he considereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of a host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 A horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart shall rejoice in him; because we have trusted in his holy name.

22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

A Psālm of Dā'vid, when he chānged his behaviour before ā-bīm'e-lech; who drove him āway, and he departed.

I WILL bless the LORD at all times. his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exālt his name togethēr.

4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked unto him, and wēre lightened; and their faces wēre not āshāmed.

6 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

7 The āngel of the LORD encampeth round ābout' them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O taste and see that the LORD is good: blē'sed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no wānt to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not wānt any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me; I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tōngue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The face of the LORD is āgainst' them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

21 Evil shall slay the wicked; and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants; and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

PSALM XXXV.

A Psālm of Dā'vid.

PLEAD my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: fight āgainst' them that fight āgainst' me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way āgainst' them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek āfter my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

5 Let them be as chāff before the wind: and let the āngel of the LORD chase them.

6 Let their way be dark and slippery; and let the āngel of the LORD persecute them.

7 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

8 Let destruction come upon him at un-awares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation.

10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yēa, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

11 False witnesses did rise up : they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me evil for good, to the spoiling of my soul.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth : I humbled my soul with fasting, and my prayer returned into mine own bosom.

14 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother : I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together ; yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not ; they did tear me, and ceased not.

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 LORD, how long wilt thou look on ? rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions.

18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation : I will praise thee among much people.

19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me ; neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

20 For they speak not peace ; but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.

21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, à-hà ! à-hà ! our eye hath seen it.

22 This thou hast seen, O LORD ; keep not silence : O LORD, be not far from me.

23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, ercu unto my cause, my God and my Lord.

24 Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness ; and let them not rejoice over me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it : let them not say, We have swallowed him up.

26 Let them be ashamed, and brought to confusion together, that rejoice at my hurt : let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify themselves against me.

27 Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause ; yea, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

28 And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise, all the day long.

PSALM XXXVI.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

THE transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit : he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 He deviseth mischief upon his bed ; he setteth himself in a way that is not good ; he abhorreth not evil.

5 Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens, and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness is like the great mountains ; thy judgments are a great deep : O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.

7 How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God ! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house ; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the fountain of life ; in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee : and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen : they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM XXXVII.

A Psalm of David.

FRET not thyself because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity :

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good : so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thyself also in the LORD ; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 Commit thy way unto the LORD ; trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass :

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noon-day.

7 Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him : fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath ; fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 For evil-doers shall be cut off : but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be : yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth ; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 The LORD shall laugh at him; for he seeth that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

16 A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.

18 The LORD knoweth the days of the upright; and their inheritance shall be for ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time; and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume, into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous showeth mercy, and giveth.

22 For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

23 The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD; and he delighteth in his way.

24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

26 He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

27 Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

28 For the LORD loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

31 The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay-tree:

36 Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD; he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them; he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

PSALM XXXVIII.

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath; neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.

4 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head; as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt, because of my foolishness.

6 I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease; and there is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 LORD, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore; and my kinsmen stand afar off.

12 They also that seek after my life lay snares for me; and they that seek my hurt speak mischiefous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not; and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou wilt hear, O LORD my God.

16 For I said, Hear me; lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

17 For I am ready to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

18 For I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies are lively, and they are strong; and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

20 They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that goed is.

21 Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.

22 Make haste to help me, O LORD my salvation.

PSALM XXXIX.

To the chief Musiç'ian, even to Jēd'uthūn. A Psālm of Dā'vid.

I SAID, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tōngue; I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

2 I was dumb with silence: I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me; while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tōngue,

4 LORD, make me to know mine end, and the mēasure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as a hand-breadth, and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Sē'lāh.

6 Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain; he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, LORD, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions; make me not the reproach of the foolish.

9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.

10 Remove thy stroke āwāy from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume āwāy like a mōth: surely every man is vanity. Sē'lāh.

12 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a strānger with thee, and a sōjournr, as all my fathers wēre.

13 O spare me, that I may recóver strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

PSALM XL.

To the chief Musiç'ian. A Psālm of Dā'vid.

I WAITED patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and estāblished my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

4 Blēs'sed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust; and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn āside to lies.

5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wōnderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

6 Sǎc'rifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened. burnt-offering and sin-offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me;

8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yēa, thy law is within my heart.

9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mērcies from me, O LORD: let thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually prēsērvē' me.

12 For innumerable evils have cōm-pāssed me ābout; mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up: they are more than the hairs of mine head; thērē'fōre my heart faileth me.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.

14 Let them be āshāmed and confounded togethēr that seek āfter my soul to destrōy it; let them be driven backward, and put to shame, that wish me evil.

15 Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame, that say unto me, ā-hā', ā-hā'!

16 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The LORD be magnified.

17 But I am poor and needy; yet the LORD thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

PSALM XLI.

To the chief Musiç'ian. A Psālm of Dā'vid.

BLESSED is he that considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.

2 The LORD will prēsērvē' him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blés'ed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said LORD, be merciful unto me; heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me; When shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt.

8 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth, he shall rise up no more.

9 Yea, mine own familiar friend in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.

10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that thou favourest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

12 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.

13 Blés'ed be the LORD God of Ís'ra-ël from évér'lás'ting, and to évér'lás'ting. Ā'mèn', and Ā'mèn'.

PSALM XLII.

To the chief Musiq'ian, Mäs'chil, for the Sons of Kō'räh.

AS the hart pânteth after the water-brooks, so pânteth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3 My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

4 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude; I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holy-day.

5 Why art thou cást down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cást down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jór'dän, and of the Hér'mön-ites, from the hill Mí'zär.

7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy water-spouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 Yet the LORD will command his loving-kindness in the day-time, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

11 Why art thou cást down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIII.

JUDGE me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation; O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength: why dost thou cást me off? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me, let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

4 Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou cást down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIV.

To the chief Musiq'ian for the Sons of Kō'räh.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old;

2 How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plántedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cást them out.

3 For they got not the land in possés'sion by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them.

4 Thou art my King, O God: cöm-mänd' deliverances for Já'cöb.

5 Through thee will we púsh down our enemies; through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For I will not trust in my böw, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.

8 In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Sé'läh.

9 But thou hast cást off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy; and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen.

12 Thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 Thou makest us a by-word among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger.

17 All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy way;

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.

20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god;

21 Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 Awake, why sleepest thou, O LORD? arise, cast us not off for ever.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust; our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise for our help, and redeem us, for thy mercies' sake.

PSALM XLV.

To the chief Musicians upon Shō-shān'nim, for the Sons of Kō'rāh, Mās'chil. A Song of Lóves.

MY heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the King; my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips; therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most Mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.²

4 And in thy majesty ride prosperous-ly, because of truth, and meekness, and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

6 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8 All thy garments smell of myrrh,³ and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

9 Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Harken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;

11 So shall the King greatly desire thy beauty; for he is thy Lord, and worship thou him.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall entreat thy favour.

13 The King's daughter is all glorious within; her clothing is of wrought gold.

14 She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needle-work: the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the King's palace.

16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayst make princes in all the earth.

17 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations; therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

PSALM XLVI.

To the chief Musicians for the Sons of Kō'rāh. A Song upon Al'a-mōth.

GOD is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble:

2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

4 There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

5 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

³ mer.

7 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jā'cōb is our refuge. Sē'lāh.

8 Come, behold the works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder: he burneth the chariot in the fire.

10 Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jā'cōb is our refuge. Sē'lāh.

PSALM XLVII.

To the chief Muṣiḡ'ian. A Psalm for the Sons of Kō'rāh.

O CLAP your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph:

2 For the LORD most high is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth.

3 He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

4 He shall chōḡse our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jā'cōb, whom he loved. Sē'lāh.

5 God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises, sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

8 God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

9 The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Ā'bra-hām: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

PSALM XLVIII.

A Song and Psalm for the Sons of Kō'rāh.

GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mōūn'tain of his holiness.

2 Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zi'ōn; on the sides of the north the city of the great King.

3 God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

4 For, lo, the kings were assembled, they pās's'ed by together.

5 They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

6 Fear look hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in trā'v'ail.

7 Thou breakest the ships of Tār'shīsh with an east wind.

8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will estāb'lish it for ever. Sē'lāh.

9 We have thought of thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

10 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

11 Let mount Zi'ōn rejoice, let the daughters of Jū'dāh be glad, because of thy judgments.

12 Walk about' Zi'ōn, and go round about' her: tell the towers thereof.

13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death.

PSALM XLIX.

To the chief Muṣiḡ'ian. A Psalm for the Sons of Kō'rāh.

HEAR this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, rich and poor together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to a parable; I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall cōm'pās's me about'?

6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 Nōne of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him;

8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever;)

9 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their in'wārd thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling-places to all generations: they call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, man being in hōn'our ābideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Sē'lāh.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave; for he shall receive me. Sē'lāh.

16 Be not thou āfrāid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased:

17 For, when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him;

18 Though, while he lived, he blēss'ed his soul: (and men will praise thee when thou doest well to thyself:)

The majesty of God in the church. PSALMS. Dāvīd prayeth for sanctification.

19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.

20 Man that is in hōn'our, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

PSALM L.

A Psālm of Ā'sāph.

THE mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zī'ōn, the pērfēc'tion of beauty, God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round ābout' him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from ābōve, and to the earth, (that he may judge his people.)

5 Gāther my saints togēther unto me; those that have made a cōvenant with me by sāk'rifiçe.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righ'teousness: for God is judge himself. Sē'lāh.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Īs'ra-ēl, and I will testify āgainst' thee: I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sāk'rifiçes, or thy burnt-offerings, to have been continually before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he-goats out of thy folds:

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mōūn'tains; and the wild beasts of the fiēld āre mine.

12 If I wēre hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fullness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the Most High:

15 And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

16 But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldst take my cōvenant in thy mouth?

17 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and cāstest my words behind thee.

18 When thou sawest a thiēf, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

19 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tōngue frameth decēit.

20 Thou sittest and speakest āgainst' thy brōther; thou slānderest thine own mōther's son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was āltogēther such a one as thyself; but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in piēccs, and there be nōne to deliver.

23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation ārigh't will I show the salvation of God.

PSALM LI.

To the chief Muṣiç'ian. A Psālm of Dāvīd, when Nā'thān the Prōph'et came unto him, āfter he had gone in to Bāth'she-bā.

HAVE mērcy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness; according unto the multitude of thy tender mērcies blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions; and my sin is ever before me.

4 Āgainst' thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight; that thou mightst be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mōther concēive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the in'wārd parts; and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hys'sōp, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cāst me not āwāy from thy presence; and take not thy holy Spīrit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free Spīrit:

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be cōvērt'ed unto thee.

14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation; and my tōngue shall sing ālōūd of thy righteousness.

15 O LORD, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

16 For thou desirest not sāk'rifiçe, else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt-offering.

17 The sāk'rifiçes of God āre a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despīse'.

18 Do good in thy good pleās'ure unto Zī'ōn: build thou the walls of Jē-rū'salēm.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sac'rifices of righteousness, with burnt-offering, and whole burnt-offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSALM LII.

To the chief Musiç'ian, Mās'çhil. A Psalm of Dā'vid, when Dō'ēg the Ē'dōm-ite came and told Sāul, and said unto him, Dā'vid is come to the house of Ā-him'e-lēch.

WHY boastest thou thyself in mis'chief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

2 Thy tōngue deviseth mis'chiefs, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3 Thou lovest evil more than good, and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Sē'lāh.

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tōngue.

5 God shall likewise dēstrōy' thee for ever: he shall take thee āwāy, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Sē'lāh.

6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

8 But I am like a green olive-tree in the house of God: I trust in the mērcy of God for ever and ever.

9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

PSALM LIII.

To the chief Musiç'ian upon Mā'ha-lāth, Mās'çhil. A Psalm of Dā'vid.

THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.

3 Every one of them is gone back; they are āltōgēther become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God.

5 There were they in great fear where no fear was; for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

6 Oh that the salvation of Īs'ra-ēl were come out of Zī'on! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jā'çōb shall rejoice, and Īs'ra-ēl shall be glad.

PSALM LIV.

To the chief Musiç'ian on Nēg'i-nōth, Mās'çhil. A Psalm of Dā'vid, when the Zīph'ims came and said to Sāul, Doth not Dā'vid hide himself with us?

SAVE me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For strāngers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Sē'lāh.

4 Behold, God is my helper: the LORD is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: cut them off in thy truth.

6 I will freely sac'rifice unto thee; I will praise thy name, O LORD, for it is good.

7 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble; and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

PSALM. LV.

To the chief Musiç'ian on Nēg'i-nōth, Mās'çhil. A Psalm of Dā'vid.

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise;

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrāth they hate me.

4 My heart is sore pained within me; and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dōve! for then would I fly āwāy, and be at rest.

7 Lo then would I wānder far off, and remain in the wilderness. Sē'lāh.

8 I would hasten my ēscāpe' from the windy storm and tempest.

9 Dēstrōy', O LORD, and divide their tōngues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go ābout' it upon the wāis thereof; mis'chief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof; deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me: then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him;

13 But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance.

14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in cōmpāny.

15 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and āmōng them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God, and the LORD shall save me.

17 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry ālōdd; and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was āgainst' me: for there wēre many with me.

19 God shall hear and afflict them, even he that ābideth of old. Sē'lāh. Because they have no chānges, thēre'fore they fear nōt God.

20 He hath put forth his hands āgainst' such as be at peace with him; he hath broken his cōvānant.

21 The words of his mouth wēre smoother than butter, but war was in his hēart: his words wēre softer than oil, yet wēre they drawn swōrds.

22 Cāst thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and decēitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

PSALM LVI.

To the chief Muṣiḡ'ian upon Jō'nāth-Ē'lēm-Rē-ḡhō'kim, Miḡh'tām of Dā'vid, when the Phi-lis'tines took him in Gāth.

BE mērciful unto me, O God; for man would swāllow me up: he fighting daily oppresseth me.

2 Mine enemies would daily swāllow me up: for they be many that fight āgainst' me, O thou Most High.

3 What time I am āfrāid I will trust in thee.

4 In God I will praise his word; in God I have put my trust: I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

5 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are āgainst' me for evil.

6 They gāther themselves togēther, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul.

7 Shall they ēscāpe' by iniquity? in thine anger cāst down the people, O God.

8 Thou tellest my wān'dērings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me.

10 In God I will praise his word; in the LORD will I praise his word.

11 In God have I put my trust: I will not be āfrāid what man can do unto me.

12 Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death; wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

PSALM LVII.

To the chief Muṣiḡ'ian, Āl-tās'ḡhith, Miḡh'tām of Dā'vid, when he fled from Sāul in the cave.

BE mērciful unto me, O God, be mērciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yēa, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

2 I will cry unto God most high; unto God that pērfōrm'eth all things for me.

3 He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swāllow me up. Sē'lāh. God shall send forth his mērcy and his truth.

4 My soul is āmōng lions; and I lie even āmōng them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tōngue a sharp swōrd.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, ābōve the heavens; let thy glory be ābōve all the ēarth.

6 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bōwed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Sē'lāh.

7 My hēart is fixed, O God, my hēart is fixed; I will sing and give praise.

8 Āwāke up, my glory; āwāke psāltery and harp; I myself will āwāke ēarly.

9 I will praise thee, O LORD, āmōng the people; I will sing unto thee āmōng the nations:

10 For thy mērcy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

11 Be thou exalted, O God, ābōve the heavens: let thy glory be ābōve all the ēarth.

PSALM LVIII.

To the chief Muṣiḡ'ian, Āl-tās'ḡhith, Miḡh'tām of Dā'vid.

DO ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2 Yēa, in hēart ye work wickedness; ye weigh the violence of your hands in the ēarth.

3 The wicked are ēstrānged from the womb; they go āstrāy as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

4 Their poison is like the poison of a sērpent; they are like the deāf adder that stoppeth her ear;

5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth; break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.

7 Let them melt āwāy as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in piēces.

8 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pāss āwāy; like the untimely birth¹ of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

¹ bērlh.

9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them āwāy as with a whirlwind,¹ both living, and in his wrāth.

10 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wāsh his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the ēarth.

PSALM LIX.

To the chief Muṣiç'ian, Āl-tās'çhith, Miçh'tām of Dā'vid; when Sāul sent, and they wātched the house to kill him.

DELIVER me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up āgainst' me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul; the mighty āre gāthered āgainst' me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: āwāke to help me, and behold.

5 Thou, thēre'fōre, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, āwāke to visit all the heathen: be not mērciful to any wicked transgressors. Sē'lāh.

6 They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round ābout' the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swōrds āre in their lips; for who, say they, dōth hear?

8 But thou, O LORD, shalt lāugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.

9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee: for God is my defence.

10 The God of my mērcy shall prevent me: God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lēst my people forget: scatter them by thy power; and bring them down, O LORD our shiēld.

12 For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, let them even be taken in their pride; and for cursing and lying which they speak.

13 Consume them in wrāth, consume them, that they may not be; and let them know that God ruleth in Jāçōb unto the ends of the ēarth. Sē'lāh.

14 And at evening let them return, and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round ābout' the city.

15 Let them wānder up and down for meat, and grudge, if they be not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of thy power; yēa, I will sing ālōud of thy mērcy in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trōuble.

17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defence, and the God of my mērcy.

PSALM LX.

To the chief Muṣiç'ian upon Shū'shān-Ē'dūth, Miçh'tām of Dā'vid, to teach; when he strove with Ā'rām-Nā-ha-rā'im and with Ā'rām-Zō'bāh, when Jō'āb returned and smote of Ē'dōm in the valley of Sālt twelve thousand.

O GOD, thou hast cāst us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us āgain'.

2 Thou hast made the ēarth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast showed thy people hard things; thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Sē'lāh.

5 That thy belōved may be delivered, save with thy right hand, and hear me.

6 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice: I will divide Shē'çhēm, and mete out the valley of Sūç'ōth.

7 Gil'e-ād is mine, and Ma-nās'seh is mine; Ē'phra-im also is the strength of mine head; Jū'dāh is my lawgiver;

8 Mō'āb is my wāsh-pot; over Ē'dōm will I cāst out my shoe: Phi-lis'ti-ā, triumph thou because of me.

9 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Ē'dōm?

10 Will not thou, O God, which hadst cāst us off? and thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies?

11 Give us help from trōuble: for vain is the help of man.

12 Through God we shall do valiantly; for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM LXI.

To the chief Muṣiç'ian upon Nēg'i-nāh. A Psalm of Dā'vid.

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the ēarth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

4 I will ābide in thy tabernacle for ever; I will trust in the cōvert of thy wings. Sē'lāh.

5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritagē of those that fear thy name.

6 Thou wilt prolong the king's life; and his years as many generations.

7 He shall ābide before God for ever: O prepare mērcy and truth, which may p̄s̄ērvē' him.

8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily p̄f̄r̄m' my vows.

PSALM LXII.

To the chief Muṣiç'ian, to Jēd'u-thūn.

A Psałm of Dā'vīd.

TRULY my soul waiteth upon God : from him cometh my salvation.

2 He only is my rock and my salvation ; he is my defence : I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will ye imagine mis'chief against' a man ? ye shall be slain all of you : as a hōw'ing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They only consult to cāst him down from his excellency ; they delight in lies : they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Sē'lāh.

5 My soul, wait thou only upon God : for my expectation is from him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation ; he is my defence : I shall not be moved.

7 In God is my salvation and my glory ; the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times, ye people ; pour out your heart before him : God is a refuge for us. Sē'lāh.

9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie : to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, become not vain in robbery : if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

11 God hath spoken once ; twice have I heard this, that power belongeth unto God.

12 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy : for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

PSALM LXIII.

A Psałm of Dā'vīd, when he was in the wilderness of Jū'dāh.

O God, thou art my God ; early will I seek thee : my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is ;

2 To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 Because thy loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I bless thee while I live : I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness ; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips ;

6 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night-watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help : there'sfore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee : thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul, to de-strōy' it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 They shall fall by the sword ; they shall be a pōrtion for foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God ; every one that sweareth by him shall glory : but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM LXIV.

To the chief Muṣiç'ian. A Psałm of Dā'vīd.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer : p̄s̄erve' my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked ; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity :

3 Who whet their tōngue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words ;

4 That they may shoot in secret at the p̄f̄ect : suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter : they commune of laying snares privily ; they say, Who shall see them ?

6 They search out iniquities ; they accomplish a diligent search : both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow ; suddenly shall they be wōunded.

8 So they shall make their own tōngue to fall upon themselves : all that see them shall flee āwāy.

9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God : for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

10 The righteous shall be glad in the Lord, and shall trust in him ; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM LXV.

To the chief Muṣiç'ian. A Psałm and Song of Dā'vīd.

PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Zi'ōn ; and unto thee shall the vow be p̄f̄orm'ed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 Iniquities prevail against' me : as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them āwāy.

4 Blēs'sed is the man whom thou chōōs'est, and causet to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts : we shall be satisfied with thy goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation ; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are āfār off upon the sea :

6 Which by his strength setteth fāst the mōūn'tains ; being girded¹ with power :

7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly; thou settlest the furrows thereof; thou makest it soft with showers; thou bléssést the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness; and the little hills rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn: they shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM LXVI.

To the chief Musiq'ian A Song or Psalm.

MAKE a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands:

2 Sing forth the honour of his name; make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

4 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Sélâh.

5 Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

7 He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Sélâh.

8 O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard;

9 Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

10 For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

11 Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins.

12 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads: we went through fire and through water; but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

13 I will go into thy house with burnt-offerings; I will pay thee my vows, 14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

15 I will offer unto thee burnt-sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams: I will offer bullocks with goats. Sélâh.

16 Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

17 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

18 If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me:

19 But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

PSALM LXVII.

To the chief Musiq'ian on Nég'i-nôth.

A Psalm or Song.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us. Sélâh.

2 That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations be glad, and sing for joy; for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth. Sélâh.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

6 Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

7 God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

PSALM LXVIII.

To the chief Musiq'ian. A Psalm or Song of Dâ'vid.

LET God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad: let them rejoice before God; yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

4 Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

6 God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those which are bound with chains; but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; Sélâh:

8 The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sion itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Isra-él.

9 Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm¹ thine inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

11 The LORD gave the word; great was the company of those that published it.

12 Kings of armies did flee āpāce; and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

13 Though ye have lien āmōng the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yē'lōw gold.

14 When the Āl-mīgh'ty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Sāl'mōn.

15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bā'shān; a high hill, as the hill of Bā'shān.

16 Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yēa, the LORD will dwell in it for ever.

17 The chariots of God āre twenty thousand, even thousands of āngels: the LORD is āmōng them as in Sī'nāi, in the holy place.

18 Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yēa, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell āmōng them.

19 Blēs'sed be the LORD, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Sē'lāh.

20 He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto God the LORD belong the issues from death.

21 But God shall wōund the head of his enemies, and the hairy scālp of such a one as goeth on still in his trēs'pāsses.

22 The LORD said, I will bring āgain' from Bā'shān; I will bring my people āgain' from the depths of the sea:

23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies, and the tōngue of thy dogs in the same.

24 They have seen thy goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my Kīng, in the sanctuary.

25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed āfter; āmōng them wēre the damsels playing with timbrels.

26 Bless ye God in the congregations, even the LORD from the fōun'tain of Īs'ra-ēl.

27 There is little Bēn'ja-mīn with their ruler, the princes of Jū'dāh and their council, the princes of Zēb'u-lōn, and the princes of Nāph'ta-lī.

28 Thy God hath cōmmān'ded thy strength: strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us.

29 Because of thy temple at Jē-rū'salēm shall kings bring presents unto thee.

30 Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the cālves of the people, till every one submit himself with piēces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war.

31 Princes shall come out of Ē'gypt; Ē-thi-ō'pi-ā shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

32 Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the ēarth; O sing praises unto the LORD; Sē'lāh:

33 To him that rideth upon the heavens which wēre of old: lo, he dōth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Īs'ra-ēl, and his strength is in the clouds.

35 O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places: the God of Īs'ra-ēl is he that giveth strength and power unto his people. Blēs'sed be God.

PSALM LXIX.

To the chief Musīc'ian upon Shō-shān-nim. A Psālm of Dā'vid.

SAVE me, O God; for the waters āre come in unto my soul.

2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary of my crying; my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause āre more than the hairs of mine head: they that would dēstrōy' me, being mine enemies wrongfully, āre mighty: then I restored that which I took not āwāy.

5 O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins āre not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that wait on thee, O LORD God of hosts, be āshāmed for my sake; let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Īs'ra-ēl.

7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach: shame hath cōvered my face.

8 I am become a strānger unto my brēthren, and an ālien unto my mōther's children.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee āre fallen upon me.

10 When I wept, and chāstened my soul with fāst'ing, that was to my reproach.

11 I made sackcloth also my gārment; and I became a proverb to them.

12 They that sit in the gate speak āgainst' me; and I was the song of the drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mērcy hear me: in the truth of thy salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

15 Let not the water-flood overflow me, nēither let the deep swāllow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

16 Hear me, O LORD; for thy loving-kindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mērcies.

17 And hide not thy face from thy sērvant; for I am in trōuble: hear me speedily.

18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me, because of mine enemies.

19 Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dīshōn'our: mine ād'vērsaries are all before thee.

20 Reproach hath broken my heārt, and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for cōm'fōrters, but I found none.

21 They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake.

24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wra'thful anger take hold of them.

25 Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents.

26 For they pērsēcute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the griēf of those whom thou hast wōunded.

27 Add iniquity unto their iniquity; and let them not come into thy righteousness.

28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

30 I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

31 This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

32 The hūmble shall see this, and be glad: and your heārt shall live that seek God.

33 For the LORD heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.

34 Let the heaven and ēarth praise him, the seas, and every thing that moveth therein:

35 For God will save Sī'ōn, and will build the cities of Jū'dāh; that they may dwell there, and have it in pōssēs'sion.

36 The seed also of his sērvants shall inherit it; and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

PSALM LXX.

To the chief Musīq'ian. A Psalm of Dā'vid, to bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O LORD.

2 Let them be āshāmed and confounded that seek āfter my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Ā-hā', ā-hā'!

4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 But I am poor and needy; make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer, O LORD; make no tarrying.

PSALM LXXI.

IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be put to confusion.

2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to ēscāpe': incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

3 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given cōmmānd'ment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For thou art my hope, O LORD God; thou art my trust from my youth.

6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mōthēr's bōwels: my praise shall be continually of thee.

7 I am as a wōnder unto many: but thou art my strong refuge.

8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy hōn'our all the day.

9 Cāst me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speak āgainst me; and they that lay wait for my soul take counsel tōgēther,

11 Saying, God hath forsaken him; pērsēcute and take him: for there is none to deliver him.

12 O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help.

13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are ād'vērsaries to my soul; let them be cōvērēd with reproach and dīshōn'our that seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

15 My mouth shall show forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wōndrous works.

18 Now also, when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not, until I have showed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee?

20 Thou, which hast showed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me āgain', and shalt bring me up āgain' from the depths of the ēarth.

21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and cōm'fōrt me on every side.

22 I will also praise thee with the psātery, even thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

24 My tōngue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

PSALM LXXII.

A Psālm for Sō'l'o-mōn.

GIVE the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2 He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

3 The mōūn'tains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

4 He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in piēces the oppressor.

5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grāss; as showers that water the ēarth.

7 In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the ēarth.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bōw before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tār'shish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Shē'bā and Sē'bā shall offer gifts.

11 Yēa, all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall sērve him.

12 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

15 And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Shē'bā: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.

16 There shall be a handful of corn in the ēarth upon the top of the mōūn'tains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lēb'ānōn: and they of the city shall flourish like grāss of the ēarth.

17 His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun; and men shall be blēs'sed in him: all nations shall call him blēs'sed.

18 Blēs'sed be the LORD God, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, who only doeth wōndrous things.

19 And blēs'sed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole ēarth be filled with his glory. Ā'mēn', and ā'mēn'.

20 The prayers of Dā'vīd the son of Jēs'se, are ended.

PSALM LXXIII.

A Psālm of Ā'sāph.

TRULY God is good to Iṣ'ra-ēl, even to such as are of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet wēre almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

3 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death; but their strength is firm.¹

5 They are not in trouble as other men; nēither are they plagued like other men.

6 Thēre'fōre pride cōm'pāsseth them ābout' as a chain; violence cōvereth them as a gārmēt.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.

8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly cōncēr'ning oppression: they speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth āgainst' the heavens; and their tōngue walketh through the ēarth.

10 Thēre'fōre his people return hither; and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them:

11 And they say, How dóth God know? and is there knowledge in the Most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chāstened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend āgainst' the generation of thy children.

16 When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me,

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.

18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou cāstedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a dream when one awaketh; so, O LORD, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise^r their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 So foolish was I and ignorant; I was as a beast before thee.

23 Nevertheless, I am continually with thee; thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and shalt^rward receive me to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.

26 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

27 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish; thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God. I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy works.

PSALM LXXIV.

Mās'chil of Ā'sāph.

O GOD, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against^r the sheep of thy pasture?¹

2 Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Si'ōn, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the pērpēt^{ual} desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs.

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary; they have defiled by cast^{ing} down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, Let us destroy^r them together: they have burnt up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the ad^{ver}sary reproach? shall the enemy blaspHEME^r thy name for ever?

11 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bō^śōm.

12 For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

¹ pās'tshūre.

14 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 Thou didst cleave the fōun^tain and the flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers.

16 The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that the foolish people have blaspHEM^{ed} thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

20 Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return āshā^med: let the poor and needy praise thy name.

22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause; remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against^r thee increaseth continually.

PSALM LXXV.

To the chief Musiq^{ian}, Āl-tās'chith.

A Psalm or Song of Ā'sāph.

UNTO thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near, thy wondrous works declare.

2 When I shall receive the congregation, I will judge uprightly.

3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Sē'lāh.

4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly; and to the wicked, Lift not up the horn:

5 Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

6 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south:

7 But God is the judge; he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture, and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

9 But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jā'cōb.

10 All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

² pēr-pē'tshū-āl.

PSALM LXXVI.

To the chief Musiç'ian on Nēg'i-nōth.

A Psālm or Song of Ā'sāph.

IN Jū'dāh is God known; his name is great in Iṣ'ra-ēl.

2 In Sālēm also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling-place in Sī'ōn.

3 There brake he the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. Sē'lāh.*

4 Thou art more glorious and excellent than the mōun'tains of prey.

5 The stout-hearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep; and none of the men of might have found their hands.

6 At thy rebuke, O God of Jā'çōb, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

7 Thou, even thou, art to be feared; and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?

8 Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared, and was still,

9 When God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Sē'lāh.

10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.

11 Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God: let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

PSALM LXXVII.

To the chief Musiç'ian, to Jēd'u-thūn.

A Psālm of Ā'sāph.

ICRIED unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the LORD: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Sē'lāh.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart, and my spirit made diligent search.

7 Will the LORD cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?

9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious?

* SELAH is a word found seventy-four times in the Book of Psalms, and thrice in Habakkuk. Some think it signifies a rest or pause in singing, or a change of tone; or, as others, the elevation of the voice, or a high note. Also, for ever, or, so be it. But it is in general concluded, that it properly signifies the end or pause.—BUTTERWORTH hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Sē'lāh.

10 And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.

11 I will remember the works of the LORD; surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God!

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jā'çōb and Jō'sēph. Sē'lāh.

16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee: they were afraid; the depths also were troubled.

17 The clouds poured out water; the skies sent out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

20 Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Mō'sēs and Aārōn.

PSALM LXXVIII.

Māsçhil of Ā'sāph.

GIVE ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old;

3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, showing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 For he established a testimony in Jā'çōb, and appointed a law in Iṣ'ra-ēl, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children;

6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born, who should arise and declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God; but keep his commandments:

8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart right, and whose spirit was not stēadfast with God.

9 The children of E'phra-īm, being armed, and carrying bōws, turned back in the day of battle.

10 They kept not the cōvenant of God, and refused to walk in his law ;

11 And forgat his works, and his wōnders that he had showed them.

12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers in the land of E'g̃ypt, in the field of Zō'ān.

13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pās through ; and he made the waters to stand as a heap.

14 In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against' him, by provoking the Most High in the wilderness.

18 And they tempted God in their heart, by ask'ing meak for their lust.

19 Yea, they spake against' God : they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness ?

20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed ; can he give bread also ? can he provide flesh for his people ?

21 Thēre'fōre the LORD heard this, and was wroth : so a fire was kindled against' Jā'cōb, and anger also came up against' Iṣ'ra-ēl.

22 Because they believ'd not in God, and trusted not in his salvation ;

23 Though he had cōmman'ded the clouds from ābōve, and opened the doors of heaven,

24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat āngels' food : he sent them meat to the full.

26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven ; and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea ;

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round ābout' their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and wēre well filled : for he gave them their own desire ;

30 They wēre not estranged from their lust : but while their meat was yet in their mouths,

31 The wrāth of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

32 For all this they sinned still, and believ'd not for his wōndrous works.

33 Thēre'fōre their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 When he slew them, then they sought him ; and they returned and inquired early after God :

35 And they remembered that God was their Rōck, and the high God their Rē-dēem'er.

36 Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tōngues :

37 For their heart was not right with him, nēither wēre they stēadfast in his cōvenant.

38 But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destrōy'ed them not : yea, many a time turned he his anger āwāy, and did not stir up all his wrāth :

39 For he remembered that they wēre but flesh ; a wind that pāsseth āwāy, and cometh not āgain'.

40 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and griēve him in the dēs'ert !

41 Yea, they turned back, and tempted God, and limited the Hōly One of Iṣ'ra-ēl

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy :

43 How he had wrought his signs in E'g̃ypt, and his wōnders in the field of Zō'ān :

44 And had turned their rivers into blood ; and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 He sent dī'vērṣ sorts of flies āmōng them, which devoured them ; and frogs, which destrōy'ed them.

46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust.

47 He destrōy'ed their vines with hail, and their sycamore-trees with frost.

48 He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

49 He cāst upon them the fiērceness of his anger, wrāth, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil āngels āmōng them.

50 He made a way to his anger ; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence ;

51 And smote all the first-born in E'g̃ypt ; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Hām :

52 But made his own people to go for'h like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not : but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mōūn'tain, which his right hand had purchased.

55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Iṣ'ra-ēl to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his tēs'timōnīes;

57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Iṣ'ra-ēl:

60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shī'lōh, the tent which he placed among men;

61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage.

64 Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the LORD awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts; he put them to a perpēt'ual reproach.

67 Moreover, he refused the tabernacle of Jō'sēph, and chose not the tribe of Ēphra-īm;

68 But chose the tribe of Jūdāh, the mount Si'ōn, which he loved.

69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever.

70 He chose Dā vid also his sērvant, and took him from the sheep-folds:

71 From following the ewes great with young, he brought him to feed Jā'cōb his people, and Iṣ'ra-ēl his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

PSALM LXXIX.

A Psalm of Ā'sāph.

O GOD, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jē-rū'sa-lēm on heaps.

2 The dead bodies of thy sērvants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about' Jē-rū'sa-lēm; and there was none to bury them.

4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about' us.

5 How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name:

7 For they have devoured Jā'cōb, and laid waste his dwelling-place.

8 O remember not against' us former iniquities: let thy tender mērcies speedily prevent us; for we are brought very low.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name; and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake.

10 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight, by the revenging of the blood of thy sērvants which is shed.

11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power prēsērvē' thou those that are appointed to die:

12 And render unto our neighbours seven-fold into their bō'sóm their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O LORD.

13 So we thy people, and sheep of thy pasture, will give thee thanks for ever, we will show forth thy praise to all generations.

PSALM LXXX.

To the chief Musiq'ian upon Shō-shān'nim Ē'dūth. A Psalm of Ā sapi.

GIVE ear, O Shēp'hērd of Iṣ'ra-ēl, thou that ledest Jō'sēph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

2 Before Ēphra-īm, and Bēn'ja-mīn, and Ma-nās'seh, stir up thy strength, and come and save us.

3 Turn us again', O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

4 O LORD God of hosts, how long will thou be angry against' the prayer of thy people?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great mēas'ure.

6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours; and our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us again', O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Ēg'gypt; thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the bōughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.

11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river.

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

13 The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts, look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;

15 And the vineyard¹ which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

16 It is burnt with fire; it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.

18 So will not we go back from thee: quicken us, and we will call upon thy name.

19 Turn us again', O LORD God of hosts; cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.

PSALM LXXXI.

To the chief Musiq'ian upon Gūt'tith.

A Psalm of Ā'sāph.

SING ālōūd unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jā'cōb.

2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleās'ant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

4 For this was a statute for Iṣ'ra-ēl, and a law of the God of Jā'cōb.

5 This he ordained in Jō'sēph for a tēs'timōny, when he went out through the land of Ē'gypt; where I heard a language that I understood not.

6 I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the pots.

7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; I answered thee in the secret place of thunder; I proved thee at the waters of Mēr'i-bāh. Sē'lāh.

8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Iṣ'ra-ēl, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

9 There shall no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

10 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Ē'gypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice: and Iṣ'ra-ēl would none of me.

12 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

13 O that my people had hearkened unto me, and Iṣ'ra-ēl had walked in my ways!

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against' their adversaries.

15 The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

PSALM LXXXII.

A Psalm of Ā'sāph.

GOD standeth in the congregation of the mighty: he judgeth among the gods.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Sē'lāh.

3 Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

6 I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the Most High:

7 But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

8 Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

PSALM LXXXIII.

A Song or Psalm of Ā'sāph.

KEEP not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.

2 For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult; and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsel against' thy people, and consulted against' thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Iṣ'ra-ēl may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have consulted together with one consent; they are confederate against' thee:

6 The tabernacles of Ē'dōm, and the Ish'ma-ēl-ites; of Mō'āb, and the Hā-gār-ēneš';

7 Gē'bāl, and Ām'mōn, and Ām'a-lēk; the Phi-lis'tines, with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8 Ās'sūr also is joined with them: they have holpen the children of Lōt. Sē'lāh.

9 Do unto them as unto the Mid'i-ān-ites; as to Sis'e-rā, as to Jā'bīn, at the brook of Kī sōn;

¹ vīn'yērd.

10 Which perished at Ēn'dōr : they became as dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles like ō'rēb and like Zē'bēb ; yēa, all their princes as Zē'bāh and as Zāl-mūn'nā :

12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in pōssēs'sion.

13 O my God, make them like a wheel ; as the stubble before the wind.

14 As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mōūn'tains on fire, 15 So pērsecute them with thy tempest, and make them āfrāid with thy storm.

16 Fill their faces with shame ; that they may seek thy name, O LORD.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever ; yēa, let them be put to shame, and perish :

18 That men may know that thou, whose name ālōne is JE-HO'VAH, art the Most High over all the earth.

PSALM LXXXIV.

To the chief Musiq'ian upon Gīt'tih. A

Psālm for the sons of Kō'rāh.

HOW amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts !

2 My soul longeth, yēa, even fainteth, for the courts of the LORD ; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

3 Yēa, the sparrow hath found a house, and the swāllow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God.

4 Blēs'sed are they that dwell in thy house : they will be still praising thee. Sē'lāh.

5 Blēs'sed is the man whose strength is in thee ; in whose heart are the ways of them :

6 Who pās'sing through the valley of Bā'çā, make it a well : the rain also filleth the pools.

7 They go from strength to strength ; every one of them in Zi'ōn appeareth before God.

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer : give ear, O God of Jā'çōb. Sē'lāh.

9 Behold, O God, our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield : the LORD will give grace and glory : no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12 O LORD of hosts, blēs'sed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSALM LXXXV.

To the chief Musiq'ian. A Psālm for the sons of Kō'rāh.

LORD, thou hast been favourable unto thy land : thou hast brought back the captivity of Jā'çōb.

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people ; thou hast covered all their sin. Sē'lāh.

3 Thou hast taken āwāy all thy wrāth : thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger tō'wārd us to cease.

5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever ? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations ?

6 Wilt thou not revive us āgain', that thy people may rejoice in thee ?

7 Show us thy mērcy, O LORD, and grāt us thy salvation.

8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak : for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints : but let them not turn āgain' to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him ; that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mērcy and truth are met together ; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall spring out of the earth ; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

12 Yēa, the LORD shall give that which is good : and our land shall yield her increase.

13 Righteousness shall go before him, and shall set us in the way of his steps.

PSALM LXXXVI.

A Prayer of Dā'vid.

BOW down thine ear, O LORD, hear me ; for I am poor and needy.

2 Prējērvē' my soul, for I am holy : O thou my God, save thy sērvant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be mērciful unto me, O LORD : for I cry unto thee daily.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy sērvant : for unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, LORD, art good, and ready to forgive ; and plēn'teous in mērcy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer ; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee : for thou wilt ānswer me.

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O LORD ; neither are there any works like unto thy works.

9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and wór'ship before thee, O LORD ; and shall glorify thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things : thou art God ālōne.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD ; I will walk in thy truth : unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, O LORD my God, with all my heart; and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mērcy tō'wārd me; and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

14 O God, the proud āre risen āgainst' me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought āfter my soul, and have not set thee before them.

15 But thou, O LORD, art a God full of compassion, and gracious; long-suffering, and plēn'teous in mērcy and truth.

16 O turn unto me, and have mērcy upon me: give thy strength unto thy sērvant, and save the son of thine hand-maid.

17 Show me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be āshāmed; because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and cōm'fōrted me.

PSALM LXXXVII.

A Psālm or Song for the sons of Kō'rāh. HIS foundation is in the holy mōūn'tains.

2 The LORD loveth the gates of Zi'ōn more than all the dwellings of Jā'cōb.

3 Glorious things āre spoken of thee, O city of God. Sē'lāh.

4 I will make mention of Rā'hāb and Bāb'y-lōn to them that know me; behold, Phi-lis'ti-ā, and Tyre, with E-thi-ō'pi-ā: this man was born there.

5 And of Zi'ōn it shall be said, This and that man was born in her; and the High'est himself shall estāb'lish her.

6 The LORD shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Sē'lāh.

7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs āre in thee.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

A Song or Psālm for the sons of Kō'rāh. To the chief Muṣi'cian upon Mā'ha-lāth Lē-ān'nōth, Mās'chil of Hē'mān the Ez'ra-hīte.

O LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee.

2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

3 For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draweth nigh unto the grave.

4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength:

5 Free āmōng the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they āre cut off from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.

7 Thy wra'th lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Sē'lāh.

8 Thou hast put āwāy mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called daily upon thee; I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 Wilt thou show wōnders to the dead? shall the dead ārise and praise thee? Sē'lāh.

11 Shall thy loving-kindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall thy wōnders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 But unto thee have I cried, O LORD; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.

14 LORD, why cāstest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

16 Thy fēre wra'th goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

17 They came round ābout' me daily like water, they cōm'pāssed me ābout' tōghether.

18 Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.

PSALM LXXXIX.

Mās'chil of E'thān the Ez'ra-hīte.

I WILL sing of the mērcies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

2 For I have said, Mērcy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou estāb'lish in the very heavens.

3 I have made a cōvenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto Dā'vid my sērvant.

4 Thy seed will I estāb'lish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Sē'lāh.

5 And the heavens shall praise thy wōnders, O LORD; thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who āmōng the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that āre ābout him.

8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round ābout' thee?

9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof ārise, thou stillest them.

10 Thou hast broken Rā'hāb in piēces, as one that is slain: thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

11 The heavens āre thine, the ēarth also is thine: as for the world, and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

12 The north and the south thou hast created them: Tā'bōr and Hēr'mōn shall rejoice in thy name.

13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mērcy and truth shall go before thy face.

15 Blēs'sed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

17 For thou art the glory of their strength; and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.

18 For the LORD is our defence; and the Hōly One of Iṣ'ra-ēl is our King.

19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy Hōly One, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

20 I have found Dā'vid my sērvant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:

21 With whom my hand shall be estāb'lished; mine arm also shall strengthen him.

22 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

23 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.

24 But my faithfulness and my mērcy shall be with him; and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.

26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my Fā'ther, my God, and the Rōck of my salvation.

27 Also I will make him my first-born, higher than the kings of the earth.

28 My mērcy will I keep for him for evermore, and my cōvenant shall stand fāst with him.

29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.

30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments;

31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my cōmmand'ments;

32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 Nevertheless my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.

34 My cōvenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

35 Once have I sworn by my holiness, that I will not lie unto Dā'vid.

36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.

37 It shall be estāb'lished for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Sē'lāh.

38 But thou hast cāst off and abhorred, thou hast been wrōth with thine anointed.

39 Thou hast made void the cōvenant of thy sērvant; thou hast profaned his crown, by cāst'ing it to the ground.

40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.

41 All that pāss by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours.

42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his ād'versaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his swōrd, and hast not made him to stand in the battle.

44 Thou hast made his glory to cease, and cāst his throne down to the ground.

45 The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast cōvered him with shame. Sē'lāh.

46 How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy wrōth burn like fire?

47 Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain?

48 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Sē'lāh.

49 LORD, where are thy former loving-kindnesses, which thou swarest unto Dā'vid in thy truth?

50 Remember, LORD, the reproach of thy sērvants; how I do bear in my bō'sōm the reproach of all the mighty people;

51 Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O LORD; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.

52 Blēs'sed be the LORD for evermore. Ā'mēn', and ā'mēn'.

PSALM XC.

A Prayer of Mō'sēs, the Man of God.

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

2 Before the mōūn'tains wēre brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from ēvērlā'sting to ēvērlā'sting, thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yēs'tērdāy when it is pāst, and as a wāch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them āwāy as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grāss which groweth up.

6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrōth are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days àre pàssed àwày in thy wràth; we spend our years as a tale that is told.

10 The days of our years àre three-score years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow: for it is soon cut off, and we fly àwày.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear; so is thy wràth.

12 So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee cōncērn'ing thy sērvants.

14 O satisfy us ēarly with thy mērcy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let thy work appear unto thy sērvants, and thy glory unto their children.

17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and ēstāb'lish thou the work of our hands upon us; yēa, the work of our hands ēstāb'lish thou it.

PSALM XCI.

HE that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall ābide under the shadow of the Āl-migh'ty.

2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge, and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4 He shall cōver thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shiēld and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be āfrāid for the terror by night, nor for the arrow that lieth by day.

6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the destruction that wasteth at noon-day.

7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold, and see the reward of the wicked.

9 Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation,

10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall give his āngels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot āgāinst' a stone.

13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon me, thērēfōre will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will ānswer him: I will be with him in trōuble; I will deliver him, and hōn'our him.

16 With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

PSALM XCII.

A Psālm or Song for the Sāb'bath-day.
IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High:

2 To show forth thy loving-kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night,

3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psāltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound.

4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work; I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 O LORD, how great àre thy works: and thy thoughts àre very deep.

6 A brutish man knoweth not; nēither dōth a fool understand this.

7 When the wicked spring as the grāss, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destrōy'ed for ever:

8 But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered;

10 But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of a unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

11 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies; and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up āgāinst' me.

12 The righteous shall flourish like the pālm-tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lēb'a-nōn.

13 Those that be plānted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

15 To show that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM XCIII.

THE LORD reigneth; he is clothed with mājesty¹; the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded² himself: the world also is ēstāb'lished, that it cannot be moved.

2 Thy throne is ēstāb'lished of old: thou art from ēvérlās'ting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD,

² g'erded.

the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

4 The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yēa, than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Thy tēs'timónies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, for ever.

PSALM XCIV.

O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself.

2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

3 LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

5 They break in piéces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage:

6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

7 Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jā'çob regard it.

8 Understand, ye brú'tish among the people; and, ye fools, when will ye be wise?

9 He that plánted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?

11 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

12 Blēs'sed is the man whom thou chāstenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law;

13 That thou mayst give him rest from the days of advēr'sity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

14 For the LORD will not cāst off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance:

15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness; and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

17 Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.

18 When I said, My foot slippeth; thy mērcy, O LORD, held me up.

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy cōm'forts delight my soul.

20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?

21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the LORD is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.

23 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yēa, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSALM XCV.

O COME, let us sing unto the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth; the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it; and his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us wór'ship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our Mā'kér.

7 For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To-day, if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, provoked me, and saw my work.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11 Unto whom I swear in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM XCVI.

O SING unto the LORD a new song; sing unto the LORD all the earth.

2 Sing unto the LORD, blēs's his name: show forth his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

4 For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

6 Hón'our and maj'esty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength;

8 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9 O wór'ship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him all the earth.

10 Say among the heathen, that the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be estāb'lished that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

12 Let the fiēld be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice

13 Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

PSALM XCVII.

THE LORD reigneth, let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.

2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne.

3 A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

4 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the LORD of the whole earth.

6 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

7 Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him all ye gods.

8 Sion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced, because of thy judgments, O LORD.

9 For thou, LORD, art high above all the earth; thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

12 Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

PSALM XCVIII.

A Psalm.

SING unto the LORD a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand and his holy arm hath gotten him the victory.

2 The LORD hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the heathen.

3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

4 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth; make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

6 With trumpets, and sound of cornet, make a joyful noise before the LORD the King.

7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

8 Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together,

9 Before the LORD: for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

PSALM XCIX.

THE LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth be moved.

2 The LORD is great in Zion, and he is high above all people.

3 Let them praise thy great and terrible name; for it is holy.

4 The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity: thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Sam'uel among them that call upon his name: they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God: thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

9 Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill: for the LORD our God is holy.

PSALM C.

A Psalm of Praise.

MAKE a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

2 Serve the LORD with gladness; come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

5 For the LORD is good, his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

PSALM CI.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O! when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside, it shall not cleave to me.

4 A forward heart shall depart from me; I will not know a wicked person.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath a high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me : he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house ; he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will early destroy' all the wicked of the land, that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

PSALM CII.

A Prayer of the Afflicted ; when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble ; incline thine ear unto me : in the day when I call, answer me speedily.

3 For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as a hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass ; so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones cleave to my skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness ; I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house-top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day ; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping ;

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath : for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are like a shadow that declineth ; and I am withered like grass.

12 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever, and thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion : for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be written for the generation to come ; and the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary ; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth ;

20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner, to loose those that are appointed to death ;

21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem ;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He weakened my strength in the way ; he shortened my days.

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days : thy years are throughout all generations.

25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth ; and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure ; yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment ; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed :

27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

PSALM CIII.

A Psalm of David.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul ; and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits :

3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities ; who healeth all thy diseases ;

4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction ; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies ;

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things ; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7 He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8 The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

9 He will not always chide ; neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

13 Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame ; he remembereth that we are dust.

15 As for man, his days are as grass ; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth :

16 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone ; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children ;

18 To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his cōmmandments to do them.

19 The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

20 Bless the LORD, ye his āngels, that excel in strength, that do his cōmmandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

21 Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his that do his pleāsure.

22 Bless the LORD, all his works, in all places of his dominion: bless the LORD, O my soul.

PSALM CIV.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with hōn'our and mā'jesty:¹

2 Who cōverest thyself with light as with a gārmēt; who stretchest out the heavens like a cūr'tain;

3 Who layeth the beams of his chāmbers in the waters; who maketh the clouds his chariot; who walketh upon the wings of the wind;

4 Who maketh his āngels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire;

5 Who laid the foundations of the ēarth, that it should not be removed for ever.

6 Thou cōveredst it with the deep as with a gārmēt: the waters stood ābōve the mōūntāins.

7 At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted āwāy.

8 They go up by the mōūntāins; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pāss over, that they turn not āgain' to cōver the ēarth.

10 He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run āmōng the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild āsses quench their thīrst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing āmōng the brānches.

13 He watereth the hills from his chāmbers: the ēarth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

14 He causeth the grāss to grow for the cattle, and hērb for the sērvice of man, that he may bring forth food out of the ēarth;

15 And wine that maketh glad the hēart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's hēart.

16 The trees of the LORD āre full of sap: the cedars of Lēb'a-nōn, which he hath plānted;

17 Where the bīrds make their nests: as for the stork, the sīr-trees āre her house.

18 The high hills āre a refuge for the wild goats, and the rocks for the cōnies.

19 He appointeth the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down.

20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night, wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21 The young lions roar āfter their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ārīseth, they gāther themselves tōgēther, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto his work, and to his labour, until the evening.

24 O LORD, how manifold āre thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the ēarth is full of thy riches;

25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein āre things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships; there is that Leviathan, whom thou hast made to play therein.

27 These wait all upon thee, that thou mayst give them their meat in due season.

28 That thou givest them, they gāther: thou openest thine hand, they āre filled with good.

29 Thou hidest thy face, they āre troubled; thou takest āwāy their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

30 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they āre created; and thou renewest the face of the ēarth.

31 The glory of the LORD shall endure for ever: the LORD shall rejoice in his works.

32 He looketh on the ēarth, and it trembleth; he tōucheth the hills, and they smoke.

33 I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet I will be glad in the LORD.

35 Let the sinners be consumed out of the ēarth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CV.

GIVE thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name; make known his deeds āmōng the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing psālms unto him talk ye of all his wōndrous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the hēart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

4 Seek the LORD, and his strength; seek his face evermore.

5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wōnders, and the judgments of his mouth;

6 O ye seed of Ābra-hām his sērvant, ye children of Jāçōb his chosen.

7 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations:

9 Which covenant he made with Ā'bra-hām, and his oath unto Ī'sāac;

10 And confirmed the same unto Jā'çöb for a law, and to Ī's'ra-ël for an everlasting covenant;

11 Saying, unto thee will I give the land of Çā'na-ān, the lot of your inheritance:

12 When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people,

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong; yea, he reproved kings for their sakes;

15 Saying, Touch not my anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover, he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.

17 He sent a man before them, even Jō'sēph, who was sold for a servant;

18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron;

19 Until the time that his word came; the word of the LORD tried him.

20 The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance;

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure, and teach his senators wisdom.

23 Ī's'ra-ël also came into E'gypt, and Jā'çöb sojourned in the land of Hām.

24 And he increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtly with his servants.

26 He sent Mō'sēs his servant, and Aārōn whom he had chosen.

27 They showed his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Hām.

28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word.

29 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

30 The land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.

31 He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.

32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also, and their fig-trees; and brake the trees of their coasts.

34 He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number,

35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 He smote also all the first-born in their land, the chief of all their strength.

37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold; and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

38 E'gypt was glad when they departed; for the fear of them fell upon them.

39 He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light in the night.

40 The people asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For he remembered his holy promise, and Ā'bra-hām his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness;

44 And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people;

45 That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVI.

PRAISE ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can show forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in E'gypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red Sea.

8 Nevertheless, he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters covered their enemies; there was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

13 They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel;

14 But lusted exceedingly in the wil derness, and tempted God in the dēš'črt.

15 And he gave them their request ; but sent leanness into their soul.

16 They envied Mō'sēs also in the camp ; and Aā'rōn the saint of the LORD.

17 The earth opened and swāllowed up Dā'thān, and cōvered the cōmpany of Ā-bī'rām.

18 And a fire was kindled in their cōmpany ; the flame burnt up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Hō'rēb, and wōr'shipped the molten image.

20 Thus they chānged their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grās.

21 They forgat God their saviour, which had done great things in Ē'g'ēpt ;

22 Wōndrous works in the land of Hām, and terrible things by the Red Sea.

23 Thēr'fōre he said that he would dēstrōy' them, had not Mō'sēs his chosen fōod before him in the breach, to turn āwāy his wrāth, lēst he should dēstrōy' them.

24 Yēa, they dēspisēd the pleasant land ; they believ'd not his word ;

25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD :

26 Thēr'fōre he lifted up his hand āgāinst' them, to overthrow them in the wilderness :

27 To overthrow their seed also āmōng the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselvēs also unto Bā'āl-Pē'ōr, and ate¹ the sār'rifīces of the dead.

29 Thus they provok'd him to anger with their inventions ; and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phīn'e-hās, and executed judgment : and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness, unto all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Mō'sēs for their sakes :

33 Because they provok'd his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did not dēstrōy' the nations, cōncērning whom the LORD cōmmān'ded them :

35 But wēre mingled āmōng the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And they sērv'd their idols ; which wēre a snare unto them.

37 Yēa, they sār'rifīc'd their sons and their dāughters unto devils,

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons, and of their dāughters, whom they sār'rifīc'd unto the idols of Cā'na-ān : and the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus wēre they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Thēr'fōre was the wrāth of the LORD kindled āgāinst' his people, inso-much that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen ; and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they wēre brought into subjection under their hand.

43 Many times did he deliver them ; but they provok'd him with their counsel, and wēre brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless, he regarded their affliction, when he hēard their cry :

45 And he remembered for them his cōvenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mērc'ies.

46 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gāther us from āmōng the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

48 Blēs'sed be the LORD God of Īs'ra-ēl from ēvēr'lās'ting to ēvēr'lās'ting : and let all the people say, Ā'mēn'. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVII.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is good ; for his mērcy endureth for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy ;

3 And gāthered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

4 They wāndered in the wilderness in a solitary way ; they found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trōuble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wōnderful works to the children of men !

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron ;

11 Because they rebelled āgāinst' the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the Most High ;

12 Thēr'fōre he brought down their hēart with labour ; they fell down, and there was nōne to help.

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Fools, because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted:

18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble; he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his word and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths; their soul is melted because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the water-springs into dry ground;

34 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into water-springs.

36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards,¹ which may yield fruits of increase.

38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly, and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

39 Again, they are minished, and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

40 He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.

42 The righteous shall see it, and rejoice; and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

43 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the LORD.

PSALM CVIII.

A Song or Psalm of Dá'vid.

O GOD, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

2 Awake, psaltery and harp; I myself will awake early.

3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens, and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; and thy glory above all the earth:

6 That thy beloved may be delivered, save with thy right hand, and answer me.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness, I will rejoice; I will divide Shé'chém, and mete out the valley of Súç'côth.

8 Gil'e-ád is mine; Ma-nás'seh is mine; Ephra-ím also is the strength of mine head; Jū'dáh is my lawgiver;

9 Mō'áb is my washpot; over E'dóm will I cast out my shoe; over Phi-lis'ti-á will I triumph.

10 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into E'dóm?

11 Will not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

12 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

13 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM CIX.

To the chief Musiq'ian. A Psalm of Dá'vid.

HOLD not thy peace, O God of my praise;

2 For the mouth of the wicked, and the mouth of the deceitful, are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

¹ vīn'yērd.

3 They cōm'pāssed me ābout' also with words of hatred; and fought āgainst' me without a cause.

4 For my love they āre my ād'vērsāries: but I give mysēlf unto prayer.

5 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

6 Set thou a wicked man over him; and let Sā'tān stand at his right hand.

7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned; and let his prayer become sin.

8 Let his days be few: and let ānōther take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

11 Let the extortioner cātch all that he hath; and let the strānger spoil his labour.

12 Let there be nōne to extend mērcy unto him; nēither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mōther be blotted out.

15 Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the ēarth.

16 Because that he remembered not to show mērcy, but pēsecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heārt.

17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him; as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his gārment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the gārment which cōvereth him, and for a girdle¹ wherewith he is girded² continually.

20 Let this be the reward of mine ād'vērsāries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil āgainst' my soul.

21 But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mērcy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heārt is wōunded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My knees āre weak through fāst'ing, and my flesh faileth of fatness.

25 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shook their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mērcy;

¹ gēr'dl.

27 That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they āriſe, let them be āshāmed; but let thy sērvant rejoice.

29 Let mine ād'vērsāries be clothed with shame; and let them cōver themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yēa, I will praise him āmōng the multitude.

31 For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

PSALM CX.

A Psālm of Dā'vid.

THE LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zi'ōn: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

4 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever āfter the order of Mēl-chiz'e-dēk.

5 The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrāth.

6 He shall judge āmōng the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wōund the heads over many countries.

7 He shall drink of the brook in the way: thēr'fōre shall he lift up the head.

PSALM CXI.

PRAISE ye the LORD. I will praise the LORD with my whole heārt in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the LORD āre great, sought out of all them that have plēās'ure therein.

3 His work is hōn'ourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wōnderful works to be remembered: the LORD is gracious, and full of compassion.

5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his cōvenant.

6 He hath showed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands āre verity and judgment: all his cōmmānd'ments āre sure.

8 They stand fāst for ever and ever, and āre done in truth and uprightness.

9 He sent redemption unto his people;

² gēr'ded.

he hath cōmmānd'ed his cōvenant for ever ; holy and reverend is his name.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom : a good understanding have all they that do his cōmmānd'ments : his praise endureth for ever.

PSALM CXII.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Blēs'sed is the man that feareth the LORD, that delighteth greatly in his cōmmānd'ments.

2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth : the generation of the upright shall be blēs'sed.

3 Wealth and riches shall be in his house ; and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 Unto the upright there āriſeth light in the darkness : he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

5 A good man showeth favour, and lendeth : he will guide his affairs with discretion.

6 Surely he shall not be moved for ever : the righteous shall be in ēvēr'lās'ting remembrance.

7 He shall not be āfrāid of evil tidings : his hēart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.

8 His hēart is ēstāb'lished, he shall not be āfrāid, until he see his dēsire upon his enemies.

9 He hath dispersed : he hath given to the poor ; his righteousness endureth for ever : his horn shall be exalted with hōn'our.

10 The wicked shall see it, and be griēved ; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt āwāy ; the desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM CXIII.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise, O ye sērvants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.

2 Blēs'sed be the name of the LORD, from this time forth and for evermore.

3 From the rising of the sun, unto the going down of the same, the LORD's name is to be praised.

4 The LORD is high ābōve all nations, and his glory ābōve the heavens.

5 Who is like unto the LORD our God, who dwelleth on high,

6 Who hūmblēth himself to behold the things that āre in heaven, and in the earth !

7 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill ;

8 That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

9 He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mōther of children. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXIV.

WHEN Iſ'ra-ēl went out of Ē'g'yp't, the house of Jā'qōb from a people of strānge language,

2 Jū'dāh was his sanctuary, and Iſ'ra-ēl his dominion.

3 The sea saw it, and fled ; Jōr'dān was driven back.

4 The mōūn'tāins skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.

5 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest ? thou Jōr'dān, that thou wast driven back ?

6 Ye mōūn'tāins, that ye skipped like rams ; and ye little hills, like lambs ?

7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the God of Jā'qōb ;

8 Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fōūn'tain of waters.

PSALM CXV.

NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us, L but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

2 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God ?

3 But our God is in the heavens ; he hath done whatsoever he pleased.

4 Their idols āre silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

5 They have mouths, but they speak not ; eyes have they, but they see not ;

6 They have ears, but they hear not ; noses have they, but they smell not ;

7 They have hands, but they handle not ; feet have they, but they walk not ; nēither speak they through their throat.

8 They that make them āre like unto them ; so is every one that trusteth in them.

9 O Iſ'ra-ēl, trust thou in the LORD ; he is their help and their shiēld.

10 O house of Aā'rōn, trust in the LORD ; he is their help and their shiēld.

11 Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD ; he is their help and their shiēld.

12 The LORD hath been mindful of us ; he will bless us : he will bless the house of Iſ'ra-ēl, he will bless the house of Aā'rōn.

13 He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great.

14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

15 Ye āre blēs'sed of the LORD, which made heaven and earth.

16 The heaven, even the heavens, āre the LORD's : but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

17 The dead praise not the LORD, nēither any that go down into silence.

18 But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the LORD.

PSALM CXVI.

I LOVE the LORD, because he hath hēard my voice and my supplications.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, thêrê'fôre will I call upon him as long as I live.

3 The sorrows of death côm'pâssed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon the name of the LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the LORD, and right ous; yêa, our God is mērciful.

6 The LORD prēsērv'eth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped .ne.

7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.

8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tear, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.

10 I believ'd, thêrê'fôre have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted.

11 I said in my haste, All men are liars.

12 What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits tō'wârd's me?

13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD.

14 I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people.

15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.

16 O LORD, truly I am thy sêrvant; I am thy sêrvant, and the son of thy handmaid: thou hast lōdsed my bonds.

17 I will offer to thee the sâc'rifiçe of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the LORD.

18 I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people,

19 In the courts of the LORD's house, in the midst of thee, O Jê-rû'sa-lêm. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXVII.

O PRAISE the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

2 For his mērciful kindness is great tō'wârd us: and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXVIII.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD; for he is good; because his mērcy endureth for ever.

2 Let Īs'ra-ël now say, that his mērcy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aâ'rôn now say, that his mērcy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mērcy endureth for ever.

5 I called upon the LORD in distress: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place.

6 The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

7 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: thêrê'fôre shall I see my de-sire upon them that hate me.

* This Psalm is divided by the names and characters of the Hebrew alphabet.

8 It is better to trust in the LORD, than to put confidence in man:

9 It is better to trust in the LORD, than to put confidence in princes.

10 All nations côm'pâssed me about', but in the name of the LORD will I dēstrôy' them.

11 They côm'pâssed me about'; yêa, they côm'pâssed me about': but in the name of the LORD I will dēstrôy' them.

12 They côm'pâssed me about' like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: in the name of the LORD I will dēstrôy' them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me, that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

14 The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

16 The right hand of the LORD is exalted; the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.

18 The LORD hath châstened me sore; but he hath not given me over unto death.

19 Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go in to them, and I will praise the LORD;

20 This gate of the LORD, into which the righteous shall enter.

21 I will praise thee; for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation.

22 The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.

23 This is the LORD's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the LORD hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

25 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

26 Blēs'sed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

27 God is the LORD, which hath showed us light: bind the sâc'rifiçe with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee; thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

29 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

PSALM CXIX.*

ALEPH. ℵ

BLES'SED are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD.

2 Blēs'sed are they that keep his tēs'timônies, and that seek him with the whole hēart.

3 They also do no iniquity : they walk in his ways.

4 Thou hast cōmmān'ded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

5 O that my ways wēre dirēcted to keep thy statutes!

6 Then shall I not be āshāmed, when I have respect unto all thy cōmmān'dments.

7 I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have lēarned thy righteous judgments.

8 I will keep thy statutes : O forsake me not utterly.

BETH. 3

9 Wherewith shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

10 With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wānder from thy cōmmān'dments.

11 Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin āgainst' thee.

12 Blēssed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes.

13 With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy tēs'timōnies, as much as in all riches.

15 I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

16 I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

GIMEL. 3

17 Deal bountifully with thy sērvant, that I may live, and keep thy word.

18 Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wōndrous things out of thy law.

19 I am a strānger in the ēarth; hide not thy cōmmān'dments from me.

20 My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.

21 Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do err from thy cōmmān'dments.

22 Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy tēs'timōnies.

23 Princes also did sit and speak āgainst' me: but thy sērvant did meditate in thy statutes.

24 Thy tēs'timōnies also are my delight, and my counsellors.

DALETH. 7

25 My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word.

26 I have declared my ways, and thou heardst me: teach me thy statutes.

27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wōndrous works.

28 My soul melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy word.

29 Remove from me the way of lying; and grānt me thy law graciously.

30 I have chosēn the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me.

31 I have stuck unto thy tēs'timōnies: O LORD, put me not to shame.

32 I will run the way of thy cōmmān'dments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart.

HE. 7

33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes, and I shall keep it unto the end.

34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yēa, I shall obēserve' it with my whole heart.

35 Make me to go in the pāth of thy cōmmān'dments; for therein do I delight.

36 Incline my heart unto thy tēs'timōnies, and not to cōvetousness.

37 Turn āway mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

38 Stablish thy word unto thy sērvant who is devoted to thy fear.

39 Turn āway my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

40 Behold, I have longed āfter thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness.

VAU. 7

41 Let thy mērcies come also unto me, O LORD; even thy salvation, according to thy word.

42 So shall I have wherewith to ānswer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.

43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

44 So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever.

45 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.

46 I will speak of thy tēs'timōnies also before kings, and will not be āshāmed.

47 And I will delight myself in thy cōmmān'dments, which I have loved.

48 My hands also will I lift up unto thy cōmmān'dments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes.

ZAIN. 7

49 Remember the word unto thy sērvant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope.

50 This is my cōm'fōrt in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me.

51 The proud have had me greatly in derision; yet have I not declined from thy law.

52 I remembered thy judgments of old, O LORD; and have cōm'fōrted myself.

53 Horror hath taken hold upon me, because of the wicked that forsake thy law.

54 Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.

55 I have remembered thy name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept thy law.

56 This I had, because I kept thy precepts.

CHETH. ¶

57 Thou art my pōrtion, O LORD: I have said that I would keep thy words.

58 I entreated thy favour with my whole heart: be mērciful unto me according to thy word.

59 I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy tēs'timōnies.

60 I made haste, and delayed not, to keep thy cōmmānd'ments.

61 The hands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee, because of thy righteous judgments.

63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.

64 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mērcy: teach me thy statutes.

TETH. ¶

65 Thou hast dealt well with thy sērvant, O LORD, according unto thy word.

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believ'd thy cōmmānd'ments.

67 Before I was afflicted I went āstrāy: but now have I kept thy word.

68 Thou art good, and doest good: teach me thy statutes.

69 The proud have fōrged a lie āgainst' me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.

70 Their heart is as fat as grease: but I delight in thy law.

71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might lēarn thy statutes.

72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

JOD. ¶

73 Thy hands have made me, and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may lēarn thy cōmmānd'ments.

74 They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in thy word.

75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.

76 Let, I pray thee, thy mērciful kindness be for my cōmfōrt, according to thy word unto thy sērvant.

77 Let thy tender mērcies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight.

78 Let the proud be āshāmed, for they dealt pērvērsely with me without a cause: but I will meditate in thy precepts.

79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy tēs'timōnies.

80 Let my heart be sound in thy statutes, that I be not āshāmed.

CAPH. ¶

81 My soul fainteth for thy salvation; but I hope in thy word

82 Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, When wilt thou cōmfōrt me?

83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes.

84 How many are the days of thy sērvant? when wilt thou execute judgment on them that pērsecute me?

85 The proud have digged pits for me, which are not āfter thy law.

86 All thy cōmmānd'ments are faithful: they pērsecute me wrongfully; help thou me.

87 They had almost consumed me upon earth: but I forsook not thy precepts.

88 Quicken me āfter thy loving-kindness; so shall I keep the tēs'timōny of thy mouth.

LAMED. ¶

89 For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven.

90 Thy faithfulness is unto all generations; thou hast estāblished the earth, and it ābideth.

91 They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy sērvants.

92 Unless thy law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine affliction.

93 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me.

94 I am thine, save me: for I have sought thy precepts.

95 The wicked have waited for me, to dēstrōy' me: but I will consider thy tēs'timōnies.

96 I have seen an end of all pērfēc'tion: but thy cōmmānd'ment is exceeding broad.

MEM. ¶

97 O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

98 Thou, through thy cōmmānd'ments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy tēs'timōnies are my meditation.

100 I understand more than the āncients; because I keep thy precepts.

101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I may keep thy word.

102 I have not departed from thy cōmmānd'ments: for thou hast taught me.

103 How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yēa, sweeter than hōney to my mouth!

104 Through thy precepts I get' understanding: thērefōre I hate every false way.

NUN. ¶

105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my pāth.

106 I have sworn, and I will pērfōrm it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.

107 I am afflicted very much: quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.

108 Accept, I beseech thee, the free-will-offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy judgments.

109 My soul is continually in my hand : yet do I not forget thy law.

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me : yet I erred not from thy precepts.

111 Thy tēs'timónies have I taken as an heritage for ever : for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

112 I have inclined mine heart to pērform' thy statutes alway, even unto the end.

SAMECH. Ⲁ

113 I hate vain thoughts : but thy law do I love.

114 Thou art my hiding-place and my shield : I hope in thy word.

115 Depart from me, ye evil-doers : for I will keep the cōmmānd'ments of my God.

116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live : and let me not be āshām-ed of my hope.

117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe : and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

118 Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes : for their decēit is falsehood.

119 Thou puttēst āwāy all the wicked of the *ē*arth like dross : thēre'fōre I love thy tēs'timónies.

120 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee ; and I am āfrāid of thy judgments.

AIN. Ⲳ

121 I have done judgment and justice : leave me not to mine oppressors.

122 Be surety for thy sērvant for good : let not the proud oppress me.

123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.

124 Deal with thy sērvant according unto thy mērcy, and teach me thy statutes.

125 I am thy sērvant, give me understanding, that I may know thy tēs'timónies.

126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work ; for they have made void thy law.

127 Thēre'fōre I love thy cōmmānd'ments ābōve gold, yēa, ābōve fine gold.

128 Thēre'fōre I *ē*stēem' all thy precepts cōncēr'nīng all things to be right ; and I hate every false way.

PE. Ⲅ

129 Thy tēs'timónies āre wōnderful : thēre'fōre dōth my soul keep them.

130 The entrance of thy words giveth light ; it giveth understanding unto the simple.

131 I opened my mouth, and pānted : for I longed for thy cōmmānd'ments.

132 Look thou upon me, and be mērciful unto me, as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name.

133 Order my steps in thy word : and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.

134 Deliver me from the oppression of man : so will I keep thy precepts.

135 Make thy face to shine upon thy sērvant ; and teach me thy statutes.

136 Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law.

TSADDI. Ⲇ

137 Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright āre thy judgments.

138 Thy tēs'timónies that thou hast cōmmānd'ed āre righteous and very faithful.

139 My zeal hath consumed me : because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

140 Thy word is very pure : thēre'fōre thy sērvant loveth it.

141 I am small and dēspīsed ; yet do not I forget thy precepts.

142 Thy righteousness is an ēvērlās'ting righteousness, and thy law is the truth.

143 Trōuble and anguish have taken hold on me : yet thy cōmmānd'ments āre my delights.

144 The righteousness of thy tēs'timónies is ēvērlās'ting : give me understanding, and I shall live.

KOPH. Ⲉ

145 I cried with my whole heart ; hear me, O LORD : I will keep thy statutes.

146 I cried unto thee ; save me, and I shall keep thy tēs'timónies.

147 I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried : I hoped in thy word.

148 Mine eyes prevent the *n*ight-watches, that I might meditate in thy word.

149 Hear my voice, according unto thy loving-kindness : O LORD, quicken me according to thy judgment.

150 They draw nigh that follow āfter mis'chief : they āre far from thy law.

151 Thou art near, O LORD ; and all thy cōmmānd'ments āre truth.

152 Cōncēr'nīng thy tēs'timónies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them for ever.

RESH. Ⲋ

153 Consider mine affliction, and deliver me ; for I do not forget thy law.

154 Plead my cause, and deliver me quicken me according to thy word.

155 Salvation is far from the wicked for they seek not thy statutes.

156 Great āre thy tender mērcies, O LORD ; quicken me according to thy judgments.

157 Many āre my pēsecutors and mine enemies ; yet do I not decline from thy tēs'timónies.

158 I beheld the transgressors, and was grīevēd ; because they kept not thy word.

159 Consider how I love thy precepts quicken me, O LORD, according to thy loving-kindness.

160 Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

SCHIN.

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.

162 I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil.

163 I hate and abhor lying; but thy law do I love.

164 Seven times a day do I praise thee: because of thy righteous judgments.

165 Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.

166 LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation, and done thy commandments.

167 My soul hath kept thy tēs'timōnīes; and I love them exceedingly.

168 I have kept thy precepts and thy tēs'timōnīes: for all my ways are before thee.

TAU.

169 Let my cry come near before thee, O LORD: give me understanding according to thy word.

170 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.

171 My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes.

172 My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness.

173 Let thine hand help me: for I have chosen thy precepts.

174 I have longed for thy salvation, O LORD; and thy law is my delight.

175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgments help me.

176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep: seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

PSALM CXX.

A Song of Degrees.

IN my distress I cried unto the LORD, and he heard me.

2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.

3 What shall be given unto thee, or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?

4 Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

5 Wo is me that I sō'journ in Mēs'ēch, that I dwell in the tents of Kē'dār!

6 My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace.

7 I am for peace: but, when I speak, they are for war.

PSALM CXXI.

A Song of Degrees.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

4 Behold, he that keepeth Iṣ'ra-ēl shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The LORD is thy keeper; the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.

6 The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

7 The LORD shall prēs'erve' thee from all evil: he shall prēs'erve' thy soul.

8 The LORD shall prēs'erve' thy going out, and thy coming in, from this time forth, and even for evermore.

PSALM CXXII.

A Song of Degrees of Dāvīd.

I WAS glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the LORD.

2 Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

3 Jē-rū'sa-lēm is builded as a city that is compact together:

4 Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, unto the tēs'timōny of Iṣ'ra-ēl, to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.

5 For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of Dāvīd.

6 Pray for the peace of Jē-rū'sa-lēm: they shall prosper that love thee.

7 Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

9 Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.

PSALM CXXIII.

A Song of Degrees.

UNTO thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM CXXIV.

A Song of Degrees of Dāvīd.

IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side, now may Iṣ'ra-ēl say;

2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against' us;

3 Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrāth was kindled against' us:

4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:

5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

6 Blés'sed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul is éscáped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we áre éscáped.

8 Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and éarth.

PSALM CXXV.

A Song of Degrees.

THEY that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zi'ón, which cannot be removed, but ábideth for ever.

2 As the móú'n'tains áre round ábout' Jē-rá'sa-lēm, so the LORD is round ábout' his peopie from henceforth, even for ever.

3 For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the rígh'teous; lést the rígh'teous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

4 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that áre upright in their héarts.

5 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Ís'ra-él.

PSALM CXXVI.

A Song of Degrees.

WHEN the LORD turned ágain' the captivity of Zi'ón, we wére like them that dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tóngue with singing: then said they ámong the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them.

3 The LORD hath done great things for us, whereof we áre glad.

4 Turn ágain' our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.

5 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall, doubtless, come ágain' with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

PSALM CXXVII.

A Song of Degrees for Söl'o-món.

EXCEPT the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the wácht-man waketh but in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up éarly, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

3 Lo, children áre a heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

4 As arrows áre in the hand of a mighty man: so áre children of the youth.

5 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be áshámed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

PSALM CXXVIII.

A Song of Degrees.

BLES'SED is every one that feareth the LORD; that walketh in his ways.

2 For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive-plants round ábout' thy table.

4 Behold, that thus shall the man be bléss'ed that feareth the LORD.

5 The LORD shall bless thee out of Zi'ón: and thou shalt see the good of Jē-rá'sa-lēm all the days of thy life.

6 Yēa, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Ís'ra-él.

PSALM CXXIX.

A Song of Degrees.

MANY a time have they afflicted me from my youth, may Ís'ra-él now say:

2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth; yet they have not prevailed ágainst' me.

3 The ploughers ploughed upon my back; they made long their furrows.

4 The LORD is rígh'teous:¹ he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

5 Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zi'ón:

6 Let them be as the gráss upon the house-tops, which withereth áfore it groweth up;

7 Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand, nor he that bindeth sheaves, his bò'sóm.

8 Néither do they which go by say, The blessing of the LORD be upon you: we bless you in the name of the LORD.

PSALM CXXX.

A Song of Degrees.

OUT of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.

2 LORD, hear my voice; let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

3 If thou, LORD, shouldst mark iniquities, O LORD, who shall stand?

4 But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayst be feared.

5 I wait for the LORD, my soul dóth wait, and in his word do I hope.

6 My soul waiteth for the LORD more than they that wáitch for the morning; I say, more than they that wáitch for the morning.

7 Let Ís'ra-él hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mércy, and with him is plén'teous redemption.

8 And he shall redeem Ís'ra-él from all his iniquities.

PSALM CXXXI.

A Song of Degrees of Dá'vid.

LORD, my héart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: néither do I exer cise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me.

2 Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child.

3 Let Iṣ'ra-ēl hope in the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

PSALM CXXXII.

A Song of Degrees.

LORD, remember Dā'vid, and all his afflictions;

2 How he sware unto the LORD, and vowed unto the mighty God of Jā'cōb;

3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;

4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids,

5 Until I find out a place for the LORD, a habitation for the mighty God of Jā'cōb.

6 Lo, we heard of it at Eph'ra-tāh; we found it in the fields of the wood.

7 We will go into his tabernacles; we will worship at his footstool.

8 Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou and the ark of thy strength.

9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.

10 For thy servant Dā'vid's sake turn not away the face of thine anointed.

11 The LORD hath sworn in truth unto Dā'vid, he will not turn from it, Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

12 If thy children will keep my covenant, and my tes'timony that I shall teach them, their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.

13 For the LORD hath chosen Zi'on: he hath desired it for his habitation.

14 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

15 I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.

16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation; and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

17 There will I make the horn of Dā'vid to bud: I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed.

18 His enemies will I clothe with shame; but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

PSALM CXXXIII.

A Song of Degrees of Dā'vid.

BEHOLD, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aā'rōn's beard; that went down to the skirts of his garments;

3 As the dew of Hēr'mōn, and as the dew that descended upon the mōū'tains of Zi'on: for there the LORD cōmmā'nded the blessing, even life for evermore.

PSALM CXXXIV.

A Song of Degrees.

BEHOLD, bless ye the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD, which by night stand in the house of the LORD.

2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the LORD.

3 The LORD, that made heaven and earth, bless thee out of Zi'on.

PSALM CXXXV.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise ye the name of the LORD; praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.

2 Ye that stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God,

3 Praise ye the LORD; for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleās'ant.

4 For the LORD hath chosen Jā'cōb unto himself, and Iṣ'ra-ēl for his peculiar treās'ure.

5 For I know that the LORD is great, and that our LORD is above all gods.

6 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.

7 He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings for the rain: he bringeth the wind out of his treās'uries.

8 Who smote the first-born of E'g'yp't, both of man and beast.

9 Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O E'g'yp't, upon Phā'raōh, and upon all his servants.

10 Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings;

11 Sī'hōn king of the ā'm'o-rītes, and Ōg king of Bā'shān, and all the kingdoms of Cā'na-an:

12 And gave their land for a heritage, a heritage unto Iṣ'ra-ēl his people.

13 Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations.

14 For the LORD will judge his people, and he will repent himself concerning his servants.

15 The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

16 They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

17 They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths.

18 They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them.

19 Bless the LORD, O house of Iṣ'ra-ēl: bless the LORD, O house of Aā'rōn:

20 Bless the LORD, O house of Lē'vī: ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD.

21 Bless'd be the LORD out of Zi'on, which dwelleth at Jē-rū'sa-lēm. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXXXVI.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

2 O give thanks unto the God of gods: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

3 O give thanks to the LORD of lords: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

4 To him who ālōne dōth great wōnders: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

5 To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

6 To him that stretched out the ēarth ābōve the waters: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

7 To him that made great lights: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

8 The sun to rule by day: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

9 The moon and stars to rule by night: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

10 To him that smote Ē'ġypt in their first-born: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

11 And brought out Iṣ'ra-ēl from āmōng them: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

12 With a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

13 To him which dividēd the Red Sea into parts: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

14 And made Iṣ'ra-ēl to pāss through the midst of it: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

15 But overthrew Phā'raōh and his host in the Red Sea: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

16 To him which led his people through the wilderness: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

17 To him which smote great kings: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

18 And slew famous kings: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

19 Sī'hōn king of the ām'o-rītes: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

20 And ōg the king of Bā'shān: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

21 And gave their land for a heritage: for his mērcy endureth for ever:

22 Even a heritage unto Iṣ'ra-ēl his sēr-vant: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

23 Who remembered us in our low ēs-tāte': for his mērcy endureth for ever:

24 And hath redeemed us from our enemies: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

25 Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

26 O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mērcy endureth for ever.

PSALM CXXXVII.

BY the rivers of Bāb'y-lōn there we sat down; yēa, we wept, when we remembered Zī'ōn.

2 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.

3 For there they that carried us āwāy captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth,¹ saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zī'ōn.

4 How shall we sing the LORD'S song in a strānge land?

5 If I forget thee, O Jē-rū'sa-lēm, let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tōngue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I p̄fēr' not Jē-rū'sa-lēm ābōve my chief joy.

7 Remember, O LORD, the children of Ē'dōm in the day of Jē-rū'sa-lēm; who said, Raḡe it, raḡe it, even to the foundation thereof.

8 O dāughter of Bāb'y-lōn, who art to be dēstrōy'ed; happy shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast sērv'd us.

9 Happy shall he be that taketh and dasheth thy little ones āgainst' the stones.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

A Psalm of Dā'vid.

I WILL praise thee with my whole heart; before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 I will wōr'shīp tō'wārd's thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy loving-kindness, and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word ābōve all thy name.

3 In the day when I cried thou ānswēredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the ēarth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

5 Yēa, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD.

6 Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth āfār off.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trōuble, thou wilt revive me; thou shalt stretch forth thine hand āgainst' the wrāth of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

8 The LORD will pērfect that which cōncērn'eth me: thy mērcy, O LORD, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands.

PSALM CXXXIX.

To the chief Musīç'ian. A Psalm of Dā'vid.

O LORD, thou hast sēarched me, and known me.

2 Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine up-rising; thou understandest my thought āfār off.

3 Thou cōm'passest my pāth and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways:

4 For there is not a word in my tōngue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it āltō-gēther.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7 Whither shall I go from thy Spir'it? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

12 Yēa, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possess'ed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me, therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred; I count them mine enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts;

24 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM CXL.

To the chief Musiq'ian. A Psalm of Dā'vid.

DELIVER me, O LORD, from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man;

2 Which imagine mischiefs in their heart: continually are they gathered together for war.

3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Sē'lāh.

4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings.

5 The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords: they have spread a net by the way-side: they have set gins for me. Sē'lāh.

6 I said unto the LORD, thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

7 O God the LORD, the strength of my salvation; thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked; further not his wicked device, lest they exalt themselves. Sē'lāh.

9 As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

10 Let burning coals fall upon them let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again!

11 Let not an evil-speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

12 I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name; the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

PSALM CXLI.

A Psalm of Dā'vid.

LORD, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

5 Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

7 Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

8 But mine eyes are unto thee, O God the Lord: in thee is my trust, leave not my soul destitute.

9 Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.

PSALM CXLII.

Más'chil of Dā'vid; a Prayer when he was in the cave.

I CRIED unto the LORD with my voice: with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaint before him: I showed before him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

5 I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge, and my portion in the land of the living.

6 Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors: for they are stronger than I.

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about'; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

PSALM CXLIII.

A Psālm of Dā'vid.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD; give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

4 There'fore is my spirit overwhelmed within me: my heart within me is desolate.

5 I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works: I muse on the work of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land. Sē'lāh.

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD; my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear thy loving-kindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies: I fly unto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy Spir'it is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.

11 Quicken me, O LORD, for thy name's sake: for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of thy mercy cut off mine enemies, and destroy' all them that afflict my soul: for I am thy servant.

PSALM CXLIV.

A Psālm of Dā'vid.

BLESSED be the LORD my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight:

2 My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me.

3 LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him? or the son of man, that thou makest account of him?

4 Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that pass'eth away.

5 Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch the mōū'tains, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy' them.

7 Send thine hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children;

8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity; and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psātery, and an instrument of ten strings, will I sing praises unto thee.

10 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who delivereth Dā'vid his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood:

12 That our sons may be as plānts grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner-stones, polished after the similitude of a palace:

13 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of store; that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets:

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour; that there be no breaking in, nor going out; that there be no complaining in our streets.

15 Happy is that people that is in such a case: yea, happy is that people, whose God is the LORD.

PSALM CXLV.

Dā'vid's Psālm of Praise.

I WILL extōl thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee, and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

4 One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5 I will speak of the glorious hōn'our of thy māj'esty,¹ and of thy wōndrous works.

6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness.

7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mērcy.

9 The LORD is good to all; and his tender mērcies are over all his works.

10 All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee.

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious māj'esty of his kingdom.

13 Thy kingdom is an ēvērlās'ting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bōwed down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

18 The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20 The LORD prēsērv'eth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he dēstrōy'.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

PSALM CXLVI.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.

2 While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

3 Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his ēarth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

5 Happy is he that hath the God of Jā'çōb for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God;

Which made heaven and ēarth, the sea, and all that therein is; which keepeth truth for ever;

7 Which executeth judgment for the oppressed; which giveth food to the hungry. The LORD lōōseth the prisoners.

8 The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bōwed down: the LORD loveth the righteous.

9 The LORD prēsērv'eth the strāngers, he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

10 The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zi'ōn, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLVII.

PRAISE ye the LORD: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is plēas'ant; and praise is comely.

2 The LORD dóth build up Jē-rú'salēm: he gāthereth togethēr the ōūt'cāsts of Iŷ'ra-ēl.

3 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wōunds.

4 He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

5 Great is our LORD, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

6 The LORD lifeth up the meek; he cāsteth the wicked down to the ground.

7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God;

8 Who cōvereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the ēarth, who maketh grāss to grow upon the mōūn'tāins.

9 He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

10 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse; he taketh not plēas'ure in the legs of a man.

11 The LORD taketh plēas'ure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mērcy.

12 Praise the LORD, O Jē-rú'salēm; praise thy God, O Zi'ōn.

13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blēs'sed thy children within thee.

14 He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

15 He sendeth forth his cōmmānd'ment upon ēarth: his word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.

17 He cāsteth forth his ice like mōr'sels:² who can stand before his cold?

18 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19 He showeth his word unto Jā'çōb, his statutes and his judgments unto Iŷ'ra-ēl.

20 He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLVIII.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens: praise him in the heights.

² mōr'sils.

2 Praise ye him, all his ängels: praise ye him, all his hosts.

3 Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.

4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be äböve the heavens.

5 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for he cömmän'ded, and they were created.

6 He hath also estäb'lished them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not päss.

7 Praise the LORD from the äarth, ye dragons, and all deeps.

8 Fire and hail; snow and vapour; stormy wind fulfilling his word:

9 Möün'tains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:

10 Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and flying fowl:

11 Kings of the äarth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the äarth:

12 Both young men and maidens; old men and children:

13 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for his name älöne is excellent; his glory is äböve the äarth and heaven.

14 He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Iş'ra-ël, a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLIX.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

2 Let Iş'ra-ël rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zi'ön be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise his name in the dänce: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

4 For the LORD taketh pleäs'ure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.

5 Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing älöüd upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged swörd in their hand;

7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;

8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

9 To execute upon them the judgment written: this hön'our have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CL.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament¹ of his power.

2 Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

3 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psältery and harp.

4 Praise him with the timbrel and dänce: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

5 Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

6 Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.

¶ The PROV'ERBS.

CHAPTER I.

THE Pröv'ërbs of Söl'o-mön, the son of Dä'vid, king of Iş'ra-ël;

2 To know wisdom and instruction; to percëive' the words of understanding;

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

4 To give subtlety to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase lear'ning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels;

6 To understand a pröv'ërb, and the interpretä'tion; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise' wisdom and instruction.

8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy möther:

9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up älive, as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cäst in thy lot ämóng us; let us all have one purse.

15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their päth:

16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood:

17 (Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird:)

¹ fër'ma-mënt.

Wisdom promiseth godliness to her PROVERBS. children, and safety from all evil.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So àre the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh àwày the life of the owners thereof.

20 Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets;

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity, and the scornors delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn ye at my reproof; behold, I will pour out my Spir'it unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

24 Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof;

26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh.

27 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirl'wind;¹ when distress and anguish cometh upon you;

28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not chòse the fear of the LORD:

30 They would none of my counsel; they despised all my reproof:

31 There'fore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

32 For the turning àwày of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destròy² them.

33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

CHAP. II.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my còmmand'ments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest àfter knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid tréasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God:

6 For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding;

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and prèserv'eth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yèa, every good path.

10 When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleàs'ant unto thy soul,

11 Discretion shall prèserve³ thee, understanding shall keep thee;

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh frò'wàrd things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frò'wàrdness of the wicked;

15 Whose ways àre crooked, and they frò'wàrd in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the còvenant of her God.

18 For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead;

19 Nòne that go unto her return àgain', neither take they hold of the paths of life;

20 That thou mayst walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

CHAP. III.

MY son, forget not my law; but let thy heart keep my còmmand'ments:

2 For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee; bind them àbout' thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:

4 So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

7 Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

8 It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

9 Hòn'our the LORD with thy substance, and with the first-fruits of all thine increase:

10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

11 My son, despise not the chàs'tening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth, even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

13 Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding:

14 For the mēr'chāndīse of it is better than the mēr'chāndīse of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

15 She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

16 Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and hōn'our.

17 Her ways are ways of plēaš'antness, and all her pāths are peace.

18 She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her; and happy is every one that retaineth her.

19 The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he estāb'lished the heavens.

20 By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.

21 My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion.

22 So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck.

23 Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

24 When thou liest down thou shalt not be āfrāid; yēa, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

25 Be not āfrāid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

27 Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.

28 Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come āgain', and to-morrow I will give, when thou hast it by thee.

29 Devise not evil āgainst' thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

30 Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

31 Envy thou not the oppressor, and chōḡse nōne of his ways.

32 For the frō'ward is abomination to the LORD: but his secret is with the righteous.

33 The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just.

34 Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

35 The wise shall inherit glory; but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

CHAP. IV.

HEAR, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

3 For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

4 He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my cōmmānd'ments, and live.

5 Get wisdom, get understanding; for get it not: neither decline from the words of my mouth.

6 Forsake her not, and she shall p̄s̄erve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.

7 Wisdom is the principal thing: th̄erefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to hōn'our, when thou dost embrace her.

9 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace; a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many.

11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right pāths.

12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

13 Take fāst hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

14 Enter not into the pāth of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

15 Avoid it, pāss not by it, turn from it, and pāss āwāy.

16 For they sleep not, except they have done mis'chief; and their sleep is taken āwāy, unless they cause some to fall.

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

18 But the pāth of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the p̄rfect day.

19 The way of the wicked is as darkness; they know not at what they stumble.

20 My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings:

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart:

22 For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

23 Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

24 Put āwāy from thee a frō'ward mouth, and p̄rverse' lips put far from thee.

25 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

26 Ponder the pāth of thy feet, and let all thy ways be estāb'lished.

27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

CHAP. V.—

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding;
2 That thou mayst regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.

3 For the lips of a strange woman drop as a honey-comb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:

4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword

5 Her feet go down to death, her steps take hold on hell.

6 Läst thou shouldst pender the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now, thère'fore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house;

9 Läst thou give thine hön'our unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

10 Läst strangers be filled with thy wealth, and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

11 And thou mourn at the läst, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

12 And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;

13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

14 I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

15 ¶ Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.

16 Let thy föün'tains be dispèrs'ed äbroäd, and rivers of waters in the streets.

17 Let them be only thine own, and not strangers with thee.

18 ¶ Let thy föün'tain be blèss'ed; and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.

19 Let her be as the loving hind and pleäs'ant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times, and be thou ravished always with her love.

20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bò'sóm of a stranger?

21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.

22 His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

23 He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go ästráy.

CHAP. VI.—

MY son, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself; when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.

4 Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 ¶ Go to the änt, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

9 How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou ärise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep;

11 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy wänt as an armed man

12 ¶ A naughty pèrson, a wicked man, walketh with a frö'ward mouth.

13 He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

14 Frö'wärdnèss is in his heart, he deviçeth mis'chief continually; he soweth discord.

15 Thère'fore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

16 ¶ These six things dóth the LORD hate; yea, seven are an abomination unto him:

17 A proud look, a lying tóngue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

18 A heart that deviçeth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mis'chief, 19 A false witness that speaketh lies, and him that soweth discord ämóng brèthren.

20 ¶ My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy móther:

21 Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about' thy neck.

22 When thou goest, it shall lead thee, when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou äwäkest, it shall talk with thee.

23 For the cömmänd'ment is a lamp, and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

24 To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flatery of the tóngue of a strange woman.

25 Lust not äfter her beauty in thine heart; néither let her take thee with her eyelids:

26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a pièce of bread; and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bò'sóm, and his clothes not be burnt?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burnt?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife ; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry :

31 But if he be found, he shall restore seven-fold ; he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding : he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

33 A wound and dishonour shall he get, and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy is the rage of a man ; therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He will not regard any ransom ; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

CHAP. VII.—

MY son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

2 Keep my commandments, and live ; and my law as the apple of thine eye.

3 Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 Say unto Wisdom, Thou art my sister ; and call Understanding thy kinswoman :

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

6 For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

8 Pasing through the street near her corner ; and he went the way to her house ;

9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night :

10 And, behold, there met him a woman, with the attire of a harlot, and subtle of heart.

11 (She is loud and stubborn ; her feet abide not in her house :

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him,

14 I have peace-offerings with me ; this day have I paid my vows :

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face ; and I have found thee.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh,¹ aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning ; let us solace ourselves with loves :

19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone a long journey :

20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.

21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks ;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver, as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 Hearken unto me now, therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth :

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths :

26 For she hath cast down many wounded ; yea, many strong men have been slain by her.

27 Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

CHAP. VIII.

DOETH not Wisdom cry ? and Understanding put forth her voice ?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths ;

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors ;

4 Unto you, O men, I call ; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom ; and ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear ; for I will speak of excellent things ; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth ; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness ; there is nothing forward or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies ; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I Wisdom dwell with Prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 The fear of the Lord is to hate evil ; pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the forward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom : I am understanding ; I have strength.

15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I love them that love me ; and those that seek me early shall find me.

18 Riches and honour are with me ; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold ; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment ;

¹ mēr.

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

22 The LORD possess'ed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 I was set up from év'rlās'ting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there wēre no depths, I was brought forth; when there wēre no fōū'n'tains ābōū'n'ding with water.

25 Before the mōū'n'tains wēre settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there; when he set a cōm'pāss upon the face of the depth;

28 When he estāb'lished the clouds ābōve; when he strengthened the fōū'n'tains of the deep;

29 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pās his cōm'mān'd'ment; when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 Then I was by him, as one brought up with him; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights wēre with the sons of men.

32 Now, thēre'fore, hearken unto me, O ye children: for blēs'sed āre they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34 Blēs'sed is the man that heareth me, wātch'ing daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth āgainst' me wrong-eth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

CHAP. IX.

WISDOM hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:

2 She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table:

3 She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city,

4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wānteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame; and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser; teach a just man, and he will increase in lēar'n'ing.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou ālone shalt hear it.

13 ¶ A foolish woman is clamorous; she is simple, and knoweth nōthing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways;

16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wānteth understanding, she saith to him,

17 Stolen waters āre sweet, and bread eaten in secret is plēas'ant.

18 But he knoweth not that the dead āre there; and that her guēsts āre in the depths of hell.

CHAP. X.

THE Prōv'ērs of Sōl'o-mōn. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mōther.

2 Trēas'ures of wickedness profit nōthing: but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he cāsteth āway the substance of the wicked.

4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gāthereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings āre upon the head of the just: but violence cōvereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the just is blēs'sed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive cōm'mān'd'ments: but a prating fool shall fall.

9 He that wālketh uprightly wālketh surely: but he that pērvērt'eth his ways shall be known.

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow; but a prating fool shall fall.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence cōvereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love cōvereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life; and the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction : but he that refuseth reproof erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin : but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver : the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many : but fools die for want of wisdom.

22 The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich ; and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 It is as sport to a fool to do mischief : but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him : but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more : but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

27 The fear of the LORD prolongeth days : but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness : but the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright ; but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall never be removed : but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

31 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom : but the forward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable : but the mouth of the wicked speaketh forwardness.

CHAP. XI.

A FALSE balance is abomination to the LORD : but a just weight is his delight.

2 When pride cometh, then cometh shame : but with the lowly is wisdom.

3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them ; but the perverse'ness of transgressors shall destroy' them.

4 Riches profit not in the day of wrath : but righteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way ; but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them : but transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

7 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish ; and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 A hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour : but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10 When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth : and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted : but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour : but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 A tale-bearer revealeth secrets : but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14 Where no counsel is, the people fall : but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

15 He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it : and he that hateth suretiship is sure.

16 A gracious woman retaineth honour : and strong men retain riches.

17 The merciful man doeth good to his own soul : but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work : but to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tendeth to life ; so he that pursueth evil, pursueth it to his own death.

20 They that are of a forward heart are abomination to the LORD : but such as are upright in their way are his delight:

21 Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished : but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good : but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth ; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25 The liberal soul shall be made fat : and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

26 He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him : but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour : but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

28 He that trusteth in his riches shall fall : but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind : and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life ; and he that winneth souls is wise.

31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth : much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAP. XII.

WHOSO loveth instruction loveth knowledge : but he that hateth reproof is brutish.

2 A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

3 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

4 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are right but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

6 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

7 The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.

9 He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11 He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding.

12 The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

13 The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth; and the recompense of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

16 A fool's wrath is presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame.

17 He that speaketh truth showeth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

18 There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

22 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.

23 A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.

25 Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad.

26 The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

28 In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death.

CHAP. XIII.

A WISE son heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

2 A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.

3 He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

4 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

5 A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

6 Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth the sinner.

7 There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing; there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

8 The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.

10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well-advised is wisdom.

11 Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall increase.

12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

15 Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is hard.

16 Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool layeth open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health.

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.

19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

21 Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repaid.

22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children; and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

23 Much food is in the tillage of the poor : but there is that is destrôy'ed for want of judgment.

24 He that spareth his rod hateth his son : but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul : but the belly of the wicked shall want.

CHAP. XIV.

EVERY wise woman buildeth her house : but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD : but he that is pèrvèrse' in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride : but the lips of the wise shall préserve' them.

4 Where no excn àre, the crib is clean : but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A faithful witness will not lie : but a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not : but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou pèrcéivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way : but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin : but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth his own bitterness ; and a stranger dôth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown : but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man ; but the end thereof àre the ways of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful ; and the end of that mirth is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways ; and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word : but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil : but the fool rageth, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly ; and a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly : but the prudent àre crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bôw before the good ; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbour : but the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth : but he that hath mèrcy on the poor, happy is he.

22 Do they not èrr that devise evil ? but mèrcy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit : but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches : but the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 A true witness delivereth souls : but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence ; and his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 The fear of the LORD is a fôun'tain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the king's hôn'our : but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding : but he that is hasty of spirit it exálteth folly.

30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh but envy the rottenness of the bones.

31 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Ma'ker : but he that hônoureth him hath mèrcy on the poor.

32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness : but the righteous hath hope in his death.

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding : but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

34 Righteousness exálteth a nation : but sin is a reproach to any people.

35 The king's favour is tô'ward a wise servant : but his wrath is àgainst' him that causeth shame.

CHAP. XV.

A SOFT answer turneth away wrath : but griev'ous words stir up anger.

2 The tóngue of the wise useth knowledge aright : but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

3 The eyes of the LORD àre in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 A wholesome tóngue is a tree of life : but pèrvèrse'ness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction : but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much tréas'ure : but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise dispèrse' knowledge : but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

8 The sàc'rifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD : but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD : but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

10 Correction is griev'ous unto him that forsaketh the way ; and he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 Hell and destruction àre before the LORD ; how much more then the hearts of the children of men ?

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him; neither will he go unto the wise.

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 Better is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox, and hatred therewith.

18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the slothful man is as a hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth; and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!

24 The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house: but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The LORD is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart; and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

CHAP. XVI.

THE preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes: but the Lord weigheth the spirits.

3 Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established.

4 The LORD hath made all things for himself; yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is purged; and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

7 When a man's ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right.

9 A man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps.

10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

11 A just weight and balance are the LORD's; all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness; for the throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings, and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death; but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold? and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver?

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good; and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent; and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is a well-spring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

23 The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 He that laboreth, laboreth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.

27 An ungodly man diggeth up evil; and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

28 A forward man soweth strife; and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise frōward things ; moving his lips, he bringeth evil to pās.

31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty ; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

33 The lot is cāst into the lap ; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

CHAP. XVII.

BBETTER is a dry mōr'sel,¹ and quietness therewith, than a house full of sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise sērvant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brēthren.

3 The fining-pot is for silver, and the furnace² for gold : but the LORD trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips ; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Mā'ker ; and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

6 Children's children āre the crown of old men ; and the glory of children āre their fathers.

7 Excellent speech becometh not a fool : much less do lying lips a prince.

8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it ; whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

9 He that cōvereth a transgression seeketh love : but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man than a hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion ; thēre'fore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let a bear, robbed of her whelps, meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water ; thēre'fore leave off contention before it be meddled with.

15 He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both āre abomination to the LORD.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it ?

17 A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

18 A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression that loveth strife : and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 He that hath a frōward heart findeth no good ; and he that hath a pērvēse' tongue falleth into mīs'chief.

21 He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow ; and the father of a fool hath no joy.

22 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine : but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bō'sōm to pērvērt' the ways of judgment.

24 Wisdom is before him that hath understanding ; but the eyes of a fool āre in the ends of the earth.

25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

27 He that hath knowledge spareth his words ; and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

28 Even a fool when he holdeth his peace is counted wise ; and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

CHAP. XVIII.

THROUGH desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddeth with all wisdom.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 The words of a man's mouth āre as deep waters, and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 It is not good to accept the pērson of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips āre the snare of his soul.

8 The words of a tale-bearer āre as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.

10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower ; the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as a high wall in his own conceit.

12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before hōn'our is humility.

13 He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity : but a wounded spirit who can bear ?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge ; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just ; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city; and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the Lord.

23 The poor useth entreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

CHAP. XIX.

BBETTER is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way; and his heart fretteth against the Lord.

4 Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 A false witness shall not be unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 Many will entreat the favour of the prince; and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion: but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father; and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

14 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers; and a prudent wife is from the Lord.

15 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

16 He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

17 He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

18 Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.

20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayst be wise in thy latter end.

21 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless, the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

22 The desire of a man is his kindness; and a poor man is better than a liar.

23 The fear of the Lord tendeth to life; and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

24 A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware; and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

26 He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

28 An ungodly witness scorneth judgment; and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

29 Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAP. XX.

WINE is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

2 The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul.

3 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

4 The sluggard will not plough by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of a man is like deep water: but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?

7 The just man walketh in his integrity; his children are blessed after him.

8 A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

10 Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the Lord.

11 Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the Lord hath made even both of them.

13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

14 It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.

15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger; and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

18 Every purpose is established by counsel; and with good advice make war.

19 He that goeth about as a tale-bearer revealeth secrets; therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.

20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

22 Say not thou, I will recompense evil: but wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

23 Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and a false balance is not good.

24 Man's goings are of the LORD: how can a man then understand his own way?

25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make inquiry.

26 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.

27 The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

28 Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upholden by mercy.

29 The glory of young men is their strength; and the beauty of old men is the gray head.

30 The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAP. XXI.

THE king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water; he turneth it whithersoever he will.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.

3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

4 A high look, and a proud heart, and the ploughing of the wicked, is sin.

5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty, only to want.

6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

8 The way of man is forward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

10 The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise; and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.

13 Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifieth anger, and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man; he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

20 There is treasure to be desired, and oil in the dwelling of the wise: but a foolish man spendeth it up.

21 He that followeth after righteousness and mercy, findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

22 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue, keepeth his soul from troubles.

24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath.

25 The desire of the slothful killeth him: for his hands refuse to labour.

26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth not.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

28 A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.

29 A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

30 There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the LORD.

31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the LORD.

CHAP. XXII.

A GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2 The rich and poor meet together: the LORD is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

4 By humility, and the fear of the LORD, are riches, and hōn'our, and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the frō'ward: he that dōth keep his soul shall be far from them.

6 Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

7 The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is sērvant to the lender.

8 He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity; and the rod of his anger shall fail.

9 He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blēssed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

10 Cāst out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yēa, strife and reproach shall cease.

11 He that loveth pureness of hēart, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

12 The eyes of the LORD prēsērve knowledge; and he overthroweth the words of the transgressor.

13 The slōthful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

14 The mouth of strānge women is a deep pit: he that is abhorrēd of the LORD shall fall therein.

15 Foolishness is bound in the hēart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to wānt.

17 Bōw down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine hēart unto my knowledge.

18 For it is a pleās'ant thing if thou keep them within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.

19 That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee.

20 Have not I written to thee excellent things in counsels and knowledge,

21 That I might make thee know the cēr'tainty of the words of truth, that thou mightst ānswer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?

22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor; nēither oppress the afflicted in the gate;

23 For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

24 Make no friendship with an angry man, and with a furious man thou shalt not go;

25 Lēst thou lēarn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

26 Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

27 If thou hast nōthing to pay, why should he take āwāy thy bed from under thee?

28 Remove not the āncient land-mark which thy fathers have set.

29 Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.

CHAP. XXIII.—

WHEN thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee;

2 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.

3 Be not desirous of his dainties; for they are deceitful meat.

4 Labour not to be rich; cease from thine own wisdom.

5 Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches cēr'tainly make themselves wings; they fly āwāy, as an eagle tō'wārd heaven.

6 Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, nēither desire thou his dainty meats:

7 For as he thinketh in his hēart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his hēart is not with thee.

8 The mōr'sel¹ which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

9 Speak not in the ears of a fool; for he will dēspīse the wisdom of thy words.

10 Remove not the old land-mark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

11 For their Rēdēm'cr is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

12 Apply thine hēart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

13 Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, if thine hēart be wise, my hēart shall rejoice, even mine;

16 Yēa, my reins shall rejoice when thy lips speak right things.

17 Let not thine hēart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

18 For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine hēart in the way.

20 Be not āmōngst wine-bibbers; āmōngst riotous eaters of flesh:

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

22 Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and dēspīse not thy mōther when she is old.

23 Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice; and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mōther shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine hēart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

29 Who hath wo? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

30 They that tarry long at the wine, they that go to seek mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright:

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things:

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again'.

CHAP. XXIV.

BE not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them:

2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is a house builded, and by understanding it is established;

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war; and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool; he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischiefous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.

11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honey-comb, which is sweet to thy taste:

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting-place:

16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again': but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth; and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth;

18 Lest the Lord see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked:

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My son, fear thou the Lord and the king; and meddle not with them that are given to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer.

27 Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

28 Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.

29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me; I will render to the man according to his work.

30 I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard¹ of the man void of understanding;

31 And lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

32 Then I saw, and considered it well; I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man

CHAP. XXV.

THESSE are also proverbs of Söl'o-mön, which the men of Héz-e-kí'áh, king of Jú'dáh, copied out.

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men :

7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither, than that thou shouldst be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself, and discover not a secret to another ;

10 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an ear-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprov^{er} upon an obē'dient¹ ear.

13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him ; for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

14 Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.

15 By long forbearing is a prince persüaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 Hast thou found honey ? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house ; lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 A man that beareth false witness against' his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre ; so is he that singeth songs to a heavy heart.

21 If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat ; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink :

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee.

23 The north wind driveth away rain ; so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.

24 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman, and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked, is as a troubled fountain and a corrupt spring.

27 It is not good to eat much honey ; so for men to search their own glory is not glory.

28 He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

AS snow in summer, and as rain in harvest ; so hön'our is not seemly for a fool.

2 As the bird by wän'dering, as the swallow by flying ; so the curse causeless shall not come.

3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the äss, and a rod for the fool's back.

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool, cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.

7 The legs of the lame are not equal ; so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling ; so is he that giveth hön'our to a fool.

9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard ; so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 The great God, that formed all things, both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

11 As a dog returneth to his vomit ; so a fool returneth to his folly.

12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit ? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way, a lion is in the streets.

14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

15 The slothful hideth his hand in his bò'sóm ; it grieveth him to bring it again' to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

18 As a mad man, who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death ;

19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport ?

20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out ; so where there is no tale-bearer, the strife ceaseth.

21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire ; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 The words of a tale-bearer are wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips, and a wicked heart, are like a pöt'shërd covered with silver dross.

24 He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him ;

25 When he speaketh fair, believe him not : for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be showed before the whole congregation.

27 Whoſo diggeth a pit ſhall fall therein ; and he that rolleth a ſtone, it will return upon him.

28 A lying tóngue hateth those that are afflicted by it ; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

CHAP. XXVII.

BOAST not thyſelf of to-morrow ; for thou knoweſt not what a day may bring forth.

2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth ; a ſtranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A ſtone is heavy, and the ſand weighty : but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous ; but who is able to ſtand before envy ?

5 Open rebuke is better than ſecret love.

6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend ; but the kiſſes of an enemy are deceitful.

7 The full ſoul loatheth a honeycomb ; but to the hungry ſoul every bitter thing is ſweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her neſt, ſo is a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart ; ſo doth the ſweetneſs of a man's friend by hearty counſel.

10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forſake not ; neither go into thy brother's houſe in the day of thy calamity : for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

11 My ſon, be wiſe, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 A prudent man forceeth the evil, and hideth himſelf : but the ſimple paſs on, and are puniſhed.

13 Take his garment that is ſurety for a ſtranger, and take a pledge of him for a ſtrange woman.

14 He that bleſſeth his friend with a loud voice, riſing early in the morning, it ſhall be counted a curſe to him.

15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day, and a contentious woman, are alike.

16 Whoſoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itſelf.

17 Iron ſharpeneth iron ; ſo a man ſharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

18 Whoſo keepeth the fig-tree ſhall eat the fruit thereof ; ſo he that waiteth on his maſter ſhall be honoured.

19 As in water, face answereth to face ; ſo the heart of man to man.

20 Hell and deſtruction are never full ; ſo the eyes of man are never ſatisfied.

21 As the ſining-pot for ſilver, and the furnace¹ for gold ; ſo is a man to his pride.

22 Though thou ſhouldeſt bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a peſtle, yet will not his fooliſhneſs depart from him.

23 Be thou diligent to know the ſtate of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds ;

24 For riches are not for ever : and doth the crown endure to every generation ?

25 The hay appeareth, and the tender graſs ſhoweth itſelf, and herbs of the mōūntains are gathered :

26 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field ;

27 And thou ſhalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy houſehold, and for the main'tenance² of thy maidens.

CHAP. XXVIII.

THE wicked flee when no man purſueth : but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the tranſgreſſion of a land many are the princes thereof : but by a man of underſtanding and knowledge the ſtate thereof ſhall be prolonged.

3 A poor man that oppreſſeth the poor is like a ſweeping rain, which leaveth no food.

4 They that forſake the law praise the wicked : but ſuch as keep the law contend with them.

5 Evil men underſtand not judgment : but they that ſeek the Lord underſtand all things.

6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightneſs, than he that is perverſe¹ in his ways, though he be rich.

7 Whoſo keepeth the law is a wiſe ſon : but he that is a companion of riotous men, ſhameth his father.

8 He that by uſury and unjuſt gain increaſeth his ſubſtance, he ſhall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer ſhall be abomination.

10 Whoſo cauſeth the righteous to go aſtray in an evil way, he ſhall fall himſelf into his own pit : but the upright ſhall have good things in poſſeſſion.

11 The rich man is wiſe in his own conceit ; but the poor that hath underſtanding ſearcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory : but when the wicked riſe, a man is hidden.

13 He that covereth his ſins ſhall not proſper : but whoſo confeſſeth and forſaketh them ſhall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man that feareth alway : but he that hardeneth his heart ſhall fall into miſchief.

15 As a roaring lion, and a raging bear ; ſo is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth underſtanding is alſo a great oppreſſor : but he that hateth covetouſneſs ſhall prolong his days.

17 A man that doth violence to the blood of any perſon ſhall flee to the pit ; let no man ſtay him.

18 Whoſo walketh uprightly ſhall be ſaved : but he that is perverſe¹ in his ways ſhall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land ſhall have plenty of bread : but he that followeth after vain perſons ſhall have poverty enough.

¹fūr'nīs

²mēn'tēn-ānſe.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good; for, for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 He that rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.

25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.

26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAP. XXIX.

HE that, being often reproved, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 The blood-thirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

14 The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand, he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child, shall have him become his son at the length.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 A man's pride shall bring him low but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.

26 Many seek the ruler's favour; but every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just; and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

CHAP. XXX.

THE words of Ā'gūr the son of Jā'kēh, even the prophecy: The man spake unto Īth'i-ēl, even unto Īth'i-ēl and Ū'çāl,

2 Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

4 Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5 Every word of God is pure; he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee; deny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me;

9 Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness

13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eye-lids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw-teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horse-leech hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:

16 The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire, that saith not, It is enough.

17 The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four, which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air, the way of a serpent upon a rock, the way of a ship in the midst of the sea, and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 For a servant when he reigneth, and a fool when he is filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married, and a handmaid that is heir¹ to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:

25 The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26 The crickets are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands;

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

30 A lion, which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

31 A greyhound; a he-goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood; so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

CHAP. XXXI.

THE words of king Lēm'u-ēl, the prophecy that his mother taught him.

2 What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

1 are 2 vēr'tshu-ūs. 3 vīn'yērd.

3 Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings.

4 It is not for kings, O Lēm'u-ēl, it is not for kings to drink wine, nor for princes strong drink;

5 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervers² the judgment of any of the afflicted.

6 Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

8 Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

9 Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

10 Who can find a virtuous² woman? for her price is far above rubies.

11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

12 She will do him good, and not evil, all the days of her life.

13 She seeketh wool and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchants' ships, she bringeth her food from afar.

15 She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

16 She considereth a field, and buyeth it; with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.³

17 She girdeth⁴ her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.

19 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

20 She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household; for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

22 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.

23 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.

24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles⁵ unto the merchant.

25 Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.

26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

27 She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

28 Her children rise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

29 Many daughters have done virtuously,⁶ but thou excellest them all.

4 gēr'deth. 5 gēr'dlz. 6 vēr'tshu-ūs-le.

30 Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord she shall be praised.

31 Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

¶ ECCLESIAS/TES,¹ or the PREACH/ER.

CHAPTER I.

THE words of the Preach'er, the son of Dá'víd, king of Jē-rá'sa-lēm.

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preach'er, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

3 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 One generation pās'seth āwāy, and ānōther generation cometh: but the ēarth ābideth for ever.

5 The sun also ārišeth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he ārōse.

6 The wind goeth tō'wārd the south, and turneth ābout' unto the north: it whirl'eth² ābout' continually; and the wind returneth āgain' according to his cir'cuits³

7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full: unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return āgain'.

8 All things āre full of labour, man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done, is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; nēither shall there be any remembrance of things that āre to come with those that shall come āfter.

12 ¶ I the Preach'er was king over Īš'-ra-ēl in Jē-rá'sa-lēm:

13 And I gave my hēart to seek and sēarch out by wisdom cōncēr'nīng all things that āre done under heaven: this sore trāv'-ail hath God given to the sons of man, to be exercised therewith.

14 I have seen all the works that āre done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight; and that which is wān'tīng cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own hēart, saying, Lo, I am come to great ēstāte', and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jē-rá'sa-lēm; yēa, my hēart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 And I gave my hēart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I pērcēived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For in much wisdom is much griēf; and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAP. II.

I SAID in mine hēart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth; ⁴ thēre'fore enjoy plēas'ure: and, behold, this also is vanity.

2 I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

3 I sought in mine hēart to give mysel'f unto wine, (yet acquainting mine hēart with wisdom,) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I plānted me vine'yards;⁵

5 I made me gardens and ō'chārd's, and I plānted trees in them of all kind of fruits;

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees;

7 I got me sērvants and maidens, and had sērvants born in my house; also I had great pōssēs'sions of great and small cattle ābōve all that wēre in Jē-rá'sa-lēm before me;

8 I gāthered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar trēas'ure of kings and of the provinces; I gat me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, and increased more than all that wēre before me in Jē-rá'sa-lēm: also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whātsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my hēart from any joy: for my hēart rejoiced in all my labour; and this was my pōrtion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 And I turned mysel'f to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh āfter the king? even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 The wise man's eyes āre in his head, but the fool wālketh in darkness: and I mysel'f pērcēived also that one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my hēart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me: and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? As the fool.

17 Thère'fore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 Yea, I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun; because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have showed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Thère'fore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity, and a great evil.

22 For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days àre sorrows, and his travaill grief: yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travaill, to gather, and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAP. III.

TO every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time to be born, and a time to die: a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted:

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal: a time to break down, and a time to build up:

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh: a time to mourn, and a time to dance:

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together: a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing.

6 A time to get, and a time to lose: a time to keep, and a time to cast away:

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew: a time to keep silence, and a time to speak:

8 A time to love, and a time to hate: a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 I have seen the travaill which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart; so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it that men should fear before him.

15 That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been: and God requireth that which is past.

16 And, moreover, I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose, and for every work.

18 I said in my heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves àre beasts.

19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath: so that a man hath no pre-eminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 All go unto one place; all àre of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAP. IV.

SO I returned, and considered all the oppressions that àre done under the sun: and, behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

2 Wherefore I praised the dead which àre already dead, more than the living which àre yet alive.

3 Yea, better is he than both they which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travaill, and every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 The fool foldeth his hands togēther, and eateth his own flesh.

6 Better is a handfūl with quietness, than both the hands full with trāv'ail and vexation of spirit.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one ālōne and there is not a second; yēa, he hath nēither child nor bróther; yet is there no end of all his labour; nēither is his eye satisfied with riches; nēither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yēa, it is a sore trāv'ail.

9 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but wo to him that is ālōne when he falleth; for he hath not ánóther to help him up.

11 Ágain', if two lie togēther, then they have heat: but how can one be warm ālōne?

12 And if one prevail ágainst him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reīgn; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which wālk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also tnat come áfter shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAP. V.

KEEP thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear than to give the sác'rifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine héart be hasty to utter any thing before God; for God is in heaven, and thou upon éarth: thère'fore let thy words be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

4 When thou vowest a vow unto God, defēr not to pay it; for he hath no pléas'ure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; nēither say thou before the ángel, that it was an érror: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and děstróy' the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also di'vērʒ vanities: but fear thou God.

8 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent pėrvėrt'ing of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest reġardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 Moreover, the profit of the éarth is for all: the king himself is sėrved by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase. This is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the be-holding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil trāv'ail; and he begetteth a son, and there is nóthing in his hand.

15 As he came forth of his móther's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nóthing of his labour, which he may carry áway in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wráth with his sickness.

18 Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him; for it is his pörtion.

19 Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his pörtion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God ánswereth him in the joy of his héart.

CHAP. VI.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common ámóng men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and kőn'our, so that he wánteth nóthing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stránger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man beget a hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an timely birth¹ is better than he:

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover, he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

CHAP. VII.

A GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.¹

2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning: but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.²

5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity.

7 Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this.

11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance; and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

16 Be not righteous over-much; neither make thyself over-wise: why shouldst thou destroy thyself?

17 Be not over-much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldst thou die before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldst take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken: lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

25 I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, (saith the Preach'er,) counting one by one, to find out the account;

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

CHAP. VIII.

WHO is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power; and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the cōmmandment shall feel no evil thing : and a wise man's heart diſcerneth both time and judgment.

6 Because to every purpose there is time and judgment ; therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 For he knoweth not that which shall be : for who can tell him when it shall be ?

8 There is no man that hath power over the spirit, to retain the spirit ; neither hath he power in the day of death ; and there is no discharge in that war ; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun : there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done. This is also vanity.

11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 Though a sinner do evil a hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him :

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow ; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth ; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked : again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous. I said, that this also is vanity.

15 Then I commended mirth,¹ because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry ; for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth : (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes.)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun ; because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it ; yea, further, though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAP. IX.

FOR all this I considered in my heart, even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise and their works, are in the hand of God : no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 All things come alike to all : there is no event to the righteous and to the wicked, to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean ; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not : as is the good, so is the sinner ; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all : yea also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope : for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die : but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward ; for the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished ; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart ; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white ; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity : for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might ; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave whither thou goest.

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill ; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For man also knoweth not his time ; as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare ; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me :

14 There was a little city, and few men within it ; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it.

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city ; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength : nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war : but one sinner destroyeth much good.

CHAP. X.

DEAD flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so dõtth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and hön'our.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up ägainst' thee, leave not thy place; for yield'ing pacieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an ërror which proceedeth from the ruler;

6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen sèrvants upon horses, and princes walk'ing as sèrvants upon the ëarth.

8 He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh a hedge, a sèrpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the sèrpent will bite without enchäntment; and a babler is no better.

12 The words of a wise man's mouth äre gracious: but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mis'chievous madness.

14 A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be äfter him who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them; because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 Wo to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blès'ed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 By much slöthfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but móney änswereth all things.

20 Curse not the king, no, not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bed-chamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CHAP. XI.

CAST thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it äfter many days.

2 Give a pörtion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the ëarth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the ëarth: and if the tree fall tö'ward the south, or tö'ward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that öbšerv'eth the wind, shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds, shall not reap.

5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, ëither this or that, or whether they both shall be älike good.

7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleäs'-ant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun.

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

10 There'fore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put äway evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth äre vanity.

CHAP. XII.

REMEMBER now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleäs'ure in them;

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened; nor the clouds return äfter the rain:

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall böw themselves, and the grinders cease because they äre few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened;

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low; and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird; and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low:

5 Also when they shall be äfräid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the älmónd-tree shall flourish, and the grässhopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go äbout' the streets:

6 Or ever the silver cord be löösed, or the golden böwl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the föün'tain, or the wheel broken at the cistern:

7 Then shall the dust return to the ëarth-as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

8 ¶ Vanity of vanities, saith the Preach'-er; all is vanity.

9 And, moreover, because the Preach'er was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order, many pröv'ërbs.

10 The Preach'er sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shép'hërd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 ¶ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; Fear God, and keep his cömmänd'ments: for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

1 The SONG of SOL'OMON.

CHAPTER I.—

THE Song of songs, which is Söl'omön's.

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.

3 Because of the savour of thy good ointments, thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the vir'gins¹ love thee.

4 Draw me, we will run after thee. The King hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee; we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee.

5 I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jë-rù'sa-lëm; as the tents of Kë'där, as the cür'tains of Söl'o-mön.

6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vine'yards;² but mine own vine'yard have I not kept.

7 Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

8 If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

9 I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Phä'raöh's chariots.

10 Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

11 We will make thee borders of gold, with studs of silver.

12 While the King sitteth at his table, my spike'närd sendeth forth the smell thereof.

13 A bundle of myrrh³ is my well beloved unto me; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of cäm'phire⁴ in the vine'yards of En'ge-di.⁵

15 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair, thou hast doves' eyes.

16 Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleäs'ant: also our bed is green.

17 The beams of our house are cedar, and our räfter⁶ of fir.

1 vë'rj'inz. 2 vïn'yërdz. 3 mër.

CHAP. II.—

I AM the rose of Shä'rön and the lily of the valleys.

2 As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

3 As the apple-tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me to the banqueting-house, and his banner over me was love.

5 Stay me with flagons, cöm'fört me with apples; for I am sick of love.

6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

7 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jë-rù'sa-lëm, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

8 The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the möün'tains, skipping upon the hills.

9 My beloved is like a roe, or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the window, showing himself through the lattice.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

11 For, lo, the winter is päst, the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land.

13 The fig-tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Ärişe, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 ¶ O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

16 ¶ My beloved is mine, and I am his; he feedeth among the lilies.

17 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved; and be thou

4 käm'fir. 5 g hard. 6 fër.

like a roe, or a young hart, upon the môûn'tains of Bē'ther.

CHAP. III.—

BY night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go ābout' the city; in the streets, and in the broad ways, I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The wātchmen that go ābout' the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I pāsseed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my môther's house, into the chāmbër of her that conceiv-ed me.

5 I charge you, O ye dāughters of Jē-rū-sa-lēm, by the roes, and by the hinds of the fiēld, that ye stir not up, nor āwake my love till he please.

6 ¶ Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, pērfum'd with myrrh¹ and frankincense, with all powders of the mērchānt?

7 Behold his bed, which is Sōl'o-mōn's; threescore valiant men āre ābout' it, of the valiant of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

8 They all hold swōrds, being expērt in war: every man hath his swōrd upon his thigh, because of fear in the night.

9 King Sōl'o-mōn made himself a chariot of the wood of Lēb'a-nōn.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the cōv'ring of it of purple; the midst thereof being paved with love for the dāughters of Jē-rū-sa-lēm.

11 Go forth, O ye dāughters of Zī'ōn, and behold king Sōl'o-mōn with the crown wherewith his môther crowned him in the day of his ēspōū'sāls, and in the day of the gladness of his hēārt.

CHAP. IV.—

BEHOLD, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from mcunt Gil'e-ād.

2 Thy teeth āre like a flock of sheep that āre cren shorn, which came up from the wāsh'ing; whereof every one bare twins, and none is barren āmong them.

3 Thy lips āre like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples āre like a piēce of a pōmegrān'āte within thy locks.

4 Thy neck is like the tower of Dā'vīd, builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shiēlds of mighty men.

5 Thy two breasts āre like two young roes that āre twins, which feed āmong the lilies.

6 Until the day break, and the shadows flee āway, I will get me to the môûn'tains of myrrh,¹ and to the hill of frankincense.

7 Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

¹ mēr.

8 Come with me from Lēb'a-nōn, my spouse, with me from Lēb'a-nōn: look from the top of Ām'a-nā, from the top of Shē'nir and Hēr'mōn, from the lions' dens, from the môûn'tains of the lēop'ārds.

9 Thou hast ravished my hēārt, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my hēārt with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the hōney-comb; hōney and milk āre under thy tōngue; and the smell of thy gārments is like the smell of Lēb'a-nōn.

12 A gārden enclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fōûn'tain sealed.

13 Thy plānts āre an ôr'chard of pōmegrān'ātes, with plēā'sant fruits; cām'phīre, with spike'nārd;

14 Spike'nārd and saffron; cālāmus and cīnnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:

15 A fōûn'tain of gārden, a well of living waters, and streams from Lēb'a-nōn.

16 ¶ Āwake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my gārden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my belōved come into his gārden, and eat his plēā'sant fruits.²

CHAP. V.—

I AM come into my gārden, my sister, my spouse: I have gāthered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my hōney-comb with my hōney; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yēa, drink abundantly, O belōved.

2 ¶ I sleep, but my hēārt waketh: it is the voice of my belōved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefil'd: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

3 I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have wāshed my feet; how shall I defile them?

4 My belōved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels wēre moved for him.

5 I rose up to open to my belōved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet-smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

6 I opened to my belōved; but my belōved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul fail'd when he spake; I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no ānswer.

7 The wātchmen that went ābout' the city found me, they smote me, they wōûnd-ed me; the keepers of the walls took āway my vail from me.

8 I charge you, O dāughters of Jē-rū-sa-lēm, if ye find my belōved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

² frōd's

9 What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

10 My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.

11 His head is as the most fine gold; his locks are bushy, and black as a raven:

12 His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of water, washed with milk, and fitly set:

13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers; his lips like lilies, dropping sweet-smelling myrrh:

14 His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl; his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires:¹

15 His legs are as pillars of marble set upon sockets of fine gold; his countenance is as Leb'a-nōn, excellent as the cedars:

16 His mouth is most sweet; yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jē-rā'sa-lēm.

CHAP. VI.—

WHITHER is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside, that we may seek him with thee?

2 My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

4 ¶ Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tir'zāh;² comely as Jē-rā'sa-lēm; terrible as an army with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gil'e-ād:

6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep, which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

7 As a piece of a pomegran'āte are thy temples within thy locks.

8 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins³ without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled, is but one: she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her: the daughters saw her, and blēss'ed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

10 Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

11 I went down into the garden of nuts, to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegran'ātes budded.

12 Or ever I was aware, my soul made me like the chariots of ām-mīn'a-dīb.

13 Return, return, O Shū'lam-ite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shū'lam-ite? As it were the company of two armies.

CHAP. VII.—

HO prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman:

2 Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor; thy belly is like a heap of wheat set about with lilies:

3 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins:

4 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fish-pools in Hēsh'bōn, by the gate of Bāth-rāb bīm; thy nose is as the tower of Leb'a-nōn, which looketh toward Da-mās'cus:

5 Thine head upon thee is like Çar'mēl, and the hair of thine head like purple: the King is held in the galleries.

6 How fair and how pleas'ant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This thy stat'ure⁴ is like to a palm-tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm-tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof; now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;

9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak.

10 ¶ I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the vil'lage.⁵

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards;⁶ let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape appear, and the pomegran'ātes bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.

13 The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleas'ant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

CHAP. VIII.—

OH that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegran'āte.

3 His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jē-rā'sa-lēm, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

5 (Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved?) I raised thee up under the apple-tree: there thy mother brought thee forth; there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vē-he-mēt flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it : if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

8 We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts : what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for ?

9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver : and if she be a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers : then was I in his eyes as one that found favour.

11 Söl'o-mön had a vineyard¹ at Ba'äl-

Häm'ön ; he let out the vineyard unto keepers : every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand piēces of silver.

12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me : thou, O Söl'o-mön, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice : cause me to hear it.

14 Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe, or to a young hart, upon the mōūntains of spices.

CHAPTER I.

THE vision of I-sāi'āh² the son of Ā'mōz, which he saw cōncēr'nīng Jū'dāh and Jē-rū'sa-lēm, in the days of Ūz-zī'āh, Jō'thām, Ā'hāz, and Hēz-c-kī'āh, kings of Jū'dāh.

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth ; for the LORD hath spoken : I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled āgainst me :

3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the āss his māster's crib : but Iṣ'ra-ēl dóth not know, my people dóth not consider.

4 Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters ! they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Hōly One of Iṣ'ra-ēl unto anger, they are gone āwāy backward.

5 Why should ye be stricken any more ? ye will revōlt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it ; but wōūnds, and bruises, and putrefying sores : they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burnt with fire : your land, strāngers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strāngers.

8 And the daughter of Zī'ōn is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sūd'om, and we should have been like unto Gō-mōr'rāh.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sūd'om ; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gō-mōr'rāh :

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sār'ificēs unto me ? saith the LORD : I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts ; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats.

12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand to tread my courts ?

13 Bring no more vain oblations : incense is an abomination unto me ; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot āwāy with : it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth : they are a trōuble unto me ; I am weary to bear them.

15 And when ye spread forth your hands I will hide mine eyes from you ; yēa, when ye make many prayers I will not hear : your hands are full of blood.

16 Wash you, make you clean ; put āwāy the evil of your doings from before mine eyes ; cease to do evil ;

17 Lēarn to do well : seek judgment, relieve the oppressed ; judge the fatherless ; plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and let us reason tōgēther, saith the LORD : Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow ; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obē'dient,³ ye shall eat the good of the land :

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the swōrd : for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 How is the faithful city become a harlot ! it was full of judgment ; righteousness lodged in it ; but now murderers.

22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water :

23 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thēves : every one loveth gifts, and followeth āfter rewards : they judge not the fatherless, neither dóth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Thēre'fore, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Ah, I will ease me of mine ād'versaries, and avēnge me of mine enemies :

25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge āwāy thy dross, and take āwāy all thy tin :

26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: áft'érward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, The faithful city.

27 Zi'ón shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be áshamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gárden that ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a gárden that hath no water.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and nóne shall quench them.

CHAP. II.

THE word that I-sái'áh the son of Á'möz saw concér'ning Jü'dáh and Je-rú'sa-lém.

2 And it shall come to páss in the lást days, that the môûn'tain of the LORD's house shall be estáblished in the top of the môûn'tains, and shall be exálted ábove the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many¹ people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the môûn'tain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Já'çöb; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his páthis: for out of Zi'ón shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Je-rú'sa-lém.

4 And he shall judge ámong the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and theirspears into pruning-hooks:² nation shall not lift up sword ágainst' nation, néither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Já'çöb, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

6 Thère'fore thou hast forsaken thy people, the house of Já'çöb, because they are replenished from the east, and áre soothsayers like the Phi-lis'tines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, néither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, néither is there any end of their chariots.

8 Their land also is full of idols; they wórship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man húmbleth himself: thère'fore forgive them not.

10 Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his máj'esty.³

11 The lofty looks of man shall be húmble, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down; and the LORD álone shall be exálted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall le upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low;

13 And upon all the cedars of Lëb'a-nôn, that áre high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bá'shán,

14 And upon all the high môûn'tains, and upon all the hills that áre lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

16 And upon all the ships of Tár'shish, and upon all pléas'ant pictures.

17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the LORD álone shall be exálted in that day.

18 And the idols he shall utterly abolish.

19 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the éarth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his máj'esty, when he árişeth to shake terribly the éarth.

20 In that day a man shall cást his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to wórship, to the moles, and to the bats;

21 To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his máj'esty, when he árişeth to shake terribly the éarth.

22 Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils; for wherein is he to be accounted of?

CHAP. III.

FOR, behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts, dóth take áway from Je-rú'sa-lém, and from Jü'dáh, the stay and the stáff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,

2 The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the áncient,

3 The cáp'tain of fifty, and the hón'ourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator.

4 And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by ánother, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly ágainst' the áncient, and the base ágainst' the hón'ourable.

6 When a man shall take hold of his brother, of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler,⁴ and let this ruin be under thy hand:

7 In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be a healer; for in my house is néither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 For Je-rú'sa-lém is ruined, and Jü'dáh is fallen; because their tóngue and their doings áre ágainst' the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The show of their countenance dóth witness against them, and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not: wo unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

10 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11 Wo unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

12 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

13 The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

15 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the LORD God of hosts.

16 Moreover, the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zí'ón are haughty, and walk with stretched-forth necks and wanton eyes, walking, and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

17 Therefore the LORD will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zí'ón, and the LORD will discover their secret parts.

18 In that day the LORD will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon,

19 The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the head-bands, and the tablets, and the ear-rings,

21 The rings, and nose-jewels,

22 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping-pins,

23 The glásses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the veils.

24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell, there shall be stink; and instead of a gir'dle, a rent; and instead of well-set hair, baldness; and instead of a stomacher, a gir'ding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

25 Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war.

26 And her gates shall lament and mourn: and she, being desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

CHAP. IV.

AND in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel; only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach.

2 In that day shall the branch of the 1 vín'yérd.

LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Ís'ra-él.

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zí'ón, and he that remaineth in Jé-rú'sa-lém, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jé-rú'sa-lém:

4 When the LORD shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zí'ón, and shall have purged the blood of Jé-rú'sa-lém from the midst thereof, by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.

5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling-place of mount Zí'ón, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence.

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the day-time from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

CHAP. V.

NOW will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jé-rú'sa-lém, and men of Jú'dáh, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? Wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now, go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down:

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Ís'ra-él, and the men of Jú'dáh his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

8 Wo unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9 In mine ears, said the LORD of hosts, Of a truth, many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of a homer shall yield an éph'ah.

11 Wo unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink ; that continue until night, till wine inflame them !

12 And the harp and the viol, the tābret and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts : but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 There'fore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge ; and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 There'fore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure : and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled :

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God, that is holy, shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat.

18 Wo unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart-ropes !

19 That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it : and let the counsel of the Holy One of Iſ'ra-ël draw nigh and come, that we may know it !

20 Wo unto them that call evil good, and good evil ; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness ; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter !

21 Wo unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight !

22 Wo unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink :

23 Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him !

24 There'fore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust : because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Iſ'ra-ël.

25 There'fore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them : and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth : and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.

27 None shall be swift nor stumble amongst them : none shall slumber nor sleep ; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken :

28 Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind :

29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions ; yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea ; and if one look unto the land, behold darkness and sorrow ; and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

CHAP. VI.

IN the year that king Ūz-zī'āh died I saw also the LORD sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims : each one had six wings ; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts ; the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 Then said I, Wo is me ! for I am undone ; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips : for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar ;

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips, and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the voice of the LORD, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us ? Then I said, Here am I ; send me.

9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not ; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes ; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, LORD, how long ? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate ;

12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten : as a teil-tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them when they cast their leaves, so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

CHAP. VII.

AND it came to pāss in the days of Ā'hāz the son of Jō'thām, the son of Ūz zī'āh king of Jū'dāh, that Rē'zīn the king of Sŷr'i-ā, and Pē'kāh the son of Rēm-a-li'āh, king of Iṣ'ra-ēl, went up tō'wārd's Jē-rū'sa-lēm to war āgainst' it, but could not prevāil āgainst' it.

2 And it was told the house of Dā'vīd, saying, Sŷr'i-ā is confederate with Ē'phra-īm : and his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood āre moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto I-sāi'āh, Go forth now to meet Ā'hāz, thou and Shē-ār-jā'shūb thy son, at the end of the cōn'duit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field ;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet ; fear not, neither be faint-hearted, for the two tails of these smoking fire-brands, for the fierce anger of Rē'zīn with Sŷr'i-ā, and of the son of Rēm-a-li'āh.

5 Because Sŷr'i-ā, Ē'phra-īm, and the son of Rēm-a-li'āh, have taken evil counsel āgainst' thee, saying,

6 Let us go up āgainst' Jū'dāh, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tā'be-āl :

7 Thus saith the LORD God, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pāss.

8 For the head of Sŷr'i-ā is Da-mās'cūs, and the head of Da-mās'cūs is Rē'zīn ; and within threescore and five years shall Ē'phra-īm be broken, that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ē'phra-īm is Sa-mā'ri-ā, and the head of Sa-mā'ri-ā is Rēm-a-li'āh's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be estāb'lished.

10 Moreover, the LORD spake āgain' unto Ā'hāz, saying,

11 Āsk thee a sign of the LORD thy God : āsk it either in the depth, or in the height ābove.

12 But Ā'hāz said, I will not āsk, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of Dā'vīd ; is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also ?

14 Therēfore the LORD himself shall give you a sign : Behold, a Vir'gīn¹ shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Īm-mān'u-ēl.

15 Butter and hōney shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and chōōse the good :

16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and chōōse the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ē'phra-īm departed from Jū'dāh ; even the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā.

18 And it shall come to pāss in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Ē'gŷpt, and for the bee that is in the land of Ās-sŷr'i-ā :

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bāshes.

20 In the same day shall the LORD shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā, the head, and the hair of the feet : and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pāss in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow and two sheep :

22 And it shall come to pāss, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, he shall eat butter : for butter and hōney shall every one eat that is left in the land.

23 And it shall come to pāss in that day, that every place shall be, where there wēre a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns.

24 With arrows and with bōws shall men come thither ; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns : but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

CHAP. VIII.

MOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen cōncērning Mā'hēr-shāl'āl-hāsh'bāz.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Ū-rī'āh the priest, and Zēch-ār-ri'āh the son of Jē-bēr-e-ḡhī'āh.

3 And I went unto the prophetess ; and she cōncēived and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Mā'hēr-shāl'āl-hāsh'bāz :

4 For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and, my mōther, the riches of Da-mās'cūs and the spoil of Sa-mā'ri-ā shall be taken āway before the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā.

5 ¶ The LORD spake also unto me āgain', saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shi-lō'āh that go softly, and rejoice in Rē'zīn and Rēm-a-li'āh's son ;

7 Now therēfore, behold, the LORD bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā, and all his glory : and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks :

8 And he shall pāss through Jū'dāh ; he shall overflow and go over ; he shall reach even to the neck : and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Īm-mān'u-ēl.

9 Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in piéces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird¹ yourselves, and ye shall be broken in piéces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in piéces.

10 Take counsel togëther, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

11 For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me, that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 Say ye not, a confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offence, to both the houses of Iſ'ra-ël; for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jê-rû'sa-lêm.

15 And many among them shall stumble and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind up the tês'timóný, seal the law among my disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that hideth his face from the house of Já'çöb, and I will look for him.

18 Behold, I, and the children whom the LORD hath given me, are for signs and for wonders in Iſ'ra-ël, from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zi'ôn.

19 And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep and that mutter; should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?

20 To the law and to the tês'timóný: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

21 And they shall pass through it hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that, when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look üp'wârd.

22 And they shall look unto the ëarth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

CHAP. IX.

NEVERTHELESS, the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zêb'u-lôn and the land of Nâph'ta-lî, and äftêrwârd did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jôr'dân, in Gä'l'i-lêe of the nations.

2 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they dividë the spoil.

1 gërd.

4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the stäff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Mid'i-än.

5 For every battle of the wârrior² is with confused noise, and gârmënts rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire.

6 For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the góvernment shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wón'dér-fül, Çöûn'sël-lór, The mighty God, The ëvêrläs'ting Fâther, The Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his góvernment and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of Dä'vid, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to estâb'lish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will përförm' this.

8 ¶ The LORD sent a word into Já'çöb, and it hath lighted upon Iſ'ra-ël.

9 And all the people shall know, even È'phra-ïm and the inhabitants of Sa-mä'ri-ä, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones; the sÿc'amöres are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Thêrê'före the LORD shall set up the äd'vërsarïes of Rê'zîn ägainst' him, and join his enemies togëther;

12 The Sÿr'i-äns before, and the Phi-lis-tines behind; and they shall devour Iſ'ra-ël with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned äwâý, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, nêither do they seek the LORD of hosts.

14 Thêrê'före the LORD will cut off from Iſ'ra-ël head and tail, brâñch and rush, in one day.

15 The äncient and hön'ourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16 For the leaders of this people cause them to ërr; and they that are led of them are deströy'ed.

17 Thêrê'före the LORD shall have no joy in their young men, nêither shall have mërçy on their fatherless and widows: for every one is a hÿp'ocrite and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned äwâý, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest; and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrâth of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire : no man shall spare his brother.

2 wâr'yür.

20 And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry ; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied : they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm :

21 Ma-nās'seh, Ê'phra-îm ; and Ê'phra-îm, Ma-nās'seh : and they together shall be against' Ju'dah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

CHAP. X.

WO unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed :

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless !

3 And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far ? to whom will ye flee for help ? and where will ye leave your glory ?

4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

5 O Ās-sÿr'i-ān, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

6 I will send him against' a hypocritical nation, and against' the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so ; but it is in his heart to destroy' and cut off nations not a few.

8 For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings ?

9 Is not Cāl'nō as Çar'chē-māsh ? is not Hā'māth as Ār'pād ? is not Sa-mā'ri-ā as Da-mās'cūs ?

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jē-rū'sa-lēm and of Sa-mā'ri-ā ;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Sa-mā'ri-ā and her idols, so do to Jē-rū'sa-lēm and her idols ?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that, when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zi'ōn and on Jē-rū'sa-lēm, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Ās-sÿr'i-a, and the glory of his high looks.

13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom ; for I am prudent : and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man :

14 And my hand hath found, as a nest, the riches of the people : and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth ; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall the axe boast itself against' him that heweth therewith ? or shall the saw magnify itself against' him that shaketh it ? as if the rod should shake itself against' them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness ; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Iš'ra-ël shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame : and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day ;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body : and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Iš'ra-ël, and such as are escaped of the house of Jā'cōb, shall no more again' stay upon him that smote them ; but shall stay upon the Lord, the Holy One of Iš'ra-ël, in truth.

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jā'cōb, unto the mighty God.

22 For though thy people Iš'ra-ël be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return : the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

23 For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption, even detērmīned, in the midst of all the land.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zi'ōn, be not afraid of the Ās-sÿr'i-ān : he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against' thee, after the manner of Ê'gÿpt.

25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger, in their destruction.

26 And the Lord of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him, according to the slaughter of Mīd'i-ān at the rock of Ō'rēb : and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Ê'gÿpt.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

28 He is come to Ā-i'āth, he is passed to Mīg'rōn ; at Mīch'māsh he hath laid up his carriages :

29 They are gone over the passage : they have taken up their lodging at Gē'bā ; Rā'māh is afraid ; Gīb'e-āh of Sūl is fled.

30 Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gāl-līm ; cause it to be heard unto La'ish, O poor Ān'a-thōth.

31 Mād-mēn'āh is removed ; the inhabitants of Gē'bīm gather themselves to flee.

32 As yet shall he remain at Nōb that day : he shall shake his hand āgainst' the mount of the daughter of Zī'ōn, the hill of Jē-rā sa lēm.

33 Behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bōugh with terror : and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be hūmblēd.

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forests with iron, and Lēb'a-nōn shall fall by a mighty one.

CHAP. XI.

AND there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jēs'se, and a Brānch shall grow out of his roots :

2 And the Spīr'it of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge, and of the fear of the LORD ;

3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD : and he shall not judge āfter the sight of his eyes, nēither reprove āfter the hearing of his ears.

4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the ēarth : and he shall smite the ēarth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5 And righteousness shall be the gir'dle of his loins, and faithfulness the gir'dle of his reins.

6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the lēp'ard² shall lie down with the kid ; and the calf, and the young lion, and the fatting togēther ; and a little child shall lead them.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed ; their young ones shall lie down togēther : and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the āsp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice-den.

9 They shall not hurt nor dēstrōy' in all my hōly mōūn'tāin : for the ēarth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cōver the sea.

10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jēs'se, which shall stand for an ensign of the people ; to it shall the Ĝēn'tiles seek : and his rest shall be glōrious.

11 And it shall come to pās in that day, that the LORD shall set his hand āgain' the second time to recōver the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Ās-sy'r'i-ā, and from Ē'ġypt, and from Pāth'rōs, and from Ćūsh, and from Ē'lām, and from Shī'uār, and from Hā'māth, and from the īs'lānds³ of the sea.

12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the ōūt'cāsts of Īy'rā-ēl, and gāther togēther the dīspērsed of Jū'dāh from the four corners of the ēarth.

13 The envy also of Ē'phra-īm shall depart, and the ād'vērsarīes of Jū'dāh shall be cut off ; Ē'phra-īm shall not envy Jū'dāh and Jū'dāh shall not vex Ē'phra-īm.

14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Phi-lis'tines tō'wārd the west ; they shall spoil them of the east togēther : they shall lay their hand upon Ē'dōm and Mō'āb ; and the children of Ām'mōn shall obey them.

15 And the LORD shall utterly dēstrōy' the tōngue of the Ē-ġypt'i-ān sea ; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dry shod.

16 And there shall be a highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Ās-sy'r'i-ā ; like as it was to Īy'rā-ēl in the day that he came up out of the land of Ē'ġypt.

CHAP. XII.

AND in that day thou shalt say, O LORD I will praise thee : though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned āwāy and thou cōm'fōrtedst me.

2 Behold, God is my salvation ; I will trust, and not be āfrāid : for the LORD JEH-O'VAH is my strength and my song ; he also is become my salvation.

3 Thēre'fōre with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

4 And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, call upon his name, declare his doings āmōng the people, make mention that his name is exālted.

5 Sing unto the LORD ; for he hath done excellent things : this is known in all the ēarth.

6 Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zī'ōn : for great is the Hōly One of Īy'rā-ēl in the midst of thee.

CHAP. XIII.

THE burden of Bāb'y-lōn which Ī-sāi'āh the son of Ā'mōz did see.

2 Lift ye up a banner upon the high mōūn'tāin, exālt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

3 I have cōmmān'ded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mōūn'tāins, like as of a great people ; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gāthered togēther : the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the wēap'ons⁴ of his indignation, to dēstrōy' the whole land.

6 Howl ye ; for the day of the LORD is at hand ; it shall come as a destruction from the Āl-migh'ty.

7 Thēre'fōre shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt :

8 And they shall be āfrāid : pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them ; they shall be in pain as a woman that tráv'aileth; they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

9 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate; and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven, and the constellations thereof, shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of O'phir.

13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

19 And Báb'y-lón, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chál'deēs' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Söd'om and Gó-mór'rah.

20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation; neither shall the Á-rá'bi-án pitch tent there, neither shall the shép'hérdš make their fold there:

21 But wild beasts of the dēs'ért shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures;² and owls shall dwell there, and sät'yrs³ shall dance there.

22 And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleás'ant palaces; and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

CHAP. XIV.

FOR the LORD will have mercy on Já'cób, and will yet chòöse Iſ'ra-ël, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Já'cób.

2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place; and the house of Iſ'ra-ël shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

3 And it shall come to pass, in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,

4 That thou shalt take up this prov'erb against the king of Báb'y-lón, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!

5 The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

8 Yea, the fir-trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Léb'a-nón, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

9 Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

10 All they shall speak, and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

12 How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lú'ci-fér, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house:

19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcass trodden under feet.

20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylōn the name, and remnant, and son, and neph'ew,¹ saith the LORD.

23 I will also make it a possession for the bitter, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besōm of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand;

25 That I will break the ās-sūr'i-ān in my land, and upon my mōūntains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27 For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

28 In the year that king ā'hāz died, was this burden.

29 Rejoice not thou, whole Pāl-ē-stī'nā, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the sērpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying sērpent.

30 And the first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city: thou, whole Pāl-ē-stī'nā, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and none shall be alone in his appointed times.

32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD hath founded Zi'ōn, and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

CHAP. XV.

THE burden of Mō'āb. Because in the night ār of Mō'āb is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir² of Mō'āb is laid waste, and brought to silence:

2 He is gone up to Bā'jīth, and to Dī'bōn, the high places, to weep: Mō'āb shall howl over Nē'bō, and over Mēd'e-bā; on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird³ themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

4 And Hēsh'bōn shall cry, and Ē-le-ā'lēh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jā'hāz: there'fore the armed sōl'diērs⁴ of Mō'āb shall cry out; his life shall be griēv'ōus unto him.

5 My heart shall cry out for Mō'āb; his fugitives shall flee unto Zō'ār, a heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Lō'hīth with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Hōr-ō-nā'im they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nim'rīm shall be desolate: for the hay is withered āwāy, the grāss faileth, there is no green thing.

7 There'fore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry āwāy to the brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round ābout the borders of Mō'āb; the howling thereof unto Ēg-lā'im, and the howling thereof unto Bē-ēr-ē'līm.

9 For the waters of Dī'mōn shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dī'mōn, lions upon him that escapeth of Mō'āb, and upon the remnant of the land.

CHAP. XVI.

SEND ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sē'lā to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zi'ōn.

2 For it shall be, that as a wān'dēring bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Mō'āb shall be at the fords of Ār'nōn.

3 Take counsel, execute judgment, make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noon-day; hide the ōūt'cāsts, bewray not him that wāndereth.

4 Let mine ōūt'cāsts dwell with thee, Mō'āb: be thou a cōvert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be estāb'lished; and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of Dā'vīd, judging and seeking judgment, and hasting righteous ness.

6 We have heard of the pride of Mō'āb; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrāth: but his lies shall not be so.

7 There'fore shall Mō'āb howl for Mō'āb, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kir-hār'e-sēth¹ shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Hēsh'bōn languish, and the vine of Sīb'māh: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plānts thereof, they are come even unto Jā'zēr, they wāndered through the wilderness; her brānches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea:

9 There'fore I will bewail with the weeping of Jā'zēr the vine of Sīb'māh: I will water thee with my tears, O Hēsh'bōn, and Ē-le-ā'lēh; for the shouting for thy summer-fruits, and for thy harvest, is fallen.

10 And gladness is taken āwāy, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vine-yards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting; the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage-shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like a harp for Mō'āb, and mine inward parts for Kir'ha-rēsh.¹

12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Mō'āb is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the Lord hath spoken concēring Mō'āb since that time.

14 But now the Lord hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of a hireling, and the glory of Mō'āb shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

CHAP. XVII.

THE burden of Da-mās'cūs. Behold, Da-mās'cūs is taken āwāy from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Ār'o-er are forsaken; they shall be for flocks which shall lie down, and none shall make them āfrāid.

3 The fortress shall also cease from Ēphra-īm, and the kingdom from Da-mās'cūs, and the remnant of Sÿr'i-ā: they shall be as the glory of the children of Iş'ra-ël, saith the Lord of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jā'cōb shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 And it shall be as when the harvestman gāthereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gāthereth ears in the valley of Rēph'a-īm.

6 Yet gleanings-grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the Lord God of Iş'ra-ël.

7 At that day shall a man look to his Mā'ker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Iş'ra-ël.

8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves or the images.

9 In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left, because of the children of Iş'ra-ël: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the Rēck of thy strength; therefore shalt thou plant pleās'ant plants, and shall set it with strange slips:

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish; but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 Wo to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mōūn'tains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirl/wind.

14 And, behold, at evening-tide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

CHAP. XVIII.

WO to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ē-thi-ō'pi-ā:

2 That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled!

3 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mōūn'tains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

4 For so the Lord said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

5 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks,³ and take āwāy and cut down the branches.

6 They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mōūn'tains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

7 In that time shall the present be brought unto the Lord of hosts of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the Lord of hosts, the mount Zi'ōn.

CHAP. XIX.

THE burden of Ê-gÿpt. Behold, the Lord rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Ê-gÿpt; and the idols of Ê-gÿpt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Ê-gÿpt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will set the Ê-gÿp'ti-āns āgainst' the Ê-gÿp'ti-āns: and they shall fight every one āgainst' his brother, and every one āgainst' his neighbour; city āgainst' city, and kingdom āgainst' kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Ê-gÿpt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destrōy' the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Ē-gÿp/ti-āns will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts.

5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away, and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper-reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.

8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover, they that work in fine flax, and they that weave net-works, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish.

11 Surely the princes of Zō'an are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Phā-raōh is become brutish: how say ye unto Phā-raōh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Ē/gÿpt.

13 The princes of Zō'an are become fools, the princes of Nōph are deceived; they have also seduced Ē/gÿpt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The LORD hath mingled a pērvēse/spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Ē/gÿpt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be any work for Ē/gÿpt, which the head or tail, brānch or rush, may do.

16 In that day shall Ē/gÿpt be like unto women; and it shall be afraid and fear, because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Jūdāh shall be a terror unto Ē/gÿpt: every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath dētēr'mined against it.

18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Ē/gÿpt speak the language of Čā'na-ān, and swear to the LORD of hosts: one shall be called, The city of destruction.

19 In that day shall there be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Ē/gÿpt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Ē/gÿpt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the LORD shall be known to Ē/gÿpt, and the Ē-gÿp/ti-āns shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sār'rifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and pērfōrm it.

22 And the LORD shall smite Ē/gÿpt, ne shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the LORD, and he shall be entreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 In that day shall there be a highway out of Ē/gÿpt to Ās-sÿr'i-ā; and the Ās-sÿr'i-ān shall come into Ē/gÿpt, and the Ē-gÿp/ti-ān into Ās-sÿr'i-ā; and the Ē-gÿp/ti-āns shall sērve with the Ās-sÿr'i-āns.

24 In that day shall Iḡ'ra-ēl be the third with Ē/gÿpt and with Ās-sÿr'i-ā, even a blessing in the midst of the land;

25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blēs'sed be Ē/gÿpt my people, and Ās-sÿr'i-ā the work of my hands, and Iḡ'ra-ēl mine inheritance.

CHAP. XX.—

IN the year that Tār'tān came unto Āsh'dōd, (when Sār'gōn the king of Ās-sÿr'i-ā sent him,) and fought against Āsh'dōd, and took it;

2 At the same time spake the LORD by I-sāi'āh the son of Ā'mōz, saying, Go, and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, wālk'ing naked and barefoot.

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant I-sāi'āh hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Ē/gÿpt and upon Ē-thi-ō'pi-ā;

4 So shall the king of Ās-sÿr'i-ā lead away the Ē-gÿp/ti-āns prisoners, and the Ē-thi-ō'pi-āns captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Ē/gÿpt.

5 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ē-thi-ō'pi-ā their expectation, and of Ē/gÿpt their glory.

6 And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Ās-sÿr'i-ā: and how shall we escape?

CHAP. XXI.

THE burden of the dēs'ērt of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the dēs'ērt, from a terrible land.

2 A griēv'ōūs vision is declared unto me; The treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Ē'lām: besiēge, O Mē'di-ā: all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

3 Thērc'fōre are my loins filled with pain; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that trāv'ailēth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dīsmāyed at the seeing of it.

4 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my plēas'ure hath he turned into fear unto me.

5 Prepare the table, wātch in the wātch-tower, eat, drink: āriše, ye princes, and ānōit the shield.

6 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set a wāchman, let him declare what he seeth.

7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed.

8 And he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the wāch-tower in the day-time, and I am set in my ward whole nights;

9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Bāb'y-lōn is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

10 O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, have I declared unto you.

11 ¶ The burden of Dū'māh. He call-eth to me out of Se'ir, Wāch'man, what of the night? wāch'man, what of the night?

12 The wāch'man said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will inquire, inquire ye: return, come.

13 ¶ The burden upon Ā-rā'bi-ā. In the forest in Ā-rā'bi-ā shall ye lodge, O ye travelling cōmpānies of Dēd'a-nim.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tē'mā brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they fled from the swōrds, from the drawn swōrd, and from the bent bow, and from the griev'ousness of war.

16 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of a hireling, and all the glory of Kē'dār shall fail:

17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kē'dār, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Iṣ'ra-ēl hath spoken it.

CHAP. XXII.

THE burden of the valley of viṣion. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the house-tops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the swōrd, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

4 Thēre fōre said I, Look āway from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to cōmfōrt me; because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 For it is a day of trōuble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the LORD God of hosts in the valley of viṣion, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mōn'tains.

6 And Ē'lām bare the quiver with char-lots of men and horsemen, and Kir¹ uncōvered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pāss, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

8 And he discōvered the cōv'ering of Jū'dāh, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.

9 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of Dā'vīd, that they are many; and ye gāthered together the waters of the lower pool:

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long āgō.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to gir'ding² with sack-cloth:

13 And, behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we shall die.

14 And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord God of hosts.

15 Thus saith the Lord God of hosts, Go, get thee unto this trēas'urer, even unto Shēb'ā, which is over the house, and say, 16 What hast thou here, and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sēpulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sēpulchre on high, and that graveth a habitation for himself in a rock?

17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee āway with a mighty captivity, and will surely cōver thee.

18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.

19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pūll thee down.

20 And it shall come to pāss in that day, that I will call my sērvant Ē-hi'a-kim, the son of Hīl-kī'āh:

21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy gir'dle,³ and I will commit thy gōvernment into his hand; and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and to the house of Jū'dāh.

22 And the key of the house of Dā'vīd will I lay upon his shoulder: so he shall open, and nōne shall shut; and he shall shut, and nōne shall open.

23 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house.

² gēr'ding.

³ gēr'dl.

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAP. XXIII.

THE burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tar'shish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chit'tim it is revealed to them.

2 Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zi'don, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zi'don; for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travailed not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.¹

5 As at the report concèr'ning Ægypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tar'shish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourning.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tar'shish: there is no more strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over thesea; he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant-city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zi'don; arise, pass over to Chit'tim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold, the land of the Chaldæans; this people was not till the Assyr'i-ans founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tar'shish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as a harlot.

16 Take a harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten: make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayst be remembered.

17 And it shall come to pass, after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her mērchāndise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her mērchāndise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

CHAP. XXIV.

BEHOLD, the LORD maketh the earth empty; and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth, and fadeth away; the world languisheth, and fadeth away; the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof, because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlast'ing covenant.

6 Thērefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: thērefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

7 The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh.

8 The mirth² of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken down; every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive-tree, and as the glean'g-grapes when the vine³ is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty⁴ of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

¹ vēr'jinz.

² mēnth.

³ vīn'ūdje.

⁴ mā'd'jes-te.

15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Iſ'ra-ël in the isles of the sea.

16 From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, wo unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

19 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again¹.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.

23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zi'ôn, and in Jê-rù'sa-lêm, and before his ancients, gloriously.

CHAP. XXV.

O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name: for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made of a city a heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 There'fore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 And in this môûn'tain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees; of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will destroy¹ in this môûn'tain the face of the cov'ering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the LORD God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this môûn'tain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Mô'ab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim; and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands.

12 And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAP. XXVI.

IN that day shall this song be sung in the land of Jû'dâh; We have a strong city: salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHIOVAH is everlasting strength.

5 For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city he layeth it low: he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is uprightness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 Let favour be showed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the maj'esty¹ of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us:

for thou also hast wrought all our works in us.

13 O LORD our God, other lords besides thee have had dominion over us; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destrôy'ed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified; thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee; they poured out a prayer when thy chās'tening was upon them.

17 Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it wêre brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth, neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it wêre for a little moment, until the indignation be overpāst'.

21 For, behold, the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cōver her slain.

CHAP. XXVII.

IN that day the LORD, with his sore, and great, and strong swōrd, shall punish leviathan the piē'cing sērpent, even leviathan that crooked sērpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard¹ of red wine.

3 I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment; lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns āgainst' me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together.

5 Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jā'zōb to take root: Iṣ'ra-ēl shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

8 In mēas'ure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

9 By this, therefore, shall the iniquity of Jā'zōb be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chālk-stōnes that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up.

10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

11 When the bōoughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mērcy on them, and he that formed them will show them no favour.

12 And it shall come to pās in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Ē'gẏpt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

13 And it shall come to pās in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which wêre ready to perish in the land of ās-sÿr'i-ā, and the òut'cāsts in the land of Ē'gẏpt, and shall wōr'ship the LORD in the hōly mount at Jē-rù'sa-lēm.

CHAP. XXVIII.

WO to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ēphra-īm, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the LORD hath a mighty and strong one, which, as a tempest of hail, and a destrôy'ing storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ēphra-īm, shall be trodden under feet.

4 And the glorious beauty which is on the head of the fat valley shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which, when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up.

5 In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diādem of beauty, unto the residue of his people;

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way: the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swāllowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept must be upon precept precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

11 For with stammering lips, and another tongue, will he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them, precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jē-rū'sa-lēm:

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, Behold, I lay in Zi'ōn for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place.

18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night; and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Pēr'a-zīm, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gīb'e-ōn, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now, therefore, be ye not mockers, lest your hands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts a consumption, even determined, upon the whole earth.

23 Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

24 Dóth the ploughman plough all day to sow? dóth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, dóth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cumin, and cast in the principal wheat, and the appointed barley, and the rye, in their place?

26 For his God dóth instruct him to discretion, and dóth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cumin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cumin with a rod.

28 Bread-corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

CHAP. XXIX.

WO to Ā'ri-ēl, to Ā'ri-ēl, the city where Dá'vid dwelt! add ye year to year; let them kill sāc'rif'ices.

2 Yet I will distress Ā'ri-ēl, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ā'ri-ēl.

3 And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be as of one that hath a familiar spirit out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover, the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away; yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.

6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earth'quake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ā'ri-ēl, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night-vision.

8 It shall even be as when a hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight against mount Zi'ōn.

9 Stay yourselves and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

10 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers, hath he covered.

11 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed.

12 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

13 Wherefore the LORD said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do hōn'our me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear tō'wārd me is taught by the precept of men :

14 Thēre'fore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work āmongst this people, even a marvellous work and a wōnder ; for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

15 Wo unto them that seek deep to hide their works āround from the LORD, and their works āre in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us ? and who knoweth us ?

16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be estēemed as the potter's clay : for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not ? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding ?

17 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lēb'a-nōn shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be estēemed as a forest ?

18 And in that day shall the dēaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

19 The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor āmong men shall rejoice in the Hōly One of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all that wātch for iniquity āre cut off :

21 That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn āside the just for a thing of nought.

22 Thēre'fore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Ā'bra-hām, cōncērn'ing the house of Jā'cōb, Jā'cōb shall not now be āshāmed, nēither shall his face now wax pale.

23 But when he seeth his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Hōly One of Jā'cōb, and shall fear the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

24 They also that ērred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall lēarn dōctrīne.

CHAP. XXX.

WO to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me, and that cōver with a cōv'ering, but not of my Spīr'it, that they may add sin to sin :

2 That wālk to go down into Ē'gyp't, and have not āsked at my mouth ; to strengthēn themselves in the strength of Phā'raōh, and to trust in the shadow of Ē'gyp't !

3 Thēre'fore shall the strength of Phā'raōh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Ē'gyp't your confusion.

4 For his princes wēre at Zō'ān, and his ambassadors came to Hā'nēs.

5 They wēre āl āshāmed of a people that could not profit them, nor be a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

6 The burden of the beasts of the south : Into the land of trōuble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying sērpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young āsēs, and their trēās'ures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

7 For the Ē-gyp'ti-āns shall help in vain, and to no purpose : thēre'fore have I cried cōncērn'ing this, Their strength is to sit still.

8 Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever ;

9 That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD :

10 Which say to the seers, See not : and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things ; speak unto us smooth things, prophesy decēits :

11 Get ye out of the way, turn āside out of the pāth, cause the Hōly One of Iṣ'ra-ēl to cease from before us.

12 Wherefore thus saith the Hōly One of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Because ye dēspīse' this word, and trust in oppression and pērvēse'ness, and stay thereon :

13 Thēre'fore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pēces ; he shall not spare : so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a shērd to take fire from the hēarth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lord God, the Hōly One of Iṣ'ra-ēl, In returning and rest shall ye be saved ; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength ; and ye would not.

16 But ye said, No ; for we will flee upon horses ; thēre'fore shall ye flee : and, We will ride upon the swift ; thēre'fore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one ; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee ; till ye be left as a beācon upon the top of a mōūn'tāin, and as an ensign on a hill.

18 And thēre'fore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you ; and thēre'fore will he be exālted, that he may have mērcy upon you ; for the LORD is a God of judgment : blēss'ed āre all they that wait for him.

19 For the people shall dwell in Zī'ōn at Jē-rū'sa-lēm ; thou shalt weep no more : he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry ; when he shall hear it, he will ānswer thee.

20 And though the LORD give you the bread of ādvēr'sity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers :

21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

22 Ye shall defile also the cōv'erīng of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cāst them āway as a menstuous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

23 Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the ēarth, and it shall be fat and plēn'teous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pāstures.

24 The oxen likewise, and the young āsses that eat the ground, shall eat clean provender which hath been winnowed with the shōvel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be upon every high mōūntāin, and upon every high lāll, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slāughter, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover, the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven-fold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wōund.

27 Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy; his lips are full of indignation, and his tōngue as a devouring fire:

28 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity; and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mōūntāin of the LORD, to the mighty One of Īs'ra-ēl.

30 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall show the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

31 For through the voice of the LORD shall the Ās-sÿr'i-ān be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

32 And in every place where the grounded stāll shall pāss, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tābrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it.

33 For Tō'phēt is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared: he hath made it deep and large; the pile thereof is fire and much wood: the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

CHAP. XXXI.

WO to them that go down to Ē-gÿpt for help, and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong: but they look not unto the Holy

One of Īs'ra-ēl, neither seek the LORD!

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise āgainst' the house of the evil-doers, and āgainst' the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Ē-gÿp'ti-āns are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shēp/herds² is called forth āgainst' him, he will not be āfrāid of their voice, nor ābāse himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Z'ōn, and for the hill thereof.

5 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jē-rā'sa-lēm; defending also he will deliver it, and pās'sing over he will prēs'erve' it.

6 Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Īs'ra-ēl have deeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall cāst āway his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin.

8 Then shall the Ās-sÿr'i-ān fall with the swōrd, not of a mighty man; and the swōrd, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the swōrd, and his young men shall be discōm'fited.

9 And he shall pās's over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be āfrāid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Z'ōn, and his fur'nace³ in Jē-rā'sa-lēm.

CHAP. XXXII.

BEHOOLD, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

2 And a man shall be as a hiding-place from the wind, and a cōvert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

3 And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim; and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tōngue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.

5 The vile pērsōn shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile pērsōn will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypōc'risy, and to utter error āgainst' the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destrōy' the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.

² shēp'pūrdz.³ fūr'nīs

9 Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip ye, and make ye bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the teats, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briars, yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city:

14 Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 Until the Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting-places,

19 When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place.

20 Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass.

CHAP. XXXIII.

WO to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

2 O LORD, be gracious unto us; we have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.

4 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them.

5 The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled ZION with judgment and righteousness.

6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without; the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9 The earth mourneth and languisheth; LEB'ANON is ashamed and hewn down; SHARON is like a wilderness; and BASHAN and CARMEL shake off their fruits.

10 Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.

11 Ye shall conceive chaff; ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath as fire shall devour you.

12 And the people shall be as the burnings of lime; as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire.

13 Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and ye that are near, acknowledge my might.

14 The sinners in ZION are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites: Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?

15 He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

16 He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks; bread shall be given him, his waters shall be sure.

17 Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off.

18 Thine heart shall meditate terror. Where is the scribe? where is the receiver? where is he that counted the towers?

19 Thou shalt not see a fierce people; a people of a deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a stammering tongue, that thou canst not understand.

20 Look upon ZION, the city of our solemnities: thine eyes shall see JERUSALEM a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken.

21 But there the glorious LORD will be unto us a place of broad rivers and streams; wherein shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass thereby.

22 For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; he will save us.

23 Thy tacklings are loosed; they could not well strengthen their mast; they could not spread the sail: then is the prey of a great spoil divided; the lame take the prey.

24 And the inhabitants shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

CHAP. XXXIV.

COME near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people; let the earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it.

2 For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destrōy'ed them, he hath delivered them to the slāughter.

3 Their slain also shall be cāst out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcasses, and the mōūn'tains shall be melted with their blood.

4 And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scrōll: and all their hosts shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig-tree.

5 For my swōrd shall be bāthed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Īd-ū-mē'ā, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.

6 The swōrd of the LORD is filled with blood; it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sār'ificē in Bōz'rāh, and a great slāughter in the land of Īd-ū-mē'ā.

7 And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

8 For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of recompenses for the controversy of Zi'ōn.

9 And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch.

10 It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke thereof shall go up for ever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever:

11 But the cōr'mōrānt and the bitter shall pōssēs's' it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness.

12 They shall call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her princes shall be nothing.

13 And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof; and it shall be a habitation of dragons, and a court for owls.

14 The wild beasts of the dēs'ērt shall also meet with the wild beasts of the island, and the sāt'yri shall cry to his fellow; the screech-owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest.

15 There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow; there shall the vū'tures also be gathered, every one with her mate.

16 Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read; no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath cōmmān'ded, and his spirit it hath gāthered them.

17 And he hath cāst the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it unto them by line: they shall pōssēs's' it for ever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

1 sāt'yri.

CHAP. XXXV.

THE wilderness, and the solitary place, shall be glad for them; and the dēs'ērt shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

2 It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lēb'a-nōn shall be given unto it, the excellency of Ār'mēl and Shā'rōn; they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God.

3 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and cōnfirm² the feeble knees.

4 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not; behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the dēaf shall be unstopped:

6 Then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tōngue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the dēs'ērt.

7 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grāss, with reeds and rushes.

8 And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

9 No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there: but the redeemed shall walk there.

10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zi'ōn with songs and ēvēr'lās'ting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee āway.

CHAP. XXXVI.—

NOW it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hēz-ē-kī'āh, that Sēna-çhē'rīb king of Ās-syri'ā came up āgainst' all the defenced cities of Jū'dāh, and took them.

2 And the king of Ās-syri'ā sent Rāb'sha-kēh from Lā'çhish to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, unto king Hēz-ē-kī'āh, with a great army: and he stood by the cōn'duit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Ē-lī'a-kīm, Hil-kī'āh's son, which was over the house, and Shēb'nā the scribe, and Jō'āh, Ā'sāph's son, the recorder.

4 And Rāb'sha-kēh said unto them, Say ye now to Hēz-ē-kī'āh, Thus saith the great king, the king of Ās-syri'ā, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words,) I have counsel and strength for war:

2 kōn-fērm'.

now, on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Ē'ġypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Phā'raōh king of Ē'ġypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he whose high places and whose altars Hēz-ē-kī'āh hath taken away, and said to Jū'dāh and to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, Ye shall wór'ship before this altar?

8 Now, thère'före, give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one cāp'tain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Ē'ġypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to deströy' it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and deströy' it.

11 Then said Ē-lī'a-kīm, and Shēb'nā, and Jō'āh, unto Rāb'sha-kēh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Sŷr'i-ān language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 But Rāb'sha-kēh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee, to speak these words? huth he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rāb'sha-kēh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā:

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hēz-ē-kī'āh deceive you; for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hēz-ē-kī'āh make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā.

16 Hearken not to Hēz-ē-kī'āh; for thus saith the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā, Make an āgreē-ment with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vīne'-yards.¹

18 Beware lest Hēz-ē-kī'āh pērsuāde/you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā?

19 Where are the gods of Hā'māth and Ār'pād? where are the gods of Sēph-ār-vā'- īm? and have they delivered Sa-mā'ri-ā out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jē-rū'sa-lēm out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's cōmmandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 Then came Ē-lī'a-kīm the son of Hil-kī'āh, that was over the household, and Shēb'nā the scribe, and Jō'āh the son of Ā'sāph, the recorder, to Hēz-ē-kī'āh with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rāb'sha-kēh.

CHAP. XXXVII.

AND it came to pass, when king Hēz-ē-kī'āh heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Ē-lī'a-kīm, who was over the household, and Shēb'nā the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Ī-sāi'āh the prophet, the son of Ā'mōz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hēz-ē-kī'āh, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blās'phēmy: for the children are come to the birth,² and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rāb'sha-kēh, whom the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard; wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

5 So the servants of king Hēz-ē-kī'āh came to Ī-sāi'āh.

6 And Ī-sāi'āh said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā have blās'phēmed me.

7 Behold, I will send a blāst upon him; and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 So Rāb'sha-kēh returned, and found the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā wār'ring against Lib'nāh: for he had heard that he was departed from Lā'chāsh.

9 And he heard say concēr'nīng Tir'hakāh³ king of Ē-thi-ō'pī-ā, He is come forth to make war with thee: and when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hēz-ē-kī'āh, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hēz-ē-kī'āh king of Jū'dāh, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jē-rū'sa-lēm shall not be given into the hand of the king of Ās-sŷr'i-ā.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Ās-sŷr'i-ā have done to all lands, by deströy'ing them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations deliver ed them which my fathers have destróy'ed, as Gó'zán, and Há'rán, and Ré'zéph, and the children of É'dén which wére in Tè-lás-sár?

13 Where is the king of Há'máth, and the king of Ár'pád, and the king of the city of Séph-ár-vá'im, Hé'ná, and Í'váh?

14 And Héz-é-kí'ah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Héz-é-kí'ah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Héz-é-kí'ah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Íš'ra-él, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou álone, of all the kingdoms of the éarth; thou hast made heaven and éarth.

17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sèn-na-çhé'rib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Ás-sýr'i-á have laid waste all the nations, and their countries,

19 And have cást their gods into the fire; for they wére no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; thêrê'fore they have destróy'ed them.

20 Now, thêrê'fore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the éarth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 Then Í-sai'ah, the son of Á'möz, sent unto Héz-é-kí'ah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Íš'ra-él, Whereas thou hast prayed to me ágainst' Sèn-na-çhé'rib king of Ás-sýr'i-á:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken cōcēr'nīng him, The vir'gīn,¹ the daughter of Zi'ón, hath despīsed thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jè-rú'sa-lém hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blásh-pemèd? and ágainst' whom hast thou exálted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even ágainst' the Hóly One of Íš'ra-él.

24 By thy sèrvants hast thou reproached the LORD, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the móún'tains, to the sides of Léb'a-nón; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the héight of his border, and the forest of his Çár'mél.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besīeged places.

26 Hast thou not héard long ágō how I have done it; and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to páss, that thou shouldst be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Thêrê'fore their inhabitants wére of small power, they wére dīsmáyed and confounded: they wére as the gráss of the field, and as the green hérb; as the gráss on the house-tops, and as corn blásted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy ábōde, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage ágainst' me.

29 Because thy rage ágainst' me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears; thêrê'fore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou comest.

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plánt vīne'yards,² and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And the remnant that is éscáped of the house of Jū'dáh shall ágain' take root dōwn'wárd, and bear fruit úp'wárd:

32 For out of Jè-rú'sa-lém shall go forth a remnant, and they that éscápe' out of mount Zi'ón: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

33 Thêrê'fore thus saith the LORD cōcēr'nīng the king of Ás-sýr'i-á, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shīlds, nor cást a bank ágainst' it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my sèrvant Dá-vid's sake.

36 Then the ángel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Ás-sýr'i-áns a hundred and fourscore and five thousand; and when they áróse éarly in the morning, behold, they wére all dead corpses.

37 So Sèn-na-çhé'rib king of Ás-sýr'i-á departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nin'e-veh.

38 And it came to páss, as he was wór'-shīppīng in the house of Niš'rōçh his god, that Á-drám'me-léçh and Sha-ré'zér his sons smote him with the swōrd; and they éscáped into the land of Ár-mé'ni-á: and É'sár-Hád'dōn his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

IN those days was Héz-é-kí'ah sick unto death. And Í-sai'ah the prophet, the son of Á'möz, came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Héz-é-kí'ah turned his face tō'-wárd the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

3 And said, Remember, now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have wálked before thee in truth, and with a pèrfect héart, and have done that which is good in thy sight: and Héz-é-kí'ah wept sore.

4 Then came the word of the LORD to Í-sai'ah, saying,

5 Go and say to Héz-é-kí'ah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Dá'vid thy fater, I have héard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Ās-sūr'i-ā: and I will defend this city.

7 And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;

8 Behold, I will bring āgain' the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun-dial of Ā'hāz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

9 ¶ The writing of Hēz-ē-kī'āh king of Jū'dāh, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

10 I said, in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shēp'hērd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life; he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like a crane, or a swāllow, so did I chatter; I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking ūp'wārd: O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.

16 O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness; but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cāst all my sins behind thy back.

18 For the grave cannot praise thee; death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day; the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: thēre'fore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments, all the days of our life, in the house of the LORD.

21 For Ī-sāi'āh had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plāster upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 Hēz-ē-kī'āh also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

CHAP. XXXIX.

AT that time Mē-rō'dāch-Bāl'a-dān, the son of Bāl'a-dān king of Bāb'y-lōn, sent letters and a present to Hēz-ē-kī'āh:

for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hēz-ē-kī'āh was glad of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his trēas'ures: there was nōthing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hēz-ē-kī'āh showed them not.

3 Then came Ī-sāi'āh the prophet unto king Hēz-ē-kī'āh, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hēz-ē-kī'āh said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Bāb'y-lōn.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hēz-ē-kī'āh answered, All that is in mine house have they seen; there is nōthing āmōng my trēas'ures that I have not showed them.

5 Then said Ī-sāi'āh to Hēz-ē-kī'āh, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts;

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Bāb'y-lōn: nōthing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eū'nūchs¹ in the palace of the king of Bāb'y-lōn.

8 Then said Hēz-ē-kī'āh to Ī-sāi'āh, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken: he said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

CHAP. XL.

COMFORT ye, cōm'fort ye my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye cōm'fortably to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

3 The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the dēs'ert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exālted, and every mōūn'tāin and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grāss, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grāss withereth, the flower fadeth: because the Spīr'it of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grāss.

8 The grāss withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 O Zī'ōn, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mōūn'tain; O Jē-rū'sa-lēm, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength: lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Jū'dāh, Behold your God!

10 Behold, the Lord God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

11 He shall feed his flock like a shep'hērd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bō'sóm, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

12 Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a mēas'ure, and weighed the mōûn taîns in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 Who hath directed the Spīr'it of the Lord, or, being his counsellor, hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and showed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lēb'a-nōn is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing and vanity.

18 To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that is so impoverished, that he hath no oblation, chōōseth a tree that will not rot: he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in;

23 That bringeth the princes to nothing: he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yēa, they shall not be planted; yēa, they shall not be sown; yēa, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jā'cōb, and speakest, O Iṣ'ra-ēl, My way is hid from the Lord, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28 Hast thou not known, hast thou not heard, that the ēvēr'lās'ting God, the Lord, the Crē-ā'tōr of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

31 But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint.

CHAP. XLI.

KEEP silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near, then let them speak; let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the Lord, the first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheneth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the soldering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Iṣ'ra-ēl, art my servant, Jā'cōb whom I have chosen, the seed of Ā'brahām my friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant, I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 Fear thou not, for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yēa, I will help thee; yēa, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against¹ thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jā'cōb, and ye men of Iṣ'ra-ēl; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy Rē-dēm'er, the Holy One of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mōūn'tains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

16 Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fōūn'tains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah-tree, and the myr'tle,² and the oil-tree; I will set in the dēs'ert the fir-tree,³ and the pine, and the box-tree together;

20 That they may see and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Iṣ'ra-ēl hath created it.

21 Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jā'cōb.

22 Let them bring them forth, and show us what shall happen: let them show the former things what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23 Show the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

24 Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chōdseth you.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name; and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and before-time, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that showeth; yea, there is none that declareth; yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 The first shall say to Zī'ōn, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jē-rū'salēm one that bringeth good tidings.

28 For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsel for, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAP. XLII.

BEHOOLD my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth: I have put my spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gēn'tiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out: he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein;

6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gēn'tiles;

7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house.

8 I am the LORD; that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kē'dār doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mōūn'tains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry; yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a trav'ailing woman; I will destrōy' and devour at once.

15 I will make waste mōūn'tains and hills, and dry up all their herbꝰ; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deäf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 Who is blind, but my sêrvant? or deäf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's sêrvant?

20 Seeing many things, but thou öbsêrvest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it hön'ourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear for the time to come?

24 Who gave Já'cöb for a spoil, and Ís'ra-ël to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they öbê'dient¹ unto his law.

25 Thêrê'före he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAP. XLIII.

BUT now, thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Já'cöb, and he that formed thee, O Ís'ra-ël, Fear not; for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

2 When thou pássest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou wálkest through the fire thou shalt not be burnt; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Ís'ra-ël, thy Sáv'ioür:² I gave E'gy'pt for thy ransom, Ê-thi-ö'pi-ä and Se'bä for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been hön'ourable, and I have loved thee: thêrê'före will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

5 Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the éarth;

7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yêa, I have made him.

8 Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deäf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered togêther, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and show us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my sêrvant whom I have chosen; that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, am the LORD; and besides me there is no Sáv'ioür.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have showed, when there was no strange god among you: thêrê'före ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 Yêa, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it?

14 Thus saith the LORD, your Rê-dêem'ér, the Holy One of Ís'ra-ël; For your sake I have sent to Báb'y-lön, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Çhál-dê'ân's, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Çrê-ä'tör of Ís'ra-ël, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army, and the power; they shall lie down togêther, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tów.

18 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the dês'ért.

20 The beast of the fêld shall hön'our me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the dês'ért, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This people I have formed for myself; they shall show forth my praise.

22 But thou hast not called upon me, O Já'cöb; but thou hast been weary of me O Ís'ra-ël.

23 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt-offerings, neither hast thou hön'oured me with thy sâc'rifices: I have not caused thee to sêrve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with mόνey, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sâc'rifices; but thou hast made me to sêrve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance : let us plead together : declare thou, that thou mayst be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Thèrefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Já'cöb to the curse, and İş'ra-ël to reproaches.

CHAP. XLIV.

YET now hear, O Já'cöb my sèrvant ; and İş'ra-ël, whom I have chosen :

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee ; Fear not, O Já'cöb my sèrvant ; and thou, Jésh'u-rün, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground ; I will pour my Spír'it upon thy seed, and my bléssing upon thine offspring :

4 And they shall spring up as among the gräss, as willows by the water-courses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD's ; and another shall call himself by the name of Já'cöb ; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of İş'ra-ël.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of İş'ra-ël, and his Rê-dëem'ér the LORD of hosts ; I am the first, and I am the last ; and besides me there is no God.

7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people ? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them show unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid : have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it ? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God besides me ? yea, there is no God ; I know not any.

9 They that make a graven image are all of them vanity ; and their delectable things shall not profit : and they are their own witnesses ; they see not, nor know ; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing ?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed ; and the workmen, they are of men : let them all be gathered together, let them stand up ; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms : yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth ; he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule, he marketh it out with a line, he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the cöm'pass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man ; that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest : he plánteth an ash, and the rain dóth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn : for he will take thereof and wärm himself ; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread ; yea, he maketh a god, and wór'shippeth it : he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire : with part thereof he eateth flesh ; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied ; yea, he wärmeth himself, and saith, à-hà' ! I am wärm, I have seen the fire :

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image : he falleth down unto it, and wór'shippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me ; for thou art my God.

18 They have not known nor understood : for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see ; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burnt part of it in the fire ; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof ; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it ; and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination ? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree ?

20 He feedeth on ashes : a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand ?

21 Remember these, O Já'cöb and İş'ra-ël ; for thou art my sèrvant : I have formed thee ; thou art my sèrvant : O İş'ra-ël, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins : return unto me ; for I have redeemed thee.

23 Sing, O ye heavens ; for the LORD hath done it : shout, ye lower parts of the earth : break forth into singing, ye môûn'tains, O forest, and every tree therein : for the LORD hath redeemed Já'cöb, and glorified himself in İş'ra-ël.

24 Thus saith the LORD, thy Rê-dëem'ér, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things ; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone ; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself ;

25 That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad ; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish ;

26 That cõfirm'eth¹ the word of his sèrvant, and pèrf'orm'eth the counsel of his messengers ; that saith to Jê-rù'sa-lëm, Thou shalt be inhabited ; and to the cities of Jû'däh, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof :

27 That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers :

28 That saith of Cý'rüs, He is my shép'hèrd,² and shall pèrf'orm' all my pleàs'ure :

² shép'pürd.

even saying to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

CHAP. XLV.

THUS saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cŷ'rūs, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will lōōse the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut:

2 I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight; I will break in piēces the gates of brāss, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the trēas'ures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayst know that I the LORD which call thee by thy name, am the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

4 For Jā'cōb my sērvant's sake, and Iṣ'ra-ēl mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me.

5 I am the LORD, and there is nōne else, there is no God besides me: I gir'ded thee, though thou hast not known me;

6 That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is nōne besides me: I am the LORD, and there is nōne else.

7 I form the light, and create darkness; I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things.

8 Drop down, ye heavens, from ābove, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the ēarth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together. I the LORD have created it.

9 Wo unto him that striveth with his Mā'ker! Let the pōt'shērd strice with the pōt'shērdṣ of the ēarth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What maketh thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

10 Wo unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the Hōly One of Iṣ'ra-ēl, and his Mā'ker, Ask me of things to come cōncēr'ning my sons; and cōncēr'ning the work of my hands cōm-mānd' ye me.

12 I have made the ēarth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I cōm-mān'ded.

13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will dirēct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Ē'gŷpt, and mēr'chāndiṣe of Ē-thi-ō'pi-ā, and of the Sa-bē'ānṣ, men of stāt'ure,¹ shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come āfter thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee, and there is nōne else; there is no God.

15 Verily, thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, the Sāv'ioūr.

16 They shall be āshāmed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion togēther that āre makers of idols.

17 But Iṣ'ra-ēl shall be saved in the LORD with an ēvērlāst'ing salvation: ye shall not be āshāmed nor confounded wōrld without end.

18 For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens, God himself that formed the ēarth and made it, he hath ēstāb'lished it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; I am the LORD, and there is nōne else.

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the ēarth: I said not unto the seed of Jā'cōb, Seek ye me in vain. I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that āre right.

20 Assemble yourselves and come; draw near togēther, ye that āre ēscāped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

21 Tell ye, and bring them near; yēa, let them take counsel togēther: who hath declared this from āncient time? who hath told it from that time? huze not I the LORD? and there is no God else besides me; a just God, and a Sāv'ioūr: there is nōne besides me.

22 Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the ēarth; for I am God, and there is nōne else.

23 I have sworn by mysēlf, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bōw, every tōngue shall swear.

24 Surely, shall one say, In the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that āre incensed āgāinst' him shall be āshāmed.

25 In the LORD shall all the seed of Iṣ'ra-ēl be justified, and shall glory.

CHAP. XLVI.—

BEL bōweth down, Nē'bō stoopeth; their idols wēre upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages wēre heavy loaden: they āre a burden to the weary beast.

2 They stoop; they bōw down togēther; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves āre gone into captivity.

3 Hearken unto me, O house of Jā'cōb, and all the remnant of the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl, which āre borne by me from the belly, which āre carried from the womb:

4 And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

5 To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

6 They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith, and he maketh it a god: they fall down; yea, they wōr'ship.

¹ stāt'tshūre.

7 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

8 Remember this, and show yourselves men; bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me;

10 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

12 Harken unto me, ye stout-hearted, that are far from righteousness:

13 I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zi'ōn for Iſ'ra-él my glory.

CHAP. XLVII.

COME down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Bāb'y-lōn; sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chāl-dē'āns: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for our Rē-dēm'er, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Iſ'ra-él.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chāl-dē'āns: for thou shalt no more be called The lady of kingdoms.

6 I was wroth with my people; I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst show them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Thēre'fore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly; that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 Thēre'fore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mis'chief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thy enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayst prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the star-gazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

CHAP. XLVIII.

HEAR ye this, O house of Ja'cōb, which are called by the name of Iſ'ra-él, and are come forth out of the waters of Jū-dāh; which swear by the name of the God of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Iſ'ra-él, but not in truth nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Iſ'ra-él; The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass,

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I showed it thee: lest thou shouldst say, Mine idol hath done them; and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have showed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardst them not; lest thou shouldst say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardst not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldst deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb.

9 For my name's sake will I dëfër' mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace¹ of affliction.

11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another.

12 Harken unto me, O Jä'çöb and İş'ra-ël, my called; I am he: I am the first, I also am the last.

13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together.

14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath loved him; he will do his pleäs'ure on Báb'y-lön, and his arm shall be on the Çhâl-dë'ängs.

15 I, even I, have spoken: yëa, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the Lord God and his Spir'it hath sent me.

17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Rë-dëem'ér, the Holy One of İş'ra-ël; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldst go.

18 O that thou hadst hearkened to my cömmänd'ments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea;

19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy böwels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor deströy'ed from before me.

20 Go ye forth of Báb'y-lön, flee ye from the Çhâl-dë'ängs, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his sërvant Jä'çöb.

21 And they thirsted not when he led them through the dëş'erts: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

CHAP. XLIX.

LISTEN, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the böwels of my möther hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said unto me, Thou art my sërvant, O İş'ra-ël, in whom I will be glorified.

4 Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain; yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and my work with my God.

5 And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his sërvant, to bring Jä'çöb ägain' to him, Though İş'ra-ël be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my sërvant, to raise up the tribes of Jä'çöb, and to restore the präşërv'ed of İş'ra-ël; I will also give thee for a light to the Gën'tiles, that thou mayst be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Rë-dëem'ér of İş'ra-ël, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a sërvant of rulers, Kings shall see and ärise, princes also shall wör'ship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of İş'ra-ël, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will präşërv' thee, and give thee for a cövenant of the people, to estäb'lish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages:

9 That thou mayst say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that äre in darkness, Show yourselves: they shall feed in the ways, and their pästures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun snite them: for he that hath mërcy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 And I will make all my möün'täins a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, these shall come from far; and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sïn'im.

13 Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O möün'täins; for the LORD hath cöm'forted his people, and will have mërcy upon his afflicted.

14 But Zï'ön said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

15 Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yëa, they may forget yet will I not forget thee.

16 Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls äre continually before me.

17 Thy children shall make haste; thy deströy'ers, and they that make thee waste shall go forth of thee.

18 Lift up thine eyes round äbout', and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all as with an ornament, and bind them on thee as a bride doeth.

19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

20 The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again' in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place for me that I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 Thus saith the LORD GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gén'tiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 And kings shall be thy nursing-fathers, and thy queens thy nursing-mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face to-wárd the éarth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be áshamed that wait for me.

24 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Sáv'ioür,¹ and thy Redém'er, the Migh'ty One of Já'cöb.

CHAP. L.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your móther's dívorce'ment, whom I have put áway? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your móther put áway.

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to ánswer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea: I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their cöv'eríng.

4 The Lord God hath given me the tóngue of the lærned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning; he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the lærned.

5 The Lord God hath opened mine ear,

1 Sáv'e'yür.

and I was not rebellious, néither turned áway back.

6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 For the Lord God will help me; there'fore shall I not be confounded: there'fore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be áshamed.

8 He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine ád'versary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall wax old as a gárment; the möth shall eat them up.

10 Who is ámong you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his sërvant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that cöm'pass yourselves ábout' with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand, ye shall lie down in sorrow.

CHAP. LI.

HEarken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit, whence ye are digged.

2 Look unto Á'bra-hám your father, and unto Sá'räh that bare you: for I called him álone, and bless'ed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD shall cöm'fört Zí'ón: he will cöm'fört all her waste places, and he will make her wilderness like É'den,² and her dés'ért like the gárden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 Hearken unto me, my people, and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

5 My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people: the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the éarth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish áway like smoke, and the éarth shall wax old like a gárment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose héart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, néither be ye áfráid of their revílings.

8 For the möth shall eat them up like a gárment, and the wórm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 Áwake, áwake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; āwāke, as in the āncient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rā'hāb, and wōūn'ded the dragon?

2 É'd'n.

10 Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pāss over?

11 Thēre'fōre the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zī'ōn; and ēvērlās'ting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee āwāy.

12 I, even I, am he that cōm'fōrteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be āfrāid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grāss;

13 And forgettest the LORD thy Mā'ker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the ēarth; and hast feared continually every day, because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he wēre ready to dēstrōy? and where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be lōosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

15 But I am the LORD thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name.

16 And I have put my words in thy mouth, and have cōvered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plānt the heavens, and lay the foundations of the ēarth, and say unto Zī'ōn, Thou art my people.

17 āwāke, āwāke, stand up, O Jē-rū'sa-lēm, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury: thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is nōne to guide her āmōng all the sons whom she hath brought forth; nēither is there any that taketh her by the hand, of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 These two things āre come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the scōrd: by whom shall I cōm'fōrt thee?

20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets as a wild bull in a net: they āre full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 Thēre'fōre, hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine:

22 Thus saith thy Lord, the LORD, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it āgain':

23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bōw down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

CHAP. LII.

AWAKE, āwāke; put on thy strength, O Zī'ōn; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jē-rū'sa-lēm, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come unto thee the uncir'cumcised and the unclean.

2 Shake thyself from the dust; ārise, and sit down, O Jē-rū'sa-lēm: lōose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive dāughter of Zī'ōn.

3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nōught; and ye shall be redeemed without mōney.

4 For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down āfōre'time into Ēg'yp't to sō'jōurn there; and the ās-sy'r'i-ān oppressed them without cause.

5 Now, thēre'fōre, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken āwāy for nōught? They that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD, and my name continually every day is blāsp'hēmed.

6 Thēre'fōre my people shall know my name: thēre'fōre they shall know in that day that I am he that dōth speak; behold, it is I.

7 How beautiful upon the mōūn'tāns āre the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zī'ōn, Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy wātchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice tōgēther shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring āgain' Zī'ōn.

9 Break forth into joy, sing tōgēther, ye waste places of Jē-rū'sa-lēm: for the LORD hath cōm'fōrted his people, he hath redeemed Jē-rū'sa-lēm:

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the ēarth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, tōuch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Īs'ra-ēl will be your rearward.

13 Behold, my sērvant shall deal prudently, he shall be exālted and extōlled, and be very high.

14 As many wēre astonied! at thee; (his visage was so mārred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men;)

15 So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see, and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

CHAP. LIII.

WHO hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plānt, and as a root out of a dry ground; he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was wōūn'ded for our transgressions, he was bruised² for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we, like sheep, have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted; yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors: and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

CHAP. LIV.

SING, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord.

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes:

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gēn'tiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed

¹ brōd'zed.

ed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 For thy Maker is thine husband; the Lord of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall be called.

6 For the Lord hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the waters of Nō'ah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Nō'ah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wrath with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee.

11 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.²

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee.

15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy¹.

17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord; and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord.

CHAP. LV.

HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not; and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow, from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater;

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void; but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree,¹ and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree:² and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign, that shall not be cut off.

CHAP. LVI.

THUS saith the Lord, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the Lord, speak, saying, The Lord hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the Lord unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine house, and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger that join themselves to the Lord, to serve him, and to love the name of the Lord, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar: for mine house shall be called a house of prayer for all people.

8 The Lord God, which gathereth the outcasts of Israel, saith, Yet will I gather others to him, besides those that are gathered unto him.

9 All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are blind; they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds³ that cannot understand; they all look to their own way, every one for his gain from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and to-morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

CHAP. LVII.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

2 He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

3 But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood;

5 Inflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot; even to them hast thou poured a drink-offering, thou hast offered a meat-offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance; for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up: thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovest their bed where thou sawest it.

9 And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

13 When thou criest, let thy companions deliver thee: but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the Lord; and I will heal him.

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

CHAP. LVIII.

CRY aloud, spare not; lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your labours.

4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the Lord?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

8 Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall go before thee: the glory of the Lord shall be thy rearward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity:

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon-day:

11 And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The Repairer of the breach, The Restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a Delight, the Holy of the Lord, Honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

14 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

CHAP. LIX.

BEHOLD, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverse-ness.

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch cockatrice's eggs, and weave the spider's web : he that cateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works : their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood : their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity ; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not ; and there is no judgment in their goings : they have made them crooked paths ; whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us : we wait for light, but behold obscurity ; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes : we stumble at noon-day as in the night ; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves : we look for judgment, but there is none ; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us : for our transgressions are with us ; and as for our iniquities, we know them :

13 In transgressing and lying against the Lord, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off : for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth ; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey : and the Lord saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor ; therefore his arm brought salvation unto him ; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 For he put on righteousness as a breast-plate, and a helmet of salvation upon his head ; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies ; to the islands he will repay recompense.

19 So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him.

20 And the Rē-dēm'er shall come to Zi'ōn, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jā'cōb, saith the Lord.

21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord ; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever.

CHAP. LX.

ARISE, shine ; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people ; but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the Ġēn'tiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see : all they gather themselves together, they come to thee : thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged, because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Ġēn'tiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Mid'i-ān and Ē'plāh ; all they from Shē'bā shall come : they shall bring gold and incense ; and they shall show forth the praises of the Lord.

7 All the flocks of Kē'dār shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nē-bāi'ōth shall minister unto thee : they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows ?

9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tār'shīsh first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the Lord thy God, and to the Holy One of Iṣ'ra-ēl, because he hath glorified thee.

10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee : for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually : they shall not be shut day nor night ; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Ġēn'tiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish ; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The glory of Lēb'a-nōn shall come unto thee, the fir-tree,² the pine-tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary ;³ and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee ; and all

3 sāngh'tshū-ā-re.

they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zi'ôn of the Holy One of Iſ'ra-ël.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gën'tiles, and shalt suck the breasts of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Säv'ioür! and thy Rë-dëem'ér, the Migh'ty One of Jä'çöb.

17 For bräss I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood bräss, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness:

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders: but thou shalt call thy walls Sälva'tion, and thy gates Präiße.

19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an ëvërläs'ting light, and thy God thy glory;

20 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine ëvërläs'ting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my plänt'ing, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

CHAP. LXI.

THE Spír'it of the Lord God is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek: he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to cóm'fort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zi'ôn, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called Trees of Righteousness, The Plänt'ing of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the älien shall be your ploughmen, and your vine-dressers.

6 But ye shall be named the priests of the LORD; men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the 1 Säv'e'yür.

Gën'tiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

7 For your shame ye shall have double, and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: thëre'före in their land they shall possess' the double; ëvërläs'ting joy shall be unto them.

8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt-offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an ëvërläs'ting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gën'tiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blëss'ed.

10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God: for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the LORD God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

CHAP. LXII.

FOR Zi'ôn's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jë-rù'sa-lëm's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof, as a lamp that burneth.

2 And the Gën'tiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken: neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Héph'zi-bäh, and thy land Beu'läh: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 For as a young man marieth a vir'g'in,² so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 I have set wä'tchmen upon thy walls, O Jë-rù'sa-lëm, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence;

7 And give him no rest, till he estäb'lish, and till he make Jë-rù'sa-lëm a praise in the earth.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

2 vër'jün.

10 Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; east up, east up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Z'ōn, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.

CHAP. LXIII.

WHIO is this that cometh from Ēdōm, with dyed garments from Bōz'rāh? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

3 I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold; therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will mention the loving-kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness towards the house of Īs'ra-ēl, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Sāv'ioūr.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them: and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spīr'it: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Mō'sēs and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shēp'hērd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spīr'it within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Mō'sēs with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an ēvērlās'ting name?

13 That led them through the deep, as a horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spīr'it of the LORD caused him to rest; so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name.

15 Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies towards me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our Fā'ther, though Ā'bra-hām be ignorant of us, and Īs'ra-ēl acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our Fā'ther, our Re-dēem'er; thy name is from ēvērlās'ting.

17 O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name.

CHAP. LXIV.

OH that thou wouldst rend the heavens, that thou wouldst come down, that the mōûn'tains might flow down at thy presence;

2 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil; to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mōûn'tains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, besides thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness; those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, thou art our Fā'ther: we are the clay, and thou our Pōt'ter; and we all are the work of thy hand.

9 Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, nei'ther remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zi' ōn is a wilderness, Jē-rū'sa-lēm a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burnt up with fire : and all our pleā'sant things āre laid waste.

12 Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

CHAP. LXV.

I AM sought of them that āsked not for me ; I am found of them that sought me not : I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name.

2 I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, āfter their own thoughts.

3 A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face ; that sācrifiçeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick ;

4 Which remain āmōng the graves, and lodge in the monuments ; which eat swine's flesh, and brōth of abominable things is in their vessels ;

5 Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me ; for I am holier than thou. These āre a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before me ; I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bō'sōm,

7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers togethēr, saith the LORD, which have burnt incense upon the mōūn'tāins, and blāsp'hēmed me upon the hills : thērē'fōre will I mēā'sure their former work into their bō'sōm.

8 Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Dēstrōy' it not ; for a blēs'sing is in it : so will I do for my sērvants' sake, that I may not dēstrōy' them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jā'çōb, and out of Jū'dāh an inheritor of my mōūn'tāins : and mine elect shall inherit it, and my sērvants shall dwell there.

10 And Shā'rōn shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Ā'çhōr a place for the hērds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

11 But ye āre they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mōūn'tāin, that prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish the drink-offering unto that number.

12 Thērē'fōre will I number you to the swōrd, and ye shall all bōw down to the slāughter : because when I called, ye did not ānswer ; when I spake, ye did not hear ; but did evil before mine eyes, and did chōōse that wherein I delighted not.

13 Thērē'fōre thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my sērvants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry : behold, my sērvants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty : behold, my sērvants shall rejoice, but ye shall be āshamed :

14 Behold, my sērvants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen : for the Lord God shall slay thee, and call his sērvants by ānōther name :

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth, shall bless himself in the God of truth ; and he that sweareth in the earth, shall swear by the God of truth ; because the former trōūbles āre forgotten, and because they āre hid from mine eyes.

17 For, behold, I create new heavens, and a new earth : and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create : for, behold, I create Jē-rū'sa-lēm a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And I will rejoice in Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and joy in my people : and the voice of weeping shall be no more hēard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days : for the child shall die a hundred years old ; but the sinner, being a hundred years old, shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them ; and they shall plānt vineyards,¹ and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and ānōther inhabit ; they shall not plānt, and ānōther eat : for as the days of a tree āre the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trōūble : for they āre the seed of the blēs'sed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pāss, that before they call, I will ānswer ; and while they āre yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed togethēr, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock : and dust shall be the sērpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor dēstrōy' in all my holy mōūn'tāin, saith the LORD.

CHAP. LXVI.

THUS saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool : where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD : but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man ; he that sācrifiçeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck ; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood ; he that burneth incense, as if he blēs'sed an idol : yēa, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will chōōse their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompense to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zi'ôn travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth,¹ and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jê-rû'sa-lêm, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gën'tiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jê-rû'sa-lêm.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb; and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind,² to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens, behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tar'shish, Pul, and Lüd, that draw the bow, to Tü'bäl and Jä'vân, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gën'tiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD, out of all nations, upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountäin Jê-rû'sa-lêm, saith the LORD, as the children of İs'ra-ël bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take of them for priests, and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me; for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

¶ The BOOK of the Proph'et JEREMI'AH.

CHAPTER I.—

THE words of Jêr-ê-mî'âh the son of Hil-kî'âh, of the priests that were in An'a-thôth, in the land of Bën'ja-mîn:

2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Jô-si'âh the son of A'nôn king of Jü'dâh, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jê-hôï'a-kim the son of Jô-si'âh king of Jü'dâh, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zêd-ê-kî'âh the son of Jô-si'âh king of Jü'dâh, unto the carrying away of Jê-rû'sa lêm captive in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee; and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! Behold, I cannot speak; for I am a child.

7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 Be not afraid of their faces: for I am

¹ bërth.

² hwêrl'wînd.

with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth: and the LORD said unto me, Behold I have put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jer-é-mí-áh, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond-tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething-pot, and the face thereof is toward the north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Je-rú-sa-lém, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Jū-dáh.

16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a fenced city, and an iron pillar, and brazen walls, against the whole land; against the kings of Jū-dáh, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAP. II.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go, and cry in the ears of Je-rú-sa-lém, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Iſ-ra-él was holiness unto the LORD, and the first-fruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Já-cób, and all the families of the house of Iſ-ra-él:

5 Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

á'münd-tree.

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of É-gýpt, that led us through the wilderness; through a land of deserts, and of pits; through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death; through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodness thereof: but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Ba'al, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass over the isles of Chít'im, and see; and send unto Ké-dár, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing:

11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 Is Iſ-ra-él a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he spoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burnt without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Nöph and Tá-háp'a-néš have broken the crown of thy head.

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 And now, what hast thou to do in the way of É-gýpt, to drink the waters of Sí-hör? or what hast thou to do in the way of Ás-sýr'i-á, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know, therefore, and see, that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill, and under every green tree, thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

2 gërd.

CHAP. III.

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Bā'al-īm? See thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways, 24 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets,

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Jū'dāh.

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the Lord.

30 In vain have I smitten your children: they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 O generation, see ye the word of the Lord: Have I been a wilderness unto Iṣ'ra-ēl? a land of darkness? Wherefore say my people, we are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts¹ is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me: behold I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 Why gaddest thou about¹ so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Eḡypt, as thou wast ashamed of Ās-sūr¹-ā.

37 Yēa, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for the Lord hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

THEY say, if a man put away his wife, and she go from him and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted: but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again¹ to me, saith the Lord.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with: in the ways hast thou sat for them, as the ā-rā'bi-ān in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?

5 Will he reserve¹ his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldst.

6 The Lord said also unto me in the days of Jō-si'āh the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Iṣ'ra-ēl hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain, and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said, after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me: but she returned not. And her treacherous sister Jū'dāh saw it.

8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Iṣ'ra-ēl committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Jū'dāh feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Jū'dāh hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto me, The backsliding Iṣ'ra-ēl hath justified herself more than treacherous Jū'dāh.

12 Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Iṣ'ra-ēl, saith the Lord, and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you; for I am merciful, saith the Lord, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the Lord.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the Lord; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zi'ōn:

15 And I will give you pāstors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pāss, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the cōvenant of the LORD; neither shall it come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it, neither shall that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jē-rū/salēm the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gāthered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jē-rū/sa-lēm; neither shall they wālk any more āfter the imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days the house of Jū'dāh shall wālk with the house of Iš'ra-ël, and they shall come togēther out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee āmong the children, and give thee a plēāsant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? And I said, Thou shalt call me,
My father; and shalt not turn āway from me.

20 Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her hūs'bānd, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Iš'ra-ël, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was hēard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Iš'ra-ël: for they have pērvērted their way, and they have forgotton the LORD their God.

22 Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mōûntāins: truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Iš'ra-ël.

24 For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their hērds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion cōvereth us: for we have sinned āgainst' the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

CHAP. IV.

IF thou wilt return, O Iš'ra-ël, saith the LORD, return unto me; and if thou wilt put āway thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 And thou shalt swear, the LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness;
and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.

3 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Jū'dāh and Jē-rū/sa-lēm, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not āmong thorns.

4 Cir'cūmciſe¹ yourselves to the LORD, and take āway the foreskins of your heart,
ye men of Jū'dāh and inhabitants of Jērū/sa-lēm; lēst my fury come forth like fire, and burn that nōne can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Jū'dāh, and publish in Jē-rū/sa-lēm; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gāther togēther, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

6 Set up the standard tō'wārd Zī'ōn: retire, stay not; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destrōy'er of the Gēn'tiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate: and thy cities shall be laid waste without an inhabitant.

8 For this gird² you with sackcloth, lamēt and howl; for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pāss at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wōnder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jē-rū/sa-lēm, saying, Ye shall have peace;
whereas the swōrd reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jē-rū/sa-lēm, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness tō'wārd the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse,

12 Even a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I give sentence āgainst' them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirl/wind:³
his horses āre swifter than eagles. Wo unto us! for we āre spoiled.

14 O Jē-rū/sa-lēm, wāsh thine hēart from wickedness, that thou mayst be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

15 For a voice declareth from Dān, and publisheth affliction from mount Ē/phra-īm.

16 Make ye mention to the nations: behold, publish āgainst' Jē-rū/sa-lēm, that wāchers come from a far country, and give out their voice āgainst' the cities of Jūdāh.

17 As keepers of a fiēld āre they āgainst' her round ābout'; because she hath been rebellious āgainst' me, saith the LORD.

18 Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee: this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine hēart.

19 My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very hēart; my hēart maketh a noise in me. I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast hēard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the ālarm of war.

20 Destruction upon destruction is cried:

² gērd.

³ hwērl/wīnd.

for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end.

28 For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child; the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Wo is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

CHAP. V.—

RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusa-lem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.

2 And though they say, The LORD liveth, surely they swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them: for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

7 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD's.

11 For the house of Israhel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he, neither shall evil come upon us, neither shall we see sword nor famine;

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israhel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds; they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.

19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore doth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land; so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

¹ lep'purd.

21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears and hear not:

22 Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a pèrpet'ual¹ decree, that it cannot pàss it; and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pàss over it?

23 But this people hath a revolt'ing and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he rèsèrv'eth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 Your iniquities have turned àwày these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

26 For àmóng my people àre found wicked men: they lay wait as he that setteth snares: they set a trap, they cãtch men.

27 As a cage is full of birds, so àre their houses full of decèit: thèrè'fòre they àre become great, and waxen rich.

28 They àre waxen fat, they shine; yèa, they óvèrpàss' the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be àvèngèd on such a nation as this?

30 A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bare rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

CHAP. VI.

O YE children of Bèn'ja-mîn, gãther yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jè-rù'sa-lèm, and blow the trumpet in Tè-kò'ã, and set up a sign of fire in Bèth-hác'-ce-rèm; for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zì'ón to a comely and delicate woman.

3 The shèp'hérds with their flocks shall come unto her: they shall pitch their tents àgainst' her round àbout'; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war àgainst' her; àrìçe, and let us go up at noon. Wo unto us! for the day goeth àwày, for the shadows of the evening àre stretched out.

5 Àrìçe, and let us go by night, and let us dèstròy' her palaces.

6 For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cãst a mount àgainst' Jè-rù'sa-lèm: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As a fòun'tain cãsteth out her waters, so she cãsteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grièf and wòunds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jè-rù'sa-lèm, lèst my soul depart from thee; lèst I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Ís'ra-èl as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grape-gãtherer into the bãskets.

10 To whom shall I speak and give wãrn'ing, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncir'cumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Thèrè'fòre I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children àbròad, and upon the assembly of young men tógèthèr; for even the hùs'bãnd with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives tógèthèr: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Wère they àshãmed when they had committed abomination? nay, they wère not at all àshãmed, nèither could they blush; thèrè'fòre they shall fall àmóng them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cãst down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and àsk for the old pãths, where is the good way, and wãlk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not wãlk therein.

17 Also I set wãtchmen over you, say- ing, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 Thèrè'fòre hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is àmóng them.

19 Hear, O èarth; behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Shè'bã, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings àre not acceptable, nor your sãc'rificès sweet unto me.

21 Thèrè'fòre thus saith the LORD, Be hold, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons tógèthèr shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy: their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zí'ón.

24 We have heard the fame thereof; our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain as of a woman in tráiv'aíl.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wállow thyself in ashes; make thee mourning as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayst know and try their way.

28 They are all griev'ous revólters, walking with slanders: they are bráss and iron; they are all corrupters.

29 The bellows are burnt, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain; for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

CHAP. VII.

THE word that came to Jēr-ē-mī'āh from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Jūdáh, that enter in at these gates to wor'ship the LORD:

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Ís'ra-él, Aménd' your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly aménd' your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Bál, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place, which was in Shí'loh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Ís'ra-él.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not;

14 There'fore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shí'loh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of E'phra-ím.

16 There'fore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee.

17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Jūdáh, and in the streets of Jē-rú-sa-lēm?

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?

20 There'fore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Ís'ra-él; Put your burnt-offerings unto your sac'rifices, and eat flesh.

22 For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commànded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of E'gypt, concèrning burnt-offerings or sac'rifices:

23 But this thing commànded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in all the ways that I have commànded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not for'ward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of E'gypt unto this day, I have even sent unto you all my sèrvants the prophets, daily rising up early, and sending them:

26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers.

27 There'fore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is

A nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 Cut off thine hair, O Jē-rū/sa-lēm, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Jū'dāh have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the high places of Tō'phēt, which is in the valley of the son of Hīn'nōm, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart.

32 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tō'phēt, nor, The valley of the son of Hīn'nōm, but, The valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tō'phēt till there be no place.

33 And the carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Jū'dāh, and from the streets of Jē-rū/sa-lēm, the voice of mirth,¹ and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; for the land shall be desolate.

CHAP. VIII.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Jū'dāh, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jē-rū/sa-lēm, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Moreover, thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jē-rū/sa-lēm slidden back by a pēpēt'ual² backsliding? they hold fast decēt, they refuse to return.

6 I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

7 Yēa, the stork in the heaven knoweth

1 mērth.

her appointed times; and the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow, obšerve' the time of their coming: but my people know not the judgment of the LORD.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, cēr'tainly in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain.

9 The wise men are āshāmed, they are dīzmāyed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one, from the least even unto the greatest, is given to covetousness; from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

12 Were they āshāmed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all āshāmed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

13 I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig-tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fenced cities, and let us be silent there; for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

16 The snōrt'ing of his horses was heard from Dān; the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For, behold, I will send sērpents, cōck'atrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

18 When I would cōm'fōrt mysēlf āgainst' sorrow, my heart is faint in me.

19 Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people, because of them that dwell in a far country. Is not the LORD in Zi'ōn? is not her king in her? why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there no balm in Gil'e-ād? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

2 pēr-pēt'tshū-āl.

CHAP. IX.

OH that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fōū'n'tain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging-place of wayfaring men, that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies; but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Thēre'fore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

9 Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avēnged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mōū'n'tains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle: both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jē-rū'sa-lēm heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Jū'dāh desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 Who is the wise man, that may understand this; and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burnt up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Bā'āl-īm, which their fathers taught them:

15 Thēre'fore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Ys'ra-ēl; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with worm-wood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zī'ōn, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach you: daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation:

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcasses of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvest-man, and none shall gather them.

23 Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 E'gypt, and Jū'dāh, and E'dōm, and the children of Am'mōn, and Mō'āb, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised¹ and all the house of Ys'ra-ēl are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAP. X.

HEAR ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Ys'ra-ēl:

2 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain for one cutteth a tree out of the forest (the work of the hands of the workman) with the axe:

4 They deck it with silver and with gold, they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm-tree, but speak not; they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

6 Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

7 Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain': forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

8 But they are altogether brutish and foolish; the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tār'shish, and gold from Ū'phāz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing; they are all the work of cunning men.

10 But the LORD is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlāsting King; at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

12 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

13 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

14 Every man is brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

16 The portion of Jā'cōb is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and Iṣ'ra-ēl is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name.

17 Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress:

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may find it so.

19 Who is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it.

20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not; there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Jūdāh desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

24 O LORD, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

25 Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jā'cōb, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

CHAP. XI.

THE word that came to Jēr-ē-mī'āh from the LORD, saying

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Jūdāh, and to the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Ē'gġypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God;

5 That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Jūdāh, and in the streets of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers, in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Ē'gġypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant which I commanded them to do: but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Jūdāh, and among the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, when refused to hear my words: and they went after other gods to serve them: i.e. house of Iṣ'ra-ēl and the house of Jūdāh have broken my covenant, which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring even upon them, which they shall not be able to escape'; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Jūdāh, and inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, go and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Jūdāh; and according to the number of the streets of Jeru'sa-lem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Ba'al.

14 There'fore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble.

15 What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive-tree, fair, and of goodly fruit; with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts that planted thee hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Is'ra-ël, and of the house of Ju'dah, which they have done against themselves, to provoke me to anger, in offering incense unto Ba'al.

18 And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou showedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb, or an ox, that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them; for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 There'fore thus saith the LORD of the men of An'a-thoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophesy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 There'fore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them; the young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;

23 And there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring evil upon the men of An'a-thoth, even the year of their visitation.

CHAP. XII.

RIGHTEOUS art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee; yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them; yea, they have taken root: they grow; yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me; thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart to'ward thee; pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end

5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jor'dan?

6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee.

7 I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly-beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: there'fore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird; the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns; they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit; and they shall be ashamed of your revenues, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Is'ra-ël to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Ju'dah from among them.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; (as they taught my people to swear by Ba'al;) then shall they be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XIII.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle, according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the gir'dle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Eū-phrā'tēs,¹ and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Eū-phrā'tēs, as the LORD cōmmān'ded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Eū-phrā'tēs, and take the gir'dle from thence, which I cōmmān'ded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Eū-phrā'tēs, and digged, and took the gir'dle from the place where I had hid it; and, behold, the gir'dle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Jū'dāh, and the great pride of Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods to serve them, and to wór'ship them, shall even be as this gir'dle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the gir'dle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Iſ'ra-él, and the whole house of Jū'dāh, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 Thér'e'fore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the LORD God of Iſ'ra-él, Every bottle shall be filled with wine; and they shall say unto thee, Do we not cēr'tainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon Dā'vīd's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, with drunkenness.

14 And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD; I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mércy, but destróy' them.

15 Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark móun'tains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them; Jū'dāh shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north; where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? (for thou hast taught them to be cāp'tains, and as chief over thee;) shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in tráw'-ail?

22 And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts² discovered, and thy heels made bare.

23 Can the Ē-thi-ō'pi-ān change his skin, or the lēop'ard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Thér'e'fore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy lot, the portion of thy méas'ures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

26 Thér'e'fore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Wo unto thee, O Jē-rū'sa-lēm! wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be?

CHAP. XIV.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jēr-ē-mi'āh cōncēr'ning the dēarth.

2 Jū'dāh mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jē-rū'sa-lēm is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they wēre āshāmed and confounded, and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the ploughmen wēre āshāmed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grāss.

6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grāss.

7 O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

8 O the Hope of Iſ'ra-él, the Sāv'ioūr³ thereof in time of tróuble, why shouldst thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth āside to tarry for a night?

³ Sāv'e'yūr.

9 Why shouldst thou be as a man astonished,¹ as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wānder, they have not refrained their feet; thēre'fōre the LORD dōth not accept them: he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When they fāst, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the swōrd, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 Then said I, Āh, LORD God! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the swōrd, nēither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I sent them not, nēither have I cōmmān'ded them, nēither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the decēit of their heart.

15 Thēre'fōre thus saith the LORD cōn-cēr'n'ng the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Swōrd and famine shall not be in this land; by swōrd and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cāst out in the streets of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, because of the famine and the swōrd; and they shall have nōne to bury them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters; for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17 Thēre'fōre thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the vir'gīn² daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very griēv'ōus blow.

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the swōrd! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that āre sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go ābout' into a land that they know not.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Jū'dāh? hath thy soul loathed Z'vōn? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trōuble!

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned āgainst' thee.

21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy cōvenant with us.

22 Āre there any āmong the vanities of the Gēn'tiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? Art not thou he, O LORD our God: thēre'fōre we will wait upon thee; for thou hast made all these things.

CHAP. XV.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Though Mō'sēs and Sām'u-ēl stood before me, yet my mind could not be tō'wārd this people; cāst them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pāss, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? ther thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD, Such as āre for death, to death; and such as āre for the swōrd, to the swōrd; and such as āre for the famine, to the famine; and such as āre for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD; the swōrd to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fōwls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destrōy.'

4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Ma-nās'seh the son of Hēz-ē-kī'āh king of Jū'dāh, for that which he did in Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jē-rū'sa-lēm? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go āside to āsk how thou doest?

6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward; thēre'fōre will I stretch out my hand āgainst' thee, and destrōy thee; I am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destrōy' my people, since they return not from their ways.

8 Their widows āre increased to me ābōve the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them, āgainst' the mōther of the young men, a spoiler at noon-day; I have caused hīm to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 She that hath borne seven languisheth; she hath given up the ghōst; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she hath been āshāmed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the swōrd before their enemies, saith the LORD.

10 Wō is me, my mōther, that thou hast borne me a man of strife, and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have nēither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them dōth curse me.

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant, verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil, and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel?

13 Thy substance and thy trēas'ures will

² vēr'jīn.

I give to the spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

14 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not; for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

15 O LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy long-suffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

17 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone, because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation:

18 Why is my pain perpetual,¹ and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail?

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brazen wall; and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee, and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAP. XVI.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons nor daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons, and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even loving-kindness and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iſ'ra-ël; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth,² and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt show this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity, or what is our sin, that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law:

12 And ye have done worse than your fathers; (for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me;)

13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night, where I will not show you favour.

14 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth that brought up the children of Iſ'ra-ël out of the land of E'gypt;

15 But, The LORD liveth that brought up the children of Iſ'ra-ël from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

16 Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

17 For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things.

19 O LORD, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanities, and things wherein there is no profit.

20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods?

21 Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know. I will cause them to know mine hand and my might : and they shall know that my name is the LORD.

² mē'rh.

CHAP. XVII.

THE sin of Jū'dāh is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond : it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars ;

2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills.

3 O my mōūn'tain in the field, I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

4 And thou, even thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee ; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not : for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

5 Thus saith the LORD, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD :

6 For he shall be like the heath in the dēš'ērt, and shall not see when good cometh ; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited.

7 Blēs'sed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is 8 For he shall be as a tree plānted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green ; and shall not be careful in the year of drōūght, neither shall cease from yield'ing fruit.

9 The heart is deceitful ābōve all things, and desperately wicked : who can know it ?

10 I the LORD sēarch the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not ; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, the Hope of Iſ'ra-ēl, all that forsake thee shall be āshāmed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the ēarth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fōūn'tain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed ; save me, and I shall be saved : for thou art my praise.

15 Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD ? let it come now.

16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pāstor to follow thee ; nēither have I desired the woful day, thou knowest : that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

17 Be not a terror unto me : thou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 Let them be confounded that pērsēcute me, but let not me be confounded ; let them be dīshāyēd, but let not me be dīshāyēd : bring upon them the day of evil, and destrōy' them with double destruction.

19 Thus said the LORD unto me, Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Jū'dāh come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jē-rū'sa-lēm ;

20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Jū'dāh, and all Jū'dāh, and all the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, that enter in by these gates :

21 Thus saith the LORD, Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath-day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jē-rū'sa-lēm ;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath-day, nēither do ye any work ; but hallow ye the sabbath-day, as I cōmmand'ed your fathers.

23 But they obeyed not, nēither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to pāss, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath-day, but hallow the sabbath-day, to do no work therein ;

25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of Dā'vīd, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Jū'dāh, and the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm ; and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Jū'dāh, and from the places ābout' Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and from the land of Bēn-ja-mīn, and from the plain, and from the mōūn'tains, and from the south, bringing burnt-offerings, and sār'ificēs, and meat-offerings, and incense, and bringing sār'ificēs of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

27 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath-day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jē-rū'sa-lēm on the sabbath-day ; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and it shall not be quenched.

CHAP. XVIII.

THE word which came to Jēr-ē-mī'āh from the LORD, saying,

2 Ārīše, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter ; so he made it āgain' ānōther vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Iſ'ra-ēl, cannot I do with you as this potter ? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

7 At what instant I shall speak cōncēr'ning a nation, and cōncēr'ning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to dēstrōy' it :

8 If that nation, āgainst' whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak cōncēr'ning a nation, and cōncēr'ning a kingdom, to build, and to plānt it :

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 Now, thēre'fore, go to, speak to the men of Jū'dāh, and to the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I frame evil āgainst' you, and devise a device āgainst' you : return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, There is no hope ; but we will wālk āfter our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Thēre'fore thus saith the LORD, Ask ye now āmong the heathen, who hath hēard such things ? the virgīn¹ of Iṣ'ra-ēl hath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lēb'anōn which cometh from the rock of the field ? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from ānōther place be forsaken ?

15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burnt incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the āncient pāths, to wālk in pāths in a way not cāst up ;

16 To make their land desolate, and a pērpēt'ual² hissing : every one that pāsseth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy : I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices āgainst' Jēr-ē-mī'āh ; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet : come and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall evil be recompensed for good ? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn āway thy wāth from them.

21 Thēre'fore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the swōrd ; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows ;

1 pēr'jū.

and let their men be put to death ; let their young men be slain by the swōrd in battle.

22 Let a cry be hēard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them ; for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel āgainst' me to slay me : forgive not their iniquity, nēither blot out their sin from thy sight ; but let them be overthrow'n before thee : deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

CHAP. XIX.

THUS saith the LORD, Go, and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the āncients of the people, and of the āncients of the priests,

2 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hīn'nōm, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee ;

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Jū'dāh, and inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm ; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.

4 Because they have forsaken me, and have estrānged this place, and have burnt incense in it unto other gods, whom nēither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Jū'dāh, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents ;

5 They have built also the high places of Bā'āl, to burn their sons with fire for burnt-offerings unto Bā'āl, which I cōmān'ded not, nor spake it, nēither came it into my mind :

6 Thēre'fore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tō'phēt, nor, The valley of the son of Hīn'nōm, but, The valley of slāughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Jū'dāh and Jē-rū'sa-lēm in this place ; and I will cause them to fall by the swōrd before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives ; and their carcasses will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city desolate, and a hissing : every one that pāsseth thereby shall be astonished and hiss, because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons, and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend, in the siēge and straitness wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

10 Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee,

11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Even so will I break this people, and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole āgain' ; and they shall bury them in Tō'phēt till there be no place else to bury.

2 pēr-pēt'tshū-āl.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tō'phēt :

13 And the houses of Jēr-rū'sa-lēm, and the houses of the kings of Jū'dāh, shall be defiled, as the place of Tō'phēt, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burnt incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink-offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jēr-ē-mī'āh from Tō'phēt, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy ; and he stood in the court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people,

15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Behold, I will bring upon this city, and upon all her towns, all the evil that I have pronounced āgainst' it ; because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

CHAP. XX.—

NOW Pāsh'ūr, the son of Im'mér the priest, who was also the chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jēr-ē-mī'āh prophesied these things.

2 Then Pāsh'ūr smote Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Bēn'ja-mīn, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pāsh'ūr brought forth Jēr-ē-mī'āh out of the stocks. Then said Jēr-ē-mī'āh unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pāsh'ūr, but Mā'gōr-Mis'sa-bib.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends ; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it : and I will give all Jū'dāh into the hand of the king of Bāb'y-lōn, and he shall carry them captive into Bāb'y-lōn, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover, I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Jū'dāh will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Bāb'y-lōn.

6 And thou, Pāsh'ūr, and all that dwell in thine house, shall go into captivity : and thou shalt come to Bāb'y-lōn, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies.

7 O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived ; thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed : I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil ; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name : but his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

10 For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars watched for my hāl'ting, saying, Péradvēnture he will be enticed, and we shall prevail āgainst' him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

11 But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one ; thērē'fore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail ; they shall be greatly āshāmed ; for they shall not prosper : their evērlāst'ing confusion shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them : for unto thee have I opened my cause.

13 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD ; for he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evil-doers.

14 Cursed be the day wherein I was born : let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blēss'ed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is born unto thee ; making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not ; and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noon-tide ;

17 Because he slew me not from the womb ; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me

18 Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame ?

CHAP. XXI.

THE word which came unto Jēr-ē-mī'āh from the LORD, when king Zēd-ē-kī'āh sent unto him Pāsh'ūr the son of Mēl-chī'āh, and Zēph-a-nī'āh the son of Mā-ā-sēi'āh¹ the priest, saying,

2 Inquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us ; for Nēb-ū-ḥād-rēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn maketh war āgainst' us ; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

3 Then said Jēr-ē-mī'āh unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zēd-ē-kī'āh,

4 Thus saith the Lord God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight āgainst' the king of Bāb'y-lōn, and āgainst' the Chāl-dē'āns, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight āgainst' you with an outstretched hand, and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrāth.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast : they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And áf'térwárd, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zéd-é-ki'áh king of Jū'dáh, and his sérvants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the swórd, and from the famine, into the hand of Néh-ú-çhäd-réz/zár king of Báb'y-lón, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the swórd; he shall not spare them, néither have pity, nor have méréy.

8 And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

9 He that ábideth in this city shall die by the swórd, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chál-dé'ánç that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For I have set my face ágainst' this city, for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD; it shall be given into the hand of the king of Báb'y-lón, and he shall burn it with fire.

11 And touçh'ing the house of the king of Jū'dáh, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

12 O house of Dá'vid, thus saith the LORD, Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, I am ágainst' thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, Who shall come down ágainst' us? or who shall enter into our habitation?

14 But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round ábout' it.

CHAP. XXII.

THUS saith the LORD, Go down to the house of the king of Jū'dáh, and speak there this word,

2 And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Jū'dáh, that sittest upon the throne of Dá'vid, thou, and thy sérvants, and thy people that enter in by these gates;

3 Thus saith the LORD, Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, néither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings, sitting upon the throne of Dá'vid, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his sérvants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Jū'dáh, Thou art Gil'e-ád unto me, and the head of Léb'a-nón: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destróy'ers ágainst' thee, every one with his wéapons; and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cást them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall páss by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall ánsWER, Because they have forsaken the cóvenant of the LORD their God, and wór'shipped other gods, and sérved them.

10 Weep ye not for the dead, néither bemoan him; but weep sore for him that goeth áway: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touçh'ing Shál'lúm the son of Jō-sí'áh king of Jū'dáh, which reigned instead of Jō-sí'áh his father, which went forth out of this place, He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 Wo unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's sérvíce without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house, and large chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with vérmil'ion!

15 Shalt thou reign because thou closest thyself in cedar? Did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

17 But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy cóvetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.

18 Thère'fore thus saith the LORD cón-cér'ning Jē-hó'i'a-kím the son of Jō-sí'áh king of Jū'dáh, They shall not lamént for him, saying, Ah my bróther! or, Ah sister! they shall not lamént for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

19 He shall be buried with the burial of an áss, drawn and cást forth beyónd the gates of Jē-rú'sa-lém.

20 Go up to Léb'a-nón, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Báb'shán, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destróy'ed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear: this hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice.

22 The wind shall eat up all thy pástors and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be áshámed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

23 O inhabitant of Lēb'a-nōn, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in trāv'āil!

24 As I live, saith the LORD, though Cō-nī'ah the son of Jē-hōi'a-kim king of Jū'dāh wēre the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

25 And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nēb-u-ḥād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn, and into the hand of the Ḥāl-dē'ānš.

26 And I will cāst thee out, and thy mōther that bare thee, into ānōther country, where ye wēre not born; and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 Is this man Cō-nī'ah a despīged broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleās'ure? wherefore āre they cāst out, he and his seed, and āre cāst into a land which they know not?

29 O ēarth, ēarth, ēarth, hear the word of the LORD:

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of Da'vīd, and ruling any more in Jū'dāh.

CHAP. XXIII.

WO be unto the pāstors that destrōy' and scatter the sheep of my pāsture! saith the LORD.

2 Thēre'fore thus saith the Lord God of Iṣ'ra-ēl āgainst' the pāstors that feed my people, Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them āway, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And I will gāther the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them āgain' to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up shēp'hērdš¹ over them, which shall feed them; and they shall fear-no more, nor be diṣ'māyed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto Da'vīd a righteous Brāneh, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the ēarth.

6 In his days Jū'dāh shall be saved, and Iṣ'ra-ēl shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGH'TEOUSNESS.²

7 Thēre'face, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Iṣ'ra-ēl out of the land of E'gypt;

8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up, and which led, the seed of the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake: I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth, the pleās'ant places of the wilderness āre dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For both prophet and priest āre profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Sa-mā'ri-ā; they prophesied in Ba'āl, and caused my people Iṣ'ra-ēl to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jē-rā'sa-lēm a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that nōne dōth return from his wickedness: they āre all of them unto me as Sōd'om, and the inhabitants thereof as Gō-mōr'rāh.

15 Thēre'fore thus saith the LORD of hosts cōncēr'ning the prophets, Behold, I will feed them with wōrnwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jē-rā'sa-lēm is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you; they make you vain: they speak a viṣ'ion of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despīse' me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh āfter the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

18 For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath percēived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirl'wīnd of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a griēv'ōus whirl'wīnd: it shall fall griēv'ōusly upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have pērfōrm'ed, the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it pērfectly.

21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

¹ shēp'pūrds.

² rī'tshe-ūs-nēs.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Bā'al.

28 The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my word, every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commended them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more; for every man's word shall be his burden: for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD, Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

40 And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

CHAP. XXIV.

THE LORD showed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Neb-ū-ḥād-rēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn had carried away captive Jēc-ō-ni'ah the son of Jē-hōi'a-kīm king of Jū'dāh, and the princes of Jū'dāh, with the carpenters and smiths, from Je-rū'sa-lēm, and had brought them to Bāb'y-lōn.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe; and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jēr-ē-mi'ah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Jū'dāh; whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Ḥāl-dē'āns for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

8 And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zēd-ē-kī'ah the king of Jū'dāh, and his princes, and the residue of Je-rū'sa-lēm, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Eḡypt;

9 And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

CHAP. XXV.

THE word that came to Jēr-ē-mi'ah cōn cēr'nīng all the people of Jū'dāh, in the fourth year of Jē-hōi'a-kīm the son of Jō-si'ah king of Jū'dāh, that was the first year of Neb-ū-ḥād-rēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn;

2 The which Jēr-ē-mi'ah the prophet spake unto all the people of Jū'dāh, and to all the inhabitants of Je-rū'sa-lēm, saying,

3 From the thirteenth year of Jō-si'ah

the son of Ā'mōn king of Jū'dāh, even unto this day, (that is the three and twentieth year,) the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, Turn ye again' now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Because ye have not heard my words,

9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nēb-ū-chād-rēz/zār the king of Bāb'y-lōn my servant, and will bring them against' this land, and against' the inhabitants thereof, and against' all these nations round about', and will utterly destroy' them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and pērpēt'ual desolations.

10 Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth,² and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Bāb'y-lōn seventy years.

12 And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Bāb'y-lōn, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chāl-dē'ānš, and will make it pērpēt'ual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against' it, even all that is written in this book, which Jēr-ē-mī'āh hath prophesied against' all the nations.

14 For many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 For thus saith the Lord God of Iṣ'ra-ēl unto me, Take the wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD'S hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, Jē-rā'sa-lēm, and the cities of Jū'dāh, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse; (as it is this day;)

19 Phā'raōh king of Ē'gypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Ūz, and all the kings of the land of the Phi-lis'tines, and Āsh'ke-lōn, and Āz'zāh, and Ēk'rōn, and the remnant of Āsh'dōd,

21 Ē'dōm, and Mō'āb, and the children of Ām'nōn,

22 And all the kings of Tŷ'rūs, and all the kings of Zī'dōn, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea,

23 Dē'dān, and Tē'mā, and Būz, and all that are in the utmost corners,

24 And all the kings of Ā-rā'bi-ā, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the dēs'ert,

25 And all the kings of Zīm'rī, and all the kings of Ē'lām, and all the kings of the Mēdes,

26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Shē'shāch shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

30 Therefore prophesy thou against' them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against' all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations; he will plead with all flesh: he will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.

32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind³ shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

33 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

34 Howl, ye shēp'hērdſ, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like a plēaſ'ant vessel.

35 And the shēp'hērdſ shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape'.

36 A voice of the cry of the shēp'hērdſ, and a howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pāsture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

38 He hath forsaken his cōvert, as the lion: for their land is desolate, because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAP. XXVI.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jē-hōi'a-kīm, the son of Jō-si'āh king of Jū'dāh, came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Jū'dāh, which come to wōr'ship in the LORD's house, all the words that I cōmmān'd' thee to speak unto them: diminish not a word:

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my sēr-vants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened:

6 Then will I make this house like Shī'lōh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, heard Jĕr-ē-mī'āh speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 Now it came to pāss, when Jĕr-ē-mī'āh had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had cōmmān'ded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shī'lōh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people wēre gathered togēther āgainst' Jĕr-ē-mī'āh in the house of the LORD.

10 When the princes of Jū'dāh heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes, and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied āgainst' this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 Then spake Jĕr-ē-mī'āh unto all the princes, and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy āgainst' this house, and āgainst' this city, all the words that ye have heard.

13 Thēre'fore now āmēnd' your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced āgainst' you.

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand; do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you:

15 But know ye for cēr'tain, that, if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you, to speak all these words in your ears.

16 Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets, This man is not worthy to die; for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose up cēr'tain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 Mī'ēah the Mō'rās-thite prophesied in the days of Hēz-ē-kī'āh king of Jū'dāh, and spake to all the people of Jū'dāh, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Zi'ōn shall be ploughed like a field, and Je-rū'salēm shall become heaps, and the mōūn'tain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 Did Hēz-ē-kī'āh king of Jū'dāh and all Jū'dāh put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced āgainst' them? Thus might we procure great evil āgainst' our souls.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Ū-rī'jāh the son of Shēm-ā-i'āh of Kir'jāth-Je'a-rīm,² who prophesied āgainst' this city, and āgainst' this land, according to all the words of Jĕr-ē-mī'āh:

21 And when Jē-hōi'a-kīm the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Ū-rī'jāh heard it, he was āfraid, and fled, and went into Ē'g'gypt;

22 And Jē-hōi'a-kīm the king sent men into Ē'g'gypt; namely, Ē'l'na-thān the son of Ach'bōr, and cēr'tain men with him into Ē'g'gypt:

23 And they fetched forth Ū-rī'jāh out of Ē'g'gypt; and brought him unto Jē-hōi'a-kīm the king, who slew him with the swōrd, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless, the hand of Ā-hī'kān

the son of Shá'phán was with Jër-é-mi'áh, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

CHAP. XXVII.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jê-hô'i'a-kim the son of Jô-si'áh king of Jû'dáh, came this word unto Jër-é-mi'áh from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me, Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Ê'dóm, and to the king of Mô'áb, and to the king of the Am'môn-ites, and to the king of Tý'rûs, and to the king of Zî'dôn, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jê-rû'sa-lêm unto Zêd-ê-ki'áh king of Jû'dáh;

4 And cômmand' them to say unto their mäs'ters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iŝ'ra-ël, Thus shall ye say unto your mäs'ters;

5 I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power, and by my out-stretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nêb-u-çhäd-nêz/zär the king of Báb'y-lôn, my sêrvant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to sêrve him.

7 And all nations shall sêrve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come; and then many nations and great kings shall sêrve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not sêrve the same Nêb-u-çhäd-nêz/zär the king of Báb'y-lôn, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Báb'y-lôn, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Thêrê'fôre hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your ençhânters, nor to your sörcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not sêrve the king of Báb'y-lôn:

10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Báb'y-lôn, and sêrve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to Zêd-ê-ki'áh king of Jû'dáh according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Báb'y-lôn, and sêrve him and his people, and live.

13 Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against' the nation that will not sêrve the king of Báb'y-lôn?

14 Thêrê'fôre hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not sêrve the king of Báb'y-lôn for they prophesy a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name, that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests, and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again' from Báb'y-lôn: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; sêrve the king of Báb'y-lôn, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Jû'dáh, and at Jê-rû'sa-lêm, go not to Báb'y-lôn.

19 For thus saith the LORD of hosts cöncêr'ning the pillars, and cöncêr'ning the sea, and cöncêr'ning the bases, and cöncêr'ning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nêb-u-çhäd-nêz/zär king of Báb'y-lôn took not, when he carried away captive Jêç-ô-ni'áh, the son of Jê-hô'i'a-kim king of Jû'dáh, from Jê-rû'sa-lêm to Báb'y-lôn, and all the nobles of Jû'dáh and Jê-rû'sa-lêm;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iŝ'ra-ël, cöncêr'ning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Jû'dáh and of Jê-rû'sa-lêm;

22 They shall be carried to Báb'y-lôn, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD: then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zêd-ê-ki'áh king of Jû'dáh, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hän-a-ni'áh the son of Ä'zür the prophet, which was of Gil'b'ôn, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests, and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Iŝ'ra-ël, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Báb'y-lôn.

3 Within two full years will I bring again' into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house that Nêb-u-çhäd-nêz/zär king of Báb'y-lôn took away from this place, and carried them to Báb'y-lôn:

4 And I will bring again' to this place Jêç-ô-ni'áh the son of Jê-hô'i'a-kim king of Jû'dáh, with all the captives of Jû'dáh, that went into Bāb'y-lōn, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Bāb'y-lōn.

5 Then the prophet Jēr-ē-mī'āh said unto the prophet Hān-a-nī'āh, in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jēr-ē-mī'āh said, Ā'mēn': the LORD do so; the LORD pēr-fōrm' thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring āgain' the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried āway captive, from Bāb'y-lōn into this place.

7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me, and before thee of old, prophesied both āgainst' many countries, and āgainst' great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pāss, then shall the prophet be known that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 Then Hān-a-nī'āh the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jēr-ē-mī'āh's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hān-a-nī'āh spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Even so will I break the yoke of Nēb-ū-ḩād-nēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn from the neck of all nations, within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jēr-ē-mī'āh went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet, (āfter that Hān-a-nī'āh the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jēr-ē-mī'āh,) saying, 13 Go and tell Hān-a-nī'āh, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may sērve Nēb-ū-ḩād-nēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn; and they shall sērve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 Then said the prophet Jēr-ē-mī'āh unto Hān-a-nī'āh the prophet, Hear now, Hān-a-nī'āh, The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Thēre'fōre thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will cāst thee from off the face of the ēarth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion āgainst' the LORD.

17 So Hān-a-nī'āh the prophet died the same year, in the seventh month.

CHAP. XXIX.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet sent from Jē-rū'sa-lēm unto the residie of the elders which wēre carried āway captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nēb-ū-ḩād-nēz'zār had carried āway captive from Jē-rū'sa-lēm to Bāb'y-lōn,

2 (Āfter that Jēḩ-ō-nī'āh the king, and the queen, and the eū'nūḩs, the princes of Jū'dāh and Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and the carpenters, and the smiths, wēre departed from Jē-rū'sa-lēm,)

3 By the hand of Ēl'a-sāh the son of Shā phān, and Gēm-a-rī āhl the son of Hil-kī āh, (whom Zēd-ē-kī'āh king of Jū'dāh sent unto Bāb'y-lōn to Nēb-ū-ḩād-nēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn,) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, unto all that are carried āway captives, whom I have caused to be carried āway from Jē-rū'sa-lēm unto Bāb'y-lōn,

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plānt gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters: and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to hūz'bānds, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminish-ed.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried āway captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, nēther hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name; I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 For thus saith the LORD, That āfter seventy years be accomplished at Bāb'y-lōn I will visit you, and pērform' my good word tō'wārd's you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think tō'wārd's you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

13 And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall sēarch for me with all your heart.

14 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD; and I will turn āway your captivity, and I will gāther you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you āgain' into the place whence I caused you to be carried āway captive.

15 Bēcause ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Bāb'y-lōn;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of Dā'vīd, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brēthren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them :

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them ; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 Hear ye, there'fore, the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jē-rū'sa-lēm to Bāb'y-lōn :

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, of Ā'hāb the son of Kōl-ā-rāh, and of Zēd-ē-kī'āh the son of Mā-ā-sēi'āh,¹ which prophesy a lie unto you in my name, Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nēb-ū-ḥād-rēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn, and he shall slay them before your eyes ;

22 And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Jū'dāh which are in Bāb'y-lōn, saying, The LORD make thee like Zēd-ē-kī'āh, and like Ā'hāb, whom the king of Bāb'y-lōn roasted in the fire ;

23 Because they have committed villany in Iṣ'ra-ēl, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not comman'ded them ; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

24 Thus shalt thou also speak to Shēm-ā-i'āh the Nē-hēl'a-mite, saying,

25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and to Zēph-a-nī'āh the son of Mā-ā-sēi'āh, the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jē-hōi a-dā the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldst put him in prison, and in the stocks :

27 Now, there'fore, why hast thou not reprov'd Jēr-ē-mī'āh of Ān'a-thōth, which maketh himself a prophet to you ?

28 For there'fore he sent unto us in Bāb'y-lōn, saying, This captivity is long : build ye houses, and dwell in them ; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And Zēph-a-nī'āh the priest read this letter in the ears of Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet.

30 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jēr-ē-mī'āh, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concern'ing Shēm-ā-i'āh the Nē-hēl'a-mite ; Because that

Shēm-ā-i'āh hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie ;

32 There'fore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will punish Shēm-ā-i'āh the Nē-hēl'a-mite, and his seed : he shall not have a man to dwell among this people ; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD ; because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD.

CHAP. XXX.

THE word that came to Jēr-ē-mī'āh from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Iṣ'ra-ēl and Jū'dāh, saith the LORD ; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 And these are the words that the LORD spake concern'ing Iṣ'ra-ēl, and concern'ing Jū'dāh.

5 For thus saith the LORD, We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth trava'il with child ? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in trava'il, and all faces are turned into paleness ?

7 Ā-lās ! for that day is great, so that none is like it : it is even the time of Jā'cōb's trouble ; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him :

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and Dā'vid their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 There'fore fear thou not, O my servant Jā'cōb, saith the LORD ; neither be dismayed, O Iṣ'ra-ēl : for, lo, I will save thee from ā'far, and thy seed from the land of their captivity ; and Jā'cōb shall return, and shall be in rest and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee : though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee ; but I will correct thee in mēas'ure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayst be bound up : thou hast no healing medicines.

14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee ; they seek thee not : for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chās'tisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zi'ōn, whom no man seeketh after.

18 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Ja'cōb's tents, and have mercy on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

22 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind; it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

CHAP. XXXI.

At the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God of all the families of Iſ'ra-ël, and they shall be my people.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Iſ'ra-ël, when I went to cause him to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

4 Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Iſ'ra-ël: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Sa-mā'ri-ā: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.

1 vēr'jūn.

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount E'phra-īm shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zi'ōn unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD, Sing with gladness for Ja'cōb, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Iſ'ra-ël.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Iſ'ra-ël, and E'phra-īm is my first-born.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattereth Iſ'ra-ël will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

11 For the LORD hath redeemed Ja'cōb, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zi'ōn, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock, and of the herd: and their souls shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 Thus saith the LORD, A voice was heard in Rā'māh, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rā'chēl weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 I have surely heard E'phra-īm bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? For since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still; therefore my bowels are troubled for him: I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

21 Set thee up way-marks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again; O virgin of Is'ra-ēl, turn again to these thy cities.

22 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the Lord hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Is'ra-ēl. As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Jū'dāh, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The Lord bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mōūntain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Jū'dāh itself, and in all the cities thereof together, hūš-bāndmēn, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will sow the house of Is'ra-ēl, and the house of Jū'dāh, with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destrōy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the Lord.

29 In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Is'ra-ēl, and with the house of Jū'dāh;

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Ēg'gypt; (which my covenant they brake, although I was a hūšbānd unto them, saith the Lord.)

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Is'ra-ēl; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 Thus saith the Lord, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The Lord of hosts is his name:

36 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the Lord, then the seed of Is'ra-ēl also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the Lord, If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Is'ra-ēl, for all that they have done, saith the Lord.

38 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the city shall be built to the Lord, from the tower of Ha-nām'e-ēl unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the measuring-line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gā'rēb, and shall compass about to Gō'āth.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields, unto the brook of Kid'rōn, unto the corner of the horse-gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the Lord; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down, any more for ever.

CHAP. XXXII.

THIS word that came to Jēr-ē-mī'āh from the Lord in the tenth year of Zēd-ē-kī'āh king of Jū'dāh, which was the eighth year of Neb-ū-ḡād-rēz'zār.

2 For then the king of Bāb'y-lōn's army besieged Je-rū'sa-lēm: and Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Jū'dāh's house.

3 For Zēd-ē-kī'āh king of Jū'dāh had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Bāb'y-lōn, and he shall take it.

4 And Zēd-ē-kī'āh king of Jū'dāh shall not escape out of the hand of the Chāl-dē'ānš, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Bāb'y-lōn: and shall speak with him mouth to month, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zēd-ē-kī'āh to Bāb'y-lōn, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the Lord: though ye fight with the Chāl-dē'ānš, ye shall not prosper.

6 And Jēr-ē-mī'āh said, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Ha-nām'e-ēl, the son of Shāl'lūm, thine uncle, shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Ān'a-thōth; for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Ha-nām'e-ēl, mine uncle's son, came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the Lord, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Ān'athóth, which is in the country of Bën'já-mín : for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine ; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Ha-nám'e-él, my uncle's son, that was in Án'a-thóth, and weighed him the móney, even seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the móney in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the pür'chäse, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open.

12 And I gave the evidence of the pür'chäse unto Bär'üch the son of Nē-rí'áh, the son of Má-ä-sēi'áh, in the sight of Ha-nám'e-él mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the pür'chäse, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 And I charged Bär'üch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Íš'ra-él, Take these evidences, this evidence of the pür'chäse, (both which is sealed,) and this evidence which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days :

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Íš'ra-él, Houses, and fields, and vineyards,¹ shall be possëss'ed ägain' in this land.

16 Now when I had delivered the evidence of the pür'chäse unto Bär'üch the son of Nē-rí'áh, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Äh, Lord GOD ! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee :

18 Thou showest loving-kindness unto thousands, and recompenses the iniquity of the fathers into the bö'sóm of their children äfter them : The Great, the Migh'ty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name.

19 Great in counsel, and mighty in work : (for thine eyes äre open upon all the ways of the sons of men ; to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings :)

20 Which hast set signs and wónders in the land of É'gýpt, even unto this day, and in Íš'ra-él, and ämongst other men ; and hast made thee a name, as at this day ;

21 And hast brought forth thy people Íš'ra-él out of the land of É'gýpt, with signs, and with wónders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terror ;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey ;

23 And they came in, and possëss'ed it ;

but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law : they have done nothing of all that thou cömmandedst them to do ; thäre'fore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.

24 Behold the mounts, they äre come unto the city to take it ; and the city is given into the hand of the Chäl-dé'änš that fight ägainst' it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence : and what thou hast spoken is come to pass ; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for móney, and take witnesses ; for the city is given into the hand of the Chäl-dé'änš.

26 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jér-é-mí'áh, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh : is there any thing too hard for me ?

28 Thäre'fore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chäl-dé'änš, and into the hand of Nēb-ü-chäd-réz/zär king of Báb'y-lön, and he shall take it.

29 And the Chäl-dé'änš, that fight ägainst' this city, shall come and set fire on this city and burn it, with the houses upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Bäl, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Íš'ra-él, and the children of Jü'däh have only done evil before me from their youth : for the children of Íš'ra-él have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury, from the day that they built it, even unto this day, that I should remove it from before my face ;

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Íš'ra-él, and of the children of Jü'däh, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Jü'däh, and the inhabitants of Jē-rü'sa-lēm.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face : though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Bäl, which äre in the valley of the son of Hín'nóm, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Móléché, which I cömmanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Jü'däh to sin.

36 And now thäre'fore thus saith the LORD, the God of Íš'ra-él, cöncér'níng thís city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Bāb'y-lōn by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence ;

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath ; and I will bring them again' unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely :

38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their Gōd :

39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them :

40 And I will make an évêrlās'ting cōvénant with them, that I will not turn āway from them to do them good ; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yēa, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plānt them in this land assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD, Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast ; it is given into the hand of the Chāl-dē'āns.

44 Men shall buy fields for mōney, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Bēn'jā-min, and in the places ābout' Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and in the cities of Jū'dāh, and in the cities of the mōūn tāins, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south : for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XXXIII.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto Jēr-ē-mi'āh the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to estāb'lish it ; the LORD is his name ;

3 Call unto me, and I will ānswer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, cōncērn'ing the houses of this city, and cōncērn'ing the houses of the kings of Jū'dāh, which āre thrown down by the mōunts, and by the sword ;

5 They come to fight with the Chāl-dē'āns, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger, and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Jū' dāh, and the captivity of Iṣ'ra-ēl, to return, and will build them as at the first.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned āgainst' me ; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed āgainst' me.*

9 And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an hōn'ōur before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them : and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity, that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD, Āgain' there shall be hēard in this place (which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Jū'dāh, and in the streets of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, that āre desolate without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast.)

11 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness ; the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride ; the voice of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts : for the LORD is good ; for his mērcy endureth for ever : and of them that shall bring the sār'ificē of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Āgain' in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be a habitation of shēp'hērdṣ causing their flocks to lie down.

13 In the cities of the mōūn'tāins, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Bēn'jā-min, and in the places ābout' Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and in the cities of Jū'dāh, shall the flocks pās āgain' under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will pērf'orm' that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl, and to the house of Jū'dāh.

15 In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto Dā'vīd ; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 In those days shall Jū'dāh be saved, and Jē-rū'sa-lēm shall dwell safely ; and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our righteousness.

17 For thus saith the LORD, Dā'vīd shall never wānt a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl ;

18 Nēither shall the priests the Lē'vites wānt a man before me, to offer burnt-offerings, and to kindle meat-offerings, and to do sār'ificē continually.

19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jēr-ē-mi'āh, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD, If ye can break my cōvénant of the day, and my cōvénant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season ;

21 Then may also my cōvénant be broken with Dâ'vid my sêrvant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Lê'vites the priêsts, my ministers.

22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea mēaş'ured; so will I multiply the seed of Dâ'vid my sêrvant, and the Lê'vites that minister unto me.

23 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to Jêr-ê-mi'âh, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cāst them off? Thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD, If my cōvenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 Then will I cāst āwāy the seed of Jā'çōb, and Dâ'vid my sêrvant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Ā'bra-hām, Ī'şāaç, and Jā'çōb: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mērcy on them.

CHAP. XXXIV.

THE word which came unto Jêr-ê-mi'âh from the LORD, (when Nêb-û-çhād-nêz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought āgainst' Jê-rû'sa-lēm, and āgainst' all the cities thereof,) saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Īş'ra-ël, Go, and speak to Zêd-ê-ki'âh king of Jû'dāh, and tell him; Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Bāb'y-lōn, and he shall burn it with fire.

3 And thou shalt not êscape' out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Bāb'y-lōn, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Bāb'y-lōn.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zêd-ê-ki'âh king of Jû'dāh; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the swōrd;

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which wêre before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lamēt thee, saying, Ah, lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jêr-ê-mi'âh the prophet spake all these words unto Zêd-ê-ki'âh king of Jû'dāh in Jê-rû'sa-lēm,

7 When the king of Bāb'y-lōn's army fought āgainst' Jê-rû'sa-lēm, and āgainst' all the cities of Jû'dāh that wêre left, āgainst' Lā'çhish, and āgainst' Ā-zê'kāh: for these defēned cities remained of the cities of Jû'dāh.

8 This is the word that came unto Jêrê-mi'âh from the LORD, āfter that the king Zêd-ê-ki'âh had made a cōvenant with all the people which wêre at Jê-rû'sa-lēm, to proclaim liberty unto them;

9 That every man should let his man-sêrvant, and every man his maid-sêrvant, being a Hê'brew or a Hê'brew-ess, go free; that nōne should sêrve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brōther.

10 Now, when all the princes, and all the people which had entered into the cōvenant, heard that every one should let his man-sêrvant, and every one his maid-sêrvant, go free, that nōne should sêrve themselves of them any more; then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But āfterwārd's they turned, and caused the sêrvants, and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for sêrvants and for handmaids.

12 Thêrê'fōre the word of the LORD came to Jêr-ê-mi'âh from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Īş'ra-ël, I made a cōvenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Ê'gyp't, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 At the end of seven years, let ye go every man his brōther a Hê'brew, which hath been sold unto thee; and, when he hath sêrved thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye wêre now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour: and ye had made a cōvenant before me in the house which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned, and polluted my name, and caused every man his sêrvant, and every man his handmaid, whom ye had set at liberty at their plēaş'ure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for sêrvants and for handmaids.

17 Thêrê'fōre thus saith the LORD, Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty every one to his brōther, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the swōrd, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my cōvenant, which have not pêrfōrm'ed the words of the cōvenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and pāssed between the parts thereof,

19 The princes of Jû'dāh, and the princes of Jê-rû'sa-lēm, the eū'nūchs, and the priêsts, and all the people of the land, which pāssed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zed-e-ki'ah king of Jū'dāh, and his princes, will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Bāb y-lōn's army, which are gone up from you.

22 Behold, I will cōmmand', saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against' it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Jū'dāh a desolation without an inhabitant.

CHAP. XXXV.

THE word which came unto Jēr-ē-mī'ah from the LORD, in the days of Jē-hōi'-a-kīm the son of Jō-si'ah king of Jū'dāh, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the Rē'chāb-ites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jā-āz-ā-nī'ah the son of Jēr-ē-mī'ah, the son of Hāb-ā-zi-mī'ah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rē'chāb-ites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hā'nān, the son of Īg-da-lī'ah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Mā-ā-sēi'-ah,² the son of Shāl'lūm, the keeper of the door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rē'chāb-ites pots full of wine, and cups; and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jōn'a-dāb the son of Rē'chāb, our father, cōmmand'ed us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plānt vine-yard,³ nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jōn'a-dāb the son of Rē'chāb, our father, in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vine-yard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jōn'a-dāb our father cōmmand'ed us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nēb-ū-čhād-rēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jēr-rū'sa-lēm for fear of the army of the Chāl-de'āns, and for fear of the army of the Sūr i-āns: so we dwell at Jēr-rū'sa-lēm.

12 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jēr-ē-mī'ah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Īs'ra-ēl, Go and tell the men of Jū'dāh, and the inhabitants of Jēr-rū'sa-lēm.

Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Jōn'a-dāb, the son of Rē'chāb, that he cōmmand'ed his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's cōmmand'ment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my sēr-vants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amēnd' your doings, and go not after other gods to sērve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jōn'a-dāb the son of Rē'chāb have perform'ed the cōmmand'ment of their father, which he cōmmand'ed them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therē'fore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, the God of Īs'ra-ēl, Behold, I will bring upon Jū'dāh, and upon all the inhabitants of Jēr-rū'sa-lēm, all the evil that I have pronounced against' them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 And Jēr-ē-mī'ah said unto the house of the Rē'chāb-ites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Īs'ra-ēl, Because ye have obeyed the cōmmand'ment of Jōn'a-dāb your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath cōmmand'ed you;

19 Therē'fore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Īs'ra-ēl, Jōn'a-dāb the son of Rē'chāb shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

CHAP. XXXVI.

AND it came to pass, in the fourth year of Jē-hōi'a-kīm the son of Jō-si'ah king of Jū'dāh, that this word came unto Jēr-ē-mī'ah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against' Īs'ra-ēl, and against' Jū'dāh, and against' all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Jō-si'ah, even unto this day.

3 It may be that the house of Jū'dāh will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jēr-ē-mī'ah called Bā'rūch the son of Ne-rī'ah: and Bā'rūch wrote from the mouth of Jēr-ē-mī'ah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jēr-ē-mī'ah cōmmand'ed Bā'rūch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therē'fore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD, in the ears of the people, in the LORD's house upon the fast'-ing-day; and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Jū'dāh that come out of their cities.

7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Bā'rūch the son of Nē-rī'āh did according to all that Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet cōmmanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass, in the fifth year of Jē-hōi'a-kīm the son of Jō-si'āh king of Jū'dāh, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and to all the people that came from the cities of Jū'dāh unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

10 Then read Bā'rūch in the book the words of Jēr-ē-mī'āh in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gēm-ā-rī'āh¹ the son of Shā'phān the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 When Mi-čhāi'āh² the son of Gēm-ā-rī'āh, the son of Shā'phān, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD,

12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber, and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Ē-līsh'a-mā the scribe, and Dēl-ā-rī'āh the son of Shēm-ā-rī'āh, and Ēl'ua-thān the son of Ačh'bōr, and Gēm-ā-rī'āh the son of Shā'phān, and Zēd-ē-kī-āh the son of Hān-ā-nī'āh, and all the princes.

13 Then Mi-čhāi'āh declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Bā'rūch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 There'fore all the princes sent Jē-hū'dī the son of Nēth-a-nī'āh, the son of Shēl-ē-mī'āh, the son of Čū'shī, unto Bā'rūch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Bā'rūch the son of Nē-rī'āh took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Bā'rūch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Bā'rūch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Bā'rūch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Bā'rūch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Bā'rūch, Go hide thee, thou and Jēr-ē-mī'āh, and let no man know where ye be.

20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Ē-līsh'a-mā the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Je-hū'dī to fetch the roll; and he took it out of Ē-līsh'a-mā the scribe's chamber: and Jē-hū'dī read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winter-house, in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jē-hū'dī had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the pen-knife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless, Ēl'ua-thān, and Dēl-ā-rī'āh, and Gēm-ā-rī'āh, had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll; but he would not hear them.

26 But the king cōmmanded Jēr-ē-mī'āh the son of Hām'ne-lēch, and Sē-rā-i'āh the son of Āz'ri-ēl, and Shēl-ē-mī'āh the son of Āb'de-ēl, to take Bā'rūch the scribe, and Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jēr-ē-mī'āh, (after that the king had burnt the roll, and the words which Bā'rūch wrote at the mouth of Jēr-ē-mī'āh,) saying,

28 Take thee again' another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jē-hōi'a-kīm the king of Jū'dāh hath burnt.

29 And thou shalt say to Jē-hōi'a-kīm king of Jū'dāh, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast burnt this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Bāb'y-lōn shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 There'fore thus saith the LORD of Jē-hōi'a-kīm king of Jū'dāh, He shall have none to sit upon the throne of Dā'vid; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will punish him, and his seed, and his servants, for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and upon the men of Jū'dāh, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: but they hearkened not.

32 Then took Jēr-ē-mī'āh another roll, and gave it to Bā'rūch the scribe, the son of Nē-rī'āh; who wrote therein, from the mouth of Jēr-ē-mī'āh, all the words of the book which Jē-hōi'a-kīm king of Jū'dāh had burnt in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

CHAP. XXXVII.

AND king Zēd-ē-kī'āh, the son of Jō-si'āh, reigned instead of Čō-nī'āh the son of Jē-hōi'a-kīm, whom Nēb-ū-čhād-réz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn made king in the land of Jū'dāh.

2 But nēither he, nor his sērvants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jēr-ē-mī'ah.

3 And Zēd-ē-kī'ah the king sent Jē'hucāl the son of Shēl-ē-mī'ah, and Zēph-a-nī'ah the son of Mā-ā-seī'ah the priest, to the prophet Jēr-ē-mī'ah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jēr-ē-mī'ah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then Phā'raoh's army was come forth out of Eġypt: and when the Chāl-dē'ānš that besieged Jē-rū'sa-lēm heard tidings of them, they departed from Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

6 Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jēr-ē-mī'ah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Thus shall ye say to the king of Jū'dāh, that sent you unto me to inquire of me; Behold, Phā'raoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Eġypt into their own land.

8 And the Chāl-dē'ānš shall come again', and fight against' this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD, Decēve not yourselves, saying, The Chāl-dē'ānš shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chāl-dē'ānš that fight against' you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 And it came to pās, that when the army of the Chāl-dē'ānš was broken up from Jē-rū'sa-lēm for fear of Phā'raoh's army,

12 Then Jēr-ē-mī'ah went forth out of Jē-rū'sa-lēm to go into the land of Bēn'ja-mīn, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Bēn'ja-mīn, a cāp'tain of the ward was there, whose name was Ī-rī'jah, the son of Shēl-ē-mī'ah, the son of Hān-a-nī'ah; and he took Jēr-ē-mī'ah the prophet, saying, Thou fall-est āwāy to the Chāl-dē'ānš.

14 Then said Jēr-ē-mī'ah, It is false; I fall not āwāy to the Chāl-dē'ānš. But he hearkened not to him: so Ī-rī'jah took Jēr-ē-mī'ah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes wēre wroth with Jēr-ē-mī'ah, and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jōn'a-thān the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

16 When Jēr-ē-mī'ah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jēr-ē-mī'ah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zēd-ē-kī'ah the king sent, and took him out; and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jēr-ē-mī'ah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be deliver- ed into the hand of the king of Bāb'y-lōn.

18 Moreover, Jēr-ē-mī'ah said unto king Zēd-ē-kī'ah, What have I offended against' thee, or against' thy sērvants, or against' this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Bāb'y-lōn shall not come against' you, nor against' this land?

20 Thēre'fore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jōn'a-thān the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zēd-ē-kī'ah the king cōmmānded that they should commit Jēr-ē-mī'ah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city wēre spent. Thus Jēr-ē-mī'ah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

THIEN Shēph-a-tī'ah the son of Māt'tān, and Gēd-a-h'ah the son of Pāsh'ūr, and Jū'cāl the son of Shēl-ē-mī'ah, and Pāsh'ūr the son of Māl-ḥī'ah, heard the words that Jēr-ē-mī'ah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chāl-dē'ānš shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Bāb'y-lōn's army, which shall take it.

4 Thēre'fore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death; for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seek-eth not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zēd-ē-kī'ah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against' you.

6 Then took they Jēr-ē-mī'ah, and cāst him into the dungeon of Māl-ḥī'ah the son of Hām'me-lēḥ, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jēr-ē-mī'ah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jēr-ē-mī'ah sunk in the mire.

7 Now when Ē-bēd'me-lēḥ the Ē-thiō'pi-ān, one of the eū'nūchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jēr-ē-mī'ah in the dungeon, (the king then sitting in the gate of Bēn'ja-mīn.)

8 Ē-bēd'me-lēḥ went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jēr-ē-mī'ah the prophet, whom they have cāst into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is; for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king cōmmān'ded Ē-bēd'/me-lēch the Ē-thi-ō'pī-ān, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ē-bēd'/me-lēch took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the trēas'ury, and took thence old cāst clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jēr-ē-mī'āh.

12 And Ē-bēd'/me-lēch the Ē-thi-ō'pī-ān said unto Jēr-ē-mī'āh, Put now these old cāst clouts and rotten rags under thine arm-holes, under the cords. And Jēr-ē-mī'āh did so.

13 So they drew up Jēr-ē-mī'āh with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jēr-ē-mī'āh remained in the court of the prison.

14 Then Zēd-ē-kī'āh the king sent, and took Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jēr-ē-mī'āh, I will ask thee a thing; hide nōthing from me.

15 Then Jēr-ē-mī'āh said unto Zēd-ē-kī'āh, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zēd-ē-kī'āh the king sware secretly unto Jēr-ē-mī'āh, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jēr-ē-mī'āh unto Zēd-ē-kī'āh, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Bāb'y-lōn's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Bāb'y-lōn's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chāl-dē'ānṣ, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not ēscape' out of their hand.

19 And Zēd-ē-kī'āh the king said unto Jēr-ē-mī'āh, I am āfrāid of the Jews that āre fallen to the Chāl-dē'ānṣ, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jēr-ē-mī'āh said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath showed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that āre left in the king of Jā'dāh's house shall be brought forth to the king of Bāb'y-lōn's princes: and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed āgainst' thee: thy feet āre sunk in the mire, and they āre turned āway back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chāl-dē'ānṣ; and thou shalt not ēscape' out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Bāb'y-lōn: and thou shalt cause this city to be burnt with fire.

24 Then said Zēd-ē-kī'āh unto Jēr-ē-mī'āh, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee;

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jōn'athān's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jēr-ē-mī'āh, and āsked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had cōmmān'ded. So they left off speaking with him: for the matter was not pērcēived.

28 So Jēr-ē-mī'āh ābode in the court of the prison until the day that Jē-rū'sa-lēm was taken: and he was there when Jē-rū'sa-lēm was taken.

CHAP. XXXIX.

IN the ninth year of Zēd-ē-kī'āh king of Jū'dāh, in the tenth month, came Nēb-ū-ḥād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn and all his army āgainst' Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and they besiēged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zēd-ē-kī'āh, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3 And all the princes of the king of Bāb'y-lōn came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nēr'gāl-Sha-rē'zēr, Sām'gār-Nē'bō, Sār-sē'ḥīm, Rāb'sa-rīs, Nēr'gāl-Sha-rē'zēr, Rāb'māg, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Bāb'y-lōn.

4 And it came to pass, that when Zēd-ē-kī'āh the king of Jū'dāh saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's gārden, by the gate betwixt the two walls; and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chāl-dē'ānṣ' army pursued āfter them, and overtook Zēd-ē-kī'āh in the plains of Jēr'ū-ḥō: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn to Rīb'lāh, in the land of Hā'māth, where he gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Bāb'y-lōn slew the sons of Zēd-ē-kī'āh in Rīb'lāh before his eyes: also the king of Bāb'y-lōn slew all the nobles of Jū'dāh.

7 Moreover, he put out Zēd-ē-kī'āh's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Bāb'y-lōn.

8 And the Chāl-dē'ānṣ burnt the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

9 Then Nēb-ū-zār'a-dān, the cāp'tāin of the gārd, carried āway captive into Bāb'y-lōn the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell āway, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nēb-ū-zār'a-dān, the cāp'tain of the guard,¹ left of the poor of the people, which had nōthing, in the land of Jū'dāh, and gave them vine yards² and fields at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nēb-ū-ḥād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn gave charge cōncērn'ing Jēr-ē-mī'āh to Nēb-ū-zār'a-dān the cāp'tain of the guard, saying.

12 Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

13 So Nēb-ū-zār'a-dān, the cāp'tain of the guard, sent, and Nēb-ū-shās'hān, Rāb/sa-ris, and Ner'gāl-Sha-rē/zēr, Rāb/māg, and all the king of Bāb'y-lōn's princes, 14 Even they sent, and took Jēr-ē-mī'āh out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gēd-a-lī'āh the son of Ā-hī-kām the son of Shā'phān, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

15 ¶ Now the word of the LORD came unto Jēr-ē-mī'āh, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 Go and speak to Ē-bēd'me-lēch the Ē-thi-ōp'i-ān, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good: and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD; and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee; because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XL.

THE word which came to Jēr-ē-mī'āh from the LORD, after that Nēb-ū-zār'a-dān the cāp'tain of the guard had let him go from Rā'māh, when he had taken him, being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jē-rū'sa-lēm and Jū'dāh, which were carried away captive unto Bāb'y-lōn.

2 And the cāp'tain of the guard took Jēr-ē-mī'āh, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I lōse thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Bāb'y-lōn, come, and I will look well unto thee; but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Bāb'y-lōn, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee:

¹ gyàrd.

whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now, while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gēd-a-lī'āh the son of Ā-hī-kām, the son of Shā'phān, whom the king of Bāb'y-lōn hath made gōvērnor over the cities of Jū'dāh, and dwell with him among the people; or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the cāp'tain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jēr-ē-mī'āh unto Gēd-a-lī'āh the son of Ā-hī-kām, to Miz'pāh, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ¶ Now when all the cāp'tains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Bāb'y-lōn had made Gēd-a-lī'āh the son of Ā-hī-kām gōvērnor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Bāb'y-lōn;

8 Then they came to Gēd-a-lī'āh to Miz'pāh, even Iṣ'h'ma-ēl the son of Nēth-a-nī'āh, and Jō-hā'nān and Jōn'a-thān the sons of Ka-rē'āh, and Sē-rā-rī'āh the son of Tān/hu-mēth, and the sons of Ē'phāi the Nē-tōph'a-thite, and Jēz-a-nī'āh the son of a Mā-āch'a-thite, they and their men.

9 And Gēd-a-lī'āh the son of Ā-hī-kām, the son of Shā'phān, swore unto them, and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chāl-dē'ān's: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Bāb'y-lōn, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Miz'pāh, to serve the Chāl-dē'ān's which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer-fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise, when all the Jews that were in Mō'āb, and among the Ām'mōn-ites, and in Ē'dōm, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Bāb'y-lōn had left a remnant of Jū'dāh, and that he had set over them Gēd-a-lī'āh the son of Ā-hī-kām, the son of Shā'phān:

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Jū'dāh, to Gēd-a-lī'āh, unto Miz'pāh, and gathered wine and summer-fruits very much.

13 Moreover, Jō-hā'nān the son of Ka-rē'āh, and all the cāp'tains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gēd-a-lī'āh to Miz'pāh,

14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Bā'al-is the king of the Ām'mōn-ites hath sent Iṣ'h'ma-ēl the son of Nēth-a-nī'āh to slay thee? But Gēd-a-lī'āh the son of Ā-hī-kām believed them not.

15 Then Jō-hā'nān the son of Ka-rē'āh spake to Gēd-a-lī'āh in Miz'pāh secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Iṣ'h'ma-ēl the son of Nēth-a-nī'āh, and no man shall know it : wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Jû'dáh perish ?

16 But Géd-a-lí'áh the son of Ā-hí'kām said unto Jô-há'nán the son of Ka-ré'áfí, Thou shalt not do this thing ; for thou speakest falsely of Ish'ma-él.

CHAP. XLI.

NOW it came to päss in the seventh month, that Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh, the son of E-lísh-a-má, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men, with him, came unto Géd-a-lí'áh the son of Ā-hí'kām, to Miz'páh ; and there they did eat bread together in Miz'páh.

2 Then ārōš Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh, and the ten men that wêre with him, and smote Géd-a-lí'áh the son of Ā-hí'kām, the son of Shá'phán, with the swôrd, and slew him, whom the king of Báb'y-lôn had made gôvêrnor over the land.

3 Ish'ma-él also slew all the Jews that wêre with him, even with Géd-a-lí'áh at Miz'páh, and the Châl-dê'ânš that wêre found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to päss, the second day after he had slain Géd-a-lí'áh, and no man knew it,

5 That there came cêr'tain from Shê'çhêm, from Shi'lôh, and from Sa-má'ri-á, even fourscore men, having their bêards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD.

6 And Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh went forth from Miz'páh to meet them, weeping all álōng' as he went : and it came to päss, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Géd-a-lí'áh the son of Ā-hí'kām.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh slew them, and cást them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that wêre with him.

8 But ten men wêre found among them that said unto Ish'ma-él, Slay us not ; for we have trêasúres in the field, of wheat, and of bårley, and of oil, and of hóney. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brêthren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ish'ma-él had cást all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Géd-a-lí'áh, was it which A'sû the king had made for fear of Bâ'a-shá king of Íš'ra-él ; and Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh filled it with them that wêre slain.

10 Then Ish'ma-él carried away captive all the residue of the people that wêre in Miz'páh, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Miz'páh, whom Nêb-û-zár'a-dán the cåp'tain of the guard had committed to Géd-a-lí'áh the son of Ā-hí'kām : and Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ām'môn-ites.

11 But when Jô-há'nán the son of Ka-ré'áh, and all the cåp'tains of the forces that wêre with him, heard of all the evil that Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh had done,

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh, and found him by the great waters that are in Gib'e-ôn.

13 Now it came to päss, that when all the people which wêre with Ish'ma-él saw Jô-há'nán the son of Ka-ré'áh, and all the cåp'tains of the forces that wêre with him, then they wêre glad.

14 So all the people that Ish'ma-él had carried away captive from Miz'páh cást about', and returned, and went unto Jô-há'nán the son of Ka-ré'áh.

15 But Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh escaped from Jô-há'nán with eight men, and went to the Ām'môn-ites.

16 Then took Jô-há'nán the son of Ka-ré'áh, and all the cåp'tains of the forces that wêre with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh, from Miz'páh, (after that he had slain Géd-a-lí'áh the son of Ā-hí'kām,) even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eû'núchs, whom he had brought again' from Gib'e-ôn :

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chím'hám, which is by Bêth'le-hêm, to go to enter into É'gypt,

18 Because of the Châl-dê'ânš : for they wêre afraid of them, because Ish'ma-él the son of Nêth-a-ní'áh had slain Géd-a-lí'áh the son of Ā-hí'kām, whom the king of Báb'y-lôn made gôvêrnor in the land.

CHAP. XLII.

THEN all the cåp'tains of the forces, and Jô-há'nán the son of Ka-ré'áh, and Jéz-a-ní'áh the son of Hôsh-á-i'áh, and all the people, from the least even to the greatest, came near,

2 And said unto Jêr-ê-mí'áh the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant ; (for we are left but a few of many as thine eyes do behold us ;)

3 That the LORD thy God may show us the way wherein we may wålk, and the thing that we may do.

4 Then Jêr-ê-mí'áh the prophet said unto them, I have heard you ; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words ; and it shall come to päss, that whåt soever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you ; I will keep nóthing back from you.

5 Then they said to Jêr-ê-mí'áh, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the wåch the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee ; that it may Hypoc'risis reproved.

JEREMI'AH The conquest of Ē'g'gypt prophesied be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

7 ¶ And it came to päss, äfter ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jër-ë-mi'äh.

8 Then called he Jö-hä'nän the son of Ka-rë'äh, and all the cäp'tains of the forces which wëre with him, and all the people, from the leäst even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Iṣ'ra-ël, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still äbide in this land, then will I build you, and not püll you down; and I will plänt you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 Be not äfräid of the king of Bäb'y-lön, of whom ye äre äfräid; be not äfräid of äim, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And I will show mër'cies unto you, that he may have mërey upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

13 But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, nëither obey the voice of the LORD your God,

14 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Ē'g'gypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

15 And now, thëre'fore, hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Jü'däh; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ël, If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Ē'g'gypt, and go to sō'joürn there;

16 Then it shall come to päss, that the swörd, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Ē'g'gypt, and the famine, whereof ye wëre äfräid, shall follow close äfter you there in Ē'g'gypt; and there ye shall die.

17 So shall it bë with all the men that set their faces to go into Ē'g'gypt, to sō'joürn there; they shall die by the swörd, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and nöne of them shall remäin or escäpe' from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ël, As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jë-rü'sa-lëm; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Ē'g'gypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

19 The LORD hath said cöncë'r'n'ing you, O ye remnant of Jü'däh, Go ye not into Ē'g'gypt: know cër'täinly that I have admonished you this day.

20 For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.

21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

22 Now, thëre'fore, know cër'täinly that ye shall die by the swörd, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go, and to sō'joürn.

CHAP. XLIII.

AND it came to päss, that when Jër-ë-mi'äh had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spakë Äz-a-ri'äh the son of Hösh-a-r'äh, and Jö-hä'nän the son of Ka-rë'äh, and all the proud men, saying unto Jër-ë-mi'äh, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Ē'g'gypt to sō'joürn there:

3 Büt Bärüch the son of Në-ri'äh setteth thee on ägainst' us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Çhä'l-dë'äns, that they might put us to death, and carry us äwäy captives into Bäb'y-lön.

4 So Jö-hä'nän the son of Ka-rë'äh, and all the cäp'tains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Jü'däh;

5 But Jö-hä'nän the son of Ka-rë'äh, and all the cäp'tains of the forces, took all the remnant of Jü'däh, that wëre returned from all nations whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Jü'däh;

6 Eren men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every përsön that Nëb-ü-zär'a-dän the cäp'tain of the gärd had left with Gëd-a-l'i'äh the son of Ä-hi'käm, the son of Shä'phän, and Jër-ë-mi'äh the prophet, and Bärüch the son of Në-ri'äh.

7 So they came into the land of Ē'g'gypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD. Thus came they even to Täh'pän-hëš.

8 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jër-ë-mi'äh in Täh'pän-hëš, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which is at the entry of Phä'raöth's house in Täh'pän-hëš, in the sight of the men of Jü'däh;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ël, Behold, I will send and take Nëb-ü-chäd-rëz/zär the king of Bäb'y-lön my sër'vant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 Änd when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Ē'g'gypt, and deliver such as äre for death, to death; and such as äre for captivity, to captivity; and such as äre for the swörd, to the swörd.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Ē'g'gypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them äwäy captives; and he shall array himself with the land of Ē'g'gypt, as a shëp'hërd putteth on his gä'r'mënt; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the images of Bēth/she-mēsh, that is in the land of E'gypt; and the houses of the gods of the E'gypt ti-ānš shall he burn with fire.

CHAP. XLIV.

THE word that came to Jēr-ē-mī'āh cōn-cēr'ning all the Jews which dwell in the land of E'gypt, which dwell at Mīg'dōl, and at Tāh/pān-hēs, and at Nōph, and in the country of Pāth'rōs, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Je-rū'sa-lēm, and upon all the cities of Jū'dāh; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein;

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed, to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, nēither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit I sent unto you all my sēr-vants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Jū'dāh and in the streets of Jē-rū'sa-lēm; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Thēre'fore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Where'fore commit ye this great evil āgainst' your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Jū'dāh, to leave you nōne to remain;

8 In that ye provoke me unto wraṭh with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of E'gypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach āmōng all the nations of the ēarth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Jū'dāh, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Jū'dāh, and in the streets of Jē-rū'sa-lēm?

10 They are not hūmbled even unto this day, nēither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you, and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Thēre'fore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Behold, I will set my face āgainst' you for evil, and to cut off all Jū'dāh.

12 And I will take the remnant of Jū'dāh, that have set their faces to go into the land of E'gypt to sō'journ there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of E'gypt; they shall even be consumed by the swōrd and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the swōrd and by the famine; and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of E'gypt, as I have punished Jē-rū'sa-lēm, by the swōrd, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that nōne of the remnant of Jū'dāh, which are gone into the land of E'gypt to sō'journ there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Jū'dāh, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there; for nōne shall return but such as shall escape'.

15 ¶ Then all the men which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwell in the land of E'gypt, in Pāth'rōs, answered Jēr-ē-mī'āh, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will cēr'tainly do whātsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Jū'dāh, and in the streets of Jē-rū'sa-lēm: for then had we plenty of victuals, and wēre well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the swōrd and by the famine.

19 And when we burnt incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to wōrship her, and pour out drink-offerings unto her without our men?

20 ¶ Then Jēr-ē-mī'āh said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that ānswer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Jū'dāh, and in the streets of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the Lord could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; thēre'fore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned āgainst' the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his tēs'timōnies; thēre'fore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover, Jēr-ē-mī'āh said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Jū'dāh that are in the land of E'gypt;

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iſ'ra-ēl, saying, Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely pērform' our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely pērform' your vows.

26 Therē'forc hear ye the word of the LORD, all Jū'dāh that dwell in the land of Ē'ġypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the month of any man of Jū'dāh, in all the land of Ē'ġypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 Behold, I will wātch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Jū'dāh that are in the land of Ē'ġypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet a small number that escape' the sword shall return out of the land of Ē'ġypt into the land of Jū'dāh; and all the remnant of Jū'dāh, that are gone into the land of Ē'ġypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

29 And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against' you for evil:

30 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give Phā'raōh-Hōph'rā king of Ē'ġypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life, as I gave Zēd-ekī'āh king of Jū'dāh into the hand of Nēb-ū-ḫād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn his enemy, and that sought his life.

CHAP. XLV.

THE word that Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet spake unto Bā'rūch the son of Nē-rī'āh, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jēr-ē-mī'āh, in the fourth year of Jē-hōi'a-kīm the son of Jō-sī'āh king of Jū'dāh, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Iſ'ra-ēl, unto thee, O Bā'rūch;

3 Thou didst say, Wo is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have sūilt will I break down, and that which I have plānted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD; but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAP. XLVI.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet against' the Gēn'tiles;

2 Against' Ē'ġypt, against' the army of Phā'raōh-Nē'ḫō king of Ē'ġypt, which was of the river Eū-phrā'tēs in Cār'che-mish, which Nēb-ū-ḫād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'ylōn smote in the fourth year of Jē-hōi'a-kīm the son of Jō-sī'āh king of Jū'dāh.

3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; refurbish the spears, and put on the brig'andines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dīsmāyed and turned āwāy back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled āpāce, and look not back: for fear was round about', saith the LORD.

6 Let not the swift flee āwāy, nor the mighty man escape'; they shall stumble, and fall tō'wārd the north by the river Eū-phrā'tēs.

7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Ē'ġypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cōver the earth; I will destrōy' the city, and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ē-thi-ō'pi-āns and the Līb'y-āns, that handle the shield; and the Lūd'i-āns, that handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may āvēnge' him of his ād'vērſaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood; for the Lord God of hosts hath a sār'rifīce in the north country by the river Eū-phrā'tēs.

11 Go up into Gil'e-ād and take bālm, O vir'gīn, the daughter of Ē'ġypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against' the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word that the LORD spake to Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet, how Nēb-ū-ḫād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn should come and smite the land of Ē'ġypt.

14 Declare ye in Ē'ġypt, and publish in Mīg'dōl, and publish in Nōph, and in Tāh-pān-heš: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about' thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept āwāy? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

16 He made many to fall, yēa, one fell upon ānōther; and they said, Arīse, and let us go āgain' to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Phā'raōh king of Ē'ġypt is but a noise; he hath pāsſed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts, Surely as Tā'bōr is āmōng the mōūntains, and as Cār'mēl by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in E'gypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 E'gypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of E'gypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Is'ra-ël, saith, Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pha'raoh, and E'gypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pha'raoh, and all them that trust in him:

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Neb-ũ-çhad-rêz'zâr king of Bâb'y-lon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

27 But fear not thou, O my servant Jâ'cob, and be not dismayed, O Is'ra-ël: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jâ'çob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

28 Fear thou not, O Jâ'çob my servant, saith the LORD; for I am with thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee; but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in meas'ure: yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

CHAP. XLVII.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jer-ê-mi'ah the prophet against the Phi-lis'tines, before that Pha'raoh smote Gâ'zâ.

2 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for febleness of hands;

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Phi-lis'tines, and to cut off from Ty'rûs and Zi'dôn every helper that remaineth; for the LORD will spoil the Phi-lis'tines, the remnant of the country of Caph'tor.

5 Baldness is come upon Gâ'zâ; Ash'ke-lôn is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself?

6 O thou sword of the LORD, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? Put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7 How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ash'ke-lôn, and against the sea-shore? there hath he appointed it.

CHAP. XLVIII.

AGAINST Mo'ab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Is'ra-ël, Wo unto Nê'bô! for it is spoiled; Kir'i-ath-A'im¹ is confounded and taken; Mi's'gâb is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be no more praise of Mo'ab: in Hêsh'bôn they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation: also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be from Hôr-o-nâ'im, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Mo'ab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the going up of Lû'hith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Hôr-o-nâ'im the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness.

7 For because thou hast trusted in thy works, and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken; and Chê'môsh shall go forth into captivity, with his priests and his princes together.

8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 Give wings unto Mo'ab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 Mo'ab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Mo'ab shall be ashamed of Chê'môsh, as the house of Is'ra-ël was ashamed of Bêth'el their confidence.

14 How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Mō'āb is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is The Lord of hosts.

16 The calamity of Mō'āb is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

18 Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dī'bōn, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Mō'āb shall come upon thee, and he shall destrōy thy strong holds.

19 O inhabitant of Ār'o-er, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

20 Mō'āb is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Ār'nōn, that Mō'āb is spoiled,

21 And judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Hō'lōn, and upon Ja-hā'zāh, and upon Mēph'a-āth,

22 And upon Dī'bōn, and upon Nē'bō, and upon Bēth-dīb-la-thā'im,

23 And upon Kir'i-āth-Ā'im, and upon Bēth-gā'mūl, and upon Bēth-mē'ōn,

24 And upon Kē'ri-ōth, and upon Bōz-rāh, and upon all the cities of the land of Mō'āb, far or near.

25 The horn of Mō'āb is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the Lord.

26 Make ye him drunken; for he magnified himself against the Lord: Mō'āb also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For was not Iš'ra-ēl a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippest for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Mō'āb, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the pride of Mō'āb, (he is exceeding proud,) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the Lord: but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore will I howl for Mō'āb, and I will cry out for all Mō'āb; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir'he-rēs.¹

32 O vine of Sīb'māh, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jā'zēr; thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jā'zēr: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer-fruits, and upon thy vīn'tage.²

33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Mō'āb; and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 From the cry of Hēsh'bōn even unto Ē-le-ā'leh, and even unto Jā'hāz, have they uttered their voice, from Zō'ār even unto Hōr-o-nā'im, as a heifer of three years old for the waters also of Nīm'rīm shall be desolate.

35 Moreover, I will cause to cease in Mō'āb, saith the Lord, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Mō'āb like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir'he-rēs: because the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard eclip: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Mō'āb, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Mō'āb like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the Lord.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Mō'āb turned the back with shame! so shall Mō'āb be a derision and a dīsmā'ing to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Mō'āb.

41 Kē'ri-ōth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Mō'āb at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Mō'āb shall be destrōy'ed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the Lord.

43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Mō'āb, saith the Lord.

44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Mō'āb, the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Hēsh'bōn, because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Hēsh'bōn, and a flame from the midst of Sī'hōn, and shall devour the corner of Mō'āb, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

46 Wo be unto thee, O Mō'āb! the people of Chē'mōsh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 Yet will I bring again the captivity of Mō'āb in the latter days, saith the Lord. Thus far is the judgment of Mō'āb.

CHAP. XLIX.

CONCERNING the Am'mōn-ites, thus saith the Lord, Hath Iš'ra-ēl no sons? hath he no heir?³ why then doth their king inherit Gād, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rāb'bāh of the Am'mōn-ites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Iṣ'ra-ēl be heir unto them that wēre his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Hēsh'bōn; for Ā'ī is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rāb'bāh, gird ye with sackcloth; lamēt, and run to and fro by the hedges: for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the vallies, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter, that trusted in her trēas'ures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be ābout' thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wāndereth.

6 And āf'tērward I will bring āgain' the captivity of the children of Ām'mōn, saith the LORD.

7 ¶ Cōncēr'ning Ē'dōm, thus saith the LORD of hosts, Is wisdom no more in Tē'mān? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

8 Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dē'dān; for I will bring the calamity of Ē'sāu upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If grape-gatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleanings-grapes? if thieves by night, they will destrōy' till they have enough.

10 But I have made Ē'sāu bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brēthren, and his neighbours, and he is not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will prēsērve' them ālive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall āltogēther go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For I have sworn by mysēlf, saith the LORD, that Bōz'rāh shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be pērpēt'ual wastes.

14 I have heard a rounour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye togēther, and come āgainst' her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small āmōng the heathen, and dēspīsēd āmōng men.

16 Thy terribleness hath dēcēivēd thee, and the pride of thine hēart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldst make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Ē'dōm shall be a desolation; every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 As in the overthrow of Sōd'om and Gō-mōr'rāh, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall ābide there, nēither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jōr'dān āgainst' the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run āwāy from her; and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shēp'hērd that will stand before me?

20 Thērēfore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken āgainst' Ē'dōm; and his purposes, that he hath purposed āgainst' the inhabitants of Tē'mān: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The ēarth is moved at the noise of their fall; at the cry, the noise thereof was heard in the Red Sea.

22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bōz'rāh: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Ē'dōm be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 ¶ Cōncēr'ning Da-mās'cūs. Hā'māth is confounded, and Ār'pād; for they have heard evil tidings; they are faint-hearted: there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Da-mās'cūs is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath sēized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in trāv'āil.

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 Thērēfore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Da-mās'cūs, and it shall consume the palaces of Bēn'ha-dād.

28 ¶ Cōncēr'ning Kē'dār, and cōncēr'ning the kingdoms of Hā'zōr, which Nēb-ū-ḥād-rēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Ārīše ye, go up to Kē'dār, and spoil the men of the east.

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take āwāy: they shall take to themselves their cūr'tāins, and all their vessels, and their camels: and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.

30 ¶ Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hā'zōr, saith the LORD; for Nēb-ū-ḥād-rēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn hath taken counsel āgainst' you, and hath conceived a purpose āgainst' you.

31 Ārīše, get you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have nēither gates nor bars, which dwell ālōne.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil; and I will scatter into all winds .hem that āre in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

33 And Ha'zōr shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

34 The word of the LORD that came to Jēr-e-mi'ah the prophet against' Ē'lām, in the beginning of the reign of Zēd-ē-ki'āh king of Ju dah, saying, 35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will break the bow of Ē'lām, the chief of their might.

36 And upon Ē'lām will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them to'wards all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the oūt'casts of Ē'lām shall not come.

37 For I will cause Ē'lām to be dīsmāyed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life; and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

38 And I will set my throne in Ē'lām, and will destrōy' from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.

39 But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again' the captivity of Ē'lām, saith the LORD.

CHAP. L.

THE word that the LORD spake against' Bāb'y-lōn, and against' the land of the Chāl-de'ānṣ, by Jēr-e-mi'ah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Bāb'y-lōn is taken, Bel is confounded, Mē-ro'dāch is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against' her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Iṣ'ra-ēl shall come, they and the children of Jū'dāh together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zi'ōn, with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a pēr-pēt'nal cōvenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been lost sheep; their shep'hērdṣ have caused them to go āstrāy, they have turned them āwāy on the mōūn'tains: they have gone from mōūn'tain to hill, they have forgotten their resting-place.

7 All that found them have devoured them; and their ād'versāries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against' the LORD, the habitation of justice; even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.

8 Remove out of the midst of Bāb'y-lōn, and go forth out of the land of the Chāl-de'ānṣ, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

9 For, lo, I will raise, and cause to come up against' Bāb'y-lōn, an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against' her from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man, none shall return in vain.

10 And Chāl-de'ā shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 Because ye wēre glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destrōy'ers of mine heritage; because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grāss, and bellow as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be āshamed; behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a dēs'ert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Bāb'y-lōn shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 Put yourselves in array against' Bāb'y-lōn round about': all ye that bend the bow shoot at her, spare no arrows; for she hath sinned against' the LORD.

15 Shout against' her round about'; she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Bāb'y-lōn, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 Iṣ'ra-ēl is a scattered sheep, the lions have driven him āwāy: first the king of Ās-sūr i-ā hath devoured him, and last this Neb-ū-chād-rēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn hath broken his bones.

18 There'fore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Behold, I will punish the king of Bāb'y-lōn and his land, as I have punished the king of Ās-sūr i-ā.

19 And I will bring' Iṣ'ra-ēl again' to his habitation, and he shall feed on Chār'mēl and Bā'shān, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ē'phra-im and Gil'e-ād.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Iṣ'ra-ēl shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Jū'dāh, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I rēs'erve'.

21 Go up against' the land of Mē-r-a-thā'im, even against' it, and against' the inhabitants of Pe'kōd: waste and utterly destrōy' after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have cōmmān'ded thee.

22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Bāb'y-lōn become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Bāb'y-lōn, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against' the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chāl-dē'ānš.

26 Come against' her from the utmost border, open her store-houses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy' her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: wo unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape' out of the land of Bāb'y-lōn, to declare in Zi'ōn the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against' Bāb'y-lōn: all ye that bend the bow, camp against' it round about': let none thereof escape': recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done do unto her: for she hath been proud against' the LORD, against' the Holy One of Iš'ra-ël.

30 There'fore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against' thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about' him.

33 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The children of Iš'ra-ël and the children of Jū-dāh were oppressed together; and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 Their Re-deem'er is strong; The LORD of hosts is his name; he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Bāb'y-lōn.

35 A sword is upon the Chāl-dē'ānš, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Bāb'y-lōn, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

36 A sword is upon the liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 There'fore the wild beasts of the desert, with the wild beasts of the islands, shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew Sōd'om and Gō-mōr'rāh, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance; they are cruel, and will not show mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against' thee, O daughter of Bāb'y-lōn.

43 The king of Bāb'y-lōn hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble; anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jōr'dān unto the habitation of the strong; but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 There'fore hear ye the counsel of the LORD that he hath taken against' Bāb'y-lōn, and his purposes that he hath purposed against' the land of the Chāl-dē'ānš; Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 At the noise of the taking of Bāb'y-lōn the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

CHAP. LI.

THUS saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up against' Bāb'y-lōn, and against' them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against' me, a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Bāb'y-lōn fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against' her round about'.

3 Against' him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against' him that lifteth himself up in his brig'andine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy' ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chāl-dē'ānš, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Iš'ra-ël hath not been forsaken, nor Jū-dāh of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against' the Holy One of Iš'ra-ël.

6 Flee out of the midst of Bāb'y-lōn, and deliver every man his soul; be not cut off in her iniquity: for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompense.

7 Bāb'y-lōn hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; there'fore the nations are mad.

8 Bāb'y-lōn is suddenly fallen and dē-strōy'ed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 Ye would have healed Bāb'y-lōn, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The Lord hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zi'ōn the work of the Lord our God.

11 Make bright the arrows, gather the shields: the Lord hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Mēdes: for his device is against' Bāb'y-lōn, to destrōy' it; because it is the vengeance of the Lord, the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Bāb'y-lōn, make the wāch strong; set up the wāchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the Lord hath both devised and done that which he spake against' the inhabitants of Bāb'y-lōn.

13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in trēasures, thine end is come, and the mēasure of thy covetousness.

14 The Lord of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men as with caterpillars; and they shall lift up a shout against' thee.

15 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath estāblished the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his trēasures.

17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 The pōrion of Jā'cōb is not like them; for he is the former of all things; and Y'sra-ēl is the rod of his inheritance; The Lord of hosts is his name.

20 Thou art my battle-axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations; and with thee will I destrōy' kingdoms;

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shēp'hērd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the hūš'bāndmān and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces cāp'tāins and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Bāb'y-lōn, and to all the inhabitants of Chāl-dē'ā, all their evil that they have done in Zi'ōn in your sight, saith the Lord.

25 Behold, I am against' thee, O destrōy'ing mōūntāin, saith the Lord, which destrōy'est all the earth; and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mōūntāin.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the Lord.

27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against' her, call together against' her the kingdoms of Ār'a-rāt, Mīn'mī, and Āsh'che-nāz; appoint a cāp'tāin against' her; cause her horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.

28 Prepare against' her the nations, with the kings of the Mēdes, the cāp'tāins thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the laud of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the Lord shall be perform'ed against' Bāb'y-lōn, to make the land of Bāb'y-lōn a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Bāb'y-lōn have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burnt her dwelling-places; her bars are broken.

31 One post shall run to meet another and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Bāb'y-lōn that his city is taken at one end, 32 And that the passages are stopped and the reeds they have burned with fire and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Y'sra-ēl, The daughter of Bāb'y-lōn is like a threshing-floor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nēb-ū-chād-rēz-zār the king of Bāb'y-lōn hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicacies, he hath cast me out.

35 The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Bāb'y-lōn, shall the inhabitant of Zi'ōn say; and, My blood upon the inhabitants of Chāl-dē'ā, shall Jē-rū'sa-lēm say.

36 There'fore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry, 37 And Bāb'y-lōn shall become heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, and a hissing without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions : they shall yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a pērpēt'ual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

41 How is Shē'shāch taken ! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised ! how is Bāb'y-lōn become an astonishment among the nations !

42 The sea is come up upon Bāb'y-lōn : she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish Bēl in Bāb'y-lōn ; and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up : and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him ; yea, the wall of Bāb'y-lōn shall fall.

45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land : a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Bāb'y-lōn : and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Bāb'y-lōn : for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 As Bāb'y-lōn hath caused the slain of Īs'ra-ēl to fall, so at Bāb'y-lōn shall fall the slain of all the earth.

50 Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still : remember the LORD afar off, and let Jē-rū'sa-lēm come into your mind.

51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach : shame hath covered our faces ; for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images ; and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 Though Bāb'y-lōn should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

54 A sound of a cry cometh from Bāb'y-lōn, and great destruction from the land of the Chāl-dē'ānš :

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Bāb'y-lōn, and destrōy'ed out of her the great voice ; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered.

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Bāb'y-lōn, and her mighty men are taken ; every one of their bows is broken : for the Lord God of recompenses shall surely requite.

57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her capt'ains, and her rulers, and her mighty men : and they shall sleep a pērpēt'ual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is The Lord of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The broad walls of Bāb'y-lōn shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burnt with fire ; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 ¶ The word which Jēr-ē-mī'āh the prophet cōmūn'ed Sē-rā-ī'āh the son of Nē-rī'āh, the son of Mā-ā-sēi'āh, when he went with Zēd-ē-kī'āh the king of Jū'dāh into Bāb'y-lōn, in the fourth year of his reign. And this Sē-rā-ī'āh was a quiet prince.

60 So Jēr-ē-mī'āh wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Bāb'y-lōn, even all these words that are written against Bāb'y-lōn.

61 And Jēr-ē-mī'āh said to Sē-rā-ī'āh, When thou comest to Bāb'y-lōn, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words, 62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Eū-phrā'tēs :

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Bāb'y-lōn sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her, and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jēr-ē-mī'āh.

CHAP. LII.

ZEDEKI'AH was one and twenty years old when he began to reign ; and he reigned eleven years in Jē-rū'sa-lēm : and his mother's name was Ha-mū'tāl, the daughter of Jēr-ē-mī'āh of Līb'nāh.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jē-hōi'a-kīm had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jē-rū'sa-lēm and Jū'dāh, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zēd-ē-kī'āh rebelled against the king of Bāb'y-lōn.

4 And it came to pass, in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nēb-ū-ḡhād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn came, he and all his army, against Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and pitched against it, and built forts against it, round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zēd-ē-kī'āh.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Châl-dé'ânş were by the city round about;) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 But the army of the Châl-dé'ânş pursued after the king, and overtook Zéd-é-kí'áh in the plains of Jéri-çhó; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Báb'y-lón to Rib'láh, in the land of Há'máth; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Báb'y-lón slew the sons of Zéd-é-kí'áh before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Júdáh in Rib'láh.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zéd-é-kí'áh; and the king of Báb'y-lón bound him in chains, and carried him to Báb'y-lón, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, (which was the nineteenth year of Néb-ú-çhád-réz'zár king of Báb'y-lón,) came Néb-ú-zár'a-dán cap'tain of the guard,¹ which served the king of Báb'y-lón, into Jé-rú'sa-lém,

13 And burned the house of the Lord and the king's house; and all the houses of Jé-rú'sa-lém, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire.

14 And all the army of the Châl-dé'ânş, that were with the cap'tain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jé-rú'sa-lém round about.

15 Then Néb-ú-zár'a-dán the cap'tain of the guard carried away captive cer'tain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Báb'y-lón, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Néb-ú-zár'a-dán the cap'tain of the guard left cer'tain of the poor of the land, for vine-dressers and for húş'bádmén.

17 Also the pillars of bráss that were in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the Lord, the Châl-dé'ânş brake, and carried all the bráss of them to Báb'y-lón.

18 The cãldróns also, and the shóvèls, and the snuffèrs, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bráss, where-with they ministered, took they áway.

19 And the basins, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the cãldróns, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the cap'tain of the guard áway.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brázen búlls that were under the bases, which king Sól'o-món had made in the house of the Lord: the bráss of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And cóncèr'ning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a fillet of twelve cubits did cóm'pass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter of bráss was upon it; and the height of one chapter was five cubits, with net-work and pómegrã'átes upon the chapters round about, all of bráss: the second pillar also and the pómegrã'átes were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pómegrã'átes on a side; and all the pómegrã'átes upon the net-work were a hundred round about.

24 And the cap'tain of the guard took Sè-rá-i'áh the chief priest, and Zéph-a-ní'áh the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunúçh which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that were near the king's pèrson, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and three were men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Néb-ú-zár'a-dán the cap'tain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Báb'y-lón to Rib'láh.

27 And the king of Báb'y-lón smote them, and put them to death in Rib'láh, in the land of Há'máth. Thus Júdáh was carried áway captive out of his own land.

28 This is the people whom Néb-ú-çhád-réz'zár carried áway captive: In the seventh year, three thousand Jews and three and twenty:

29 In the eighteenth year of Néb-ú-çhád-réz'zár he carried áway captive from Jé-rú'sa-lém eight hundred thirty and two pèrsons:

30 In the three and twentieth year of Néb-ú-çhád-réz'zár, Néb-ú-zár'a-dán the cap'tain of the guard carried áway captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five pèrsons: all the pèrsons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 ¶ And it came to pass, in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jé-hó'i-a-çhín king of Júdáh, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that É'víl-Mèr-ó'daçh king of Báb'y-lón, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jé-hó'i-a-çhín king of Júdáh, and brought him forth out of prison,

32 And spake kindly unto him, and set his throne ábové the throne of the kings that were with him in Báb'y-lón,

33 And changed his prison-gárments; and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life.

34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Báb'y-lón, every day a pórçion, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

¶ The LAMENTATIONS of JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

HOW dóth the city sit solitary that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

3 Jū'dāh is gone into captivity, and because of affliction, and because of great servitude; she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 The ways of Zī'ōn do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate; her priests sigh, her virgins¹ are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her ād'versaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zī'ōn all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture;² and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jē-rū'sa-lēm remembered in the days of her affliction, and of her miseries, all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the ād'versaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jē-rū'sa-lēm hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honour'd her despise³ her, because they have seen her nakedness; yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts;³ she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The ād'versary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command⁴ that they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against⁵ them: he hath spread a net for my feet; he hath turned me back; he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand; they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck; he hath made my strength to fall; the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me; he hath called an assembly against⁶ me to crush my young men: the LORD hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Jū'dāh, as in a wine-press.

16 For these things I weep: mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me; my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zī'ōn spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath comman'ded concerning Jā'cōb, that his ād'versaries should be round about⁷ him: Jē-rū'sa-lēm is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against⁸ his commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow; my virgins⁸ and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me; my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD, for I am in distress; my bowels are troubled: mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me.

22 Let all their wickedness come before thee; and do unto them as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

CHAP. II.

HOW hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zī'ōn with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Īs'ra-ēl, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jā'cōb, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Jū'dāh; he hath brought them down to the ground:

he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Iş'ra-êl: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against' Ja'çob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about'.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleásant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zi'ôn: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD was as an enemy; he hath swallowed up Iş'ra-êl, he hath swallowed up all her palaces; he hath destrôyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Jû'dâh mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he hath destrôyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zi'ôn, and hath despised, in the indignation of his anger, the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destrôy' the wall of the daughter of Zi'ôn; he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destrôying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destrôyed and broken her bars; her king and her princes are among the Gen'tiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zi'ôn sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jê-rû'sa-lêm hang down their heads to the ground.

11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosoms.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jê-rû'sa-lêm? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zi'ôn? for thy breach is great like the sea; who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discóvered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jê-rû'sa-lêm, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against' thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commúnded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee; he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the LORD, O wall of the daughter of Zi'ôn, let tears run down like a river day and night; give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the night; in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary² of the LORD?

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called, as in a solemn day, my terrors round about'; so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

CHAP. III.

I AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against³ me is he turned; he turneth his hand against' me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against' me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 He hath hedged me about', that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath enclosed my ways with hewn stone; he hath made my paths crooked.

1 gèr'ded.

2 sãngk'tshû-ã-re.

3 ã-gènst'.

10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel-stones, he hath covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot prosperity.

18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone, and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.

30 He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will not cast off for ever:

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High,

36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD approveth not.

37 Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the Most High proceedeth not evil and good?

39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again¹ to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed, and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against² us.

47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.

48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission,

50 Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven.

51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart, because of all the daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.

54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.

55 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon.

56 Thou hast heard my voice; hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.

57 Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not.

58 O LORD, thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life.

59 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong; judge thou my cause.

60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance, and all their imaginations against me.

61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me;

62 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

63 Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their musick.

64 Render unto them a recompense, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

65 Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.

66 Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the LORD.

CHAP. IV.

HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the sea-monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ôs trîches¹ in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst; the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets; they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Söd'om, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Náz/a-rites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sâp/plîre:

8 Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children, they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zi'ôn, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jê-rû-sa-lém.

13 For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the môûn'tains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 ¶ Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of E'dôm, that dwelleth in the land of Uz: the cup also shall pass through unto thee; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zi'ôn; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of E'dôm; he will discover thy sins.

CHAP. V.

REMEMBER, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach.

2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money; our wood is sold unto us.

5 Our necks are under persécution: we labour, and have no rest.

6 We have given the hand to the E'gypti-ti-ans, and to the As-sÿr'i-ans, to be satisfied with bread.

7 Our fathers have sinned, and are not: and we have borne their iniquities.

8 Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

9 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives, because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our skin was black like an oven, because of the terrible famine.

11 They ravished the women in Zi'ôn, and the maids in the cities of Jû'dâh.

12 Princes are hanged up by their hand the faces of elders were not honoured.

13 They took the young men to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their musick.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

16 The crown is fallen from our head: wo unto us that we have sinned!

17 For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim,

18 Because of the môûn'tain of Zi'ôn which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

19 Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever; thy throne from generation to generation.

20 Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us so long time?

21 Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.

22 But thou hast utterly rejected us; thou art very wrath against us.

1 The BOOK of the Proph'et EZE'KIEL.

CHAPTER I.

NOW it came to päss in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chë'bär, that the heavens wëre opened, and I saw vißions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, (which was the fifth year of king Jë-hôv'a-chîn's captivity,)

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto E-zë'ki-ël the priest, the son of Bû'zî, in the land of the Chäl-dë'ânš, by the river Chë'bär; and the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 And I looked, and, behold, a whirl-wind¹ came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about' it, and out of the midst thereof, as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire:

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet wëre straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.

8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings, on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings wëre joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight för'wärd.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus wëre their faces: and their wings wëre stretched üp'wärd; two wings of every one wëre joined one to another, and two cövered their bodies.

12 And they went every one straight för'wärd: whither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now, as I beheld the living creatures, behold, one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a bër'ÿl; and they four had one likeness and their appearance and their work was as it wëre a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides; and they returned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they wëre so high, that they wëre dreadful; and their rings wëre full of eyes round about' them four.

19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them; and when the living creatures wëre lifted up from the earth, the wheels wëre lifted up.

20 Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels wëre lifted up over against' them: for the spirit of the living creature² was in the wheels.

21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those wëre lifted up from the earth, the wheels wëre lifted up over against' them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likeness of the firmament³ upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament wëre their wings straight, the one tö'wärd the other: every one had two, which cövered on this side, and every one had two, which cövered on that side, their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Älmigh'ty, the voice of speech, as the noise of a host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a säp'phire-stöne:⁴ and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about' within it; from the appearance of his loins even üp'wärd, and from the appearance of his loins even döwn'wärd, I saw as it wëre the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about'.

28 As the appearance of the böw that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about'. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

CHAP. II.

AND he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Iṣ'ra-ēl, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are impudent children, and stiff-hearted: I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee.

9 And when I looked, behold, a hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein;

10 And he spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAP. III.

MOREOVER, he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest: eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4 And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech, and of a hard language, but to the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl:

6 Not to many people of a strange speech, and of a hard language, whose words thou canst not understand: surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl are impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy fore'head strong against their fore'heads.

9 As an adamant, harder than flint, have I made thy fore'head: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blē'ssed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tēl'a-bib, that dwelt by the river of Čhē'bār, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass, at the end of seven days, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity: but thou hast delivered thy soul.

20 Again, when a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless, if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned: also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 ¶ And the hand of the Lord was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with thee

23 Then I ārōše, and went forth into the plain ; and, behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chê'bâr : and I fell on my face.

24 Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them :

26 And I will make thy tōngue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprovèr ; for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, He that heareth, let him hear ; and he that forbear-eth, let him forbear : for they are a rebellious house.

CHAP. IV.—

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and portray upon it the city, even Jê-rû'sa-lēm :

2 And lay siēge against' it, and build a fort against' it, and cāst a mount against' it ; set the camp also against' it, and set battering-rams against' it round about'.

3 Moreover, take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city ; and set thy face against' it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siēge against' it. This shall be a sign to the house of Īš'ra-ēl.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Īš'ra-ēl upon it : according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days : so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Īš'ra-ēl.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again' on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Jū'dāh forty days : I have appointed thee each day for a year.

7 Thêrê'fōre thou shalt set thy face tō'ward the siēge of Jê-rû'sa-lēm, and thine arm shall bē uncōvèred, and thou shalt prophesy against' it.

8 And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siēge.

9 Takē thou also unto thee wheat, and bārley, and beans, and lēn'tiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side ; three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a-day : from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by mēas'ure, the sixth part of a hin : from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as bārley-cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Īš'ra-ēl eat their defiled bread among the Ğên'tiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD ! behold, my soul hath not been polluted ; for from my youth up, even till now, have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in piēces ; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the stāff of bread in Jê-rû'sa-lēm ; and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care ; and they shall drink water by mēas'ure, and with astonishment :

17 That they may wānt bread and water, and be astonied¹ one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

CHAP. V.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head, and upon thy beard ; then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siēge are fulfilled ; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about' it with a knife ; and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind ; and I will draw out a sōrd after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts.²

4 Then take of them again', and cāst them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire ; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Īš'ra-ēl.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD, This is Jê-rû'sa-lēm : I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about' her.

6 And she hath chānged my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about' her ; for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Thêrê'fōre thus saith the Lord GOD, Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about' you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about' you ;

8 Thêrê'fōre thus saith the Lord GOD,

² skërts.

Behold I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee, in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like; because of all thine abominations.

10 There'fore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, there'fore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds; and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover, I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee, in anger and in fury, and in furious rebukes. I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy' you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread.

17 So will I send upon you famine, and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the Lord have spoken it.

CHAP. VI.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face toward the mountain'tains of İş'ra-ël, and prophesy against them,

3 And say, Ye mountain'tains of İş'ra-ël, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountain'tains and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Behold I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy' your high places;

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will lay the dead carcasses of the children of İş'ra-ël before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

8 Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations, whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the Lord, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 Thus saith the Lord God, Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Ā-lās! for all the evil abominations of the house of İş'ra-ël! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the Lord, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountain'tains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

14 So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward Dib'lāth, in all their habitations; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAP. VII.

MOREOVER, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of İş'ra-ël, An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee ; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God, An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come. it watcheth for thee ; behold, it is come.

7 The morning is come upon thee, O thou that dwellest in the land : the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again' of the mōūn'tains.

8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee ; and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity : I will recompense thee according to thy ways, and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee : and ye shall know that I am the Lord that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come ; the morning is gone forth ; the rod hath blossomed ; pride hath budded.

11 Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness : none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs ; neither shall there be wailing for them.

12 The time is come, the day draweth near : let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn ; for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive : for the vision is touch'ing the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return ; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready ; but none goeth to the battle : for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within : he that is in the field shall die with the sword ; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

16 But they that escape' of them shall escape', and shall be on the mōūn'tains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.

18 They shall also gird¹ themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them ; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed : their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the Lord : they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels ; because it is the stumbling-block of their iniquity.

20 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in mā'jesty ;² but they made the images of their abominations, and of their detestable things therein : thērc'fōre have I set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil ; and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place : for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 Make a chain ; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess' their houses : I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease, and their holy places shall be defiled.

25 Destruction cometh ; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 Mis'chief shall come upon mis'chief, and rumour shall be upon rumour ; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet : but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled : I will do unto them after their way, and according to their dēs'ērts will I judge them ; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAP. VIII.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Jū'dāh sat before me, that the hand of the Lord God fell there upon me.

2 Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of fire : from the appearance of his loins, even dōw'n'wārd, fire ; and from his loins, even ūp'wārd, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of mine head, and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, to the door of the inner gate that looketh tō'wārd the north, where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Īs'ra-ēl was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way tō'wārd the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way tō'wārd the north, and behold, north'wārd at the gate of the altar, this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do ? even the great abominations that the house of Īs'ra-ēl committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary ? But turn thee yet again', and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold, a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and, behold, every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Īṣ'ra-ēl, portrayed upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Īṣ'ra-ēl, and in the midst of them stood Jā-āz-a-nī'āh the son of Shā'phān, with every man his censor in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Īṣ'ra-ēl do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The Lord seeth us not; the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the Lord's house which was towards the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tām'mūz.

15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the Lord's house; and, behold, at the door of the temple of the Lord, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs towards the temple of the Lord, and their faces towards the east; and they worshipped the sun towards the east.

17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O Son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Jū'dāh that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

CHAP. IX.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth towards the north, and every man a slaughter-weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's ink-horn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brazen altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Īṣ'ra-ēl was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's ink-horn by his side;

4 And the Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh, and that cry, for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite; let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women; but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain; go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord God: wilt thou destroy all the residue of Īṣ'ra-ēl in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jē-rū'sa-lēm?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Īṣ'ra-ēl and Jū'dāh is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness; for they say, The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and the Lord seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; but I will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the ink-horn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

CHAP. X.

WHEN I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire-stone,¹ as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 Then the glory of the Lord went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the Lord's glory.

5 And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Āl-migh'ty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pāss, that when he had cōmman'ded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen; who took it, and went out.

8 And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold, the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a bē'r'ŷl-stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels, that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel!

14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chē'bār.

16 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them; and when the cherubims lifted up their wings, to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.

19 And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them; and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Īs'ra-ēl was over them above.

20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Īs'ra-ēl, by the river of Chē'bār; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 Every one had four faces āpièce, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

1 e'tshūre

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chē'bār, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight for ward.

CHAP. XI.

MOREOVER, the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and, behold, at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Ja-āz-a-n'āh the son of Ā'zūr, and Pēl-a-tī'āh the son of Bēn-āi'āh,² princes of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mis'chief, and give wicked counsel, in this city;

3 Which say, It is not near: let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 And the Spir'it of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD, Thus have ye said, O house of Īs'ra-ēl: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD GOD, Your slain, whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the LORD GOD.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword: I will judge you in the border of Īs'ra-ēl; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof: but I will judge you in the border of Īs'ra-ēl:

12 And ye shall know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 And it came to pāss, when I prophesied, that Pēl-a-tī'āh, the son of Bēn-āi'āh, died: then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Īs'ra-ēl?

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Īs'ra-ēl wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm have said, Get ye far from the LORD; unto us is this land given in pōššes'sion.

2 Bēn-ā'yāh.

A remnant shall be saved.

EZIEL. The type of E-zé'hi-él's removing.

16 There'fore say, Thus saith the Lord God, Although I have east them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 There fore say, Thus saith the Lord God, I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Iṣ'ra-él.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof, from thence.

19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you: and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh;

20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own head, saith the Lord God.

22 Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Iṣ'ra-él was over them above.

23 And the glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

24 Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in vision by the Spirit of God into Châl-de'â, to them of the captivity: so the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the Lord had showed me

CHAP. XII.

THE word of the Lord also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.

3 There'fore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity.

5 Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby:

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground; for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Iṣ'ra-él.

7 And I did so as I was comman'ded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the word of the Lord unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Iṣ'ra-él, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, This burden concerneth the prince in Je-rù'sa-lém, and all the house of Iṣ'ra-él that are among them.

11 Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them; they shall remove, and go into captivity.

12 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth; they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Bâb y-lon, to the land of the Châl-de'ânus; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And I will scatter to'ward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his hands; and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

17 Moreover, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Je-rù'sa-lém, and of the land of Iṣ'ra-él, They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

21 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that prov'erb that ye have in the land of Iṣ'ra-él, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?

23 Tell them there'fore, Thus saith the Lord God, I will make this prov'erb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a prov'erb in Iṣ'ra-él; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Īš'ra-ēl.

25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the LORD God.

26 ¶ Again, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Īš'ra-ēl say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the LORD God, There shall none of my words be prolonged any more; but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the LORD God.

CHAP. XIII.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Īš'ra-ēl, that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

3 Thus saith the LORD God, Wo unto the foolish prophets that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!

4 O Īš'ra-ēl, thy prophets are like the foxes in the dēš'ērts.

5 Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Īš'ra-ēl, to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD.

6 They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith; and the LORD hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the LORD God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Īš'ra-ēl, neither shall they enter into the land of Īš'ra-ēl; and ye shall know that I am the LORD God.

10 Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace, and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar.

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones, in my fury, to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar; and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Īš'ra-ēl, which prophesy concerning Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the LORD God.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the LORD God, Wo to the women that sew pillows to all arm-holes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature, to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley, and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God, Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly; and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life;

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XIV.

WHEN came certain of the elders of Īš'ra-ēl unto me, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumbling-block of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Every man of the house of Iſ'ra-ël that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet, I the Lord will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols;

5 That I may take the house of Iſ'ra-ël in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 Therefore say unto the house of Iſ'ra-ël, thus saith the Lord God, Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Iſ'ra-ël, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Iſ'ra-ël, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to inquire of him concerning me; I the Lord will answer him by myself:

8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the Lord have deceived that prophet; and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Iſ'ra-ël.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Iſ'ra-ël may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

12 ¶ The word of the Lord came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me, by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it.

14 Though these three men, Nō'āh, Dān'i-ël,¹ and Jōb, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God.

15 If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it:

18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

20 Though Nō'āh, Dān'i-ël, and Jōb, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

21 For thus saith the Lord God, How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jē-rū'sa-lēm, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

22 Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters; behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jē-rū'sa-lēm, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XV.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, what is the vine-tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burnt. Is it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole it was meet for no work: how much less shall it be meet yet for any work when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, As the vine-tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

7 And I will set my face against them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XVI.—

GAIN the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, cause Jē-rū'sa-lēm to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm, Thy birth² and thy nativity is of the land of Cā'na-ān; thy father was an Am'o-rite, and thy mother a Hit'tite.

² birth.

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born, thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee: thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt¹ over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded² thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thine hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work: thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

15 But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pourest out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them;

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter,

21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass, after all thy wickedness, (wo, wo unto thee! saith the Lord God.)

24 That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee a high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the E-gyp'ti-ans thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the As-syr'i-ans, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldst not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast, moreover, multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chal-deans, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as a harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all whores; but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women³ in thy whoredoms, whereas none

1 skért.

2 gér'ded.

3 wim'min.

followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee: thērc'fore thou art contrary.

35 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the Lord.

36 Thus saith the Lord God, Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them:

37 Behold, thērc'fore, I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken plēas'ure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about' against' thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock, and shed blood, are judged: and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine eminent place and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 They shall also bring up a company against' thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So will I make my fury tōwards thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, thērc'fore, I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord God; and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 Behold, every one that useth prōv'ērb shall use this prōv'ērb against' thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth her hūz'bānd and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their hūz'bānds and their children: your mōt'er was a Hit'tite, and your father an Ām'ō rite.

46 And thine elder sister is Sa-mā'ri-ā, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sōd'om and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord God, Sōd'om thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sōd'om, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness, was in her, and in her daughters, nēither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: thērc'fore I took them away as I saw good.

51 Nēither hath Sa-mā'ri-ā committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame, for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou; yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When I shall bring again¹ their captivity, the captivity of Sōd'om and her daughters, and the captivity of Sa-mā'ri-ā and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them;

54 That thou mayst bear thine own shame, and mayst be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a cōmfōrt unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sōd'om and her daughters, shall return to their former estate', and Sa-mā'ri-ā and her daughters shall return to their former estate', then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate'.

56 For thy sister Sōd'om was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride,

57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Sūr'i-ā, and all that are round about' her, the daughters of the Phi-lis'tines, which despise' thee round about'.

58 Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the Lord.

59 For thus saith the Lord God, I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

60 Nevertheless, I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will estāb'lish unto thee an ēvērlās'ting covenant.

61 Then thou shalt remember thy ways and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant.

62 And I will estāb'lish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord;

63 That thou mayst remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified tō'wārd thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XVII.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lēb'a-nōn, and took the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow-tree;

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stāt'ure,¹ whose branches turned tō'wārd him, and the roots thereof wēre under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many² feathers; and, behold, this vine did bend her roots tō'wārd him, and shot forth her branches tō'wārd him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power, or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Bāb'y-lōn is come to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Bāb'y-lōn;

13 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a cōvenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his cōvenant it might stand.

15 But he rebelled against him, in sending his ambassadors into E'g'yp't, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape? that doeth such things? or shall he break the cōvenant, and be delivered?

¹ stāt'tshūre.

16 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose cōvenant he brake, even with him, in the midst of Bāb'y-lōn, he shall die.

17 Neither shall Phā'raōh with his mighty army and great cōmpany, make for him in the war, by cāst'ing up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many pērsōns:

18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the cōvenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape!

19 Thērē'fore, thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my cōvenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Bāb'y-lōn, and will plead with him there for his trēs'pāss that he hath trēs'passed against me.

21 And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the swōrd, and they that remain shall be scattered tō'wārd all winds; and ye shall know that I the Lord have spoken it.

22 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plānt it upon a high mōūn'tain and eminent;

23 In the mōūn'tain of the height of Iṣ'ra-ēl will I plānt it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I the Lord have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the Lord have spoken, and have done it.

CHAP. XVIII.—

AND the word of the Lord came unto me again, saying,

2 What mean ye, that ye use this prōv'ērb cōncēr'n'ing the land of Iṣ'ra-ēl, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

3 As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this prōv'ērb in Iṣ'ra-ēl.

4 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die.

5 But if a man be just, and do that which is lawful and right,

6 And hath not eaten upon the mōūn'tains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl, neither hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to a menstruous woman,

² mēn'ne.

7 And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

8 He that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgment between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.

10 If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the môûntains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die, his blood shall be upon him.

14 Now, lo, if he beget a son that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the môûntains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Īs'ra-ël, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God; and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trêspass, that he hath trêspassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Īs'ra-ël, Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done, shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Īs'ra-ël, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Īs'ra-ël, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Īs'ra-ël, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Repent, and turn yourselves, from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 Căst away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Īs'ra-ël?

32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God; wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

CHAP. XIX.

MOREOVER, take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Īs'ra-ël,

2 And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Ēgypt.

5 Now, when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.

7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Bāb'y-lōn; they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of İs'ra-ël.

10 Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful, and full of branches, by reason of many waters.

11 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her staff were exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit; her strong rods were broken and withered, the fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

14 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

CHAP. XX.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of İs'ra-ël came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of İs'ra-ël, and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD God, Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the LORD God, I will not be inquired of by you.

4 Wilt thou judge them, son of man? wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers;

5 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD God, In the day when I chose İs'ra-ël, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jā'çöb, and made myself known unto them in the land of Eg'gypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Eg'gypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Eg'gypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Eg'gypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Eg'gypt.

9 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Eg'gypt.

10 Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Eg'gypt, and brought them into the wilderness:

11 And I gave them my statutes, and showed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also, I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of İs'ra-ël rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;

16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless mine eyes spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols.

19 I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;

20 And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's ſake, that it ſhould not be polluted in the ſight of the heathen, in whoſe ſight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them alſo in the wilderneſs, that I would ſcatter them among the heathen, and diſperſe them through the countries :

24 Becauſe they had not executed my judgments, but had deſpiſed my ſtatutes, and had polluted my ſabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore I gave them alſo ſtatutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they ſhould not live :

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they cauſed to paſs through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them deſolate, to the end that they might know that I am the Lord.

27 Therefore, ſon of man, ſpeak unto the houſe of Iſ'ra-ël, and ſay unto them, Thus ſaith the Lord God, Ye in this your fathers have blaſphemèd me, in that they have committed a treſpaſs againſt me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they ſaw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their ſacrifices, and there they preſented the provocation of their offering : there alſo they made their ſweet ſavour, and poured out there their drink-offerings.

29 Then I ſaid unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Ba'mah unto this day.

30 Wherefore ſay unto the houſe of Iſ'ra-ël, Thus ſaith the Lord God, Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your ſons to paſs through the fire, ye pollute yourſelves with all your idols, even unto this day : and ſhall I be inquired of by you, O houſe of Iſ'ra-ël? As I live, ſaith the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you.

32 And that which cometh into your mind ſhall not be at all, that ye ſay, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to ſerve wood and ſtone.

33 As I live, ſaith the Lord God, ſurely with a mighty hand, and with a ſtretched-out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you ;

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are ſcattered, with a mighty hand, and with a ſtretched-out arm, and with fury poured out ;

35 And I will bring you into the wilderneſs of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderneſs of the land of E'gypt, ſo will I plead with you, ſaith the Lord God.

37 And I will cauſe you to paſs under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant :

38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that tranſgreſs againſt me : I will bring them forth out of the country where they ſo'journ, and they ſhall not enter into the land of Iſ'ra-ël ; and ye ſhall know that I am the Lord.

39 As for you, O houſe of Iſ'ra-ël, thus ſaith the Lord God, Go ye, ſerve ye every one his idols, and hereafter alſo, if ye will not hearken unto me : but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in mine holy môûn'tain, in the môûn'tain of the height of Iſ'ra-ël, ſaith the Lord God, there ſhall all the houſe of Iſ'ra-ël, all of them in the land, ſerve me : there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firſt-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your ſweet ſavour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been ſcattered ; and I will be ſanctified in you before the heathen.

42 And ye ſhall know that I am the Lord, when I ſhall bring you into the land of Iſ'ra-ël, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there ſhall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled ; and ye ſhall loathe yourſelves in your own ſight, for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 And ye ſhall know that I am the Lord, when I have wrought with you for my name's ſake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye houſe of Iſ'ra-ël, ſaith the Lord God.

45 ¶ Moreover, the word of the Lord came unto me, ſaying,

46 Son of man, ſet thy face tõward the ſouth, and drop thy word tõward the ſouth, and prophesy againſt the foreſt of the ſouth field ;

47 And ſay to the foreſt of the ſouth, Hear the word of the Lord, Thus ſaith the Lord God, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it ſhall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree : the flaming flame ſhall not be quenched, and all faces from the ſouth to the north ſhall be burned therein.

48 And all fleſh ſhall ſee that I the Lord have kindled it : it ſhall not be quenched.

49 Then ſaid I, Ah Lord God ! they ſay of me, Dóth he not ſpeak parables?

CHAP. XXI.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, ſaying,

2 Son of man, ſet thy face tõward Jeruſa-lém, and drop thy word tõward the holy places, and prophesy againſt the land of Iſ'ra-ël,

3 And say to the land of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I am against' thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against' all flesh from the south to the north;

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more.

6 Sigh, therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God.

8 ¶ Again', the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter: it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Iṣ'ra-ēl: terrors, by reason of the sword, shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 Because it is a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord God.

14 Thou, therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their privy chambers.

15 I have set the point of the sword against' all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied. Ah! it is made bright, it is wrapt up for the slaughter.

16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again', saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Bāb'y-lōn may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and chōṣe thou a place, chōṣe it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rāb'bāth of the Am'mōn-ites, and to Jū'dāh in Jē-rū'sa-lēm the defenced.

21 For the king of Bāb'y-lōn stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jē-rū'sa-lēm, to appoint cāp'tains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering-rams against' the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 And thou, profane wicked prince of Iṣ'ra-ēl, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end;

26 Thus saith the Lord God, Remove the diadem, and take off the crown; this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn it; and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

28 ¶ And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord God concerning the Am'mōn-ites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn; for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering;

29 While they see vanity unto thee, while they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee; I will blow against' thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy'.

32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered; for I the LORD have spoken it.

CHAP. XXII.—

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? yēa, thou shalt show her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come; and maketh idols āgainst herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: thēre'fōre have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed.

6 Behold, the princes of Iṣ'ra-ēl, every one wēre in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they set light by father and mōther; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the strānger; in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths.

9 In thee āre men that carry tales to shed blood; and in thee they eat upon the mōūntains; in the midst of thee they commit lewdness;

10 In thee have they discovered their fathers' nakedness; in thee have they hūm-bled her that was set āpart for pollution.

11 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and ānōther hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and ānōther in thee hath hūm-bled his sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

13 Behold, thēre'fōre, I have smitten mine hand at thy dīshōn'est gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the Lord have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And I will scatter thee āmong the heathen, and dispēse' thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

17 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl is to me become dross: all they āre brāss, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the fūr'nace;² they āre even the dross of silver.

19 Thēre'fōre thus saith the Lord God, Because ye āre all become dross, behold, thēre'fōre, I will gāther you into the midst of Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

² fūr'nīs.

³ vēr-jin'e-te.

20 As they gāther silver, and brāss, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the fūr'nace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gāther you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yēa, I will gāther you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrāth, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the fūr'nace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the Lord have poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they have taken the trēas'ure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, nēither have they showed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned āmong them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof āre like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destrōy' souls, to get dīshōn'est gain.

28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divinīng lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the Lord hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy; yēa, they have oppressed the strānger wrongfully.

30 And I sought for a man āmong them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destrōy' it; but I found none.

31 Thēre'fōre have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrāth: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXIII.—

THE word of the Lord came āgain' unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there wēre two women, the daughters of one mōther;

3 And they committed whoredoms in Ē'gypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there wēre their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virgin'ity.³

4 And the names of them wēre Ā-hō'lāh the elder, and Ā-hō'l'i-bāh her sister; and they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names, Sa-mā'ri-ā is Ā-hō'lāh, and Jē-rū'sa-lēm Ā-hō'l'i-bāh.

5 And Ā-hō'lāh played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Ās-sūr'i-ānš her neighbours.

6 Which were clothed with blue, căp'tains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Ās-sūr'i-ā, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Ē'gypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Ās-sūr'i-ānš, upon whom she doted.

10 These discovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword; and she became famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And when her sister Ā-hō'l'i-bāh saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the Ās-sūr'i-ānš her neighbours, căp'tains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way;

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images of the Čhāl-dē'ānš portrayed with vermilion,¹

15 Gir'ded² with gir'dles³ upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Bāb-y-lō'ni-ānš of Čhāl-dē'ā, the land of their nativity:

16 And, as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Čhāl-dē'ā.

17 And the Bāb-y-lō'ni-ānš came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom; and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Ē'gypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Ē-gy'p'ti-ānš for the paps of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Ā-hō'l'i-bāh, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Bāb-y-lō'ni-ānš, and all the Čhāl-dē'ānš, Pe'kōd, and Shē'ā, and Kō'ā, and all the Ās-sūr'i-ānš with them: all of them desirable young men, căp'tains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them rising upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, and helmet, round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

27 Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Ē'gypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Ē'gypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated:

29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord God, Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the eup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Sa-mā'ri-ā.

34 Thou shalt even drink it, and suck it out, and thou shalt break the shērds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The LORD said moreover unto me, Son of man, wilt thou judge Ā-hō'lāb and Ā-hō'l'i-bāh? yea, declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery; and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover, this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary¹ in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came; for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sa-bē'ānš from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went into her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot; so went they in unto Ā-hō'lāb and unto Ā-hō'l'i-bāh, the lewd women.

45 And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord God, I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and despatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

CHAP. XXIV.

AGAIN,² in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

² Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day; the king of Bāb'y-lon set himself against Je-rú'sa-lém this same day.

1 sāngk'tskū-ā-re.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seeth the bones of it therein.

6 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 I the LORD have spoken it; it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent: according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.

17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning; and at even my wife died: and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

2 ā-gēn'.

19 And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so ?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Speak unto the house of Iſ'ra-ël, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth ; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done : ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet : ye shall not mourn nor weep ; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one to'wards another.

24 Thus E-zê'ki-ël is unto you a sign : according to all that he hath done shall ye do ; and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters,

26 That he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears ?

27 In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb : and thou shalt be a sign unto them ; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXV.

THE word of the LORD came again' unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against' the Am'môn-ites, and prophesy against' them ;

3 And say unto the Am'môn-ites, Hear the word of the Lord God ; Thus saith the Lord God, Because thou saidst, A-hà', against' my sanctuary, when it was profaned ; and against' the land of Iſ'ra-ël, when it was desolate ; and against' the house of Jû'dáh, when they went into captivity :

4 Behold, there'fore, I will deliver thee to the men of the east for a pōſſēs'sion, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee : they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make Râb'bâh a stable for camels, and the Am'môn-ites a couch'ing-place for flocks ; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

6 For thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in heart with all thy despite' against' the land of Iſ'ra-ël ;

7 Behold, there'fore, I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the heathen ; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries : I will destrôy' thee ; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 Thus saith the Lord God, Because that Mō'ab and Sê'ir do say, Behold, the house of Jû'dáh is like unto all the heathen ;

9 There'fore, behold, I will open the side of Mō'ab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Bêth-jêſ'hi-mōth, Bâ'al-Mê'ôn, and Kir'i-âth-Ā'im,¹

10 Unto the men of the east with the Am'môn-ites, and will give them in pōſſēs'sion, that the Am'môn-ites may not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Mō'ab ; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Thus saith the Lord God, Because that Ê'dôm hath dealt against' the house of Jû'dáh by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them :

13 There'fore thus saith the Lord God, I will also stretch out mine hand upon Ê'dôm, and will cut off man and beast from it ; and I will make it desolate from Tê'mân ; and they of Dê'dân shall fall by the sword.

14 And I will lay my vengeance upon Ê'dôm by the hand of my people Iſ'ra-ël : and they shall do in Ê'dôm according to mine anger, and according to my fury ; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15 Thus saith the Lord God, Because the Phi-lis'tines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despite'ful heart, to destrôy' it for the old hatred ;

16 There'fore, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Phi-lis'tines, and I will cut off the Chêr'êth-ims, and destrôy' the remnant of the sea-coast.

17 And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes ; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

CHAP. XXVI.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, because that Ty'rûs hath said against' Jê-rû'sa-lêm, A-hà' she is broken that was the gates of the people ; she is turned unto me ; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste :

3 There'fore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against' thee, O Ty'rûs, and will cause many nations to come up against' thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destrôy' the walls of Ty'rûs, and break down her towers : I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea : for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God; and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will bring upon Tŷ'rūs Nēb-ū-ḥād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and with companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field; and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 He shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy mērchāndīse; and they shall break down thy walls, and destrōy thy pleāsant houses: and they shall lay thy stones, and thy timber, and thy dust, in the midst of the water.

13 And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

14 And I will make thee like the top of a rock; thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I the Lord have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

15 Thus saith the Lord God to Tŷ'rūs, Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

17 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destrōy'ed that wast inhabited of sea-faring men, the renowned city which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it!

18 Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord God, When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee;

20 When I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory in the land of the living;

21 I will make thee a terror, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXVII.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, take up a lamentation for Tŷ'rūs;

3 And say unto Tŷ'rūs, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art a mērchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord God, O Tŷ'rūs, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty.

5 They have made all thy ship-boards of fir-trees¹ of Sē'nir: they have taken cedars from Lēb'a-nōn to make masts for thee.

6 Of the oaks of Bā'shān have they made thine oars; the company of the Āsh'ūr-ites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chit tim.

7 Fine linen, with brodered work from Ē'gypt, was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail: blue and purple from the isles of Ē-l'shāh was that which covered thee.

8 The inhabitants of Zi'dōn and Ār'vād were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tŷ'rūs, that were in thee were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of Gē'bāl, and the wise men thereof, were in thee thy cākers: all the ships of the sea, with their mariners, were in thee to occupy thy mērchāndīse.

10 They of Pēr'si-ā,² and of Lūd, and of Phūt, were in thine army thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Ār'vād, with thine army, were upon thy walls round about, and the Gām'ma-dims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made thy beauty perfect.

12 Tār'shish was thy mērchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches: with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 Jā'vān, Tū'bāl, and Mē'shēch, they were thy mērchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market.

14 They of the house of Tō-gār'māl traded in thy fairs with horses, and horse men, and mules.

15 The men of Dē'dān were thy mērchants; many isles were the mērchāndīse of thine hand: they brought thee for a present, horns of ivory and ebony.

16 Sŷ'rī-ā was thy mērchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and ág'áte.

17 Já'dáh, and the land of Ís'ra-él, they wère thy mérchants: they traded in thy market wheat of Míu'mith and Pán'nág, and hóney, and oil, and bálm.

18 Da-más'eús was thy mérchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Hēl'bôn, and white wool.

19 Dán also and Já'ván, going to and fro, occupied in thy fairs; bright iron, cassia,¹ and calamus wère in thy market.

20 De'dáu was thy mérchant in precious clothes for chariots.

21 Á-rá'bi-á, and all the princes of Kē'dár, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats; in these wère they thy mérchants.

22 The mérchants of Shē'bā and Rá'a-máh, they wère thy mérchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 Há'rán, and Cán'neh, and E'den,² the mérchants of Shē'bā, Ásh'ur, and Çil'müäd, wère thy mérchants.

24 These wère thy mérchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and brodered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy mér'chändiše.

25 The ships of Tár'shish did sing of thee in thy market; and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

26 Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.

27 Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy mér'chändiše, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy cákers, and the occupiers of thy mér'chändiše, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy cómpany, which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

28 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cást up dust upon their heads; they shall wállow themselves in the ashes;

31 And they shall make themselves utterly báld for thee, and gird³ them with sackcloth; and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of héart and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lámentation for thee, and lámént over thee, saying, What city is like Tg'rūs, like the destróy'ed in the midst of the sea?

33 When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people: thou didst enrich the kings of the éarth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy mér'chändiše.

34 In the time when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, thy mér'chändiše, and all thy cómpany in the midst of thee, shall fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore áfráid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 The mérchants among the people shall hiss at thee; thou shalt be a terror, and never shall be any more.

CHAP. XXVIII.

THE word of the Lord came ágain' unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tg'rūs, Thus saith the Lord God, Because thine héart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine héart as the héart of God:

3 Behold, thou art wiser than Dán'i-él:⁴ there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy tréas'ures:

5 By thy great wisdom, and by thy traffick, hast thou increased thy riches, and thine héart is lifted up because of thy riches:

6 Thère'fore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast set thine héart as the héart of God;

7 Behold, thère'fore, I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations, and they shall draw their swóords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no god, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised⁵ by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, take up a lámentation upon the king of Tg'rūs, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God, Thou scalest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in E'den the garden of God; every precious stone was thy cov'ring, the sárdius, tópoz, and the diámond, the beryll, the ón'yx, and the jásper, the sápphíre,⁶ the émerald, and the carbunele, and gold: the workmanship of thy tābrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the appointed cherub that cōvereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mōūntain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy mērc'hāndise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: thēre fore I will cāst thee as profane out of the mōūntain of God; and I will dēstrōy' thee, O cōv'ring cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine hēart was lifted up because of thy beauty; thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cāst thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; thēre fore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee; and I will bring thee to ashes upon the ēarth, in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 ¶ Again' the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, set thy face āgainst' Zīdōn, and prophesy āgainst' it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am āgainst' thee, O Zīdōn; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wōunded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sōrd upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

24 ¶ And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Īs'ra-ēl, nor any grieving thorn of all that āre round ābout' them, that dēspise' them; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God, When I shall have gāthered the house of Īs'ra-ēl from the people among whom they āre scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my sērvant Jā'cōb.

26 And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plānt vine-yards; yēa, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that dēspise' them round ābout' them; and they shall know that I am the Lord their God.

CHAP. XXIX.

IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face āgainst' Phāraōh king of Ēg̃ypt, and prophesy āgainst' him, and āgainst' all Ēg̃ypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am āgainst' thee, Phāraōh king of Ēg̃ypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales; and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought togēther, nor gāth'ered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fōwls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Ēg̃ypt shall know that I am the Lord, because they have been a stāff' of reed to the house of Īs'ra-ēl.

7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all thy shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee thou breakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 Thēre fore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will bring a sōrd upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Ēg̃ypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the Lord: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, thēre fore, I am āgainst' thee; and āgainst' thy rivers, and I will make the land of Ēg̃ypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tōwer of S̃y-ēne even unto the border of Ē-thi-ō'pī-ā.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Ēg̃ypt desolate in the midst of the countries that āre desolate, and her cities among the cities that āre laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Ēg̃ypti-āns among the nations, and will dīspēse' them through the countries.

13 Yet thus saith the Lord God, At the end of forty years will I gāther the Ēg̃ypti-āns from the people whither they wēre scattered:

14 And I will bring āgain' the captivity of Ēg̃ypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pāth'rōs, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms, neither shall it exālt itself any more ābove the nations: for I will dīminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Īṣ'ra-ēl, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nēb-ū-ḥād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn caused his army to serve a great sēr/vīce against' Ty'rūs: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Ty'rūs, for the sēr/vīce that he had served against' it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will give the land of Ēg̃ypt unto Nēb-ū-ḥād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Ēg̃ypt for his labour wherewith he served against' it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God.

21 In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Īṣ'ra-ēl to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XXX.

THE word of the Lord came again' unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Howl ye, Wo worth the day!

3 For the day is near, even the day of the Lord is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Ēg̃ypt, and great pain shall be in Ē-thi-ō'pi-ā, when the slain shall fall in Ēg̃ypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundation shall be broken down.

5 Ē-thi-ō'pi-ā, and Lib'y-ā, and Lūd'i-ā, and all the mingled people, and Chüb, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the Lord, They also that uphold Ēg̃ypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Sy-ē'ne shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.

7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I have set a fire in Ēg̃ypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships, to make the careless Ē-thi-ō'pi-āns afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Ēg̃ypt: for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also make the multitude of Ēg̃ypt to cease by the hand of Nēb-ū-ḥād-rēz/zār king of Bāb'y-lōn.

11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy' the land: and they shall draw their swords against' Ēg̃ypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked; and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the Lord have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also destroy' the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Nōph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Ēg̃ypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Ēg̃ypt.

14 And I will make Pāth'rōs desolate, and will set fire in Zō'an, and will execute judgments in Nō.

15 And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Ēg̃ypt; and I will cut off the multitude of Nō.

16 And I will set fire in Ēg̃ypt: Sin shall have great pain, and Nō shall be rent asunder, and Nōph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of Ā'ven and of Phib'e-sēth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At Tē-hāph'ne-hēs also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Ēg̃ypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgments in Ēg̃ypt; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

20 ¶ And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Phā'raōh king of Ēg̃ypt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against' Phā'raōh king of Ēg̃ypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Ē-g̃ypt'i-āns among the nations, and will disperse' them through the countries.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Bāb'y-lōn, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Phā'raōh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly-wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Bāb'y-lōn, and the arms of Phā'raōh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Bāb'y-lōn, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Ē'gÿpt.

26 And I will scatter the Ē'gÿp'ti-ānſ among the nations, and diſperſe^c them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XXXI.

AND it came to paſs in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, ſaying,

2 Son of man, ſpeak unto Phā'raoh king of Ē'gÿpt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Behold, the Ās-sÿr'i-ān was a cedar in Lēb'a-nōn with fair brānches, and with a ſhadowing ſhroud, and of a high ſtature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters made him great, the deep ſet him up on high with her rivers running round about^c his plānts, and ſent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 There'fore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his brānches became long, becauſe of the multitude of waters, when he ſhot forth.

6 All the fowls of heaven made their neſts in his boughs, and under his brānches did all the beaſts of the field bring forth their young, and under his ſhadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his brānches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir-trees^l were not like his boughs, and the cheſtnut-trees were not like his brānches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his brānches: ſo that all the trees of Ē'den,^l that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 There'fore thus ſaith the Lord God, Becauſe thou haſt lifted up thyſelf in height, and he hath ſhot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have, there'fore, delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he ſhall ſurely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedneſs.

12 And ſtrangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the môûn'tains and in all the valleys his brānches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his ſhadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruin ſhall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beaſts of the field ſhall be upon his brānches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themſelves for their height, neither ſhoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees ſtand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the miſt of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

1 fēr-treec.

15 Thus ſaith the Lord God, In the day when he went down to the grave I cauſed a mourning; I covered the deep for him, and I reſtrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were ſtayed; and I cauſed Lēb'a-nōn to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to ſhake at the ſound of his fall, when I caſt him down to hell with them that deſcend into the pit: and all the trees of Ē'den, the choice and beſt of Lēb'a-nōn, all that drink water, ſhall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They alſo went down into hell with him, unto them that be ſlain with the ſword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his ſhadow in the miſt of the heathen.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Ē'den? yet ſhalt thou be brought down with the trees of Ē'den unto the nether parts of the earth: thou ſhalt lie in the miſt of the un-circumciſed with them that be ſlain by the ſword. This is Phā'raoh, and all his multitude, ſaith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXXII.

AND it came to paſs in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, ſaying,

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Phā'raoh king of Ē'gÿpt, and ſay unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the ſea; and thou cameſt forth with thy rivers, and troubledſt the waters with thy feet, and fouleſt their rivers.

3 Thus ſaith the Lord God, I will, there'fore, ſpread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they ſhall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will caſt thee forth upon the open field, and will cauſe all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beaſts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy fleſh upon the môûn'tains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will alſo water with thy blood the land wherein thou ſwimmest, even to the môûn'tains; and the rivers ſhall be full of thee.

7 And when I ſhall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the ſtars thereof dark; I will cover the ſun with a cloud, and the moon ſhall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

2 Ē'd'n.

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saith the Lord God, The sword of the king of Bāb'y-lōn shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them; and they shall spoil the pomp of Ē'gÿp, and all the multitude thereof shall be destrōy'ed.

13 I will destrōy' also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Ē'gÿp desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that wherof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the Lord.

16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her; they shall lament for her, even for Ē'gÿp, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Ē'gÿp, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncir'cumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword; she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncir'cumcised, slain by the sword.

22 Ash'ūr is there, and all her company: his graves are about him; all of them slain, fallen by the sword.

23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living.

24 There is Ē'lām, and all her multitude round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncir'cumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him; all of them uncir'cumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is Mē'sheḫ, Tu'bāl, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him; all of them uncir'cumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncir'cumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war; and they have laid their swords under their heads; but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncir'cumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

29 There is E'dōm, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncir'cumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.

30 There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zi-dō'mi-ān, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncir'cumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

31 Phā'raōh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Phā'raōh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord God.

32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncir'cumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Phā'raōh, and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXXIII.

AGAIN the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman:

3 If, when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not wārn'ing, his blood shall be upon him: but he that taketh wārn'ing shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the wātchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not wārn'd; if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken āway in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the wātchman's hand.

7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a wātchman unto the house of Īs'ra-ēl; thēre'fore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and wārn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to wārn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou wārn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Thēre'fore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Īs'ra-ēl, Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine āway in them, how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleās'ure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Īs'ra-ēl?

12 Thēre'fore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; nēither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Āgain', when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;

15 If the wicked restore the pledge, give āgain' that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 Nōne of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but, as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Īs'ra-ēl, I will judge you every one āfter his ways.

21 ¶ And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Je-rū-sa-lem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the hand of the Lord was upon me in the evening, āfore he that was escaped came, and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning, and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Īs'ra-ēl speak, saying, Ābra-hām was one, and he inherited the land: but we āre many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes tōwārd's your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely they that āre in the wastes shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured; and they that be in the forts, and in the caves, shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mōūn'tāins of Īs'ra-ēl shall be desolate, that nōne shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the Lord, when I have laid the land most desolate, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still āre talking āgain'st thee by the walls, and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to ānother, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the Lord.

31 And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth āfter their cōvetousness.

32 And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleās'ant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

CHAP. XXXIV.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy āgain'st the shēp'hérds of Iṣ'ra-ēl, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shēp'hérds, Wo be to the shēp'hérds of Iṣ'ra-ēl that do feed themselves! should not the shēp'hérds feed the flocks?

3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again' that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, because there is no shēp'hérd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the môûn'tains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 Thêrê'fore, ye shēp'hérds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shēp'hérd, neither did my shēp'hérds search for my flock, but the shēp'hérds fed themselves, and fed not my flock:

9 Thêrê'fore, O ye shēp'hérds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against' the shēp'hérds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shēp'hérds feed themselves any more: for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 As a shēp'hérd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the môûn'tains of Iṣ'ra-ēl by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pās'ture, I and upon the high môûn'tains of Iṣ'ra-ēl shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pās'ture shall they feed upon the môûn'tains of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again' that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy' the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God. Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he-goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pās'ture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pās'tures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 Thêrê'fore, thus saith the Lord God unto them, Behold I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Thêrê'fore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up one Shēp'hérd over them, and he shall feed them, even my sêrvant Dá'vid; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shēp'hérd.

24 And I the LORD will be their God, and my sêrvant Dá'vid a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them, and the places round about' my hill, a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beasts of the land devour them: but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them a Plânt of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl, are my people, saith the Lord God.

31 And ye, my flock of my pās'ture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXXV.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against' mount Sē'ir, and prophesy against' it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, O mount Sē'ir, I am against' thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against' thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

5 Because thou hast had a pērpēt'nal hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Iṣ'ra-ēl by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

6 There'fore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith² thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Sē'ir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out, and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mōūn'tains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee pērpēt'nal desolations, and thy cities shall not return; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations, and these two countries, shall be mine, and we will possess' it; whereas the LORD was there:

11 There'fore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy, which thou hast used out of thy hatred against' them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against' the mōūn'tains of Iṣ'ra-ēl, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against' me, and have multiplied your words against' me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord GOD, When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Sē'ir, and all Id-umē'ā, even all of it; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXVI.

ALSO thou son of man, prophesy unto the mōūn'tains of Iṣ'ra-ēl, and say, Ye mōūn'tains of Iṣ'ra-ēl, hear the word of the LORD:

2 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the enemy had said against' you, A-hā', even

1 pēr-pēt'tshū-āl.

the ancient high places are ours in pōssēs'sion:

3 There'fore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a pōssēs'sion unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 There'fore, ye mōūn'tains of Iṣ'ra-ēl, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mōūn'tains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision unto the residue of the heathen that are round about';

5 There'fore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against' the residue of the heathen, and against' all Id-umē'ā, which have appointed my land into their pōssēs'sion with the joy of all their heart, with despite'ful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesy there'fore concērn'ing the land of Iṣ'ra-ēl, and say unto the mōūn'tains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen:

7 There'fore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about' you, they shall bear their shame.

8 ¶ But ye, O mōūn'tains of Iṣ'ra-ēl, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Iṣ'ra-ēl; for they are at hand to come.

9 For behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded:

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit; and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Iṣ'ra-ēl; and they shall possess' thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, Thou land devoured up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 There'fore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 ¶ Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of İš'ra-ël dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the Lord, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of İš'ra-ël had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of İš'ra-ël, Thus saith the Lord God; I do not this for your sakes, O house of İš'ra-ël, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 ¶ Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

32 Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of İš'ra-ël.

33 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities, I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste, and desolate, and ruined cities, are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen, that are left round about you, shall know that I the Lord build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the Lord have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord God, I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of İš'ra-ël to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock.

38 As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XXXVII.

THE hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out in the Spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones, Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied there was a noise, and, behold, a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God, Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied, as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Īs'ra-ēl: behold they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost; we are cut off for our parts.

12 Thērē'fore prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Īs'ra-ēl.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And shall put my Spīr'it in you, and ye shall live; and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and pērfōrm'ed it, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ The word of the LORD came āgain' unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Jū'dāh, and for the children of Īs'ra-ēl his companions: then take ānōther stick, and write upon it, For Jō'sēph, the stick of Ē'phra-īm, and for all the house of Īs'ra-ēl his companions:

17 And join them one to ānōther into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not show us what thou meanest by these?

19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will take the stick of Jō'sēph, which is in the hand of Ē'phra-īm, and the tribes of Īs'ra-ēl his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Jū'dāh, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will take the children of Īs'ra-ēl from āmōng the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gāther them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mōūn'tāins of Īs'ra-ēl; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, nēither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 Nēither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling-places wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And Dā'vid my sērvant shall be king over them: and they all shall have one shēp'hērd: they shall also wālk in my judgments, and ōbserve' my statutes, and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Ja'cōb my sērvant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they and their children, and their children's children, for ever; and my sērvant Dā'vid shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover, I will make a cōvėnant of peace with them; it shall be an ēvėrlās'ting cōvėnant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 My tabernacle also shall be with them; yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Īs'ra-ēl, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face āgainst' Gōg, the land of Mā'gōg, the chief prince of Mē'shēch and Tū'bāl, and prophesy āgainst' him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am āgainst' thee, O Gōg, the chief prince of Mē'shēch and Tū'bāl:

4 And I will torn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great cōmpany with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swards.

5 Pēr'si-ā, Ē-thi-ō'pi-ā, and Līb'y-ā with them: all of them with shield and helmet:

6 Gō'mér, and all his bands; the house of Tō-gār'māh of the north quārters, and all his bands; and many people with thee.

7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy cōmpany that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 After many days thou shalt be vītēd: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sēvōrd, and is gāthered out of many people, āgainst' the mōūn'tāins of Īs'ra-ēl, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm; thou shalt be l'ke a cloud to cōvėr the land, thou and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, It shall also come to pās, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwall'd villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having nēither bars nor gates,

12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

13 She'bā, and De'dān, and the merchants of Tār'shūsh, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gōg, Thus saith the Lord God, In that day when my people of Iṣ'ra-ēl dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Iṣ'ra-ēl as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gōg, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God, Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Iṣ'ra-ēl, which prophesied in those days many years, that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time, when Gōg shall come against the land of Iṣ'ra-ēl, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For in my jealousy, and in the fire of my wrath, have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Iṣ'ra-ēl;

20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence; and the mōûn'tains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mōûn'tains, saith the Lord God: every man's sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XXXIX.

THEREFORE, thou son of man, prophesy against Gōg, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, O Gōg, the chief prince of Mē'shēch and Tū'bāl;

2 And I will turn thee back, and leave the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mōûn'tains of Iṣ'ra-ēl:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt fall upon the mōûn'tains of Iṣ'ra-ēl, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field, to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon the open field; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 And I will send a fire on Mā'gōg, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Iṣ'ra-ēl; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Iṣ'ra-ēl.

8 Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Iṣ'ra-ēl shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the hand-staves and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years.

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gōg a place there of graves in Iṣ'ra-ēl, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea; and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gōg, and all his multitude; and they shall call it, The valley of Hām-mōn-Gōg.

12 And seven months shall the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yēa, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown, the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land, to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hām-mōn-Gōg.

16 And also the name of the city shall be Hām'o-nāh. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 ¶ And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God, Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the môûn'tains of Iš'ra-ël, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bállocks, all of them fatlings of Bâ'shân.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken. of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Iš'ra-ël shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and for'ward.

23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Iš'ra-ël went into captivity for their iniquity: because they tres'passed against' me, there'fore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies; so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness, and according to their transgressions, have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 There'fore thus saith the Lord God, Now will I bring again' the captivity of Já'çob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Iš'ra-ël, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their tres'passes, whereby they have tres'passed against' me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 When I have brought them again' from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my Spir'it upon the house of Iš'ra-ël, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XL.

IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the self-same day the hand of the Lord was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Iš'ra-ël, and set me upon a very high môûn'tain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a mēaş'uring-reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall show thee; for to the intent that I might show them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Iš'ra-ël.

5 And, behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a mēaş'uring-reed of six cubits long, by the cubit; and a hand-breadth: so he mēaş'ured the breadth of the building one reed, and the height one reed.

6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh tô'wârd the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and mēaş'ured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad, and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers wêre five cubits; and the threshold of the gate, by the porch of the gate within, was one reed.

8 He mēaş'ured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then mēaş'ured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was in'wârd.

10 And the little chambers of the gate east'wârd wêre three on this side, and three on that side; they three wêre of one mēaş'ure: and the posts had one mēaş'ure on this side and on that side.

11 And he mēaş'ured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side; and the little chambers wêre six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He mēaş'ured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against' door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the posts of the court round about' the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance, unto the face of the porch of the inner gate, wêre fifty cubits.

16 And there wêre narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches; and windows wêre round about' in'wârd: and upon each post wêre palm-trees.

17 Then brought he me into the ôût'wârd court, and, lo, there wêre chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates, over against the length of the gates, was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth, from the fore-front of the lower gate unto the fore-front of the inner court without, a hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 And the gate of the outward court, that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side, and three on that side; and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm-trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits.

24 After that he brought me toward the south, and, behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad:

31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures; and there were windows therein, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, and on this side and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures:

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers, and the entries thereof, were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt-offering.

39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to lay thereon the burnt-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate: eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were hooks, a hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate, having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, among the sons of Levi, which come near to the Lord to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court a hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, four-square, and the altar that was before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits: and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it; and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAP. XLII.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side; and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door two cubits, and the door six cubits, and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple; and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house six cubits; and the breadth of every side-chamber four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall, which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was an enlarging and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place, at the end toward the west, was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

K k k

13 So he measured the house, a hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, a hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, a hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side, a hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 The door-posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, ceiled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house and without, and by all the wall round about, within and without, by measure.

18 And it was made with cherubims and palm-trees, so that a palm-tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces;

19 So that the face of a man was toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm-tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm-trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the Lord.

23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were narrow windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side-chambers of the house, and thick planks.

CHAP. XLIII.

THEN he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north, and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of a hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against' the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against' the pavement which was for the outer court, was gallery against' gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth in'ward, a way of one cubit : and their doors to'ward the north.

5 Now, the upper chambers were shorter : for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts : therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against' the chambers, to'wards the outer court on the fore-part of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits : and, lo, before the temple were a hundred cubits.

9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the outer court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court to'ward the east, over against' the separate place, and over against' the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were to'ward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they ; and all their goings-out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were to'ward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall to'ward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things : there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the tres'pass-offering ; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister ; for they are holy ; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now, when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth to'ward the gate whose prospect is to'ward the east, and measured it round about'.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring-reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed round about'.

17 He measured the north side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed round about'.

18 He measured the south side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

19 He turned about' to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides : it had a wall round about' five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary¹ and the profane place.

CHAP. XLIII.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh to'ward the east :

2 And, behold, the glory of the God of Iſ'ra-ël came from the way of the east ; and his voice was like a noise of many waters : and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy' the city ; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chê'bâr ; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house, by the way of the gate whose prospect is to'ward the east.

5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court ; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house ; and the man stood by me.

7 And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Iſ'ra-ël for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Iſ'ra-ël no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcasses of their kings in their high places ;

8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them ; they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed : wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcasses of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 Thou son of man, show the house to the house of Iſ'ra-ël, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities ; and let them measure the pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, show them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings-out thereof, and the comings-in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof ; and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof : and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the môûn'tain, the whole limit thereof round about' shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the mēas'ures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and a hand-breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about' shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and up'ward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long, and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about' it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about'; and his stairs shall look tō'ward the east.

18 And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God, These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Lē'vites that be of the seed of Zā'dōk, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, a young bullock for a sin-offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about': thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin-offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto the Lord.

25 Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar, and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves.

27 And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so for'ward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your peace-offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XLIV.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the out'ward sanctuary, which looketh tō'ward the east, and it was shut.

2 Then said the Lord unto me, This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the Lord, the God of Is'ra-ël, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the prince; the prince he shall sit in it to eat bread before the Lord: he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord; and I fell upon my face.

5 And the Lord said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, all that I say unto thee cōcern'ing all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Is'ra-ël, Thus saith the Lord God, O ye house of Is'ra-ël, let it suffice' you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary, strangers, unclean' in heart, and unclean' in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my cōvenant, because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, No stranger, unclean' in heart, nor unclean' in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Is'ra-ël.

10 And the Lē'vites that are gone away far from me, when Is'ra-ël went astray which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of İs'ra-ël to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed:

14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Za'dök, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of İs'ra-ël went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

17 And it shall come to pass, that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments where they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of İs'ra-ël, or a widow that had a priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause men to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And after he is cleansed they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin-offering, saith the Lord God.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance; I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in İs'ra-ël; I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every dedicated thing in İs'ra-ël shall be theirs.

30 And the first of all the first-fruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

CHAP. XLV.

MOREOVER, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the Lord, a holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the Lord; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary.

5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers.

6 And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of İs'ra-ël.

7 And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward; and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in İs'ra-ël: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of İs'ra-ël according to their tribes.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, Let it suffice' you, O princes of Iſ'ra-él: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

10 Ye shall have just balances, and a just éph'ah, and a just bath.

11 The éph'ah and the bath shall be of one méas'ure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the éph'ah the tenth part of a homer: the méas'ure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels shall be your máneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an éph'ah of a homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an éph'ah of a homer of barley.

14 Concern'ning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the eor, which is a homer of ten baths; for ten baths are a homer:

15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pás'tures of Iſ'ra-él, for a meat-offering, and for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Iſ'ra-él.

17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and drink-offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Iſ'ra-él: he shall prepare the sin-offering, and the meat-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Iſ'ra-él.

18 Thus saith the Lord God, In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary:

19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the pás'sover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself, and for all the people of the land, a bullock for a sin-offering.

23 And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt-offering to the Lord, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish, daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin-offering.

24 And he shall prepare a meat-offering of an éph'ah for a bullock, and an éph'ah for a ram, and a hin of oil for an éph'ah.

25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the meat-offering, and according to the oil.

CHAP. XLVI.

THUS saith the Lord God, The gate of the inner court that looketh to ward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priest shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate; then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the Lord, in the sabbaths, and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt-offering that the prince shall offer unto the Lord in the sabbath-day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And the meat-offering shall be an éph'ah for a ram, and the meat-offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and a hin of oil to an éph'ah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat-offering, an éph'ah for a bullock, and an éph'ah for a ram; and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and a hin of oil to an éph'ah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the Lord in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against' it.

10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth:

11 And in the feasts, and in the solemnities, the meat-offering shall be an éph'ah to a bullock, and an éph'ah to a ram; and to the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an éph'ah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt-offering or peace-offerings voluntarily unto the Lord, one shall then open him the gate that looketh to'ward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings as he did on the sabbath-day; then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt-offering unto the Lord of a lamb of the first year without blemish; thou shalt prepare it every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat-offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an eph'ah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat-offering continually, by a pèrpèt'ual ordinance, unto the Lord.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat-offering, and the oil, every morning, for a continual burnt-offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their pòssès'sion by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his sèrvants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince; but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover, the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their pòssès'sion; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own pòssès'sion; that my people be not scattered every man from his pòssès'sion.

19 ¶ After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked tò'wàrd the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides wèst'wàrd.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trës'pàss-offering and the sin-offering, where they shall bake the meat-offering; that they bear them not out into the outer court, to sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pàss by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there wère courts joined of forty cubits long, and thirty broad: these four corners wère of one mēas'ure.

23 And there was a row of buildings round about' in them, round about' them four, and it was made with boiling-places under the rows round about'.

24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sàc'rifice of the people.

CHAP. XLVII.

AFTERWARD he brought me àgain' unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house east'wàrd: for the fore-front of the house stood tò'wàrd the east, and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate nòth'wàrd, and led me about' the way without unto the outer gate by the way that looketh east'wàrd; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth east'wàrd, he mēas'ured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters wère to the aneles.

4 Àgain' he mēas'ured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters wère to the knees. Àgain' he mēas'ured a thousand, and brought me through: the waters wère to the loins.

5 Àf'tèrward he mēas'ured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pàss over: for the waters wère risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be pàssed over.

6 And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now, when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river wère very many trees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out tò'wàrd the east country, and go down into the dēs'èrt, and go into the sea; which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pàss, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10 And it shall come to pàss, that the fishers shall stand upon it, from Èn'ge-dil even unto Èn-äg-là'im; they shall be a place to spread forth nets: their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.

11 But the miry places thereof, and the marshes thereof, shall not be healed: they shall be given to salt.

12 And by the river, upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his mónths, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, This shall be the border whereby ye shall inherit the land, according to the twelve tribes of Ìs'ra-ël: Jò'sèph shall have two pòrtions.

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as ànóther; cōncèr'ning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers; and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land to'ward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Héth'lôn, as men go to Ze'däd ;

16 Hå'måth, Be-rô'thåh, Sib'ra-ïm, which is between the border of Da-mås'çûs and the border of Hå'måth ; Hå'zår-Håt'ti-côn, which is by the coast of Håu'rån.

17 And the border from the sea shall be Hå'zår-Ë'nån, the border of Da-mås'çûs, and the north nørth'wård, and the border of Hå'måth. And this is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall mæş'ure from Håu'rån, and from Da-mås'çûs, and from Gil'e-åd, and from the land of İş'ra-ël by Jör'dån, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

19 And the south side søuth'wård, from Tå'mår even to the waters of strife in Kå'dësh, the river to the great sea. And this is the south side søuth'wård.

20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over ågainst' Hå'måth. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of İş'ra-ël.

22 ¶ And it shall come to pæss, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that søjourn åmång you, which shall beget children åmång you ; and they shall be unto you as born in the country åmång the children of İş'ra-ël ; they shall have inheritance with you åmång the tribes of İş'ra-ël.

23 And it shall come to pæss, that in what tribe the stranger søjourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord Gon.

CHAP. XLVIII.

NOW these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Héth'lôn, as one goeth to Hå'måth, Hå'zår-Ë'nån, the border of Da-mås'çûs nørth'wård, to the coast of Hå'måth, (for these are his sides east and west,) a pørtion for Dån.

2 And by the border of Dån, from the east side unto the west side, a pørtion for Åsh'er.

3 And by the border of Åsh'er, from the east side even unto the west side, a pørtion for Nåph'ta-lî.

4 And by the border of Nåph'ta-lî, from the east side unto the west side, a pørtion for Ma-nås'seh.

5 And by the border of Ma-nås'seh, from the east side unto the west side, a pørtion for Ë'phra-ïm.

6 And by the border of Ë'phra-ïm, from the east side even unto the west side, a pørtion for Reå'bën.

7 And by the border of Reå'bën, from the east side unto the west side, a pørtion for Jü'dåh.

8 ¶ And by the border of Jü'dåh, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in 'ength as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side : and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the Lord shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation ; to'ward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and to'ward the west ten thousand in breadth, and to'ward the east ten thousand in breadth, and to'ward the south five and twenty thousand in length : and the sanctuary of the Lord shall be in the midst thereof.

11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Za'dök, which have kept my charge, which went not åstråy when the children of İş'ra-ël went åstråy, as the Lë'vites went åstråy.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy, by the border of the Lë'vites.

13 And over ågainst' the border of the priests the Lë'vites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth : all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 And they shall not sell of it, nëither exchange, nor alienate the first-fruits of the land : for it is holy unto the Lord.

15 And the five thousand that are left in the breadth, over ågainst' the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs ; and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the mæş'ures thereof ; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be to'ward the north two hundred and fifty, and to'ward the south two hundred and fifty, and to'ward the east two hundred and fifty, and to'ward the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over ågainst' the oblation of the holy pørtion, shall be ten thousand east'wård, and ten thousand wëst'wård : and it shall be over ågainst' the oblation of the holy pørtion ; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that sërve the city.

19 And they that sërve the city shall sërve it out of all the tribes of İş'ra-ël.

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand : ye shall offer the holy oblation four-square, with the pössë'ssion of the city.

21 And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the pössë'ssion of the city over ågainst' the five and twenty thousand of the oblation to'ward the east border, and wëst'wård over ågainst' the five and twenty thousand to'ward the west border, over ågainst' the pørtions for the prince : and it shall be the holy oblation ; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

22 Moreover, from the pōssēs'sion of the Lēvites, and from the pōssēs'sion of the city being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Jū'dāh and the border of Bēn'ja-mīn, shall be for the prince.

23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Bēn'ja-mīn shall have a pōrtion.

24 And by the border of Bēn'ja-mīn, from the east side unto the west side, Sīm'e-ōu shall have a pōrtion.

25 And by the border of Sīm'e-ōn, from the east side unto the west side, Īs'sa-ḡhār a pōrtion.

26 And by the border of Īs'sa-ḡhār, from the east side unto the west side, Zēb'u-lōn a pōrtion.

27 And by the border of Zēb'u-lōn, from the east side unto the west side, Gād a pōrtion.

28 And by the border of Gād, at the south side south'ward, the border shall be even from Tā'nār unto the waters of strife in Kā'dēsh, and to the river to'ward the great sea.

29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Īs'ra-ēl for inheritance, and these are their pōrtions, saith the Lord God.

30 ¶ And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred mēas'ures.

31 And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Īs'ra-ēl: three gates nōrth'ward; one gate of Reu'bēn, one gate of Jū'dāh, one gate of Lēvī.

32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Jō'sēph, one gate of Bēn'ja-mīn, one gate of Dān.

33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred mēas'ures: and three gates; one gate of Sīm'e-ōn, one gate of Īs'sa-ḡhār, one gate of Zēb'u-lōn.

34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gād, one gate of Āsh'er, one gate of Nāph'ta-hi.

35 It was round ābout' eighteen thousand mēas'ures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The Lord is there.

¶ The BOOK of DAN'IEL.

CHAPTER I.

IN the third year of the reign of Jē-hōi'a-kīm king of Jū'dāh came Nēb-ū-ḡhād-nēz'zār king of Bāb'y-lōn unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Jē-hōi'a-kīm king of Jū'dāh into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shī'nār, to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the trēas'ure-house of his god.

3 And the king spake unto Āsh'pe-nāz the māster of his eū'nūchs, that he should bring cēr'tain of the children of Īs'ra-ēl, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children in whom was no blemish, but well-favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the lēar'ning and the tōngue of the Chāl-dē'ānṡ.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank; so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now āmong these wēre of the children of Jū'dāh, Dān'i-el,¹ Hān-a-ni'āh, Mish'a-ēl, and Āz-a-ri'āh;

7 Unto whom the prince of the eū'nūchs gave names: for he gave unto Dān'i-ēl, the name of Bēl-te-shāz'zār; and to Hān-a-ni' āh, of Shā'drāḡh; and to Mish'a-ēl, of Mē'shāḡh; and to Āz-a-ri'āh, of Ā-bēd'ne-gō.

8 But Dān'i-ēl purposed in his hēart that he would not defile himself with the pōrtion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: thēre'fōre he requested of the prince of the eū'nūchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God had brought Dān'i-ēl into favour and tender love with the prince of the eū'nūchs.

10 And the prince of the eū'nūchs said unto Dān'i-ēl, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endānger my head to the king?

11 Then said Dān'i-ēl to Mēl'zār, whom the prince of the eū'nūchs had set over Dān'i-ēl, Hān-a-ni'āh, Mish'a-ēl, and Āz-a-ri'āh, 12 Prove thy sērvants, I beseech thee ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the pōrtion of the king's meat; and as thou seest, deal with thy sērvants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Mēl/zār took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse.

17 As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all lēar/nīng and wisdom: and Dān/i-ēl had understanding in all vīšions and dreams.

18 Now, at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eū/nūchs brought them in before Nēb-ū-chād-nēz/zār.

19 And the king communed with them: and among them all was found none like Dān/i-ēl, Hān-a-nī'āh, Mish'a-ēl, and Āz-a-rī'āh: thērē/fore stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that wēre in all his realm.

21 And Dān/i-ēl continued even unto the first year of king Cŷ'rūs.

CHAP. II.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz/zār, Nēb-ū-chād-nēz/zār dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

2 Then the king cōmmān'ded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Čhāl-dē'ānš, for to show the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Čhāl-dē'ānš to the king in Sŷr/i-āck, O king, live for ever: tell thy sērvants the dream, and we will show the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Čhāl-dē'ānš, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the ĩntēprētā'tion thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill:

6 But if ye show the dream, and the ĩntēprētā'tion thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts, and rewards, and great hōn'our: thērē/fore show me the dream and the ĩntēprētā'tion thereof.

7 They answered āgain', and said, Let the king tell his sērvants the dream, and we will show the ĩntēprētā'tion of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of cēr'tainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you; for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me till the time be changed; thērē/fore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can show me the ĩntēprētā'tion thereof.

10 The Čhāl-dē'ānš answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter:

thērē/fore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Čhāl-dē'ān.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth; and there is none other that can show it before the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and cōmmān'ded to destrōy' all the wise men of Bāb'y-lōn.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Dān/i-ēl and his fellows to be slain.

14 Then Dān/i-ēl answered with counsel and wisdom to Ā'r'i-čēh the cāp'tain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Bāb'y-lōn:

15 He answered and said to Ā'r'i-čēh the king's cāp'tain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Ā'r'i-čēh made the thing known to Dān/i-ēl.

16 Then Dān/i-ēl went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would show the king the ĩntēprētā'tion.

17 Then Dān/i-ēl went to his house, and made the thing known to Hān-a-nī'āh, Mish'a-ēl, and Āz-a-rī'āh, his companions:

18 That they would desire mēr'cies of the God of heaven cōncērning this secret, that Dān/i-ēl and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Bāb'y-lōn.

19 Then was the secret revealed unto Dān/i-ēl in a night vīšion. Then Dān/i-ēl blēss'ed the God of heaven.

20 Dān/i-ēl answered and said, Blēss'ed be the name of God for ever and ever; for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he chāngeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 Thērē/fore Dān/i-ēl went in unto Ā'r'i-čēh, whom the king had ordained to destrōy' the wise men of Bāb'y-lōn: he went and said thus unto him, Dēstrōy' not the wise men of Bāb'y-lōn: bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the ĩntēprētā'tion.

25 Then Ā'r'i-čēh brought in Dān/i-ēl before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Jū'dāh that will make known unto the king the ĩntēprētā'tion.

26 The king answered, and said to Dān-i-ēl, whose name was Bēl-te-shāz/zār, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the intērpertā'tion thereof?

27 Dān'i-ēl answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demān'ded, cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, show unto the king;

28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29 (As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed what should come to pass hereafter; and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass:

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the intērpertā'tion to the king, and that thou mightst know the thoughts of thy heart;)

31 Thou, O king, sawest, and, behold, a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and the form thereof was terrible.

32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass.

33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet, that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mōun'tain, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dream; and we will tell the intērpertā'tion thereof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom, inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes part of potter's clay and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, for-asmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay; so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mōun'tain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the intērpertā'tion thereof sure.

46 Then the king Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār fell upon his face, and worshipped Dān'i-ēl, and commān'ded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Dān'i-ēl, and said, Of a truth it is that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldst reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Dān'i-ēl a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Bāb'y-lōn, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Bāb'y-lōn.

49 Then Dān'i-ēl requested of the king, and he set Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō, over the affairs of the province of Bāb'y-lōn: but Dān'i-ēl sat in the gate of the king.

CHAP. III.

NEBUCHADNEZ/ZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dūrā, in the province of Bāb'y-lōn.

2 Then Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the cāp'tains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and cāp'tains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār had set up.

4 Then a herald cried aloud, To you it is commān'ded, O people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psāltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and wór'ship the golden image that Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār the king hath set up :

6 And whoso falleth not down and wór'shippeth, shall the same hour be cāst into the midst of a burning fiery fūr'nace.¹

7 There fore at that time, when all the people hēard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psāltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and wór'shipped the golden image that Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār the king had set up.

8 Wherefore at that time cēr'tain Ḥāl-dē'ānš came near and accused the Jews.

9 They spake, and said to the king Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār, O king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psāltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and wór'ship the golden image :

11 And whoso falleth not down and wór'shippeth, that he should be cāst into the midst of a burning fiery fūr'nace.

12 There àre cēr'tain Jews, whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Bāb'y-lōn, Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō : these men, O king, have not regarded thee ; they sērve not thy gods, nor wór'ship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 Then Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār, in his rage and fury, cōmmānded to bring Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār spake, and said unto them, Is it true, O Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō? do not ye sērve my gods, nor wór'ship the golden image which I have set up ?

15 Now, if ye be ready, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psāltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and wór'ship the image which I have made, well : but if ye wór'ship not, ye shall be cāst the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery fūr'nace : and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands ?

16 Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō, ānswered and said to the king, O Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār, we àre not careful to ānswer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God, whom we sērve, is able to deliver us from the burning fiery fūr'nace ; and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not sērve thy gods, nor wór'ship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 Then was Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed āgainst' Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō : there'fore he spake, and cōmmānded that they should heat the fūr'nace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he cōmmānded the most mighty men that wēre in his army to bind Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-go, and to cāst them into the burning fiery fūr'nace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other gārments, and wēre cāst into the midst of the burning fiery fūr'nace.

22 There'fore, because the king's cōmmānd'ment was urgent, and the fūr'nace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō.

23 And these three men, Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery fūr'nace.

24 Then Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār the king was astonish'd,² and rose up in haste, and spake and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cāst three men bound into the midst of the fire? They ānswered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He ānswered and said, Lo, I see four men lōose, walk'ing in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt ; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

26 Then Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār came near to the mouth of the burning fiery fūr'nace, and spake, and said, Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-go, ye sērvents of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, góvernors, and cāp'tains, and the king's counsellors, being gāthered togēther, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, nēther wēre their coats chānged, nor the smell of fire had pāssed on them.

28 Then Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz/zār spake and said, Blēs'sed be the God of Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō, who hath sent his āngel, and delivered his sērvents that trusted in him, and have chānged the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not sērve nor wór'ship any god except their own God.

29 There'fore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing āmiss' āgainst' the God of Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill ; because there is no other god that can deliver āfter this sort.

30 Then the king promoted Shā'drāch, Mē'shāch, and Ā-bēd'ne-gō, in the province of Bāb'y-lōn.

CHAP. IV.

NEBUCHADNEZ/ZAR the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the ēarth ; Peace be multiplied unto you.

¹ fūr'nis.

² or astonished.

2 I thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought vō'wōrd me.

3 How great àre his signs! and how mighty àre his wonders! his kingdom is an ēvērlās'ting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'zār was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me àfrāid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 There'fore made I a decree to bring in all the wise mēn of Bāb'y-lōn before me, that they might make known unto me the intērpretā'tion of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chāl-dē'ānš, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the intērpretā'tion thereof.

8 But at the last Dān'i-ēl came in before me, (whose name was Bēl-te-shāz'zār, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods,) and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Bēl-te-shāz'zār, māster of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream hat I have seen, and the intērpretā'tion thereof.

10 Thus wēre the visions of mine head in my bed: I saw, and, behold, a tree in the midst of the ēārth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the ēārth.

12 The leaves thereof wēre fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the fiēld had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a wātcher and a holy one came down from heaven.

14 He cried ālōūd, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get āwāy from under it, and the fowls from his branches.

15 Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the ēārth, even with a band of iron and brāss in the tender grāss of the fiēld; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his pōrtion be with the beasts in the grāss of the ēārth.

16 Let his hēart be chānged from man's, and let a beast's hēart be gīven unto him; and let seven times pāss over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the wātchers, and the dēmānd' by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'zār have seen. Now thou, O Bēl-te-shāz'zār, declare the intērpretā'tion thereof; forasmuch as all the wise mēn of my kingdom àre not able to make known unto me the intērpretā'tion: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Dān'i-ēl, (whose name was Bēl-te-shāz'zār,) was astonished¹ for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake and said, Bēl-te-shāz'zār, let not the dream, or the intērpretā'tion thereof, trouble thee. Bēl-te-shāz'zār answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the intērpretā'tion thereof to thine enemies.

20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the ēārth;

21 Whose leaves wēre fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the fiēld dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the ēārth.

23 And whereas the king saw a wātcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and dēstrōy' it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the ēārth, even with a band of iron and brāss in the tender grāss of the fiēld; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his pōrtion be with the beasts of the fiēld, till seven times pāss over him;

24 This is the intērpretā'tion, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the fiēld, and they shall make thee to eat grāss as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pāss over thee, till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they cōmmānd'ed to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, āfter that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be āc'ceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by showing mērcy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'zār.

29 At the end of twelve mōnth's he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Bāb'y-lōn.

30 The king spake and said, Is not this great Bāb'y-lōn that I have built for the house of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the hōn'our of my māj'esty ?¹

31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz'zār, to thee it is spoken : The kingdom is departed from thee :

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field : they shall make thee to eat grāss as oxen, and seven times shall pāss over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz'zār : and he was driven from men, and did eat grāss as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs wēre grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days I Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz'zār lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me ; and I blēss'ed the Most High ; and I praised and hōnoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an ēv'rlās'ting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation :

35 And all the inhabitants of the ēarth are reputed as nōthing : and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and āmōng the inhabitants of the ēarth ; and nōne can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou ?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me ; and, for the glory of my kingdom, mine hōnour and brightness returned unto me ; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me ; and I was estāblished in my kingdom ; and excellent māj'esty was added unto me.

37 Now I Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz'zār praise and extol and hōnour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment : and those that wālk in pride he is able to ābāse.

CHAP. V.

BELSHAZ'ZAR the king make a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Bēl-shāz'zār, while he tasted the wine, commān'ded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz'zār had taken out of the temple which was in Je-rū'sa-lēm ; that the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that wēre taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Je-rū'sa-lēm ; and the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines drank in them.

4 They drank wine and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brāss, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over āgainst' the candlestick upon the plāster of the wall of the king's palace ; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's countenance was chānged, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins wēre lōosed, and his knees smote one āgainst' ānother.

7 The king cried ālōud to bring in the astrologers, the Ḥāl-dē-ānš, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Bāb'y-lōn, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the intērpētā'tion thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold ābout' his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the intērpētā'tion thereof.

9 Then was king Bēl-shāz'zār greatly troubled, and his countenance was chānged in him, and his lords wēre astonished.²

10 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the bān'quet-house ;³ and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever : let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be chānged :

11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods : and, in the days of thy father, light, and understanding, and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him ; whom the king Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz'zār thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made māster of the magicians, astrologers, Ḥāl-dē-ānš, and soothsayers ;

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, intērp'eting of dreams, and showing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, wēre found in the same Dān'i-ēl, whom the king named Bēl-te-shāz'zār : now let Dān'i-ēl be called, and he will show the intērpētā'tion.

13 Then was Dān'i-ēl brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Dān'i-ēl, Art thou that Dān'i-ēl, which art of the children of the captivity of Jū'dāh, whom the king my father brought out of Jew'ry ?

14 I have even hēard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light, and understanding, and excellent wisdom, is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the intērpētā'tion thereof : but they could not show the intērpētā'tion of the thing :

16 And I have hēard of thee that thou canst make intērpētā'tions and dissolve doubts : now, if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the intērpētā'tion thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold ābout' thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Dän'i-ël answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the intèrpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nēb-ū-ḥād-nēz'zār thy father a kingdom, and māj'esty,¹ and glory, and hōn'our.

19 And, for the māj'esty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive, and whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Bēl-shāz'zār, hast not hūmbl'd thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

25 And this is the writing that was written, ME'NE, ME'NE, TE'KEL, U-PHAR'SIN.

26 This is the intèrpretation of the thing: ME'NE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TE'KEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wān'ting.

28 PE'RES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Mēdes and Pēr'si-ānš.

29 Then cōmman'ded Bēl-shāz'zār, and they clothed Dän'i-ël with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation cōncèr'n'ing him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 ¶ In that night was Bēl-shāz'zār the king of the Chāl-dē'ānš slain.

31 And Da-rī'ūs the Mē'di-ān took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

CHAP. VI.

IT pleased Da-rī'ūs to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these, three presidents, of whom Dän'i-ël was first; that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Dän'i-ël was préfér'ed above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Dän'i-ël cōncèr'n'ing the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Dän'i-ël, except we find it against him cōncèr'n'ing the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Da-rī'ūs live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the cāp'tains, have consulted together to estāb'lish a royal statute, and to make a firm² decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cāst into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, estāb'lish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Mēdes and Pēr'si-ānš, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Da-rī'ūs signed the writing and the decree.

10 Now when Dän'i-ël knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and, his windows being open in his chamber tō'wārd Jē-rū'sa-lēm, he kneeled upon his knees three times a-day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Dän'i-ël praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then they came near, and spake before the king cōncèr'n'ing the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cāst into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Mēdes and Pēr'si-ānš, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they, and said before the king, That Dän'i-ël, which is of the children of the captivity of Jū'dāh, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a-day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeas'd with himself, and set his heart on Dän'i-ël to deliver him; and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Médes and Për'si-ängs is, That no decree nor statute which the king estäblisheth may be changed.

² fērm.

16 Then the king cömmän'ded, and they brought Dän'i-ël, and cäst him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Dän'i-ël, Thy God, whom thou sêrvest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be changed cöncêrning Dän'i-ël.

18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fast'ing: neither wêre instruments of musick brought before him; and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very éarly in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lam'entable voice unto Dän'i-ël; and the king spake and said to Dän'i-ël, O Dän'i-ël, sêrvant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou sêrvest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Dän'i-ël unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his ängel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as befóre him innocency was found in me; and also befóre thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and cömmän'ded that they should take Dän'i-ël up out of the den. So Dän'i-ël was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he bëliêved in his God.

24 And the king cömmän'ded, and they brought those men which had accused Dän'i-ël, and they cäst them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in piêces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Da-ri'üs wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the éarth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear befóre the God of Dän'i-ël; for he is the living God, and stêad'fäst for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destrôy'ed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in éarth, who hath delivered Dän'i-ël from the power of the lions.

28 So this Dän'i-ël prospered in the reign of Da-ri'üs, and in the reign of Cÿ'rüs the Për'si-än.

CHAP. VII.

IN the first year of Bêl-shäz'zär king of Báb'y-lôn, Dän'i-ël had a dream, and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Dän'i-ël spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, di'vêrse one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had eagles' wings: I beheld till the wings thereof wêre plucked, and it was lifted up from the éarth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's héart was given to it.

5 And, behold, änothêr beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 Äfter this I beheld, and lo, änothêr, like a léopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl: the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 Äfter this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in piêces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was di'vêrse from all the beasts that wêre before it; and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up ämong them änothêr little horn, befóre whom there wêre three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn wêre eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 I beheld till the thrones wêre cäst down, and the Än'cient of days did sit, whose gärvment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from befóre him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood befóre him: the judgment was set, and the books wêre opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake; I beheld, even till the beast was slain, and his body destrôy'ed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As cöncêrning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken äwäy: yet their lives wêre prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Än'cient of days, and they brought him near befóre him.

14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should sêrve him: his dominion is an évêrläs'ting dominion, which shall not pass äwäy, and his kingdom that which shall not be destrôy'ed.

15 I Dän'i-ël was griêved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the vīṣions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the int̄rpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom, and possess' the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell: even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against' them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High; and the time came that the saints possess'ed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak great words against' the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand, until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy' it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Dān'i-ēl, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAP. VIII.

IN the third year of the reign of king Bēl-shāz/zār a vīṣion appeared unto me, even unto me Dān'i-ēl, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vīṣion; (and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shū-shān in the palace, which is in the province of E'lām;) and I saw in a vīṣion, and I was by the river of Ū'la-i.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes and saw and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the west, on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against' him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones, toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And a host was given him against' the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vīṣion concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Dān'i-ēl, had seen the vīṣion, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ū'la-i, which called, and said,

Gâ'bri-ël, make this man to understand the vision :

17 So he came near where I stood ; and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face : but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man ; for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face to^ward the ground : but he touched me, and set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation : for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Mē'di-ā and Pēr'si-ā.

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grē'ci-ā : and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power : and he shall destroy^t wōn'dérfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy^t the mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand ; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy^t many : he shall also stand up against^t the Prince of princes ; but he shall be broken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true : wherefore shut thou up the vision ; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Dän'i-ël fainted, and was sick cēr'tain days : aftérward I rose up, and did the king's business ; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAP. IX.

IN the first year of Da-ri'ūs, the son of Ā-hāš-ū-e'rūs, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chāl-dē'ānš ;

2 In the first year of his reign, I Dän'i-ël understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the Lord came to Jêr-ê-mi'āh the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jê-rû'sa-lêm.

3 And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes :

4 And I prayed unto the Lord my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his cōmmand'ments ;

5 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgments :

6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy sêrvants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee ; but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day : to the men of Ju'dāh, and to the inhabitants of Jê-rû'sa-lêm, and unto all Īš'ra-ël, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trê's'päss that they have trê's'pässed against^t thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against^t thee.

9 To the Lord our God belong mē'cies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against^t him :

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his sêrvants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Īš'ra-ël have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice ; thêrê'fore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Mō'sês the sêrvant of God, because we have sinned against^t him.

12 And he hath confirm'ed his words, which he spake against^t us, and against^t our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil : for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jê-rû'sa-lêm.

13 As it is written in the law of Mō'sês, all this evil is come upon us : yet made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Thêrê'fore hath the Lord wâtched upon the evil, and brought it upon us : for the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth : for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Ē'gÿpt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day ; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jê-rû'sa-lêm, thy holy môûn'tain : because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jê-rû'sa-lêm and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about^t us.

17 Now, thêrê'fore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy sêrvant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear ; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name :

for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken, and do; dësér' not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin, and the sin of my people İs'ra-ël, and presenting my supplication before the Lord my God for the holy môûn'tain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gä'bri-ël, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Dän'i-ël, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to show thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy.

25 Know, therefore, and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jê-rû'sa-lêm, unto the Mës-si'äh the Prince, shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again and the wall, even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Mës-si'äh be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined, shall be poured upon the desolate.

CHAP. X.

IN the third year of Cy'rus king of Për'si-ä, a thing was revealed unto Dän'i-ël, whose name was called Bël-te-shäz'zär; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Dän'i-ël was mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hid'de-kël;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded³ with fine gold of Ü'phäz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words, like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Dän'i-ël alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 And, behold, a hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands:

11 And he said unto me, O Dän'i-ël, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Dän'i-ël; for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Për'si-ä withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Mi'cha-ël, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Për'si-ä.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my Lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me,

19 And said, O man, greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee; be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

² ët.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Për'si-ä: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grë'ci-ä shall come.

21 But I will show thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Mi'cha-ël your prince.

CHAP. XI.

ALSO I, in the first year of Da-ri'ús the Mède, even I, stood to cõfirm¹ and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I show thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Për'si-ä; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all ägainst¹ the realm of Grë'ci-ä.

3 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided tö'wärts the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides those.

5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong äbóve him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves toëthér: for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a brãnch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate¹, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal ägainst¹ them, and shall prevail;

8 And shall also carry captives into Ë'gypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall cër'tainly come, and overflow, and pass through; then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken äway the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cãst down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall cër'tainly come äfter cër'tain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up ägainst¹ the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exãlt themselves to estãb'lish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cãst up a mount, and take the most fenced cities; and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh ägainst¹ him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her; but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 Äfter this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many; but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face tö'wärts the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate¹ a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destróy'ed, neither in anger nor in battle.

21 And in his estate¹ shall stand up a vile përsón, to whom they shall not give the hõn'our of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; yëa, also the prince of the cõvenant.

23 And äfter the league made with him he shall work decëitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter ämong them the prey, and spoil, and riches; yëa, and he shall forecãst¹ his devices ägainst¹ the strong holds, even for a time

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south: but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 For the ships of Chit'um shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces; and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even E'dom, and Mo'ab, and the chief of the children of Am'mon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Lib'y-ans and the E-thi-ō'pi-ans shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

CHAP. XII.

AND at that time shall Mi'cha-ël stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Dan'i-ël, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 Then I Dan'i-ël looked, and behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever, that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And he said, Go thy way, Dān'i-ēl; for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

¶ HOSE'A.

CHAPTER I.

THE word of the Lord that came unto Ho-se-ā, the son of Bē-ē-ri, in the days of Ūz-zr'āh, Jō-thām, Ā'hāz, and Hez-e-kī-āh, kings of Jū dāh, and in the days of Jēr-ō-bō'am the son of Jō āsh, king of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

2 The beginning of the word of the Lord by Ho-se-ā. And the Lord said to Ho-se-ā, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the Lord.

3 So he went and took Gō'mēr, the daughter of Dib-la'im; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the Lord said unto him, Call his name Jēz're-ēl; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jēz're-ēl upon the house of Jē hū, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Iṣ'ra-ēl in the valley of Jēz're-ēl.

6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lō-Rū'ha-māh: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl; but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Jū dāh, and will save them by the Lord their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 Now when she had weaned Lō-Rū'ha-māh, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name Lō-ām'mī: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 Yet the number of the children of Iṣ'ra-ēl shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Jū'dāh and the children of Iṣ'ra-ēl be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jēz're-ēl.

CHAP. II.

SAY ye unto your brethren, Ām'mī; and to your sisters, Rū'ha-māh.

2 Plead with your mother, plead; for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her, therefore, put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her path.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Bā'āl.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast-days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines, and her fig-trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards, that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of Bā'al-īm, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD.

14 Thēre'fore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of A'chōr for a door of hope; and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Ē'g'yp't.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me I'shī, and shalt call me no more Bā'al-ī.

17 For I will take away the names of Bā'al-īm out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow, and the sword, and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies:

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness; and thou shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens; and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jēz're-ēl.

23 And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

CHAP. III.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of I's'ra-ēl, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pi'eces of silver, and for a homer of barley, and a half homer of barley.

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days: thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man; so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of I's'ra-ēl shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an eph'od, and without teraphim.

5 Afterward shall the children of I's'ra-ēl return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

CHAP. IV.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of I's'ra-ēl: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God, in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Thēre'fore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest.

5 Thēre'fore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me; thēre'fore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

10 For they shall eat, and not have enough; they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: thēre'fore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots, thēre'fore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, I's'ra-ēl, play the harlot, yet let not Judāh offend; and come not ye unto Gil'gal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For I's'ra-ēl slideth back as a backsliding heifer. now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ē'phra-īm is joined to idols : let him alone.

18 Their drink is sour ; they have committed whoredom continually : her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be āshāmed because of their sār'rifices.

CHAP. V.

HEAR ye this, O priests ; and hearken, ye house of Īš'ra-ēl ; and give ye ear, O house of the king ; for judgment is tō'wārd you, because ye have been a snare on Mīz'pāh, and a net spread upon Tā'bōr.

2 And the revolters āre profound to make slāughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ē'phra-īm, and Īš'ra-ēl is not hid from me : for now, O Ē'phra-īm, thou committest whoredom, and Īš'ra-ēl is defiled.

4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God : for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Īš'ra-ēl dōth testify to his face : thēre'fore shall Īš'ra-ēl and Ē'phra-īm fall in their iniquity ; Jū'dāh also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their hērd's to seek the LORD ; but they shall not find him : he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously āgainst' the LORD ; for they have begotten strānge children : now shall a mōnth devour them with their pōrtions.

8 Blow ye the cornet in Gīb'e-āh, and the trumpet in Rā'māh : cry ālōud at Bēth-ā'vēn, āfter thee, O Bēn ja-mīn.

9 Ē'phra-īm shall be desolate in the day of rebuke : āmōng the tribes of Īš'ra-ēl have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Jū'dāh wēre like them that remove the bound : thēre'fore I will pour out my wṛāth upon them like water.

11 Ē'phra-īm is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly wālked āfter the cōmmānd'ment.

12 Thēre'fore will I be unto Ē'phra-īm as a mōth, and to the house of Jū'dāh as rottenness.

13 When Ē'phra-īm saw his sickness, and Jū'dāh saw his wōund, then went Ē'phra-īm to the Ās-sūr'i-ān, and sent to king Jā'reb : yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wōund.

14 For I will be unto Ē'phra-īm as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Jū'dāh : I, even I, will tear and go āwāy ; I will take āwāy, and nōne shall rescue him.

15 I will go and return to my place till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face ; in their affliction they will seek me ēarly.

CHAP. VI.

COME, and let us return unto the LORD : for he hath torn, and he will heal us :

he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 Āfter two days will he revive us ; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD : his going forth is prepared as the morning ; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the ēarth.

4 O Ē'phra-īm, what shall I do unto thee ? O Jū'dāh, what shall I do unto thee ? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the ēarly dew it goeth āwāy.

5 Thēre'fore have I hewed them by the prophets ; I have slain them by the words of my mouth : and thy judgments āre as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired mērcy, and not sār'fice ; and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

7 But they, like men, have transgressed the cōvenant : there have they dealt treacherously āgainst' me.

8 Gīl'e-ād is a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man so the cōmpany of priests murder in the way by consent : for they commit lewdness.

10 I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Īš'ra-ēl : there is the whoredom of Ē'phra-īm, Īš'ra-ēl is defiled.

11 Also, O Jū'dāh, he hath set a harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAP. VII.

WHEN I would have healed Īš'ra-ēl, then the iniquity of Ē'phra-īm was discovered, and the wickedness of Ša-mā'ri-ā : for they commit falsehood ; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without :

2 And they consider not in their hēarts that I remember all their wickedness : now their own doings have beset them ābout', they āre before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

4 They āre all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising āfter he hath kneaded the dough until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine : he stretched out his hand with scorn.

6 For they have made ready their hēart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait : their baker sleepeth all the night ; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They āre all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges : all their kings āre fallen ; there is nōne āmōng them that call-eth unto me.

8 Ē'phra-īm, he hath mixed himself āmōng the people ; Ē'phra-īm is a cake not turned.

9 Strāngers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not ; yēa, gray hairs āre here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Iš'ra-ël testifieth to his face; and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 Ē'phra-ïm also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Ē'gÿpt, they go to Ās-sÿr'i-ā:

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them as their congregation hath heard.

13 Wo unto them! for they have fled from me; destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds, they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mis'chief against me.

16 They return, but not to the Most High; they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue. This shall be their derision in the land of Ē'gÿpt.

CHAP. VIII.

SET the trumpet to thy mouth: he shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and tres'passed against my law.

2 Iš'ra-ël shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Iš'ra-ël hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me; they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 Thy calf, O Sa-mā'ri-ā, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them; how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Iš'ra-ël was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Sa-mā'ri-ā shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk; the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Iš'ra-ël is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gen'tiles as a vessel wherein is no pleas'ure.

9 For they are gone up to Ās-sÿr'i-ā, a wild ass alone by himself: Ē'phra-ïm hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ē'phra-ïm hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

¹ hwērl'wind.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sac'rifice flesh for the sac'rifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not: now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Ē'gÿpt.

14 For Iš'ra-ël hath forgotten his Mā'ker, and buildeth temples; and Jū'dāh hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAP. IX.

REJOICE not, O Iš'ra-ël, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God; thou hast loved a reward upon every corn-floor.

2 The floor and the wine-press shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the LORD's land; but Ē'phra-ïm shall return to Ē'gÿpt, and they shall eat unclean things in Ās-sÿr'i-ā.

4 They shall not offer wine-offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sac'rifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Ē'gÿpt shall gather them up, Mēm'phis shall bury them: the pleas'ant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompense are come; Iš'ra-ël shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ē'phra-ïm was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Ġib'e-āh: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Iš'ra-ël like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her first time: but they went to Bā'āl-Pe'ōr and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ē'phra-ïm, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth,² and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, wo also to them when I depart from them!

13 Ē'phra-ïm, as I saw Tÿ'rūs, is planted in a plēaſant place: but Ē'phra-īm shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

² bērk.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in Gil'gāl; for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revōlters.

16 Ē'phra-īm is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit; yēa, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the be-lōved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cāst them āwāy, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wānderers āmōng the nations.

CHAP. X.

ISRAEL is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2 Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a cōvenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Sa-mā'ri-ā shall fear because of the calves of Bēth-a'vēn: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Ās-sŷr'i-ā for a present to king Jā'rēb: Ē'phra-īm shall receive shame, and Iš'ra-ël shall be āshamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Sa-mā'ri-ā, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

8 The high places also of Ā'vēn, the sin of Iš'ra-ël, shall be destrōy'ed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars, and they shall say to the mōūn'tāins, Cōver us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Iš'ra-ël, thou hast sinned from the days of Gib'e-ah; there they stood: the battle in Gib'e-ah āgainst the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered āgainst them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ē'phra-īm is as a hēifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ē'phra-īm to ride; Jū'dāh shall plough, and Jā'çōb shall break his clods.

12 Sōw to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mēry, break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have ploughed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity: ye have eaten the fruit of lies; because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Thēre'fore shall a tumult arise āmōng thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shāl'mān spoiled Bēth-ār'bēl in the day of battle: the mōther was dashed in piēces upon her children.

15 So shall Bēth'el do unto you because of your great wickedness; in a morning shall the king of Iš'ra-ël be utterly cut off.

CHAP. XI.

WHEN Iš'ra-ël was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Ē'gŷpt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sār'rifiçed unto Bā'āl-īm, and burned incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ē'phra-īm also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 He shall not return into the land of Ē'gŷpt, but the Ās-sŷr'i-ān shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the sēvōrd shall ābide on his cities, and shall consume his brānches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exālt him.

8 How shall I give thee up, Ē'phra-īm? how shall I deliver thee, Iš'ra-ël? how shall I make thee as Ad'māh? how shall I set thee as Zē-bō'īm? Mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled togēther.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destrōy' Ē'phra-īm: for I am God, and not man; the Hōly One in the midst of thee; and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall wālk āfter the LORD; he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Ē'gŷpt, and as a dove out of the land of Ās-sŷr'i-ā: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ē'phra-īm cōm'pāsseth me ābout' with lies and the house of Iš'ra-ël with decēit; but Jū'dāh yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

CHAP. XII.

E'PHRAIM feedeth on wind, and folloiweth āfter the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a cōvenant with the Ās-sŷr'i-āns, and oil is carried into Ē'gŷpt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Jū'dāh, and will punish Jā'çōb according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 He took his brōther by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God:

4 Yēa, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept and made supplication unto him: he found him in Bēth'ēl, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; The LORD is his memorial.

6 Thērē'fōre turn thou to thy God: keep mērcy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

7 He is a mērchānt, the balances of de-cēt are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

8 And Ē/phra-īm said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find nōne iniquity in me that were sin.

9 And I, that am the LORD thy God from the land of Ē/g̃ypt, will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gil'e-ād? surely they are vanity: they sār'rifīce bullocks in Gil'gāl; yēa, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jā'cōb fled into the country of S̃yri-ā, and Iṣ'ra-ēl sērv'd for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Iṣ'ra-ēl out of Ē/g̃ypt, and by a prophet was he prēsērv'ed.

14 Ē/phra-īm provoked him to anger most bitterly: thērē'fōre shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his LORD return unto him.

CHAP. XIII.

WHEN Ē/phra-īm spake trembling, he exalted himself in Iṣ'ra-ēl; but when he offended in Bā'āl, he died.

2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the crāftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sār'rifīce kiss the calves.

3 Thērē'fōre they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that pāsseth āwāy; as the chāff that is driven with a whirl'wind¹ out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Ē/g̃ypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour besides me.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drōught.

6 According to their pās'tūre,² so wēre they filled; they wēre filled, and their heart was exalted; thērē'fōre have they forgotten me.

7 Thērē'fōre I will be unto them as a lion; as a leopard by the way will I ōbšērv' them.

8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul

1 *hwērl'wōnd.*2 *pās'tshūre.*3 fēr-tree.

of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

9 O Iṣ'ra-ēl, thou hast destrōy'ed thyself; but in me is thine help.

10 I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee and all thy cities? and thy judges, of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

11 I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him āwāy in my wrãth.

12 The iniquity of Ē/phra-īm is bound up; his sin is hid.

13 The sorrows of a trāv'ailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 Though he be fruitful among his brēthren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fōan'tāin shall be dried up: he shall spoil the trēas'ure of all plēas'ant vessels.

16 Sa-mā'ri-ā shall become desolate; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword; and their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

CHAP. XIV.

O ISRAEL, return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thy iniquity.

2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take āwāy all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

3 Ash'ur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; nēither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mērcy.

4 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned āwāy from him.

5 I will be as the dew unto Iṣ'ra-ēl: he shall grow as the lily, and east forth his roots as Lēb'a-nōn.

6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive-tree, and his smell as Lēb'a-nōn.

7 They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lēb'a-nōn.

8 Ē/phra-īm shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and ōbšērv'ed him: I am like a green fir-tree.³ From me is thy fruit found.

9 Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall wālk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

II JOEL.

CHAPTER I.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jōēl, the son of Pē-thū'ēl.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation;

4 That which the pālmer-worm hath left, hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left, hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left, hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awāke, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig-tree; he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; and the branches thereof are made white.

8 Lamēt like a vir'gin¹ girded² with sackcloth for the hūš'bānd of her youth.

9 The meat-offering and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of the LORD: the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 Be ye āshāmed, O ye hūš'bāndmēn; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegrān'āte-tree, the pāl-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves, and lamēt, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat-offering and the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 Sanctify³ ye a fāst, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD,

15 Ā-lās' for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Āl-migh'ty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are pērplēx'ed, because they have no pās'ture;⁴ yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pāstures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pās'tures of the wilderness.

CHAP. II.

BLOW ye the trumpet in Zī'ōn, and sound an ālārm in my holy mōūn'tain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand:

2 A day of darkness, and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mōūn'tains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of E'den⁵ before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape⁶ them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mōūn'tains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained; all faces shall gather blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another, they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the swōrd, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining;

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

⁵ E'd'n.

12 There'fore also now, saith the LORD, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fast'ing, and with weeping, and with mourning;

13 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering, and a drink-offering, unto the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zi'ōn, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts; let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet:

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will answer, and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen.

20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face tō'wārd the cast sea; and his hinder part tō'wārd the utmost sea: and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

21 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zi'ōn, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first mōnth.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the pālmer-worm, my great army, which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of I's'ra-ēl, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 And it shall come to pass after'ward, that I will pour out my Spīr'it upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spīr'it.

30 And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zi'ōn and in Jē-rū'sa-lēm shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

CHAP. III.

FOR, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again' the captivity of Jū'dāh and Jē-rū'sa-lēm,

1 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jē-bōsh'a-phāt, and will plead with them there for my people, and for my heritage I's'ra-ēl, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

2 And they have cast lots for my people: and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

3 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zi'dōn, and all the coasts of Pāl'es-tine? will ye render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompense upon your own head:

4 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleās'ant things.

5 The children also of Jū'dāh, and the children of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, have ye sold unto the Grē'ci-āns, that ye might remove them far from their border.

6 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompense upon your own head:

7 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Jū'dāh, and they shall sell them to the Sabē'aus, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

8 Proclaim ye this among the Ğēn'tiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near, let them come up:

9 Beat your plough-shares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

10 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about'; thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jē-hōsh'a-phāt: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about'.

13 Put ye in the sickle; for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for the wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also shall roar out of Zi'ōn, and utter his voice from Jē-rū'sa-lēm: and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Iṣ'-ra-ēl.

17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zi'ōn, my holy môh'n'tain: then shall Jē-rū'sa-lēm be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the môh'n'tains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Jū'dāh shall flow with waters, and a fōh'n'tain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shīt'tim.

19 Ē'gypt shall be a desolation, and Ē'dōm shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against' the children of Jū'dāh, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Jū'dāh shall dwell for ever, and Jē-rū'sa-lēm from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zi'ōn.

¶ A'MOS.

CHAPTER I.

THE words of Ā'mōs, who was among the herdmen of Tē-kō'ā, which he saw conce'nning Iṣ'ra-ēl in the days of Ūz-zī'āh king of Jū'dāh, and in the days of Jēr-ō-bō'ām the son of Jō'āsh king of Iṣ'ra-ēl, two years before the earth'quake.

2 And he said, The LORD will roar from Zi'ōn, and utter his voice from Jē-rū'sa-lēm; and the habitations of the shēp'hērd's shall mourn, and the top of Çār'mēl shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Da-mās'cūs, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gil'e-ād with threshing-instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hāz'a-ēl, which shall devour the palaces of Bēn'ha-dād.

5 I will break also the bar of Da-mās'cūs, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Ā'ven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Ē'den: and the people of Sÿr'i-ā shall go into captivity unto Kīr,² saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Gā'zā, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Ē'dōm:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gā'zā, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from āsh'dōd, and him that holdeth the sceptre from āsh'ke-lōn; and I will turn mine hand against' Ēk'rōn: and the remnant of the Phi-lis'tines shall perish, saith the LORD God.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Ty'rūs, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Ē'dōm, and remembered not the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Ty'rūs, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Ē'dōm, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear pērpēt'ually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon Tē'mān, which shall devour the palaces of Bōz'rāh.

13 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of the children of Ām'mōn, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gil'e-ād, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rāb'bāh, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirl'wind:³

15 And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD

CHAP. II.

THUS saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Mō'áb, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burnt the bones of the king of Ē'dōm into lime;

³ huēr'l'vēnd.

2 But I will send a fire upon Mō'āb, and it shall devour the palaces of Kir'i-ōth;¹ and Mō'āb shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Jū'dāh, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked;

5 But I will send a fire upon Jū'dāh, and it shall devour the palaces of Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Iṣ'ra-ēl, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek; and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name:

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 Yet destrōy'ed I the Ām'o-rite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destrōy'ed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up from the land of Ēg'gypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Ām'o-rite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nāz'a-rites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Iṣ'ra-ēl? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nāz'a-rites wine to drink; and commān'ded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not.

13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself:

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

CHAP. III.

HEAR this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Iṣ'ra-ēl, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Ēg'gypt, saying,

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

9 Publish in the palaces at Āsh'dōd, and in the palaces in the land of Ēg'gypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mōūn'tains of Sa-mā'ri-ā, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD, As the shēp'hērd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Iṣ'ra-ēl be taken out that dwell in Sa-mā'ri-ā in the corner of a bed, and in Da-mā'scūs in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jā'cōb, saith the Lord God, the God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Iṣ'ra-ēl upon him, I will also visit the altars of Bēth'ēl; and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter-house with the summer-house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

CHAP. IV.

HEAR this word, ye kine of Bā'shān, that are in the mōūn'tain of Sa-mā'ri-ā, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord God hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks.

3 And ye shall go out by the breaches, every one at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 Come to Bēth'ēl and transgress; at Gil'gāl multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years.

5 And offer a sāc'rifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-offerings; for this liketh you, O ye children of Iṣ'ra-ēl, saith the Lord God.

6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

9 I have smitten you with blāst'ing and mildew: when your gardens, and your vineyards,¹ and your fig-trees, and your olive-trees increased, the palmer-worm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence, after the manner of E'gypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sōd'om and Gō-mōr'rāh, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

12 Thērē'fore thus will I do unto thee, O Iṣ'ra-ēl: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Iṣ'ra-ēl.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mōūn'tāins, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The Lord, the God of hosts, is his name.

CHAP. V.

HEAR ye this word which I take up against' you, even a lāmentā'tion, O house of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

2 The vir'gin² of Iṣ'ra-ēl is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord God, The city that went out by a thousand shall leave a hundred, and that which went forth by a hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl.

4 For thus saith the Lord unto the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl, Seek ye me, and ye shall live.

5 But seek not Bēth'ēl, nor enter into Gil'gāl, and pass not to Bē-ēr'she-bā: for Gil'gāl shall surely go into captivity, and Bēth'ēl shall come to nought.

6 Seek the Lord, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Jō'sēph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Bēth'ēl.

7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the seven stars and ō-ri'ōn, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The Lord is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against' the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against' the fortress.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch, thērē'fore, as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted plēas'ant vine'yards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Thērē'fore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the Lord, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and estāb'lish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Jō'sēph.

16 Thērē'fore the Lord, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus, Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the high-ways, Ā-lās'! ā-lās'! and they shall call the hūš'bāndman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lāmentā'tion to wailing.

17 And in all vine'yards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the Lord.

18 Wo unto you that desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the Lord be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 I hate, I despise' your feast-days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 Have ye offered unto me sāc'rifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Iṣ'ra-ēl?

¹ vīn'yērdz.

² vēr'jīn.

26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Mō'loch and Çi'ūn your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Da-mās'cūs, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAP. VI.

WO to them that are at ease in Zi'ōn, and trust in the mōūn'tain of Sa-mā'ri-ā, which are named chief of the nation, to whom the house of İs'ra-ël came!

2 Päss ye unto Çäl'neh, and see; and from thence go ye to Ha'māth the great; then go down to Gäth of the Phi-lis'tines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 Ye that put far äway the evil day, and cause the scat of violence to come near;

4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their cōuches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 That chānt to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, like Dā'vid;

6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Jō'sēph.

7 Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the bān'quet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The Lord God hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD, the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jā'çöb, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city, with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to päss, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue; for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD cōmmān'deth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plough there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock.

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, I will raise up ägainst' you a nation, O house of İs'ra-ël, saith the LORD, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Ha'māth unto the river of the wilderness.

CHAP. VII.

THUS hath the Lord God showed unto me; and, behold, he formed gräss-hoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth äfter the king's mowings.

2 And it came to päss, that when they had made an end of eating the gräss of the land, then I said, O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee; by whom shall Jā'çöb ärise? for he is small.

3 The LORD repented for this: it shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord God showed unto me; and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee; by whom shall Jā'çöb ärise? for he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this; This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

7 ¶ Thus he showed me; and, behold, the LORD stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Ä'mös, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the LORD, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people İs'ra-ël: I will not ägain' päss by them any more:

9 And the high places of İ'šāaç shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of İs'ra-ël shall be laid waste; and I will rise ägainst' the house of Jër-ö-bö'am with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Äm-a-zī'äh, the priest of Bēth'el, sent to Jër-ö-bö'am king of İs'ra-ël, saying, Ä'mös hath conspired ägainst' thee in the midst of the house of İs'ra-ël; the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Ä'mös saith, Jër-ö-bö'am shall die by the sword, and İs'ra-ël shall surely be led äway captive out of their own land.

12 Also Äm-a-zī'äh said unto Ä'mös, O thou seer, go, flee thee äway into the land of Jü'dāh, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But prophesy not ägain' any more at Bēth'el: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

14 Then änswered Ä'mös, and said to Äm-a-zī'äh, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a hërdman, and a gätherer of sycamore-fruit:

15 And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people İs'ra-ël.

16 Now, therefore, hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not ägainst' İs'ra-ël, and drop not thy word ägainst' the house of İ'šāaç.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Thy wife shall be a harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Oppression is reprovèd.

A/MOS. The tabernacle of Dá'vid restored

Ís'ra-él shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAP. VIII.

THUS hath the Lord God showed unto me: and, behold, a baskèet of summer-fruit.

2 And he said, Ā'mōs, what seest thou? And I said, A baskèet of summer-fruit. Then said the Lord unto me, The end is come upon my people of Ís'ra-él; I will not ágain' páss by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cást them forth with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that swállow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fáil,

5 Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the éph'rah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by decèit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yēa, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The Lord hath sworn by the excellency of Já'cōb, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cást out and drowned, as by the flood of É'gýpt.

9 And it shall come to páss in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the éarth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lámentá'tion; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and báldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a fámine in the land; not a fámine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall wánder from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair vir'gins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that swear by the sin of Sá-má'ri-á, and say, Thy god, O Dán, liveth; and, The manner of Bē-ér'she-bá liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up ágain'.

CHAP. IX.

I SAW the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the lást of them with the swōrd: he that fleeth of them shall not flee áway; and he that éscápeth of them shall not be deliverèd.

2 Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Cár'miel, I will séarch and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I cōmmánd' the sérpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I cōmmánd' the swōrd, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord God of hosts is he that tóucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn; and it shall rise up wholly like a flood, and shall be drowned, as by the flood of É'gýpt.

6 It is he that buildeth his storíes in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the éarth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the éarth; The Lord is his name.

7 Áre ye not as children of the É-thi-ō'pi-ans unto me, O children of Ís'ra-él? saith the Lord. Have not I brought up Ís'ra-él out of the land of É'gýpt, and the Phi-lis'tines from Cāph'tor, and the Sý'r'i-ans from Kir? 2

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord God àre upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destróy' it from off the face of the éarth; saving that I will not utterly destróy' the house of Já'cōb, saith the Lord.

9 For, lo, I will cōmmánd', and I will sift the house of Ís'ra-él ámong all nations, like as corn is sifted in a síeve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the éarth.

10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the swōrd, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

11 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of Dá'vid that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:

12 That they may pōssèss' the remnant of É'dōm, and of all the heathen, which àre called by my name, saith the Lord that doeth this.

13 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the ploughman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the móun'tains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will bring ágain' the captivity of my people of Ís'ra-él, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plánt vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gárdens, and eat the fruit of them.

15 And I will plánt them upon their land, and they shall no more be púllèd up out of their land which I have given them, saith the Lord thy God.

1 OBADI'AH.

THE vision of ōb-a-dī'ah. Thus saith the Lord God cōncér'ning Ē'dōm, We have heard a rumour from the Lord, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

6 How are the things of Ē'sâu searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the Lord, even destroy the wise men out of Ē'dōm, and understanding out of the mount of Ē'sâu?

9 And thy mighty men, O Tē'mān, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Ē'sâu may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy violence against thy brother Jā'cōb, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jē-rū'sa-lēm, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldst not have looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldst thou have rejoiced over the children of Jū'dāh in the day of their destruction; neither shouldst thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldst not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldst not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity:

14 Neither shouldst thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldst thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

15 For the day of the Lord is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee; thy reward shall return upon thine own head,

16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mōu'n'tāin, so shall all the heathen drink continually; yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

17 But upon mount Zī'ōn shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jā'cōb shall possess their possessions.

18 And the house of Jā'cōb shall be a fire, and the house of Jō'sēph a flame, and the house of Ē'sâu for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Ē'sâu: for the Lord hath spoken it.

19 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Ē'sâu; and they of the plain the Phi-lis'tines: and they shall possess the fields of Ē'phra-im, and the fields of Samā'ri-ā; and Bēn'ja-mīn shall possess Gil'e-ād.

20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Iṣ'ra-ēl shall possess that of the Cān'aān-ites, even unto Zār'e-phāth; and the captivity of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, which is in Sēph'a-rād, shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And saviours shall come up on mount Zī'ōn to judge the mount of Ē'sâu; and the kingdom shall be the Lord's.

1 JO'NAH.

CHAPTER I.

NOW the word of the Lord came unto Jō'nāh, the son of Ā-mī'tāi, saying.

2 Arise, go to Nin'e-veh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jō'nāh rose up to flee unto Tār' shish from the presence of the Lord, and went down to Jōp'pā; and he found a ship going to Tār'shish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tār'shish from the presence of the Lord.

4 But the Lord sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners wēre āfrāid, and cried every man unto his god, and cāst forth the wares that wēre in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them : but Jō'nāh was gone down into the sides of the ship ; and he lay, and was fāst āslēep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper ? ārise, call upon thy God, if so he that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cāst lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cāst lots, and the lot fell upon Jō'nāh.

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us. What is thine occupation ? and whence comest thou ? what is thy country ? and of what people art thou ?

9 And he said unto them, I am a Hēbrew ; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then wēre the men exceedingly āfrāid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this ? (for the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be cālm unto us ? (for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.)¹

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cāst me forth into the sea ; so shall the sea be cālm unto you : for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to bring it to the land ; but they could not : for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous āgainst' them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood : for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jō'nāh, and cāst him forth into the sea ; and the sea ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sār'rifīce unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jō'nāh. And Jō'nāh was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAP. II.

THEN Jō'nāh prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me ; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardst my voice.

2 For thou hadst cāst me into the deep, in the midst of theseas ; and the floods cōm' passed me ābout' : all thy billows and thy waves pāssee over me.

4 Then I said, I am cāst out of thy sight ; yet I will look āgain' tōwārd thy holy temple.

5 The waters cōm'pāssee me ābout' even to the soul : the depth closed me round ābout', the weeds wēre wrapped ābout' my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mōun'tāins ; the ēarth with her bars was ābout' me for ever : yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD ; and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that oḅsērve' lying vanities forsake their own mērcy.

9 But I will sār'rifīce unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving ; I will pay that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

10 And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jō'nāh upon the dry land.

CHAP. III.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jō'nāh the second time, saying,

2 ārise, go unto Nīn'e-veh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jō'nāh ārōse, and went unto Nīn'e-veh, āccōrding to the word of the LORD. (Now Nīn'e-veh was an exceeding great city, of three days' jōurney.)

4 And Jō'nāh began to enter into the city a day's jōurney ; and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nīn'e-veh shall be overthrown.

5 So the people of Nīn'e-veh believed God, and proclaimed a fāst, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nīn'e-veh, and he ārōse from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and cōvered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nīn'e-veh, (by the decree of the king and his nobles,) saying, Let neither man nor beast, hērd nor flock, taste any thing ; let them not feed, nor drink water.

8 But let man and beast be cōvered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God : yēa, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn āwāy from his fierce anger, that we perish not ?

10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way ; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them ; and he did it not.

CHAP. IV.

BUT it displeased Jō'nāh exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying when I was yet in my country? Thēre'fore I fled before unto Tār'shīsh : for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and mē'r'cifūl, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Thēre'fore, now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me : for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jō'nāh went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a bōōth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the Lord God prepared a gōurd, and made it to come up over Jō'nāh, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jō'nāh was exceedingly glad of the gōurd.

7 But God prepared a worm, when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gōurd that it withered.

8 And it came to pās, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vèhement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jō'nāh, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jō'nāh, Doest thou well to be angry for the gōurd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gōurd, for the which thou hast not laboured, nēither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I spare Nīn'e-vēh, that great city, wherein are more than six-score thousand pērsōns that cannot dī'scērn between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

II MI'CAH.

CHAPTER I.

THE word of the LORD that came to Mī'cāh the Mō'rās-thīte, in the days of Jō'thām, Ā'hāz, and Hēz-ē-kī'āh, kings of Jū'dāh, which he saw cōncērn'ng Sa-mā'ri-ā and Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

2 ¶ Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord God be witness āgainst' you, the LORD on his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mōūntāins shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jā'çōb is all this, and for the sins of the house of Īs'ra-ēl. What is the transgression of Jā'çōb? is it not Sa-mā'ri-ā? and what are the high places of Jū'dāh? are they not Jē-rū'sa-lēm?

6 Thēre'fore I will make Sa-mā'ri-ā as a heap of the field, and as plānt'ings of a vīne'yard:¹ and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to piēces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gāthered it of the hire of a harlot, and they shall return to the hire of a harlot.

8 Thēre'fore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.

9 For her wōūnd is incurable; for it is come unto Jū'dāh: he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

10 Declare ye it not at Gāth, weep ye not at all: in the house of Āph'rāh roll thy self in the dust.

11 Pās ye āwāy, thou inhabitant of Sāph'ir, having thy shame naked; the inhabitant of Zā'a-nān came not forth in the mourning of Bēth-ē'zēl; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Mā'rōth waited carefully for good; but evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

13 O thou inhabitant of Lā'çhish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zī'ōn; for the transgressions of Īs'ra-ēl were found in thee.

14 Thēre'fore shalt thou give presents to Mō'rēsh-ēth-Gāth; the houses of Āçh'zīb shall be a lie to the kings of Īs'ra-ēl.

15 Yet will I bring an heir² unto thee, O inhabitant of Ma-rē'shāh: he shall come unto Ā-dūl'lām the glory of Īs'ra-ēl.

16 Make thee bald, and pōll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

CHAP. II.

WO to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them āwāy: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Thēre'fore thus saith the LORD, Behold, āgainst' this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

¹ are.

4 In that day shall one take up a parable against' you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled; he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 Prophecy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them that they shall not take shame.

7 O thou that art named The house of Ja'cob, is the Spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men adverse' from war.

9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy' you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man, walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine, and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely assemble, O Ja'cob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Is'ra-el; I will put them together as the sheep of Böz'rah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their King shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAP. III.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Ja'cob, and ye princes of the house of Is'ra-el; is it not for you to know judgment?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them; he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace: and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against' him:

9 Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; yea, they shall all cover their lips: for there is no answer of God.

8 But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Ja'cob his transgression, and to Is'ra-el his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Ja'cob, and princes of the house of Is'ra-el, that abhor judgment, and pervert' all equity.

10 They build up Zi'on with blood, and Je-rüs-sa-lém with iniquity.

11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore shall Zi'on for your sake be ploughed as a field; and Je-rüs-sa-lém shall become heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

CHAP. IV.

BUT in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Ja'cob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zi'on, and the word of the LORD from Je-rüs-sa-lém.

3 And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plough shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against' nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 But they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zi'on from henceforth, even for ever.

8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zi'on, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the king^{dom} shall come to the daughter of Jē-rà'sa-lēm.

9 Now why dost thou cry out álòud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in tráv'ail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zí'ôn, like a woman in tráv'ail; for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Báb'y-lôn; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zí'ôn.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 Árîše and thresh, O daughter of Zí'ôn; for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs bráss; and thou shalt beat in pièces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAP. V.

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they shall smite the Judge of Iſ'ra-ël with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou, Bēth'le-hēm Eph'ra-tàh, though thou be little among the thousands of Jūdáh, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Iſ'ra-ël; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlásting.

3 Thèrefore will he give them up, until the time that she which tráv'aileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brēthren shall return unto the children of Iſ'ra-ël.

4 And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the māj'esty¹ of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man shall be the peace, when the Ās-sŷr'i-án shall come into our land; and, when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shép'hérds, and eight principal men.

6 And they shall waste the land of Ās-sŷr'i-ā with the sword, and the land of Ním'rōd in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Ās-sŷr'i-án, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jā'çöb shall be in the midst of many people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the græss, that tarieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 And the remnant of Jā'çöb shall be among the Gēn'tiles in the midst of many people, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, both treadeth down and teareth in pièces, and none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine ad'versaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pæss in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destróy^t thy chariots:

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers:

13 Thy graven images also will I cut off; and thy standing images, out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more wór'ship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destróy^t thy cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

CHAP. VI.

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith, Árîše, contend thou before the môûn'tains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O môûn'tains, the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Iſ'ra-ël.

3 O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 For I brought thee up out of the land of E'gŷpt, and redeemed thee out of the house of sérvants; and I sent before thee Mō'sēs, Aá'rōn, and Mir'i-ám.²

5 O my people, remember now what Bālák king of Mō'áb consulted, and what Bālám the son of Bē'ór answered him from Shít'im unto Gil'gál; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

6 Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow mysēlf before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what dóth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mērcy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rōd, and who hath appointed it.

10 Are there yet the tréas'ures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant mēas'ure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

² Mēr'e-ám.

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 For the statutes of Om'ri are kept, and all the works of the house of A'hah, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof a hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

CHAP. VII.

WO is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer-fruits, as the grape-gleanings of the vine: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the first-ripe fruit.

2 The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier; the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watching and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

2 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the Lord thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also he shall come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mount-tain to mount-tain.

13 Notwithstanding, the land shall be desolate, because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I show unto him marvellous things.

16 The nations shall see, and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of thee.

18 Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities: and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20 Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

II NAHUM.

CHAPTER I.

THE burden of Niniveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 God is jealous, and the Lord revengeth; the Lord revengeth, and is furious:

the Lord will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the Lord hath his way in the whirl¹ wind¹ and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bā'shān languisheth, and Čar'mēl, and the flower of Lēb'a-nōn languisheth.

5 The mōū'tains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burnt at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The Lord is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an over-running flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against' the Lord? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee that imagineth evil against' the Lord, a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the Lord, Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the Lord hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image, and the molten image; I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the mōū'tains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Jūdāh, keep thy solemn feasts, pērfōrm' thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

CHAP. II.

HE that dasheth in piēces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, wātch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the Lord hath turned away the excellency of Jā'cōb, as the excellency of Iš'ra-ēl: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir-trees² shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against' another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his wōr'thies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 And Hūz'zāb shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nin'e-veh is of old like a pool of water; yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold; for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleās'ant fūr'niture.³

10 She is empty, and void, and waste; and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in piēces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 Behold, I am against' thee, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions; and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAP. III.

WO to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prān'cing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horsemen lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well-favoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am against' thee, saith the Lord of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts⁴ upon thy face, and I will show the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazing-stock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee, shall flee from thee, and say, Nin'e-veh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek cōm'fōrters for thee?

8 Art thou better than populous Nö, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 E-thi-ö'pi-ä and E'gypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Püt and Lü'bin were thy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets; and they cast lots for her hön'ourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like fig-trees with the first-ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brick-kiln.

15 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off; it shall eat thee up like the canker-worm: make thyself many as the canker-worm, make thyself many as the locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worm spoileth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy cäp'tains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day; but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy shép'hérds slumber, O king of Äs-sýr'i-ä; thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people is scattered upon the möun'tains, and no man gathereth them.

19 There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

¶ HAB'AKKUK.

CHAPTER I.

THE burden which Háb'ak-kük the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou show me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment dóth never go forth: for the wicked dóth cóm'pass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 ¶ Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously; for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, I raise up the Chäl-dé'än, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess¹ the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopard's,² and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 Art thou not from överlās'ting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast estäb'lished them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag; therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plén'teous.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

5 Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 Wo to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Wo to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Wo unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayst look on their nakedness!

16 Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lēb'a-nōn shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19 Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the LORD is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him.

CHAP. III.

A PRAYER of Hāb'ak-kūk the prophet upon Šhī-gī'o-nōth.¹

2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from Tē'mān, and the Holy One from mount Pā'rān. Sē'lāh. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was as the light, he had horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlastings of mountains were scattered, the perpetually hills did bow: his ways are everlastings.

7 I saw the tents of Čū'shān in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Mīd'i-ān did tremble.

8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses, and thy chariots of salvation?

9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Sē'lāh. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled; the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Sē'lāh.

14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages; they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.

² hwērl'wind.

15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly trembled: my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

17 Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18 Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

19 The Lord God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

II ZEPHANI'AH.

CHAPTER I.

THE word of the Lord which came unto Zēph-ā-nī'āh the son of Cū'shī, the son of Gēd-ā-lī'āh, the son of Ām-ā-rī'āh, the son of Hīz-kī'āh, in the days of Jō-sī'āh the son of Ā'mōn king of Jū'dāh.

2 I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the Lord.

3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea; and the stumbling-blocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the Lord.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Jū'dāh, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerū'sa-lēm; and I will cut off the remnant of Bā'āl from this place, and the name of the Chēm'a-rīms with the priests;

5 And them that wōr'ship the host of heaven upon the house-tops; and them that wōr'ship and that swear by the Lord, and that swear by Māl'chām;

6 And them that are turned back from the Lord; and those that have not sought the Lord, nor inquired for him.

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord God; for the day of the Lord is at hand: for the Lord hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the Lord's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish-gate, and a howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 Howl, ye inhabitants of Māk'tēsh, for all the merchant people are cut down; and all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerū'sa-lēm with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees; that say in their heart, The Lord will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness.

16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the Lord: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

CHAP. II.

GATHER yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired;

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the Lord come upon you, before the day of the Lord's anger come upon you.

3 Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger.

4 For Gā'zā shall be forsaken, and Ash'ke-lōn a desolation: they shall drive out Ash'dōd at the noon-day, and Ek'rōn shall be rooted up.

5 Wo unto the inhabitants of the sea-coasts, the nation of the Chēr'ēth-ites! the word of the Lord is against you; O Čar-nā-ān, the land of the Phi-lis'tines, I will even destrōy' thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea-coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shēp'hērds, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Jū'dāh; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of āsh'ke-lōn shall they lie down in the evening; for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.

8 ¶ I have heard the reproach of Mō'āb, and the revilings of the children of Ām'mōn, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against' their border.

9 Therē'fore, as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Īs'ra-ēl, Surely Mō'āb shall be as Sōd'om, and the children of Ām'mōn as Gō-mōr'rāh, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a pērpēt'ual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess' them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against' the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ Ye Ē-thi-ō'pi-āns also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against' the north, and destrōy' Ās-sūr'i-ā; and will make Nīn'e-veh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar-work.

15 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly: that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

CHAP. III.

WO to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city.

2 She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction: she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God.

3 Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

5 The just LORD is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by; their cities are destrōy'ed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

7 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction: so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

8 Therē'fore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determinā'tion is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

9 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent.

10 From beyond the rivers of Ē-thi-ō'pi-ā my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispērs'ed, shall bring mine offering.

11 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against' me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride; and thou shalt no more be haughty because of mine holy mōān'tain.

12 I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

13 The remnant of Īs'ra-ēl shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

14 ¶ Sing, O daughter of Zī'ōn; shout, O Īs'ra-ēl; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Īs'ra-ēl, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.

16 In that day it shall be said to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, Fear thou not; and to Zī'ōn, Let not thine hands be slack.

17 The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing.

18 I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.

19 Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee; and I will save her that hälteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.

20 At that time will I bring you again', even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

II HAG'GAI.

CHAPTER I.

IN the second year of Da-rî'ûs the king; in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD, by Hâg'ga-i the prophet, unto Ze-rûb'ba-bêl the son of Shê-âl'ti-êl, governor of Jû'dâh, and to Jôsh'u-â the son of Jôs'e-dêch, the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Hâg'ga-i the prophet, saying,

4 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now, thêrê'fore, thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider your ways.

6 Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none wârm; and he that êarneth wages, êarneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the môûn'tain and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take plêas'ure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Thêrê'fore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the êarth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I called for a drôûght upon the land, and upon the môûn'tains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ¶ Then Ze-rûb'ba-bêl the son of Shê-âl'ti-êl, and Jôsh'u-â the son of Jôs'e-dêch, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Hâg'ga-i the prophet, (as the LORD their God had sent him,) and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Hâg'ga-i, the LORD's messenger, in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Ze-rûb'ba-bêl the son of Shê-âl'ti-êl, governor of Jû'dâh, and the spirit of Jôsh'u-â the son of Jôs'e-dêch, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came, and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, 15 In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Da-rî'ûs the king.

CHAP. II.

IN the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Hâg'ga-i, saying,

2 Speak now to Ze-rûb'ba-bêl the son of Shê-âl'ti-êl, governor of Jû'dâh, and to Jôsh'u-â the son of Jôs'e-dêch, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

3 Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 Yet now be strong, O Ze-rûb'ba-bêl, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Jôsh'u-â son of Jôs'e-dêch, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Êgypt, so my Spîr'it remaineth among you: fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

7 And I will shake all nations, and the Desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Da-rî'ûs, came the word of the LORD by Hâg'ga-i the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Ask now the priests cōncêr'nîng the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his gârment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Hâg'ga-i, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Hâg'ga-i, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and ûp'wârd, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD;

16 Since those days wêre, when one came to a heap of twenty mêas'ures, there wêre but ten: when one came to the press-fat, for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there wêre but twenty.

17 I smote you with blāst'ing, and with mildew, and with hail, in all the labours of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from this day and ūp'wārd, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it.

19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yēa, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegrān'ate, and the olive-tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

20 ¶ And āgain' the word of the LORD came unto Hāg'ga-i, in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

21 Speak to Zē-rūb'ba-bēl, governor of Jū'dāh, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms; and I will dēstrōy' the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the swōrd of his brōther.

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zē-rūb'ba-bēl my sēr-vant, the son of Shē-āl'ti-ēl, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

¶ ZECHARI'AH.

CHAPTER I.

IN the eighth month, in the second year of Da-rī'ūs, came the word of the LORD unto Zēḥ-a-rī'āh, the son of Bēr-a-ḥī'āh, the son of Īd'dō the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been sore displeas'd with your fathers.

3 Thēre'fore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But my words and my statutes, which I cōmman'ded my sēr-vants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned, and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sē'bāt, in the second year of Da-rī'ūs, came the word of the LORD unto Zēḥ-a-rī'āh, the son of Bēr-a-ḥī'āh, the son of Īd'dō the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and, behold, a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood āmōng the myrtle-trees that wēre in the bottom; and behind him wēre there red horses, speckled, and white.

9 Then said I, O my Lord, what are these? And the āngel that tākled with me said unto me, I will show thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood āmōng the myrtle-trees, ānswered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to wālk to and fro through the ēarth.

11 And they ānswered the āngel of the LORD that stood āmōng the myrtle-trees, and said, We have wālked to and fro through the ēarth, and, behold, all the ēarth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 Then the āngel of the LORD ānswered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mērcy on Jē-rū'sa-lēm and on the cities of Jū'dāh, āgainst' which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD ānswered the āngel that tākled with me with good words, and cōm'fōrtable words.

14 So the āngel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I am jēalous for Jē-rū'sa-lēm and for Zī'ōn with a great jēalousy.

15 And I am very sore displeas'd with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeas'd, and they helped fōr'wārd the affliction.

16 Thēre'fore thus saith the LORD, I am returned to Jē-rū'sa-lēm with mēr'cies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread ābroād; and the LORD shall yet cōm'fōrt Zī'ōn, and shall yet chōḏse Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

18 ¶ Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, four horns.

19 And I said unto the āngel that tākled with me, What be these? And he ānswered me, These are the horns which have scattered Jū'dāh, Īs'ra-ēl, and Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

20 And the LORD showed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Jū'dāh, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cāst out the horns of the Gēn'tiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Jū'dāh to scatter it.

CHAP. II.

ILIFTED up mine eyes āgain', and looked, and, behold, a man with a mēas'uring-line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To mēasure Jē-rū'sa-lēm, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jē-rū'sa-lēm shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein.

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶ Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thyself, O Zi'ôn, that dwellest with the daughter of Bāb'y-lōn.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you; for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zi'ôn: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall inherit Jū'dāh his portion in the holy land, and shall chōōse Jē-rū'sa-lēm again'.

13 Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

CHAP. III.

AND he showed me Jōsh'u-ā the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Sā'tān standing at his right hand to resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Sā'tān, The LORD rebuke thee, O Sā'tān; even the LORD that hath chosen Jē-rū'sa-lēm rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

3 Now Jōsh'u-ā was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Jōsh'u-ā, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

8 Hear now, O Jōsh'u-ā the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at; for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, The BRANCH.

9 For, behold, the stone that I have laid before Jōsh'u-ā; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig-tree.

CHAP. IV.

AND the angel that talked with me came again' and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps which were upon the top thereof;

3 And two olive-trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof;

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zē-rūb'ba-bēl, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spīr'it, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, O great mōū'tain? before Zē-rūb'ba-bēl thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the head-stone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace, unto it.

8 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zē-rūb'ba-bēl have laid the foundation of this house, his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zē-rūb'ba-bēl with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive-trees upon the right side of the candlestick, and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again', and said unto him, What are these two olive-branches, which, through the two golden pipes, empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAP. V.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth; for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side, according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an eph'ah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the eph'ah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the eph'ah, and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; (for they had wings like the wings of a stork;) and they lifted up the eph'ah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the eph'ah?

11 And he said unto me, To build it a house in the land of Shí'nár; and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

CHAP. VI.

AND I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mōûn'tains; and the mōûn'tains were mōûn'tains of brass.

2 In the first chariot were red horses, and in the second chariot black horses,

3 And in the third chariot white horses, and in the fourth chariot grizzled and bay horses.

4 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.

1 Jé-dá'yáh.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country: and the white go forth after them; and the grizzled go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go, that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get ye hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

9 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Hé'l'da-i, of Tô-bí'jáh, and of Jé-dá'i'áh,¹ which are come from Báb'y-lôn, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Jô-sí'áh the son of Zéph-a-ní'áh;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Jôsh'u-á the son of Jôs'e-dêch, the high priest;

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Behold the man, whose name is The BRANCH: and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the Lord:

13 Even he shall build the temple of the Lord; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be to Hé'lém and to Tô-bí'jáh, and to Jé-dá'i'áh,¹ and to Hên the son of Zéph-a-ní'áh, for a memorial in the temple of the Lord.

15 And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the Lord; and ye shall know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the Lord your God.

CHAP. VII.

AND it came to pass, in the fourth year of king Da-ri'ús, that the word of the Lord came unto Zéch-a-ri'áh in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chîs'leû;

2 When they had sent unto the house of God, Shê-rêzér and Sê-gém'me-lêch,² and their men, to pray before the Lord,

3 And to speak unto the priests which were in the house of the Lord of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did

2 g hard.

drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Je-rú'sa-lém was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zech-a-ri'áh, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and show mércy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his Spí'rít by the former prophets: thêrê'fóre came a great wra'th from the LORD of hosts.

13 Thêrê'fóre it is come to pass, that, as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 But I scattered them with a whirl-wind among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned; for they laid the pleas'ant land desolate.

CHAP. VIII.

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I was jealous for Zi'ón with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD, I am returned unto Zi'ón, and will dwell in the midst of Je-rú'sa-lém; and Je-rú'sa-lém shall be called, A city of truth; and the môûn'tain of the LORD of hosts, The holy môûn'tain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Je-rú'sa-lém, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in my eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Je-rú'sa-lém; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which wêre in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in, because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye wêre a curse among the heathen, O house of Jû'dáh, and house of Ís'ra-él; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wra'th, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not;

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Je-rú'sa-lém, and to the house of Jû'dáh: fear ye not.

16 These are the things that ye shall do, Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Jû'dáh joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts: thêrê'fóre love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I will go also.

22 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Je-rú'sa-lém, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold, out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you; for we have heard that God is with you.

CHAP. IX.

THE burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hā'drāḥ, and Da-mās'cūs shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Īṣ'ra-ēl, shall be tō'wārd the LORD.

2 And Hā'māth also shall border thereby; Tŷ'rūs, and Zī'dōn, though it be very wise.

3 And Tŷ'rūs did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the LORD will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Āsh'ke-lōn shall see it, and fear; Gā'zā also shall see it, and be very sorrowful; and Ēk'rōn, for her expectation, shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gā'zā, and Āsh'ke-lōn shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell in Āsh'dōd; and I will cut off the pride of the Phi-lis-tines.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God; and he shall be as a governor in Jū'dāh, and Ēk'rōn as a Jēb'u-site.

8 And I will encamp about' mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth; and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zī'ōn; shout, O daughter of Jē-rū'sa-lēm: behold, thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an āss, and upon a colt the foal of an āss.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ē'phra-īm, and the horse from Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen; and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn ye to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare, that I will render double unto thee;

13 When I have bent Jū'dāh for me, filled the bow with Ē'phra-īm, and raised up thy sons, O Zī'ōn, against' thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling-stones: and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! Corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAP. X.

ASK ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shep-herd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against' the shep-herds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Jū'dāh, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle-bow out of him every oppressor together.

5 And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Jū'dāh, and I will save the house of Jō'sēph, and I will bring them again' to place them: for I have mercy upon them; and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

7 And they of Ē'phra-īm shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

9 And I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries: and they shall live with their children, and turn again'.

10 I will bring them again' also out of the land of Ē'gypt, and gather them out of Ās-sŷ'r'i-ā; and I will bring them into the land of Gil'e-ād and Lēb'a-nōn, and place shall not be found for them.

11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up; and the pride of Ās-sŷ'r'i-ā shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Ē'gypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XI.

OPEN thy doors, O Lēb'a-nōn, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

The destruction of Jē-rū'sa-lēm. ZECHARIAH. She is a cup of trembling to herself.

2 Howl, fir-tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bā'shān; for the forest of the vīn'tage is come down.

3 There is a voice of the howling of the shēp'hérds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jōr'dān is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God, Feed the flock of the slaughter,

5 Whose pūssēs/souls slay them, and hold themselves not guilty; and they that sell them say, Blēs'sed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shēp'hérds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD; but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two stāves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands: and I fed the flock.

8 Three shēp'hérds also I cut off in one mōnth; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

10 And I took my stāff, even Beauty, and cut it āsūn'der, that I might break my cōvenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pièces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cāst it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prized at of them. And I took the thirty pièces of silver, and cāst them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut āsūn'der mine other stāff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Jū'dāh and Īṣ'ra-ēl.

15 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shēp'hérd:

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shēp'hérd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still; but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pièces.

17 Wo to the idol shēp'hérd that leaveth the flock! the sicōrd shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

CHAP. XII.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Īṣ'ra-ēl, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jē-rū'sa-lēm a cup of trembling unto all the people round about; when they shall be in the siege both against Jū'dāh and against Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

3 And in that day will I make Jē-rū'sa-lēm a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Jū'dāh, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governors of Jū'dāh shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 In that day will I make the governors of Jū'dāh like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jē-rū'sa-lēm shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Jū'dāh first, that the glory of the house of Dā'vīd, and the glory of the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm do not magnify themselves against Jū'dāh.

8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as Dā'vīd; and the house of Dā'vīd shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

10 And I will pour upon the house of Dā'vīd, and upon the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jē-rū'sa-lēm, as the mourning of Hā'dād-Rim'mōn in the valley of Mē-gīd'dōn.

12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of Dā'vīd apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nā'thān apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Lē'vī apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shīm'e-ī apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAP. XIII.

IN that day there shall be a fōun'tain opened to the house of Dā'vīd, and to the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, for sin and for uncleanness.

2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied: neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive:

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am a hūs'bāndmān; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against my Shēp'hērd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the Shēp'hērd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off, and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

CHAP. XIV.

BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Jē-rû'sa-lēm to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jē-rû'sa-lēm on the east; and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley: and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto A'zāl: yēa, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Ūz-zī'āh king of Jū'dāh; and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening-time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jē-rû'sa-lēm; and half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as a plain, from Gē'bā to Rīm'mōn, south of Jē-rû'sa-lēm: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Bēn'ja-mīn's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Ha-nān'e-ēl unto the king's wine-presses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Jē-rû'sa-lēm shall be safely inhabited.

12 And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jē-rû'sa-lēm; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And Jū'dāh also shall fight at Jē-rû'sa-lēm: and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jē-rû'sa-lēm, shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jē-rû'sa-lēm to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

18 And if the family of E'gypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain, there shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the punishment of E'gypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HO'LINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, every pot in Jê-rû'sa-lêm, and in Jû'dâh, shall be Hô'li-nêss unto the LORD of hosts; and all they that sâc'rifice shall come and take of them, and see the therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Cån'aân-ite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

II MAL'ACHI.

CHAPTER I.

THE burden of the word of the LORD unto Iſ'ra-el by Mâl'a-çhi.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not E'sâu Ja çöb's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Ja çöb,

3 And I hated E'sâu, and laid his môûn'tains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas E'dôm saith, We are empoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Iſ'ra-ël.

6 A son hön'oureth his father, and a sêrvant his mâster: if then I be a father, where is mine hön'our? and if I be a mâster, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blind for sâc'rifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy gôvêrnor: will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy pèrson? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your pèrsons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no plêas'ure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gên'tiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts: and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sâc'rificeth unto the LORD a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAP. II.

AND now, O ye priests, this cômmand'ment is for you.

2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts, and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this cômmand'ment unto you, that my côvénant might be with Lè'vi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My côvénant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the côvénant of Lè'vi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law.

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the côvénant of our fathers?

11 Jû'dâh hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Iſ'ra-ël and in Jê-rû'sa-lêm: for Jû'dâh hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the mâster and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Ja çöb, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good-will at your hand.

14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the Spīr'it. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the God of Iš'ra-ël saith, that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts; therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 Ye have wearied the LORD with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

CHAP. III.

BEHOOLD, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:

3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Lē'vi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offerings of Jū'dāh and Jē-rū'sa-lēm be pleās'ant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jā'çöb are not consumed.

7 Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 Will a man rob God? yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? in tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD: yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee.

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another; and the LORD hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD and that thought upon his name.

17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

CHAP. IV.

FOR, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet, in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Remember ye the law of Mō'sēs my servant, which I commanded unto him in Hō'rēb for all Iš'ra-ël, with the statutes and judgments.

5 Behold, I will send you Ē-lī'jah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

CHAPTER I.

THE book of the generation of Jē'sūs Christ, the son of Dā'vīd, the son of Ā'bra-hām.

2 Ā'bra-hām begat Ī'sāac,¹ and Ī'sāac begat Jā'cōb; and Jā'cōb begat Ju'dās and his brēthren;

3 And Ju'dās begat Phā'rēs and Za'rā of Thā'mār; and Phā'rēs begat Ēš'rōm; and Ēš'rōm begat Ā'rām;

4 And Ā'rām begat Ā-mīn'a-dāb; and Ā-mīn'a-dāb begat Nā-āss'on;² and Nā-āss'on begat Sāl'mōn;

5 And Sāl'mōn begat Bō'ōz of Rā'chāb; and Bō'ōz begat Ō'bēd of Rūth;³ and Ō'bēd begat Jēs'se;

6 And Jēs'se begat Dā'vīd the king; and Dā'vīd the king begat Sōl'o-mōn of her that had been⁴ the wife of Ū-rī'ās;

7 And Sōl'o-mōn begat Rō-hō'ām; and Rō-hō'ām begat Ā-bī'ā; and Ā-bī'ā begat Ā'sā;

8 And Ā'sā begat Jōs'a-phāt; and Jōs'a-phāt begat Jō'rām; and Jō'rām begat Ō-zī'ās;

9 And Ō-zī'ās begat Jō'a-thām; and Jō'a-thām begat Ā'chāz; and Ā'chāz begat Ēz-e-kī'ās;

10 And Ēz-e-kī'ās begat Ma-nās'ses; and Ma-nās'ses begat Ā'mōn; and Ā'mōn begat Jō-sī'ās;

11 And Jō-sī'ās begat Jēch-o-nī'ās and his brēthren, ābout the time they wēre carried āway to Bāb'y-lōn;

12 And āfter they wēre brought to Bāb'y-lōn, Jēch-o-nī'ās begat Sa-lā'thi-ēl; and Sa-lā'thi-ēl begat Zō-rōb'āb-ēl;

13 And Zō-rōb'āb-ēl begat Ā-bī'ūd; and Ā-bī'ūd begat Ē-lī'a-kīm; and Ē-lī'a-kīm begat Ā'zōr;

14 And Ā'zōr begat Sā'dōc; and Sā'dōc begat Ā'chīm; and Ā'chīm begat Ē-lī'ūd;

15 And Ē-lī'ūd begat Ē-le-ā'zār; and Ē-le-ā'zār begat Māt'thān; and Māt'thān begat Jā'cōb.

16 And Jā'cōb begat Jō'sēph the hūs'bānd of Mā'ry, of whom was born Jē'sūs, who is callēd Christ.

17 So all the generations from Ā'bra-hām to Dā'vīd āre fourteen generations; and from Dā'vīd until the carryng āway into Bāb'y-lōn āre fourteen generations; and from the carryng āway into Bāb'y-lōn unto Christ āre fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth⁵ of Jē'sūs Christ was on this wise: When as his mōher Mā'ry was espōūsed to Jō'sēph, before they came togēther, she was found with child of the Hōly Ghōst.

19 Then Jō'sēph her hūs'bānd, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her āway privily.

20 But, while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Jō'sēph, thou son of Dā'vīd, fear not to take unto thee Mā'ry thy wife; for that which is conceivēd in her is of the Hōly Ghōst.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spokēn of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgīn⁶ shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Ēm-mān'u-ēl, which, being intēpreted, is, God with us.)

24 Then Jō'sēph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took⁷ unto him his wife;

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first⁷ born son: and he callēd his name JESUS.

CHAP. II.

NOW, when Jē'sūs was born in Bēth'le-hēm of Jū-de'ā, in the days of Hēr'od the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jē-rū'sa-lēm,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and āre come to wōr'shīp him.

3 When Hēr'od the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jē-rū'sa-lēm with him.

4 And when he had gāthered all the chief priests and scribes of the people togēther, he dēmānded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said⁸ unto him, In Bēth'le-hēm of Jū-de'ā: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou, Bēth'le-hēm, in the land of Jū'dā, art not the leāst āmong the princes of Jū'dā: for out of thee shall come a Gōv'ēr-nōr, that shall rule my people Īs'ra-ēl.

7 Then Hēr'od, when he had privily callēd the wise men, inquired of them dīlīgently whāt time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bēth'le-hēm, and said, Go, and search dīlīgently for the young child; and, when ye have found him, bring me word āgain,⁹ that I may come and wōr'shīp him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with M'ary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him : and, when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.¹

12 And being warned of God in a dream, that they should not return to Her'od, they departed into their own country another way.

13 ¶ And when they were departed, behold the angel of the Lord appeareth to Jō'seph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into E'gypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word : For Her'od will seek the young child to destroy' him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into E'gypt,

15 And was there until the death of Her'od : that it might be fulfilled which was spoken² of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of E'gypt have I called my son.

16 ¶ Then Her'od, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Beth'le-hem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jer'e-my the prophet, saying,

18 In Ra'mā was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Ra'chēl³ weeping far her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Her'od was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Jō'seph in E'gypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Is'ra-ēl ; for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Is'ra-ēl.

22 But when he heard that Ar-che-lā'ūs did reign in Jū-dē'ā in the room of his father Her'od, he was afraid to go thither : notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Gāl'i-lēe :

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nāz'a-rēth : that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nāz'a-rēne'.

CHAP. III.

IN those days came Jōhn the Bap'tist, preaching in the wilderness of Jū-dē'ā,

2 And saying, Repent ye : for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet E-sā'i-ās,⁴ saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same Jōhn had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern gir'dle,⁵ about his loins ; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 ¶ Then went out to him Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and all Jū-dē'ā, and all the region round about Jōr'dān,

6 And were baptized of him in Jōr'dān, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Phār'i-sēes and Sād'du-cēes come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers ! who hath warned you to flee from the wroth to come ?

8 Bring forth, therefore, fruits meet for repentance .

9 And think not to say, within yourselves, We have A'bra-hām to our father : for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto A'bra-hām.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees : therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance ; but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear : he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghōst, and with fire :

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner ; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jē'sūs from Gāl'i-lēe to Jōr'dān unto Jōhn, to be baptized of him.

14 But Jōhn forbade' him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me ?

15 And Jē'sūs answered, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now : for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righ'teousness.⁶ Then he suffered him.

16 And Jē'sūs, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water : and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spir'it of God descēnd'ing like a dove, and lighting upon him :

17 And, lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAP. IV.

THEN was Jē'sūs led up of the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward a hungered.

3 And when the tempter came to him,

1 mēr. 2 spō'h'n. 3 Rā'tshēl. 4 E-sā'yūs. 5 gēr'dl. 6 rit'she-ūs-nēs.

he said, If thou be the Son of God, cōm-mānd' that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread ālōne, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith¹ unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cāst thyself down : for it is written, He shall give his āngels charge cōncērn'ing thee : and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot āgainst² a stone.

7 Jē'sūs said unto him, It is written āgain', Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Āgain', the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mōūn'tāin, and showeth him all the kingdoms of the wōrld, and the glory of them ;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and wōr'ship me.

10 Then saith Jē'sūs unto him, Get thee hence, Sātān : for it is written, Thou shalt wōr'ship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou sērve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him : and, behold, āngels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ Now, when Jē'sūs had hēard that Jōhn was cāst into prison, he departed into Gāl'i-lēe :

13 And, leaving Nāz'a-rēth, he came and dwelt in Ča-pēr'na-ūm, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zāb'u-lōn and Nēph'thā-līm :

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spokēn³ by Ē-sā'i-ās⁴ the prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zāb'u-lōn, and the land of Nēph'thā-līm, by the way of the sea, beyond Jōr'dān, Gāl'i-lēe of the Čēn'tiles :

16 The people which sat in dārkness saw great light ; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death, light is sprung up.

17 ¶ From that time Jē'sūs began to preach, and to say, Repent : for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ And Jē'sūs, wālk'ing by the sea of Gāl'i-lēe, saw two brēthren, Sī'mōn called Pē-tēr, and ān'drew his brōther, cāst'ing a net into the sea : for they wēre fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brēthren, James the son of Zēb'e-dēe, and Jōhn his brōther, in a ship with Zēb'e-dēe their father, mending their nets ; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jē'sūs went ābout' all Gāl'i-lēe, teaching in their sȳn'agōgues, and preaching the gōs'pēl of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease, ānōng the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Sȳr'i-ā : and they brought unto him all sick people that wēre taken with dī'vēr's diseases and torments, and those which wēre pōs-sēs'sed with devils, and those which wēre lunatick, and those that had the pālsy, and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people, from Gāl'i-lēe, and from Dē-čāp'o-lis, and from Jē-rā'sa-lēm, and from Jū-dē'ā, and from beyōnd Jōr'dān.

CHAP. V.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mōūn'tāin : and when he was set, his disciples came unto him :

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blēs'sed āre the poor in spirit : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blēs'sed āre they that mourn : for they shall be cōm'fōrted.

5 Blēs'sed āre the meek : for they shall inherit the ēarth.

6 Blēs'sed āre they which do hunger and thirst āfter righteousness : for they shall be filled.

7 Blēs'sed āre the mē'r'ciful : for they shall obtāin mērcy.

8 Blēs'sed āre the pure in heārt : for they shall see God.

9 Blēs'sed āre the peacemakers : for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blēs'sed āre they which āre pērsecuted for righteousness' sake : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blēs'sed āre ye when men shall revile you, and pērsecute you, and shall say all manner of evil āgainst' you fālsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad ; for great is your rewārd in heaven : for so pērsecuted they the prophets which wēre before you.

13 ¶ Ye āre the sāl't of the ēarth : but if the sāl't have lost his sāvoūr, wherewith shall it be sāl'ted ? it is thenceforth good for nōth'ing,⁵ but to be cāst out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye āre the light of the wōrld. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

15 Nēither do men light a candle, and put it under a būshel, but on a candlestick, and it giveth light unto all that āre in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Fā'ther which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to dē-strōy' the law, or the prophets : I am not come to dēstrōy', but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till hea ven and ěarth pæss, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pæss from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever, thĕrĕ'fĕre, shall break one of these lĕast cōmmand'mĕnts, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the lĕast in the kingdom of heaven : but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Phār'i-sees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have hĕard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill ; and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment :

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brōther without a cause, shall be in dānger of the judgment : and whosoever shall say to his brōther, Rā'cā, shall be in danger of the council : but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in dānger of hell fire.

23 Thĕrĕ'fĕre, if thou bring thy gift to the āltar, and there rememberest that thy brōther hath āught āgainst' thee ;

24 Leave there thy gift before the āltar, and go thy way : first¹ be rĕc'cōciled to thy brōther, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Āgree' with thine ād'vĕrsāry quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him ; lest at any time the ād'vĕrsāry deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cāst into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have hĕard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit ādūl'tĕry :

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a wom'an,² to lust āfter her, hath committed ādūl'tĕry with her ālready in his hĕart.

29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cāst it from thee : for it is profitable for thee, that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cāst into hell.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cāst it from thee : for it is profitable for thee, that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cāst into hell.

31 It hath been said,³ Whosoever shall put āway his wife, let him give her a writing of divōrce'mĕnt :

32 But I say unto you, that whosoever shall put āway his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit ādūl'tĕry : and whosoever shall marry her that is divōr'ced, committeth ādūl'tĕry.

33 ¶ Āgain', ye have hĕard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not fōrswĕar' thyself, but shalt pĕrfōrm' unto the Lord thine oaths :

34 But I say unto you, Swĕar not at all : nĕither by heaven ; for it is God's throne :

35 Nor by the ěarth ; for it is his footstool : nĕither by Jĕ-rŭ'sa-lĕm ; for it is the city of the great King :

36 Nĕither shalt thou swĕar by thy head : because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37 But let your communication be, Yĕa, yea ; Nay, nay ; for whātsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

38 ¶ Ye have hĕard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth :

39 But I say unto you, That ye rĕsist' not evil : but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take āway thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.

41 And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

42 Give to him that āsketh thee ; and from him that would borrow of thee, turn not thou āway.

43 ¶ Ye have hĕard that it hath been said, Thou shalt lōve thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy :

44 But I say unto you, Lōve your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which dĕspite'fŭlly use you, and pĕrsecute you ;

45 That ye may be the children of your Fā'ther which is in heaven : for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 For if ye lōve them which lōve you, whāt rĕwārd have ye ? do not even the publicans the same ?

47 And if ye sālute your brĕthren only, whāt do ye more than others ? do not even the publicans so ?

48 ¶ Be ye, thĕrĕ'fĕre, pĕrfĕct, even as your Fā'ther which is in heaven is pĕrfĕct.

CHAP. VI.

TAKE heed that ye do not your ðlms before men, to be seen of them : otherwise ye have no rĕwārd of your Fā'ther which is in heaven.

2 Thĕrĕ'fĕre, when thou doest thine ðlms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hŭp'ocrites do in the sŭn'agōgues, and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their rĕwārd.

3 But when thou doest ðlms, let not thy left hand know whāt thy right hand doeth :

4 That thine ðlms may be in secret : and thy Fā'ther, which seeth in secret, himself shall rĕwārd thee openly.

¹ fŭrst.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hÿp'ocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the sÿn'agögues, and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet; and, when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Fä'ther, which is in secret; and thy Fä'ther, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye, there'fore, like unto them: for your Fä'ther knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner there'fore, pray ye: Our Fä'ther, which art in heaven; hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into tämptä'tion; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Ä'mén'.

14 ¶ For if ye forgive men their trës'pässes, your heavenly Fä'ther will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trës'pässes, neither will your Fä'ther forgive your trës'pässes.

16 ¶ Moreover, when ye fast, be not, as the hÿp'ocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, änoïnt thine head, and wäsh thy face:

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Fä'ther which is in secret: and thy Fä'ther, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves trëas'üres upon earth, where möth and rust döth corrupt, and where thiëves break through and steal:

20 But lay up for yourselves trëas'üres in heaven, where neither möth nor rust döth corrupt, and where thiëves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your trëas'üre is, there will your heart be also.

22 ¶ The light of the body is the eye: if, there'fore, thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light:

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If, there'fore, the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ No man can serve two mästers: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise' the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 There'fore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Fä'ther feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you, by taking thought, can add one cubit unto his stät'üre?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin;

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Sol'o-mön, in all his glory, was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clöthe the gröss of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clöthe you? O ye of little faith!

31 There'fore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or Wherewithal shall we be clöthed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gën'tiles seek:) for your heavenly Fä'ther knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take there'fore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAP. VII.

JUDGE not, that ye be not judged: 2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what mäas'üre ye mete, it shall be mäas'üred to you ägain'.

3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hÿp'ocrite! first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 ¶ Give not that which is holy unto the dogs; neither cast ye your pärls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn ägain' and rend you.

7 ¶ Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For every one that asketh, recëiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Fā'ther, which is in heaven, give good things to them that ask him?

12 Thēre'fore all things whātsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 ¶ Enter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leādeth to destrūc'tion, and many there be which go in therat:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leādeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 ¶ Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's cloth'ing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits.¹ Do men gāther grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so, every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cāst into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that saith² unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Fā'ther which is in heaven.

22 Many will say unto me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prōph'esied in thy name? and in thy name have cāst out devils? and in thy name done many wōn'dērful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work inīq'uity.³

24 ¶ Thēre'fore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain dēscēn'ded, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain dēscēn'ded, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell, and great was the fall of it.

28 ¶ And it came to pāss when Jē'sūs had ended these sayings, the people wēre astonished at his dōc'trīne:

29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAP. VIII.

WHEN he was come down from the mōūn'taīn, great multitudes followed him.

2 And, behold, there came a lēper and wōr'shīpped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jē'sūs put forth his hand and touch'd him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his lēprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jē'sūs saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, show thyself to the prīest, and offer the gift that Mō'sēs cōmmān'ded, for a tēs'timōny unto them.

5 ¶ And when Jē'sūs was entered into Ca-pēr'na-ūm, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my sērvant lieth at home sick of the pāl'sy, griev'ously tormented.

7 And Jē'sūs saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not wōrthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my sērvant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having sōl'diērs; under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to ānōther, Come, and he cometh; and to my sērvant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jē'sūs hēard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Īs'ra-ēl.

11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with A'bra-hām, and Ī'sāac, and Jā'cōb, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cāst out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnāsh'ing of teeth.

13 And Jē'sūs said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his sērvant was healed in the self same hour.

14 ¶ And when Jē'sūs was come into Pē'ter's house, he saw his wīfē's mōther laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touch'd her hand, and the fever left her; and she ārōse and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When the even was come, they brought unto him many that wēre pōssēs'sed with devils, and he cāst out the spirits with his word, and healed all that wēre sick;

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Ē-sā'i-ās⁵ the prophet, saying, Himself took our infir'mities,⁶ and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now, when Jē'sūs saw great multitudes ābout him, he gave cōmmān'd'mēt to depart unto the other side.

19 And a cēr'tain scribe came, and said unto him, Mā'ster, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jē'sūs saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man hath not where to lay his head.

1 frōdts. 2 sēth. 3 in-ik'kwo-te. 4 sōl'jūrz. 5 Ē-sā'yās. 6 in-fēr'me-tiz.

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jē'sūs said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful? O ye of little faith! Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gēr-gēsēnes', there met him two pōssēs'sed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jē'sūs, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them a herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing; and what was befallen to the pōssēs'sed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jē'sūs: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAP. IX.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over and came into his own city.

2 And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the pāl'sy, lying on a bed: and Jē'sūs, seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the pāl'sy, Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, cēr'tain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blā'sphē'meth.

4 And Jē'sūs, knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the pāl'sy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitude saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ And, as Jē'sūs passed forth from thence, he saw a man named Mātthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jē'sūs sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came, and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Phār'i-sēes saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Mā'ster with publicans and sinners?

12 But, when Jē'sūs heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sār'rifice: for I am not come to call the rīgh'teōus, but sinners to repentance.

14 Then came to him the disciples of Jōhn, saying, Why do we and the Phār'i-sēes fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jē'sūs said unto them, Can the children of the brīde'chāmbēr* mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piēce of new cloth unto an old garment; for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles; else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish; but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are prēsērv'ed.

18 ¶ While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a cēr'tain ruler and wor'shipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come, and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jē'sūs arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ (And, behold, a wom'an, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jē'sūs turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good cōm'fōrt; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the wom'an was made whole from that hour.

23 ¶ And when Jē'sūs came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, Give place : for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laugh'ed him to scorn.

25 But when the people wēre put forth, he went in and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And the fame hereof went ābroād into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jē'sūs departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou son of Dā'vid, have mērey on us.

28 And when he came into the house, the blind men came to him : and Jē'sūs saith unto them, Belēve ye that I am able to do this ? They said unto him, Yēa, Lord.

29 Then touch'd he their eyes, saying, According to your faith, be it unto you.

30 And their eyes wēre opened ; and Jē'sūs straitly chārged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they wēre departed, spread ābroād his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man pōss'ess'ed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cāst out, the dumb spake : and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in I's'ra-ēl.

34 But the Phār'i-sēes said, he cāst'eth out devils, through the prince of the devils.

35 And Jē'sūs went about' all the cities and vil'lages, teaching in their s'yn'agōgues, and preach'ing the gōs'pēl of the kingdom, and heal'ing every sickness, and every disease āmong the people.

36 ¶ But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and wēre s'cattered ābroād, as sheep having no shēp'hērd.

37 Then saith he unto his dīscīples, The harvest truly is plēn'tēous, but the labōur'ers āre few.

38 Pray ye, thēre'fōre, the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labōur'ers into his harvest.

CHAP. X.

AND when he had called unto him his twelve dīscīples, he gave them power āgainst' unclean spirits, to cāst them out, and to heal all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve āpōstles āre these ; the first, Sī'mōn, who is called Pē'tēr, and Ān'drew his brōther ; James the son of Zēb'e-dēe, and Jōhn his brōther ;

3 Phīl'ip,² and Bār-thōl'o-mew ; Thōm'ās, and Māt'thew the publican ; James the son of Āl-phē'ūs, and Lēb-bē'ūs, whose surname was Thād-dē'ūs ;

4 Sī'mōn the Čān'aān-īte,³ and Jū'dās I's'čār'i-ōt, who also betrayed him.

5 ¶ These twelve Jē'sūs sent forth, and cōmman'ded them, saying, Go not unto the way of the Čēn'tiles, and into any city of the Sa-mār'i-tāns, enter ye not :

6 But go rāther to the lost sheep of the house of I's'ra-ēl.

7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lēpers, raise the dead, cāst out devils : freely ye have received, freely give.

9 Provide nēither gold, nor silver, nor brāss in your purses ;

10 Nor scrip for your jōurney, nēither two coats, nēither shoes, nor yet stāves : for the workman is wōrthy of his meat.

11 And into whātsoever city or town ye shall enter, inquire who in it is wōrthy ; and there ābīde tīl ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into a house, sā-lute it.

13 And if the house be wōrthy, let your peace come upon it : but if it be not wōrthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house, or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sōd'om and Gō-mōr'rāh, in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves : be ye, thēre'fōre, wise as sērpents, and harmless as dōves.

17 But beware of men : for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their s'yn'agōgues :

18 And ye shall be brought before gōv'ernors and kings for my sake, for a tēs'tīmōny āgainst' them and the Čēn'tiles.

19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or whāt ye shall speak ; for it shall be given you in thāt same hour whāt ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spīr'it of your Fā'ther which speaketh in you.

21 And the brōther shall deliver up the brōther to death, and the fāther the child : and the children shall rise up āgainst'4 their pārents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake : but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they pērsecute you in this city, flee ye into ānōther : for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of I's'ra-ēl, till the Son of Man be come.

24 The dīscīple is not ābōve his māster, nor the sērvant ābōve his lord.

25 It is enough for the dīscīple that he be as his māster, and the sērvant as his lord. If they have called the māster of the house Bē-ēl'ze-būb, how much more shall they call them of his household ?

26 Fear them not, thēre'fōre : for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

² Fīl'ip.

³ Kān'nān-īte.

⁴ ā-gēnst'.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul; but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Fear ye not, therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth; I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of me.

38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth his life shall lose it; and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 ¶ He that receiveth you, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man, in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's reward.

42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, He shall in no wise lose his reward.

CHAP. XI.

AND it came to pass, when Jē'sūs had made an end of commānd'ing his twelve disciples, he departed thence, to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 ¶ Now when Jōhn had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jē'sūs answered and said unto them, Go and show Jōhn again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gōs'pēl preached to them.

6 And blēs'sed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jē'sūs began to say unto the multitudes cōncēr'n'ing Jōhn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man cloth'ed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft cloth'ing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of wom'en, there hath not risen a greater than Jōhn the Bāp'tist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And from the days of Jōhn the Bāp'tist, until now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the prophets and the law proph'esied until Jōhn.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is E-l'i-'ās which was for to come.

15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lament'ed.

18 For Jōhn came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners: but Wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Wo unto thee, Chō-rā'z'in! wo unto thee, Bēth-sā'i-dā;¹ for if the mighty works which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidōn, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidōn, at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Ca-pēr'na-ūm, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee had been done in ¹Bēth-sā'e-dā ā-nāl'o-goūs to Jū'e-rūs.

Söd'om, it would have remain'ed until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Söd'om, in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ At that time Jē'sūs answered and said, I thank thee, O Fä'ther, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Fä'ther: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 All things are delivered unto me of my Fä'ther: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Fä'ther; neither knoweth any man the Fä'ther, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 ¶ Come unto me, all ye that läböür and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and lærn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

CHAP. XII.

AT that time Jē'sūs went on the säb'-bath-day through the corn, and his disciples were hungered, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Phär'i-sēes saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the säb'-bath-day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read whät Dä'vid did when he was a hungered, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shōw'bréad, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

5 Or, have ye not read in the law, how that, on the säb'-bath-days, the priests in the temple profane the säb'-bath, and are olameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known whät this meaneth, I will have mërcy, and not säc'rificē, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of Man is Lord even of the säb'-bath-day.

9 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he went into their sÿn'agögue.

10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the säb'-bath-days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, Whät man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the säb'-bath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the säb'-bath-days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then the Phär'i-sēes went out, and held a council against him, how they might deströy him.

15 But when Jē'sūs knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Ê-sä'i-äs¹ the prophet, saying,

18 Behold my särvant, whom I have chosen; my belöved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my Spír'it upon him, and he shall show judgment to the Ĝen'tiles.

19 He shall not strive nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised² reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victöry.

21 And in his name shall the Ĝen'tiles trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one pössess'ed with a devil, blind and dumb, and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of Dä'vid?

24 But when the Phär'i-sēes heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Bē-ël'ze-büb the prince of the devils.

25 And Jē'sūs knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand.

26 And if Sä'tän cast out Sä'tän, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Bē-ël'ze-büb cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? thêre'fore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils, by the Spír'it of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else, how can one enter into a strong man's house and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me: and he that gäthereth not with me, scattereth äbroäd.

31 ¶ Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and bläs'phēmy shall be forgiven unto men: but the bläs'phēmy against the Höly Ghöst shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word

² bröd'zed.

against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghōst, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this wōrld, neither in the wōrld to come.

33 Eithr make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O generation of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the ābūn'dānce of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man, out of the good trēaş/ūre of the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an evil man, out of the evil trēaş/ūre, bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then cēr'tain of the scribes and of the Phār'i-sēes ānswered, saying, Mā'ster, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he ānswered and said unto them, An evil and ādūl'teroūs generation seeketh āfter a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jō'nās:

40 For as Jō'nās was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the ēarth.

41 The men of Nīn'e-vēh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jō'nās; and, behold, a greater than Jō'nās is here.

42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the ēarth to hear the wisdom of Sōl'o-mōn; and, behold, a greater than Sōl'o-mōn is here.

43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he wālketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 ¶ While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mōther and his brēthren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mōther and thy brēthren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he ānswered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mōther? and who are my brēthren?

49 And he stretched forth his hand tō/wārd his dīsciples, and said, Behold my mōther and my brēthren!

50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Fā'ther which is in heaven, the same is my brōther, and sister, and mōther.

CHAP. XIII.

THE same day went Jē'sūs out of the house, and sat by the sea-side.

2 And great multitudes wēre¹ gāthered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way-sidē, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much ēarth; and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of ēarth:

6 And when the sun was up, they wēre scorched; and, because they had no root, they withered āwāy.

7 And some fell āmōng thorns, and the thorns sprung up and chōked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some a hundred-fold, some sixty-fold, some thirty-fold.

9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 ¶ And the dīsciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He ānswered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the m'ys'teries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more ābūn'dānce: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken āwāy, even that he hath.

13 Thērē'fore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing, see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prōph'e-cy of Ē-sā'i-ās; which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not pēr-cēivē':

15 For this people's heart is waxed grōss, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have clōsed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their hearts, and should be cōn-vērt'ed, and I should heal them.

16 But blēs'sed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and rīgh'tēōūs² men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not hēard them.

² rī'tshe-ūs.

18 ¶ Hear ye, thère'före, the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and cätch'eth äway that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way-side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and änon' with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while; for when tribulation or persëcú'tion ärißeth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 He also that received seed ämong the thorns, is he that heareth the word; and the care of this wörld, and the decëit'fulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundred-fold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Änóther parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares ämong the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the sërvañts of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The sërvañts said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gäther them up?

29 But he said, Nay; læst, while ye gäther up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow togethër until the harvest; and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gäther ye togethër first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gäther the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Änóther parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of müs'tärd seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the læst of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest ämong hërbs, and becometh a tree: so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the bränches thereof.

33 ¶ Änóther parable spake he unto them: The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a wom'an took, and hid in three mäş'üres of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jē'sūs unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the wörld.

36 Then Jē'sūs sent the multitude äway, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He änswered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of Man;

38 The field is the wörld; the good seed äre the children of the kingdom; but the tares äre the children of the wicked one:

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the wörld: and the reapers äre the ängels.

40 As, thère'före, the tares äre gäthered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this wörld.

41 The Son of Man shall send forth his ängels, and they shall gäther out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And shall cäst them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnäsh'ing of teeth.

43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Fä'ther. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Ägain', the kingdom of heaven is like unto trëaş'üres hid in a field; the which when a man hath found he hideth, and, for joy thereof, goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Ägain' the kingdom of heaven is like unto a mër'chänt-män, seeking goodly pärls:

46 Who, when he had found one pärl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Ägain' the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cäst into the sea, and gäthered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gäthered the good into vessels, but cäst the bad äway.

49 So shall it be at the end of the wörld: The ängels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from ämong the just,

50 And shall cäst them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnäsh'ing of teeth.

51 Jē'sūs saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Thère'före every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which bringeth forth out of his trëaş'üres things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to päss, that when Jē'sūs had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their sȳn'agōgue, insomuch that they wēre astonish'ed, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mōther called Māry? and his brēthren, James, and Jō'sēs, and Sī'mōn, and Jū'das?

56 And his sisters, āre they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they wēre offend'ed in him. But Jē'sūs said unto them, A prephet is not without hōn'our, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And he did not many mighty works there, because of their un-bē-lief!

CHAP. XIV.

AT that time Hēr'od the Tē'rārch' heard of the fame of Jē'sūs,

2 And said unto his sērvants, This is Jōhn the Bāp'tist; he is risen from the dead; and thērē'fore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ For Hēr'od had laid hold on Jōhn, and bound him, and put him in prison for Hēr'ō'di-ās' sake, his brōther Phī'l'ip's wife.

4 For Jōhn said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Hēr'od's birth'-day¹ was kept, the dāught'er of Hēr'ō'di-ās' dānced before them, and pleas'd Hēr'od.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whātsoever she would āsk.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mōther, said, Give me here Jōhn Bāp'tist's head in a chārg'ēr.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he cōmmān'ded it to be given her.

10 And he sent and beheaded Jōhn in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a chārg'ēr, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mōther.

12 And his dīscīples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jē'sūs.

13 ¶ When Jē'sūs hēard of it, he departed thence by ship into a dēs'ērt place āpart; and when the people had hēard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jē'sūs went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was mov'd with compassion tō'wārd them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was evening, his dīscīples came to him, saying, This is a dēs'ērt place, and the timē is now pāst; send the multitude āwāy, that they may go into the vil'lages,² and buy themselves vict-uals.³

16 But Jē'sūs said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he cōmmān'ded the multitude to sit down on the grāss, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blēss'ed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his dīscīples, and the dīscīples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and wēre fill'd: and they took up of the fragments that rē-māin'ed twelve bāskets full.

21 And they that had eaten wēre ābout' five thousand men, beside wom'en⁴ and child'rēn.

22 ¶ And straightway Jē'sūs cōnstrāin'ed his dīscīples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes āwāy.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes āwāy, he went up into a mōūn'tain āpart to pray; and when the evening was come, he was there ālōne.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth wātch of the night, Jē'sūs went unto them, wālk'ing on the sea.

26 And when the dīscīples saw him wālk'ing on the sea, they wēre troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jē'sūs spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer: It is I; be not āfrāid.

28 And Pē'tēr ānsw'ered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the wāter.

29 And he said, Come. And when Pē'tēr was come down out of the ship, he wālk'ed on the wāter to go to Jē'sūs.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was āfrāid; and, beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jē'sūs stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith! wherefore didst thou dōūbt?

32 And when they wēre come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that wēre in the ship came and wōr'shipp'd him, saying, Of a truth, thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ And when they wēre gone over, they came into the land of Gēn-nēs'a-rēt.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round ābout', and brought unto him all that wēre diseas'd;

36 And besōught him that they might only tōuch the hem of his gārment; and as many as touc'h'ed wēre made p'f'ectly whole.

CHAP. XV.

THEN came to Jē'sūs scribes and Phār'i-sēes, which wēre of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, saying,

2 Why do thy dīscīples tran'gress the tradition of the elders? for they wāsh not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he āns'wered and said unto them, Why do ye also tran'gress the cōmmand'mēnt of God by your tradition?

4 For God cōmmand'ed, saying, Hōn'ōūr thy fāther and mōther: and he that curseth fāther or mōther, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his fāther or his mōther, It is a gift, by whātsoever thou mightst be profited by me:

6 And hōn'ōūr not his fāther or his mōther, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the cōmmand'mēnt of God of nōne effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hīp'ocrites! well did Ē-sā'i-āsl prōph'esy of you, saying,

8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mout^h, and hōn'ōureth me with their lips; but their heārt is far from me.

9 But in vain they do wōr'shīp me, teaching for dōc'trines the cōmmand'mēnts of men.

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his dīscīples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Phār'i-sēes wēre offended, āfter they hēard this saying?

13 But he āns'wered, and said, Every plānt, which my heavenly Fāther hath not plānted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them ālone: they be blind lēaders of the blind. And if the blind lēad the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then āns'wered Pē'ter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jē'sūs said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whātsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cāst out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heārt; and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heārt proceed evil thoughts, murders, ādūl'teries, fornications, thefts, fālse witness, blās'phemies.

20 These āre the things which defile a man; but to eat with unwāshen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ Then Jē'sūs went thence, and departed into the coasts of T'yre and Sī'dōn.

22 And, behold, a wom'an of Cā'nā-ān³ came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mērcy on me, O Lord, thou son of Dā'vid; my daughter is grīev'ously vexed with a devil.

23 But he āns'wered her not a word. And his dīscīples came and besōught him, saying, Send her āwāy; for she crieth āfter us.

24 But he āns'wered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Ī's'ra-ēl.

25 Then came she and wōr'shīpped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he āns'wered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cāst it to dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their māster's table.

28 Then Jē'sūs āns'wered and said unto her, O wom'an, great is thy faith! be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 ¶ And Jē'sūs departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Gāl'i-lēe; and went up into a mōūn'tāin, and sat down there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that wēre lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cāst them down at Jē'sūs' feet, and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wōndered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to wālk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Ī's'ra-ēl.

32 ¶ Then Jē'sūs called his dīscīples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nōthing to eat: and I will not send them āwāy fāst'ing, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his dīscīples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jē'sūs saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? and they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he cōmmand'ed the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves, and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his dīscīples, and the dīscīples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and wēre filled: and they took up of the broken meat, that was left, seven bāskets full.

38 And they that did eat wēre four thousand men, besides wom'en⁴ and children.

39 And he sent āwāy the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Māg'da-lā.

CHAP. XVI.

THE Phār'i-sēes also with the Sād'ducēes came, and, tempting, desired nim, that he would show them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather; for the sky¹ is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day; for the sky is red and lowering. O ye hy'p'ocrites! ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 A wicked and adul'terous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jō'nās. And he left them, and departed.

5 ¶ And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jē'sūs said unto them, Take heed, and beware of the leaven of the Phār'i-sēes, and of the Sād'du-cēes.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which, when Jē'sūs perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith! why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you, concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Phār'i-sēes, and of the Sād'du-cēes?

12 Then understood they, how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Phār'i-sēes, and of the Sād'du-cēes.

13 ¶ When Jē'sūs came into the coasts of Cēs-a-rē'a Phi-lip'pi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?

14 And they said, Some say that thou art Jōhn the Bāp'tist; some, E-li'ās; and others, Jēr-e-mi'ās, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And S'i'mōn Pē'tēr answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jē'sūs answered and said unto him, Blē'ssed art thou, S'i'mōn Bār-jō'nā: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Fā'ther which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Pē'tēr, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then charged he his disciples, that they should tell no man, that he was Jē'sūs the Christ.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jē'sūs to show unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and suffer many things of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Pē'tēr took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Pē'tēr, Get thee behind me, Sā'tān: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ Then said Jē'sūs unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life, for my sake, shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son of Man shall come in the glory of his Fā'ther, with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here which shall not taste of death till they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.

CHAP. XVII.

AND after six days Jē'sūs taketh Pē'tēr, James, and Jōhn his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mōūn'tain apart,

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them, Mō'sēs, and E-li'ās, talk'ing with him.

4 Then answered Pē'tēr, and said unto Jē'sūs, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tab'ernacles: one for thee, and one for Mō'sēs, and one for E-li'ās.

5 While he yet spake, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them: and, behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jē'sūs came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jē'sūs only.

9 And, as they came down from the môûn'tain, Jē'sūs chārged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of Man be risen āgain' from the dead.

10 And his dīscīples āsked him, saying, Why then say the scribes, that Ē-lī'ās must first come?

11 And Jē'sūs ānswēred and said unto them, Ē-lī'ās truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, that Ē-lī'ās is come ālrēady, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whātsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of Man suffer of them.

13 Then the dīscīples understood, that he spake unto them of Jōh'n the Bāp'tist.

14 ¶ And, when they wēre come to the multitude, there came to him a cēr'tain man, knēcl'ing down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mērcy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oft times he falleth into the fire, and oft into the wāter.

16 And I brought him to thy dīscīples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jē'sūs ānswēred and said, O faithless, and pērvēse' generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jē'sūs rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the dīscīples to Jē'sūs āpārt, and said, Why could not we cāst him out?

20 And Jē'sūs said unto them, Because of your ūn-bē-līef'; for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, as a grām of mūs'tārd seed, ye shall say unto this môûn'tain, Remove hence to yōnder place, and it shall remove; and nōthing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit, this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fāst'ing.

22 ¶ And, while they ābōde in Gāl'i-lēē, Jē'sūs said unto them, The Son of Man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised āgain'. And they wēre exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ And when they wēre come to Cāp'erna-ūm, they that rēcēived tribute mōney came to Pē'tēr, and said, Dóth not your Mā'ster pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes.¹ And when he was come into the house, Jē'sūs prevented him, saying, Whāt thinkest thou, Sī'mōn? of whom do the kings of the ēarth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strāngers?

26 Pē'tēr saith unto him, Of strāngers. Jē'sūs saith unto him, Then āre the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lēst we should of fend them, go thou to the sea, and cāst a nook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and, when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piēce of mōney: thō take, and give unto them for me and thee

CHAP. XVIII.

AT the same time came the dīscīples unto Jē'sūs, saying, Who is the great est in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jē'sūs called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be cōnvērt'ed, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever, thēre'fōre, shall hūmble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And whoso shall rēcēive one such little child in my name, rēcēiveth me.

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which bēlieve in me, it wēre better for him that a millstone wēre hanged ābout' his neck, and that he wēre drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ Wo unto the wōrld because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but wo to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 Wherefore, if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cāst them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life hālt or maimed, rāther than having two hands, or two feet, to be cāst into ēvēr'lās'ting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cāst it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rāther than having two eyes to be cāst into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye dēspīse' not one of these little ones: for I say unto you, That in heaven their āngels do āl'wāys behold the face of my Fā'ther which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of Man is come to save that which was lost.

12 How think ye? if a man have a hūn'drēd² sheep, and one of them be gone āstrāy, dóth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the môûn'tains, and seeketh that which is gone āstrāy?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not āstrāy.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Fā'ther which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover, if thy bróther shall trēs'pāss āgainst' thee, go and tell him his fāult between thee and him ālōne: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy bróther.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every wōrd may be ēstāb'lished.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him a hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant! I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldst not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judaea beyond Jordan.

2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning, made them male and female?

5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and they twain shall be one flesh.

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What, therefore, God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb; and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men; and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness.

19 Honour thy Father and thy Mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jē'sūs said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treas'ure in heaven; and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possēs'sions.

23 ¶ Then said Jē'sūs unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again' I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jē'sūs beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then answered Pē'ter, and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have there'fore?

28 And Jē'sūs said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me in the regeneration, when the Son of Man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of I's'ra-ël.

29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundred-fold, and shall inherit everlās'ting life.

30 But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

CHAP. XX.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.¹

2 And when he had agrēed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about' the third hour,² and saw others standing idle in the market-place,

4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again' he went out about' the sixth and ninth hour,² and did likewise.

6 And about' the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith³ unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about' the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against' the good man of the house,

12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said,⁴ Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst thou not agree' with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way; I will give unto this last even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil because I am good?

16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ And Jē'sūs, going up to Jē-rū'salēm, took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jē-rū'salēm; and the Son of Man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death.

19 And shall deliver him to the Gēn'tiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crū'cify⁵ him: and the third day he shall rise again'.

20 ¶ Then came to him the mother of Zēb'e-dēe's children, with her sons, wor'ship-ping him, and desiring a cēr'tain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? she saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jē'sūs answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Fà'ther.

24 And when the ten heard it, they

1 Vin'yērd. 2 Third hour, nine o'clock in the morning; sixth hour, twelve o'clock at noon; ninth hour, three o'clock in the after-noon; eleventh hour, five o'clock in the after-noon.

wēre moved with indignation āgainst¹ the two brēthren.

25 But Jē'sūs called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Ġēn'tiles exercise dominion over them, and they that āre great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so āmōng you : but whosoever will be great āmōng you, let him be your minister ;

27 And whosoever will be chief āmōng you, let him be your sērvant :

28 Even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

29 ¶ And as they departed from Jēr-i-ḡhō, a great multitude followed him.

30 And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way-side, when they hēard that Jē'sūs pāsēd by, cried out, saying, Have mērcy on us, O Lord ! thou son of Dā'vīd.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace : but they cried the more, saying, Have mērcy on us, O Lord ! thou son of Dā'vīd.

32 And Jē'sūs stood still, and called them, and said, Whāt will ye that I shall do unto you ?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jē'sūs had compassion on them. and touched their eyes : and immediately their eyes rēcēived sight, and they followed him.

CHAP. XXI.

AND when they drew nigh unto Jē-rū/sa-lēm, and wēre come to Bēth'phage unto the mount of Olīves, then sent Jē'sūs two dīscīples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the vil'lage¹ over āgainst¹ you, and straightway ye shall find an āss tied, and a colt with her : lōōse them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say āught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them ; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Sī'ōn, Behold, thy king cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an āss, and a colt the foal of an āss.

6 And the dīscīples went, and did as Jē'sūs cōmmān'ded them ;

7 And brought the āss, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their gārments in the way ; others cut down brānches from the trees, and strew'ed² them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried saying, Hō-ḡān'nā to the Son of Dā vid : Blēs'sed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord ; Hō-ḡān'nā in the highest.

10 And when he was come into Jē-rū/sa-lēm, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this ?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jē'sūs the prophet, of Nāz'a-rēth of Gāl'ilēe.

12 ¶ And Jē'sūs went into the temple of God, and cāst out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew³ the tables of the mōney-chāngers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the hoase of prayer ; but ye have made it a den of thiēves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple ; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wōn'dérful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hō-ḡān'nā to the Son of Dā'vid ! they wēre sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou whāt these say ? And Jē'sūs saith unto them, Yea ; have ye never rēad, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast pēr'fected praise ?

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into Bēth'a-ny ; and he lodged there.

18 Now in the morning, as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nōthing thereon, but leaves only ; and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee hēncēfōr'wārd for ever. And presently the fig-tree withered āway.

20 And when the dīscīples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered āway !

21 Jē'sūs ānswēred and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and dōūbt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, but also, if ye shall say unto this mōūn'tāin, Be thou removed, and be thou cāst into the sea, it shall be done.

22 And all things, whātsoever ye shall āsk in prayer, bēliē'ving, ye shall rēcēive.

23 ¶ And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By whāt authority doest thou these things ? and who gave thee this authority ?

24 And Jē'sūs ānswēred and said unto them, I also will āsk you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by whāt authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of Jōhn, whence was it ? from heaven, or of men ? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven ; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then bēlieve him ?

26 But if we shall say, Of men ; we fear the people ; for all hold Jōhn as a prophet.

³ ō-vūr-thrōd'.

27 And they answered Jē'sūs, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Nēither tell I you by wāt authority I do these things

28 ¶ But wāt think ye? A cēr'tain man hād two sons; and he came to the first,¹ and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but āf'tēr wārd he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his fāther? They say unto him, The first. Jē'sūs saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For Jōhn came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye bēliēved him not: but the publicans and the harlots bēliēved him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not āf'tēr wārd, that ye might bēlieve him.

33 ¶ Hear ānōther parable: There was a cēr'tain householder, which plānted a vineyard, and hedged it round ābout', and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to hūs'bānd-mēn, and went into a far country.

34 And, when the time of the fruit² drew near, he sent his sēr'vants to the hūs'bānd-mēn, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the hūs'bānd-mēn took his sēr'vants, and beat one, and killed ānōther, and stoned ānōther.

36 Āgain', he sent other sēr'vants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But lāst of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the hūs'bānd-mēn saw the son, they said āmōng themselves, This is the heir;³ come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance:

39 And they caught him, and cāst him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord, thērē'fore, of the vineyard cometh, wāt will he do unto those hūs'bānd-mēn?

41 They say unto him, He will miserably destrōy' those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other hūs'bānd-mēn, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jē'sūs saith unto them, Did ye never rēad in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Thērē'fore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone, shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Phār'i-sēes had hēard his parables, they pēr'cēived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

CHAP. XXII.

AND Jē'sūs answered and spake unto them āgain' by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a cēr'tain king, which made a mär'räage⁴ for his son,

3 And sent forth his sēr'vants to call them that wēre bidden to the wedding; and they would not come.

4 Āgain' he sent forth other sēr'vants, saying, Tell them which āre bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings āre killed, and all things āre rēady: come unto the mär'räage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, ānōther to his mēr'c'hāndise:

6 And the remnant took his sēr'vants, and entreated them spite'fully, and slew them.

7 But when the king hēard thērēof, he was wroth; and he sent forth his armies and destrōy'ed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his sēr'vants, The wedding is rēady, but they which wēre bidden, wēre not worthy.

9 Go ye thērē'fore into the highways, and, as many as ye shall find, bid to the mär'räage.

10 Sō those sēr'vants went out into the highways, and gāthered tōgēther all, as many as they found, both bad and good; and the wedding was furnished with guēsts.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guēsts, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding gārmēt;

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding gārmēt? and he was speechless.

13 Then saith the king to the sēr'vants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him āway, and cāst him into outer dārkness; there shall be weeping and gnāsh'ing of teeth.

14 For many āre called, but few āre chosen.

15 ¶ Then went the Phār'i-sēes and took counsel how they might entangle him in his tālk.

16 And they sent out unto him their discīples, with the Hē-rō'di-ānš, saying, Mā'ster, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, nēither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the pērson of men.

17 Tell us, thērē'fore, Wāt thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cē'sār, or not?

18 But Jē'sūs pērcēived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye h̄yp'ocrites?

19 Show me the tribute-mōney. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and supēscrip'tion?

21 They say unto him, Cē'sār's. Then saith he unto them, Render, thērc'fore, unto Cē'sār the things which āre Cē'sār's; and unto God the things that āre God's.

22 When they had hēard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 The same day came to him the Sād'du-cēēs, which say, that there is no resurrection, and asked him.

24 Saying, Mā'ster, Mō'sēs said, If a man die, having no children, his brōther shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brōther.

25 Now there wēre with us seven brēthren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and having no issue, left his wife unto his brōther:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the wom'an died also.

28 Thērc'fore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jē'sūs answered and said unto them, Ye do ērr, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they nēither marry, nor āre given in mār'riage, but āre as the āngels of God in heaven.

31 But as touch'ing the resurrection of the dead, have ye not rēad that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 I am the God of Ā'bra-hām, and the God of Ī'sāaq, and the God of Jā'cōb? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude hēard this, they wēre astonished at his dōc'trine.

34 ¶ But when the Phār'i-sēēs had hēard that he had put the Sād'du-cēēs to silence, they wēre gāth'ered togēther.

35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Mā'ster, which is the great cōmmānd'mēnt in the law?

37 Jē'sūs said unto him, Thou shalt lōve the Lord thy God with all thy nēart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great cōmmānd'mēnt.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt lōve thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two cōmmānd'mēnts hang all the law and the prophets.

1 ān'sūr.

41 ¶ While the Phār'i-sēēs wēre gāth'ered togēther, Jē'sūs asked them,

42 Saying, Whāt think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The sun of Dā'vid.

43 He saith unto them, How then dōth Dā'vid in spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If Dā'vid then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to ān'swer^t him a word, nēither durst any man from that day forth āsk him any more questions.

CHAP. XXIII.

THEN spake Jē'sūs to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The scribes and the Phār'i-sēēs sit in Mō'sēs' seat.

3 All thērc'fore whātsoever they bid you ob'serve, that ob'serve and do; but do not ye āfter their works: for they say, and do not.

4 For they bind heavy burdens and griēv'ous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylāc'tēriēs, and enlarge the borders of their gārments,

6 And lōve the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the s̄yn'agōgues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rāb'bi, Rāb'bi.

8 But be not ye called Rāb'bi; for one is your Mā'ster, even Christ, and all ye āre brēthren.

9 And call no man your fāther upon the ēarth; for one is your Fā'ther, which is in heaven.

10 Nēither be ye called māsters: for one is your Mā'ster, even Christ.

11 But he that is greatest āmōng you shall be your sērvant.

12 And whosoever shall exālt himself shall be ābāsed; and he that shall kūm'ble himself shall be exālted

13 ¶ But wo unto you, scribes and Phār'i-sēēs, h̄yp'ocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven āgainst' men: for ye nēither go in yourselves, nēither suffer ye them that āre entering to go in.

14 Wo unto you, scribes and Phār'i-sēēs, h̄yp'ocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: thērc'fore ye shall receive the greater dāmnation.

15 Wo unto you, scribes and Phār'i-sēēs, h̄yp'ocrites! for ye cōm'pāss sea and land to make one prōs'elyte; and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Wo unto you, ye blind guides! which say, Whosoever shall swear by the tomple, it is nóthing : but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor.

17 Ye fools, and blind ! for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold ?

18 And whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nóthing : but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools, and blind ! for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift ?

20 Whoso, thèrefore, shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Wo unto you, scribes and Phär'i-sëes, hÿp'ocrites ! for ye pay tithé of mint, and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mércy, and faith : these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides ! which strain at a gnät, and swallow a camel.

25 Wo unto you, scribes and Phär'i-sëes, hÿp'ocrites ! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Phär'i-sëe ! cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Wo unto you, scribes and Phär'i-sëes, hÿp'ocrites ! for ye are like unto whited sêp'ulchres, which indeed appear beau'tifül öutwärd, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of ail uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also öutwärdly appear righteous unto men, but within, ye are full of hypöc'risy and inïq'uity.²

29 Wo unto you, scribes and Phär'i-sëes, hÿp'ocrites ! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sêp'ulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 Fill ye up then the mēas'üre of your fathers.

33 Ye sêrpents, ye generation of vipers ! how can ye escape the damnation of hell ?

34 ¶ Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes : and some of them ye shall kill and crü'cifÿ ;³ and some of them shall ye scourge in your sÿn'agögues, and përsécute them from city to city :

35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Ábël unto the blood of Zäch-a-rí'äs, son of Bär-a-çhí'äs, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Jē-rū'sa-lēm, Jē-rū'sa-lēm, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee : how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not !

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blës'sed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAP. XXIV.

AND Jē'süs went out, and departed from the temple ; and his disciples came to him, for to show him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jē'süs said unto them, See ye not all these things ? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Öl'ives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be ? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world ?

4 And Jē'süs answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ ; and shall deceive many.⁴

6 And ye shall hear of wärs, and rumours of wärs : see that ye be not troubled : for all these things must come to päss, but the end is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise ägainst nation, and kingdom ägainst kingdom : and there shall be fäm'ines, and pestilences, and earth'quäkes, in dï'vers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you : and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

20 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because inïq'uity shall äböünd, the löve of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gös'pël of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world, for a witness unto all nations ; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye thērefōre shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Dān'i-ēl¹ the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso rēadeth, let him understand.)

16 Then let them which be in Jū-dē'ā flee into the môûn'tāins :

17 Let him which is on the house-top not come down to take any thing out of his house :

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clōthes.

19 And wo unto them that āre with child, and to them that give suck in those days !

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, nēither on the sabbath-day :

21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the wōrld to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved : but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Chrīst, or there : believe it not.

24 For there shall arise false Chrīsts, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wōnders ; insomuch, that, (if it wēre possible,) they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the dēs'ert ; go not forth : Behold, he is in the secret chambers ; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west ; so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be.

28 For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gāthered togēther.

29 ¶ Immediately āfter the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken :

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven : and then shall all the tribes of the ēarth mourn, and they shall see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And he shall send his āngels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gāther togēther his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 ¶ Now lēarn a parable of the fig-tree : When his brānch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh :

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pāss, till all these things be fulfilled

35 Heaven and ēarth shall pāss āwāy, but my words shall not pāss āwāy.

36 ¶ But of that day and hour knoweth no man ; no, not the āngels of heaven, but my Fā'ther only.

37 But as the days of Nō'e wēre, so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be.

38 For as in the days that wēre before the flood, they wēre eating and drinking, marrying and giving in mār'riage, until the day that Nō'e entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came and took them all āwāy ; so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field ; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two wom'en shall be grīnd'ing at the mill ; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ Wātch² thērefōre ; for ye know not whāt hour your Lord dōth come.

43 But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in whāt wātch the thiēf would come, he would have wātch'ed, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Thērefōre be ye also rēady : for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son o' Man cometh.

45 Who then is a faithful and wise sērvant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season ?

46 Blēs'sed is that sērvant, whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil sērvant shall say in his hēart, My lord delayeth his coming ;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow-sērvants, and to eat and drink with the drunken ;

50 The lord of that sērvant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not āwāre of,

51 And shall cut him āsūn'der, and appoint him his pōrtion with the hÿp'ocrites : there shall be weeping and gnāsh'ing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten vir'gīnš,³ which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them wēre wise, and five wēre foolish.

3 They that wēre foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them :

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh ; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those vir'gīnš ārōse, and trimmed their lamps.

³ vēr'jīnz.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you; but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage; and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 Watch, therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of Man cometh.

14 ¶ For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability: and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came, and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came, and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came, and said, Lord, I knew thee, that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strewed: 1

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not and gather where I have not strewed

1 strewed

27 Thou oughtest, therefore, to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take, therefore, the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath, shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ When the Son of Man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats;

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 For I was a hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee a hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer, and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

42 For I was a hungered, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink;

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee a hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 And these shall go away into everlasting ting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal.

CHAP. XXVI.

AND it came to pass, when Jē'sūs had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of Man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 ¶ Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,¹

4 And consulted that they might take Jē'sūs by subtlety,² and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ Now when Jē'sūs was in Beth'an-y, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jē'sūs understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ Now, the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jē'sūs, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jē'sūs had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 Now, when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, That one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said,⁴ He that dipperth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of Man goeth, as it is written of him: but wo unto that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ And, as they were eating, Jē'sūs took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 ¶ And when they had sung a hymn they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jē'sūs unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night; for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jē'sūs said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then cometh Jē'sūs with them unto a place called Geth-sem'a-ne, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What! could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went āway āgain' the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Fā'ther, if this cup may not pās āway from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them āslēep āgain' : for their eyes wēre heavy.

44 And he left them, and went āway āgain', and prayed the thīrd time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his dīscīples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest : behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going ; behold, he is at hand that dōth betray me.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, lo, Jū'dās, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swōrds and staves from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he : hold him fāst.

49 And forthwith he came to Jē'sūs, and said, Hail, Mā'ster, and kissed him.

50 And Jē'sūs said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come ? Then came they and laid hands on Jē'sūs, and took him.

51 And, behold, one of them which wēre with Jē'sūs, stretched out his hand, and drew his swōrd, and struck a sērvant of the high priest, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jē'sūs unto him, Put up āgain' thy swōrd into his place : for all they that take the swōrd shall perish with the swōrd.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Fā'ther, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of āngels ?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be ?

55 In that same hour said Jē'sūs to the multitudes, Are ye come out against a thief, with swōrds and staves for to take me ? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the dīscīples forsook him and fled.

57 ¶ And they that had laid hold on Jē'sūs, led him āway to Cai'a-phās² the high priest, where the scribes and the elders wēre assembled.

58 But Pē'tēr followed him āfār off, unto the high priest's pāl'āce, and went in, and sat with the sērvants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council, sought false witness āgainst Jē'sūs to put him to death ;

60 But found none ; yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the lāst came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destrōy' the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest ārōse, and said unto him, Answerest thou nōthing ? what is it which these witness āgainst' thee ?

63 But Jē'sūs held his peace. And the high priest ānswered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God :

64 Jē'sūs saith unto him, Thou hast said : nevertheless, I say unto you, hereāfter shall ye see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest rent his clōthes, saying, He hath spoken blās'phēmy : what further need have we of witnesses ? Behold, now ye have heard his blās'phēmy.

66 What think ye ? They ānswered and said, He is guilty of death.

67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him ; and others smote him with the palm's of their hands,

68 Saying, Prōph'esy unto us, thou Christ ! Who is he that smote thee ?

69 ¶ Now Pē'tēr sat without in the pāl'āce : and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jē'sūs of Gal'ī-lēe.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the pōrch, ānōther maid saw him, and said unto them that wēre there, This fellow was also with Jē'sūs of Nā'z'a-rēth.

72 And āgain' he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And āfter a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Pē'tēr, Surely thou also art one of them, for thy speech bewrāy'eth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swēār, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.³

75 And Pē'tēr remembered the words of Jē'sūs, which said unto him, Before the cock crew, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel āgainst' Jē'sūs to put him to death :

2 And when they had bound him, they led him āway, and delivered him to Pōn'ti-ūs⁴ Pī'lāte the gōvērnor.

3 ¶ Then Jū'dās, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought āgain' the thirty piēces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us ? see thou to that.

5 And he cāst down the piēces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pièces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the tréas'ury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potters' field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jer'e-my the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pièces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Iſ'ra-él did value;

10 And gave them for the potters' field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 ¶ And Jē'sūs stood before the góv'ernór; and the góv'ernór asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? and Jē'sūs said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nóthing.

13 Then said Pí lâte unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; inasmuch that the góv'ernór marvelled greatly.

15 ¶ Now at that feast the góv'ernór was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Ba-ráb'bás.

17 There'fore, when they wére gathered together, Pí lâte said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Ba-ráb'bás, or Jē'sūs, which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nóthing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders perswaded the multitude that they should ask Ba-ráb'bás, and destróy' Jē'sūs.

21 The góv'ernór answered, and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Ba-ráb'bás.

22 Pí lâte saith unto them, Whát shall I do then with Jē'sūs, which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crú'cified.¹

23 And the góv'ernór said, Why, whát evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crú'cified.

24 When Pí lâte saw that he could prevail nóthing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took wáter, and wásh'ed his hands, before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just pèrson; see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Ba-ráb'bás unto them; and when he had scourged Jē'sūs, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 ¶ Then the sol'dièrs of the góv'ernór took Jē'sūs into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of sol'dièrs.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had plát'téd a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And áfter that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him áway to crú'cify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cý-ré'ne, Sí'món by name; him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 ¶ And when they wére come unto a place called Gól'go-thá, that is to say, A place of a skull, 34 They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and, when he had tast'ed thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crú'cified him, and parted his garments, cás'ting lots; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments ámong them, and upon my vés'ture² did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down, they wátch'ed him there;

37 And set up over his head, his accusation written. THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then wére there two thievers crú'cified with him, one on the right hand, and áno'ther on the left.

39 ¶ And they that pássed by, reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, Thou that destróy'est the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Iſ'ra-él, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believè him.

43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The thievers also, which wére crú'cified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 ¶ Now, from the sixth hour, there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.³

46 And ábout the ninth hour, Jē'sūs cried with a loud voice, saying, É'li, É'li, lá'má sábachthá'ní? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Ē-lī'ās.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Ē-lī'ās will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jē'sūs, when he had cried again' with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept, arose,

53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now, when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jē'sūs, saw the earth quake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there, beholding afar off, which followed Jē'sūs from Gāl'i-lēe, ministering unto him:

56 Among which was Mā'ry Māg-da-lē'ne, and Mā'ry the mother of James and Jō'sēs, and the mother of Zēb'e-dee's children.

57 ¶ When the even was come, there came a rich man of Ār-i-ma-thē'ā, named Jō'sēph, who also himself was Jē'sūs' disciple:

58 He went to Pilāte, and begged the body of Jē'sūs. Then Pilāte commān'ded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Jō'sēph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sēp'ulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mā'ry Māg-da-lē'ne, and the other Mā'ry, sitting over against the sēp'ulchre.

62 ¶ Now, the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Phā'r'i-sēes came together unto Pilāte, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again'.

64 Commān'd' there'fore, that the sēp'ulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilāte said unto them, Ye have a watch; go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sēp'ulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAP. XXVIII.

IN the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn towards the first day of the week, came Mā'ry Māg-da-lē'ne, and the other Mā'ry, to see the sēp'ulchre.

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jē'sūs, which was crucified.

6 He is not here; for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples, that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Gāl'i-lēe; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sēp'ulchre, with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And, as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jē'sūs met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jē'sūs unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren, that they go into Gāl'i-lēe, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now, when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and showed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶ Then the eleven disciples went away into Gāl'i-lēe, into a mountain where Jē'sūs had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 ¶ And Jē'sūs came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost;

20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK.

CHAPTER I.

THE beginning of the gōs'pēl of Jē'sūs Christ, the Son of God ;

2 As it is written in the prophets. Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Jū-de'a, and they of Je-rū'sa-lēm, and wēre all baptized of him in the river of Jōr dan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a gir'dle¹ of a skin about his loins ; and he did eat locusts and wild honey ;

7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I āfter me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not wōrthy to stoop down and unlōose.

8 I indeed have baptized you with wāter ; but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

9 And it came to pās in those days, that Jē'sūs came from Nāz'a-rēth of Gāl'i-lēe, and was baptized of Jōhn in Jōr dan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the wāter, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spīr'it like a dōve, dēscēn'ding upon him :

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 ¶ And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days tempted of Sā'tān ; and was with the wild beasts ; and the āngels ministered unto him.

14 ¶ Now, āfter that Jōhn was put in prison, Jē'sūs came into Gāl'i-lēe, preaching the gōs'pēl of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand : repent ye, and believe the gōs'pēl.

16 ¶ Now, as he wālked by the sea of Gāl'i-lēe, he saw Si'mōn, and Ān'drew² his brōther, cās'ting a net into the sea : (for they wēre fishers.)

17 And Jē'sūs said unto them, Come ye āfter me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zēb'e-dēe, and Jōhn his brōther, who also wēre in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them : and they left their father Zēb'e-dēe in the ship with the hired sērvants, and went āfter him.

21 And they went into Ča-pēr'na-um : and straightway on the sabbath-day, he entered into the sŷn'agogue, and taught.

22 And they wēre astonished at his doctrine : for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 ¶ And there was in their sŷn'agogue a man with an unclean spirit ; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us ālōne : whāt have we to do with thee, thou Jē'sūs of Nāz'areth ? art thou come to destrōy us ? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jē'sūs rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him :

27 And they wēre all āmāzed, insomuch that they question'd āmōng themselves, saying, Whāt thing is this ? whāt new doctrine is this ? for with authority cōmmān'deth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread ābrōād throughout all the region round ābout Gāl'i-lēe.

29 ¶ And forthwith, when they wēre come out of the sŷn'agōgue, they entered into the house of Si'mōn and Ān'drew, with Jāmes and Jōhn.

30 But Si'mōn's wife's mōther lay sick of a fever, and ānōn' they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up ; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 ¶ And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that wēre diseased, and them that wēre possēss'ed with devils.

33 And all the city was gāthered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that wēre sick of dī'vers diseases, and cāst out many devils : and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

35 ¶ And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Si'mōn, and they that wēre with him, followed āfter him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for thèrefore came I forth.

¹ gēr'dl.

² Ān'drōd

39 And he preached in their sȳn'agōgues throughout all Gāl'ī-lēē, and cāst out devils.

40 ¶ And there came a lēper to him, beseeching him, and knēel'ing down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jē'sūs, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touch'ed him, and saith unto him, I will: be thou clean.

42 And, as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charg'ed him, and forthwith sent him āwāy;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nōthing to any man: but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Mō'sēs cōmmand'ed, for a tēs'timōny unto them.

45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze ābroād the matter, insomuch that Jē'sūs could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in dēs'ert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAP. II.

AND āgain' he entered into Ca-pēr'na-ūm, āfter some days: and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway man'y¹ wēre gāthēred togēther, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as ābout' the door; and he preached the word unto them.

3 ¶ And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was bōrne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they ūncōv'ered the roof where he was; and, when they had broken it up, they let down the bed whereīn the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jē'sūs saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there wēre cēr'tain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hēarts,

7 Why dōth this man thus speak blās'phēmies? Who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately when Jē'sūs percēived in his spirit, that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hēarts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Ārise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power on ēarth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy), 11 I say unto thee, Ārise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he ārōse, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they wēre all āmāzed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth āgain' by the seaside; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And as he pāss'ed by, he saw Lē'vī, the son of Āl-phē'ūs, sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he ārōse, and followed him.

15 ¶ And it came to pāss, that, as Jē'sūs sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also togēther with Jē'sūs and his discip'les: for there wēre many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Phār'i-sēēs saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his discip'les, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jē'sūs hēard it, he saith unto them, They that āre whole have no need of the physician, but they that āre sick: I came not to call the righ'teōūs,² but sinners to repentance.

18 ¶ And the discip'les of Jōhn and of the Phār'i-sēēs used to fāst: and they come, and say unto him, Why do the discip'les of Jōhn, and of the Phār'i-sēēs fāst, but thy discip'les fāst not?

19 And Jē'sūs said unto them, Can the children of the brīde'chāmbēr fāst while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fāst.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken āwāy from them, and then shall they fāst in those days.

21 No man also sew'eth³ a piēce of new cloth on an old gārment; else the new piēce that filled it up, taketh āwāy from the old, and the rent is made wōrse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine dōth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be mārred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 ¶ And it came to pāss that he went through the corn fiēlds on the sabbath-dāy; and his discip'les began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Phār'i-sēēs said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath-dāy that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never rēad whāt Dā'vid did, when he had need, and was ā hungered, he, and they that wēre with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Ā-bī'a-thār the high priest, and did eat the shōw'brēad, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which wēre with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

¹ mēn'ne.

² rī'tshe-ūs.

³ sō'eth.

28 Thēre'fore the Son of Man is Lord also of the sǎb' bath.

CHAP. III.

AND he entered āgain' into the sŷn' a-gogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they wāteh'ed him, whether he would heal him on the sǎb' bath-dāy; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith¹ unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sǎb' bath-dāy, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? but they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round ābout' on them with anger, being griēved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 ¶ And the Phǎr'ī-sēēs went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Hē-rō'-dī-ānŷ āgainst' him, how they might dēstrōy' him.

7 But Jē'sūs withdrew² himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Gāl'i-lēē followed him, and from Jū-dē'ā,

8 And from Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and from Īd-u-mē'ā, and from beyōnd Jōr'dān; and they ābout' Tŷre and Sī'dōn, a great multitude, when they had hēard whāt great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him, because of the multitude, lēst they should throng him:

10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plāgues.

11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.

12 And he straitly chārged them that they should not make him known.

13 ¶ And he goeth up into a mōūn'tāin, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ōrdāin'ed twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cāst out devils:

16 And Sīmōn he surnamed Pē'tēr;

17 And Jāmes the son of Zēb'e-dēē, and Jōhn the brōther of Jāmes, (and he surnamed them Bō-a-nēr'ges, which is, The sons of thunder:)

18 And Ān'drew, and Phīl'ip, and Bār-thōl'o-mew, and Māt'thew, and Thōm'ās, and Jāmes the son of Āl-phē'ūs, and Thād-dē'ūs, and Sīmōn the Čān'aān-ite,³

19 And Jū'dās Is-čār'i-ōt, which also betrayed him: and they went into a house.

20 ¶ And the multitude cometh togēther āgain', so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when his friends hēard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself.

22 ¶ And the scribes which came down from Jē-rū'sa-lēm, said, He hath Bē-ēl'ze-būb, and by the prince of the devils cās'teth he out devils.

23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Sā'tān cāst out Sā'tān?

24 And if a kingdom be divided āgainst' itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided āgainst' itself, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Sā'tān rise up āgainst' himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

27 No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

28 Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blās'phēmīēs wherewithsoever they shall blās'phēmē':

29 But he that shall blās'phēmē' āgainst' the Holy Ghōst hath never forgiveness, but is in dānger of etērnal damnation;

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 ¶ There came then his brēthren and his mōther, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sat ābout' him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mōther and thy brēthren without seek for thee.

33 And he ānswered them, saying, Who is my mōther, or my brēthren?

34 And he looked round ābout' on them which sat ābout' him, and said, Behold my mōther and my brēthren!

35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brōther, and my sister, and mōther.

CHAP. IV.

AND he began āgain' to teach by the sea-side: and there was gāthered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea, on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said⁴ unto them in his dōē-trīne,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow.

4 And it came to pāss, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much ēarth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of ēarth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was

1 sēth. 2 wīth-drōd'.

3 Kān'nān-ite. 4 sēd.

scorched; and, because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.¹

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up, and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 ¶ And when he was alone, they that were about him, with the twelve, asked of him the parable :

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mys'tery of the kingdom of God : but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables :

12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear and not understand : lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable ? and how then will ye know all parables ?

14 ¶ The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown ; but, when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground ; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness ;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time : affliction, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns ; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things, entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground ; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some a hundred.

21 ¶ And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed, and not to be set on a candlestick ?

22 For there is nothing hid which shall not be manifested ; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he saith unto them, Take heed what ye hear, with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you : and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For he that hath, to him shall be given en : and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground ;

27 And should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself ; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God ? or with what comparison shall we compare it ?

31 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth :

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches : so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them ; and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 ¶ And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And, when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow : and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish ?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind ; and said unto the sea, Peace, be still : and the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful ? how is it that ye have no faith ?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him ?

CHAP. V.

AND they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gad-a-rænes'.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him, out of the tombs, a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs ; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked ašun' der by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the moun'tains, and in the tombs, crying and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jē'sūs a'far off, he ran and wór'shipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, Whát have I to do with thee, Jē'sūs, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

9 And he asked him, Whát is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Lē'gion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much, that he would not send them áway out of the country.

11 Now, there was there, nigh unto the moun'tains, a great hērd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jē'sūs gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine; and the hērd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they wēre ábout' two thousand;) and wēre choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see whát it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jē'sūs, and see him that was pōššess'ed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they wēre áfráid.

16 And they that saw it, told them how it befell to him that was pōššess'ed with the devil, and also concērn'ing the swine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And, when he was come into the ship, he that had been pōššess'ed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Jē'sūs suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Dē-çáp'o-lis,* how great things Jē'sūs had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 ¶ And when Jē'sūs was pászsed over ágain' by ship unto the other side, much people gáth'ered unto him; and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the sýn'agōgue, Já'i-rūs¹ by name; and, when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed, and she shall live.

24 And Jē'sūs went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 ¶ And a cēr'tain wom'an, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nóthing bettered, but rather grew² wórse,

27 When she had hēard of Jē'sūs, came in the press behind, and touched his garment:

28 For she said, If I may touč but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fōun'tain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plāgue.

30 And Jē'sūs, immediately knowing in himself, that vir'tue³ had gone out of him, turned him ábout' in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, who touched me?

32 And he looked round ábout' to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the wom'an, fearing and trembling, knowing whát was done in her, came, and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Dāugh'ter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plāgue.

35 ¶ While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the sýn'agōgue's house cēr'tain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the M'à'ster any further?

36 As soon as Jē'sūs hēard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the sýn'agōgue, Be not áfráid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Pē'tér, and James, and Jōhn the bróther of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the sýn'agōgue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ádò, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they làugh'ed⁴ him to scorn: but when he had put them all out, he taketh the fàther and the móther of the damsel, and them that wēre with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Tál'i-thā Çu'm; which is, being intēr'prēted, Damsel, (I say unto thee,) āriṣe.

42 And straightway the damsel ārōse, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they wēre astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he chārged them straitly that no man should know it; and cōmmān'ded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAP. VI.

AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath-day was come, he began to teach in the syn'gogue: and many, hearing him, wēre astonished, saying, From whence hath this mun these things? and whāt wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works āre wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mā'ry, the brōther of Jāmes and Jō'sēs, and of Jūdā, and Sīmōn? and āre not his sisters here with us? And they wēre offended at him.

4 But Jē'sūs said unto them, A prophet is not without hōn'our, but in his own country, and āmōng his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled, because of their un-belief. And he went round ābout the villages, teaching.

7 ¶ And he calleth unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits:

8 And cōmmān'ded them that they should take nōthing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no mōney in their purse;

9 But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In whāt place soever ye enter into a house, there ābide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a tēs'timōny āgainst them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sōd'om and Gōmōr'rah, in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cāst out many devils, and ānōin'ted with oil many that wēre sick, and healed them.

14 ¶ And king Hēr'od heard of him; (for his name was spread ābroād;) and he said, That Jōhn the Bāp'tist was risen from the dead, and thēre'fore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is E-lī'ās. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 ¶ But when Hēr'od heard thereof, he said,² It is Jōhn, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Hēr'od himself had sent forth and laid hold upon Jōhn, and bound him in prison for Hē-rō'di-ās' sake, his brōther Phil'ip's wife; for he had married her.

18 For Jōhn had said unto Hēr'od, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brōther's wife.

19 Thēre'fore Hē-rō'di-ās had a quārel āgainst him, and would have killed him; but she could not.

20 For Hēr'od feared Jōhn, knowing that he was a just man, and a holy, and ōbšerv'ed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Hēr'od, on his birth'day,³ made a supper to his lords, high cāp'tains, and chief estātes' of Gal'i-lēe;

22 And when the daughter of the said Hē-rō'di-ās came in, and dānced, and pleased Hēr'od, and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whātsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whātsoever thou shalt āsk of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mōther, Whāt shall I āsk? And she said, The head of Jōhn the Bāp'tist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and āsked, saying, I will that thou give me, by and by, in a chārger, the head of Jōhn the Bāp'tist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and cōmmān'ded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison;

28 And brought his head in a chārger, and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mōther.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his cōrpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 ¶ And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jē'sūs, and told him all things, both whāt they had done, and whāt they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves āpart into a dēs'ert place, and rest a while: for there wēre many coming and going, and they had no lēi'sure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a dēs'ert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran āfoot' thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 ¶ And Je'sūs, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion to'ward them, because they wēre as sheep not having a shēp'hērd; and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now far spent, his discip'les came unto him, and said, This is a des'ert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them āway, that they may go into the country round ābout', and into the vil'lages,¹ and buy themselves bread: for they have nōthing to eat.

37 He ānswered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pen'ny-wōrth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he cōmmān'ded them to make all sit down by cōm'panies upon the green grāss.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And, when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blēss'ed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his discip'les to set before them; and the two fishes divided he āmong them all.

42 And they did all eat, and wēre filled.

43 And they took up twelve bāskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves wēre ābout' five thousand men.

45 ¶ And straightway he cōnstrāin'ed his discip'les to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bēth-sā'i-dā, while he sent āway the people.

46 And when he had sent them āway, he departed into a mōūn'tain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he ālōne on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing: (for the wind was contrary unto them:) and ābout' the fourth wātch of the night he cometh unto them, wālk'ing upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But, when they saw him wālk'ing upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 (For they all saw him, and wēre troubled:) And immediately he tālked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; he not āfrāid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they wēre sore āmāzed in themselves beyōnd mēas'ure, and wōndered.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

53 ¶ And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Ġēn-nēs'a-rēt, and drew to the shore.

54 And, when they wēre come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round ābout', and began to carry ābout' in beds those that wēre sick, where they hēard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into vil'lages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besōught him that they might tōuch, if it wēre but the border of his gārment: and as many as tōuched him wēre made whole.

CHAP. VII.

THEN came together unto him the Phār'i-sēes, and cēr'tain of the scribes, which came from Je-rū'sa-lēm.

2 And when they saw some of his discip'les eat bread with defiled (that is to say, with ūnwāsh'en) hands, they found fāult.

3 For the Phār'i-sēes, and all the Jews, except they wāsh their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wāsh, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have rēceived to hold, as the wāsh'ing of cups, and pots, and brāzen vessels, and of tables.

5 Then the Phār'i-sēes and scribes āsked him, Why wālk not thy discip'les according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with ūnwāsh'en hands?

6 He ānswered and said unto them, Well hath Ē-sā'i-ās² prōph'esied of you hēp'o crītes, as it is written, This people hōn'ōureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit, in vain do they wōr'ship me, teaching for dōc'trīnes the cōmmān'mēnts of men.

8 For laying āside the cōmmān'mēnt of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the wāsh'ing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the cōmmān'mēnt of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Mō'sēs said, Hōn'ōūr thy fāther and thy mōther; and whoso curseth fāther or mōther, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his fāther or mōther, It is Ġōr'bān, that is to say, a gift, by whātsoever thou mightst be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do āught for his fāther or his mōther;

13 Making the word of God of nōne effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ And, when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them,

² Ē-sā'yds.

Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand :

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him : but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And, when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he said unto them, Are ye so without understanding also ? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him ;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught,¹ purging all meats ?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness :

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into a house, and would have no man know it : but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet :

26 (The woman was a Greek, a Syro-phœnician² by nation;) and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled : for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes,³ Lord : yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying, go thy way ; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech ; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue ;

34 And, looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man : but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it :

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well : he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAP. VIII.

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat :

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way : for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness ?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye ? and they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground : and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them, and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes ; and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled : and they took up, of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand : and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign ? Verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and, entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And, when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye because ye have no bread ? perceive ye not yet, neither understand ? have ye your heart yet hardened ?

18 Having eyes, see ye not ? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bēth-sā'e-dā;¹ and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw aught.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees walk'ing.

25 After that, he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up; and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ And Jē'sūs went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cēs-a-re'ā Phi-lip'-pī;² and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, Jōhn the Bāp'tist: but some say Ē-lī'ās; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Pē'tēr answereth, and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 ¶ And he began to teach them, that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Pē'tēr took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Pē'tēr, saying, Get thee behind me, Sā'tān: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life, for my sake and the gōs'pēl's, the same shall save it.

36 For whāt shall it profit a man, if he should gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or whāt shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 Whosoever, thēr'fore, shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this ādūl'terous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Fā'ther, with the holy āngels.

CHAP. IX.

AND he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And, after six days, Jē'sūs taketh with him Pē'tēr, and James, and Jōhn, and leadeth them up into a high mōūn'tāin āpart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shī'nīng, exceeding white as snow, so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Ē-lī'ās, with Mō'sēs: and they wēre tālk'ing with Jē'sūs.

5 And Pē'tēr answered and said to Jē'sūs, Mā'ster, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tāb'ernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'sēs, and one for Ē-lī'ās.

6 For he wist³ not whāt to say; for they wēre sore āfraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son; hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round ābout, they saw no man any more, save Jē'sūs only with themselves.

9 And, as they came down from the mōūn'tāin, he charged them that they should tell no man whāt things they had seen, till the Son of Man wēre risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with ānōther whāt the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Ē-lī'ās must first come?

12 And he answered, and told them, Ē-lī'ās verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of Man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nōught.

13 But I say unto you, That Ē-lī'ās is indeed come, and they have done unto him whātsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ And, when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude ābout them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, wēre greatly āmāzed, and, running to him, sālūted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, Whāt question ye with them?

² Fil-lip'pī is the English pronunciation.

³ know.

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Mā'ster, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And whersoever he taketh him, he teareth him; and he foameth, and gnāsh'eth with his teeth, and pineth āway: and I spake to thy disciples, that they should cāst him out; and they could not.

19 He answered him, and saith, O faithless generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it āgō since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And oft times it hath cāst him into the fire, and into the wāters, to destrōy' him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jē'sūs said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe: help thou mine ün-bē-liēf'.

25 When Jē'sūs saw that the people came running togēther, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I chārgē thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jē'sūs took him by the hand and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cāst him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nōthing, but by prayer and fāst'ing.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Gāl'i-lēe; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of Man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him: and āfter that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and wēre āfrāid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Ča-pēr'na-ūm: and, being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed āmōng yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed āmōng themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be lāst of all, and the sērvant of all.

36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and, when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receive me: and whosoever shall receive me, receive me not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ And Jōhn answered him, saying, Mā'ster, we saw one cās'ting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbādē' him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jē'sūs said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For he that is not āgainst' us is on our part.

41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of wāter to drink, in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, He shall not lose his reward.

42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone wēre hanged ābout' his neck, and he wēre cāst into the sea.

43 And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 Where their wōrm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter hāit into life, than having two feet to be cāst into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their wōrm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cāst into hell fire:

48 Where their wōrm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sēc'rificē shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt is good, but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with ānōther.

CHAP. X.

AND he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Jū-dē'ā by the farther side of Jōr'dān: and the people resort unto him āgain'; and as he was wont, he taught them āgain'.

2 ¶ And the Phār'i-sēes came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put āway his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Mō'sēs cōmmānd' you?

4 And they said, Mō'sēs suffered to write a bill of divorc'mēnt, and to put her āway.

5 And Jē'sūs ānswered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heārt he wrote you this precept :

6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mōther, and cleave to his wife ;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh : so then they āre no more twain, but one flesh.

9 Whāt, therēfore, God hath joined tōgēther, let not man put āsūn'der.

10 And in the house his dīscīples āsked him āgain' of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put āway his wife, and marry ānōther, committeth ādul'tēry āgainst' her.

12 And if a wom'an shall put āway her hūsbānd, and be married to ānōther, she committeth ādul'tēry.

13 ¶ And they brōught young children to him, that he should tōuch them ; and his dīscīples rebuked those that brōught them.

14 But when Jē'sūs saw it, he was much displeas'd, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not : for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blēss'ed them.

17 ¶ And, when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and āsked him, Good Mā'ster, whāt shall I do that I may inherit eternal life ?

18 And Jē'sūs said unto him, Why callest thou me good ? there is none good but one, that is God.

19 Thou knowest the cōmmānd'mēnts, Do not commit ādul'tēry, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear fālse witness, Defrād not, Hōn'ōur thy father and mother.

20 And he ānswered and said unto him, Mā'ster, all these have I ōbšērv'ed from my youth.

21 Then Jē'sūs beholding him, lōved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest : go thy way, sell whātsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have trēas'ure in heaven ; and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went āway griēved : for he had great pōss'essions.

23 ¶ And Jē'sūs looked round ābout', and saith unto his dīscīples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God !

24 And the dīscīples wēre astonished at his words. But Jē'sūs ānswereth āgain', and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God !

1 hūn'drēd not hūn'durd.

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they wēre astonished out of mēas'ure, saying āmōng themselves, Who then can be saved ?

27 And Jē'sūs, looking upon them, saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God : for with God all things āre possible.

28 ¶ Then Pē'tēr began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jē'sūs ānswered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brēthren, or sisters, or father, or mōther, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gōs'pēl's,

30 But he shall receive a hūn'drēd 1 fold now in this time, houses, and brēthren, and sisters, and mōthers, and children, and lands, with pērsēc'utions ; and in the wōrld to come eternal life.

31 But many that āre first, shall be last ; and the last first.

32 ¶ And they wēre in the way going up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm ; and Jē'sūs went before them : and they wēre āmāzed ; and, as they followed, they wēre āfrāid. And he took āgain' the twelve, and began to tell them whāt things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm ; and the Son of Man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes ; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Ğēn'tiles :

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him ; and the third day he shall rise āgain'.

35 ¶ And Jāmes and Jōhn, the sons of Zēb'e-dēē, come unto him, saying, Mā'ster, we would that thou shouldst do for us whātsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you ?

37 They said unto him, Grānt unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jē'sūs said unto them, Ye know not whāt ye āsk : can ye drink of the cup that I drink of ? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with ?

39 And they say unto him, We can. And Jē'sūs said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of ; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized :

40 But to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give ; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten hēard it, they began to be much displeas'd with James and Jöhn.

42 But Jē'sūs call'd them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are account'd to rule over the Gēn'tiles, exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ And they came to Jēr'i-chō: and as he went out of Jēr'i-chō with his discip'les, and a great number of people, blind Bār-ti-mē'ūs, the son of Ti-mē'ūs, sat by the high-way-side, begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jē'sūs of Nāz'a-rēth, he began to cry out and say, Jē'sūs, thou son of Da'vid, have mercy on me.

48 And many charg'd him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of Da'vid, have mercy on me.

49 And Jē'sūs stood still, and cōmmān'd'ed him to be call'd. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good cōmfört, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, cās'ting away his gārmēt, rose, and came to Jē'sūs.

51 And Jē'sūs answered and said unto him, Whāt wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jē'sūs said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath madethee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jē'sūs in the way.

CHAP. XI.

AND when they came nigh to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, unto Bēth'pha-gē and Bēth'a-ny, at the mount of Öl'ives, he sendeth forth two of his discip'les,

2 And saith unto them, go your way into the vil'lāge¹ over āgainst' you; and, as soon as ye be enter'd into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; lōöse him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without, in a place where two ways met; and they lōöse him.

5 And cēr'tain of them that stood there, said unto them, Whāt do ye, lōō'sing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jē'sūs had cōmmān'd'ed: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jē'sūs, ¹vil'lāje.

and cāst their gārmēt's on him; and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their gārmēt's in the way; and others cut down brānch-es off the trees, and strow'ed² them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hō-sān'nā; blēs'sed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

10 Blēs'sed be the kingdom of our fāther Da'vid, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hō-sān'nā in the highest.

11 And Jē'sūs enter'd into Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and into the temple: and when he had look'd round ābout' upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bēth'a-ny, with the twelve.

12 ¶ And on the morrow, when they wēre come from Bēth'a-ny, he was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig-tree āfār off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and, when he came to it, he found nōthing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jē'sūs answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereāfter forever. And his discip'les heard it.

15 ¶ And they come to Jē-rū'sa-lēm; and Jē'sūs went into the temple, and began to cāst out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrow the tables of the mōney-chāngers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be call'd of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thievers.

18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might dē-strōy' him: for they fear'd him, because all the people was astonish'd at his dōc'trīne.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ And in the morning, as they pass'd by, they saw the fig-tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Pē'tēr, calling to remembrance, saith unto him, Mā'ster, behold the fig-tree which thou curs'dst is wither'd āway.

22 And Jē'sūs ān'swering, saith unto them, Have faith in God.

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mōūn'tain, Be thou removed, and be thou cāst into the sea; and shall not dōūbt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whātsoever he saith.

24 Thērē'fōre, I say unto you, Whāt things soever ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.
²strō'ed.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive if ye have aught against any;¹ that your Fāther also which is in heaven may forgive you your trēs'pässes.

26 But if ye do not forgive, nēither will your Fāther which is in heaven forgive your trēs'pässes.

27 ¶ And they come again' to Jē-rū'salēn: and as he was walk'ing in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders.

28 And say unto him, By whāt authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jē'sūs answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by whāt authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of Jōhn, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted Jōhn, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jē'sūs, We cannot tell. And Jē'sūs answering, saith unto them, Nēither do I tell you by whāt authority I do these things.

CHAP. XII.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A cēr'tain man plānted a vineyard and set a hedge about' it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to hūs'bānd-mēn, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the hūs'bānd-mēn a sērvant, that he might receive from the hūs'bānd-mēn of the fruit of the vineyard.²

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again' he sent unto them another sērvant; and at him they cast stones, and wōunded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again' he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet, thērē'fōre, one son, his well-belōved, he sent him also last unto them saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those hūs'bānd-mēn said among themselves, This is the heir;³ come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 Whāt shall, thērē'fōre, the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destrōy' the hūs'bānd-mēn, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not rēad this scripture, The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against' them; and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And they send unto him cēr'tain of the Phār'i-sēēs, and of the Hē-rō'di-āns, to catch him in his words.

14 And, when they wēre come, they say unto him, Mā'ster, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man; for thou regardest not the pērson of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cē'sār, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypōc'risy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and sū-pēr'scrip'tion? And they said unto him, Cē'sār's.

17 And Jē'sūs answering, said unto them, Render to Cē'sār the things that are Cē'sār's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then come unto him the Sād'du-cēēs, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Mā'ster, Mō'sēs wrote unto us, If a man's brōther die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brōther should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brōther.

20 Now there wēre seven brēthren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died; nēither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the wom'an died also.

23 In the resurrection, thērē'fōre, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them, for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jē'sūs answering, said unto them, Do ye not thērē'fōre ērr because ye know not the scriptures, nēither the power of God?

25 For, when they shall rise from the dead, they nēither marry nor are given in mār'riage,⁴ but are the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touc'h'ing the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Mō'sēs, how in the bōsh God spake unto him saying, I am the God of Ā'bra-hām, and the God of Ī'sāac, and the God of Jā'cōb?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye, thērē'fōre, do greatly ērr.

28 ¶ And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and pērcēiv'ing that he had āns'wered them well, āsked him, Which is the first cōm'mānd'mēt of all ?

29 And Jē'sūs āns'wered him, The first of all the cōm'mānd'mēnts is, Hear, O Iṣ'ra-ēl ! The Lord our God is one Lord.

30 And thou shalt lōve the Lord thy God with all thy heārt, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. This is the first cōm'mānd'mēt.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt lōve thy neighbour as thyself. There is nōne other cōm'mānd'mēt greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Mā'ster, thou hast said the truth : for there is one God ; and there is nōne other but he :

33 And to lōve him with all the heārt, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to lōve his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sār'c'rif'ices.

34 And when Jē'sūs saw that he āns'wered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man āfter that durst āsk him any q'ues'tion.

35 ¶ And Jē'sūs āns'wered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of Dā'vid ?

36 For Dā'vid himself said by the Hōly Ghōst, the LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 Dā'vid, thēr'e'f'ore, himself calleth him Lord ; and whence is he then his son ? And the common people hēard him gladly.

38 ¶ And he said unto them in his dōc't'rīne, Beware of the scribes, which lōve to go in long clōth'ing, and lōve salutations in the market places.

39 And the chief seats in the s'yn'a-gōgues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts ;

40 Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers : these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ And Jē'sūs sat over āgainst' the trēas'ury, and beheld how the people cāst mōney into the trēas'ury : and many that wēre rich, cāst in much.

42 And there came a cēr'tain poor widow, and she threw ¹ in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his dīsciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cāst more in than all they which have cāst into the trēas'ury :

44 For all they did cāst in of their ābūn'dānce ; but she of her wānt did cāst in all that she had, even all her living.

CHAP. XIII.

AND, as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Mā'ster, see whāt manner of stones, and whāt buildings are here.

2 And Jē'sūs ān'swering, said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings ? there shall not be left one stone upon ānōther, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Ōl'ives, over āgainst' the temple, Pē'tēr, and James, and Jōhn, and Ān'drew,² āsked him privately,

4 Tell us, when shall these things be ? and whāt shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled ?

5 And Jē'sūs ān'swering them, began to say, Take heed lēst any man deceive you :

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wārs, and rumours of wārs, be ye not troubled : for such things must needs be ; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise āgainst' nation, and kingdom āgainst' kingdom ; and there shall be ēarth'quakes in dī'rērs' places, and there shall be fām'ines, and trōubles ; these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 ¶ But take heed to yourselves : for they shall deliver you up to councils ; and in the s'yn'agōgues ye shall be beaten ; and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a tēs'timōny āgainst them.

10 And the gōs'pēl must first be publishēd āmōng all nations.

11 But when they shall lēad you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand whāt ye shall speak, nēither do ye premeditate : but whātsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye : for it is not ye that speak, but the Hōly Ghōst.

12 Now, the brōther shall betray the brōther to death, and the father the son : and children shall rise up āgainst' their pārents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake : but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Dān'i-ēl³ the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Jū-dē'ā flee to the mōūn'tains :

15 And let him that is on the house-top not go down into the house, nēither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house :

16 And let him that is in the fiēld, not turn back āgain' for to take up his garment.

17 But wo to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days !

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation, which God created, unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved ; but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And then, if any man shall say to you, lo, here is Christ ; or, lo, he is there ; believe him not :

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed : behold, I have fore-told^d you all things.

24 ¶ But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light ;

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth, to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree ; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near :

29 So ye, in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, That this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away ; but my words shall not pass away.

32 ¶ But of that day, and that hour, knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray : for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of Man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye, therefore : for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning :

36 Lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you, I say unto all, Watch.

CHAP. XIV.

AFTER two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread :

1 Beth'a-ne.

and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ And being in Beth'a-ny, in the house of Si'mon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman, having an al'abaster box of ointment of spike'nard, very precious ;² and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made ?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Je'sus said, Let her alone, why trouble ye her ? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will, ye may do them good ; but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could ; she is come afore'hånd to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gos'pel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of, for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And Ju'das Is-car'i-ot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayst eat the passover ?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water : follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good man of the house, the Ma'ster saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples ?

15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared : there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them : and they made ready the passover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Je'sus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and 2 pre'sh'us.

to say unto him, one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of Man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but wo to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ And, as they did eat, Jē'sūs took bread, and blēss'ed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jē'sūs saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shēp'hērd,¹ and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Gal'i-lēe.

29 But Pē'tēr said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jē'sūs saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vē'hē-mēnt-ly, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 ¶ And they came to a place which was named Gēth-sēm'a-ne; and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Pē'tēr, and James, and Jōhn, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and wāch.

35 And he went sōr'wārd a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that, if it wēre possible, the hour might pāss from him.

36 And he said, Ab'bā Fā'ther, all things are possible unto thee; take āway this cup from me: nevertheless, not wāt I will, but wāt thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Pē'tēr, Sī'mōn, sleepest thou! couldst not thou wāch one hour?

38 Wāch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is rēady, but the flesh is weak.

39 And āgain' he went āwāy, and pray ed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them āslēep āgain': (for their eyes wēre heavy;) nēither wist* they wāt to ānswer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that be trayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Jū'dās, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swōrds and stāves, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: take him, and lēad him āwāy safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Mā'ster, Mā'ster: and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a swōrd, and smote a sērvant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jē'sūs answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as āgainst' a thief, with swōrds, and with stāves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a cēr'tāin young man, having a linen cloth cāst ābout' his naked body: and the young men laid hold on him.

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ And they led Jē'sūs āwāy to the high priest; and with him wēre assembled all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes.

54 And Pē'tēr followed him āfār off, even into the pāl'āce,² of the high priest: and he sat with the sērvants, and wārmēd himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests, and all the council sought for witness āgainst' Jē'sūs to put him to death; and found nōne:

56 For many bare fālse witness āgainst' him, but their witness āgrēed not togēth-er.

57 And there ārose cēr'tāin, and bare fālse witness āgainst' him, saying,

58 We hēard him say, I will dēstrōy' this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build ānōther made without hands.

59 But nēither so did their witness āgrēe' togēth-er.

60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and āsked Jē'sūs, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witnesses against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.¹

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crew twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAP. XV.

AND straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering, said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold, how many things they witness against thee!

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 ¶ Now, at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude, crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 (For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.)

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 ¶ And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and, bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenæan, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, the place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.

CHAP. XVI.

29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destrôy'est the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests, mocking, said among themselves, with the scribes, He saved others, himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Is'ra-ël descend' now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him, reviled him.

33 ¶ And, when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour, Jē'sūs cried with a loud voice, saying, E-lō'î, E-lō'î, lâ'nā sā-bāch-thā'nî? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth E-li'ās.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether E-li'ās will come to take him down.

37 And Jē'sūs cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this Man was the Son of God.

40 There were also women looking on afar off; among whom was Mā'ry Māg-da-lē'ne, and Mā'ry the mother of James the less, and of Jō'sēs, and Sa-lō'me;

41 (Who also, when he was in Gāl'ilēē, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jē-rù'sa-lēm.

42 And now when the even was come, (because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,)

43 Jō'sēph of Ar-i-ma-thē'ā, an hōn'ourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilāte, and craved the body of Jē'sūs.

44 And Pilāte marvelled if he were already dead: and, calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Jō'sēph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mā'ry Māg-da-lē'ne, and Mā'ry the mother of Jō'sēs, beheld where he was laid.

AND when the sabbath was past, Mā'ry Māg-da-lē'ne, and Mā'ry the mother of James, and Sa-lō'me, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 (And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away;) for it was very great.

5 And, entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jē'sūs of Nāz'a-rēth, which was crucified; he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Pē'tēr, that he goeth before you into Gāl'ilēē: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled, and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jē'sūs was risen early, the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mā'ry Māg-da-lē'ne, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their un-belief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gōspēl to every creature.

16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues.

18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then, after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Ā'mēn'.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE.

CHAPTER I.

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand, to set forth in order, a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee, in order, most excellent Thē-ōph'i-lūs,

4 That thou mightst know the cēr'tainty of those things, wherein thou hast been¹ instructed.

5 ¶ THERE was in the days of Hēr'od, the king of Ju-dē'ā, a cēr'tain priest named Zāch-a-rī'ās, of the course of Ā-bī'ā: and his wife was of the daughters of Āār'ōn, and her name was Ē-liš'a-bēth.

6 And they were both righ'teous² before God, walk'ing in all the cōmmānd'mēnts and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Ē-liš'a-bēth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pās that while he executed the priest's office before God, in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without, at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the āltar of incense.

12 And when Zāch-a-rī'ās saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zāch-a-rī'ās: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Ē-liš'a-bēth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name Jōhn.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness: and many shall rejoice at his birth.³

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Hōly Ghōst, even from his mōth'r's womb.

16 And many of the children of Iŷ'ra-ēl shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Ē-lī'ās, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the dīsōbē'diēnt to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 ¶ And Zāch-a-rī'ās said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel ān'swer'ing, said unto him, I am Gā'bri-ēl, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee and to show thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be pēr'fōrm'ed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zāch-a-rī'ās, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vīōn in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pās, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days, his wife Ē-liš'a-bēth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me, in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 ¶ And in the sixth month, the angel Gā'bri-ēl was sent from God unto a city of Gāl'i-lēē, named Nāz'a-rēth, 27 To a vir'gīn⁴ espōūsed to a man whose name was Jō'sēph, of the house of Dā'vid; and the vir'gīn's name was Mā'ry.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blēs'sed art thou among wom'en.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mā'ry: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the High'est: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father Dā'vid.

⁴ vēr'jīn.

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jā'cōb forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mā'ry unto the āngel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the āngel ānswered and said unto her, The Hōly Ghōst shall come upon thee, and the power of the High'ēst shall overshadow thee: thēre'fore, also, that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Ē-līš'a-bēth, she hath also cōncēived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth mōnth with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God nōthing shall be impossible.

38 And Mā'ry said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the āngel departed from her.

39 And Mā'ry ārōse in those days, and went into the hill-country with haste, into a city of Jū'dāh.

40 And entered into the house of Zāch-a-rī'ās, and salūted Ē-līš'a-bēth.

41 And it came to pās, that, when Ē-līš'a-bēth heard the salutation of Mā'ry, she hāve leaped in her womb; and Ē-līš'a-bēth was filled with the Hōly Ghōst:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blēs'sed art thou āmōng wom'en, and blēs'sed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mōther of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blēs'sed is she that bēliēved: for there shall be a pērfōrm'ance of those things which wēre told her from the Lord.

46 ¶ And Mā'ry said, My soul dōth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Sāv'ioū.

48 For he hath regarded the low ēstāte' of his handmaiden; for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blēs'sed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

50 And his mērcy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51 He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exālted them of low degree.

53 He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty āwāy.

54 He hath holpen his sērvant Īš'ra-ēl, in remembrance of his mērcy:

55 As he spake to our fāthers, to Ā'bra-hām, and to his seed forever.

56 And Mā'ry ābode with her ābout three mōnth, and returned to her own house.

57 ¶ Now Ē-līš'a-bēth's full time came, that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had showed great mērcy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pās, that, on the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zāch-a-rī'ās, āfter the name of his fāther.

60 And his mōther ānswered, and said, Not so; but he shall be called Jōhn.

61 And they said unto her, There is nōne of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his fāther, how he would have him called.

63 And he āsked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is Jōhn. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tōngue lōd'sed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round ābout' them; and all these sayings wēre noised ābroād throughout all the hill-country of Jū-dē'ā.

66 And all they that had heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying, Whāt manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 ¶ And his fāther Zāch-a-rī'ās was filled with the Hōly Ghōst, and prōph'esied, saying,

68 Blēs'sed be the Lord God of Īš'ra-ēl; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised up a horn of salvation for us, in the house of his sērvant Dāv'īd;

70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the wōrld began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To pērfōrm' the mērcy promised to our fāthers, and to remember his holy cōv'enant;

73 The oath which he sware to our fāther Ā'bra-hām,

74 That he would grānt unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might sērve him without fear,

75 In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called The Prōph'et of the High'ēst: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mērcy of our God; whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us,

79 To give light to them that sit in dārk

ness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew,² and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the des'erts till the day of his showing unto Iſ'ra-ël.

CHAP. II.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cē'sār Āu-gūs'tūs, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cŷ-rē'n-i-ūs was gov'er-nór of Sŷr'i-ā:)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Jō'sēph also went up from Gāl'il-ēe, out of the city of Naz'a-rēth into Ju-dē'ā, unto the city of Da'víd, which is called Bēth'le-hēm, (because he was of the house and lineage of Da'víd,)

5 To be taxed with Mā'ry his ēspōūsed wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they wēre there, the days wēre accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrāpped him in swād'ling-clothes,³ and laid him in a mānger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 ¶ And there wēre in the same country shēp'hērds ābī'ding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the āngel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shōne round ābout' them: and they wēre sore āfrāid.

10 And the āngel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day, in the city of Da'víd, a Sāv'ioūr, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrāpped in swād'ling-clothes, lying in a mānger.

13 And suddenly there was with the āngel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on ēarth peace, good will tō'wārd's men.

15 ¶ And it came to pass as the āngels wēre gone āway from them into heaven, the shēp'hērds said one to ānōther, Let us now go even unto Bēth'le-hēm, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mā'ry, and Jō'sēph, and the babe lying in a mānger.

17 And, when they had seen it, they made known ābroād the saying which was told them cōncēr'ning this child.

18 And all they that hēard it, wondered at those things which wēre told them by the shēp'hērds.

19 But Mā'ry kept all these things, and pondered them in her hēart.

20 And the shēp'hērds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had hēard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 ¶ And when eight days wēre accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called Jē'SŪS, which was so named of the āngel before he was cōncēived in the womb.⁴

22 ¶ And when the days of her purification, according to the law of Mō'sēs, wēre accomplished, they brought him to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord.)

24 And to offer a sēc'rifice, according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-dōves, or two young pig'coņs.⁴

25 ¶ And, behold, there was a man in Jē-rū'sa-lēm, whose name was Sīm'e-ōn; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Iſ'ra-ël: and the Hōly Ghōst was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Hōly Ghōst, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by the Spī'r'it into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jē'sūs, to do for him āfter the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blēss'ed God, and said,

29 Lord, now lettest thou thy sērvant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 A light to lighten the Gēn'tiles, and the glory of thy people Iſ'ra-ël.

33 And Jō'sēph and his mōther marvelled at those things which wēre spoken of him.

34 And Sīm'e-ōn blēss'ed them, and said unto Mā'ry his mōther, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising āgain' of many in Iſ'ra-ël; and for a sign which shall be spoken āgainst';

35 (Yēa, a swōrd shall pierce through thy own soul also;) that the thoughts of many hēarts may be revealed.

36 ¶ And there was one Ān'nā, a prophetess, the dāughter of Pha-nū'ēl, of the tribe of A'sēr; she was of a great age, and had lived with her hūs'bānd seven years from her virgīn'ity;⁵

37 And she was a widow of ābout' fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but sērv'd God with fāst'ings and prayers night and day.

38 And she, coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

39 And when they had pērfōrm'ed all things, according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Gāl'i-lēe, to their own city Nāz'a-rēth.

40 And the child grew,¹ and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him.

41 ¶ Now his parents went to Jē-rū'sa-lēm every year at the feast of the pāssover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jē'sūs tarried behind in Jē-rū'sa-lēm; and Jō'sēph and his mōther knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the cōm'pany, went a day's jōurney; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again' to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, seeking him.

46 And it came to pās, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and ask'ing them questions.

47 And all that heard him wēre astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they wēre amazed; and his mōther said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist² ye not that I must be about' my Fā'ther's business?

50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 ¶ And he went down with them, and came to Nāz'a-rēth, and was subject unto them; but his mōther kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jē'sūs increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAP. III.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Ti-bē-ri-ūs Cē'sār, Pōn'ti-ūs³ Pī-lāte being gov'er-nōr of Jū-dē'ā and Hēr'od being tē'trārch of Gāl'i-lēe, and his brōther Phīl'ip tē'trārch of It-u-rē'ā and of the region of Trāch-ō-nī'tis, and Ly-sā'nī-ās the tē'trārch of Ab-i-lē'ne,

2 An'nās and Cai'a-phās⁴ being the high priēsts, the word of God came unto Jōhn the son of Zāch-a-rī'ās in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all the country about' Jōr'dān, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins:

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Ē-sā'i-ās the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his pāths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mōūn'tain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough⁵ ways shall be made smooth;

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude, that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the w'rāth to come?

8 Bring forth therefore, fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Ā'bra-hām to our fāther: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Ā'bra-hām.

9 And now also, the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree, thēre'fore, which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, Whāt shall we do then?

11 He answered and saith unto them, he that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath nōne; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came, also, publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Mā'ster, whāt shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the sōl'diērs, likewise, dēmān'ded of him, saying, And whāt shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, nēither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.

15 ¶ And as the people wēre in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of Jōhn, whether he wēre the Christ, or not;

16 Jōhn answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with wāter; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not wōrthy to unlōōse. he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghōst and with fire:

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gāther the wheat into his garner; but the chāff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things, in his exhortation, preached he unto the people.

19 But Hēr'od the tē'trārch, being reproved by him, for Hē-rō'di-ās his brōther Phīl'ip's wife, and for all the evils which Hēr'od had done, 20 Added yet this ābōve all, that he shut up Jōhn in prison.

21 Now, when all the people wēre baptized, it came to pās, that Jē'sūs also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 And the Holy Ghōst descēn'ded in a bodily shape like a dōve upon him; and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

23 ¶ And Jē'sūs himself began to be about' thirty years of age, being, (as was supposed) the son of Jō'sēph, which was the son of Hē'lī,

CHAP. IV.

AND Jē'sūs, being full of the Hōly Ghōst, returned from Jō'r'dān, and was led by the spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing : and, when they wēre ended, he āstérwārd's hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cōmmand' this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jē'sūs ānswēred him, saying, It is writtē, That man shall not live by bread ālōne, but by every word of God.

5 And the devīl, taking him up into a high mōūn'tāin, showed unto him all the kingdōms of the wōrld in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them : for that is deliverēd unto me ; and to whomsoever I will, I give it.

7 If thou, thēre'fōre, wilt wōr'ship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jē'sūs ānswēred and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Sā'tān : for it is writtē, Thou shalt wōr'ship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou sērve.

9 And he brought him to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cāst thyself down from hence :

10 For it is writtē, He shall give his āngels chārgē over thee, to keep thee :

11 Andⁱⁿ their hands they shall bēār thee up, lēst at any time thou dash thy foot āgāinst' a stone.

12 And Jē'sūs ān'swērīng, said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 ¶ And Jē'sūs returned in the power of the Spīr'it into Gāl'ilēē : and there went out a fame of him through all the regiōn round ābōut'.

15 And he taught in their s'yn'agōgues, being glorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to Nāz'a-rēth, where he had been brought up : and, as his custom was, he went into the s'yn'agōgue on the sāb'bath-dāy, and stood up for to rēād.

17 And there was deliverēd unto him the book of the prophet Ē-sā'i-ās :² And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was writtē,

18 The Spīr'it of the Lord is upon me, because he hath ānōīn'ted me to preach the gōs'pēl to the poor ; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hēarted, to preach deliverance to the cāp'tives, and recōvering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that āre brui'sed,³

19 To preach the āccēptāble year of the Lord.

20 And he clōsed the book, and he gave it āgāin' to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that wēre in the s'yn'agōgue wēre fāstēned on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the grā'ciōūs¹ words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Jō'sēph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Ça-pēr'na-üm, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in İş'ra-ēl in the days of Ē-lī'ās, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great fām'ine was throughout all the land:

26 But unto none of them was Ē-lī'ās sent, save unto Sa-rēp'tā, a city of Sī'dōn, unto a wom'an that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in İş'ra-ēl in the time of Ē-lī-sē'ūs the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Nā'a-mān the Sŷ'r'i-ān.

28 And all they in the sŷ'n'agōgue, when they heard these things, were filled with irāth,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he, pās's'ing through the midst of them, went his way,

31 And came down to Ça-pēr'na-üm, a city of Gāl'i-lēē, and taught them on the sǎb'bath-dāys.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 ¶ And in the sŷ'n'agōgue there was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, Let us ālōne; whāt have we to do with thee, thou Jē'sūs of Nāz'a-rēth? art thou come to destrōy' us? I know thee who thou art; the Hōly One of God.

35 And Jē'sūs rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all āmāzed, and spake among themselves, saying, Whāt a word is this! for with authority and power, he cōmmān'deth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round ābout'.

38 ¶ And he ārōse out of the sŷ'n'agōgue, and entered into Sī'mōn's house. And Sī'mōn's wife's mōther was taken with a great fever; and they besōught him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she ārōse, and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now, when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with dī'ver's diseases, brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ, the Son of God. And he, rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 ¶ And when it was day, he departed, and went into a dēs'ert place; and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also; for thērē'fōre am I sent.

44 And he preached in the sŷ'n'agōgues of Gāl'i-lēē.

CHAP. V.

AND it came to pās, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Ğēn-nēs'a-rēt.

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were wāsh'ing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Sī'mōn's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 ¶ Now, when he had left speaking, he said unto Sī'mōn, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.²

5 And Sī'mōn ān'swer'ing, said unto him, Mā'ster, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nōthing: nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their pārtners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Sī'mōn Pē'tēr saw it, he fell down at Jē'sūs' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James and Jōhn, the sons of Zēb'e-dēē, which were pārtners with Sī'mōn. And Jē'sūs said unto Sī'mōn, Fear not; for henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a cēr'tain city, behold, a man full of leprosy; who, seeing Jē'sūs, fell on his face, and besōught him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touch ed him, saying, I will: be thou clean.

And immediately the læprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man : but go, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Mo'ses commãded, for a tẽs'timõny unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame åbroåd of him : and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infir'mities.¹

16 ¶ And he withdrew² himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to pãss on a cẽr'tain day, as he was teaching, that there wẽre Phãr'i-sẽes and doctors of the law sitting by, which wẽre come out of every town of Gãl'i-lẽe, and Jũ-de'ã, and Jẽ-rũ'sa-lẽm : and the power of the Lord was pẽsẽnt to heal them.

18 ¶ And, behold, men brought, in a bed, a man which was taken with a pãl'sy ; and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And, when they could not find by whãt way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tĩ'ling, with his couch, into the mudst before Jẽ'sũs.

20 And, when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Phãr'i-sẽes began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blãs'phemĩes ? Who can forgive sins but God alone ?

22 But, when Jẽ'sũs pẽrceived their thoughts, he ån'swering, said unto them, Whãt reason ye in your hearts ?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee ; or to say, Rise up and walk ?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the pãl'sy,) I say unto thee, Årĩse, and take up thy couch, and go unto thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they wẽre all åmãzed, and they glorified God, and wẽre filled with fear, saying, We have seen strãnge things to-day.

27 ¶ And åfter these things, he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lẽ'vĩ, sitting at the receipt of custom : And he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 ¶ And Lẽ'vĩ made him a great feast in his own house : and there was a great cõpany of publicans, and of others, that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Phãr'i-sẽes murmured ågainst' his discĩples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners ?

31 And Jẽ'sũs ån'swering, said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician ; but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righ'tẽous,³ but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, Why do the discĩples of Jõhn fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the discĩples of the Phãr'i-sẽes ; but thine eat and drink ?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the brĩde-chãmbẽr fast, while the brĩde-groom is with them ?

35 But the days will come, when the brĩde-groom shall be taken åway from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them : No man putteth a piẽce of a new garment upon an old ; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piẽce that was taken out of the new ågrẽeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles ; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles ; and both are pẽsẽrv'ed.

39 No man also, having drunk old wine, straightway desireth new : for he saith, The old is better.

CHAP. VI.

AND it came to pãss on the second sãb' bath åfter the first, that he went through the corn fields ; and his discĩples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And cẽr'tain of the Phãr'i-sẽes said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sãb' bath-dãy ?

3 And Jẽ'sũs ån'swering them, said, Have ye not rẽad so much as this, whãt Dã'vid did, when himself was a hungered, and they which wẽre with him ?

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the show-bread, and gave also to them that wẽre with him : which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests ålõne ?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of Man is Lord also of the sãb' bath.

6 ¶ And it came to pass also, on ånõther sãb' bath, that he entered into the sũ'n' a-gõgne and taught : and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Phãr'i-sẽes wãtch'ed him, whether he would heal on the sãb' bath-dãy ; that they might find an accusation ågainst' him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he årõse, and stood forth.

9 Then said Jẽ'sũs unto them, I will åsk you one thing ; Is it lawful on the sãb'- bath-days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy' it?

10 And, looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jē'sūs.

12 ¶ And it came to pass in those days that he went out into a mōun'tain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples; and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apōstles;

14 Sī'mon, (whom he also named Pē'tér,) and Ān'drew¹ his brōther, Jāmes and Jōhn, Phil'ip and Bār-thō'l'o-mew,

15 Māt'thew and Thōm'ās, Jāmes the son of Āl-phē'ūs, and Sī'mōn called Zē-lō'tes,

16 And Jū'dās the brōther of Jāmes, and Jū'dās Īs-çār'i-ōt, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain; and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Jū-de'ā and Jē-rū'sa-lēm. and from the sea-coast of T'yre and Sī-dōn, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue² out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blēs'sed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 Blēs'sed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blēs'sed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.³

22. Blēs'sed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake.

23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But wo unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

25 Wo unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Wo unto you that laugh now, for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Wo unto you when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you;

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despite'fully use you.

29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods, ask them not again'

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again'.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again': and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the High'est: for he is kind to the unthankful, and to the evil.

36 Be ye, thēre'fore, mērcifūl, as your Fā'ther also is mērcifūl.

37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 Give, and it shall be given unto you; good mēa'sure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bō'sōm.⁴ For with the same mēa'sure that ye mete withal, it shall be mēa'sured to you again'.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is pērfect shall be as his master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brōther's eye, but pērcēi'vest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brōther, Brōther, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

Thou h'yp'ocrite! cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brōther's eye.

43 For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit;⁵ neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit: for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a brāmbles-būsh gather they grapes.

45 A good man, out of the good trēa'sūre of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man, out of the evil trēa'sūre of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abūn'dānce of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ And why call ye me, Lord, Lord; and do not the things which I say?

47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like :

48 He is like a man which built a house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock ; and, when the flood ārōse, the stream beat vē'hē-mēnt-ly upon that house, and could not shake it : for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that, without a foundation, built a house upon the ēarth ; āgainst which the stream did beat vē'hē-mēnt-ly, and immediately it fell ; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAP. VII.

NOW, when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Ca-pēr'na-ūm.

2 And a cēr'tain centurion's sērvant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And, when he hēard of Jē'sūs, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his sērvant.

4 And, when they came to Jē'sūs, they besōught him instantly, saying, That he was wōrthy for whom he should do this :

5 For he lōveth our nation, and he hath built us a s'yn'agōgue.

6 Then Jē'sūs went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trōuble not thyself ; for I am not wōrthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof :

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself wōrthy to come unto thee ; but say in a word, and my sērvant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me sōldiērs, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth ; and to ānōther, Come, and he cometh ; and to my sērvant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jē'sūs hēard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him ābout', and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Is'ra-ēl.

10 And they that wēre sent, returning to the house, found the sērvant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pās the day āfter, that he went into a city called Nā'in ; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mōther, and she was a widow : and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and tōuched the bier :

and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead, sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mōther.

16 And there came a fear on all ; and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up āmōng us ; and, That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Jū-dē'ā, and throughout all the region round ābout'.

18 And the disciples of Jōhn showed him all these things.

19 ¶ And Jōhn, calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jē'sūs, saying, Art thou he that should come ? or look we for ānōther ?

20 When the men wēre come unto him, they said, Jōhn Bāp'tist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come ? or look we for ānōther ?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmitēs and plāgues, and of evil spirits : and unto many that wēre blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jē'sūs ān'swering, said unto them, Go your way, and tell Jōhn whāt things ye have seen and hēard ; how that the blind see, the lame wālk, the lēpers āre cleansed, the dēaf hear, the dead āre raised, to the poor the gōs'pēl is preached.

23 And blēs'sed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And, when the messengers of Jōhn wēre departed, he began to speak unto the people cōncēr'ning Jōhn, Whāt went ye out into the wilderness for to see ? A reed shaken with the wind ?

25 But whāt went ye out for to see ? A man clōthed in soft raiment ? Behold, they which āre gōr'geously¹ apparelled, and live delicately, āre in kings' courts.

26 But whāt went ye out for to see ? A prophet ? Yēa, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Āmōng those that āre born of wom'en, there is not a greater prophet than Jōhn the Bāp'tist : but he that is least in the kingdom of God, is greater than he.

29 And all the people that hēard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of Jōhn.

30 But the Phār'i-sēes and lawyers rejected the counsel of God āgainst' themselves, being not baptized of Jōhn.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generatiōn ? and to whāt āre they like ?

32 They āre like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to ānōth er, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not dānced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 Fer Jōhn the Bāp'tist came nēither eating bread, nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of Man is come eating and drinking, and ye say, Behold, a glūt'tōnōus man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicāns and sinners!

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And one of the Phār'i-sēēs desired him that he would eat with him, and he went into the Phār'i-sēē's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a wom'an in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jē'sūs sat at meat in the Phār'i-sēē's house, brought an āl'ābāstēr box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wāsh his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and ānōint'ed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Phār'i-sēē which had bidden him saw it, he spake withīn himself, saying, This man, if he wēre a prophet, would have known who and whāt manner of wom'an this is that tou'beth him; for she is a sinner.

40 And Jē'sūs ān'swerīng, said unto him, Sī'mōn, I have sōme'whāt to say unto thee. And he said, Mā'ster, say on.

41 There was a cēr'tain crēditor, which had two debtors; the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nōthing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me, thērē'fōre, which of them will lōve him most?

43 Sī'mōn ān'swered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the wom'an, and said unto Sī'mōn, Seest thou this wom'an? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no wāter for my feet: but she hath wāsh'ed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss; but this wom'an, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My head with oil thou didst not ānōint: but this wom'an hath ānōinted my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore, I say unto thee, Her sins, which āre many, āre forgiven: for she lōved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same lōveth little.

48 And he said unto her, Thy sins āre forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him, began to say withīn themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the wom'an, Thy faith hath saved thee: go in peace.

CHAP. VIII.

AND it came to pāss āf'tērward, that he went throughout every city and vil'lage,¹ preaching and showing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve wēre with him.

2 And cēr'tain wom'en, which had been healed of evil spirits and infir'mitīes, Mā'ry called Māg-da-lē'ne, out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Jā-an'nā the wife of Chū'sā, Hēr'od's stēw'ard, and Sū-šān'nā, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ And when much people wēre gāth'ered togēther, and wēre come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it:

6 And some fell upon a rock; and, as soon as it was sprung up, it withered āwāy, because it lacked moisture:

7 And some fell āmōng thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it:

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit a hundred-fold. And, when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 ¶ And his dīscīples āsked him, saying, Whāt might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mys'tēries of the kingdom of God; but to others in parables: that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 ¶ Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way-side āre they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh āwāy the word out of their hēarts; lēst they should belīeve and be saved.

13 They on the rock āre they, which, when they hear, recēive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while belīeve, and in time of temptation fall āwāy.

14 And that which fell āmōng thorns, āre they which, when they have hēard, go forth, and āre choked with cares, and riches, and plēās'ures of this life, and bring no fruit to pērfēctiōn.

15 But that on the good ground āre they, which, in an hōn'ēst and good hēart, having hēard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ No man, when he hath lighted a candle, cōvereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candīestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nōthing is secret that shall not be made manifest; nēither any thing hid, that shall not be known, and come ábroáð.

18 Take heed, thère'fore, how ye hear : for whosoever hath, to him shall be given ; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

19 ¶ Then came to him his móther and his bréthren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by cër'tain, which said, Thy móther and thy bréthren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My móther and my bréthren áre these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ Now it came to pass on a cër'tain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples : and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they lunched forth.

23 But as they sailed, he fell ásléep : and there came down a storm of wind on the lake ; and they wère filled with wáter, and wère in jepoardy.¹

24 And they came to him, and áwóke him, saying, Mâ'ster, Mâ'ster, we perish ! Then he árose and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the wáter : and they ceased, and there was a cáhn.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith ? And they, being áfráid, wondered, saying one to ánother, Whát manner of man is this ! for he cõmmán'deth even the winds and wáter, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the Gad-a-rènes', which is over ágainst Gál'í-lée.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city, a cër'tain man which had devils a long time, and ware no clothes, neither áhõde in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jē'sūs, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, Whát have I to do with thee, Jē'sūs, thou Son of God most high ? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had cõmmán'ded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him : and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters ; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jē'sūs asked him, saying, Whát is thy name ? And he said, Lé'gion ; because many devils wère entered into him.

31 And they besõught him that he would not cõmmán'd' them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there a hërd of many swine feeding on the môùn'táin : and they besõught him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine : and the hërd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and wère chõked.

2 á-gěn.'

34 When they that fed them saw whát was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city, and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see whát was done ; and came to Jē'sūs, and found the man, out of whom the devils wère departed, sitting at the feet of Jē'sūs, clothed, and in his right mind : and they wère áfráid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by whát means he that was põssëss'ed of the devils, was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gad-a-rènes', round about', besõught him to depart from them ; for they wère taken with great fear : and he went up into the ship, and returned back ágain'.²

38 Now the man, out of whom the devils wère departed, besõught him that he might be with him : but Jē'sūs sent him áway, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and show how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jē'sūs had done unto him.

40 And it came to pæss, that when Jē'sūs was returned, the people gladly rěcěived him : for they wère all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And, behold, there came a man named Já'i-rús, and he was a ruler of the sýn'agõgue : and he fell down at Jē'sūs' feet, and besõught him that he would come into his house :

42 For he had one only dàuhter, ábout twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. (But as he went, the people thrõged him.)

43 ¶ And a wom'an having an issue³ of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, nēither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and tóuched the border of his gármēt : and immediately her issue of blood stánched.

45 And Jē'sūs said, Who tóuched me ? When all denied, Pě'tér, and they that wère with him, said, Mâ'ster, the multitude thrõng thee, and press thee, and sayest thou, Who tóuched me ?

46 And Jē'sūs said, Somebody hath tóuched me : for I pěrcěive' that vir'tue⁴ is gone out of me.

47 And when the wom'an saw that she was not hid, she came trembling ; and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for whát cause she had tóuched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Dàuhter, be of good cõm'fört : thy faith hath made thee whole ; go in peace.)

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the sýn'agõgue's house, saying to him, Thy dàuhter is dead ; trõuble not the Mâ'ster.

3 ish'shū.

4 věr'tshū.

50 But, when Jesús heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not: she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laugh'ed¹ him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again', and she arose straightway: and he comman'ded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

THEN he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet, for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ Now Herod, the tetrarch, heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplex'ed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again'.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place, belonging to the city, called Beth-saida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him; and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 ¶ And, when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about', and lodge, and get victuals; for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves, and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 (For they were about' five thousand men.) And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes; and, looking up to heaven, he bless'ed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And it came to pass, as he was alone, praying, his disciples were with him; and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering, said, John the Baptist: but some say Elias, and others say, That one of the old prophets is risen again'.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering, said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them, and comman'ded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advanced, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ And it came to pass about' an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And behold there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease, which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter, and they that were with him, were heavy with sleep: and when they wère áwake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to páss, as they departed from him, Pē'tér said unto Jē'sūs, Mā'ster, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three táb'ernácles; one for thee, and one for Mō'sēs, and one for Ē-l'ás: not knowing w'hát he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them; and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my belóved Son: hear him.

36 And when the voice was pást, Jē'sūs was found álone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And it came to páss, that, on the next day, when they wère come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the cōpany cried out, saying, Mā'ster, I beseech thee, look upon my son; for he is mine only child:

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth ágain'; and, bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy discíples to cást him out; and they could not.

41 And Jē'sūs án'sweríng, said, O faithless and pērvérse' generation! how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jē'sūs rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him ágain' to his father.

43 ¶ And they wère all ámázed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jē'sūs did, he said unto his discíples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of Man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they pērcēived it not: and they feared to ásk him of that saying.

46 ¶ Then there árose a reasoning ámong them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jē'sūs, pērcēiv'ing the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name, récēiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, récēiveth him that sent me: for he that is least ámong you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ And Jōhn ánswered and said, Mā'ster, we saw one cás'ting out devils in thy name; and we fórbáde' him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jē'sūs said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not ágainst' us, is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to páss, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stéad'fástly set his face to go to Jē-rú'sa-lém,

52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a vil'lage² of the Sá-már'i-táns to make réady for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jē-rú'sa-lém.

54 And when his discíples, Jāmes and Jōhn, saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we cōmmānd' fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Ē-l'ás did?

55 But he turned and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not w'hát manner of spirit ye áre of.³

56 For the Son of Man is not come to destróy' men's lives, but to save them. And they went to ánóther vil'lage.

57 And it came to páss, that, as they went in the way, a cēr'táin man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jē'sūs said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto ánóther, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jē'sūs said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And ánóther also said, Lord, I will follow thee: but let me first go bid them farewell which áre at home at my house.

62 And Jē'sūs said unto him, No man having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAP. X.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whether he himself would come.

2 Thēre'fóre said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the lábouérs áre few: pray ye thēre'fóre the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth lábouérs into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs ámong wolves.

4 Carry néither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and sálute no man by the way.

5 And into w'hátsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you ágain'.

7 And in the same house remáin, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the lábouérs is wóthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into w^hatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you ;

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into w^hatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against^r you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sūd'om than for that city.

13 ¶ Wo unto thee, Chō-rā'zīn! wo unto thee, Bēth-sā'i-dā! for if the mighty works had been done in Tÿre and Sī'dōn, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tÿre and Sī'dōn at the judgment than for you.

15 And thou, Çā-pē'na-ūm, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 He that heareth you, heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again^r with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Sa'tān as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ In that hour Jē'sūs rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Fā'ther, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent,¹ and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Fā'ther; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Fā'ther; and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Fā'ther; and who the Fā'ther is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disci-ples, and said privately, Blēs'sed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And, behold, a cēr'tain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Mā'ster, w^hat shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, W^hat is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he an'swering, said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jē'sūs, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jē'sūs an'swering, said, A cēr'tain man went down from Jē-rū'sa-lēm to Jēr'i-chō, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded² him, and departed, leaving him, half dead.

31 And by chance, there came down a cēr'tain priest that way; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Le'vite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a cēr'tain Sa-mār'i-tān, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him: and w^hatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again^r, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jē'sūs unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a cēr'tain vil'lage:³ and a cēr'tain wom'an, named Mār'thā, received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mā'ry, which also sat at Jē'sūs' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Mār'thā was cumbered about much sēr'ving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her, there'fore, that she help me.

41 And Jē'sūs answered, and said unto her, Mār'thā, Mār'thā, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needful: and Mā'ry hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAP. XI.

AND it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a cēr'tain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him,

¹ prōd'dēnt.

² rhyming with bōund'ed, fōund'ed, &c.

³ vil'ldje.

Lord, teach us to pray, as Jōhn also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Fā'ther which art in heaven: Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend; yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or, if he ask a fish, will he, for a fish, give him a serpent?

12 Or, if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children; how much more shall your heavenly Fā'ther give the Holy Spīrit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ And he was cāst'ing out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pāss, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He cās'teth out devils through Bē-ēl'ze-būb, the chief of the devils.

16 And others tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Sā'tān also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cāst out devils through Bē-ēl'ze-būb.

19 And if I by Bē-ēl'ze-būb cāst out devils, by whom do your sons cāst them out? there'fore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the finger of God cāst out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his pāl'ace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when a stronger than he sūa come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gāthereth not with me scattereth.

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pāss, as he spake these things, a cēr'tain wom'an¹ of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Błēs'sed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucke.

28 But he said, Yea, rather błēs'sed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶ And when the people wēre gāthered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jō'nās the prophet.

30 For as Jō'nās was a sign unto the Nin'e-vites, so shall also the Son of Man be to this generation.

31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them; for she came from the utmost parts of the earth, to hear the wisdom of Sōl'o-mōn; and, behold, a greater than Sōl'o-mōn is here!

32 The men of Nin'e-vēh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jō'nās; and, behold, a greater than Jō'nās is here.

33 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is the eye: there'fore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed, there'fore, that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body, there'fore, be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a cēr'tain Phār'i-see besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Phār'i-see saw it, he marvelled that he had not first wāsh'ed before dinner.

39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye, Phār'i-sēēs, make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your in'ward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools! did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 But rāther give ālm̄s of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things āre clean unto you.

42 But wo unto you, Phār'i-sēēs! for ye tithe the mint, and rue,¹ and all manner of hērb̄s, and pās over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Wo unto you, Phār'i-sēēs! for ye love the uppermost seats in the s̄yn'agōgues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Wo unto you, scribes and Phār'i-sēēs, h̄yp'ocrites! for ye āre as graves which appear not, and the men that wālk over them āre not āware of them.

45 ¶ Then ānswered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Mā'ster, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Wo unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens griēv'ous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Wo unto you! for ye build the sēp'ulchres of the prophets, and your fāthers killed them.

48 Truly ye beār witness that ye allow the deeds of your fāthers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sēp'ulchres.

49 Thēre'fore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and āpōstles, and some of them they shall slay and p̄secute;

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 From the blood of Ā/bēl unto the blood of Zāch-a-rī'ās, which perished between the āltar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 Wo unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken āwāy the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that wēre entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he said thesethings unto them, the scribes and the Phār'i-sēēs began to urge him vē'hē-mēnt-ly, and to provoke him to speak of many things.

54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAP. XII.

IN the mean time, when there wēre gāth-ered togethēr an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trōde one upon ānōther, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Phār'i-sēēs, which is hypōc'risy.

2 For there is nōthing cōvered, that shall not be revealed; nēither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Thēre'fore whātsoever ye have spoken in darkness, shall be hēard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets, shall be proclāim'ed upon the house-tops.

4 And I say unto you, my friends, Be not āfrāid of them that kill the body, and āfter that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will fōre-wārn' you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which, āfter he hath killed, hath power to cāst into hell; yēa, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Āre not five sparrows sold for two farthings? and not one of them is forgotten before God.

7 But even the very hairs of your head āre all numbered. Fear not, thēre'fore; ye āre of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of Man also confess before the āngels of God.

9 But he that denieth me before men, shall be denied before the āngels of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word āgainst' the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blāspēm'eth āgainst' the Hōly Ghōst, it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the s̄yn'agōgues, and unto magistrates and powers, take ye no thought how or whāt thing ye shall ānswer, or whāt ye shall say:

12 For the Hōly Ghōst shall teach you in the same hour whāt ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the cōmpany said unto him, Mā'ster, speak to my brōther, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge, or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of cōv'ētōūsnēss: for a man's life consisteth not in the ābūn'dānce of the things which he pōssēs's/eth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a cēr'tain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, Whāt shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years: take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee ; then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided ?

21 So is he that layeth up trëas'ure for himself, and is not rich tõ'wård God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his discip'les, Thère'fore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, wåt ye shall eat ; nèither for the body, wåt ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens : for they nèither sow nor reap ; which nèither have store-house nor barn ; and God feedeth them : How much more àre ye better than the fowls ?

25 And which of you, with taking thought, can add to his ståt'ure¹ one cubit ?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is læst, why take ye thought for the rest ?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow : they toil not, they spin not ; and yet I say unto you, that Sõl'o-mõn, in all his glory, was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the græss, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cåst into the oven ; how much more will he clothe you ? O ye of little fåith !

29 And seek not ye wåt ye shall eat, or wåt ye shall drink ; nèither be ye of dõubt'fål mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the wõrld seek åfter : and your Få'ther knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ But råther seek ye the kingdom of God : and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock ; for it is your Få'ther's good pleås'ure to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell that ye have, and give ålms ; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a trëas'ure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thieff approacheth, nèither mõth corrupteth :

34 For where your trëas'ure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let your loins be gir'ded² åbout', and your lights burning :

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding ; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blës'sed àre those sèrvants, whom the lord, when he cometh, shall find wåtch'ing : verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and sèrve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second wåtch,³ or come in the third wåtch, and find them so, blës'sed àre those sèrvants.

39 And this know, that if the good man of the house had known wåt hour the thieff would come, he would have wåtch'ed, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye, thère'fore, rëady also : for the Son of Man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Pë'tër said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all ?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise stëwård, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their põt'ion of meat in due season ?

43 Blës'sed is that sèrvant, whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, That he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that sèrvant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming ; and shall begin to beat the men-sèrvants, and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken ;

46 The lord of that sèrvant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not åwåre, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his põt'ion with the ün-bë-liëv'ers.

47 And that sèrvant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, nèither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew not, and did commit things wõrthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required : and to whom men have committed much, of him they will åsk the more.

49 ¶ I am come to send fire on the èarth ; and wåt will I, if it be ålrëady kindled.

50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with ; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished !

51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on èarth ? I tell you, Nay ; but råther divi'sion :

52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three ågainst' two, and two ågainst' three.

53 The father shall be divided ågainst' the son, and the son ågainst' the father ; the mõther ågainst' the dåughter, and the dåughter ågainst' the mõther ; the mõther-in-law ågainst' her dåughter-in-law, and the dåughter-in-law ågainst' her mõther-in-law.

54 ¶ And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shõwer ; and so it is.

55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat ; and it cometh to pæss.

56 Ye hÿp'ocrites ! ye can dÿ'scern' the face of the sky,⁴ and of the èarth ; but how is it, that ye do not diſcern' this time ?

57 Yeā, and why even of yourselves judge ye not whāt is right ?

58 ¶ When thou goest with thine ād'vēr-sāry to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayst be delivered from him ; læst he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cāst thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very læst mite.

CHAP. XIII.

THERE wēre present at that season some that told him of the Gāl-i-lē'āns, whose blood Pī'lāte had mingled with their sāk'rifices.

2 And Jē'sūs ān'swering, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Gāl-i-lē'āns wēre sinners ābove all the Gāl-i-lē'āns, because they suffered such things ?

3 I tell you, Nay ; but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Sil'o-ām fell, and slew them, think ye that they wēre sinners ābove all men that dwelt in Jē-rū'sa-lēm ?

5 I tell you, Nay ; but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable : A cēr'tain man had a fig-tree plānt'ed in his vineyard ; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vine'yard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none : cut it down ; why cumbereth it the ground ?

8 And he ān'swering, said unto him, Lord, let it ālone this year also, till I shall dig ābout' it, and dung it.

9 And if it bear fruit, well : and if not, then āfter that thou shalt cut it down.

10 ¶ And he was teaching in one of the sŷn'agōgues on the sāk'bath.

11 And, behold, there was a wom'an which had a spirit of ĩnfir'mity¹ eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jē'sūs saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Wom'an, thou art lōosed from thine ĩnfir'mity.

13 And he laid his hands on her ; and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the sŷn'agōgue ān'swered with indignation, because that Jē'sūs had healed on the sāk'bath-dāy, and said unto the people, There āre six days in which men ought to work : in them, thērē'fōre, come and be healed, and not on the sāk'bath-dāy.

15 The Lord then ān'swered him, and said, Thou hŷp'ocrite ; dōth not each one of you on the sāk'bath lōose his ox, or his āss from the stall, and lead him āway to watering ?

² grōd.

16 And ought not this wom'an, being a dāughter of Ā'bra-hām, whom Sā'tān hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be lōosed from this bond on the sāk'bath-dāy ?

17 And when he had said these things, all his ād'vēr'sāries wēre āshamed : and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that wēre done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, Unto whāt is the kingdom of God like ? and whereunto shall I resemble it ?

19 It is like a grain of mūstārd-seed, which a man took, and cāst into his garden ; and it grew,² and waxed a great tree ; and the fowls of the air lodged in the brānches of it.

20 ¶ And āgain' he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God ?

21 It is like leaven, which a wom'an took and hid in three mēās'ures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and vīllages³ teaching, and jōūr'neying tō'wārd Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

23 ¶ Then said one unto him, Lord, āre there few that be saved ? And he said unto them, 24 Strive to enter in at the strait gate : for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When once the Māster of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us ; and he shall ānswer, and say unto you, I know you not whence ye āre :

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye āre ; depart from me, all ye workers of ĩnī'quity.⁴

28 There shall be weeping and gnāsh'ing of teeth, when ye shall see Ā'bra-hām, and Ī'sāc, and Jā'cōb, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselfes thrust out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And, behold, there āre læst, which shall be first, and there āre first, which shall be læst.

31 ¶ The same day there came cēr'tain of the Phār'i-sēes, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence ; for Hēr'od will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cāst out devils, and I do cures to-dāy and to-morrow, and the third dāy I shall be pēr'fected.

33 Nevertheless, I must wālĳ to-dāy, and to-morrow, and the dāy following : for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

34 O Jē-rū'sa-lēm, Jē-rū'sa-lēm, which

³ vīllā-d-jīz.

killst the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen dóth gáther her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blés'sed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAP. XIV.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Phār'i-sées to eat bread on the sá'b bath-dá'y, that they wá'tch'ed him.

2 And, behold, there was a cēr'táin man before him, which had the dropsy.

3 And Jē'sūs án'swering, spake unto the lawyers and Phār'i-sees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sá'b bath-dá'y?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him and healed him, and let him go:

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an áss or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sá'b bath-dá'y?

6 And they could not ánswer him ágain' to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which wēre bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room, lést a more hōn'ourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that báde thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that báde thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have wór'ship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For whosoever exálteth himself shall be ábásed; and he that hūmbleth himself shall be exálted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that báde him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brēthren, néither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lést they also bid thee ágain', and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blés'sed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him héard these things, he said unto him, Blés'sed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then said he unto him, A cēr'táin man made a great supper, and báde many:

1 ágēn'.

17 And sent his sērvant at supper-time to say to them that wēre bidden, Come, for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piéce of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And ánóther said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And ánóther said, I have married a wife; and thēre'fore I cannot come.

21 So that sērvant came, and showed his lord these things. Then the máster of the house, being angry, said to his sērvant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the hált, and the blind.

22 And the sērvant said, Lord, it is dóne as thou hast cōmmán'ded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the sērvant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, that nōne of those men which wēre bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,

26 If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and móther, and wife, and children, and brēthren, and sisters, yēa, and his own life also, he cannot be my dīsciple.

27 And whosoever dóth not bear his cross, and come áfter me, cannot be my dīsciple.

28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29 Lést haply, áfter he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it, begin to mock him,

30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or whát king, going to make wár ágainst' ánóther king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh ágainst' him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ámbásságe, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you, that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my dīsciple.

34 ¶ Sált is good: but if the sált have lost his sávour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

35 It is néither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cást it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

CHAP. XV.

THEN drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Phār'i-sēes and scribes murmured, saying, This man rēcēiveth sinners and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 Whāt man of you having a hundred sheep, if he lōse one of them, dōth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go āfter that which is lost, until he find it ?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me ; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Eīther whāt wom'an, having ten piēces of silver, if she lōse one piēce, dōth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it ?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours togēther, saying, Rejoice with me ; for I have found the piēce which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the āngels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A cēr'tāin man had two sons :

12 And the younger of them said to his fāther, Fā'ther, give me the pōrtion of goods that falleth to me. And he dividēd unto them his living.

13 And not many days āfter, the younger son gāthered all togēther, and took his journey into a far country, and there wāsted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there ārōse a mighty famine in that land ; and he began to be in wānt.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country ; and he sent him into his fiēlds to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat : and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired sērvants of my fāther's have bread enough, and to spare, and I perish with hunger !

18 I will ārise, and go to my fāther, and will say unto him, Fā'ther, I have sinned āgainst' Heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more wōrthy to be called thy son : make me as one of thy hired sērvants.

20 And he ārōse and came to his fāther. But, when he was yet a great way off, his fāther saw him and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Fā'ther, I have sinned āgainst' Heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more wōrthy to be called thy son.

22 But the fāther said to his sērvants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him ; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet :

23 And bring hither the fatted cālf, and kill it ; and let us eat, and be mērry :

24 For this my son was dead, and is ālive āgain' ; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be mērry.

25 Now, his elder son was in the fiēld : and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he hēard musick and dān'cing.

26 And he called one of the sērvants, and āsked whāt these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brōther is come ; and thy fāther hath killed the fatted cālf, because he hath rēcēived him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry and would not go in : thērēfōre came his fāther out, and entreated him.

29 And he ān'swering, said to his fāther, Lo, these many years do I sērve thee, nēither transgressed I at any time thy cōm'mānd'mēnt ; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make mērry with my friends :

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted cālf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make mērry and be glad ; for this thy brōther was dead, and is ālive āgain' ; and was lost, and is found.

CHAP. XVI.

AND he said also unto his discīples, There was a cēr'tāin rich man, which had a stēwārd ; and the same was accused unto him that he had wāsted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee ? give an account of thy stēwārd-shīp ; for thou mayst be no longer stēwārd.

3 Then the stēwārd said within himself, Whāt shall I do, for my lord taketh āwāy from me the stēwārd-shīp ? I cannot dig ; to beg I am āshāmed.

4 I am resolved whāt to do, that when I am put out of the stēwārd-shīp, they may rēcēive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord ?

6 And he said, A hundred mēās'ures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to ānōther, And how much mēast thou? And he said, A hundred mēasures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill and write four-score.

8 And the lord cōmmēnded the unjust stewart, because he had done wisely: for the children of this wōrld are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into ēvērlāsting habitations.

10 He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much; and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11 If, thēre'fore, ye have not been¹ faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true² riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is ānōther man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No sērvant can sērve two māsters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise' the other. Ye cannot sērve God and mammon.

14 ¶ And the Phār'ī-sēes also, who wēre cōv'ētōūs, hēard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly e-steem-ed āmōng men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The law and the prophets wēre until Jōhn; since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pās, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever putteth āway his wife, and marrieth ānōther, committeth ādūl'tēry: and whosoever marrieth her that is put āway from her hūsbānd, committeth ādūl'tēry.

19 ¶ There was a cēr'tain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sūmp'tuōūsly³ every day:

20 And there was a cēr'tain beggar named Láz'a-rūs, which was laid at his gate full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table; moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pās, that the beggar died, and was carried by the āngels into Ā'bra-hām's bō'sóm: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Ā'bra-hām āfar off, and Láz'a-rūs in his bō'sóm.

24 And he cried, and said, Fā'ther Ā'bra-hām, have mērcy on me; and send Láz'a-rūs, that he may dip the tip of his finger in wāter and cool my tōngue; for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Ā'bra-hām said, Son, remember, that thou in thy life-time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Láz'a-rūs evil things: but now he is cōm'fōrted, and thou art tormented.

26 And, besides all this, between us and you there is a great gul' fixed: so that they which would pās from hence to you cannot; neither can they pās to us, that wōuld cōme from hence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee, thēre'fore, father, that thou wōuldst send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brēthren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Ā'bra-hām saith unto him, They have Mō'sēs and the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Ā'bra-hām; but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Mō'sēs and the prophets, nēither will they be pērsūaded though one rose from the dead.

CHAP. XVII.

THEN said he unto his discip'les, It is impossible but that offences will come: but wo unto him through whom they come!

2 It wēre better for him that a mill-stone wēre hunged ābout' his neck, and he cāst into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to yourselves: If thy brōther trēs'pās āgainst' thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trēs'pās āgainst' thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn āgain' to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 ¶ And the āpōstles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mūs'tārd seed, ye might say unto this syc'ā-mine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou plānted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you having a sērvant ploughing, or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird⁴ thyself, and sērve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and āftērwārd thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Dōth he think that sērvant because he did the things that wēre cōmmānd'ed him? I trōw* not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which āre cōmmānd'ed you, say, We āre unprofitable sērvants, we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, as he went to Jê-rû'sa-lêm, that he passed through the midst of Sa-mâ'ri-â and Gâl'i-lêe.

12 And, as he entered into a cêr'tain vil'lage,¹ there met him ten men that wêre lëpers, which stood âfar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jê'sûs, Mâ'ster, have mërcy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they wêre cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God,

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Sa-mâr'i-tân.

17 And Jê'sûs ân'swerîng, said, Wêre there not ten cleansed? but where àre the nine?

18 There àre not found that returned to give glory to God, save this strânger.

19 And he said unto him, Ârî'se, go thy way; thy fâith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demân'ded of the Phâr'i-sëes, when the kingdom of God should come, he ân'swered them, and said, the kingdom of God cometh not with shë'r-vâ'tion.

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

22 ¶ And he said unto the disciples, the days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not âfter them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of Man be in his day.

25 But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 And as it was in the days of Nô'e, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of Man:

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they wêre given in mâr'riage,² until the day that Nô'e entered into the ark; and the flood came and destrôy'ed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lôt, they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they plânted, they builded:

29 But the same day that Lôt went out of Söd'om, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destrôy'ed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the house-top, and his stuff in the house,

1 vil'lidge. 2 mâr'riage.

let him not come down to take it âway; and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember Lôt's wife.

33 Whosoever shall seek to save his life, shall lÛse it; and whosoever shall lÛse his life, shall præ'sërve' it.

34 I tell you, In that night there shall be two men in one bed; and the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two wom'en shall be grind'ing together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND he spake a parable unto them, to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, nêither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, Âvënge' me of mine âd'versary.

4 And he would not for a while: but âf'terwârd he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet, because this widow troubleth me, I will âvënge' her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear whât the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God âvënge' his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you, that he will âvënge' them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 ¶ And he spake this parable unto cêr'tain which trusted in themselves that they wêre righteous, and despî'sed others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Phâr'i-sëe, and the other a publican.

11 The Phâr'i-sëe stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men àre, extortioners, unjust, âdûl'terér's, or even as this publican.

12 I fâst twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I pö's'së's'.

13 And the publican, standing âfar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God, be mër'ciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, This man went down to his house justified râther than the other: for every one that exâlteth himself shall be âbâsed; and he that hûmbleth himself shall be exâlted.

15 ¶ and they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jē'sūs called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein.

18 ¶ And a cēr'tain ruler asked him, saying, Good Mā'ster, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jē'sūs said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the cōmmān'mēnts. Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now, when Jē'sūs heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'sūs saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 ¶ Then Pē'ter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gēn'tiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated and spitted on;

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death; and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ And it came to pass, that, as he was come nigh unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm, a cēr'tain blind man sat by the way-side begging:

1 stāt'tshāre.

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him that Jē'sūs of Naz-a-rēth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jē'sūs, thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace; but he cried so much the more, Thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

40 And Jē'sūs stood, and cōmmān'ded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jē'sūs said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

CHAP. XIX.

AND Jē'sūs entered and passed through Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zac-ché'ús, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'sūs who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stāt'ure.¹

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a syc'amōre tree to see him; for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jē'sūs came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zac-ché'ús, make haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zac-ché'ús stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him four-fold.

9 And Jē'sūs said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of A'bra-hām.

10 For the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 ¶ And, as they heard these things, he added, and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He said, therefore, A cēr'tain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he comman'ded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant; because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man; thou takest up that thou aidest not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath, shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath, shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascen'ding up to Jê-rû'sa-lêm.

29 And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bêth'pha-gè and Bêth'a-ny, at the mount called the mount of ôl'ives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the vil'lage ¹ over against you; in the which, at your entering, ye shall find a colt tied, whercon yet never man sat: lòose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye lòose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that wêre sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And, as they wêre lòd'sing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why lòose ye the colt?

¹ vil'lidje.

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jê'sûs; and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jê'sûs thereon.

36 And, as they went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descen't of the mount of ôl'ives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice, and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, Blès'sed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Phãr'i-sêes from among the multitude said unto him, Mã'ster, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it,

42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another: because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 ¶ And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests, and the scribes, and the chief of the people, sought to destrôy him:

48 And could not find whât they might do: for all the people wêre very attentive to hear him.

CHAP. XX.

AND it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gô's'pêl, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him, with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us by whât authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing, and answer me:

4 The baptism of Jôhn, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, That they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 ¶ Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard,¹ and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit² of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again³ he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again³ he sent a third; and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir:³ come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. What, therefore, shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy⁴ these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And, when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against⁵ them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly; neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Show me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæsar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render, therefore, unto Cæsar the things which be Cæsar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people; and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were, therefore, seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering, said unto them, the children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:⁴

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes, answering, said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 ¶ And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is David's son?

42 ¶ And David himself saith in the Book of Psalms, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David, therefore, calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ Then, in the audience of all the people, he said unto his disciples,

46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

47 Which devour widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

CHAP. XXI.

AND he looked up, and saw the rich men cās'ting their gifts into the tréas'- ury.

2 And he saw also a cêr'tain poor widow cās'ting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cāst in more than they all :

4 For all these have of their äbün'dānce cāst in unto the offerings of God : but she of her penury hath cāst in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ And as me spake of the temple, how it was ädörn'ed with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon änother, that shall not be thrown down.

7 ¶ And they äsked him, saying Mä'ster, but when shall these things be ? and wāt sign will there be when these things shall come to päss ?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not dëceived : for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ ; and the time draweth near : go ye not, thêrê'fore, äfter them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wārs and commotions, be not terrified : for these things must first come to päss ; but the end is not by and by.

10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise ägainst' nation, and kingdom ägainst' kingdom :

11 And great äärth'quakes shall be in di'vers' places, and famines, and pestilences ; and fêar'fûl¹ sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and pësecute you, dëivering you up to the sÿn'agögues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a tês'timöny.

14 Settle it thêrê'fore in your hëarts, not to meditate before, wāt ye shall änswer :

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your äd'vërsāries shall not be able to gainsay nor rëjist'.

16 And ye shall be betrayed both by pärents, and brêthren, and kinsfolks, and friends ; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But there shall not a hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience pössëss' ye your souls.

20 And when ye shall see Jê-rû'sa-lêm cöm'pässed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which äre in Jü-dë'a flee to the möûn'tains ; and let them which äre in the midst of it depart out ; and let not them that äre in the countries enter thêrê'into.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which äre written may be fulfilled.

23 But wo unto them that äre with child, and to them that give suck in those days ! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wërāth upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the swörd, and shall be led äway cäptive into all nations : and Jê-rû'sa-lêm shall be trodden down of the Gën'tiles, until the times of the Gën'tiles be fulfilled.

25 ¶ And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars ; and upon the äärth distress of nations, with përp'lëx'ity ; the sea and the waves roaring ;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking äfter those things which äre coming on the äärth : for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of Man coming in a cloud, with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to päss, then look up, and lift up your heads ; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable : Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees ;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to päss, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not päss äway till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and äärth shall päss äway ; but my words shall not päss äway.

34 ¶ And take heed to yourselves, lëst at any time your hëarts be overchärged with sÿr'feiting, and drunkenness, and cāres of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole äärth.

36 Wātch ye, thêrê'fore, and pray älways, that ye may be accounted wöthy to èscäp'e all these things that shall come to päss, and to stand before the Son of Man.

37 And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out, and äböde in the mount that is called the mount of Öl'ives.

38 And all the people came äarly in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAP. XXII.

NOW the feast of unleavened bread drew¹ nigh, which is called the Pass-över.

2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him ; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ Then entered Sa'tan into Ju'das, surnamed Is-çar'i-öt, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and eap'tains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Pe'ter and Jöhn, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare ?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good man of the house, The Mä'ster saith unto thee, Where is the guäst'-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples ?

12 And he shall show you a large upper-room furnished : there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them ; and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer :

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves :

18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you : this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also, the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of Man goeth, as it was determined : but wo unto that man by whom he is betrayed !

23 And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

1 dröð.

25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gën'tiles exercise lordship over them ; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so : but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger ; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serv'eth ? Is not he that sitteth at meat ? but I am among you as he that serv'eth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations :

29 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Fa'ther hath appointed unto me ;

30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Is'ra-ël.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Si'mön, Si'mön, behold, Sa'tan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat :

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not : and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison and to death.

34 And he said, I tell thee, Pe'ter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing ? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip ; and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, That this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors ; for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Öl'ives ; and his disciples also followed him :

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down and prayed,

42 Saying, Fa'ther, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me : nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And, being in an agony, he prayed more ear'nestly : and his sweat was as it wēre great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his dīsciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye ? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And, while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Jū'dās, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew ¹ near unto Jē'sūs to kiss him.

48 But Jē'sūs said unto him, Jū'dās, betrayest thou the Son of Man with a kiss ?

49 When they which wēre about' him saw wāt would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword ?

50 ¶ And one of them smote a sērvant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jē'sūs answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jē'sūs said unto the chief priests, and cāp'tains of the temple, and the elders, which wēre come to him, Be ye come out as āgainst' a thief, with sword and staves ?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands āgainst' me : but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Pē'tēr followed āfar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and wēre set down together, Pē'tēr sat down among them.

56 But a cēr'tain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and ēar'nēstly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Wom'an, I know him not.

58 And, āfter a little while, ānōther saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Pē'tēr said, No, I am not.

59 And ābout' the space of one hour āfter, ānōther confidently āffirm'ed,² saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him : for he is a Gāl-i-lē'an.

60 And Pē'tēr said, Man, I know not wāt thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.³

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Pē'tēr : And Pē'tēr remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Pē'tēr went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Jē'sūs, mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and āsked him, saying, Prōph'ē-sy : Who is it that smote thee ?

65 And many other things blās'phēmōusly spake they āgainst' him.

66 ¶ And, as soon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes, came togēther, and led him into their council,

67 Saying, Art thou the Christ ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe :

68 And if I also āsk you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereāfter shall the Son of Man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God ? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, Wāt need we any further witness ? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND the whole multitude of them ārōse, and led him unto Pī'lāte

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow pērvērt'ing the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cēs'sār, saying, That he himself is Christ a king.

3 And Pī'lāte āsked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews ? and he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pī'lāte to the chief priests, and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they wēre the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jew'ry, beginning from Gāl'i-lēe to this place.

6 When Pī'lāte heard of Gāl'i-lēe, he āsked whether the man wēre a Gāl-i-lē'an.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Hēr'od's jurisdiction, he sent him to Hēr'od, who himself was also at Jē-rū'sa-lēm at that time.

8 And when Hēr'od saw Jē'sūs, he was exceeding glad : for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him ; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words ; but he answered him nōthing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood, and vē'hē-mēnt-ly accused him.

11 And Hēr'od with his men of wār set him at nōught, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gōr'geōūs⁴ robe, and sent him āgain' to Pī'lāte.

12 ¶ And the same day Pī'lāte and Hēr'od wēre made friends togēther : for before they wēre at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pī'lāte, when he had called togēther the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that pērvērt'eth the people : and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man,

³ krōd.⁴ gōr'jūs.

touching those things whereof ye accuse him :

15 No, nor yet Hēr'od : for I sent you to him ; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him :

16 I will, thère'fore, chāstīse' him, and release him.

17 (For of necessity he must release one unto him at the feast.)

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Ba-rāb'bās :

19 (Who for a cēr'tain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cāst into prison.)

20 Pī'lāte, thère'fore, willing to release Jē'sūs, spake āgain' to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crū'cifī¹ him, crū'cifī him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why ? whāt evil hath he done ? I have found no cause of death in him : I will thère'fore chāstīse' him, and let him go.

23 And they wēre instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them, and of the chief priests prevail'ed.

24 And Pī'lāte gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cāst into prison, whom they had desired ; but he delivered Jē'sūs to their will.

26 ¶ And, as they led him āway, they laid hold upon one Sī'mōn, a Cŷ-re'ni-ān, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jē'sūs.

27 And there followed him a great cōmpany of people, and of wom'en, which also bewāil'ed and lāmēnt'ed him.

28 But Jē'sūs, turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, behold, the days āre coming, in the which they shall say, Blēs'sed āre the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mōūn'tāins, Fall on us ; and to the hills, Cōver us.

31 For if they do these things in a green tree, whāt shall be done in the dry ?

32 ¶ And there wēre also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they wēre come to the place which is called Čāl'va-ry, there they crucified him, and the malefactors ; one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jē'sūs, Fā'ther, forgive them ; for they know not whāt they do. And they parted his raiment, and cāst lots.

35 ¶ And the people stood beholding :

and the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others ; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the sōl'diērs also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And a sūpērscrip'tion also was written over him, in letters of Greek, and Lāt'in, and He'brew,² THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ And one of the malefactors, which wēre hanged, rail'ed* on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other ān'swering, rebuked him, saying, Dōst not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation ?

41 And we indeed justly ; for we receive the due reward of our deeds : but this man hath done nothing āmiss'.

42 And he said unto Jē'sūs, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jē'sūs said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 ¶ And it was ābout' the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the ēarth until the ninth hour.*

45 And the sun was darkened, and the vail of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jē'sūs had cried with a loud voice, he said, Fā'ther, into thy hands I cōmmēnd' my spirit : and, having said thus, he gave up the gho'st.

47 ¶ Now, when the centurion saw whāt was done, he glorified God, saying, Cēr'tainly this was a righ'teou's³ man.

48 And all the people that came togeth'er to that sight, beholding the things which wēre done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the wom'en that followed him from Gāl'i-lēe, stood āfar off beholding these things.

50 ¶ And, behold, there was a man named Jō'sēph, a counsellor ; and he was a good man, and a just :

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them :) he was of Ār-i-ma-thē'ā, a city of the Jews ; who also himself waited for the kingdom of God :

52 This man went unto Pī'lāte, and begged the body of Jē'sūs.

53 And he took it down, and wrāpped it in linen, and laid it in a sēp'ulchre that was hewn in stone wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the Sāb'bath drew on.

55 ¶ And the wom'en also, which came with him from Gāl'i-lēe, followed āfter, and beheld the sēp'ulchre, and how his body was laid.

* That is, from 12 o'clock at noon, till three o'clock in the after-noon.
 1 krōd'se-fī. 2 He'brōd. 3 ri'tshe-ūs. 77

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointment; and rested the sabbath-day, according to the commandment.

CHAP. XXIV.

NOW, upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joan, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 ¶ Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleophas, answering, said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and, beside all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, That they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him: and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And, as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piēce of a broiled fish, and of a hōney-comb.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These àre the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Mō'sēs, and in the prophets, and in the Psālm, cōncerning me.

45 Then opened he their understand- ing, that they might understand the scrip- tures,

46 And said unto them, Thus it is writ- ten, and thus it behōved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day;

47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jē-rū'sa- lēm.

48 And ye àre witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ And, behold, I send the promise of my Fà'ther upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jē-rū'sa-lēm, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶ And he led them out as far as to Beth'a-ny, and he lifted up his hands, and blēssed them.

51 And it came to pāss, while he blēss- ed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they wor'shipped him, and re- turned to Jē-rū'sa-lēm with great joy:

53 And wēre continually in the temple, praising and blēss'ing God. Ā'mēn.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

CHAP. I.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things wēre made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was Jōhn.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, which light- eth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own rēcēived him not.

12 But as many as rēcēived him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which wēre born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 ¶ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only-begotten of the Fà'ther,) full of grace and truth.

15 Jōhn bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me, is préfér'ed before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulness have all we rē- cēived, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Mō'sēs, but grace and truth came by Jē'sūs Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only-begotten Son, which is in the bō'som of the Fà'ther, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the rēc'ōrd of Jōhn, when the Jews sent priests and Lē'vites from Jē- rā'sa-lēm, to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Ē-li'ās? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to² them that sent us. What sayest thou of thy- self?

23 He said, I am the voice of one cry- ing in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Ē-sā'- i-ās.³

24 And they which wēre sent wēre of the Phā'r'i-sēes.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Ē-li'ās, nēither that prophet?

26 Jōhn answered them, saying, I bap- tize with wāter; but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who, coming after me, is préfér'ed before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not wōrthy to ũnlōōse.

28 These things wēre done in Bēth-āb'- a-rā, beyond Jōr'dān, where Jōhn was bap- tizing.

29 ¶ The next day Jōhn seeth Jē'sūs

² tōō.

³ Ē-sā'yās.

⁴ ūn-tōō'.

coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lāmb of God, which taketh āway the sin of the wōrld!

30 This is he of whom I said, Āfter me cometh a man which is prefēr'ed before me; for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Īs'ra-ēl, thērē'fore am I come baptizing with wāter.

32 And Jōhn bare rēc'ōrd, saying, I saw the Spīr'it descending from heaven like a dōve, and it ābode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with wāter, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spīr'it descending, and rēmain'ing on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Hōly Ghōst.

34 And I saw, and bare rēc'ōrd, that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Āgain', the next day āfter, Jōhn stood, and two of his dīscīples;

36 And looking upon Jē'sūs as he wālked, he saith, Behold the Lāmb of God!

37 And the two dīscīples heard him speak, and they followed Jē'sūs.

38 Then Jē'sūs turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, Whāt seek ye? They said unto him, Rāb'bī, (which is to say, being ĩntēr'prēted, Mā'ster,) wherē dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw wherē he dwelt, and ābōde with him that day: for it was ābout the tenth hour.†

40 One of the two which hēard Jōhn speak, and followed him, was Ān'drew, Sī'mōn Pē'tēr's brōther.

41 He first findeth his own brōther Sī'mōn, and saith unto him, We have found the Mēs-sī'ās, which is, being ĩntēr'prēted, The Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jē'sūs. And when Jē'sūs beheld him, he said, thou art Sī'mōn the son of Jō'nā: thou shalt be called Cē'phās, which is, by ĩntēr'prētā'tion, A stone.

43 ¶ The day following, Jē'sūs would go forth into Gāl'i-lēē, and findeth Phil'ip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Phil'ip was of Bēth-sā'i-dā, the city of Ān'drew and Pē'tēr.

45 Phil'ip findeth Na-thān'a-ēl, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom Mō'sēs in the law, and the prophets did write, Jē'sūs of Nāz'a-rēth, the son of Jō'sēph.

46 And Na-thān'a-ēl said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nāz'a-rēth? Phil'ip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jē'sūs saw Na-thān'a-ēl coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Īs'ra-ēlite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Na-thān'a-ēl saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jē'sūs answered and said unto him, Before that Phil'ip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee.

49 Na-thān'a-ēl answered and saith unto him, Rāb'bī, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Īs'ra-ēl.

50 Jē'sūs answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereāfter ye shall see heaven open, and the āngels of God āscending and dēscending upon the Son of Man.

CHAP. II.

AND the third day there was a mār'riage² in Ča'nā of Gāl'i-lēē; and the mōther of Jē'sūs was there:

2 And both Jē'sūs was called and his dīscīples to the mār'riage.

3 And when they wānted wine, the mōther of Jē'sūs saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jē'sūs saith unto her, Wom'an, wnāt have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mōther saith unto the sērvants, Whātsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there wēre set there six wāter-pots of stone, āfter the manner of the purifying of the Jews, cōntain'ing two or three fīrkins āpīce.

7 Jē'sūs saith unto them, Fill the wāter-pots with wāter. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the gōvērnor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tāsted the wāter that was made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the sērvants which drew the wāter knew,) the gōvērnor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning dōth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is wōrse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jē'sūs in Ča'nā of Gāl'i-lēē, and manifested forth his glory; and his dīscīples believed on him.

12 ¶ Āfter this he went down to Ča-pēr'na-ūm, he and his mōther, and his brēthren, and his dīscīples; and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And the Jews' pāssover was at hand; and Jē'sūs went up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm,

14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen, and sheep, and dōves, and the chāngers of mōney, sitting:

15 And, when he had made a scōurģe of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the chāngers' mōney, and overthrew³ the tables;

² mār'rijē.

³ ō-vūr-thrōd'.

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence ; make not my Fà'ther's house a house of mēr'chān-diçe.

17 And his discip'les remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Whāt sign showest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things ?

19 Je'sūs answered and said unto them, Dēstrōy' this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days ?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When, thēre'fōre, he was risen from the dead, his discip'les remembered that he had said this unto them ; and they bē-lievēd the scripture, and the word which Jē'sūs had said.

23 ¶ Now, when he was in Jē-rū'sa-lēm at the pāssover, in the feast-day, many bē-lievēd in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jē'sūs did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men ;

25 And needed not that any should testify of man : for he knew whāt was in man.

CHAP. III.

THERE was a man of the Phār'i-sēēs, named Niç-o-de'mūs, a ruler of the Jews :

2 The same came to Jē'sūs by night, and said unto him, Rāb'bi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God ; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jē'sūs answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born āgain', he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Niç-o-dē'mūs saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old ? can he enter the second time into his mōther's womb, and be born ?

5 Je'sūs answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of wāter, and of the Spīr'it, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh ; and that which is born of the Spīr'it is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born āgain'.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth : so is every one that is born of the Spīr'it.

9 Niç-o-dē'mūs answered and said unto him, How can these things be ?

10 Jē'sūs answered and said unto him, Art thou a māster of Iŷ'ra-ēl, and knowest not these things ?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen ; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things ?

13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of Man, which is in heaven.

14 ¶ And as Mō'sēs lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up ;

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have etērnal life.

16 ¶ For God so loved the wōrld, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have ēvēr-lās'ting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the wōrld to condemn the wōrld ; but that the wōrld through him might be saved.

18 ¶ He that believeth on him is not condemned : but he that believeth not is condemned ālrēady ; because he hath not bē-lievēd in the name of the only-begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the wōrld, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds wēre evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, nēither cometh to the light, lēst his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they āre wrōught in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jē'sūs and his discip'les into the land of Jū-dē'ā ; and there he tarried with them and baptized.

23 ¶ And Jōhn also was baptizing in Ē'nōn, near to Sā'lim, because there was much wāter there : and they came, and wēre baptized :

24 For Jōhn was not yet cāst into prison.

25 ¶ Then there āroze a question between some of Jōhn's discip'les and the Jews ābout' purifying.

26 And they came unto Jōhn, and said unto him, Rāb'bi, he that was with thee beyond Jōr'dān, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Jōhn answered and said, A man can receive nōthing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom : but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This my joy thēre'fōre is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from ābove is ābove all : he that is of the ēarth is ēarthly, and speaketh of the ēarth : he that cometh from heaven is ābove all.

32 And wĥāt he hath seen and hēard, that he testifieth ; and no man rēcēiveth his tēs'timōny.

33 He that hath rēcēived his tēs'timōny, hath set to his seal that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God : for God giveth not the Spīr'it by mēas'ūre unto him.

35 The Fā'ther loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 He that believeth on the Son hath ēv-ērlās'ting life ; and he that bēliēveth not the Son shall not see life ; but the w'rāth of God ābideth on him.

CHAP. IV.

WHEN, thērē'fōre, the Lord knew how the Phār'i-sēēs had hēard that Jē'sūs made and baptized more disciples than Jōhn,

2 (Though Jē'sūs himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Jū-de'ā, and departed āgain' into Gal'i-lēe.

4 And he must needs go through Sa-mā'ri-ā.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Sa-mā'ri-ā, which is called Sŷ'chār, near to the parcel of ground that Jā'cōb gave to his son Jō'sēph.

6 Now Jā'cōb's well was there. Jē'sūs, thērē'fōre, being wearied with his jōurney, sat thus on the well : and it was about' the sixth hour.*

7 There cometh a wom'an of Sa-mā'ri-ā to draw wāter : Jē'sūs saith¹ unto her, Give me to drink :

8 (For his disciples wēre gone āway unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the wom'an of Sa-mā'ri-ā unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, āskest drink of me, which am a wom'an of Sa-mā'ri-ā ? (for the Jews have no dealings with the Sa-mār'i-tāns.)

10 Jē'sūs ānsvered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink, thou wouldst have āsked of him, and he would have given thee living wāter.

11 The wom'an saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nōthing to draw with, and the well is deep : from whence then hast thou that living wāter ?

12 Art thou greater than our fāther Jā'cōb, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle ?

13 Jē'sūs ānsvered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this wāter shall thirst āgain' :

14 But whosoever drinketh of the wāter that I shall give him shall never thirst ; but the wāter that I shall give him shall be in him a well of wāter springing up into ēv-ērlās'ting life.

* sixth hour—12 o'clock, or noon.

15 The wom'an saith unto him, Sir, give me this wāter, that I thirst not, nēither come hither to draw.

16 Jē'sūs saith unto her, Go, call thy hūs'bānd, and come hither.

17 The wom'an ānsvered and said, I have no hūs'bānd. Jē'sūs said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no hūs'bānd :

18 For thou hast had five hūs'bānds, and he whom thou now hast is not thy hūs'bānd ; in that saidst thou truly.

19 The wom'an saith unto him, Sir, I pērcēivē' that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fāthers wōr'shipped in this mōū'tain ; and ye say, That in Jē-rū'salēm is the place where men ought to wōr'ship.

21 Jē'sūs saith unto her, Wom'an, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall nēither in this mōū'tain, nor yet at Jē-rū'salēm, wōr'ship the Fā'ther.

22 Ye wōr'ship ye know not wĥāt : we know wĥāt we wōr'ship ; for salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true wōr'shippers shall wōr'ship the Fā'ther in spirit and in truth : for the Fā'ther seeketh such to wōr'ship him.

24 God is a spirit : and they that wōr'ship him, must wōr'ship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The wom'an saith unto him, I know that Mēs-si'ās cometh, which is called Christ : when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jē'sūs saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the wom'an ; yet no man said, Wĥāt seekest thou ? or, Why tālkest thou with her ?

28 The wom'an then left her wāter-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come see a man which told me all things that ever I did ; Is not this the Christ ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the meanwhile his disciples prayed him, saying, Mā'ster, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Thērē'fōre said the disciples one to ānōther, Hath any man brought him āught to eat ?

34 Jē'sūs saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There āre yet four mōnths, and then cometh harvest ? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields ; for they āre white ālrēady to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth rēcēiveth wages, and gāthereth fruit unto life eternal ; that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, may rejoice togeth'er.

1 sēth.

37 And herē is that saying true, One soweth, and ānōther reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Sa-mār'i-tāns of that city believed on him for the saying of the wom'an, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Sa-mār'i-tāns wēre come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he ābode there two days.

41 And many more believed, because of his own word;

42 And said unto the wom'an, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Sav'our¹ of the wōrl.

43 ¶ Now, āfter two days, he departed thence, and went into Gāl'i-lēē:

44 For Jē'sūs himself testified, that a prophet hath no hōn'ōur in his own country.

45 Then, when he was come into Gāl'i-lēē, the Gāl'i-lēēns received him, having seen all the things that he did at Je-rū'sa-lēm at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jē'sūs came āgain' into Čā'nā of Gāl'i-lēē, where he made the wāter wine. And there was a cēr'tain nòblemān, whose son was sick at Ča-pēr'na-ūm.

47 When he heard that Jē'sūs was come out of Jū-dē'ā into Gāl'i-lēē, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jē'sūs unto him, Except ye see signs and wōnders, ye will not believe.

49 The nòblemān saith unto him, Sir, come down ere² my child die.

50 Jē'sūs saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jē'sūs had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And, as he was now going down, his sērvants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to āmēnd'. And they said unto him, Yē's'tērdāy at the seventh hour the fever left him.³

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jē'sūs said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is āgain' the second miracle that Jē'sūs did, when he was come out of Jo-dē'ā into Gāl'i-lēē.

CHAP. V.

AFTER this there was a feast of the Jews: and Jē'sūs went up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

1 Sāve'yūr. 2 āre. 3 seventh hour—1 o'clock in the āfter-noon. 4 Hē'brōd. * knew

2 Now there is at Jē-rū'sa-lēm, by the sheep-market, a pool, which is called in the Hē'brew¹ tōngue, Bēth-ēs'dā, having five pōrches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, hālt, withered, waiting for the moving of the wāter.

4 For an angel went down at a cēr'tain season into the pool, and troubled the wāter; whosoever then first, āfter the troubling of the wāter, stepped in, was made whole of whātsoever disease he had.

5 And a cēr'tain man was there, which had an infir'mity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jē'sūs saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man when the wāter is troubled, to put me into the pool: but, while I am coming, ānōther steppeth down before me.

8 Jē'sūs saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed and wālk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and wālked; and on the same day was the sāb'bath.

10 ¶ The Jews, thēr'fōre, said unto him that was cured, It is the sāb'bath-dāy; it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and wālk.

12 Then asked they him, Whāt man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and wālk?

13 And he that was healed wist* not who it was: for Jē'sūs had conveyed himself āway, a multitude being in that place.

14 Āp'tērwārd Jē'sūs findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lēst a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed and told the Jews, that it was Jē'sūs which had made him whole.

16 And thēr'fōre did the Jews pērsecute Jē'sūs, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sāb'bath-dāy.

17 ¶ But Jē'sūs answered them, My Fā'ther worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Thēr'fōre the Jews sought' the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sāb'bath, but said also, that God was his Fā'ther, making himself equal with God.

19 ¶ Then answered Jē'sūs, and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nōthing of himself, but whāt he seeth the Fā'ther do: for whāt things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For the Fā'ther loveth the Son, and showeth him all things that himself doeth: and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Fà'ther raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Fà'ther judgeth no man; but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should hōn'ōūr the Son, even as they hōn'ōūr the Fà'ther. He that hōn'ōūreth not the Son, hōn'ōūreth not the Fà'ther which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath ēvēr-lās'ting life, and shall not come into condemnation: but is pās'sed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Fà'ther hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself:

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of Man.

28 Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; they that have done good unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nōthing: as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Fà'ther, which hath sent me.

31 ¶ If I bear witness of myself,² my witness is not true.

32 There is another that beareth witness of me, and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto Jōhn, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not tēs'timōny from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shī'ning light; and ye wēre willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But I have greater witness than that of Jōhn: for the works which the Fà'ther hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Fà'ther hath sent me.

37 And the Fà'ther himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word āhī'ding in you; for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ¶ Sēarch the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have ētērnal life: and they are they which testify of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 ¶ I receive not hōn'ōūr from men.

1 mē-sēlf.

2 Ān'drōd

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Fà'ther's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, which receive hōn'ōūr one of another, and seek not the hōn'ōūr that cometh from God only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Fà'ther: there is one that accuseth you, even Mō'sēs, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Mō'sēs, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

CHAP. VI.

AFTER these things Jē'sūs went over the sea of Gāl'i-lēē, which is the sea of Ti-bē'ri-ās.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that wēre diseased.

3 And Jē'sūs went up into a mōūn'tain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And the pās'sover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ¶ When Jē'sūs then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great cōmpany come unto him, he saith unto Phil'ip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 (And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.)

7 Phil'ip answered him, Two hundred pēn'ny-wōrth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Ān'drew,¹ Sī'mōn Pē'tēr's brōther, saith unto him,

9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Jē'sūs said, Makē the men sit down. (Now there was much grās's in the place.) So the men sat down, in number ābout' five thousand.

11 And Jē'sūs took the loaves: and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that wēre set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they wēre filled, he said unto his disciples, Gāther up the fragments that remain, that nōthing be lost.

13 Thērē'fore they gāthered them togēther, and filled twelve bāskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which rē-māin'ed over and ābōve unto them that had eaten.

14 Then thōse men, when they had seen the miracle that Jē'sūs did, said, This is of a truth that Prōph'et that should come into the wōrld.

15 When Jē'sūs thērē'fore pērcēived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed āgain' into a mōūn'tain himself ālōne.

16 ¶ And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea tōwārd Ça-pēr'na-üm. And it was now dark, and Jē'sūs was not come to them.

18 And the sea ārōse, by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed ābout five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jē'sūs wālk'ing on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship : and they wēre āfrāid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I : be not āfrāid.

21 Then they willingly rēceived him into the ship ; and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people, which stood on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples wēre entered, and that Jē'sūs went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples wēre gone āway ālone ;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Ti-bē'ri-ās, nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, āfter that the Lord had given thanks ;))

24 When the people, thēre'fore, saw that Jē'sūs was not there, nēither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Ça-pēr'na-üm, seeking for Jē'sūs.

25 And, when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rāb/bī, when earnest thou hither ?

26 Jē'sūs ānswered them, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and wēre filled.

27 Lāboūr not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto ēvēr'lās'ting life, which the Son of Man shall give unto you : for him hath God the Fā'ther sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, Whāt shall we do, that we might work the works of God ?

29 Jē'sūs ānswered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 ¶ They said thēre'fore unto him, what sign showest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee ? whāt dōst thou work ?

31 Our fathers did eat manna in the dēs'ērt ; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jē'sūs said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Mō'sēs gave you not that bread from heaven : but my Fā'ther giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the wōrld.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jē'sūs said unto them, I am the bread of life : he that cometh to me shall never hunger ; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, that ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Fā'ther giveth me shall come to me ; and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cāst out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Fā'ther's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nōthing, but should raise it up āgain' at the lāst day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have ēvēr'lās'ting life : and I will raise him up at the lāst day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jē'sūs, the son of Jō'sēph, whose fāther and mōther we know ? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven ?

43 Jē'sūs, thēre'fore, ānswered and said unto them, Murmur not āmōng yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Fā'ther, which hath sent me, draw him ; and I will raise him up at the lāst day.

45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man, thēre'fore, that hath hēard, and hath lēarn'ed of the Fā'ther, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Fā'ther, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Fā'ther.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath ēvēr'lās'ting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat mǎn'nā in the wilderness, and āre dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven : if any man eat of this bread he shall live for ever ; and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the wōrld.

52 The Jews, thēre'fore, strove āmōng themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat ?

53 Then Jē'sūs said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath etērnal life ; and I will raise him up at the lāst day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him

57 As the living Fā'ther hath sent me, and I live by the Fā'ther; so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat mān'nā, and āre dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the sŷn'agōgue, as he taught in Ca-pēr'na-ūm.

60 ¶ Many thēre'fore of his disciples, when they had hēard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jē'sūs knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Dóth this offend you?

62 Whāt and if ye shall see the Son of Man ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the Spīr'it that quickeneth: the flesh profiteth nóthing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there āre some of you that believe not. For Jē'sūs knew from the beginning who they wēre that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Thēre'fore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it wēre given unto him of my Fā'ther.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went back, and wālked no more with him.

67 Then said Jē'sūs unto the twelve, Will ye also go āway?

68 Then Si'mōn Pē'tēr answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe, and āre sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jē'sūs answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Jū'dās Is-čār'i-ōt, the son of Si'mōn: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

AFTER these things, Jē'sūs wālked in Gāl'i-lēe: for he would not wālk in Jew'ry, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jews' feast of tāb'ēr'nācles was at hand.

3 His brēthren, thēre'fore, said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Jū-dē'ā, that thy discīples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, show thyself to the wórl'd.

5 For néither did his brēthren believe in him.

6 Then Jē'sūs said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

7 The wórl'd cannot hate you: but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof āre evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he ābode still in Gāl'i-lēe.

10 But when his brēthren wēre gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it wēre in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring āmōng the people cōncēr'ning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now ābout' the midst of the feast, Jē'sūs went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never lēarn'ed?

16 Jē'sūs answered them, and said, My dōc'trīne is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the dōc'trīne, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.¹

18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did not Mō'sēs give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye ābout' to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth ābout' to kill thee?

21 Jē'sūs answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Mō'sēs, thēre'fore, gave unto you circumcision, (not because it is of Mō'sēs, but of the fathers,) and ye on the sǎb'bath-dāy circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sǎb'bath-dāy receive circumcision, that the law of Mō'sēs should not be broken; āre ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sǎb'bath-dāy?

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righ'teōūs² judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jē-rú'salēm, Is not this he whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nóthing unto him: Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit, we know this man whence he is; but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jē'sūs in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 ¶ Then they sought to take him: but

² rī'tshe-ūs

no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 The Phāri-sēes heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Phāri-sēes and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 ¶ Then said Jē'sūs unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gēn'tiles, and teach the Gēn'tiles?

36 Whāt manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me? and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jē'sūs stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this spake he of the Spīrit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given: because that Jē'sūs was not yet glorified.)

40 ¶ Many of the people, therefore, when they had heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophēt.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Gal'i-lēe?

42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of Dā'vid, and out of the town of Bēth'le-hēm, where Dā'vid was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Phāri-sēes, and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Phāri-sēes, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers, or of the Phāri-sēes, believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nic-o-dē'mūs saith unto them, (he that came to Jē'sūs by night, being one of them.)

51 Dóth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Gal'i-lēe? Search, and look; for out of Gal'i-lēe ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAP. VIII.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him: and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Phāri-sēes brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and, when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Mā'ster, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Mō'sēs in the law cōmmanded us, That such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jē'sūs stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So, when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last; and Jē'sūs was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jē'sūs had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jē'sūs said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jē'sūs again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Phāri-sēes, therefore, said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jē'sūs answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh: I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Fāther that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself.

and the Fā'ther that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Fā'ther? Je'sūs answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Fā'ther: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Fā'ther also.

20 These words spake Je'sūs in the trēa'sury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him: for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Je'sūs again' unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said, thēre'fore, unto you, That ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Je'sūs saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say, and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Fā'ther.

28 Then said Je'sūs unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of Man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself: but as my Fā'ther hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Fā'ther hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 ¶ Then said Je'sūs to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, We be Ā'bra-hām's seed, and were never in bōn'dage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Je'sūs answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the sērvant of sin.

35 And the sērvant abideth not in the house for ever; but the Son abideth ever.

36 If the Son, thēre'fore, shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Ā'bra-hām's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Fā'ther: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Ā'bra-hām is our father. Je'sūs saith unto them, If ye were Ā'bra-hām's children, ye would do the works of Ā'bra-hām.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Ā'bra-hām.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Fā'ther, even God.

42 Je'sūs said unto them, If God were your Fā'ther, ye would love me; for I proceeded forth, and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 He that is of God heareth God's words; ye, thēre'fore, hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 ¶ Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Sa-mā'ri-tān, and hast a devil?

49 Je'sūs answered, I have not a devil; but I hōn'ōur my Fā'ther, and ye do dīs-hōn'ōur me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Ā'bra-hām is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Ā'bra-hām, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Je'sūs answered, If I hōn'ōur myself, my hōn'ōur is nothing: it is my Fā'ther that hōn'ōureth me, of whom ye say, That he is your God:

55 Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you; but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Ā'bra-hām rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Ā'bra-hām?

58 Je'sūs said unto them, Verily, verily,

I say unto you, Before Ābra-hām was, I am.

59 Then took they up stones to cāst at him : but Jē'sūs hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so pāssed by.

CHAP. IX.

AND as Jē'sūs pāssed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples āsked him, saying, Mā'ster, who did sin, this man, or his pā-rents, that he was born blind ?

3 Jē'sūs ānswēred, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his pā-rents : but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day : the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the wōrld, I am the light of the wōrld.

6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he ānōin'ted the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wāsh in the pool of Sil'o-ām, (which is, by ĩntēr-prē-tā-tion, Sent.) He went his way, thērē'fōre, and wāshed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours, thērē'fōre, and they which before had seen him, that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged ?

9 Some said, This is he : others said, He is like him : but he said, I am he.

10 Thērē'fōre said they unto him, How wēre thine eyes opened ?

11 He ānswēred and said, A man that is called Jē'sūs, made clay, and ānōin'ted mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Sil'o-ām, and wāsh : and I went and wāshed, and I rēcēived sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he ? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Phār'i-sēēs, him that āfōre'time was blind.

14 And it was the sāb'bath-dāy when Jē'sūs made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then āgain' the Phār'i-sēēs also āsked him how he had rēcēived his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I wāshed, and do see.

16 Thērē'fōre said some of the Phār'i-sēēs, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sāb'bath-dāy. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do such miracles ? And there was a divi'sion āmōng them.

17 They say unto the blind man āgain', Whāt sayest thou of him, that he hath rēcēived thine eyes ? He said, He is a p'rophet.

18 But thē : Jews did not beliēve cōncēr-nāng him, snat he had been blind, and rēcēived his sight, until they called the pā-rents of him that had rēcēived his sight.

1 bērth.

19 And they āsked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind ? how then doth he now see ?

20 His pā-rents ānswēred them, and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind :

21 But by whāt means he now seeth, we know not ; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not : he is of age, āsk him : he shall speak for himself.

22 These wōrds spake his pā-rents, because they feared the Jews : for the Jews had āgrēed ālrēady, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the s'yn'agōgue.

23 Thērē'fōre said his pā-rents, He is of age, āsk him.

24 Then āgain' called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise : we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He ānswēred and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not : one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him āgain', Whāt did he to thee ? how opened he thine eyes ?

27 He ānswēred them, I have told you ālrēady, and ye did not hear : wherefore would ye hear it āgain' ? will ye also be his disciples ?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his discip'le ; but we āre Mō'sēs' discip'les.

29 We know that God spake unto Mō'sēs : as for this fellow we know not from whence he is.

30 The man ānswēred and said unto them, Why, herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners : but if any man be a wōr'shipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the wōrld began was it not hēard, that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man wēre not of God, he could do nōthing.

34 ¶ They ānswēred and said unto him, thou wast āltōgēther born in sins, and dost thou teach us ? And they cāst him out.

35 ¶ Jē'sūs hēard that they had cāst him out ; and, when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou beliēve on the Son of God ?

36 He ānswēred and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might beliēve on him ?

37 And Jē'sūs said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that tālketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I beliēve. And he wōr'shipped him.

39 ¶ And Jē'sūs said, For judgment I am come into this wōrld; that they which see not, might see; and that they which see, might be made blind.

40 And some of the Phār'i-sēēs, which wēre with him, hēard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jē'sūs said unto them, If ye wēre blind, ye should have no sin; but now ye say, We see; thēre'fōre your sin rē-maineth.

CHAP. X.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door, is the shēp'hērd of the sheep.

3 To him the pōrter openeth: and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leādeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a strānger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strāngers.

6 This parāble spake Jē'sūs unto them: but they understood not wāt things they wēre which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jē'sūs unto them āgain', Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me āre thīeves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by me, if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pās'tūre.¹

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destrōy': I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more ābūn'dantly.

11 I am the good shēp'hērd: the good shēp'hērd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is a hireling, and not the shēp'hērd, whose own the sheep āre not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf cācheth hem and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shēp'hērd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 As the Fā'ther knoweth me, even so know I the Fā'ther: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which āre not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shēp'hērd.

17 Thēre'fōre dōth my Fā'ther love me, because I lay down my life, that I might tākē it āgain'.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself: I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it āgain'.

¹ pās'tshūre.

This cōmmand'mēt have I rēceived of my Fā'ther.

19 ¶ There was a divi'sion, thēre'fōre, āgain' āmong the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These āre not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jē-rū'sa-lēm the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jē'sūs walked in the temple in Sōl'o-mōn's pōrch.

24 Then came the Jews round ābout' him, and said unto him, How long dōst thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jē'sūs answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Fā'ther's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye āre not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I give unto them etērnal life, and they shall never perish, nēither shall any pluck them out of my hand.

29 My Fā'ther, which gave them me, is greater than all: and nōne is able to pluck them out of my Fā'ther's hand.

30 I and my Fā'ther āre one.

31 Then the Jews took up stones āgain' to stone him.

32 Jē'sūs answered them, Many good works have I showed you from my Fā'ther; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews ānsvered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blās'phēmy, and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34 Jē'sūs ānsvered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye āre gods?

35 If he called them gods unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken, 36 Say ye of him, whom the Fā'ther hath sanctified, and sent into the wōrld, Thou blās'phēmeest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Fā'ther, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works; that ye may know, and believe, that the Fā'ther is in me, and I in him.

39 ¶ Thēre'fōre they sought āgain' to take him: but he escapēd out of their hand,

40 And went āway āgain' beyōnd Jōr'dān, into the place where Jōhn at first baptized; and there he ābōde.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, Jōhn did no miracle: but all things that Jōhn spake of this man wēre true.

42 And many bēlieved on him there.

CHAP. XI.

NOW a cēr'tain man was sick, named Láz'a-rūs, of Bēth'a-ny, the town of Mā'ry and her sister Mār'thā.

2 (It was that Mā'ry which ānōin'ted the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brōther Láz'a-rūs was sick.)

3 Thēre'fōre, his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lōvest is sick.

4 When Jē'sūs hēard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jē'sūs lōved Mār'thā, and her sister, and Láz'a-rūs.

6 When he had hēard, thēre'fōre, that he was sick, he ābōde two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then āfter that saith he to his dīsciples, Let us go into Jū-dē'ā āgain'.

8 His dīsciples say unto him, Mā'ster, the Jews of late sought to stone thee: and goest thou thither āgain'?

9 Jē'sūs answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this wōrld.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and āfter that he saith unto them, Our friend Láz'a-rūs sleepeth; but I go, that I may āwake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his dīsciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit, Jē'sūs spake of his death; but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jē'sūs unto them plainly, Láz'a-rūs is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless, let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thōm'ās, which is called Dīd'y-mūs, unto his fellow dīsciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jē'sūs came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days ālrēady.

18 (Now Bēth'a-ny was nigh unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm, ābout' fifteen furlongs off:)

19 And many of the Jews came to Mār'thā and Mā'ry, to cōm'fōrt them cōncērnīng their brōther.

20 Then Mār'thā, as soon as she hēard that Jē'sūs was cōmīng, went and met him: but Mā'ry sat still in the house.

21 Then said Mār'thā unto Jē'sūs, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brōther had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, whātsoever thou wilt āsk of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jē'sūs saith unto her, Thy brōther shall rise āgain'.

24 Mār'thā saith unto him, I know that he shall rise āgain' in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jē'sūs said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that bēliēveth in me, though he wēre dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth, and bēliēveth in me, shall never die. Bēliēvest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yēa, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the wōrld.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mā'ry her sister secretly, saying, the Mā'ster is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she hēard that, she ārōse quickly, and came unto him.

30 Nōw Jē'sūs was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Mār'thā met him.

31 The Jews then which wēre with her in the house, and cōm'fōrted her, when they saw Mā'ry, that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mā'ry was come where Jē'sūs was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brōther had not died.

33 When Jē'sūs, thēre'fōre, saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jē'sūs wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold, how he lōved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jē'sūs, thēre'fōre, āgain' groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jē'sūs said, Take ye āway the stone. Mār'thā, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh; for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jē'sūs saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wōldst bēliēve, thou shouldst see the glory of God?

41 Then they took āway the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jē'sūs lifted up his eyes, and said, Fā'ther, I thank thee that thou hast hēard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always; but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may bēliēve that thou hast sent me.

43 And, when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Láz'a-rūs, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hānd and foot with grāve'clōthes:

and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jē'sūs saith unto them, Lōðse him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mā'ry, and had seen the things which Jē'sūs did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Phār'i-sēes, and told them what things Jē'sūs had done.

47 ¶ Then gathered the chief priests and the Phār'i-sēes a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him; and the Rō'māns shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named Çai'a-phās,¹ being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jē'sūs should die for that nation:

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then, from that day forth, they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jē'sūs, therefore, walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Éphra-ím, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Jews' pāssover was nigh at hand; and many went out of the country up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, before the pāssover, to purify themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jē'sūs, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Phār'i-sēes had given a cōmmānd'mēt, that if any man knew where he were, he should show it, that they might take him.

CHAP. XII.

THEN Jē'sūs, six days before the pāssover, came to Bēth'a-ny, where Lāz'a-rūs was, which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Mār'thā served; but Lāz'a-rūs was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mā'ry a pound of ointment of spike'nard, very costly, and anōin'ted the feet of Jē'sūs, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Jūdās Is-çār'i-ōt, Sī'mōn's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

² Ān'drōd.

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jē'sūs, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 ¶ Much people of the Jews, thēre'fore, knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jē'sūs' sake only, but that they might see Lāz'a-rūs also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests consulted, that they might put Lāz'a-rūs also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jē'sūs.

12 ¶ On the next day, much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jē'sūs was coming to Jē-rū'sa-lēm,

13 Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hō-šan-nā: Blēs'sed is the King of Is'ra-ēl, that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jē'sūs, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon: as it is written,

15 Fear not, daughter of Sī'on: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first; but when Jē'sūs was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people, thēre'fore, that was with him when he called Lāz'a-rūs out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare rēc'ord.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Phār'i-sēes, thēre'fore, said among themselves, Percēive' ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were cēr'tain Grēeks among them, that came up to wór'shīp at the feast:

21 The same came, thēre'fore, to Phil'ip, which was of Bēth-sā'i-dā of Gál'i-lēe, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jē'sūs.

22 Phil'ip cometh and telleth Ān'drew;² and again, Ān'drew and Phil'ip tell Jē'sūs.

23 ¶ And Jē'sūs answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of Man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He that loveth his life, shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my sêrvant he; if any man sêrve me, him will my Fà'ther hōn'our.

27 Now is my soul troubled: and what shall I say? Fà'ther, save me from this hour; but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Fà'ther, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again'.

29 The people, therê'fore, that stood by, and heard it, said, That it thundered: others said, An ângel spake to him.

30 Jê'sûs answered and said, This voice came not, because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this wôrld: now shall the prince of this wôrld be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the êarth, will draw all men unto me.

33 (This he said, signifying what death he should die.)

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law, that Christ âbideth forever; and how sayest thou, The Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?

35 Then Jê'sûs said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you: Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jê'sûs, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him;

38 That the saying of Ê-sâ'i-âs¹ the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therê'fore they could not believe, because that Ê-sâ'i-âs said again',

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be convert'ed, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Ê-sâ'i-âs, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Phâr'i-sêes they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the sÿn'agogue;

43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jê'sûs cried, and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I am come a light into the wôrld, that

² mē-sêlf'.

whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I cannot to judge the wôrld, but to save the wôrld.

48 He that rejecteth me, and rēcēiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of myself: but the Fà'ther which sent me, he gave me a cōmmand'mēt, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his cōmmand'mēt is lifē evêrlâs'ting: whatsoever I speak, therê'fore, even as the Fà'ther said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII.

NOW, before the feast of the pàssover, when Jê'sûs knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this wôrld unto the Fà'ther, having loved his own which wêre in the wôrld, he loved them unto the end.

1 And supper being ended, (the devil having now put into the heart of Jû'dâs Is-câr'i-ôt, Sî'mōn's son, to betray him,)

2 Jê'sûs knowing that the Fà'ther had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God,

3 He riseth from supper, and laid âside his gârments; and took a towel, and girded³ himself.

4 After that, he poureth wâter into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

5 Then cometh he to Sî'mōn Pê'ter: and Pê'ter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

6 Jê'sûs answered and said unto him, What I do, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know hereâfter.

7 Pê'ter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jê'sûs answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

8 Sî'mōn Pê'ter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

9 Jê'sûs saith to him, He that is washed, needeth not, save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

10 For he knew who should betray him; therê'fore said he, Ye are not all clean.

11 So, after he had washed their feet, and had taken his gârments, and was set down again', he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

12 Ye call me Mâ'ster, and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

13 If I then, your Lord and Mâ'ster, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

14 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

³ gîr'dêd.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent, greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all; I know whom I have chosen: but, that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jē'sūs had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was leaning on Jē'sūs' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jē'sūs loved.

24 Sī'mōn Pē'ter, therē'fore, beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then, lying on Jē'sūs' breast, saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jē'sūs answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Jūdās Is-car'i-ōt, the son of Sī'mōn.

27 And after the sop Sāt'an entered into him. Then said Jē'sūs unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Jūdās had the bag, that Jē'sūs had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast: or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then, having received the sop, went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therē'fore, when he was gone out, Jē'sūs said, Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and, as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go ye cannot come: so now I say to you.

34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶ Sī'mōn Pē'ter said unto him, Lord,

1 seth.

Whither goest thou? Jē'sūs answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Pē'ter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jē'sūs answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAP. XIV.

LET not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Fā'ther's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again' and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thōm'ās saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest: and how can we know the way?

6 Jē'sūs saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Fā'ther, but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Fā'ther also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 ¶ Phīl'ip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Fā'ther, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jē'sūs saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Phīl'ip? He that hath seen me hath seen the Fā'ther: and how sayest thou then, Show us the Fā'ther?

10 Believest thou not, that I am in the Fā'ther, and the Fā'ther in me? The words that I speak unto you, I speak not of myself: but the Fā'ther, that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Fā'ther, and the Fā'ther in me; or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 ¶ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do, shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Fā'ther.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Fā'ther may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ If ye love me, keep my commandments:

16 And I will pray the Fā'ther, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.

17 Eren the Spīr'it of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you cöm'förtless; I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the wörld seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know, that I am in my Fä'ther, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my cömmänd'ments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me; and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Fä'ther, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 Jü'das saith unto him, (not İz-car-öt,) Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the wörld?

23 Jē'sūs answered and said I unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words; and my Fä'ther will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our äbode with him.

24 He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Fä'ther's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Cöm'fört'er, which is the Höly Ghöst, whom the Fä'ther will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 ¶ Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the wörld giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go äway and come ägain' unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Fä'ther: for my Fä'ther is greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to päss, that, when it is come to päss, ye might believe.

30 Hereäfter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this wörld cometh, and hath nöthing in me.

31 But that the wörld may know that I love the Fä'ther; and as the Fä'ther gave me cömmänd'ment, even so I do. Ärise, let us go hence.

CHAP. XV.

I AM the true vine, and my Fä'ther is the hüß'bändmän.

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh äway; and every bränch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ye äre clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Äbide in me, and I in you. As the bränch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it äbide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye äbide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye äre the bränch-

1 sed.

es: He that äbideh in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nöthing.

6 If a man äbide not in me, he is cäst forth as a bränch, and is withered: and men gäther them, and cäst them into the fire, and they äre burned.

7 If ye äbide in me, and my words äbide in you, ye shall äsk wäht ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Fä'ther glorified that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Fä'ther hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my cömmänd'ments, ye shall äbide in my love; even as I have kept my Fä'ther's cömmänd'ments, and äbide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you that my joy might remäin in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 ¶ This is my cömmänd'ment, That ye love one änöther, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye äre my friends, if ye do wähtsoever I cömmänd' you.

15 Henceforth I call you not särvants; for the särvant knoweth not wäht his lord doeth: but I have called you friends: for all things that I have heard of my Fä'ther, I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ördäin'ed you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remäin; that whatsoever ye shall äsk of the Fä'ther in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I cömmänd' you, that ye love one änöther.

18 ¶ If the wörld hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If ye wöre of the wörld, the wörld would love his own: but because ye äre not of the wörld, but I have chosen you out of the wörld, thäre'fore the wörld hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The särvant is not greater than his lord. If they have pärsöcuted me, they will also pärsöcute you: if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come, and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Fä'ther also.

24 If I had not done ämóng them the works which nöne other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Fä'ther.

25 But this cometh to päss, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 ¶ But when the Cóm'fór-tér is come, whom I will send unto you from the Fà'ther, even the Spír'it of truth, which proceedeth from the Fà'ther, he shall testify of me :

27 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

THESSE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the sýn'agögues ; yëa, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you, will think that he doeth God sër'vice.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Fà'ther, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that, when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 ¶ But now I go my way to him that sent me ; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou ?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless, I tell you the truth : It is expedient for you that I go away ; for if I go not away, the Cóm'fór-tér will not come unto you : but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteöusness, and of judgment :

9 Of sin ; because they believe not on me :

10 Of righteousness ; because I go to my Fà'ther, and ye see me no more :

11 Of judgment ; because the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit, when he, the Spír'it of truth is come, he will guide² you into all truth : for he shall not speak of himself ; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak : and he will show you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me : for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you.

15 All things that the Fà'ther hath are mine : thêrê'före said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall show it unto you.

16 ¶ A little while, and ye shall not see me ; and ägain', a little while, and ye shall see me : because I go to the Fà'ther.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me ; and ägain', a little while, and ye shall see me : and, Because I go to the Fà'ther ?

18 They said, thêrê'före, Whât is this

1 rí'tsho-üs-nës. 2 gyíde.

that he saith, A little while ? We cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jê'süs knew that they wêre desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves of that I said A little while, and ye shall not see me and ägain', a little while, and ye shall see me ?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lamënt, but the world shall rejoice : and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A wom'an when she is in tráv'aíl hath sorrow, because her hour is come ; but, as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now, thêrê'före, have sorrow ; but I will see you ägain', and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Fà'ther in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name : ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs : but the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Fà'ther.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name : and I say not unto you, That I will pray the Father for you :

27 For the Fà'ther himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

28 I came forth from the Fà'ther, and am come into the world : ägain', I leave the world, and go to the Fà'ther.

29 ¶ His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee : by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jê'süs answered them, Do ye now believe ?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yëa, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me älöne : and yet I am not älöne, because the Fà'ther is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation : but be of good cheer ; I have overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

THESSE words spake Jê'süs, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Fà'ther, the hour is come : glorify thy Son that thy Son also may glorify thee :

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jē'sūs Christ, whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Fā'ther, glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 ¶ I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me: and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee:

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Fā'ther, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition;¹ that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 ¶ I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 ¶ Sanctify them through thy truth; thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 ¶ Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one: as the Fā'ther, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

24 Fā'ther, I will that they also whom thou hast given me be with me where I am: that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Fā'ther, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it; that the love wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

CHAP. XVIII.

WHEN Jē'sūs had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cē'drōn, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Jū'dās also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jē'sūs oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Jū'dās then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Phā'ri-sēes, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches, and wēap'ons.²

4 Jē'sūs, therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jē'sūs of Nāz'a-rēth. Jē'sūs saith unto them, I am he. (And Jū'dās also, which betrayed him, stood with them.)

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went bāck'wārd, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them āgain', Whom seek ye? And they said, Jē'sūs of Nāz'a-rēth.

8 Jē'sūs answered, I have told you, that I am he. If, thēre'fore, ye seek me, let these go their way;

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me, have I lost none.

10 ¶ Then Sī'mōn Pē'tēr having a swōrd, drew³ it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Māl'chūs.

11 Then said Jē'sūs unto Pē'tēr, Pūt* up thy swōrd into the sheath: the cup which my Fā'ther hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band, and the cāp'tain and officers of the Jews, took Jē'sūs, and bound him,

13 And led him āway to Ān'nās first; (for he was father-in-law to Čai'a-phās,¹ which was the high priest that same year.)

14 Now Čai'a-phās was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ And Sī'mōn Pē'tēr followed Jē'sūs, and so did ānōther discipule. That discipule was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jē'sūs into the pāl'ace of the high priest.

16 But Pē'tēr stood at the door without. Then went out that other discipule, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Pē'tēr.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door, unto Pē'tēr, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the sērvants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, (for it was cold,) and they wārmēd themselves: and Pē'tēr stood with them, and wārmēd himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then āsked Jē'sūs of his disciples, and of his dōc'trine.

20 Jē'sūs ānswēred him, I spake openly to the wōrld; I ever taught in the sŷn'agōgē, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nōthing.

21 Why āskest thou me? Āsk them which hēard me, wāt I have said unto them: behold, they know wāt I said.

22 And, when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by, struck Jē'sūs with the palm of his hand, saying, ānswērest thou the high priest so?

23 Jē'sūs ānswēred him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 (Now Ān'nās had sent him bound unto Čai'a-phās the high priest.)

25 ¶ And Sī'mōn Pē'tēr stood and wārmēd himself: they said, thēre'fōre, unto ² him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the sērvants of the high priest, (being hīs kinsman whose ear Pē'tēr cut off,) saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Pē'tēr then denied āgain'; and immediately the cock crew.³

28 ¶ Then led they Jē'sūs from Čai'a-phās unto the hall of judgment: and it was ēarly; and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lēst they should be defiled; but that they might eat the pāssover.

29 Pī'lāte then went out unto them, and said, Wāt accusation bring ye āgainst' this man?

30 They ānswēred and said unto him, If he wēre not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pī'lāte unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews, thēre'fōre, said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jē'sūs might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying wāt death he should die.

33 Then Pī'lāte entered into the judgment-hall āgain', and called Jē'sūs, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jē'sūs ānswēred him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pī'lāte ānswēred, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me. Wāt hast thou done?

36 Jē'sūs ānswēred, My kingdom is not of this wōrld. If my kingdom wēre of this wōrld, then would my sērvants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pī'lāte, thēre'fōre, said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jē'sūs ānswēred, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the wōrld, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth, hear-eth my voice.

38 Pī'lāte saith unto him, Wāt is truth? And when he had said this, he went out āgain' unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the pāssover: will ye, thēre'fōre, that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 Then cried they all āgain', saying, Not this man, but Ba-rāb'bās. Now Ba-rāb'bās was a robber.

CHAP. XIX.

THIEN Pī'lāte, thēre'fōre, took Jē'sūs, and scourged him.

2 And the sōl'diērs plāt'ēd a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 ¶ Pī'lāte, thēre'fōre, went forth āgain', and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jē'sūs forth, wear'ing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pī'lāte saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests, thēre'fōre, and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify ⁴ him, crucify him. Pī'lāte saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pīlāte thēre'fore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment-hall, and saith unto Jē'sūs, Whence art thou? But Jē'sūs gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pīlāte unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jē'sūs answered, Thou couldst have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: thēre'fore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pīlāte sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cē'sār's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cē'sār.

13 ¶ When Pīlāte, thēre'fore, heard that saying, he brought Jē'sūs forth, and sat down in the judgment-seat, in a place that is called the Pavē'mēt, but in the Hē'brew,¹ Gāb-ba-thā.

14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pīlāte saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cē'sār.

16 Then delivered he him, thēre'fore, unto them to be crucified. And they took Jē'sūs and led him away.

17 ¶ And he, bearing his cross, went forth into a place called the place of a scull, which is called in the Hē'brew, Gōl'go-thā;

18 Where they crucified him, and two others with him, on either side one, and Jē'sūs in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pīlāte wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jē'sūs was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hē'brew, and Grēek, and Lāt'īn.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pīlāte, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pīlāte answered, Whāt I have written, I have written.

23 ¶ Then the sōl'diērs, when they had crucified Jē'sūs, took his garments, and made four parts, to every sōl'diēr² a part, and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said, thēre'fore, among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture³ they did cast lots. These things, thēre'fore, the sōl'diērs did.

25 Now there stood by the cross of Jē'sūs, his mother, and his mother's sister, Mā'ry the wife of Clē'o-phās, and Mā'ry Māg-da-le'ne.

26 When Jē'sūs, thēre'fore, saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Wom'an, behold thy Son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jē'sūs knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sōuge with vinegar, and put it upon hysōp, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jē'sūs, thēre'fore, had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghōst.

31 ¶ The Jews, thēre'fore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath-day, (for that sabbath-day was a high day,) besought Pīlāte that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the sōl'diērs, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jē'sūs, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the sōl'diērs with a spear pier'ced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it bare rēc'ord, and his rēc'ord is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again, another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pier'ced.

38 ¶ And after this, Jō'sēph of Ar-i-ma-thē'a, (being a disciple of Jē'sūs, but secretly for fear of the Jews,) besought Pīlāte that he might take away the body of Jē'sūs: and Pīlāte gave him leave. He came, thēre'fore, and took the body of Jē'sūs.

39 And there came also Nic-o-dē'mūs, (which at the first came to Jē'sūs by night,) and brought a mixture of myrrh⁴ and aloes, about a hundred pounds weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jē'sūs, and wōund⁵ it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

1 Hē'brōō. 2 sōl'jūr. 3 rēs'tshūre 4 mēr. 5 rhyiming with bōūd, fōūd, &c.

41 Now, in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden; and in the garden a new sēpulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jē'sūs, thēre'fore, because of the Jews' preparation-day, for the sēpulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAP. XX.

THE first day of the week cometh Mā'ry Māg-da-lē'ne ēarly, when it was yet dark, unto the sēpulchre, and seeth the stone taken āway from the sēpulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Sī'mōn Pē'tēr, and to the other discipule, whom Jē'sūs loved, and saith unto them, They have taken āway the Lord out of the sēpulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Pē'tēr, thēre'fore, went forth, and that other discipule, and came to the sēpulchre.

4 So they ran both togēther; and the other discipule did outrun Pē'tēr, and came first to the sēpulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clōthes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Sī'mōn Pē'tēr following him, and went into the sēpulchre, and seeth the linen clōthes lie;

7 And the napkin that was ābout' his head, not lying with the linen clōthes, but wrāpped togēther in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other discipule, which came first to the sēpulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise āgain' from the dead.

10 Then the discipules went āway āgain' unto their own home.

11 ¶ But Mā'ry stood without at the sēpulchre weeping: and, as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sēpulchre,

12 And seeth two āngels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet where the body of Jē'sūs had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Wom'an, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have tā'ken¹ āway my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jē'sūs standing, and knew not that it was Jē'sūs.

15 Jē'sūs saith unto her, Wom'an, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener,² saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him āway.

16 Jē'sūs saith unto her, Mā'ry. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rāb-bō'nī: which is to say, Mā'ster.

17 Jē'sūs saith unto her, Toūch me not;

¹ tā'ken.

for I am not yet ascended to my Fā'ther: but go to my brēthren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Fā'ther, and your Fā'ther; and to my God, and your God.

18 Mā'ry Māg-da-lē'ne came and told the discipules that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors wēre shut where the discipules wēre assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jē'sūs, and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he showed unto them his hands and his side. Then wēre the discipules glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jē'sūs to them āgain', Peace be unto you: as my Fā'ther hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Hōly Ghōst:

23 Whose soever sins ye remit, they āre remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they āre retained.

24 ¶ But Thōm'ās, one of the twelve, called Dīd'y-mūs, was not with them when Jē'sūs came.

25 The other discipules, thēre'fore, said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And āfter eight days, āgain' his discipules wēre within, and Thōm'ās with them. Then came Jē'sūs, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thōm'ās, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thōm'ās ānswered and said unto him, My Lord, and my God.

29 Jē'sūs saith unto him, Thōm'ās, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blēs'sed āre they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ And many other signs truly did Jē'sūs in the presence of his discipules, which āre not written in this book:

31 But these āre written, that ye might believe that Jē'sūs is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing, ye might have life through his name.

CHAP. XXI.

AFTER these things Jē'sūs showed himself āgain' to the discipules at the sea of Ti-bē'ri-ās; and on this wise showed he himself.

2 There wēre togēther Sī'mōn Pē'tēr, and Thōm'ās called Dīd'y-mūs, and Na-thān/a-ēl of Cā'nā in Gāl'i-lēē, and the sons of Zēb'e-dēē, and two other of his disciples.

3 Sī'mōn Pē'ter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nōthing.

4 But, when the morning was now come, Jē'sūs stood on the shore: but the dīscīples knew not that it was Jē'sūs.

5 Then Jē'sūs saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, Cāst the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cāst, thēre'fōre, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Thēre'fōre that dīscīple whom Jē'sūs loved, saith unto Pē'tēr, It is the Lord. Now, when Sī'mōn Pē'tēr hēard that it was the Lord, he girt¹ his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cāst himself into the sea.

8 And the other dīscīples came in a little ship, (for they wēre not far from land, but as it wēre two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they wēre come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jē'sūs saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Sī'mōn Pē'tēr went up, and drew² the net to land full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three; and for all there wēre so many, yet was not the net broken.³

12 ¶ Jē'sūs saith unto them, Come and dine. And nōne of the dīscīples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jē'sūs then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Jē'sūs showed himself to his dīscīples, āfter that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So, when they had dined, Jē'sūs saith to Sī'mōn Pē'tēr, Sī'mōn, son of Jō-nās, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith unto him āgain' the second time, Sī'mōn, son of Jō'nās, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Sī'mōn, son of Jō'nās, lovest thou me? Pē'tēr was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jē'sūs saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou gir'dest thyself, and wālkedst whither thou wouldst: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and ānōther shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldst not.

19 This spake he signifying by whāt death he should glorify God. And, when he had spoken⁴ this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Pē'tēr, turning ābout', seeth the dīscīple whom Jē'sūs loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Pē'tēr seeing him, saith to Jē'sūs, Lord, and whāt shall this man do?

22 Jē'sūs saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, whāt is that to thee? Follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying ābroād āmong the brēthren, that that dīscīple should not die: yet Jē'sūs said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, whāt is that to thee?

24 ¶ This is the dīscīple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his tēs'timōny is true.

25 And there āre also many other things which Jē'sūs did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the wōrld itself could not cōntāin the books that should be written. Ā'mēn.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER I.

THE former treatise have I made, O Thē-ōph'i-lūs, of all that Jē'sūs began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken up, āfter that he through the Hōly Ghōst had given cōmmānd'mēnts unto the āpōstles whom he had chosen:

the promise of the Fā'ther, which, saieth he, ye have heard of me.

5 For Jōhn truly baptized with wāter; but ye shall be baptized with the Hōly Ghōst not many days hence.

6 When they, thērē'fore, wēre come to-gēther, they āsked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore āgain' the kingdom to Iṣ'ra-ēl?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Fā'ther hath put in his own power:

8 But ye shall receive power, after that the Hōly Ghōst is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and in all Jū-dē'ā, and in Sa-mā'ri-ā, and unto the uttermost part of the ēārth.

9 And, when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken¹ up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 ¶ And, while they looked stēād'fāst-'y tō'wārd heaven, as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Gāl'i-lēe, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jē'sūs, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 ¶ Then returned they unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm from the mount called ō'f'i-vēt, which is from Jē-rū'sa-lēm a sāb'bath-dāy's journey.

13 And when they wēre come in, they went up into an upper room, where ābōde both Pē'tēr, and Jāmes, and Jōhn, and Āndrew,² Phīl'ip, and Thōm'ās, Bār-thōl'omew, and Mātthew, Jāmes the son of Āl-phē'ūs, and Sī'mōn Zē-lō'tes, and Jū'dās the brōther of Jāmes.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the wom'en, and Mā'ry the mōther of Jē'sūs, and with his brēthren.

15 ¶ And in those days Pē'tēr stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of the names to-gēther wēre ābout' a hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brēthren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Hōly Ghōst, by the mouth of Dā'vid, spake before cōncēr'nīng Jū'dās, which was guide to them that took Jē'sūs.

17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.

18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of inīq'uity; and, falling head-long, he burst āsūn'der in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jē-rū'sa-lēm: insomuch as that field is called, in their proper tōngue, Ā-cēl'da-mā,² that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is wri'ten in the book of Psālmṣ, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and, His bishoprick let ānōther take.

21 Wherefore, of these men which have cōmpanied with us all the time that the Lord Jē'sūs went in and out āmōng us,

22 Beginning from the baptism of Jōhn, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ōrdāin'ed, to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Jō'sēph called Bār'sa-bās, who was surnamed Jūs'tūs, and Māt-thī'ās.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, show whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take part of this ministry and āpōs'tle-shīp, from which Jū'dās by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots: and the lot fell upon Māt-thī'ās; and he was numbered with the eleven āpōstles.

CHAP. II.

AND when the day of Pēn'te-cōst was fully come, they wēre all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they wēre sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tōngues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they wēre all filled with the Hōly Ghōst, and began to speak with other tōngues, as the Spīr'it gave them utterance.

5 And there wēre dwelling at Jē-rū'sa-lēm, Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now, when this was noised ābrōād, the multitude came to-gēther, and wēre confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they wēre all āmāzed, and marvelled, saying one to ānōther, Behold, āre not all these which speak, Gāl'i-lē-āns?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tōngue, wherein we wēre born?

9 Par'thi-āns, and Mēdes, and E'lām-ites, and the dwellers in Mēs-ō-pō-tā'mi-ā, and in Jū-dē'ā, and Čap-pa-dō'ci-ā,³ in Pōn'tūs, and Ā'si-ā,⁴

10 Phryg'i-ā, and Pām-phyl'i-ā, in E'gypt, and in the parts of Lyb'y-ā ābout' Čy-rē'ne, and strāngers of Rōme,⁵ Jews and prōs'ē-lytes, 11 Črētes and Ā-rā'bi-āns, we do hear them speak in our tōngues the wōn'dērfūl works of God.

12 And they wēre all āmāzed, and wēre in doubt, saying one to ānōther, What meaneth this?

13 Others, mocking, said, These men āre full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Pē'tēr, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Jū-dē'ā, and all ye that dwell at Jē-rū'sa-lēm, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words :

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Jō'el ;

17 And it shall come to pāss in the lāst days, (saith God.) I will pour out of my Spīr'it upon all flesh : and your sons and your daughters shall prōph'ē-sē, and your young men shall see vīsiōns, and your old men shall dream dreams :

18 And on my sērvants, and on my handmaidens, I will pour out in those days of my Spīr'it ; and they shall prōph'ē-sē ;

19 And I will show wōnders in heaven ābōve, and signs in the ēarth beneath : blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke :

20 The sun shall be turned into dārkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and nōtable day of the Lord come :

21 And it shall come to pāss, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Iṣ'ra-ēl, hear these words ; Jē'sūs of Naz'a-rēth, a man approved of God āmong you, by miracles, and wōnders, and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know :

23 Him, being delivered by the dēt'r'mīnāte counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain ;

24 Whom God hath raised up, having lōosed the pains of death ; because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For Dā'vīd speaketh cōncērn'ing him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face : for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved :

26 Thēr'fōrē did my hēart rejoice, and my tōngue was glad ; moreover also, my flesh shall rest in hope :

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell ; nēither wilt thou suffer thine Hōly One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life ; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brēthren, let me freely speak unto you of the pā'triārch Dā'vīd, that he is both dead and buried, and his sēpulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Thēr'fōrē being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne ;

31 He seeing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, nēither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jē'sūs hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Thēr'fōrē, being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Fā'ther the promise of the Hōly Ghōst, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For Dā'vīd is not ascended into the heavens : but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Thēr'fōrē let all the house of Iṣ'ra-ēl know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jē'sūs, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Nōw, when they hēard this, they wēre pricked in their hēart, and said unto Pē'tēr, and to the rest of the āpōstles, Men and brēthren, whāt shall we do ?

38 Then Pē'tēr said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jē'sūs Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Hōly Ghōst.

39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are āfār off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhōrt, saying, Save yourselves from this ūntō'vārd generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word wēre baptized : and the same day there wēre added unto them ābout' three thousand souls.

42 And they continued stēd'fāstly in the āpōstles' dōc trīne and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul : and many wōnders and signs wēre done by the āpōstles.

44 And all that believed wēre togēther, and had all things common ;

45 And sold their pōssēs'sions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness, and singleness of hēart ;

47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

CHAP. III.

NOW Pē'tēr and Jōhn went up togēther into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a cēr'tain man, lame from his mōth'er's womb, was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple, which is called Beau'tifūl, to āsk ālmṣ of them that entered into the temple.

3 Who, seeing Pē'tēr and Jōhn ābout' to go into the temple, āsked an ālmṣ.

4 And Pē'tēr, fāstening his eyes upon him, with Jōhn, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expect'ing to receive something of them.

6 Then Pē'tēr said, Silver and gold have I nōne; but such as I have, give I thee: In the name of Jē'sūs Christ of Nāz'a-rēth, rise up and wālk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle-bones received strength.

8 And he, leaping up, stood, and wālked, and entered with them into the temple, wālk'ing, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him wālk'ing, and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for almš at the Beau'tiful Gate of the temple; and they wēre filled with wōnder and āmāze'mēt at that which had happened unto him.

11 And, as the lame man which was healed, held Pē'tēr and Jōhn, all the people ran togēther unto them in the porch that is called Sōl'o-mōn's, greatly wōn'déring.

12 ¶ And when Pē'tēr saw it, he ānswered unto the people, Ye men of I's'ra-ēl, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so ēār'nēstly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to wālk?

13 The God of Ā'bra-hām, and of I'sāac, and of Jā'cōb, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jē'sūs: whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pī'lāte, when he was dētēr'mined to let him go.

14 But ye denied the Hōly One, and the Just, and desired a murderer to be grānted unto you;

15 And killed the Prince of Life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we āre witnesses.

16 And his name, through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yēa, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brēthren, I wot* that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things which God before had showed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ Repent ye, thēre'fōre, and be cōn-vērt'ed, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send Jē'sūs Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spōken¹ by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the wōrld began.

22 For Mō'sēs truly said unto the fathers, A Prōph'et shall the Lord your God raise up unto me of your brēthren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things, whātsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pās, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destrōy'ed from āmōng the people.

24 Yēa, and all the prophets from Sām'-u-ēl, and those that follow āfter, as many as have spoken, have likewise fōretōld' of these days.

25 Ye āre the children of the prophets, and of the cōvenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Ā'bra-hām, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the ēārth be blēss'ed.

26 Unto you first, God, having raised up his Son Jē'sūs, sent him to bless you, in turning āway every one of you from his īnīqu'itīes.

CHAP. IV.

AND, as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the cāp'tain of the temple, and the Sād'du-cēēs, came upon them,

2 Being grīevēd that they tōught the people, and preached through Jē'sūs the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now even-tide.

4 Howbeit many of them which hēard the word, believed: and the number of the men was ābout five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pās on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And Ān'nās the high priest, and Cāi'aphās,² and Jōhn, and Āl-ēx-ān'dēr, and as many as wēre of the kindred of the high priest, wēre gāthēred togēther at Jē-rū'salēm.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they āsked, By whāt power, or by whāt name, have ye done this?

8 Then Pē'tēr, filled with the Hōly Ghōst, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of I's'ra-ēl,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by whāt means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of I's'ra-ēl, that by the name of Jē'sūs Christ of Nāz'a-rēth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him dōth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is the stone which was set at nōught of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Nēither is there salvation in any other: for there is nōne other name under heaven given āmōng men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Pē'tēr and Jōhn, and pērcēived that they wēre unlēar'ned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jē'sūs.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nōthing āgainst' it.

² Kā'ya-fās.

15 But when they had cōmmān'ded them to go āside out of the council, they cōnfērred āmōng themselves,

16 Saying, Whāt shall we do to these men? for that indeed a nōtable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jē-rū'sa-lēm; and we cannot deny it.

17 But, that it spread no further āmōng the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and cōmmān'ded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the name of Jē'sūs.

19 But Pē'tēr and Jōhn ānswered, and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and hēard.

21 So, when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nōthing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was ābōve forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was showed.

23 ¶ And, being let go, they went to their own cōmpany, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And, when they hēard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and ēarth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy sērvant Dā'vid hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the ēarth stood up, and the rulers wēre gāthered tōgethēr āgainst' the Lord, and āgainst' his Christ.

27 For, of a truth, āgainst' thy holy child Jē'sūs, whom thou hast āndōin'ted, both Hērōd and Pōn'ti-ūs¹ Pflāte, with the Gēn'tiles, and the people of Īs'ra-ēl, wēre gāthered tōgethēr, 28 For to do whātsoever thy hand and thy council dētēr'mined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grānt unto thy sērvants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word,

30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wōnders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jē'sūs.

31 ¶ And, when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they wēre assembled tōgethēr; and they wēre all filled with the Höly Ghöst, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that bēliēved wēre of one hēart, and of one soul: nēither said any of them that āught of the things which he pōssēs'sed, was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with great power gave the āpōstles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jē'sūs: and great grace was upon them all.

34 Nēither was there any āmōng them that lacked: for as many as wēre pōssēs'sōrs of lands or houses, sold them, and brought the prices of the things that wēre sold,

35 And laid them down at the āpōstles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Jō'sēs, who by the āpōstles was surnamed Bār'na-bās, (which is, being intēr'prētēd, The son of consolation,) a Lē'vite, and of the country of Cyp'rus, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the mōney, and laid it at the āpōstles' feet.

CHAP. V.

BUT a cēr'tain man, named Ān-a-nī'ās, with Sāp-phi'rā, his wife, sold a pōssēs'sion,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being prīvy to it, and brought a cēr'tain part, and laid it at the āpōstles' feet.

3 But Pē'tēr said, Ān-a-nī'ās, why hath Sā'tān filled thine hēart to lie to the Höly Ghöst, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it rēmainēd, was it not thine own? and āfter it was sold, was it not in thine own power? Why hast thou cōncēived this thing in thine hēart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ān-a-nī'ās, hearing these words, fell down, and gave up the ghōst: and great fear came on all them that hēard these things.

6 And the young men ārōse, wōund him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was ābout' the space of three hours āfter, when his wife, not knowing whāt was done, came in.

8 And Pē'tēr ānswered unto her, Tell me, whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yēa, for so much.

9 Then Pē'tēr said unto her, How is it that ye have āgrēēd tōgethēr to tempt the Spī'rīt of the Lord? Behold, the feet of them which have buried thy hūš'bānd āre at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yīlded up the ghōst: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her hūš'bānd.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as hēard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the āpōstles wēre many signs and wōnders wōdought āmōng the people: (and they wēre all with one accord in Sōl'o-mōn's pōrch.

13 And of the rest, durst no man join himself to them, but the people magnified them :

14 And bēliēvers wēre the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and 'vom'en :

15 Inasmuch, that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that, at the least, the shadow of Pē'tér pāss'ing by, might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round ābout' unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm, bringing sick folks, and them which wēre vexed with unclean spirits : and they wēre healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that wēre with him, (which is the sect of the Sād'du-cēēs,) and wēre filled with indignation,

18 And laid their hands on the āpōstles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that wēre with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Īs'ra-ēl, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors : but, when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now, when the high priest, and the cāp'tain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they dōubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the cāp'tain with the officers, and brought them without violence : (for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned :)

27 And, when they had brought them, they set them before the council : and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, Did not we straitly cōmmānd' you, that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jē-rū'sa-lēm with your dōc'trīne, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Pē'tér and the other āpōstles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fāthers raised up Jē'sūs, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree :

31 Him hath God exālted with his right hand to be a Prince and a *Sāv'ioūr*¹ for to give repentance to Īs'ra-ēl, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things ; and so is also the Hōly Ghōst, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they wēre cut to the hēart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Phār'i-sēē, named Ga-mā'li-ēl, a doctor of the law, had in reputation āmōng all the people, and cōmmānd'ed to put the āpōstles forth a little space ;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Īs'ra-ēl, take heed to yourselves wāt ye intend to do as touch'ing these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theū'dās, boasting himself to be somebody ; to whom a number of men, ābout' four hundred, joined themselves : who was slain ; and all, as many as obeyed him, wēre scattered, and brought to nōught.

37 After this man rose up Jū'dās of Gāl'i-lēē, in the days of the taxing, and drew² āwāy much people āfter him : he also perished : and all, even as many as obeyed him, wēre dispērs'ed.

38 And now, I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them ālōne : for if this counsel, or this work, be of men, it will come to nōught :

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it ; lest haply ye be found even to fight āgainst' God.

40 And to him they āgrēed : and when they had called the āpōstles, and beaten them, they cōmmānd'ed that they should not speak in the name of Jē'sūs, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they wēre counted wōrthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jē'sūs Chrīst.

CHAP. VI.

AND in those days, when the number of the dīscīples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grē'ci-āns āgainst' the Hē'brews,³ because their widows wēre neglected in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the dīscīples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and sērve tables.

3 Wherefore, brēthren, look ye out āmōng you, seven men of hōn'ēst report, full of the Hōly Ghōst and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude ; and they chose Stē'phen,⁴ a man full of faith and of the Hōly Ghōst, and Phil'ip, and Prōch'o-rūs, and Ni-ca'nōr, and Trīmōn, and Pār'me-nās, and Nic'o-las a prōs'e-lyte of An'ti-ōch ;

6 Whom they set before the āpōstles ; and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 ¶ And the word of God increased ; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jē-rū'sa-lēm greatly ; and a great cōmpany of the priests wēre obē'dient ¹ to the fāith.

8 ¶ And Ste phen, full of fāith and power, did great wōnders and miracles āmōng the people.

9 Then there ārose cēr'tain of the sŷn'a-gōgue, which is called the syn'agōgue of the Lib'ēr-tines, and Cŷ-re'ni-āns, and Ā-ēx-ān'dri-āns, and of them of Ci-līc'i-ā,² and of Ā'si-ā,³ disputing with Ste phen.

10 And they wēre not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they subrned men, which said, We have hēard him speak blās'phemōus words āgainst Mō'sēs and āgainst' God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council.

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blās'phē-mōus words āgainst' this holy place and the law :

14 For we have hēard him say, That this Jē'sūs of Nāz'a-rēth shall destrōy' this place, and shall chānge the customs which Mō'sēs delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stēad'fāstly on him, saw his face, as it had been the face of an āngel.

CHAP. VII.

WHEN said the high priest, Āre these things so ?

2 And he said, Men, brēthren, and fāthers, hearken ; The God of glory appear-ed unto our fāther Ā'bra-hām, when he was in Mēs-ō-pō-tā'mi-ā, before he dwelt in Chār'rān,

3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chāl-dē'āns, and dwelt in Chār'rān : and from thence, when his fāther was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him nōne inheritānce in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on : yet he promiŷed that he would give it to him for a pōssēs'sion, and to his seed āfter him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sō'journ in a strānge land ; and that they should bring them into bōn'dāge, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bōn'dāge will I judge, said God : And 1 ō-bē'je-ēnt. 2 Sē-Itsh'e-ā. 3 Ā'zhe-ā.

āfter that shall they come forth, and sērve me in this place.

8 And he gave him the covenant of cir-cumcīōn : and so Ā'bra-hām begat Ī'sāac, and cir'cumcīsed him the eighth day ; and Ī'sāac begat Jā'cōb ; and Jā'cōb begat the twelve pā'tri-ārchs.

9 And the pā'tri-ārchs, moved with envy, sold Jō'sēph into Ē'gŷpt : but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Phā'raōh ⁴ king of Ē'gŷpt ; and he made him gōvērnor over Ē'gŷpt, and all his house.

11 Now there came a dēarth over all the land of Ē'gŷpt and Cā'na-ān, and great affliction : and our fāthers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jā'cōb hēard that there was corn in Ē'gŷpt, he sent out our fāthers first.

13 And at the second time Jō'sēph was made knowu to his brēthren ; and Jō'sēph's kindred was made known unto Phā'raōh.

14 Then sent Jō'sēph, and called his fāther Jā'cōb to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fīfteen souls.

15 So Jā'cōb went down into Ē'gŷpt, and died, he and our fāthers,

16 And wēre carried over into Sŷ'chēm, and laid in the sēpulchre that Ā'bra-hām bought for a sum of mōney of the sons of Em'mōr, the fāther of Sŷ'chēm.

17 ¶ But when the time of the promiŷe drew nigh, which God had sworn to Ā'bra-hām, the people grew,⁵ and multiplied in Ē'gŷpt, 18 Till ānōther king ārose, which knew not Jō'sēph.

19 The same dēalt sūbtly with our kindred, and evil-entreated our fāthers, so that they cāst out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 In which time Mō'sēs was born, and was exceeding fāir, and nourished up in his fāther's house three mōnths :

21 And when he was cāst out, Phā'raōh's dāughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Mō'sēs was lēarn'ed in all the wisdom of the Ē-gŷp'ti-āns,⁶ and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And, when he was full forty years old, it came into his hēart to visit his brēthren, the children of Iŷ'ra-ēl.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wērong, he defended him, and āvenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Ē-gŷp'ti-ān.

25 For he supposed his brēthren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them : but they understood not.

26 And the next day he showed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one āgain', saying, Sirs, ye āre brēthren : why do ye wŕōng one to ānōther ?

4 Fārō. 5 grōd. 6 Ē-jīp'she-ānz.

27 But he that did his neighbour wŕōng, thrust him āwāy, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us ?

28 Wilt thou kill me as thou didst the Ē-gŕypti-ān yēs'tēr-dāy ?

29 Then fled Mō'sēs at this saying, and was a strānger in the land of Mā'di-ān, where he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years wēre expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of Mōunt Sī'nai¹ an āngel of the Lord, in a flame of fire, in a bŕshl.

31 When Mō'sēs saw it, he wōndered at the sight : and, as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, I am the God of thy fāthers, the God of Ā'bra-hām, and the God of Ī'sāac, and the God of Ja'cōb. Then Mō'sēs trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet : for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Ē-gŕypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now, come, I will send thee into Ē-gŕypt.

35 This Mō'sēs, whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler, and a judge ? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the āngel which appeared to him in the bŕsh.

36 He brought them out, āfter that he had showed wōnders and signs in the land of Ē-gŕypt, and in the Red Sēa, and in the wilderness forty years.

37 ¶ This is that Mō'sēs which said unto the children of Ī's'ra-ēl, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brēthren, like unto me : him shall ye hear.

38 This is he that was in the church in the wilderness, with the āngel which spake to him in the Mōunt Sī'nai, and with our fāthers ; who rēcēived the lively oracles to give unto us :

39 To whom our fāthers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hēarts turned back āgain' into Ē-gŕypt,

40 Saying unto Ā'rōn,² Make us gods to go before us : for as for this Mō'sēs, which brought us out of the land of Ē-gŕypt, we wot * not wāt is becōme of him.

41 And they made a cālŕ in those days, and offered sēc'rifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and gave them up to wŕ'shīp the host of heaven ; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye nouse of Ī's'ra-ēl, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sēc'rificēs, by the space of forty years in the wilderness ?

43 Yea, ye took up the tāb'ēr-nā-cle of Mō'sēh, and the star of your God Rēm'phān, figures which ye made, to wŕ'shīp them ; and I will carry you āwāy beyōnd Bāb'y-lōn.

44 Our fāthers had the tāb'ēr-nā-cle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Mō'sēs, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen :

45 Which also our fāthers that came āfter, brought in with Jē'sūs † into the pŕ'sēs'sion of the Ġēn'tiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fāthers, unto the days of Dā'vīd ;

46 Who found fāvōur before God, and desired to find a tāb'ēr-nā-cle for the God of Ja'cōb.

47 But Sōl'o-mōn built him a house.

48 Howbeit the Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands ; as saith the prophet,

49 Heaven is my throne, and ēarth is my footstool : wāt house will ye build me ? saith the Lord ; or, wāt is the place of my rest ?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things ?

51 ¶ Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised³ in hēart and ears, ye do always resist the Hōly Ghōst : as your fāthers did, so do ye.

52 Which of the prophets have not your fāthers pērsēcuted ? and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One ; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers :

53 Who have rēcēived the law by the disposition of āngels, and have not kept it.

54 ¶ When they heard these things, they wēre cut to the hēart, and they gnāshed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, being full of the Hōly Ghōst, looked up stēd'fāstly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jē'sūs standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

58 And cāst him out of the city, and stoned him : and the witnesses laid down their clōthes at a young man's feet, whose name was Sāul.

59 And they stoned Stēphen,³ calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jē'sūs, recēive my spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their

AND Sāul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great pērsēcu'tion āgainst' the church which was at Jē-rū'sa-lēm; and they wēre all scattered ābroād throughout the regions of Jū-de'ā and Sa-mā'ri-ā, except the āpōstles.

2 And devout men carried Stē'phen to his burial, and made great lāmēntā'tion over him.

3 As for Sāul, he made havoek of the church, entering into every house, and hā'- līng men and wom'en, committed them to prison.

4 Thēre fōre, they that wēre scattered ābroād, went every where preaching the word.

5 Then Phil'ip went down to the city of Sa-mā'ri-ā, and preached Ćhrist unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Phil'ip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that wēre pōssēs's-ed with them; and many taken with pāl'- šīēs, and that wēre lame, wēre healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a cēr'tain man called Sīmōn, which beforetime in the same city used sōr'cēry, and bewitched the people of Sa-mā'ri-ā, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the lēast to the grēatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sōr'cēr-ies.

12 But when they bēliēved Phil'ip, preaching the things concērn'ing the kingdom of God, and the name of Jē'sūs Ćhrist, they wēre baptized both men and wom'en.

13 Then Sīmōn himself bēliēved also;
and when he was baptized, he continued with Phil'ip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which wēre done.

14 ¶ Now when the āpōstles, which wēre at Jē-rū'sa-lēm, hēard that Sa-mā'ri-ā had received the word of God, they sent unto them Pē'tēr and Jōhn:

15 Who, when they wēre come down, prayed for them, that they might rēcēivē
the Hōly Ghōst:

16 (For as yet he was fallen upon nōne of them: only they wēre baptized in the name of the Lord Jē'sūs.)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they rēcēivēd the Hōly Ghōst:

18 And when Sīmōn saw that, through laying on of the āpōstles' hands, the Hōly
Ghōst was given, he offered them mōney, that, on whomsoever I lay hands, he may rēcēivē the Hōly Ghōst.

20 But Pē'tēr said unto him, Thy mōney perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with mōney.

21 Thou hast nēither part nor lot in this matter: for thy hēart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent, thēre'fōre, of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if pērhaps the thought of thine hēart may be forgiven
thee.

23 For I pērcēivē' that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniq'uity.¹

24 Then ānswēred Sīmōn, and said,
Pray ye to the Lord for me, that nōne of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and preached the gōs'pēl in many vil'lages² of the Sa-mār'- i-tāns.

26 ¶ And the āngel of the Lord spake unto Phil'ip, saying, Arise, and go tō'wārd the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jē-rū'sa-lēm unto Gā'zā, which is dēs'ērt.

27 And he ārōse and went: and, behold, a man of Ē-thi-ō'pi-ā an cū'nūch³ of great authority under Ćān'da-ce, queen of the Ē-thi-ō'pi-āns, who had the chārgē of all her trēas'ūre, and had come to Jērū'sa-lēm for to wōr'ship,

28 Was returning, and, sitting in his chariot, rēad Ē-sā'i-ās⁴ the prophet.

29 Then the Spī'rīt said unto Phil'ip,
Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Phil'ip ran thither to him, and hēard him rēad the prophet Ē-sā'i-ās, and said, Understandest thou whāt thou rēadest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide⁵ me? and he desired Phil'ip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he rēad was this, He was led as a sheep to the slāughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken āwāy: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the ēarth.

34 And the cū'nūch ānswēred Phil'ip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Phil'ip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jē'sūs.

36 And, as they went on their way, they came unto a cēr'tain wāter: and the cū'nūch said, See, here is wāter: whāt dōth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Phil'ip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayst. And he answered and said, I believe that Jē'sūs Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commānded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the wāter, both Phil'ip and the eū'nūch; and he baptized him.

39 And, when they wēre come up out of the wāter, the Spir'it of the Lord caught away Phil'ip, that the eū'nūch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Phil'ip was found at Ā-zō'tūs; and, pās'sing through, he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cēs-a-rē'ā.

CHAP. IX.

AND Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Da-mās'cūs to the sȳn'agōgues, that if he found any of this way, whether they wēre men or wom'en, he might bring them bound unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

3 And, as he journeyed, he came near Da-mās'cūs; and suddenly there shined round ābout him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the ēarth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Sāul, Sāul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jē'sūs whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he, trembling and astonished, said, Lord, wāt wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Āriše, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee wāt thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Sāul ārōse from the ēarth; and when his eyes wēre opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Da-mās'cūs.

9 And he was three days without sight, and nēither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a cēr'tain discipule at Da-mās'cūs, named Ān-a-nī'ās; and to him said the Lord in a višion, Ān-a-nī'ās. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Āriše, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Jū'dās, for one called Sāul of Tār'sūs: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a višion a man, named Ān-a-nī'ās, coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ān-a-nī'ās answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jē-rū'sa-lēm:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gēn'tiles, and kings, and the children of I's'ra-ēl.

16 For I will show him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 And Ān-a-nī'ās went his way, and entered into the house, and, putting his hands on him, said, Brother Sāul, the Lord, even Jē'sūs, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightst receive thy sight, and be filled with the Hōly Ghōst.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales; and he received sight forthwith, and ārōse, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Sāul cēr'tain days with the disciples which wēre at Da-mās'cūs.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the sȳn'agōgues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him wēre āmazed, and said, Is not this he that destrōy'ed them which called on this name in Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Sāul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Da-mās'cūs, proving that this is very Christ.

23 ¶ And āfter that many days wēre fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying wait was known of Sāul; and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a bāskēt.¹

26 ¶ And when Sāul was come to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they wēre all āfrāid of him, and believed not that he was a discipule.

27 But Bār'na-bās took him, and brought him to the āpōstles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Da-mās'cūs in the name of Jē'sūs.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jē'sūs, and disputed āgainst² the Grē'ci-āns:³ but they went ābout to slay him.

30 Which when the brēthren knew, they brought him down to Cēs-a-rē'ā, and sent him forth to Tār'sūs.

31 ¶ Then had the churches rest throughout all Jū-dē'ā and Gāl'i-lēē, and Sa-mā'ri-ā, and wēre edified: and wālk'ing in the fear of the Lord, and in the cōm'fōrt of the Hōly Ghōst, wēre multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pāss, as Pē'tēr pāssed throughout all quārters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lŷd'dā.

33 And there he found a cēr'tain man named Ē'ne-ās, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the pālsy.

34 And Pē'tēr said unto him, Ē'ne-ās, Jē'sūs Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt in Lŷd'dā and Sa'rōn saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Jōp'pā a cēr'tain disciple named Tāb'i-thā, which, by intē'p'rētā'tion, is called Dōr'cās: this wom'an was full of good works and almš-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pāss in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had wāshed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lŷd'dā was nigh to Jōp'pā, and the disciples had heard that Pē'tēr was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Pē'tēr arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dōr'cās made, while she was with them.

40 But Pē'tēr put them all fōrth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and, turning him to the body, said, Tāb'i-thā. arise. And she opened her eyes: and, when she saw Pē'tēr, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up; and, when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her ālive.

42 And it was known throughout ail Jōp'pā; and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pāss, that he tarried many days in Jōp'pā with one Sī'mōn a tanner.

CHAP. X.

THERE was a cēr'tain man in Cēs-a-rē'ā, called Çôr-nē'li-ūs, a centurion of the band called the It-āl'i-ān ¹ band,

2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much almš to the people, and prayed to God always:

3 He saw in a vī'sion evidently ābout' the ninth hour of the day, an āngel of God coming in to him, and saying' unto him, Çôr-nē'li-ūs.

4 And when he looked on him, he was āfrāid, and said, Whāt is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine almš āre come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Jōp'pā, and call for one Sī'mōn, whose surname is Pē'tēr;

6 He lodgeth with one Sī'mōn a tanner, whose house is by the sea-side: he shall tell thee whāt thou oughtest to do.

7 And, when the āngel which spake unto Çôr-nē'li-ūs was departed, he called two of his household sēr'vants, and a devout sōldiēr of them that waited on him continually;

8 And, when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Jōp'pā.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their jōurney, and drew² nigh unto the city, Pē'tēr went up upon the house-top to pray, ābout' the sixth hour.³

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten; but while they made rēady, he fell into a trānce,

11 And saw heaven opened, and a cēr'tain vessel descēn'ding unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the ēarth:

12 Wherein wēre all manner of four-footed beasts of the ēarth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Pē'tēr; kill and eat.

14 But Pē'tēr said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him āgain' the second time, Whāt God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 'This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up āgain' into heaven.

17 ¶ Now, while Pē'tēr dōubted in himself whāt this vī'sion which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which wēre sent from Çôr-nē'li-ūs, had made inquiry for Sī'mōn's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and āsked whether Sī'mōn, which was surnamed Pē'tēr, wēre lodged there.

19 ¶ While Pē'tēr thought on the vī'sion, the Spī'r'it said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise, thēre'fōre, and get thee down, and go with them dōubt'ing nōthing; for I have sent them.

21 Then Pē'tēr went down to the men which wēre sent unto him from Çôr-nē'li-ūs; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek. whāt is the cause wherefore ye āre come?

22 And they said, Çôr-nē'li-ūs the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report āmong all the nation of the Jews, was wārned from God by a holy āngel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Pē'tēr went āway with them, and cēr'tain brēthren from Jōp'pā āccōmpanied him.

24 And the morrow āfter, they entered into Cēs-a-rē'ā. And Çôr-nē'li-ūs waited for them, and had called togēther his kinsmen and near friends.

1 It-tāl'yān.

2 drōd.

3 sixth hour, 12 o'clock, or noon.

25 ¶ And, as Pē'tēr was coming in, Cōr-nē'li-ūs met him, and fell down at his feet, and wōr'shipped him.

26 But Pē'tēr took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that wēre come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep cōmpany, or come unto one of ānōther nation: but God hath showed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Thēre'fōre came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask, thēre'fōre, for whāt intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cōr-nē'li-ūs said, Four days āgō I was fast'ing until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clōth'ing, 31 And said, Cōr-nē'li-ūs, thy prayer is heard, and thine' alms āre had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send, thēre'fōre, to Jōp'pā, and call hither Sīm'ōn, whose surname is Pē'tēr; he is lodged in the house of one Sīm'ōn a tanner, by the sea-side; who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately, thēre'fōre, I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now, thēre'fōre, āre we all here present before God, to hear all things that āre cōmmān'ded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Pē'tēr opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth, I pērcēivē' that God is no rēspēct'ēr of pērsons:

35 But in every nation, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Is'ra-ēl, preaching peace by Jē'sūs Chrīst, (he is Lord of all),

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Jū-dē'ā, and began from Gāl'ī-lēē, after the baptism which Jōhn preached;

38 How God āndōn'ted Jē'sūs of Nāz'a-rēth with the Hōly Ghōst, and with power: who went ābout' doing good, and healing all that wēre oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.

39 And we āre witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jē-rū'sa-lēm; whom they slew, and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and showed him openly:

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him āfter he ārōse from the dead.

42 And he cōmmān'ded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ōrdāin'ed of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 To him give all the prophets witness, that, through his name, whosoever bēliēveth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Pē'tēr yet spake these words, the Hōly Ghōst fell on all them which hēard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision, which bēliēved, wēre astonished, as many as came with Pē'tēr, because that on the Gēn'tiles also was poured out the gift of the Hōly Ghōst.

46 For they hēard them speak with tōngues, and magnify God. Then ānswered Pē'tēr, 47 Can any man forbid wāter, that these should not be baptized, which have rēcēived the Hōly Ghōst as well as we?

48 And he cōmmān'ded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry cēr'tain days.

CHAP. XI.

AND the āpōst'les and brēthren that wēre in Jū-dē'ā, hēard that the Gēn'tiles had also rēcēived the word of God.

2 And when Pē'tēr was come up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, they that wēre of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised,² and didst eat with them.

4 But Pē'tēr rēhēar'sed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Jōp'pā praying: and in a trance I saw a vi'sion, a cēr'tain vessel descēnd'ing, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the ēarth, and wild beasts, and creeping things and fowls of the air.

7 And I hēard a voice saying unto me, Ārīse, Pē'tēr; slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord; for nōthing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice ānswered me āgain' from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times, and all wēre drawn up āgain' into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there wēre three men ālready come unto the house where I was, sent from Cēs-a-rē'ā unto me.

12 And the Spīr'it bāde me go with them, nōthing dōubt'ing. Moreover, these six brēthren āccōpanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he showed us how he had seen an āngel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Jōp'pā, and call for Sīm'ōn, whose surname is Pē'tēr;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

¹ ninth hour 3 o'clock in the āfter-noon.

² ān-sēr'kūm-sī-zed.

15 And, as I began to speak, the Hōly Ghōst fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Theⁿ remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, Jōhn indeed baptized with wāter; but ye shall be baptized with the Hōly Ghōst:

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Je'sus Christ; whāt was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Ġēn'tiles grānted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now they which wēre scattered ābroād upon the pērsēcution that āro'se ābout' Stēphen,¹ travelled as far as Phēnī'ce, and Cŷ'prūs, and Ān'ti-ōch, preaching the word to nōne but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them wēre men of Cŷ'prūs and Cŷ-rē'ne, which, when they wēre come to Ān'ti-ōch, spake unto the Grē'ciāns,² preaching the Lord Je'sus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jē-rū'sa-lēm; and they sent forth Bār'nā-bās, that he should go as far as Ān'ti-ōch:

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhōrted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Hōly Ghōst, and of fāith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Bār'nā-bās to Tār'sūs, for to seek Sāul:

26 And, when he had found him, he brought him unto Ān'ti-ōch. And it came to pās, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the discip'les wēre called Christ'i-āns³ first in Ān'ti-ōch.

27 ¶ And in these days came prophets from Jē-rū'sa-lēm unto Ān'ti-ōch.

28 And there stood up one of them named Āg'a-būs, and signified, by the Spīr'it, that there should be great dēarth throughout all the wōrld; which came to pās in the days of Ġlāu'di-ūs Cē'sār.

29 Then the discip'les, every man according to his ābil'ity, dētēr'mined to send relief unto the brēthren which dwelt in Jū-dē'ā:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Bār'nā-bās and Sāul.

CHAP. XII.

NOW, ābout' that time, Hēr'od the king stretched forth his hands to vex cēr'tain of the church.

2 And he killed James, the brother of Jōhn, with the sword.

3 And, because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Pē'tēr also. (Then wēre the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And, when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of sōl'diērs to keep him; intending āfter Eās'ter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Pē'tēr thērē'fōre was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Hēr'od would have brought him forth, the same night Pē'tēr was sleeping between two sōl'diērs, bound with two chains; and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, the āngel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Pē'tēr on the side, and raised him up, saying, Ārī'se up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the āngel said unto him, Gird⁴ thyself, and bind^on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Čast thy garment ābout' thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist^o not that it was true which was done by the āngel; but thought he saw a vi'sion.

10 When they wēre pās't the first and the second wārd, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and pās'sed on through one street; and forthwith the āngel departed from him.

11 And when Pē'tēr was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his āngel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Hēr'od, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And, when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mā'ry, the mōther of Jōhn, whose surname was Mār'k; where many wēre gāthered together, praying.

13 And, as Pē'tēr knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named R'hō'dā.

14 And, when she knew Pē'tēr's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Pē'tēr stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly āfirm'ed⁵ that it was even so. Then said they, It is his āngel.

16 But Pē'tēr continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they wēre astonished.

17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go, show these things unto James, and to the brēthren.

1 Stē'ō'n. 2 Grē'she-ānz. 3 Krīst'yūnz. 4 gērd. * knew. 5 āf'fērm'ed.

And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now, as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the sōl'diērs, whāt was become of Pē'tēr.

19 And, when Hēr'od had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and cōmmānd'ed that they should be put to death. And he went down from Jū-dē'ā to Cēs-a-rē'ā, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Hēr'od was highly displeas'd with them of Tyre and Si'dōn: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blās'tūs the king's cham'bér-lain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day, Hēr'od, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of wōrms, and gave up the ghōst.

24 ¶ But the word of God grew ¹ and multiplied.

25 And Bàr'na-bās and Sāul returned from Jē-rú'sa-lēm, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them Jōhn, whose surname was Mār̄k.

CHAP. XIII.

NOW there wēre in the church that was at Ān'ti-ōch cēr'tain prophets and teachers; as Bàr'na-bās, and Sīm'e-ōn that was called Nī'gēr, and Lū'ci-ūs ² of Cŷ-rē'ne, and Mān'a-ēn, which had been brought up with Hēr'od the tē'trārch, and Sāul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fāsted, the Hōly Ghōst said, Separate me Bàr'na-bās and Sāul for the work wherunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fāsted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them āwāy.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Hōly Ghōst, departed unto Sēl-eū'ci-ā;³ and from thence they sailed to Cŷ'prūs.

5 And when they wēre at Sāl'a-mis, they preached the word of God in the sŷn'agōgues of the Jews: and they had also Jōhn to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Pā'phōs, they found a cēr'tain sōr'cērér, a fālse prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bàr-jē'sūs,

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sēr'gi-ūs Pāu'lūs, a prudent⁴ man; who called for Bàr'na-bās and Sāul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Ēl'y-mās the sōr'cērér, (for so is his name by Intērpētā'tion,) withstood them, seeking to turn āwāy the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Sāul, (who also is called Pāul), filled with the Hōly Ghōst, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all sūbtlety and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness! wilt thou not cease to pērvērt' the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went ābout' seeking some to lēad him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw whāt was done, believed, being astonished at the dōc'trine of the Lord.

13 Now when Pāul and his cōmpany lōosed from Pā'phōs, they came to Pēr'gā in Pām-phŷl'ī-ā: and Jōhn, departing from them, returned to Jē-rú'sa-lēm.

14 ¶ But, when they departed from Pēr'gā, they came to Ān'ti-ōch 'n Pi-sŷ'di-ā,⁵ and went into the sŷn'agōgue on the Sāb'bath-dāy, and sat down.

15 And āfter the rēad'ing of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the sŷn'agōgue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brēthren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Pāul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Īs'ra-ēl, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Īs'ra-ēl chose our fāthers, and exālted the people when they dwelt as strāngers in the land of Ē'gŷpt, and with a high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And ābout' the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destrōy'ed seven nations in the land of Čā'nā-ān, he divid'd their land to them by lōt.

20 And āfter that he gave unto them judges ābout' the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Sām'u-ēl the prophet.

21 And āfterwārd they desired a king: and God gave unto them Sāul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Bēn'jā-mīn, by the space of forty years.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them Dā'vīd to be their king; to whom also he gave tēs'timōny, and said, I have found Dā'vīd the son of Jēs'se, a man āfter mine own hēart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 Of this man's seed hath God, according to his promise, raised unto Īs'ra-ēl a Sāv'ioūr,⁶ Jē'sūs:

24 When Jōhn had first preached, before his coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Īs'ra-ēl.

25 And as Jōhn fulfilled his course, he said, Who think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one āfter me, whose shoes of his feet I am not wōrthy to lōose.

26 Men and brēthren, children of the stock of Ābra-hām, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every Sāb' bath-dāy, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pī'lāte that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sēpulchre.

30 But God raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Gāl'i-lēe to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jē-šūs again': as it is also written in the second Psālm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as cōncēr'nīng that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mēr'cīs of Dā'vīd.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psālm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Hōly One to see corruption.

36 For Dā'vīd, after he had sērvēd his own generation, by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption;

37 But he, whom God raised again', saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you, thērē'fore, men and brēthren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And by him, all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Mō'sēs.

40 Beware, thērē'fore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the prophets;

41 Behold, ye dēspī'sērs, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 ¶ And when the Jews wēre gone out of the sŷn'agōgne, the Gēn'tiles besōught that these words might be preached to them the next Sāb' bath.

43 Now, when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious prōs'ē-lŷtes, followed Pāul and Bār'na-bās; who, speaking to them, pērsuādēd them to continue in the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sāb' bath-dāy came almost the whole city togēthēr to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multi-tudes, they wēre filled with envy, and spake against those things which wēre spoken by Pāul, contradicting and blās-phēmīng.

46 Then Pāul and Bār'na-bās waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of ēvērlās'tīng life, lo, we turn to the Gēn'tiles.

47 For so hath the Lord cōmmān'ded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gēn'tiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gēn'tiles hēard this, they wēre glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as wēre ordāin'ed to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was publish-ed throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and hōn'ōurable wom'en, and the chief men of the city, and raised pērsēcū'tion against Pāul and Bār'na-bās, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against' them, and came unto Ī-çō'ni-ūm.

52 And the discīples wēre filled with joy, and with the Hōly Ghōst.

CHAP. XIV.

AND it came to pāss in Ī-çō'ni-ūm, that they went both togēthēr into the sŷn'agōgne of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude, both of the Jews, and also of the Grēeks, believed.

2 But the ūn-bē-liēv'īng Jews stirred up the Gēn'tiles, and made their minds evil affected against' the brēthren.

3 Long time, thērē'fore, abōde they, speaking boldly in the Lord; which gave tēs'timōny unto the word of his grace, and grānted signs and wōnders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divid-ed: and part held with the Jews, and part with the āpōstles

5 And when there was an assāult made, both of the Gēn'tiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them dēspite'fūlly, and to stone them,

6 They wēre ware of it, and fled unto Lŷs'trā and Dēr'be, cities of Lŷc-ā-ō'ni-ā, and unto the region that lieth round ābōut:

7 And there they preached the gōs'pēl.

8 ¶ And there sat a cēr'tāin man at Lŷs'trā, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mōthēr's womb, who never had wālked:

9 The same hēard Pāul speak: who stēad'fāstly beholding him, and pērcēiv'īng that he had fāith to be healed,

10 Said, with a loud voice, Stand up-right on thy feet. And he leaped and wālked.

11 And when the people saw whāt Pāul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying, in the speech of Lŷc-ā-ō'ni-ā, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Bār'na-bās Jū'pi-tēr, and Pāul Mēr-çū'ri-ūs, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jū'pi-tēr, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sac'ri-fice with the people;

14 Which when the āpōstles, Bār'na-bās and Pāul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, Why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained the people, that they had not done sac'ri-fice unto them.

19 And there came thither cēr'tain Jews from Ān'ti-ōch, and Ī-çō'ni-ūm, who persuaded the people, and having stoned Pāul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about' him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Bār'na-bās to Dēr'be.

21 ¶ And when they had preached the gōs'pēl to that city, and had taught many, they returned again' to Lys'trā, and to Ī-çō'ni-ūm, and Ān'ti-ōch,

22 Confirm'ing the souls of the disciples, and exhōrt'ing them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordain'ed them elders in every church, and had prayed with fast'ing, they commēd'ed them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed through-out Pi-sī'di-ā,¹ they came to Pām-phyl'i-ā.

25 And when they had preached the word in Pēr'gā, they went down into Āt-talī'ā:

26 And thence sailed to Ān'ti-ōch, from whence they had been recōmmēd'ed to the grace of God, for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehears'ed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gēn'tiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAP. XV.

AND cēr'tain men which came down from Jū-de'ā, taught the brēthren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Mō'sēs, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therē'fore Pāul and Bār'na-bās had no small dissension and disputation with them, they detēr'mined that Pāul and Bār'na-bās, and cēr'tain other of them, should go up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm unto the āpōstles and elders about' this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phē-nī'ce and Sa-mā'ri-ā, declaring the cōnvēr'sion of the Gēn'tiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brēthren.

4 And when they were come to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, they were received of the church, and of the āpōstles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up cēr'tain of the sect of the Phār'i-sēes which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise² them, and to cōmmānd' them to keep the law of Mō'sēs.

6 ¶ And the āpōstles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And, when there had been much disputing, Pēt'ēr rose up, and said unto them, Men and brēthren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gēn'tiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gōs'pēl, and believe.

8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Hōly Ghōst, even as he did unto us;

9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therē'fore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that, through the grace of the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Bār'na-bās and Pāul, declaring whāt miracles and wōnders God had wrought among the Gēn'tiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brēthren, hearken unto me:

14 Sīm'e-ōn hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gēn'tiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree' the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 After this I will return, and will build again' the tab'ēr-nā-cle of Dā'vid, which is fallen down, and I will build again' the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gēn'tiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we ²sēr'kūm-size.

trouble not them, which from among the Gēn'tiles are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Mō'sēs of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the s̄yn'agōgues every Sāb'bath-dāy.

22 Then pleased it the āpōstles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own cōmpany to Ān'ti-ōch with Pāul and Bār'na-bās; namely, Jū'dās surnamed Bār'sa-bās, and Sī'lās, chief men among the brēthren:

23 And they wrote letters by them āfter this manner: The āpōstles, and elders, and brēthren, send greeting unto the brēthren which are of the Gēn'tiles in Ān'ti-ōch, and S̄yr'i-ā, and Ci-līc'i-ā:¹

24 Forasmuch as we have hēard that cēr'tain which went out from us have troubled you with words, sūbvērt'ing your souls, saying, Ye must be cir'cumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such cōmmānd'mēt:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our belōved Bār'na-bās and Pāul.

26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ.

27 We have sent, thēre'fore, Jū'dās and Sī'lās, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghōst, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things:

29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So, when they were dīsmīss'ed, they came to Ān'ti-ōch: and when they had gāthered the multitude togēther, they delivered the ēpīst'le:²

31 Which when they had rēad, they rejoiced for the consolation.

32 And Jū'dās and Sī'lās, being prophets also themselves, exhōrt'ed the brēthren with many words, and cōfirm'ed them.

33 And āfter they had tarried there a space, they wēre let go in peace from the brēthren unto the āpōstles.

34 Notwithstanding, it pleased Sī'lās to ābīde there still.

35 Pāul also and Bār'na-bās continued in Ān'ti-ōch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days āfter, Pāul said unto Bār'na-bās, Let us go āgain' and visit our brēthren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Bār'na-bās dētēr'mīned to take with them Jōhn, whose surname was Mār̄k.

38 But Pāul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pām-ph̄y'ī-ā, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed āsūn'dei one from the other: and so Bār'na-bās took Mār̄k, and sailed unto C̄y'pr̄s;

40 And Pāul chose Sī'lās, and departed, being rēcōmmēnd'ed by the brēthren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through S̄yr'i-ā and Ci-līc'i-ā, cōfirm'ing³ the churches.

CHAP. XVI.

THIEN came he to Dēr'be and L̄y's'trā: and, behold, a cēr'tain disciple was there, named Ti-mō'the-ūs, the son of a cēr'tain wom'an, which was a Jew'ess, and bēlieved; but his father was a Grēek:

2 Which was well reported of by the brēthren that wēre at L̄y's'trā and Ī-çō'ni-ūm.

3 Him would Pāul have to go forth with him; and took and cir'cumcised him, because of the Jews which wēre in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Grēek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep that wēre ordāin'ed of the āpōstles and elders which wēre at Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

5 And so wēre the churches estāb'lished in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now, when they had gone throughout Phr̄y'g'i-ā, and the region of Ga-lā'ti-ā,⁴ and wēre forbidden of the Holy Ghōst to preach the word in Ās̄i-ā,⁵

7 āfter they wēre come to M̄y'ç'i-ā,⁶ they assayed to go into Bi-th̄y'n'i-ā: but the Spīr'it sūffered them not.

8 And they, pās'sing by M̄y'ç'i-ā, came down to Trō'ās.

9 ¶ And a vīzion appeared to Pāul in the night: There stood a man of Māc-e-dō'ni-ā,⁷ and prayed him, saying, Come over into Māc-e-dō'ni-ā, and help us.

10 And āfter he had seen the vīzion, immediately we endeavoured to go into Māc-e-dō'ni-ā, assuredly gāth'er'ing that the Lord had called us for to preach the gōs'pēl unto them.

11 Thēre'fore, lōō'sing from Trō'ās, we came with a straight course to Sām-o-thrā-ci-ā, and the next day to Nē-āp'o-līs:

12 And from thence to Phi-lip'pi, which is the chief city of that part of Māc-e-dō'ni-ā, and a colony: and we wēre in that city āb'iding cēr'tain days.

13 And on the Sāb'bath, we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the wom'en which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a cēr'tain wom'an, named L̄y'd'i-ā, a seller of purple, of the city of Th̄y-a-tī'rā, which wór'shipped God, hēard us: whose hēart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which wēre spoken of Pål.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she cōnstrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to päss, as we went to prayer, a cēr'tain damsel, pōssēs'sed with a spirit of divination, met us, which brought her mās'ters much gain by soothsaying :

17 The same followed Pål and us, and cried, saying, These men are the sēr'vants of the most high God, which show unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Pål being grieved, turned, and said to the spirit, I cōmmand' thee in the name of Jē'sūs Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And when her mās'ters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Pål and Sī'lās, and drew them into the market-place unto the rulers.

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs which are not lawful for us to receīve, nēither to ob'serve, being Rō'māns.

22 And the multitude rose up togēther āgain'st them ; and the magistrates rent off their clōthes, and cōmmand'ed to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cāst them into prison, chārging the jailer to keep them safely :

24 Who, having receīved such a chārgē, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fāst in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Pål and Sī'lās prayed, and sang praises unto God : and the prisoners hēard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great ēarth'quake, so that the foundations of the prison wēre shaken ; and immediately all the doors wēre opened, and every one's bands wēre loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison āwā'king out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his swōrd, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Pål cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm ; for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Pål and Sī'lās ;

30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, whāt must I do to be saved ?

31 And they said, Belieue on the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that wēre in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes ; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, belie'ving in God with all his house.

35 ¶ And when it was day, the magistrates sent the ser'gēants,¹ saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Pål, The magistrates have sent to let you go : now, thēre'fore, depart, and go in peace.

37 But Pål said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Rō'māns, and have cāst us into prison ; and now do they thrust us out privily ? nay, verily ; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the ser'gēants told these words unto the magistratēs ; and they feared when they hēard that they wēre Rō'māns.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lyd'i-ä : and when they had seen the brēthren, they cōm'forted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

NOW, when they had pās'sed through Ām-phīp'o-līs and Āp-ōl-lō-ni-ä, they came to Thēs-sa-lō-n'cā, where was a sȳn'agōgue of the Jews :

2 And Pål, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sāb' bath-dāys reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen āgain' from the dead ; and that this Jē'sūs, whom I preach unto you is Christ.

4 And some of them belieued and consorted with Pål and Sī'lās : and of the devout Grēeks a great multitude, and of the chief wom'en not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which belieued not, moved with envy, took unto them cēr'tain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gāthered a cōmpany, and set all the city on uproar, and assāulted the house of Jā'sōn, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jā'sōn, and cēr'tain brēthren, unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the wōrld upside down, are come hither also ;

7 Whom Jā'sōn hath receīved : and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cē'sār, saying, that there is ānōther king, one Jē'sūs.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they hēard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jā'sōn, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brēthren immediately sent āway Pāul and Sīlās by night unto Bē-rē'ā: who, coming thither, went into the sŷn'agōgue of the Jews.

11 These wēre more noble than those in Thēs-sa-lō-nī-cā, in that they received the word with all rēadiness of mind, and sēarched the scriptures daily, whether those things wēre so.

12 Therēfore many of them bēlieved: also of hōn'ourable wom'en which wēre Grēeks, and of men not a few.

13 ¶ But when the Jews of Thēs-sa-lō-nī-cā had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Pāul at Bē-rē'ā, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brēthren sent āway Pāul, to go as it wēre, to the sea: but Sīlās and Ti-mō'the-ūs ābode there still.

15 And they that conducted Pāul, brought him unto Āth'ens: and rēcēiv'ing a cōm-mān'd'mēt unto Sīlās and Ti-mō'the-ūs for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now, while Pāul waited for them at Āth'ens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therēfore disputed he in the sŷn'agōgue with the Jews, and with the devout pērsōns, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then cēr'tain philōs'ophers of the Ēp-i-cū-rē'āns, and of the Stō'icks, encountered him: And some said, Whāt will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods; because he preached unto them Jē'sūs, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Ā-rē-ōp'a-gūs, saying, May we know whāt this new dōc'trine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest cēr'tain strange things to our ears: we would know, therēfore, whāt these things mean.

21 (For all the Ā-thē'ni-āns, and strang-ers which wēre there, spent their time in nōthing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Pāul stood in the midst of Mār's'hill, and said, Ye men of Āth'ens, I pērcēive¹ that in all things ye āre too superstitions.¹

23 For as I pāssed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an āltar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom, therēfore, ye ignorantly wōr'ship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that made the wōrld, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and ēarth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Nēither is wōr'shipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all lifē, and breath, and all things:

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the ēarth, and iath dētēr'mined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel āfter him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as cēr'tain also of your own poets have said, For we āre also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we āre the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the God'hēad is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at: but now cōm-mān'deth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the wōrld in righteousness by that Man whom he hath ōr-dāin'ed; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they hēard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; and others said, We will hear thee āgain' of this matter.

33 So Pāul departed from āmōng them.

34 Howbeit, cēr'tain men clave unto him, and bēlieved; āmōng the which was Di-ō-nŷs'i-ūs the Ā-rē-ōp'a-gite,² and a wom'an named Dām'a-ris, and others with them.

CHAP. XVIII.

AFTER these things, Pāul departed from Āth'ens, and came to Cōr'īnth;

2 And found a cēr'tain Jew, named Āq'ui-lā,³ born in Pōn'tūs, lately come from It'a-ly, with his wife Pris-cil'ā, (because that Člāu'di-ūs had cōm-mān'ded all Jews to depart from Rōme,) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same crāft, he ābode with them, and wrougħt: (for by their occupation they wēre tent-makers.)

4 And he reasoned in the sŷn'agōgue every sabbath, and pērsuādēd the Jews and the Grēeks.

5 And, when Sīlās and Ti-mō'the-ūs wēre come from Māc-e-dō'ni-ā, Pāul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jē'sūs was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blāsp'hēmed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads: I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gēn'tiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a cēr'tain man's house, named Jūs-tūs, one that wōr'shipped God, whose house joined hard to the sŷn'agōgue.

8 And Cris'pūs, the chief ruler⁴ of the sŷn'agōgue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Cö-rin'thi-äns, hearing, bélièved, and wère baptized.

9 ¶ Then spake the Lord to P^{au}l in the night by a vi^{si}on, Be not äfräid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee; for I have much people in this city.

11 And he continued there a year and six mönth's, teaching the word of God ämöng them.

12 And when G^{äl}'li-ö was the deputy of Ä-chä'i-ä, the Jews made insurrection with one accord ägainst' P^{au}l, and brought him to the judgment-seat,

13 Saying, This fellow p^{er}süadeth men to wör'ship God contrary to the law.

14 And, when P^{au}l was now äbout' to open his mouth, G^{äl}'li-ö said unto the Jews, If it wère a matter of wröng, or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews! reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment-seat.

17 Then all the Gr^{ee}k's took Sös'the-n^{es}, the chief ruler of the s^{yn}'agögue, and beat him before the judgment-seat: and G^{äl}'li-ö cared for nöne of those things.

18 ¶ And P^{au}l after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the br^{eth}ren, and sailed thence into S^{yr}'i-ä, and with him, Pr^{is}-c^{il}'lä and Äq'ui-lä, having shörn his head in C^{en}'chre-ä; for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Äph'e-süs, and left them there: but he himself entered into the s^{yn}'agögue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in J^e-r^u'sa-l^{em}: but I will return ägain' unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Äph'e-süs.

22 And when he had landed at C^{es}-a-r^e'ä, and gone up and saluted the church, he went down to Än'ti-öch.

23 And äfter he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Ga-lä'ti-ä and Phryg'i-ä, in order, strengthening all the discip^{les}.

24 ¶ And a c^{er}'tain Jew, named Ä-pö'l-lös, born at Äl-^{ex}-än'dri-ä, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Äph'e-süs.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord, and, being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of J^{oh}n.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the s^{yn}'agögue: whom when Äq'ui-lä, and Pr^{is}-c^{il}'lä had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more p^{er}fectly.

27 And when he was disposed to p^{as}s into Ä-chä'i-ä, the br^{eth}ren wrote, exhör'ting the discip^{les} to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had bélièved through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, showing by the scriptures that J^e'süs was Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it came to p^{as}s, that while Ä-pö'l-lös was at C^{or}'inth, P^{au}l, having p^{as}s-ed through the upper coasts, came to Äph'e-süs; and, finding c^{er}'tain discip^{les},

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Höly Ghöst since ye bélièved? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Höly Ghöst.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then w^{er}e ye baptized? And they said, Unto J^{oh}n's baptism.

4 Then said P^{au}l, J^{oh}n verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should béliève on him which should come äfter him, that is, on Christ J^e'süs.

5 When they heard this, they w^{er}e baptized in the name of the Lord J^e'süs.

6 And, when P^{au}l had laid his hands upon them, the Höly Ghöst came on them; and they spake with tongues, and p^{ro}ph^{es}ied.

7 And all the men w^{er}e äbout' twelve.

8 ¶ And he went into the s^{yn}'agögue and spake boldly for the space of three mönth's, disputing and p^{er}süäd'ing the things cönc^{er}'ning the kingdom of God.

9 But when d^{iv}ers w^{er}e hardened, and bélièved not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the discip^{les}, disputing daily in the school of one T^y-r^{an}'nüs.

10 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Ä'si-ä, heard the word of the Lord J^e'süs, both Jews and Gr^{ee}k's.

11 And God w^{ro}ught special miracles by the hands of P^{au}l:

12 So that from his body w^{er}e brought unto the sick, händ'k^{er}chiefs or äprons,² and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then c^{er}'tain of the vagabond Jews, ex'orcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits, the name of the Lord J^e'süs, saying, We adjure you by J^e'süs, whom P^{au}l preacheth.

14 And there w^{er}e seven sons of one Sc^e'vä, a Jew, and chief of the p^{ri}ests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, J^e'süs I know, and P^{au}l I know: but who äre ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leaped on them, and overcame them, and p^{re}vail'ed ägainst' them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wöunded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Grēeks also dwelling at Eph'e-sūs; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jē'sūs was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and showed their deeds.

19 Many also of them which used curious arts, brought their books togethēr, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God, and prēvāil'ed.

21 ¶ After these things wēre ended, Pàul purposed in the spirit, when he had pāsseed through Māc-e-dō'ni-ā, and Ā-chā'i-ā, to go to Jē-rā'sa-lēm, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rōme.

22 So he sent into Māc-e-dō'ni-ā two of them that ministered unto him, Ti-mō'the-ūs and E-rās'tūs: but he himself stayed in Ā'si-ā for a season.

23 And the same time there ārōse no small stir about that way.

24 For a cēr'tain man, named Dē-mē'tri-ūs, a silver-smith, which made silver shrines for Dī-ā'nā, brought no small gain unto the crāftsman;

25 Whom he called togethēr, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this crāft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not ālone at Eph'e-sūs, but almost throughout all Ā'si-ā, this Pàul hath pērsuādēd and turned āway much people, saying, that they be no gods which āre made with hands:

27 So that not only this our crāft is in dānger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Dī-ā'nā should be despīsed, and her magnificēce should be destrōyēd, whom all Ā'si-ā and the wōrld wōr'shippeth.

28 And when they hēard these sayings, they wēre full of wōrāth, and cried out, saying, Great is Dī-ā'nā of the E-phē'si-āns.²

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and, having caught Gā'i-ūs³ and Ār-is-tār'chūs, men of Māc-e-dō'ni-ā, Pàul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Pàul would have entered in unto the people, the discīples suffered him not.

31 And cēr'tain of the chief of Ā'si-ā, which wēre his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some, thērē'fore, cried one thing, and some ānōther: for the assembly was confused: and the more part knew not whērēfore they wēre come togethēr.

33 And they drew Āl-ēx-ān'dēr out of the multitude, the Jews putting him fōr-wārd. And Āl-ēx-ān'dēr beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice, ābout the space of two hours, cried out, Great is Dī-ā'nā of the E-phē'si-āns.

35 And when the tōwn clerk had appeasēd the people, he said, Ye men of Eph'e-sūs, w'hat man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the E-phē'si-āns is a wōr'shipper of the great goddess Dī-ā'nā, and of the image which fell down from Jū'pī-tēr.

36 Seeing thēn that these thungs cannot be spoken āgainst, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nōthing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which āre neither robbers of churches, nor yet blāsp'hēmērs of your goddess.

38 Whērēfore if Dē-mē'tri-ūs, and the crāftsman which āre with him, have a matter āgainst any man, the law is open, and there āre deputies; let them implead one ānōther.

39 But if ye inquire any thing cōncērn'ing other matters, it shall be dētēr'mined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we āre in dānger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whērēby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dīsmiss'ed the assembly.

CHAP. XX.

AND āfter the uproar was ceased, Pàul called unto him the discīples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Māc-e-dō'ni-ā.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Grēece,

3 And there ābode three mōnths; and when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was ābout to sail into Sŷr'i-ā, he purposed to return through Māc-e-dō'ni-ā.

4 And there āccōmpānied him into Ā'si-ā, Sōp'a-tēr of Bē-rē'ā; and of the Thēs-sa-lō'ni-āns, Ār-is-tār'chūs and Sē-cūn'dūs; and Gā'i-ūs of Dēr'be, and Ti-mō'the-ūs; and of Ā'si-ā, Tŷch'i-çūs and Trōph'i-mūs.

5 These, going before, tarried for us at Trō'as.

6 And we sailed āway from Phi-lip'pi āfter the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Trō'as in five days: whērē we ābode seven days.

7 ¶ And upon the first day of the week, when the discīples came togethēr to break bread, Pàul preached unto them, rēdy to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there wēre many lights in the upper chamber whērē they wēre gāthērd togethēr.

9 And there sat in a window a cēr'tain young man named Eū'ty-çhūs,⁴ being fallen into a deep sleep; and, as Pàul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And P  ul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he, therefore, was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto   s's  s, there intending to take in P  ul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at   s's  s, we took him in, and came to M  t-y-l  ne.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against' Ch  i'  s; and the next day we arrived at S  m  s, and tarried at Tr  s  yl'i-  m; and the next day we came to Mi-l  t  s.

16 For P  ul had det  rmined to sail by   ph'e-s  s, because he would not spend the time in   'si-  : for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at J  -r  'sa-l  m the day of P  n'te-  st.

17 ¶ And from Mi-l  t  s he sent to   ph'e-s  s, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into   'si-  , after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 S  rving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations which befell me by the laying in wait of the Jews;

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have showed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance t  ward God, and faith t  ward our Lord J  s  s Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto J  -r  'sa-l  m, not knowing the things that shall befall me there;

23 Save that the Holy Gh  st witnesseth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But none of these things move me; neither count I my life dear unto my-self,¹ so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord J  s  s, to testify the g  s'p  l of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record' this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 ¶ Take heed, therefore, unto yourselves, and to all the flock over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking p  rv  rse' things, to draw away disc  ples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that, by the space of three years, I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend' you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have showed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weak; and to remember the words of the Lord J  s  s, how he said, It is more bl  s'sed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on P  ul's neck, and kissed him;

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAP XXI.

AND it came to pass, that, after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto   '  s, and the day following unto Rh  des, and from thence unto P  t'a-r  .

2 And, finding a ship sailing over unto Ph  nic'i-  ,² we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now, when we had discovered C  'pr  s, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syr'i-  , and landed at T  re: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And, finding disc  ples, we tarried there seven days; who said to P  ul, through the Sp  r'it, that he should not go up to J  -r  'sa-l  m.

5 And, when we had accomplished those days, we departed, and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city; and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And, when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again'.

7 And when we had finished our course from T  re, we came to P  t  l-e-m  'is,³ and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, we that were of Pàul's company, departed, and came unto Cēs-a-rè'ā; and we entered into the house of Phil'ip the evangelist, (which was one of the seven,) and ābōde with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, vir'gins,¹ which did prōph'ē-sy.

10 ¶ And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Jū-dè'ā a cēr'tain prophet, named Āg a-būs.

11 And, when he was come unto us, he took Pàul's gir'dle,² and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Hōly Ghōst, So shall the Jews at Jè-rù'sa-lèm bind the man that owneth this gir'dle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Ġèn'tiles.

12 And, when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besōught him not to go up to Jè-rù'sa-lèm.

13 Then Pàul answered, Whāt mean ye to weep, and to break mine hēart? for I am rēady not to be bound only, but also to die at Jè-rù'sa-lèm, for the name of the Lord Jē'sūs.

14 And when he would not be pērsādēd, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And, āfter those days, we took up our cār'riages, and went up to Jè-rù'sa-lèm.

16 There went with us also cēr'tain of the discip'les of Cēs-a-rè'ā, and brought with them one Mnā'son³ of Cy'prus, an old discip'le, with whom we should lodge.

17 ¶ And when we wēre come to Jè-rù'sa-lèm, the brēthren rēcēivēd us gladly.

18 And the day following, Pàul went in with us unto Jāmes; and all the elders wēre present.

19 And, when he had sāluted them, he declared particularly whāt things God had wōrought āmōng the Ġèn'tiles by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brōther, how many thousands of Jews there āre which believē; and they āre all zēal'ōus of the law:

21 And they āre informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which āre āmōng the Ġèn'tiles to forsake Mō'sēs, saying, that they ought not to cir'cumcise their children, nēither to wālke āfter the customs.

22 Whāt is it, thērē'fōre? the multitude must needs come tōgēther: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do, thērē'fōre, this that we say tō thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at chārges with them, that they may shave their hēads: and all may know that those things, whereof they wēre informed cōncēr'nīng thee, āre nōthing; but that thou thyself also wālkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As tōuch'īng the Ġèn'tiles which believē, we have written and concluded, that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

1 vēr'jīnz. 2 gēr'dl. 3 Nā's'n. 4 Ē-fē'zhe-ān. 5 kās'sl. 6 Ē-jīp'she-ān. 7 Sē-īsh'e-ā.

26 Then Pàul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 ¶ And, when the seven days wēre almost ended, the Jews which wēre of Ā'si-ā, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Īs'ra-ēl, help: this is the man that teacheth all men every where āgainst the people, and the law, and this place; and further, hath brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city, Troph'i-mūs an Ē-phē'si-ān,⁴ whom they supposed that Pàul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran tōgēther; and they took Pàul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors wēre shut.

31 And, as they went ābout to kill him, tidings came unto the chief cāp'tain of the band, that all Jè-rù'sa-lèm was in uproar;

32 Who immediately took sōl'diērs and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief cāp'tain and the sōl'diērs, they left beating of Pàul.

33 Then the chief cāp'tain came near, and took him, and cōmmāndēd him to be bound with two chains; and demān'ded who he was, and whāt he had dōne?

34 And some cried one thing, some ānōther, āmōng the multitude; and, when he could not know the cēr'tainty for the tumult, he cōmmān'ded him to be carried into the cās'tle.⁵

35 And, when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was borne of the sōl'diērs, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed āfter, crying, Āway with him.

37 And as Pàul was to be led into the cās'tle, he said unto the chief cāp'tain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Grēek?

38 Art not thou that Ē-gy'p'ti-ān,⁶ which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness, four thousand men that wēre murderers?

39 But Pàul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tār'sūs, a city of Ci-līc'i-ā,⁷ a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And, when he had given him license, Pàul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And, when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hē'brew¹ tōngue, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

MEN, brēthren, and fāthers, hear ye my defence, which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they hēard that he spake in the Hē'brew tōngue to them, they kept the more silence : and he saith,)

3 I am, verily, a man which am a Jew, born in Tār'sūs, a city in Ci-līc'i-ā, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gāmā'li-ēl, and taught according to the pērfect manner of the law of the fāthers, and was zēal'ōūs tō'wārd God, as ye all āre this day.

4 And I pērsecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and wom'en.

5 As also the high priēst dōth bēar me witness, and all the ēstāte' of the elders : from whom also I rēcēived letters unto the brēthren, and went to Da-mās'cūs, to bring them which wēre there, bound unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm, for to be punished.

6 And it came to pās, that, as I made my jōurney, and was come nigh unto Da-mās'cūs, ābout' noon, suddenly there shōne from heaven a great light round ābout' me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and hēard a voice saying unto me, Sāul, Sāul, why pērsecutest thou me ?

8 And I ānswered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jē'sūs of Nāz'a-rēth, whom thou pērsecutest.

9 And they that wēre with me saw indeed the light, and wēre āfrāid ; but they hēard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, Whāt shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Ārīse, and go into Da-mās'cūs : and there it shall be told thee of all things which āre appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that wēre with me, I came into Da-mās'cūs.

12 And one Ān-a-nī'ās, a devout man, according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brōther Sāul, rēcēive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fāthers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldst hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of whāt thou hast seen and hēard.

16 And now, why tarriest thou? ārīse, and be baptized, and wāsh āway thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pās, that, when I was come āgain' to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trānce ;

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make h ste, and get thee quickly out of Jē-rū'salēm : for they will not rēcēive thy tēs'timōny cōncēr'nīng me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every sȳn'agōgue them that bēliēved on thee :

20 And when the blood of thy mār'tȳr Stē'phen³ was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart : for I will send thee far hence unto the Ĝēn'tiles.

22 ¶ And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Āway with such a fellow from the ēarth ; for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And, as they cried out, and cāst off their clōthes, and threw⁴ dust into the air,

24 The chief cāp'tain cōmmānded him to be brought into the cās'tle, and bāde that he should be examined by scou'rgīng, that he might know wherefore they cried so āgainst' him.

25 ¶ And, as they bound him with thongs, Pàul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scou'рге a man that is a Rō'mān, and uncondēmnēd ?

26 When the centurion hēard that, he went and told the chief cāp'tain, saying, Take heed whāt thou doest : for this man is a Rō'mān.

27 Then the chief cāp'tain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Rō'mān ? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief cāp'tain ānswered, With a great sum obtāin'ed I this freedom. And Pàul said, but I was free-born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him ; and the chief cāp'tain also was āfrāid, āfter he knew that he was a Rō'mān, and because he had bound him.

30 ¶ On the morrow, because he would have known the cēr'tainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he lōosed him from his bands, and cōmmānded the chief priēsts and all their council to appear, and brought Pàul down, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND Pàul, ēar'nēstly beholding the council, said, Men and brēthren, I have lived in all good cōn'sciēnce⁵ before God until this day.

2 And the high priēst Ān-a-nī'ās cōmmānded them that stood by him, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Pàul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall : for sittest thou to judge me āfter the law, and cōmmāndest me to be smitten contrary to the law ?

4 And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou God's high priēst ?

5 Then said Pàul, I wist * not, brēthren that he was the high priēst : for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 ¶ But, when Pål përcëived that the one part wêre Såd/du-cëes, and the other Phår'i-sëes, he cried out in the council, Men and brêthren, I am a Phår'i-sëe, the son of a Phår'i-sëe : of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Phår'i-sëes and the Såd/du-cëes : and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Såd/du-cëes say that there is no resurrection, nêither ângel nor spirit; but the Phår'i-sëes confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry : and the scribes that wêre of the Phår'i-sëes' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man : but if a spirit or an ângel hath spoken to him, let us not fight âgainst' God.

10 ¶ And when there arose a great dissension, the chief cåp'tain, fearing læst Pål should have been pulled in piëces of them, cõmmån'ded the sõi'diërs to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the cås'tle.

11 And the night following, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Pål; for as thou hast testified of me in Jê-rù'sa-lêm, so must thou bear witness also at Rõme.

12 ¶ And, when it was day, cër'tain of the Jews banded togêther, and bound themselves under a curse, saying, That they would nêither eat nor drink till they had killed Pål.

13 And they wêre more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priësts and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Pål.

15 Now, thêrê'fõre, ye with the council signify to the chief cåp'tain, that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more përfëctly cõncër'ning him; and we, or ever he come near, âre rëady to kill him.

16 And when Pål's sister's son hëard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the cås'tle, and told Pål.

17 Then Pål called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief cåp'tain: for he hath a cër'tain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief cåp'tain, and said, Pål the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief cåp'tain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, Whât is that thou hast to tël me?

20 And he said, the Jews have âgrëed to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring down Pål to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire sõi'm'whât of him more përfëctly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will nêither eat nor drink till they have killed him; and now âre they rëady, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief cåp'tain then let the young man depart, and chårged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast showed these things to me.

23 ¶ And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make rëady two hundred sõi'diërs to go to Cës-a-rë'â, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night.¹

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Pål on, and bring him safe unto Fê'lix the góvërnor.

25 And he wrote a letter âfter this manner :

26 Clåu'di-üs L.ÿ's'i-äs,² unto the most excellent góvërnor Fê'lix, sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been³ killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Rõ'mån.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council;

29 Whom I përcëived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his chårgë wórthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me, how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave cõmmån'd'mënt to his accusers also, to say before thee whât they had âgainst' him. Fare well.

31 Then the sõi'diërs, as it was cõmmån'd'ed them, took Pål, and brought him by night to Än-tip'a-tris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the cås'tle :

33 Who, when they came to Cës-a-rë'â, and delivered the epistle to the góvërnor, presented Pål also before him.

34 And when the góvërnor had read the letter, he asked of whât province he was. And when he understood that he was of Ci-líc'i-â;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers âre also come. And he cõmmån'd'ed him to be kept in Hêr'od's judgment-hall.

CHAP. XXIV.

AND âfter five days, Än-a-ni'äs the high priest dëscën'ded with the elders, and with a cër'tain orator, named Têr-tül'lüs, who informed the góvërnor âgainst' Pål.

2 And, when he was called forth, Têr-tūl'lūs began to accuse him saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Fē'līx, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tē'dioūs unto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldst hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews, throughout the world, and a ring/leader of the sect of the Nāz-a-rēnes'.

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple; whom we took, and would have judged according to our law:

7 But the chief cāp'tain, Lŷs'i-ās, came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Cōmmā'ding his accusers to come unto thee; by examining of whom, thyself mayst take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying, that these things were so.

10 ¶ Then Pāul, after that the gōvērnor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayst understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm for wōr'shīp.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the sŷn'agōgues, nor in the city.

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so wōr'shīp I the God of my fathers, belie'ving all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And have hope tō'wārd God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence tō'wārd God, and tō'wārd men.

17 Now, after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon cēr'tain Jews from Ā'si-ā found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude nor with tumult:

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had aught against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil-doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried, standing among them, Touch'ing the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 ¶ And when Fē'līx heard these things, having more pērfect knowledge of that way, he dēfēr'ed them, and said, When Lŷs'i-ās the chief cāp'tain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he cōmmā'ded a centurion to keep Pāul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid nōne of his acquaintance to minister, or come unto him.

24 ¶ And after cēr'tain days, when Fē'līx came with his wife Drū sil'lā, which was a Jew'ess, he sent for Pāul, and heard him cōncēr'ning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Fē'līx trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season I will call for thee.

26 ¶ He hoped also that mōney should have been given him of Pāul, that he might lōdse him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Pōr'ci-ūs Fēs'tūs came into Fē'līx's room: and Fē'līx, willing to show the Jews a plēas'ure, left Pāul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

NOW when Fēs'tūs was come into the province, after three days, he ascēnd'ed from Cēs-a-rē'ā to Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

2 Then the high priest, and the chief of the Jews informed him against Pāul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Fēs'tūs answered, that Pāul should be kept at Cēs-a-rē'ā, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them, thērē'fore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cēs-a-rē'ā; and the next day, sitting on the judgment-seat, cōmmā'ded Pāul to be brought..

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jē-rū'sa-lēm stood round about, and laid many and griev'ous complaints against Pāul, which they could not prove:

8 ¶ While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cē'sār, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Fēs'tūs, willing to do the Jews a plēas'ure, answered Pāul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Pāul, I stand at Cē'sār's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrōng, as thou very well knowest.

11 For, if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cēs'šār.

12 Then Fēs'tūs, when he had cōnferr'ed with the council, ānswered, Hast thou appealed unto Cēs'šār? unto Cēs'šār shalt thou go.

13 ¶ And āfter cēr'tain days, king Ā-grīp'pā and Bēr-nī'ce came unto Cēs-a-rē'ā to sālute Fēs'tūs.

14 And when they had been there many days, Fēs'tūs declared Pāul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a cēr'tain man left in bonds by Fē'līx;

15 About' whom, when I was at Jē-rū'salēm, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment āgainst' him.

16 To whom I ānswered, It is not the manner of the Rō'māns to deliver any man to die before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have license to ānswer for himself, cōncēr'ning the crime laid āgainst' him.

17 Thērē'fore, when they wēre come hither, without any delay, on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and cōmmān'ded the man to be brought forth:

18 Āgainst' whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought nōne accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had cēr'tain questions āgainst' him of his own superstition,¹ and of one Jē'sūs, which was dead, whom Pāul affirm'ed to be ālive.

20 And because I dōubted of such manner of questions, I āsked him whether he would go to Jē-rū'salēm, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Pāul had appealed to be rēsērv'ed unto the hearing of Āu-gūs'tūs, I cōmmān'ded him to be kept till I might send him to Cēs'šār.

22 Then Ā-grīp'pā said unto Fēs'tūs, I would also hear the man mysēlf.² Tomorrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 ¶ And on the morrow, when Ā-grīp'pā was come, and Bēr-nī'ce, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief cāp'tains and principal men of the city, at Fēs'tūs' cōmmān'd'mēnt Pāul was brought forth.

24 And Fēs'tūs said, King Ā-grīp'pā, and all men which āre here present with us, ye see this man, ābout' whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jē-rū'salēm, and also here, crying, that he ought not to live any³ longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nōthing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Āu-gūs'tūs, I have dētēr'mined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no cēr'tain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and especialy before thee, O King Ā-grīp'pā, that, āfter examination had, I might have sōme'whāt to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid āgainst' him.

CHAP. XXVI.

THEN Ā-grīp'pā said unto Pāul, Thou art pėrmitt'ed to speak for thyself. Then Pāul stretched forth the hand, and ānswered for himself.

¶ I think mysēlf happy, king Ā-grīp'pā, because I shall ānswer for mysēlf this day before thee, tōuch'ing all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which āre āmong the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first āmong mine own nation at Jē-rū'salēm, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, (if they would testify,) that āfter the most straitest sect of our religion, I lived a Phār'i-seē.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fāthers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instāntly sēr'v'ing God day and night, hope to come: for which hope's sake, king Ā-grīp'pā, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with mysēlf, that I ought to do many⁴ things contrary to the name of Jē'sūs of Nāz'a-rēth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jē-rū'salēm: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they wēre put to death, I gave my voice āgainst' them.

11 And I punished them oft in every s'yn'agōgue, and compelled them to blāsp'hēm'e': and, being exceedingly mad āgainst' them, I pėrsecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Da-mās'cūs, with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, ābove the brightness of the sun, shī'ning round ābout' me, and them which jōurneyed with me.

14 And, when we wēre all fallen to the ēarth, I hēard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hē'brew tōngue, Sāul, Sāul, why pėrsecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick āgainst' the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jē'sūs, whom thou pėrsecutest.

CHAP. XXVII.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness, both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Ġēn'tiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Sā'tān unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Ā-grīp'pā, I was not disōbē'diēnt unto the heavenly vision:

20 But showed first unto them of Dāmās'cūs, and at Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and throughout all the coasts of Jū-dē'ā, and then to the Ġēn'tiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went ābout' to kill me.

22 Having, thērē'fōre, ōbtāin'ed help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Mō'sēs did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should show light unto the people, and to the Ġēn'tiles.

24 ¶ And as he thus spake for himself, Fēs'tūs said with a loud voice, Pàul, thou art beside thyself; much lēar'nīng dōth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Fēs'tūs; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom I also speak freely: for I am pērsuādèd that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Ā-grīp'pā, bēliēvest thou the prophets? I know that thou bēliēvest.

28 Then Ā-grīp'pā said unto Pàul, Almost thou pērsuādèst me to be a Ġhrist'i-ān.¹

29 And Pàul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, wēre both almost and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 ¶ And, when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the gōvērnor, and Bēr-nī'ce, and they that sat with them.

31 And when they wēre gone āsīde, they talkèd between themselves, saying, This man doeth nōthing wōrthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Ā-grīp'pā unto Fēs'tūs, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cē'šar.

AND when it was dētēr'mīnèd that we should sail into Ī't-a-ly, they delivered Pàul, and cēr'tāin other prisoners, unto one named Jū'lī-ūs, a centurion of Āu-gūs'tūs' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Ād-rā-mŷ'tī-ūm, we lāunchèd, meaning to sail by the coast of Ā'sī-ā, one Ār-is-tār'chūs, a Māc-c-dō'nī-ān, of Thēs-sa-lō-nī'çā, being with us.

3 And the next day we tōuch'ed at Sī'dōn. And Jū'lī-ūs cōur'te-ōusly² entreated Pàul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had lāunchèd from thence we sailed under Cŷ'prūs, because the winds wēre contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cī-līc'i-ā,³ and Pām-phŷ'l'i-ā, we came to Mŷ'rā, a city of Lŷc'i-ā.⁴

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Āl-ēx-ān'dri-ā sailing into Ī't-a-ly; and he put us therein.

7 And, when we had sailed slowly many days, and scārce wēre come over āgainst' Cnī'dūs,⁵ the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Çrēte, over āgainst' Sāl-mō'ne:

8 And, hardly pās'sīng it, came unto a place which is called, The Fair-Hā'vēns, nigh whereunto was the city of La-sē'ā.

9 ¶ Now, when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dān'gèrōus, because the fāst was now ālrēdy pāst, Pàul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I pērcēiv'e that this vōy'āge will be with hurt and much dām'āge,⁶ not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion bēliēved the māster and the owner of the ship more than those things which wēre spoken by Pàul.

12 ¶ And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advisèd to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phē-nī'ce, and there to winter: which is a haven of Çrēte, and lieth tō'wārd the south-west, and north-west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had ōbtāin'ed their purpose, lòd'sīng thence, they sailed clōse by Çrēte.

14 But not long āfter, there ārōse āgainst' it a tempestuous wind called Eū-rōç'ly-dōn.⁷

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bēar up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a cēr'tāin īs'lānd, which is called Clāu'dā, we had much work to come by the boat;

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undèrgir'dīng⁸ the ship; and, fearing lēst they should fall into the quick-sands, strake sail, and so wère driven.

18 And we, being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cást out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when nèither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken áway.

21 ¶ But, áfter long abstinence, Pàul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have lòosed from Crète, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhòrt you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life ámong you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night the ángel of God, whose I am, and whom I sèrve, 24 Saying, Fear not, Pàul: thou must be brought before Cè'sár: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, Sirs, be of good cheer: for I belíeve God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cást upon a cèr'tain ís'lánd.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we wère driven up and down in Á'dri-á, ábout' midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew¹ near to some country;

28 And sounded and found it twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little further, they sounded ágain', and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then, fearing læst they should have fallen upon rocks, they cást four án'chòrs out of the stèrn, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen wère ábout' to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cást án'chòrs out of the foreship,

31 Pàul said to the centurion, and to the sòl'dièrs,² Except these ábido in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the sòl'dièrs cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And, while the day was coming on, Pàul besòught them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fást'ing, having taken nóthing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health; for there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then wère they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we wère in all in the ship two hundred, threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cást out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they díscóvered a cèr'tain creek with a shore, into the which they wère minded, if it wère possible, to thrust into the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the án'chòrs, they committed themselves unto the sea, and lòosed the rudder-bands, and hoisted up the mán'sail to the wind and made tó'wárd shore.

41 And, falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship ágròund: and the fore part stuck fást, and remáin'ed unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the sòl'dièrs' counsel was to kill the prisoners, læst any of them should swim out and escape'.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Pàul, kept them from their purpose, and còmmàn'ded that they which could swim should cást themselves first into the sea, and get to land.

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship: and so it came to pàss, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND when they wère escaped, then they knew that the ís'lánd was called Mè'li-tà.

2 And the barbarous people showed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 ¶ And when Pàul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fás-tened on his hand.

4 And, when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said ámong themselves, No dóubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but áfter they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they chánged their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 ¶ In the same quárters, wère pòsses'sions of the chief man of the ís'lánd, whose name was Púb'li-ús, who received us, and lodged us three days cour'teously.³

8 And it came to pàss, that the father of Púb'li-ús lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux; to whom Pàul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the is'land, came, and wère healed;

10 Who also hõn'oured us with many hõn'ours; and, when we departed, they laded us with such things as wère necessary.

11 ¶ And äfter three mounths we departed in a ship of Äl-ëx-än'dri-ä, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Çäs'tör and Pöl'lux.

12 And landing at Sÿr'a-çuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a cõm'päss, and came to Rhë'gi-üm: and äfter one day the south wind blëw, and we came the next day to Pü-të'o-li;

14 Where we found brëthren, and wère desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went tö'wärd Ròme.

15 And from thence, when the brëthren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Äp'pi i Fõ'rüm,¹ and the Thrëe-Täv'érns; whom, when Pàul saw, he thanked God, and took cõurage.²

16 And, when we came to Ròme, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the cäp'tain of the guärd: but Pàul was suffered to dwell by himself with a söl'diër that kept him.

17 ¶ And it came to päss, that, äfter three days, Pàul called the chief of the Jews togëther, and when they wère come togëther, he said unto them, Men and brëthren, though I have committed nöthing ägainst' the people or customs of our fäthers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jë-rü'sa-lëm into the hands of the Rõ'mäns;

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake ägainst' it, I was cõnsträin'ed to appeal unto Cë'sär; not that I had äught to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause thëre'fõre have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you; because that for the hope of Iÿ'ra-ël I am bound with this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We nëither rëcëived letters out of Jü-dë'ä cõncër'n'ing thee, nëither any of the brëthren that came showed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee w'hät thou thinkest: for as cõncër'n'ing this sect, we know that every where it is spoken ägainst'.

23 ¶ And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodgings; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, përsuä'd'ing them cõncër'n'ing Jë'süs, both out of the law of Mõ'sës, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some believed the things which wère spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they ägrëed not ämong themselves, they departed, äfter that Pàul had spoken one word, Well spake the Hö'ly Ghõst by È-sä'i-äs the prophet unto our fäthers,

26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not përcëive.'

27 For the hëärt of this people is waxed gross, and their ears äre dull of hearing, and their eyes wère closed; lëst they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their hëärt, and should be cõnvërt'ed, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known, thëre'fõre, unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gën'tiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said³ these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning ämong themselves.

30 ¶ And Pàul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and rëcëived all that came in unto him,

31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which cõncër'n' the Lord Jë'süs Christ with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

THE EPIS'TLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE RO'MANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, a sërvant of Jë'süs Christ, called to be an äpõtste, separated unto the gös'pël of God,

2 (Which he had promised äfõre by his prophets in the holy-scriptures,)

3 Cõncër'n'ing his Son Jë'süs Christ, our Lord, which was made of the seed of Dä'vid according to the flesh,

4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spër'it of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead;

5 By whom we have rëcëived grace and äpõtlesh'ip, for õbë'diënce⁴ to the faith ämong all nations for his name;

6 Ämong whom äre ye also the called of Jë'süs Christ.

7 To all that be in Ròme, belõved of God, called to be saints. Grace to you, and peace from God our Fà'ther, and the Lord Je'süs Chríst.

8 First, I thank my God through Je'süs Chríst for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole wórl'd.

9 For God is my witness, whom I sërve with my spirit in the gös'pél of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers,

10 Making request, (if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous júrney by the will of God,) to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be estáblished;

12 That is, that I may be cómfórted toghéther with you, by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now, I would not have you ignorant, bréthren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit¹ ámong you also, even as ámong other Gën'tiles.

14 I am debtor both to the Gréeks and to the Bår-bá'ri-áns, both to the wise and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am réady to preach the gös'pél to you that àre at Róme also.

16 For I am not áshamed of the gös'pél of Chríst: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that bélièveth; to the Jew first, and also to the GréeK.

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wëräth of God is revealed from heaven ágainst' all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness:

19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath showed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the wórl'd àre clearly seen, being understood by the things that àre made, even his etàrnal power and Gód'héad; so that they àre without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, néither wère thankfúl; but became vain in their imaginatíons, and their foolish héart was dárkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools;

23 And chánged the glory of the incorruptible God, into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own héarts, to díshón'óur their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who chánged the truth of God into a lie, and wór'shipped and sèrved the créa-ture² more than the Çre-á tór, who is blés'sed forever. Á mén'.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their wom'en did chángé the nàt'urál³ use into that which is ágainst' nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one to'wárd ánothér; men with men, working that which is unseemly, and receív'ing in themselves that recompence of their érror which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which àre not convenient:

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covet-óus-néss; má-lièb'ús-néss;⁴ full of envy, murder, debate, decéit, má-lig'ni-ty; whispcrs,

30 Bäck'bítters, haters of God, déspitefúl, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, dísobé'diènt to párents,

31 Without understanding, covenánt-breakers, without natural affection, implá-cáble, únmér'cifál:

32 Who, knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things àre wórtly of death, not only do the same, but have pléás'ure in them that do them.

CHAP. II.

IHEREFORE, thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest ánothér, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we àre sure that the judgment of God is according to truth ágainst' them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt éscápe' the judgment of God?

4 Or déspiçest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbéar'ánce, and long-suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God léad'eth thee to repentance?

5 But áfter thy hardness and ímpenitent héart, tréás'úrest up unto thyself wëräth ágainst' the day of wëräth and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 Who will render to every man according to his deeds;

7 To them who, by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, and hón'óur, and immortality, etàrnal life:

8 But unto them that àre contentions, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wëräth,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil: of the Jew first, and also of the Gën'tile;

10 But glory, hón'óur, and peace, to every man that worketh good; to the Jew first, and also to the Gën'tile.

11 For there is no respéct' of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law; and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law;

13 (For not the hearers of the law àre just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified :

14 For when the Ĝën'tiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things cōntain'ed in the law, these, having not the law, àre a law unto themselves ;

15 Which show the work of the law, written in their heàrts, their conscience also beàr'ing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing, or else excusing one ànother ;))

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jē'sūs Ćhrīst, according to my ĝōs'pēl.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast of God :

18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that àre more excellent, being instructed out of the law :

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide ¹ of the blind, a light of them which àre in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge, and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou, thère'fōre, which teachest ànother, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit àdūl'téry, dost thou commit àdūl'téry? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sàc'rilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dī'shōn'ōur-est thou God?

24 For the name of God is blāsp'hēmed àmōng the Ĝën'tiles, through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law : but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Thère'fōre if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nā'tūre,² if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who, by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one òut'wàrdly; neither is that circumcision, which is òut'wàrd in the flesh.

29 But he is a Jew, which is one in'wàrdly; and circumcision is that of the heàrt, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

WHAT àdvān'tāge then hath the Jew? or w'hāt profit is there of circumci-

2 Much every way; chiefly, because that unto them wēre committed the oracles of God.

3 For w'hāt if some did not believe? shall their ùn-bē-liēf make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yēa, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightst be justified in thy sayings, and mightst overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness cōmmēnd' the righteousness of God, w'hāt shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man;)

6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the wōrld?

7 For if the truth of God hath more àbōundēd through my lie unto his glory, why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rāther (as we be slān'dérōusly reported, and as some àffirm³ that we say;) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? àre we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Ĝën'tiles, that they àre all under sin;

10 As it is written, There is nōne righteous, no, not one:

11 There is nōne that understandeth, there is nōne that seeketh àfter God.

12 They àre all gone out of the way, they àre together become unprofitable: there is nōne that doeth good, no, not one.

13 Their throat is an open sēpulchre; with their tōngues they have used decēit, the poison of àsps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 Their feet àre swift to shed blood:

16 Dēstrūc'tion and misery àre in their ways;

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know, that w'hāt things soever the law saith, it saith to them who àre under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the wōrld may become guilty before God.

20 Thère'fōre, by the deeds of the law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight; for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets:

22 Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jē'sūs Ćhrīst unto all, and upon all them that believe; for there is no difference:

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God:

24 Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Ćhrīst Jē'sūs:

¹ gyide.

³ àf-fēr'm'.

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiatioⁿ, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness; that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jē'sūs.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of the Gēn'tiles? Yes,² of the Gēn'tiles also;

30 Seeing it is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAP. IV.

WHAT shall we then say that Ā'bra-hām, our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Ā'bra-hām were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? Ā'bra-hām believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.³

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt;

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as Dāvīd also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, Blē'sed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blē'sed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Ā'bra-hām for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had, yet being uncircumcised, that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also;

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Ā'bra-hām, which he had, being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Ā'bra-hām, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Ā'bra-hām, who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were:

18 Who against⁵ hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations; according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

19 And, being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sārāh's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God.

21 And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now, it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jē'sūs our Lord from the dead;

25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again¹ for our justification.

CHAP. V.

THIEREFORE, being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jē'sūs Christ:

2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience: and experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet peradventure⁶ for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commēdeth his love to⁷ ward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified

by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son; much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jē'sūs Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man, sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned;

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Ādām to Mō'sēs, even over them that had not sinned, after the similitude of Ādām's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jē'sūs Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift; for the judgment was by one to condemnation; but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one man's offence, death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one, Jē'sūs Christ.)

18 Therefore, as by the offence of one, judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one, the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners; so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.³

20 Moreover, the law entered, that the offence might abound: but where sin abounded, grace did much more abound;

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life, by Jē'sūs Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid: how shall we that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jē'sūs Christ, were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death; that, like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now, if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once; but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jē'sūs Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sin, therefore, reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof:

13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God:

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin; but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness, and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye ere now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life:

23 For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jē'sūs Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

1 dīs-ō-bē-de-ēnse. 2 ō-bē'je-ēnse. 3 rī'tshe-ūs. 4 in-fēr'me-te. 5 in-ik'kwe-te.

2 For the wom'an which hath a hūs' bānd is bound by the law to her hūs'bānd so long as he liveth : but if the hūs'bānd be dead, she is lōsed from the law of her hūs'bānd.

3 So then, if while her hūs'bānd liveth, she be married to ānōther man, she shall be called an ādūl'téress : but if her hūs'bānd be dead, she is free from that law ; so that she is no ādūl'téress, though she be married to ānōther man.

4 Wherefore, my brēthren, ye also āre become dead to the law by the body of Christ ; that ye should be married to ānōther, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we wēre in the flesh, the motions of sins, which wēre by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we āre delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we wēre held ; that we should sērve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 Whāt shall we say then ? Is the law sin ? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin but by the law : for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not cōvet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the cōmānd'mēnt, wrōught in me all manner of cōn-cū'pi-scēnce. For without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was ālive without the law once : but when the cōmānd'mēnt came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the cōmānd'mēnt which was ordāin'ed to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the cōmānd'mēnt, déceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the cōmānd'mēnt holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me ? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good ; that sin by the cōmānd'mēnt might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spīr'it-uāl : but I am carnal, sold under sin.

15 For that which I do, I allow not : for whāt I would, that do I not ; but whāt I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law, that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing : for to will is present with me ; but how to pērfōrm' that which is good, I find not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not ; but the evil which I would not, that I do.

1 spīr'it-tshū-ū

20 Now, if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me :

22 For I delight in the law of God, āfter the in'ward man :

23 But I see ānōther law in my members, wār'ring āgainst' the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am ! who shall deliver me from the body of this death ?

25 I thank God, through Jē'sūs Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I mysēlf sērve the law of God ; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAP. VIII.

THERE is, thēre'fōre, now no condemnation to them which āre in Christ Jē'sūs, who wālk not āfter the flesh, but āfter the Spīr'it.

2 For the law of the Spīr'it of life in Christ Jē'sūs hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For whāt the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin condemned sin in the flesh ;

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who wālk not āfter the flesh, but āfter the Spīr'it.

5 For they that āre āfter the flesh, do mind the things of the flesh : but they that āre āfter the Spīr'it, the things of the Spīr'it.

6 For, to be carnally minded is death ; but to be spīr'itually² minded is life and peace :

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity āgainst' God : for it is not subject to the law of God, néither indeed can be.

8 So then, they that āre in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye āre not in the flesh, but in the Spīr'it, if so be that the Spīr'it of God dwell in you. Now, if any man have not the Spīr'it of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin : but the Spīr'it is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spīr'it of him that raised up Jē'sūs from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spīr'it that dwelleth in you.

12 Thēre'fōre, brēthren, we āre débtor's, not to the flesh, to live āfter the flesh.

13 For if ye live āfter the flesh, ye shall die : but if ye through the Spīr'it do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as āre led by the Spīr'it of God, they āre the sons of God.

15 For ye have not réceived the spirit of bōn'dāge āgain' to fear : but ye have ré-

2 spīr'it-tshū-ū-le.

ceived the Spīr'it of ādōp'tion, whereby we cry, Āb/bā, Fā'ther.

16 The Spīr'it itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we āre the children of God :

17 And if children, then heirs ; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ : if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time āre not wōrthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the ēar'nēst expectation of the crēa'ture¹ waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the crēa'ture was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope :

21 Because the crēa'ture itself also shall be delivered from the bōn'dāge of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and trāv'aileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spīr'it, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the ādōp'tion, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we āre saved by hope. But hope that is seen is not hope : for whāt a man seeth, why dōth he yet hope for ?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spīr'it also helpeth our infir'mities ;² for we know not whāt we should pray for as we ought ; but the Spīr'it itself maketh intērec'ssion for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that sēarcheth the hearts knoweth whāt is the mind of the Spīr'it, because he maketh intērec'ssion for the saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that lōve God, to them who āre the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born āmōng many brēthren.

30 Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called : and whom he called, them he also justified ; and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 Whāt shall we then say to these things ? If God be for us, who can be āgainst' us ?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things ?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect ? It is God that justifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth ? It is Christ that died, yea, rather that is risen āgain', who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh interces'sion for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the lōve of Christ ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or pērsēc'ution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or swōrd ?

36 (As it is written, For thy sake we āre killed all the day long ; we āre accounted as sheep for the slāughter.)

37 Nay, in all these things we āre more than conquerors, through him that lōved us.

38 For I am pērsuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor āngels, nor principāl'ities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor dēpth, nor any other crēa'ture, shall be able to separate us from the lōve of God, which is in Christ Jē'sūs our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also beār'ing me witness in the Hōly Ghōst,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I ~~would~~ wish that myself wēre accursed from Christ, for my brēthren, my kinsmen according to the flesh :

4 Who āre I's'ra-ēl-ites ; to whom pērtāin'th the ādōp'tion, and the glory, and the cōvenants, and the giving of the law, and the sērv'ice of God, and the promīsē ;

5 Whose āre the fathers, and of whom, as cōcērn'ing the flesh, Christ came, who is over all, God blēs'sed, for ever. Ā'mēn'.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken nōne effect. For they āre not all I's'ra-ēl which āre of I's'ra-ēl :

7 Nēither, because they āre the seed of Ābra'hām, āre they all children ; but, in I's'āac shall thy seed be called ;

8 That is, They which āre the children of the flesh, these āre not the children of God : but the children of the promīsē āre counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promīsē, At this time will I come, and Sā'rā shall have a son.

10 And not only this, but when Rē-bēc'cā also had cōncēived by one, even by our fāther I's'āac,

11 (For the children being not yet born, nēither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God, according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth,) 12 It was said³ unto her, The elder shall sērve the younger.

13 As it is written, Jā'çōb have I lōved, but Ē'sāu have I hated.

14 Whāt shall we say then ? Is there unrighteousness with God ? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Mō'sēs, I will have mērcy on whom I will have mērcy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

CHAP. X.

16 So then, it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that showeth mērcy.

17 For the scripture saith¹ unto Phā'ra-ōh,² Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the ěarth.

18 Thērc'fore hath he mērcy on whom he will have mērcy, and whom he will, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why loth he yet find fault? for who hath rē'st'ed his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest āgainst' God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump, to make one vessel unto hōn'ōūr, and ānōther unto dīshōn'ōūr?

22 What if God, willing to show his wē'rāth, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wē'rāth fitted to destrūc'tion:

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mērcy, which he had āfōre prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Ĝen'tiles?

25 As he saith also in ō'sēē, I will call them, My people, which wēre not my people; and her Belōved, which was not belōved.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye āre not my people; there shall they be called, The children of the living God.

27 Ē-sā'i-ās³ also crieth cōncēr'ning Iṣ'ra-ēl, Though the number of the children of Iṣ'ra-ēl be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness; because a short work will the Lord make upon the ěarth.

29 And as Ē-sā'i-ās said before, Except the Lord of Sāb'a-ōth had left us a seed, we had been as Sōd'o-mā, and been made like unto Gō-mōr'rāh.

30 Whāt shall we say then? That the Ĝen'tiles, which followed not āfter righteousness, have āttained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith:

31 But Iṣ'ra-ēl, which followed āfter the law of righteousness, hath not āttained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but ās it wēre by the works of the law: for they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;

33 As it is written, Behold I lay in Sī'ōn a stumbling-stone, and rock of offence; and whosoever believeth on him shall not be āshāmed.

BRETHREN, my hēart's desire and prayer to God for Iṣ'ra-ēl is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them rēc'ōrd, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going ābout' to ēstāb'lish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For Ćhrist is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Mō'sēs describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth these things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine hēart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Ćhrist down from ābōve;) :

7 Or, Who shall descēnd' into the deep? (that is, to bring up Ćhrist āgain' from the dead;) :

8 But whāt saith it? The word is nigh thee, ercn in thy mouth, and in thy hēart; that is, the word of faith which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jē'sūs, and shalt believē in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the hēart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith whosoever believeth on him shall not be āshāmed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Grēek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believēd? and how shall they believē in him of whom they have not hēard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful āre the feet of them that preach the gōs'pēl of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gōs'pēl: for Ē-sā'i-ās saith, Lord, who hath believēd our report?

17 So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not hēard? Yes,⁴ verily, their sound went into all the ěarth, and their words unto the ends of the wōrld.

19 But I say, Did not Iṣ'ra-ēl know? First, Mō'sēs saith, I will provoke you to jēal'ōusy by them that āre no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Ē-sā'i-ās is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not;

I was made manifest unto them that asked not āfter me.

21 But to Iş'ra-ël he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a dīsōbē/diēnt¹ and gainsaying people.

CHAP. XI.

ISAY then, hath God cāst āway his people? God forbid. For I also am an Iş'ra-ël-ite, of the seed of Ā'bra-hām, of the tribe of Bēn'ja-mīn.

2 God hath not cāst āway his people which he foreknew. Wot* ye not whāt the scripture saith of Ē-lī'ās? how he maketh intercēs'sion to God āgainst' Iş'ra-ël, saying,

3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine āltars; and I am left ālōne, and they seek my life.

4 But whāt saith the ānswer of God unto him? I have rēsērv'ed to mysēlf seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Bā'āl.

5 Even so then, at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 Whāt then? Iş'ra-ël hath not ōbtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath ōbtained it, and the rest wēre blind-ed.

8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear) unto this day.

9 And Dā'vīd saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompense unto them:

10 Let their eyes be dārkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back āway.

11 I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rāther through their fall salvation is come unto the Ĝen'tiles, for to provoke them to jēāl'ōūsy.

12 Now, if the fall of them be the riches of the wōrld, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Ĝen'tiles, how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Ĝen'tiles; inas-much as I am the āpōstle of the Ĝen'tiles, I magnify mine office;

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which āre my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 For if the cās'ting āway of them be the rēc'ōnciling of the wōrld, whāt shall the rēcēiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first-fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so āre the brānches.

17 And if some of the brānches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive-tree, wērt grāfted in āmōng them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive-tree;

18 Boast not āgainst' the brānches: but if thou boast, thou beārest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The brānches wēre broken off, that I might be grāfted in.

20 Well; because of ūn-bē-liēf, they wēre broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high minded, but fear:

21 For if God spared not the nāt'ūrāl² brānches, take heed lēst he also spare not thee.

22 Behold, thērē'fōre, the goodness and severity of God; on them which fell, severity: but tō'wārd thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness; otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they ābide not still in ūn-bē-liēf, shall be grāfted in: for God is able to grāft them in āgain'.

24 For if thou wērt cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nāt'ure,³ and wērt grāfted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree; how much more shall these which be the natural brānches be grāfted into their own olive-tree?

25 For I would not, brēthren, that ye should be ignorant of this mīs'tery, (lēst ye should be wise in your own cōncēits,) that blindness in part is happened to Iş'ra-ël, until the fulness of the Ĝen'tiles be come in.

26 And so all Iş'ra-ël shall be saved; as it is written, There shall come out of Sī'ōn the Dē-līv'ēr-ēr, and shall turn āway ungodliness from Jā'cōb.

27 For this is my cōvānant unto them, when I shall take āway their sins.

28 As cōncēr'nīng the gōs'pēl, they āre enemies for your sakes: but as tōuch'ing the election, they āre belōved for the fāthers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God āre without repentance.

30 For as ye in times pāst have not bē-liēved God, yet have now ōbtain'ed mērcy through their ūn-bē-liēf;

31 Even so have these also now not bēliēved, that through your mērcy they also may ōbtain mērcy.

32 For God hath concluded them all in ūn-bē-liēf, that he might have mērcy upon all.

33 O the dēpth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how un-sēarchable āre his judgments, and his ways pāst finding out!

34 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsel-lor?

35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him āgain'?

36 For of him, and through him, and to him, āre all things : to whom be glory for ever. Ā'mēn'.

CHAP. XII.

I BESEECH you, thēre'fore, brēthren, by the mērcies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sāc'rifice, holy, āc'cēptāble unto God, which is your reasonable sēr'vice.

2 And be not conformed to this wōrld : but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove wāt is that good, and āc'cēptāble, and pērfēct will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is āmōng you, not to think of himsēlf more highly than he ought to think ; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the mēas'ure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office ;

5 So we, being many, āre one body in Christ, and every one members one of ānōther.

6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prōph'ē-cy, let us prōph'ē-sy according to the proportion of faith ;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering : or he that teacheth, on teaching ;

8 Or he that exhōr'teth, on exhortation ; he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity ; he that ruleth, with diligence ; he that showeth mērcy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil ; cleave to that which is good.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to ānōther with brotherly love ; in hōn'ōūr prēfēr'ring one ānōther ;

11 Not slōth'fūl in business ; sēr'vent in spirit ; sēr'ving the Lord ;

12 Rejoicing in hope ; patient in tribulation ; continuing instant in prayer ;

13 Distributing to the necessity of saints ; given to hospitality.

14 Bless them which pērsecute you : bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 Be of the same mind one tō'wārd ānōther. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low ēstāte'. Be not wise in your own cōncēits'.

17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things hōn'ēst in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly belōved, āvēnge' not yourselves, but rāther give placē unto wōrāth : for it is written, Vengeance is mine : I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 Thēre'fore, if thine enemy hunger, feed him ; if he thirst, give him drink : for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAP. XIII.

LET every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God ; the powers that be, āre ordain'ed of God.

2 Whosoever, thēre'fore, rēšist'eth the power, rēšist'eth the ordinance of God : and they that rēšist', shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers āre not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then be āfrāid of the power ? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same :

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be āfrāid : for he beareth not the swōrd in vain : for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wōrāth upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wōrāth, but also for cōn'science's sake.

6 For, for this cause pay ye tribute also for they āre God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render, thēre'fore, to all their dues : tribute to whom tribute is due ; custom to whom custom ; fear to whom fear ; hōn'ōūr to whom hōn'ōūr.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one ānōther : for he that loveth ānōther hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit ādūltēry, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear fālse witness, Thou shalt not cōvet : and if there be any other cōmmand'mēt, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour : thēre'fore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to āwake out of sleep : for now is our salvation nearer than when we belēived.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand : let us, thēre'fore, cāst off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let us wālk hōn'estly as in the day ; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chām'bēring and wān'tōunnēss, not in strife and envying :

14 But put ye on the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, and make not proviōn for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thercof.

CHAP. XIV.

HIM that is weak in the faith, recēive ye, but not to dōūbt'fūl disputations.

2 For one belēieveth that he may eat all things : ānōther who is weak, eateth hērbg.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise^e him that eateth not : and let not him which eateth not, judge him that eateth : for God hath received him.

4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant ? to his own master he standeth or falleth ; yea, he shall be holden up : for God is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another ; another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord ; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks ; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord ; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord : whether we live, therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother ? Or why dost thou set at nought thy brother ? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then, every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 ¶ Let us not, therefore, judge one another any more : but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall, in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded, by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself : but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy^e not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of :

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink : but righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us, therefore, follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

20 For meat destroy^e not the work of God. All things indeed are pure : but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith ? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith : for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAP. XV.

WE then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities¹ of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself ; but as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee, fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we, through patience and comfort of the scriptures, might have hope.

5 Now, the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another, according to Christ Jesus ;

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm² the promises made unto the fathers :

9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy : as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again^e he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again^e, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again^e Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse ; and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now, the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering-up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have, therefore, whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain^e to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not

1 in-fēr-me-tiz.

2 kōn-fēr'm.

wrought by me, to make the Gēn'tiles obēdiēt,¹ by word and deed,

19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spir'it of God; so that from Jē-rū'sa-lēm, and round ābout' unto Il-lŷ-r'i-cūm, I have fully preached the gōs'pēl of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gōs'pēl, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon ānōther man's foundation:

21 But, as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now, having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you:

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spāin, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thith'ēr-ward by you, if first I be sōme'whāt filled with your cōmpany.

25 But now I go unto Jē-rū'sa-lēm to minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Māc-e-dō-ni-ā and Ā-čhā'i-ā to make a cēr'tain contribution for the poor saints which āre at Jē-rū'sa-lēm.

27 It hath pleased them verily, and their debtors they āre. For, if the Gēn'tiles have been made partakers of their spir'itual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When, thēr'fōre, I have pēr'fōrm'ed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spāin.

29 And I am sūre, that when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gōs'pēl of Christ.

30 Now, I beseech you, brēthren, for the Lord Jē'sūs Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spir'it, that ye strive tōgēther with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Jū-dē'ā; and that my sēr'vice which I have for Jē-rū'sa-lēm may be accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Ā'mēn'.

CHAP. XVI.

I COMMEND unto you Phē'be our sister, which is a sēr'vant of the church which is at Cēn'chre-ā:

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints; and that ye assist her in whātsoever business² she hath need of: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of mysēlf also.

3 Greet Prīs-cil'lā and Āq'ui-lā,³ my helpers in Christ Jē'sūs:

5 Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Sālute my well-belōved Ē-pēn'e-tūs, who is the first-fruits of Ā-čhā'i-ā unto Christ.

6 Greet Mā'ry, who bestowed much labōur on us.

7 Sālute Ān-drō-ni'cūs and Jū'ni-ā my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who āre of note āmōng the āpōstles, who also wēre in Christ before me.

8 Greet Ām'pli-ās, my belōved in the Lord.

9 Sālute Ūr'ba-ne, our helper in Christ, and Stā'chys⁴ my belōved.

10 Sālute Ā-pēl'leš approved in Christ. Sālute them which āre of Ār-is-to-bū'lūs' household.

11 Sālute Hē-rō'di-ōn, my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Nār-cīs'sūs, which āre in the Lord.

12 Sālute Try-phi'nā and Try-phō'sā, who labōur in the Lord. Sālute the belōved Pēr'sis, which labōured much in the Lord.

13 Sālute Rū'fūs, chosen in the Lord, and his mōther and mine.

14 Sālute Ā-sŷ'n'cri-tūs, Phlē'gōn, Hēr'mās, Pāt'ro-hās, Hēr'mēs, and the brēthren which āre with them.

15 Sālute Phi-lō'o-gūs and Jū'li-ā, Nē're-ūs and his sister, and Ō-lŷm'pās, and all the saints which āre with them.

16 Sālute one ānōther with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ sālute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brēthren, mark them which cause divisions and offences, contrary to the dōc'trīne which ye have lēarned; and āvōid' them.

18 For they that āre such sēr've not our Lord Jē'sūs Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For your obē'dience⁵ is come ābroād unto all men. I am glad, thēr'fōre, on your behālf; but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple cōn-cēr'ning evil.

20 And the God of peace shall bruise Sāt'an under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ be with you. Ā'mēn'.

21 Ti-mō'the-ūs, my workfellow, and Lū'ci-ūs,⁶ and Jā'sōn and Sō-sip'a-tēr, my kinsmen, sālute you.

22 (I Tēr'ti-ūs,⁷ who wrote this epistle, sālute you in the Lord.)

23 Gā'i-ūs⁸ mine host and of the whole church, sālüteth you. Ē-rās'tūs the chām'bērlāin of the city sālüteth you, and Quār'tūs a brōther.

24 The grace of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ be with you all. Ā'mēn'.

25 Now to him that is of power to sta

27 To God only wise, be glory through Jē'sūs Christ for ever. Ā mēn'.

¶ THE FIRST EPIS'TLE OF PAUL, THE APOST'LE, TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, called to be an apōstle of Jē'sūs Christ, through the will of God, and Sōs'the-nēs, our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Çōr'inth, to them that àre sanctified in Christ Jē'sūs, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jē'sūs Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours :

3 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Fà'ther, and from the Lord Jē'sūs Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jē'sūs Christ ;

5 That in every thing ye àre enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge ;

6 Even as the tēs'timóny of Christ was cōfir'm'ed¹ in you :

7 So that ye come behind in no gift : waiting for the coming of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ :

8 Who shall also cōfir'm' you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ.

9 God is faithful, by whom ye wēre called unto the fellowship of his Son Jē'sūs Christ our Lord.

10 ¶ Now I beseech you, brēthren, by the name of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisiōns among you : but that ye be pērfectly joined togethēr in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brēthren, by them which àre of the house of Chlō'e, that there àre contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Pàul, and I of Ā-pōl'lōs, and I of Cē'phās, and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Pàul crū'ci-fied² for you? or wēre ye baptized in the name of Pàul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you but Cris'pūs and Gā'i-ūs ;³

15 Lēst any should say that I had bap-tized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of Stēph'a-nās; besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gōs'pēl : not with wisdom of words, lēst the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish, foolishness ; but unto us, which àre saved, it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, I will dēstrōy' the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nōth-ing the understanding of the prudent.⁴

20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this wórl'd? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this wórl'd?

21 For àfter that, in the wisdom of God, the wórl'd by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preach-ing to save them that bēlieve.

22 For the Jews require à sign, and the Grēeks seek àfter wisdom ;

23 But we preach Christ crūcified, unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Grēeks foolishness ;

24 But unto them which àre called, both Jews and Grēeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men : and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brēthren, how that not many wise men àfter the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, àre called ;

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the wórl'd to confound the wise and God hath chosen the weak things of the wórl'd to confound the things which àre mighty ;

28 And base things of the wórl'd, and things which àre dēspisēd, hath God chosen, yēa, and things which àre not, to bring to nōught things that àre ;

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him àre ye in Christ Jē'sūs, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and ³ Gā'yūs. ⁴ pròd'dēnt.

righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

AND I, brēthren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech, or of wisdom, declaring unto you the tēs-timōny of God:

2 For I detēr'mined not to know any thing among you, save Jē'sūs Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech, and my preaching, was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spir'it, and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit, we speak wisdom among them that are perfect; yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mýstery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordain'ed before the world, unto our glory;

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spir'it: for the Spir'it searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For whāt man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so, the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spir'it of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spir'it which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghōst teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spir'it of God; for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually dýsçern'ed.

15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? but we have the mind of Christ.

CHAP. III.

AND I, brēthren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

4 For while one saith,³ I am of Pāul: and another, I am of Ā-pōl'ōs; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Pāul, and who is Ā-pōl'ōs, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Ā-pōl'ōs watered; but God gave the increase.

7 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one; and every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's hūz'bāndry, ye are God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise māster build'er I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon:

11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jē'sūs Christ.

12 Now, if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work, of whāt sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burnt, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spir'it of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destrōy': for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own crāft'iness.

20 And again', The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therē'fore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours:

22 Whether Pāul, or Ā-pōl'ōs, or Cē-phās, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

1 spir'it-tshū-āl.

2 nāt'tshū-rāl.

3 sēth.

23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

CHAP. IV.

LET a man so account of us as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment; yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself, and to Apollos, for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? Now, if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us; and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ: we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place;

12 And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it;

13 Being defamed, we entreat; we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but, as my beloved sons, I warn you.

15 ¶ For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for, in Christ Jesus, I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore, I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways, which be in Christ, as I teach every where, in every church.

18 Now, some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAP. V.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed.

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 To deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out, therefore, the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle, not to company with fornicators:

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you, not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? Do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAP. VI.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

CHAP. VII.

2 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? How much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge, who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now, therefore, there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another: why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you; but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified, in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats; but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 ¶ Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? God forbid.

16 What! know ye not, that he which is joined to a harlot is one body? for two (saith he) shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

19 What! know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as I myself; but every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say, therefore, to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But, and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband; and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath a husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases; but God hath called us to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? Or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk: and so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not become circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayst be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's free man; likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.

23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now, concerning virgins,¹ I have no commandment of the Lord, yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose, therefore, that this is good for the present distress; I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned: nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh; but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short. It remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it; for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried, careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord;

33 But he that is married, careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not; let them marry.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So then, he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth: but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

NOW, as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many;)

6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit, there is not in every man that knowledge: for some, with conscience of the idol, unto this hour, eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 But take heed, lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumbling-block to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAP. IX.

AM I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine ānswer to them that do examine me is this ;

4 Have we not power to eat and to drink ?

5 Have we not power to lēād ābout' a sister, a wife, as well as other āpōstles, and as the brēthren of the Lord, and Cē-pās ?

6 Or I only and Bār'na-bas, have not we power to fōrbear' working ?

7 Who goeth a wārfare at any time at his own chārges ? who plānteth a vine-yard,¹ and eateth not of the fruit thereof ? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock ?

8 Say I these things as a man ? or saith not the law the same also ?

9 For it is written in the law of Mō'sēs, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Dōth God take care for oxen ?

10 Or saith he it āltogēther for our sakes ? For our sakes, no dōūbt, this is written : that he that plougheth should plough in hope ; and that he that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things ?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rāther ? nevertheless we have not used this power ; but suffer all things, lēst we should hinder the gōs'pēl of Ćhrist.

13 Do ye not know, that they which minister ābout' holy things live of the things of the temple ? and they which wait at the āltar āre partakers with the āltar ?

14 Even so hath the Lord ōrdāin'ed, that they which preach the gōs'pēl should live of the gōs'pēl.

15 But I have used nōne of these things ; nēither have I written these things that it should be so done unto me : for it wēre better for me to die, than that any man should make my glōrying void.

16 For though I preach the gōs'pēl, I have nōthing to glōry of : for necessity is laid upon me ; yēa, wo is unto me if I preach not the gōs'pēl.

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a rēwārd : but if āgāinst' my will, a dispensation of the gōs'pēl is committed unto me.

18 Whāt is my rēwārd then ? Verily that, when I preach the gōs'pēl, I may make the gōs'pēl of Ćhrist without chārgē, that I ābuse not my power in the gōs'pēl.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made mysēlf sērvant unto all, that I might gain' the more.

20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews ; to them that āre under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that āre under the law ;

21 To them that āre without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Ćhrist,) that I might gain them that āre without law.

22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak : I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gōs'pēl's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize ? So run that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that striveth for the mās'tēry is temperate in all things. Now, they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.

26 I thērē'fore so run, not as ūncēr'tāinly ; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air :

27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection ; lēst that by any means, when I have preached to others, I mysēlf should be a cāst'āway.

CHAP. X.

MOREOVER, brēthren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fāthers wēre under the cloud, and all pāsseed through the sea ;

2 And wēre all baptized unto Mō'sēs in the cloud, and in the sea ;

3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat ;

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink : (for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them ; and that Rock was Ćhrist :)

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased ; for they wēre overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things wēre our examples, to the intent we should not lust āfter evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Nēither be ye idolaters, as wēre some of them : as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Nēither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Nēither let us tempt Ćhrist, as some of them also tempted, and wēre dēstrōy'ed of sērpents.

10 Nēither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and wēre dēstrōy'ed of the dēstrōy'er.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples ; and they āre written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the wōrld āre come.

12 Wherefore, let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lēst he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as is common to man ; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted ābōve that ye āre able ; but will with the temptation also make a way to ēscāpē', that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we, being many, are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold Iſ'ra-ël after the flesh; are not they which eat of the sãc'ri-fiçes partakers of the åltar?

19 Whãt say I then? that the idol is any thing? or that which is offered in sãc'ri-fiçe to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gën'tiles sãc'ri-fiçe, they sãc'ri-fiçe to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of devils; ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jéalousy? are we stronger than he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient; all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 Let no man seek his own, but every man ånóther's wealth.

25 Whãtsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, åsk'ing no question for conscience' sake:

26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not, bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whãtsoever is set before you, eat, åsk'ing no question for conscience' sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sãc'ri-fiçe unto idols, eat not, for his sake that showed it, and for conscience' sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of ånóther man's conscience?

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

31 Whether, thêr'fôre, ye eat, or drink, or whãtsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give nóne offence, nêither to the Jews, nor to the Gën'tiles, nor to the church of God.

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAP. XI.

BE ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 No.v I praise you, brêthren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the wom'an¹ is the man; and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prôph'ës'ying, having his head covered, diſ'hôn'ou'reth his head.

5 But every wom'an that prayeth or prôph'esieth with her head uncovered, diſ'hôn'ou'reth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the wom'an be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a wom'an to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the wom'an is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the wom'an; but the wom'an of the man.

9 Nêither was the man created for the wom'an; but the wom'an for the man.

10 For this cause ought the wom'an to have power on her head, because of the ångels.

11 Nevertheless, nêither is the man without the wom'an, nêither the wom'an without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the wom'an is of the man, even so is the man also by the wom'an; but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a wom'an pray unto God uncovered?

14 Dóth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a wom'an have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a ców'ering.

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, nêither the churches of God.

17 Now, in this that I declare unto you, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the wórse.

18 For, first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you: and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also hêr'és'ies among you, that they which are approved, may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together, thêr'fôre, in one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper; and one is hungry, and ånóther is drunken.

22 Whãt! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? Whãt shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jê'sus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And, when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

NOW, concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed; and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another, the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 To another, the working of miracles; to another, prophecy; to another, discerning of spirits; to another, divers kinds of tongues; to another, the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit, are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee; nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need; but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet show I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

THOUGH I speak with the tóngues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become äs sounding bräss, or a tinkling cym'bäl.

2 And though I have the gift of pröph'ē-ey, and understand all mys'teries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove möun'tains, and have not charity, I am nötlüng.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nöthing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity väumteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Dóth not behave itself unseemly; seeketh not her own; is not easily provoked; thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in inñq'uity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, beliēveth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth; but whether there be pröph'ecies, they shall fail; whether there be tóngues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we pröph'e-sý in part,

10 But when that which is përfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a gläss, dárkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now äbideth faith, hope, charity, these three: but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAP. XIV.

FOLLOW äfter charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but räthe- that ye may pröph'e-sý.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tóngue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit, in the spirit he speaketh mys'teries.

3 But he that pröph'esieith speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and cöm'fört.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tóngue edifieth himself: but he that pröph'esieith edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tóngues, but räther that ye pröph'esied: for greater is he that pröph'esieith, than he that speaketh with tóngues, except he întër'prët, that the church may recëive edifying.

6 Now, brëthren, if I come unto you speaking with tóngues, whät shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by pröph'ē-sý-ing, or by döc'trine?

7 And even things without life, giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known whät is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an üncër'tain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tóngue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known whät is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There äre, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the wörld, and nöne of them is without signification.

11 Thère'fore, if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye äre zéal'ous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh in an unknown tóngue, pray that he may întër'prët.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tóngue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 Whät is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also; I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the ünlëar'ned say, ä'mën', at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not whät thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tóngues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had räther speak five words with my understanding, than by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tóngue.

20 Brëthren, be not children in understanding: howbeit, in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, With men of other tóngues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tóngues äre for a sign, not to them that beliēve, but to them that beliēve not; but pröph'ē-sý-ing sërvez not for them that beliēve not, but for them which beliēve.

23 If, thère'fore, the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tóngues, and there come in those that äre ünlëar'ned, or ün-bë-liëv'ers, will they not say that ye äre mad?

24 But if all pröph'ē-sý, and there come in one that beliēveth not, or one ünlëar'ned ed, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine true, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done to edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What! came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently, and in order.

CHAP. XV.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you, first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins, according to the scriptures:

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day, according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain unto this present: but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace, which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore, whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now, if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God, that he raised up Christ; whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised;

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits, afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father: when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage to me if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived; evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God; I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up; and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars, for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead: it is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterwards that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God: neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I show you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death! where is thy sting? O grave! where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law:

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

59 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

NOW, concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: (for I do pass through Macedonia:)

6 And it may be, that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now, if Timothy come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man despise him; but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touch'ing our bróther Ā-pól'ós, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the bréthren : but his will was not at all to come at this time ; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Wáitch ye, stand fást in the fáith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, bréthren, (ye know the house of Stēph'a-nās, that it is the first-fruits of Ā-çhā'i-ā,¹ and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints.)

16 That ye submit yourselves unto such ; and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stēph'a-nās, and Fòr-tū-nā'tūs,² and Ā-çhā'i-çūs ;³ for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours ; therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of Ā'si-ā sálute you. Ā'qu'i-lā⁴ and Prís-cil-lā sálute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the bréthren greet you. Greet ye one ánother with a holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Pául with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, let him be Ā-náth'e-mā, Mār-a-náth'á.

23 The grace of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jē'sūs. Ā'mén'.

† The first epístle to the Cō-rín'thi-āns was written from Phi-lip'pí, by Stēph'a-nās, and Fòr-tū-nā'tūs, and Ā-çhā'i-çūs, and Ti-mó'the-ús.

¶ THE SECOND EPIS'TLE OF PAUL, THE APOST'LE, TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an ápóstle of Jē'sūs Christ, by the will of God, and Tím'o-thy our bróther, unto the church of God which is at Cōr'inth, with all the saints which are in all Ā-çhā'i-ā :

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Fà'ther, and from the Lord Jē'sūs Christ.

3 Blē'ssed be God, even the Fà'ther of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ, the Fà'ther of mē'r'-cīes, and the God of all cóm'fórt,

4 Who cóm'fórteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to cóm'fórt them which are in any trouble, by the cóm'fórt wherewith we ourselves are cóm'fórted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abóund in us, so our consolation also abóundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer ; or whether we be cóm'fórted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stēad'fást, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, bréthren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Ā'si-ā, that we were pressed out of mēag'-ure, abóve strength, insomuch that we despair'ed even of life :

1 Ā-kā'yá.

2 Fòr-tshū-nā'tūs.

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God, which raiseth the dead ;

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and dóth deliver ; in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us :

11 Ye also helping tógether by prayer for us, that, for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the tēs'timóny of our conscience, that in simplicity, and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our cōnvērsation in the world, and more abún'dantly to you'wárd.

13 For we write nóne other things unto you than whát ye réad or acknowledge ; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end ;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also óre' ours, in the day of the Lord Jē'sūs.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit :

16 And to pās by you into Mác-e-dō-ni-ā, and to come ágain' out of Mác-e-dō-ni-ā unto you, and of you to be brought on my way tó'wárd Jū-dē'á.

17 When I, thēre'fore, was thus minded, did I use lightness ? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the 3 Ā-kā'e-kūs.

4 Āk'kwō-lā.

flesh, that with me there should be yēa, yēa, and nay, nay?

18 But as God is true, our word tō'wārd you was not yēa and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jē'sūs Christ, who was preached āmōng you by us, even by me, and Sŷl-vā'nūs, and Ti-mō'the-us, was not yēa and nay, but in him was yēa.

20 For all the promiŷes of God in him āre yēa, and in him, ā'mén', unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath ānōin'ted us, is God.

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the ēar'nēst of the Spīr'it in our hearts.

23 Moreover, I call God for a rēc'ōrd upon my soul, that to spare you, I came not as yet unto Cōr'inth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but āre helpers of your joy : for by faith ye stand.

CHAP. II.

BUT I dētēr'mined this with mysel'f, that I would not come āgain' to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lēst, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice ; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart, I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be griēved, but that ye might know the lōve which I have more āhūn'dāntly unto you.

5 But if any have caused griēf, he hath not griēved me, but in part ; that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment which was inflicted of many.

7 So that contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and cōm'fōrt him, lēst, perhaps, such a one should be swāllowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would cōnfirm¹ your lōve tō'wārd him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obē'diēnt² in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also : for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the pērson of Christ ;

11 Lēst Sa'tān should get an ādvān'tāge of us : for we āre not ignorant of his dēvices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Trō'ās to preach Christ's gōs'pēl, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Ti'tūs my brōther : but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Māc-e-dō'ni-ā.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sāvōur of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we āre unto God a sweet sāvōur of Christ in them that āre saved, and in them that perish.

16 To the one we āre the sāvōur of death unto death ; and to the other the sāvōur of life unto life : and who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we āre not as many, which corrupt the word of God : but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAP. III.

DO we begin āgain' to cōmmēnd' ourselves ? or need we, as some others, ēpistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you ?

2 Ye āre our ēpistle written in our hearts, known and rēad of all men :

3 Forasmuch as ye āre manifestly declared to be the ēpistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spīr'it of the living God : not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to Gōd'wārd :

5 Not that we āre sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves ; but our sufficiency is of God ;

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament : not of the letter, but of the spirit : for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Iŷ'ra-ēl could not stēad'fāstly behold the face of Mō'sēs, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done āway ;

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spīr'it be rather glorious ?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more dōth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done āway was glorious, much more that which rēmāin'eth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech ;

13 And not as Mō'sēs, which put a veil over his face, that the children of Iŷ'ra-ēl could not stēad'fāstly look to the end of that which is ābōl'ished :

14 But their minds wēre blinded : for until this day rēmāin'eth the same veil untaken āway in the rēad'ng of the old testament ; which veil is done āway in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Mō'sēs is rēad, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken āway.

² o-bē'je-ēnt.

17 Now, the Lord is that Spīr'it: and where the Spīr'it of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all with open face, beholding, as in a glāss, the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spīr'it of the Lord.

CHAP. IV.

THIEREFORE, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not.

2 But have renounced the hidden things of dīshōn'esty,¹ not wālk'ing in crāft'nēss, nor handling the word of God decēit'fully: but, by manifestation of the truth cōmēnd'ing ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gōs'pēl be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom the God of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gōs'pēl of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jē'sūs the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jē'sūs' sake.

6 For God, who cōmmān'ded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jē'sūs Christ.

7 But we have this trēas'ure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are pērplēx'ed, but not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cāst down, but not dēstrōy'ed;

10 Always beār'ing ābout' in the body the dying of the Lord Jē'sūs, that the life also of Jē'sūs might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jē'sūs' sake, that the life also of Jē'sūs might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I bēliēved, and thērēfōre have I spoken; we also believe, and thērēfōre speak:

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jē'sūs, shall raise up us also by Jē'sūs, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the ābūn'dānt grace might, through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our ōūt'wārd man perish, yet the in'wārd man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding, and etērnal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are etērnal.

CHAP. V.

FOR we know that if our earthly house of this tab'ēr-nā-cle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, etērnal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, ear'nēstly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tab'ēr-nā-cle do groan, being burdened; not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swāllōwed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing is God, who also hath given unto us the ear'nēst of the Spīr'it.

6 Thērēfōre we are always confident, knowing that whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing, thērēfōre, the terror of the Lord, we pērsuādē men; but we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we cōmēnd' not ourselves āgain unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have some'whāt to ānswe'r them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God; or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ cōnstrāineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then wērē all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not hencefōrth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose āgain'.

16 Wherefore hencefōrth know we no man āfter the flesh; yēa, though we have known Christ āfter the flesh, yet now hencefōrth know we him no more.

17 Thērēfōre, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are pass'ed āway: behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jē'sūs Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation ;

19 To wit, That God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their tres'passes unto them ; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then, we are ambās'sadōrs for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us : we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin ; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

WE then, as workers together with him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee : behold, now is the accepted time ; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed :

4 But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watch'ings, in fast'ings ;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness ; by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the ar'moūr of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By hōn'ōūr and dīshōnōūr, by evil report and good report ; as decēi'vērş, and yet true ;

9 As unknown, and yet well known ; as dying, and, behold, we live ; as chastened, and not killed ;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing ; as poor, yet making many rich ; as having nothing, and yet possēs'sing all things.

11 O ye Çō-rin'thi-āns ! our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now, for a recompense in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with ūn-be-liē'vērş ; for whāt fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness ? and whāt communion hath light with darkness ?

15 And whāt cōn'cōrd hath Christ with Bē'li-āl ? or whāt part hath he that believeth, with an infidel ?

16 And whāt āgree'ment hath the temple of God with idols ? for ye are the temple of the living God ; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them ; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore, come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing ; and I will receive you ;

18 And will be a Fa'ther unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Āl-migh'ty.

CHAP. VII.

HAVING, thēre'fore, these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, pēr'fēctīng holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us ; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you : for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech tō'wārd you, great is my glorying of you : I am filled with cōm'fōrt, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For when we wēre come into Māc-e-dō'ni-ā our flesh had no rest, but we wēre troubled on every side : without wēre fightings, within wēre fears.

6 Nevertheless God, that cōm'fōrteth those that are cāst down, cōm'fōrted us by the coming of Tī'tūs :

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was cōm'fōrted in you, when he told us your ear'nēst desire, your mourning, your fervent mind tō'wārd me ; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent ; for I pērcēivē' that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it wēre but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye wēre made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance : for ye wēre made sorry āfter a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of : but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For, behold, this self-same thing that ye sorrowed āfter a godly sort, whāt carefulness it wrōught in you, yēa, whāt clearing of yourselves, yēa, whāt indignation, yēa, whāt fear, yēa, whāt vē'he-mēnt desire, yēa, whāt zeal ; yēa, whāt revenge ! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrōng, nor for his cause that suffered wrōng, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Thēre'fore we wēre cōm'fōrted in your cōm'fōrt ; yēa, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Tī'tūs, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not āshāmed · but, as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Ti'tūs, is found a truth.

15 And his in'ward affection is more ābūn'dānt tō'wārd you, whilst he remembereth the obē'diēnc¹ of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice, therefore, that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

MOREOVER, brēthren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Māc-e-dō'ni-ā;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction, the ābūn'dānce of their joy, and their deep poverty, ābōūded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear rēc'ōrd, yēa, and beyond their power, they wēre willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped; but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God:

6 Inasmuch, that we desired Ti'tūs, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 There'fore, as ye ābōūnd in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us; see that ye ābōūnd in this grace also.

8 I speak not by cōmmānd'mēt, but by occasion of the fōr'wārdness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be fōr'wārd a year āgō.

11 Now, there'fore, pērfōrm' the doing of it; that, as there was a rēadiness to will, so there may be a pērfōr'mānce also out of that which ye have.

12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened;

14 But by an ēquāl'i-ty,² that now at this time your ābūn'dānce may be a supply for their wānt, that their ābūn'dānce also may be a supply for your wānt, that there may be ēquāl'i-ty:

15 As it is written, He that had gāthered much had nōthing over; and he that had gāthered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same ear'nēst care into the heart of Ti'tūs for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more fōr'wārd, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brōther, whose praise is in the gōs'pēl throughout all the churches:

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avōid'ing this, that no man should blame us in this ābūn'dānce which is administered by us:

21 Providing for hōn'ēst things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brōther, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do inquire of Ti'tūs, he is my pārtner and fellow-helper cōncēr'n'ing you: or our brēthren be inquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore show ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAP. IX.

FOR as touch'ing the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know the fōr'wārdness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Māc-e-dō'ni-ā, that A-ghā'i-ā³ was ready a year āgō; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brēthren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be rēady:

4 Lēst haply if they of Māc-e-dō'ni-ā come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not you) should be āshāmed in this same confident boasting.

5 There fore I thought it necessary to exhōrt the brēthren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be rēady, as a matter of bounty, and not as of cōv'ētōūsnēss.

6 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And God is able to make all grace ābōūnd tō'wārd you; that ye, always having all-sufficiency in all things, may ābōūnd to every good work:

9 (As it is written, He hath dispērs'ed ābrōād; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness rēmain'eth forever.

10 Now, he that ministereth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness :)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this sèr'vice, not only supplieth the wànt of the saints, but is àbun'dànt also by many thanksgivings unto God ;

13 (Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gòs'pèl of Chrìst, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men ;)

14 And by their prayer for you, which long àfter you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

CHAP. X.

NOW I Pàul myself beseech you, by the meekness and gentleness of Chrìst, who in presence am base àmong you, but being absent am bold tò'wàrd you.

2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence wherewith I think to be bold àgainst' some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wàr àfter the flesh :

4 (For the wèap'ons of our wàr'fàre àre not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds ;)

5 Càs'ting down imaginations, and every high thing that exàlteth itself àgainst' the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obè'diènce 1 of Chrìst ;

6 And having in a rèadiness to revenge all disòbè'diènce, 2 when your obè'diènce is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things àfter the òùt'wàrd appearance ? If any man trust to himself that he is Chrìst's, let him of himself think this àgain', that, as he is Chrìst's, even so àre we Chrìst's.

8 For though I should boast some'wàt more of our àuthòr'ity, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destrúct'ion, I should not be àshamed ;

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters (say they) àre weighty and powerful ; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such a one think this, that such as we àre in word by letters when we àre absent, such will we be also in deed when we àre present.

12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that còmmènd' themselves : but they, mèas'uring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves àmong themselves, àre not wise.

1 ò-bè'je-ènse.

13 But we will not boast of things without our mèas'ure, but according to the mèas'ure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a mèas'ure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our mèas'ure, as though we reached not unto you ; for we àre come as far as to you also in preaching the gòs'pèl of Chrìst :

15 Not boasting of things without our mèas'ure, that is, of other men's labòurs ; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule àbun'dàntly,

16 To preach the gòs'pèl in the regions beyond you : and not to boast in ànòther man's line of things made rèady to our hand.

17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For not he that còmmèn'deth himself is approved, but whom the Lord còmmèn'deth.

CHAP. XI.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly ; and indeed bear with me.

2 For I am jèal'òüs over you with godly jèal'òüsy : for I have èspòüsed you to one lüsbànd, that I may present you as a chaste vir'gin 3 to Chrìst.

3 But I fear, lèst by any means as the sèrpent beguiled Eve through his sübt'lety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Chrìst.

4 For if he that cometh, preacheth ànòther Jè'süs whom we have not preached, or if ye receive ànòther spirit which ye have not rècèived, or ànòther gòs'pèl which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest àpòstles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge ; but we have been thoroughly made manifest àmong you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in àbàs'ing myself that ye might be exàlted, because I have preached to you the gòs'pèl of God freely ?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them to do you sèr'vice.

9 And when I was present with you, and wànted, I was chàrgèable to no man : for that which was lacking to me the brèthren which came from Mác-e-dò'ní-à supplied ; and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As the truth of Chrìst is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of À-çhà'i-à.

11 Wherefore ? because I love you not ? God knoweth.

12 But wàt I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which de-isre occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such àre false *àp*òstles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the *àp*òstles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Sà'tàn himself is transformed into an àngel of light.

15 Thèrè'fòrè it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say àgain', Let no man think me a fool: if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, I speak it not àfter the Lord, but as it wèrè foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory àfter the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselfes àre wise.

20 For ye suffer if a man bring you into bòn'dàge, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man èxàlt' himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as còncèr'n'ing reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit, whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly) I am bold also.

22 Àre they Hè'brews? so am I. Àre they Iş'ra-èl-ites? so am I. Àre they the seed of Àbra-hàm? so am I.

23 Àre they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool,) I am more: in labours more àbùn'dànt, in stripes àbòve mèàş'ùrè, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In jòur'ney'ings often, in perils of wàtèrs, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils àmong false brèthren;

27 In wèà'r'iness and painfulness, in wàtch'ings often, in hunger and thirst, in fàst'ings often, in cold and nakedness:

28 Beside those things that àre without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.²

31 The God and Fà'ther of our Lord Jè'sùs Christ, which is blès'sed forevermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Da-màs'cùs the gòvèrnor under Àr-è'tàs the king kept the city of the Da-màs-cènes' with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me;

33 And through a window in a bàs'ket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

IT is not expedient for me, dòùbt less, to glory; I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ àbòve fourteen years àgò, (whether in the body, I cannot tell: or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth.) such a one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth:)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such a one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I fòr'bear', lest any man should think of me àbòve that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted àbòve mèàş'ùrè through the àbùn'dànce of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Sà'tàn to buffet me, lest I should be exalted àbòve mèàş'ùrè.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me. My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly thèrè'fòrè will I ràthèr glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Thèrè'fòrè I take plèàş'ùrè in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persècùtions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been còmmèn'd'ed of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest *àp*òstles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs of an *àp*òstle wèrè zeròught àmong you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye wèrè inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this zeròng.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you; for I seek not yours, but you; for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more àbùn'dàntly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being cràfty, I caught you with guile.

² in-fèr'mè-ittz.

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Ti'tūs, and with him I sent a brother: did Ti'tūs make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again', think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not; lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again', my God will hum'ble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and fornication, and lasciviousness, which they have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

THIS is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present the second time; and, being absent, now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again', I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you'ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God to'ward you.

5 Examine yourselves whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves: know ye not your own selves, how that Jē'sūs Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is hōn'ēst, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against' the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your pērfec'tion.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruc'tion.

11 Finally, brēthren, farewell: be pērfec't, be of good cōm'fōrt, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghōst, be with you all. Ā'mēn'.

¶ The second ēpistle to the Cō-rin'thi-āns was written from Phi-lip'pi, a city of Māc-e-dō'ni-ā, by Ti'tūs and Lū'cās.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE GALA'TIANS.¹

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an āpōstle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jē'sūs Christ, and God the Fā'ther, who raised him from the dead.)

2 And all the brēthren which are with me, unto the churches of Ga-lā'ti-ā:²

3 Grace be to you, and peace, from God the Fā'ther, and from our Lord Jē'sūs Christ,

4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Fā'ther;

5 To whom be glory forever and ever. Ā'mēn'.

6 I marvel, that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gōs'pēl;

7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pērvērt' the gōs'pēl of Christ.

8 But though we, or an āngel from heaven, preach any other gōs'pēl unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again', If any man preach any other gōs'pēl unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now pērsuāde' men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the sērvant of Christ.

11 But I cērtify you, brēthren, that the gōs'pēl which was preached of me is not after man;

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jē'sūs Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my cōnversā'tion in time pāst in the Jews' religion, how that beyōnd mēā'sūre I pērcēuted the church of God, and wasted it ;

14 And profited in the Jews' religion ābōve many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zēāl'ous of the traditions of my fāthers.

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mōther's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him āmōng the heathen ; immediately I cōnferr'ed not with flesh and blood :

17 Nēither went I up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm to them which wēre āpōstles before me ; but I went into Ā-rā bi-ā, and returned āgain' unto Da-mās'cūs.

18 Then after three years I went up to Jē-rū'sa-lēm to see Pē'ter, and ābode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the āpōstles saw I nōne, save James the Lord's brōther.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Āftērward's I came into the regions of Sŷr'i-ā and Cī-līc'i-ā :¹

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Jū-dē'ā which wēre in Christ :

23 But they had heard only, that he which pērcēuted us in times pāst, now preacheth the faith which once he dēstrōy'ed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

TWEN fourteen years after I went up āgain' to Jē-rū'sa-lēm with Bār-na-bās, and took Tī'tūs with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gōs'pēl which I preach āmōng the Ğēn'tiles, but privately to them which wēre of reputation, lēst by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But nēither Tī'tūs, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circūcīsed :

4 And that because of fālse brēthren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jē'sūs, that they might bring us into bōn'dāge ;

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no not for an hour, that the truth of the gōs'pēl might continue with you.

6 But of those who seemed to be sōme'whāt, (whātsoever they wēre, it maketh no matter to me : God accepteth no man's person :) for they who seemed to be sōme'whāt in cōn'fērēnce added nōthing to me :

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gōs'pēl of the uncircūcīsed was commited unto me, as the gōs'pēl of the circūcīsed was unto Pē'ter :

8 (For he that wrōught effectually² in Pē'ter to the āpōstleshīp of the circūcīsed, the same was mighty in me tōward the Ğēn'tiles :))

9 And when James, Cēphās, and Jōhn, who seemed to be pillars, pērcēived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Bār-na-bās the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circūcīsed.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor ; the same which I also was fōr'wārd to do.

11 But when Pē'ter was come to Ān'ti-ōch,³ I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that cērtain came from James, he did eat with the Ğēn'tiles : but when they wēre come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them which wēre of the circūcīsed.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him ; insomuch that Bār-na-bās also was carried āway with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they wālked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gōs'pēl, I said unto Pē'ter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest āfter the manner of Ğēn'tiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Ğēn'tiles to live as do the Jews ?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Ğēn'tiles,

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jē'sūs Christ ; even we have believed in Jē'sūs Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law : for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is thēre'fore Christ the minister of sin ? God forbid.

18 For if I build āgain' the things which I dēstrōy'ed, I make mysēlf a transgressor.

19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ : nevertheless I live ; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me : and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God ; for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAP. III.

O FOOLISH Ga-lā'ti-āns, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jē'sūs Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified āmōng you ?

2 This only would I lēarn of you, Rēcēived ye the Spīr'it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

² ēf-fēk'tshū-āl-e.

³ Ān'te-ōk.

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spīr'it, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He, there'fore, that ministereth to you the Spīr'it, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Ā'bra-hām believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye, there'fore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Ā'bra-hām.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gōs'pēl unto Ā'bra-hām, saying, In thee shall all nations be blēss'ed.

9 So then, they which be of faith are blēss'ed with faithful Ā'bra-hām.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but, the man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree;

14 That the blessing of Ā'bra-hām might come on the Gēn'tiles through Jē'sūs Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spīr'it through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth or addeth thereto.

16 Now, to Ā'bra-hām and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise, but God gave it to Ā'bra-hām by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made; and it was ordain'ed by angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one.

21 Is the law then against' the promises of God? God forbīd': for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jē'sūs Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should after'ward be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our schōl'màstēr, to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schōl'màstēr.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jē'sūs.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Grēek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jē'sūs.

29 And if ye be Christ's then are ye Ā'bra-hām's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

CHAP. IV.

NOW I say, that the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all.

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the Fà'ther.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bōn'dage under the elements of the world:

4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a wom'an, made under the law,

5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adōp'tion of sons.

6 And, because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spīr'it of his Son into your hearts, crying, Ā'b'bā, Fà'ther.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did sēr'vice unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again' to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again' to be in bōn'dage?

10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am: for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how, through infir'mity of the flesh, I preached the gōs'pēl unto you at the first.

14 And my temptation, which was in my flesh, ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jē'sūs.

15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you rēc'ōrd, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I, there'fore, become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zēal'ously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zēal'ously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My little children, of whom I trāv'ail in birth¹ āgain', until Ćhrist be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in dōūbt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Ā'bra-hām had two sons; the one by a bond maid, the other by a free wom'an.

23 But he who was of the bond wom'an was born āfter the flesh; but he of the free wom'an was by promise.

24 Which things āre an āl'legōry: for these āre the two cōvenants; the one from the Mōūnt Si'nāi,² which gendereth to bōn'dāge, which is Ā'gār.

25 For this Ā'gār is Mōūnt Si'nāi in Ā-ra'bi-ā, and ānswereth to Jē-rū'sa-lēm, which now is, and is in bōn'dāge with her children.

26 But Jē-rū'sa-lēm which is ābōve is free, which is the mōther of us all.

27 For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry; thou that trāv'āilest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath a hūš'bānd.

28 Now we, brēthren, as Īšāac was, āre the children of promise.

29 But as then, he that was born āfter the flesh pērsēcuted him that was born āfter the Spīr'it, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, wāt saith the scripture? Cāst out the bond wom'an and her son: for the son of the bond wom'an shall not be heir with the son of the free wom'an.

31 So then, brēthren, we āre not children of the bond wom'an, but of the free.

CHAP. V.

STAND fast, there'fore, in the liberty wherewith Ćhrist hath made us free, and be not entangled āgain' with the yōke of bōn'dāge.

2 Behōld, I Pāul say unto you, that if ye be cir'cumcišed, Ćhrist shall profit you nōthing.

3 For I testify āgain' to every man that is cir'cumcišed, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 Ćhrist is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you āre justified by the law: ye āre fallen from grace.

5 For we, through the Spīr'it, wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Ješus Ćhrist neither circumcišion āvail eth any thing, nor uncircumcišion; but faith, which worketh by love.

7 Ye did run well; who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This pērsūā'šion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be nōne otherwise minded; but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brēthren, if I yet preach circumcišion, why do I yet suffer pērsēcution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.

12 I would they wēre even cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brēthren, ye have been³ called unto liberty: only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love sērve one ānōther.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one ānōther, take heed that ye be not consumed one of ānōther.

16 This I say then, Wālk in the Spīr'it, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth āgainst' the Spīr'it, and the Spīr'it āgainst' the flesh: and these āre contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led by the Spīr'it, ye āre not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh āre manifest, which āre these: Ādūl'tery, fornication, uncleanness, lāsciv'ioūsnēss,

20 Idolatry, wīch'crāft, hatred, variance, emulations, urāth, strife, seditions, hēr'ēsīs,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time pāst, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spīr'it is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance; āgainst' such there is no law.

24 And they that āre Ćhrist's have crucified the flesh, with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spīr'it, let us also wālk in the Spīr'it.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain-glory, provoking one ānōther, envying one ānōther.

CHAP. VI.

BRETHREN, if a man be overtaken in a fāult, ye which āre spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

3 For if a man think himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have, therefore, opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially¹ unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.²

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ THE EPIS'TLE OF PAUL, THE APOS'TLE, TO THE EPHESIANS.³

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ;

4 According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before him in love:

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children, by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved:

7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded towards us, in all wisdom and prudence:

9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That, in the dispensation of the fulness of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth, even in him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will;

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also, after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore, I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation, in the knowledge of him :

18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to usward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come ;

22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

AND you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins ;

2 Wherein, in time past, ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience :

3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past, in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh, and of the mind ; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ ; (by grace ye are saved :)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus ;

7 That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindness toward us, through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved, through faith ; and that not of yourselves : it is the gift of God ;

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast :

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands ;

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being alien from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world :

13 But now, in Christ Jesus, ye who sometime were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us ;

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances, for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace ;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby ;

17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now, therefore, ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God :

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone ;

21 In whom all the building, fitly framed together, groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord ;

22 In whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

FOR this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles ;

2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to youward ;

3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery, (as I wrote afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ.)

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit ;

6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ, by the gospel ;

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me, by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ :

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities, and powers in heavenly places might be known, by the church, the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord :

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man ;

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith ; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height ;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

20 Now, unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAP. IV.

I THEREFORE, (the prisoner of the Lord,) beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 With all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love ;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling ;

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth ?

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets: and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers ;

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ ;

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ ;

14 That we henceforth be no more children tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive ;

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ ;

16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their minds ;

18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart.

19 Who, being past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus :

22 That ye put off, concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts ;

23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind ;

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

25 Wherefore, putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour : for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry and sin not ; let not the sun go down upon your wrath ;

27 Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole, steal no more. but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice :

32 And be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

BE ye, thêrê'fôre, followers of God, as dear children :

2 And wâlk in lôve, as Christ also hath lôved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sâc'ri-fîce to God for a sweet smelling sâvoûr.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or còv'êtôusnêss, let it not be once named âmong you, as becometh saints ;

4 Nêither filthiness, nor foolish tâlk'ing, nor jesting, which âre not convenient : but râther giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean pèrson, nor còv'êtôus man who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 Let no man deêvêe you with vain words ; for because of these things cometh the w'râth of God upon the children of dis-ôbê'diênce.

7 Be not ye, thêrê'fôre, partakers with them.

8 For ye wêre sometimes dârkness, but now âre ye light in the Lord : wâlk as children of light ;

9 (For the fruit of the Spîr'it is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth ;))

10 Proving wât is âc'cêp-tâ-ble unto the Lord.

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of dârkness, but râther rêprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which âre done of them in secret.

13 But all things that âre reprovêd, âre made manifest by the light : for wâtsoever dôth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, Awâke, thou that sleepest, and ârise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 See then that ye wâlk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 Rêdeeming the time, because the days âre evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding wât the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess : but be filled with the Spîr'it ;

19 Speaking to yourselves in psâlmz, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your hêart to the Lord ;

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Fâ'ther, in the name of our Lord Jê'sûs Christ ;

21 Submitting yourselves one to ânôther in the fear of God.

22 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own hûs'bândz, as unto the Lord.

23 For the hûs'bând is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church ; and he is the Sâv'ioûr of the body.

24 Thêrê'fôre as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own hûs'bândz in every thing.

¹ nûr'tshûre.

25 Hûs'bândz, lôve your wives, even as Christ also lôved the church, and gave himself for it ;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the wâshing of wâter, by the word ;

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing ; but that it should be holy, and without blemish.

28 So ought men to lôve their wives as their own bodies : he that lôveth his wife lôveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh ; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church :

30 For we âre members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and môther, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mÿstery : but I speak còncèr'nîng Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so lôve his wife even as himself ; and the wife see that she reverence her hûs'bând.

CHAP. VI.

CHILDREN, obey your pârènts in the Lord : for this is right.

2 Hôn'our thy father and môther, (which is the first còmmâd'ment with promise,))

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayst live long on the earth.

4 And, ye fâthers, provoke not your children to w'râth ; but bring them up in the nûr'ture¹ and admonition of the Lord

5 Sêrvants, be ôbê'diênt² to them that âre your màsters, according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your hêart, as unto Christ :

6 Not with eÿe'sêr'vîce, as men-pleasers ; but as the sêrvants of Christ, doing the will of God from the hêart ;

7 With good-will doing sêr'vîce, as to the Lord, and not to men,

8 Knowing that wâtsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he rêceive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye màsters, do the same things unto them, fôrbear'ing threatening : knowing that your Mâ'ster also is in heaven : nêither is there rêspêct of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brêthren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand âgainst' the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrêstle not âgainst' flesh and blood, but âgainst' principâl'itîes, âgainst' powers, âgainst' the rulers of the dârkness of this wôrld, âgainst' spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 Wherefore, take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to ² ô-bê'je-ênt.

Paul's love to the Phi-lip/pi-ans, EPIHE'SIANS. in his imprisonment at Rome withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand, therefore, having your loins girt¹ about with truth, and having on the breast-plate of righteousness;

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gös'pël of peace:

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spîr'it, which is the word of God:

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spîr'it, and wâtch'ing thereunto with all përsëverance and supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mÿstery of the gös'pël,

20 For which I am an ämbäs'sádór in bonds; that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tÿçh'i-çûs, a beloved brother, and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might côm'fört your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brëthren, and love with faith, from God the Fä'ther, and the Lord Jë'sûs Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jë'sûs Christ in sincerity. Ä'mën'.

¶ THE EPIS'TLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL and Ti-mö'the-üs, the sër-vants of Jë'sûs Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jë'sûs which are at Phi-lip'pi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Fä'ther, and from the Lord Jë'sûs Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all, making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gös'pël, from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, will përför'm' it until the day of Jë'sûs Christ;

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gös'pël, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my rëc'örd, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jë'sûs Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may aböünd yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment;

10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere, and without offence, till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jë'sûs Christ unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brëthren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gös'pël.

13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the päl'äce, and in all other places;

14 And many of the brëthren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ, even of envy and strife; and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds;

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gös'pël.

18 Whät then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spîr'it of Jë'sûs Christ.

20 According to my ear'nëst expectation, and my hope, that in nothing I shall be äshämèd, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also, Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall chòdse, I wot * not.

¹ gërt.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two; having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better;

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jē'sūs Christ for me, by my coming to you again'.

27 Only let your cōnversā'tion be as it becometh the gōs'pēl of Christ; that, whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving together for the faith of the gōs'pēl.

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversā'ries: which is to them an evident token of perdition,¹ but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II.

If there be, therefore, any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spīr'it, if any bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife or vain-glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jē'sūs:

6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God;

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men;

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name;

10 That at the name of Jē'sūs every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue should confess, that Jē'sūs Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Fā'ther.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling:

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings;

15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice, and service of your faith, I joy and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jē'sūs, to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort when I see your state.

20 For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jē'sūs Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gōs'pēl.

23 Him, therefore, I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord, that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus my brother and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death; but God had mercy on him: and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him, therefore, the more carefully, that when ye see him again', ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him, therefore, in the Lord, with all gladness, and hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAP. III.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you, it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil-workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumciſion, which worſhip God in the Sp̄rit, and rejoice in Chriſt J̄ſus, and have no confidence in the fleſh :

4 Though I might alſo have confidence in the fleſh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might truſt in the fleſh, I more :

5 Circumciſed the eighth day, of the ſtock of Iſ'ra-ël, of the tribe of B̄n'ja-mîn, a H̄brew of the H̄brews ; as touc'ing the law, a Ph̄ri-ſee ;

6 Cōnc̄r'ning zeal, p̄secūting the church ; touc'ing the righteousneſs which is in the law, blameleſs.

7 But w̄hat things w̄ere gain to me, thoſe I counted loſs for Chriſt.

8 Ȳea, dōubt'leſs, and I count all things but loſs for the excellency of the knowledge of Chriſt J̄ſus my Lord : for whom I have ſuffered the loſs of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Chriſt,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousneſs which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Chriſt, the righteousneſs which is of God by faith ;

10 That I may know him, and the power of his reſurrection, and the fellowſhip of his ſufferings, being made conformable unto his death ;

11 If by any means I might attain unto the reſurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either w̄ere already p̄fect ; but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which alſo I am apprehended of Chriſt J̄ſus.

13 Br̄thren, I count not myſelf to have apprehended : but this one thing I do, forgetting thoſe things which are behind, and reaching forth unto thoſe things which are before,

14 I preſs tōw̄ard the mark, for the prize of the high calling of God in Chriſt J̄ſus.

15 Let us, th̄er'fore, as many as be p̄fect, be thus minded ; and if in any thing ye be otherwiſe minded, God ſhall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheleſs, whereto we have already attained, let us w̄alk by the ſame rule, let us mind the ſame thing.

17 Br̄thren, be followers togeth̄er of me, and mark them which w̄alk ſo, as ye have uſe for an example.

18 (For many w̄alk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the croſs of Chriſt :

19 Whoſe end is deſtrūct̄ion, whoſe god is their belly, and whoſe glory is in their ſhame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our cōv̄erſation is in heaven ; from whence alſo we look for the S̄aviōr, the Lord J̄ſus Chriſt ;

21 Who ſhall change our vile body, that it may be faſhioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to ſubdue all things unto himſelf.

CHAP. IV.

THEREFORE, my br̄thren, dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, ſo ſtand faſt in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beſeech Eū-ō'di-ās,¹ and beſeech S̄yn'ty-chē, that they be of the ſame mind in the Lord.

3 And I entreat thee alſo, true yoke-fellow, help thoſe women which laboured with me in the gōs'p̄l, with Cl̄m̄'ent alſo, and with other my fellow-labourers, whoſe names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway : and again I ſay, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be careful for nothing : but in every thing by prayer and ſupplication, with thankſgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God which paſſeth all underſtanding, ſhall keep your hearts and minds through Chriſt J̄ſus.

8 Finally, br̄thren, whatſoever things are true, whatſoever things are hon'ēſt, whatſoever things are juſt, whatſoever things are pure, whatſoever things are lovely, whatſoever things are of good report ; if there be any virtūe,² and if there be any praiſe, think on theſe things.

9 Thoſe things which ye have both l̄ar'ned and received, and heard and ſeen in me, do : and the God of peace ſhall he with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at the laſt your care of me hath flouriſhed again' ; wherein ye w̄ere alſo careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I ſpeak in reſp̄ct of w̄ant. For I have l̄ar'ned in whatſoever ſtate I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be ab̄aſed, and I know how to ab̄ōund ; every where, and in all things I am inſtructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to ab̄ōund, and to ſuffer need.

13 I can do all things through Chriſt, which ſtrengtheneth me.

14 Notwithſtanding, ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now, ye Phi-lip'pi-āns, know alſo, that in the beginning of the gōs'p̄l, when I departed from M̄c-e-dō'ni-ā, no church communicated with me, as cōnc̄r'ning giving and receiv'ing, but ye only.

16 For even in Th̄s-sa-lō-ni'çā, ye ſent once and again' unto my neceſſity.

17 Not becauſe I deſire a gift : but I deſire fruit that may ab̄ōund to your account.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE COLOS/SIANS.¹

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an āpōstle of Jē'sūs Christ by the will of God, and Ti-mō'the-ūs our brother,

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Cō-lōs'se : Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Fā'ther, and the Lord Jē'sūs Christ.

3 We give thanks to God and the Fā'ther of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jē'sūs, and of the love which ye have to all the saints ;

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gōs'pēl :

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world ; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth :

7 As ye also learned of Ēp'a-plhrās, our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister in Christ ;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spir'it.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding.

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God ;

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness ;

12 Giving thanks unto the Fā'ther which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light ;

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son ;

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins ;

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature ;²

16 For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers ; all things were created by him and for him ;

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist :

18 And he is the head of the body, the church ; who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead ; that in all things he might have the pre-eminence ;

19 For it pleased the Fā'ther, that in him should all fulness dwell :

20 And (having made peace through the blood of his cross) by him to reconcile all things unto himself ; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth or things in heaven :

21 And you, that were sometime alienated,³ and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled,

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy, and unblameable, and unreprouvable, in his sight ;

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gōs'pēl, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven : whereof I Paul am made a minister :

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church.

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God, which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God ;

26 Even the mystery, which hath been hid from ages, and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints;

² krē'tshūre.

³ āle'yēn-ā tēd.

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gēn'tiles, which is, Christ in you, the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, warn'ng every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jē'sūs;

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

FOR I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Lā-ōd-i-cē'ā, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh,

2 That their hearts might be cōm'fōrted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Fā'ther, and of Christ;

3 In whom are hid all the trēa'sūres of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile¹ you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stēad'fāstnēss of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have thērē'fōre received Christ Jē'sūs the Lord, so walk ye in him;

7 Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abōūn'ding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philōs'ophy and vain decēit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ:

9 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Gōd'hēad bodily.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principāl'ity and power.

11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcisiōn made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcisiōn of Christ;

12 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you, being dead in your sins, and the uncircumcisiōn of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trēs'pāsses;

14 Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against¹ us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And having spoiled principāl'itiēs and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man, thērē'fōre, judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respēct of a holy-day, or of the new-moon, or of the sāv' bath-dāys;

17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

18 Let no man beguile¹ you of your reward in a voluntary humil'ity and wōr'ship'ping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind;

19 And not holding the head, from which all the body, by joints and bands, having nourishment ministered and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore, if ye be dead with Christ, from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Toūch not, taste not, handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using,) after the cōmmānd'mēnts and dōc'trines of men?

23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-wōr'ship and humil'ity, and neglecting of the body, not in hōn'ōur to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAP. III.

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 Mortify thērē'fōre your members which are upon the earth; as fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concū'pi-señce, and cōv'ētousnēss, which is idolatry;

6 For which things' sake the wōrāth of God cometh on the children of disōbē'di-ēnce:

7 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 But now ye also put off all these; anger, wōrāth, malice, blās'phēmy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge, after the image of him that created him:

11 Where there is neither Grēek nor Jew, circumcisiōn nor uncircumcisiōn, Bār'bā'ri-ān, Scyth'i-ān, bond nor free; but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on, thērē'fōre, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mē'r'ciēs, kindness, hūm'blenēss of mind, meekness, long-suffering;

13 Fōrbear'ing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against¹ any; even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And, above all these things, put on charity, which is the bond of pēr'fēctnēss.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jē'sūs, giving thanks to God and the Fā'ther by him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own hūs'bānds, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Hūs'bānds, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fā'thers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Sērvants, obey in all things your masters, according to the flesh: not with eȳe'sērvīce, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAP. IV.

MA'STERS, give unto your sērvants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Mā'ster in heaven.

2 Continue in prayer, and wā'tch in the same with thanksgiving;

3 Withal, praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance to speak the mȳstery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 Walk in wisdom tō'wārd them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with sālt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my state shall Tȳch'i-çūs declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister, and fellow-sērvant in the Lord;

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and cōm'fōrt your hearts;

9 With Ō-nēs'i-mūs, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you; they shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

10 Ar-is-tārchūs, my fellow-prisoner, sā-lūteth you, and Mār'çūs, sister's son to Bār'na-bās: (toūch'ing whom ye received cōmmānd'mēnts; if he come unto you, receive him;)

11 And Jē'sūs, which is called Jūs'tūs, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a cōm'fōrt unto me.

12 Ēp'a-phrās who is one of you, a sērvant of Christ, sā-lūteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him rēc'ōrd, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Lā-ōd-i-cē'ā, and them in Hi-e-rāp'ō-lis.

14 Lūke, the beloved phys'ic'ian, and Dē'mās, greet you.

15 Salūte the brēthren which are in Lā-ōd-i-cē'ā, and Nȳm'phās, and the church which is in his house.

16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Lā-ōd-i-cē'ans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Lā-ōd-i-cē'ā.

17 And say to Ar-chip'pūs, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. A'mēn'.

¶ THE FIRST EPIS'TLE OF PAUL, THE APOS'TLE, TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, and Sil-vā'nūs, and Ti-mō'the-ūs, unto the church of the Thēs-sa-lō'ni-āns, which is in God the Fā'ther, and in the Lord Jē'sūs Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God, our Fā'ther, and the Lord Jē'sūs Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope, in our Lord Jē'sūs Christ, in the sight of God and our Fā'ther;

4 Knowing, brēthren, beloved, your election of God.

5 For our gōs'pēl came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Hōly Ghōst, and in much assurance; as ye know w^hat manner of men we w^{er}e ámong you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Hóly Ghóst:

7 So that ye w^{er}e ensamples to all that believe in Mác-e-dó'ni-á and Ā-čhá'í-á.¹

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not only in Mác-e-dó'ni-á and Ā-čhá'í-á, but also in every place your faith to Góđ'wárd is spread ábroáđ; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves show of us w^hat manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to s^{er}ve the living and true God,

10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even J^hs^us, which delivered us from the w^ráth to come.

CHAP. II.

FOR yourselves, bréthren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even áfter that we had suffered before, and w^{er}e shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Phi-líp'pi, we w^{er}e bold in our God to speak unto you the gó's'p^{el} of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of decéit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile;²

4 But as we w^{er}e allowed of God to be put in trust with the gó's'p^{el}, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God which trieth our héarts.

5 For néither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of cón'f^oúsn^{ess}: God is witness.

6 Nor of men sought we glory, néither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the ápóstles of Christ.

7 But we w^{er}e gentle ámong you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So, being affectionately desirous of you, we w^{er}e willing to have imparted unto you, not the gó's'p^{el} of God only, but also our own souls, because ye w^{er}e dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, bréthren, our láboür and tráv'ail: for láboüring night and day, because we would not be chárgeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gó's'p^{el} of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holy, and justly, and unblameably, we behaved ourselves ámong you that believe:

11 As ye know, how we éxhórted, and cóm'fórted, and chárgeđ every one of you, (as a fáther dóth his children,)

12 That ye would wálk wóthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God, which ye héard of us, ye received it, not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, bréthren, became followers of the churches of God which in J^u-d^e'á are in Christ J^hs^us: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews;

15 Who both killed the Lord J^hs^us and their own prophets, and have p^{er}secuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men;

16 Forbidding us to speak to the G^{en}'t^{iles}, that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the w^ráth is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, bréthren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in héart, endeavoured the more áb^{un}'dántly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you (even I Pául) once and ágain', but Sá'tán hindered us.

19 For w^hat is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? are not even ye in the presence of our Lord J^hs^us Christ at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAP. III.

WHEREFORE, when we could no longer fórbear', we thought it good to be left at Āth'éns álone,

2 And sent Ti-mó'the-ús our bróther, and minister of God, and our fellow-láboürer in the gó's'p^{el} of Christ, to estab'lish you, and to cóm'fórt you cónc^{er}'ning your faith;

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily, when we w^{er}e with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation, even as it came to páss, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer fórbear', I sent to know your faith, lést by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our láboür be in vain.

6 But now, when Ti-mó'the-ús came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you;

7 Th^{er}e'fore, bréthren, we w^{er}e cóm'fórted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith;

8 For now we live, if ye stand fást in the Lord.

9 For w^hat thanks can we render to God ágain' for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might p^{er}fect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself, and our F^a'ther, and our Lord J^hs^us Christ, dir^{ect} our way unto you.

² gyle.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you;

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ with all his saints.

CHAP. IV.

FURTHERMORE, then, we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jē'sūs, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk, and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jē'sūs.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication :

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God :

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter ; because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 He, therefore, that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you ; for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia : but ye beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more ;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you :

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jē'sūs died, and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jē'sūs will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God : and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

17 Then we, which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air ; and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

1 sāngk'te-ft.

18 Wherefore, comfort one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

BUT of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you :

2 For yourselves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child ; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day : we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore, let us not sleep as do others ; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breast plate of faith and love ; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation :

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jē'sūs Christ,

10 Who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore, comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you ;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their works' sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man ; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves and to all men.

16 Rejoice evermore.

17 Pray without ceasing.

18 In every thing give thanks ; for this is the will of God in Christ Jē'sūs concerning you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not prophesings.

21 Prove all things : hold fast that which is good.

22 Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly ; and I pray God, your whole spirit, and soul, and body, be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst.

24 Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

25 Brēthren, pray for us.

26 Greet all the brēthren with a holy kiss.

27 I chārgē you by the Lord, that this épistle be réad unto all the holy brēthren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst be with you. Ā'mén'.

¶ THE SECOND EPIS'TLE OF PAUL, THE APOS'TLE, TO THE THESSALO'NIANS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL and Sil-vā'nūs, and Ti-mō'the-ūs, unto the church of the Thēs-sa-lō-ni-āns in God our Fā'ther, and the Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst :

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Fā'ther, and the Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst.

3 We àre bound to thank God always for you, brēthren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all tō'wārd each other ābōūn'deth :

4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your pērsēcū'tions and tribulations that ye endure ;

5 Which is a manifest token of the rīgh'tēōūs¹ judgment of God, that ye may be counted wōrthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer :

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you ;

7 And to you who àre troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jē'sūs shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty āngels,

8 In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gōs'pēl of our Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst ;

9 Who shall be punished with ēvēr'lās'ting dēstrūc'tion from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power ;

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our tēs'timōny āmōng you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you wōrthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good plēā'sure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power ;

12 That the name of our Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and of the Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst.

CHAP. II.

NOW we beseech you, brēthren, by the coming of our Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst, and by our gāth'ering togethēr unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, nēither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Chrīst is at hand.

3 Let no man decēive you by any means : for that day shall not come except there come a falling āway first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of pērdi'tion ;

4 Who opposeth and exálteth himself ābōve all that is called God, or that is wōr'shipped ; so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things ?

6 And now ye know whāt withholdeth, that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the mýstery of inīquity dóth ālrēady work : only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way :

8 And then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall dēstrōy' with the brightness of his coming ;

9 Even him, whose coming is āfter the working of Sā'tān, with all power, and signs, and lying wonders.

10 And with all decēi'vableness of unrighteousness in them that perish ; because they recēived not the lōve of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie ;

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had plēāsure in unrighteousness.

13 But we àre bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brēthren, belōved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spīr'it, and belief of the truth :

14 Whereunto he called you by our gōs'pēl to the óbtain'ing of the glory of our Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst.

15 Thērē'fore, brēthren, stand fāst and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word or our épistle.

16 Now, our Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst himself, and God, even our Fā'ther, which hath lôved us, and hath given us ëvêrlás'ting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Cóm'fört your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.

CHAP. III.

FINALLY, brêthren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you.

2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and keep you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord toûch'ing you, that ye both do and will do the things which we cômmand' you.

5 And the Lord dirêct your hearts into the lôve of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we cômmand' you, brêthren in the name of our Lord Jê'süs Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brôther that wâlketh disorderly, and not âfter the tradition which he rêceived of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly âmong you.

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrôught with labôur and tráv'ail night and day, that we might not be chârgeable to any of you:

9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we wêre with you, this we cômmand'ed you, that if any would not work, nêither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there âre some which wâlk âmong you disorderly, working not at all, but âre busy-bodies.

12 Now them that âre such, we cômmand' and exhôrt by our Lord Jê'süs Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brêthren, be not weary in well-doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word by this êpistle, note that man, and have no cômpany with him, that he may be âshâmed.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brôther.

16 Now, the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of Pâul with mine own hand, which is the token in every êpistle: so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jê'süs Christ be with you all. Â'mên'.

¶ THE FIRST EPIS'TLE OF PAUL THE APOS'TLE, TO TIM'OTHY.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an âpôstle of Jê'süs Christ by the cômmand'ment of God our Sav'ioür, and Lord Jê'süs Christ, which is our hope;

2 Unto Tim'o-thy, my own son in the faith; Grace, mêrcy, and peace, from God our Fà'ther, and Jê'süs Christ our Lord.

3 As I besôught thee to âbide still at Êph'e-süs when I went into Mác-ê-dô-ni-â, that thou mightst chârge some that they teach no other dôc'trine;

4 Nêither give heed to fables, and endless gënëäl'ogies, which minister questions râther than godly edifying, which is in faith; so do.

5 Now the end of the cômmand'ment is charity, out of a pure hêart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned;

6 From which some having swêrved, have turned âside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding nêither wât they say, nor whereof they âffirm'.¹

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

² mân-kyind'

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disôbê'diënt, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fâthers, and murderers of môthers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mân-kind,² for men-stealers, for liars, for pêrjured pêrsons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound dôc'trine:

11 According to the glorious gôs'pêl of the blê'sed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jê'süs our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

13 Who was before a blâsphêmêr, and a pêrsecutor, and injurious: but I obtâin'ed mêrcy, because I did it ignorantly in ün-bê-liêf.

14 And the grace of our Lord was ex-ceeding âbün'dant with faith and lôve which is in Christ Jê'süs.

15 This is a faithful saying, and wôrthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jê'süs came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jē'sūs Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory forever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge, I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightst war a good warfare;

19 Holding faith and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith, have made shipwreck;

20 Of whom is Hy-men-ē-us and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

I EXHORT, therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty;

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour,

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jē'sūs;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not,) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will, therefore, that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived; but the woman, being deceived, was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding, she shall be saved in child-bearing, if they continue in faith and charity, and holiness with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient; not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest, being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without: lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubled-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved: then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers; sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jē'sūs.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayst know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And, without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness; God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAP. IV.

NOW the Spirit speaketh expressly that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils:

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron:

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good,

3 kōōl/le-ft'd.

and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving :

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jē'sūs Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little : but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth ; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things ; give thyself wholly to them ; that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine ; continue in them : for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee.

CHAP. V.

REBUKE not an elder, but entreat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren ;

2 The elder women as mothers ; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour our widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents ; for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth in pleasures is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number, under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works : if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse : for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry :

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And whilst they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house ; and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged : that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn : and, The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things, without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins, keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment ; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand : and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

LET as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine, be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren ; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and con-

Rich men's duty

sent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but boasting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

9 But they that will be rich, fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.¹

10 For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness,² godliness, faith, love, patience,³ meekness.

12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jē'sūs, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukable, until the appearing of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ;

15 Which in his times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlastingly. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sūs Chrīst by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jē'sūs,

2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and Christ Jē'sūs our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience,⁴ that without ceasing, I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois and thy mother Eunice;⁵ and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou stir up the gift of God which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou, therefore, ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel, according to the power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jē'sūs, before the world began;

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jē'sūs Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel;

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and am persúaded that he is able to keep that, which I have committed unto him, against that day.

1 per-dish'un.

13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love, which is in Christ Je'sús.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee, keep by the Hóly Ghóst which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Á'si-á be turned áway from me; of whom are Phy-gél'lús and Hér-móg'e-nés.¹

16 The Lord give mérey unto the house of Ón-é-síp'h'o-rús; for he oft refreshed me, and was not áshamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Róme, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord gránt unto him that he may find mérey of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Eph'e-sús, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

THOU, thère'fore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Je'sús.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou, thère'fore, endure hardness, as a good sôl'dier² of Je'sús Christ.

4 No man that wárréth, entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a sôl'dier.

5 And if a man also strive for mù'stér-íeş, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The hús'bándmân that láböureth must be first partaker of the fruits.³

7 Consider whát I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Je'sús Christ, of the seed of Dá'víd, was raised from the dead, according to my gôs'pél:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an evildoer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is not bound.

10 Thère'fore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Je'sús with eternal glory.

11 It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him;

12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful; he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, chàr'gíng them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the súbvér'ting of the hearers.

15 Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be áshamed, rightly diví'díng the word of truth.⁴

16 But shun profane and vain babblings; for they will increase unto more ungodliness:

17 And their word will eat as dóth a canker: of whom is Hý-mén-e'ús and Philé'tus;

18 Who, concér'ning the truth, have erred, saying, that the resurrection is pást álréady; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless, the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ, depart from iníq'uítý.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood, and of éarth: and some to hön'óür, and some to díshón'óür.

21 If a man, thère'fore, purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto hön'óür, sanctified, and meet for the màster's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure héart.

23 But foolish and unléar'ned questions ávóid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the sérvant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient;

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God pérádvén'túre will give them repentance to the acknówledgíng of the truth;

26 And that they may recóver themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

THIS know, also, that in the lást days, perilous times shall come:

2 For men shall be lovers of their own-selves, cov'étoüs, boasters, proud, blásp'hémérş, dísbé'b'díent to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, truce-breakers, fálse accusers, incontinent, síerce, díspíserş of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pléaş'úres more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn áway.

6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and léad captive silly wom'en⁴ laden with sins, led áway with dívręş lusts;

7 Ever léar'níng, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now, as Ján'neş and Jám'bręş wíth-stóod Mó'sés, so do these also réşíst the truth; men of corrupt minds, reprobate concér'ning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.

10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, patience,

11 Pèrsècú'tions, afflictions, which came unto me at Áu'ti-òch, at Í-çò'ni-ùm, at Lÿs'trà; w'hát pèrsècú'tions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jè'süs shall suffer pèrsècú'tion.

13 But evil men, and seducers, shall wax wòrse and wòrse, dècèi'ving, and being dè-cèived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast lèar'ned, and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast lèar'ned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith, which is in Christ Jè'süs.

16 All scripture is given by Inspirá'tion of God, and is profitable for dõc'trine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 That the man of God may be pèrfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAP. IV.

I CHARGE thee, thèrè'fòrè, before God, and the Lord Jè'süs Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing, and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season: reprove, rebuke, exhòrt, with all long-suffering and dõc'trine.

3 For the time will come, when they will not endure sound dõc'trine; but áfter their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn áway their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

5 But wátech thou in all things; endure afflictions, do the work of an eván'gèlist, make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am now rëady to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For Dè'mäs hath forsaken me, having loved this present wòrld, and is departed unto Thès-sa-lò-ni'çá, Crès'cèns to Ga-lá'ti-á,¹ Tít'us unto Dál-má'ti-á.²

11 Only Luke is with me. Take Màrk and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And Tÿçh'i-çüs have I sent to Èph'e-süs.

13 The cloak that I left at Trò'ás with Çàr'püs, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but èspèc'ially the parchments.

14 Ál-èx-án'dér the coppersmith did me much evil; the Lord rëwárd him according to his works:

15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

16 At my first ánsver no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their chàrge.

17 Notwithstanding, the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me: that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gèn'tiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will presèrve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory forever and ever. Á'mèn'.

19 Sálúte Prís'çá and Áq'ui-lá,³ and the household of Òn-è-síp'h'o-rüs.

20 È-rás'tús ábode at Çòr'inth: but Tròph'i-müs have I left at Mi-le'tüm, sick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eü-bü'lüs⁴ greeteth thee, and Pü'dènz, and Lí'nüs, and Çláu'di-á, and all the brèthren.

22 The Lord Jè'süs Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Á'mèn'.

¶ The second èpístle unto Ti-mò'the-üs, òrdáin'ed the first bishop of the church of the È-phè'si-ànz, was written from Ròme, when Pául was brought before Nè'rò the second time.

¶ THE EPIS'TLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, a sèrvant of God, and an ápòstle of Jè'süs Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth, which is áfter godliness:

2 In hope of ètèrnal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the wòrld began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the cõmmánd-mènt of God our Sáv'ioür;

4 To Tít'us, mine own son áfter the common faith; Grace, mèrcy, and peace, from God the Fà'ther, and the Lord Jè'süs Christ, our Sáv'ioür.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crète, that thou shouldst set in order the things that àre wànt'ing, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee.

6 If any be blameless, the hūsbānd of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly :

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God ; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre ;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate ;

9 Holding fast the faithful word, as he hath been taught, that he may be able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers, and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision :

11 Whose mouths must be stopped ; who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cre'ti-ānz¹ are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true : wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith ;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn from the truth.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure ; but unto them that are defiled and unbēliēving, is nothing pure ; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God ; but in works they deny him ; being abominable and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

CHAP. II.

BUT speak thou the things which become sound doctrine :

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness ; not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things ;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children.

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient² to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort³ to be sober-minded.

7 In all things showing thyself a pattern of good works ; in doctrine showing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech that cannot be condemned ; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things ; not answering again :

10 Not purloining, but showing all good fidelity ; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God, that bringeth salvation, hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us, that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world ;

13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ :

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise⁴ thee.

CHAP. III.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient,⁴ deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not by works of righteousness, which we have done, but according to his mercy, he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost ;

6 Which he shed on us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour ;

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs⁵ according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God, might be careful to maintain⁶ good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid foolish questions, and geneal'ogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law ; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is a heretick, after the first and second admonition, reject ;

11 Knowing that he that is such, is subvert'ed, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Ar'te-mās unto thee, or Ty'ch'i-cūs, be diligent to come unto me to Ni-cōp'o-lis : for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Ze'nās the lawyer and A-pōllōs on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

¶ THE EPIS'TLE OF PAUL TO PHILE'MON.

PAUL, a prisoner of Jē'sūs Çhrist, and Tím'o-thy our bróther, unto Phi-lē'mōn, our dearly belóved and fellow-lá-boúrer,

2 And to our belóved Ap'phi-á,¹ and Àr-çhíp'pūs our fellow-sóldier, and to the church in thy house :

3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Fà'ther, and the Lord Jē'sūs Çhrist.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of thy lóve and faith, which thou hast tó'wárd the Lord Jē'sūs, and tó'wárd all saints ;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become efféc'tuál by the aeknowledging of every good thing, which is in you in Çhrist Jē'sūs.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy lóve, because the bowels of the saints àre refreshed by thee, bróther.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Çhrist, to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet, for lóve's sake, I ráther beseech thee, being such a one as Pàul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jē'sūs Çhrist.

10 I beseech thee for my son O-nēs'i-mūs, whom I have begotten in my bonds :

11 Which in time pást was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me ;

12 Whom I have sent ágain' : thou thère'fore receive him, that is, mine own bowels ;

13 Whom I would have rétáin'ed with me, that in thy stéad he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gós'pèl :

14 But without thy mind would I do nóthing ; that thy benefit should not be as it wére of necessity, but willingly.

15 For pèrháps' he thère'fore departed for a season, that thou shouldst receive him forever ;

16 Not now as a sèrvant, but ábove a sèrvant, a bróther belóved, spéc'ially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord ?

17 If thou count me, thère'fore, a pàrtner, receive him as myself.²

18 If he hath wrónged thee, or oweth thee áught, put that on mine account ;

19 I Pàul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it ; álhé'it I do not say to thee, how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yēa, bróther, let me have joy of thee in the Lord : refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in thy óbē'diēce, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging, for I trust that through your prayers, I shall be given unto you.

23 There sàlute thee Èp'a-phrás, my fellow-prisoner in Çhrist Jē'sūs ;

24 Mår'çūs, Àr-ís-tàr'çhūs, Dē'más, Lu'cás, my fellow-láboúrer.

25 The grace of our Lord Jē'sūs Çhrist be with your spirit. Ā'mén'.

¶ THE EPIS'TLE OF PAUL, THE APOS'TLE, TO THE HE/BREWS. *

CHAPTER I.

GOD, who at sundry times, and in dī'vèrs manners, spake in time past unto the fàthers, by the prophets,

2 Hath in these lást days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir³ of all things, by whom also he made the wólds ;

3 Who, being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his pèrson, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Máj'esty⁴ on high ;

4 Being made so much better than the àngels, as he hath by inheritance óbtáin'ed a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the àngels said he at any time, Thou art my Són, this day have I begotten thee ? And ágain', I will be to him a Fà'ther, and he shall be to me a Són ?

Christ preferred before angels. HEBREWS. He is more worthy than Moses.

6 And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever; a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom:

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They shall perish, but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old, as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture thou shalt fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAP. II.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him:

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him:

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he, by the grace of God, should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren;

12 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren; in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them, who, through fear of death, were all their life-time subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels: but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things, it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren; that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house, hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that buildeth all things, is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after:

6 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoicing of the hope, firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore, (as the Holy Ghost saith, To-day, if ye will hear his voice)

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, provoked me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation,

¹ vës'tshüre.

² fürm.

eration, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I swear in my w^rāth, They shall not enter into my rest;)

12 Take heed, brēthren, lēst there be in any of you an evil hēart of ūn-bē-lief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhōrt one ānōther daily, while it is called To-day; lēst any of you be hardened through the dēcēt'fūlnēss of sin.

14 For we āre made partakers of Chrīst, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stēad'fāst unto the end;

15 While it is said, To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hēarts, as in the provocation.

16 For some when they had hēard, did provoke; howbeit, not all that came out of Ēg'yp^t, by Mō'sēs.

17 But with whom was he griēv'ed forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom swore he, that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that bēliēved not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of ūn-bē-lief.

CHAP. IV.

LET us thērē'fōre fear, lēst a promi^se being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gōs'pēl preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that hēard it.

3 For we, which have bēliēved, do enter into rest: as he said, As I have sworn in my w^rāth, if they shall enter into my rest; although the works wēre finished from the foundation of the wōrld.

4 For he spake in a cēr'tain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place āgain', If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing, thērē'fōre, it rēmaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached, entered not in, because of ūn-bē-lief:

7 (āgain', he limiteth a cēr'tain day, saying in Dā'vid, To-day, āfter so long a time; as it is said, To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hēarts.

8 For if Jē'sūs,¹ had given them rest, then would he not āftērwārd have spoken of ānōther day.

9 There rēmaineth, thērē'fōre, a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.)

11 Let us labōur, thērē'fōre, to enter into that rest, lēst any man fall āfter the same example of ūn-bē-lief.

12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, pierc'ing even to the d'viding āsūn'der of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a dīscē'rner of the thoughts and intents of the hēart.

13 Nēither is there any crēa'ture² that is not manifest in his sight; but all things āre naked, and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great High Priēst, that is pās^sed into the heav-ens, Jē'sūs the Son of God, let us hold fāst our profession.

15 For we have not a high priēst which cannot be tōuched with the feeling of our infir'mities; but was in all points tempted like as we āre, yet without sin.

16 Let us, thērē'fōre, come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may ōbtain mērcy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

FOR every high priēst taken from āmōng men, is ōrdained for men in things pērtāin'ing to God, that he may offer both gifts and sāv'rifīces for sins:

2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that āre out of the way; for that he himself also is cōm'pāssed with infir'mity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man taketh this hōn'ōur unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aārōn;

5 So also Chrīst glorified not himself to be made a high priēst; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in ānōther place, Thou art a priēst forever, āfter the order of Mēl-chīš'e-dēç:

7 Who, in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death, and was hēard, in that he feared;

8 Though he wēre a Son, yet lēarn'ed he ōbē'diēnce by the things which he sufferēd;

9 And, being made pērfect, he became the Aū'thōr of etērnal salvation, unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God a high priēst, āfter the order of Mēl-chīš'e-dēç:

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered seeing ye āre dull of hearing.

12 For, when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you āgain', which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and āre become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk, is unskilful in the word of righteousness; for he is a babe.

² krē'tshāre.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who, by reason of use, have their senses exercised to diṣṣern' both good and evil.

CHAP. VI.

THEREFORE, leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto pērfēct'ion; not laying again' the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith tō/wārd God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again' unto repentance; seeing they crucify¹ to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth, which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God :

8 But that which beareth thorns and briars is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have showed tō/wārd his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end;

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Ā/bra-hām, because he could swear by no greater, he swāre by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing, I will bless thee: and multiplying, I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation, is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to show unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his council, confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stéad/fást, and which entereth into that within the vail,

20 Whether the forerunner is for us entered, even Jē'sus, made a high priest forever after the order of Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc.

CHAP. VII.

FOR this Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc, king of Sa'lēm, priest of the most high God, who met Ā bra-hām returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Ā bra-hām gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation, King of righteousness, and after that also, King of Sa'lēm, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life: but, made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Ā/bra-hām gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Lē'vī, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people, according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Ā bra-hām:

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Ā/bra-hām, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And, without all contradiction, the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And, as I may so say, Lē'vī also, who receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Ā/bra-hām.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc met him.

11 If, therefore, pērfēct'ion were by the Lē'vī'cāl priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc, and not be called after the order of Ā/rōn?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he, of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident, that our Lord sprang out of Jūdā; of which tribe Mō'sēs spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident; for that after the similitude of Mēl-chiṣ'e-dēc, there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest forever, after the order of Mēl-chiſſe-dec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the cōmmandmēt going before, for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law made nōthing pērfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest ;

21 (For those priests wēre made without an oath; but this with an oath, by him that said unto him, The Lord swāre, and will not repent, Thou art a priest forever after the order of Mēl-chiſſe-dec;))

22 By so much was Jēſūs made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly wēre many priests, because they wēre not suffered to continue by reason of death :

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priest'hood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercēs'sion for them.

26 For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sār'rifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests, which have infir'mity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated forevermore.

CHAP. VIII.

NOW of the things which we have spoken, this is the sum: We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Māj'ēsty¹ in the heavens :

2 A minister of the sār'c'tuāry² and of the true tāb'ēr-nā-cle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordāined to offer gifts and sār'rifices: wherefore, it is of necessity that this man have sōme'whāt also to offer.

4 For if he wēre on ēarth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there āre priests that offer gifts according to the law :

5 Who sērve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Mō'sēs was admonished of God, when he was ābout to make the tāb'ēr-nā-cle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern showed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtāined a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better cōvenant, which was estāb'lished upon better pōmises.

7 For if that first cōvenant had been fāultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fāult with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new cōvenant with the house of Īſ'ra-ēl, and with the house of Jūdāh ;

9 Not according to the cōvenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lēad them out of the land of Ē'g'gypt; because they continued not in my cōvenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the cōvenant that I will make with the house of Īſ'ra-ēl, After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hēarts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people :

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brōther, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be mērcifūl to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquitiēs will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new cōvenant, he hath made the first old. Now, that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

THEN verily the first cōvenant had also ordinances of divine sēr'vice, and a wōrldly sār'c'tuāry.

2 For there was a tāb'ēr-nā-cle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the show-bread; which is called, The sār'c'tuāry.

3 And after the second vail, the tāb'ēr-nā-cle, which is called The Hō'li-ēt of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the cōvenant overlaid round ābout with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aārōn's rod that budded, and the tables of the cōvenant;

5 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mērcy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now, when these things wēre thus ordāined, the priests went always into the first tāb'ēr-nā-cle, accomplishing the sēr'vice of God :

7 But into the second went the high priest ālōne once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the ērrors of the people :

8 The Hōly Ghōst this signifying, That the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tāb'ēr-nā-cle was yet standing :

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which wēre offered both gifts and sār'rifices, that could not make him that did the sēr'vice pērfect, as pērtāin'ing to the conscience:

10 Which stood only in meats and

² sāngk'tshū-ā-re.

³ trōd.

drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building.

12 Neither by his own blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls, and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh;

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the Mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called, might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead; otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon, neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people, according to the law, he took the blood of calves, and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover, he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was, therefore, necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 (For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world;) but now once, in the end of the world, hath he appeared to put away sin, by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men

once to die, but after this the judgment;

28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

FOR the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices, which they offered year by year continually, make the comers thereunto perfect;

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers, once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin, thou hast had no pleasure:

7 Then said I, Lo, I come, (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt offerings, and offering for sin, thou wouldst not, neither hadst pleasure therein; (which are offered by the law);

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins;

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, forever sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected forever them that are sanctified;

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them, After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now, where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having, therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh ;

21 And having a high priēst over the house of God,

22 Let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies wāsh'ed with pure wāter.

23 Let us hold fāst the profession of our faith without wavering ; for he is faithful that promiſed ;

24 And let us consider one ānōther, to provoke unto lōve, and to good works :

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is ; but exhōrtīng one ānōther : and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin wilfully āfter that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remāineth no more sēc'rifiçe for sins,

27 But a cēr'tain fēar'fūl looking for of judgment, and fiery indignation which shall devour the ād'vērsāriçe.

28 He that dēspīçed Mō'sēs' law, died without mērcy, under two or three witnesses :

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought wōrthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the cōvėnant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done dēspīte' unto the Spīr'it of grace ?

30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And āgain', the Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fēar'fūl thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, āfter ye wēre illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions ;

33 Partly, whiilst ye wēre made a gazing-stock, both by reproaches and afflictions ; and partly, whiilst ye became companions of them that wēre so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cāst not āwāy, thēre'fōre, your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward.

36 For ye have need of patience ; that, āfter ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the'promiſe.

37 For yet a little while, and he that shall come, will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now, the just shall live by faith : but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no plēas'ure in him.

39 But we āre not of them who draw back unto perdition ; but of them that believe, to the saving of the soul.

NOW faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the wōrlds wēre framed by the word of God ; so that things which āre seen wēre not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Ā'bēl offered unto God a more excellent sēc'rifiçe than Čain, by which he obtained witness, that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts ; and by it he, being dead, yet speaketh.

5 By faith Ē'nōçh was translated, that he should not see death ; and was not found, because God had translated him : for before his translation he had this tēs'timōny, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him : for he that cometh to God, must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith No'āh, being warned of God of things not seen, as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house ; by the which he condemned the wōrld, and became heir¹ of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Ā'bra-hām, when he was called to go out into a place which he should āfter receive for an inheritance, obeyed ; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sō'journed in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tīb'ēr-nā-cles with I'šāaç² and Ja'çōb, the heir³ with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose build'er and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sā'rā herself received strength to cōncēive' seed, and was delivered of a child when she was pāst age, because she judged him faithful who had promiſed.

12 Thēre'fōre sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky³ in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promiſes, but having seen them āfar off, and wēre pērsuāded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they wēre strāngers and pilgrims on the ēarth.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country, from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned :

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly : wherefore God is not āshamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Ā'bra-hām, when he was tried, offered up Īšāac: and he that had received the promises, offered up his only-begotten son.

18 Of whom it was said, That in Īšāac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Īšāac bles'sed Ja'cōb and Ē'sāu concerning things to come.

21 By faith Ja'cōb, when he was a dying, bles'sed both the sons of Jō'seph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith Jō'seph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Īš'ra-ēl; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Mō'sēs, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

24 By faith Mō'sēs, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pha'ra-ōh's¹ daughter;

25 Chōō'sing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Ē'g'yp't: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Ē'g'yp't, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he kept the p̄ssover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea, as by dry land; which the Ē'g'yp'ti-ān's² assaying to do, were drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jer'i'chō fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith the harlot Rā'hāb perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gīd'e-ōn, and of Bā'rāk, and of Sām'sōn, and of Jēph'tha-e; of Dā'vīd also, and Sām'u-ēl, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the ā'l'iēn's.³

35 Wom'en⁴ received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings, and scour'gings, and moreover, of bonds and imprisonment:

37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword; they wandered about in sheepskins and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented:

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy;) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens, and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

CHAP. XII.

WHEREFORE, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Je'sūs the author and finisher of our faith; who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation, which speaketh unto you, as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him;

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scour'geth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they, verily, for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure: but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening, for the present, seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterwards it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby;

12 Wherefore, lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned

³ āle'yēnz.

⁴ wīm'mīn out of the way ; but let it rätter be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord :

15 Looking diligently, læst any man fail of the grace of God ; læst any root of bitterness springing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled :

16 Læst there be any fornicator, or profane përson, as Ê'sâu, who for one morsel of meat sold his birth/right.²

17 For ye know how that äftërwärd, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected : for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye äre not come unto the mount that might be töuched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and dárkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words : which voicc they that hëard, untreated, that the word should not be spoken to them any more :

20 (For they could not endure that which was cömmänded, And if so much as a beast töuch the möùn'tain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart ;

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Mō'sës said, I exceedingly fear and quake.)

22 But ye äre come unto mount S'ï'on, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jë-rü'sa-lë'm, and to an innumerable cömpany of ängels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the first-born, which äre written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made përfect,

24 And to Jë'süs the Më-di-ä'tör of the new cövenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Ä'bël.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh ; for if they e-scaped not who refused him that spake on ëäth, much more shall not we e-scape, if we turn äwäy from him that speaketh from heaven ;

26 Whose voice then shook the ëäth : but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more, I shake not the ëäth only, but also heaven

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that äre shaken, as of things that äre made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remäin.

28 Wherefore, we rëcëiv'ing a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may sërve God äc'cëp-täbly with reverence and godly fear.

29 For our God is a consuming fire.

CHAP. XIII.

LET brötherly löve continue.

2 Be not forgetful to ëntërtäin' strängers : for thereby some have ëntërtäin'ed ängels unawares

3 Remember them that äre in bonds, as bound with them ; and them which suffer ädvër'sity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Mär'riage is hön'öurable in all, and the bed undefiled : but whoremongers and ädültërés God will judge.

5 Let your cönvërsätion be without cöv'ëtöusness ; and be content with such things as ye have : for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear whät man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God : whose faith follow, considering the end of their cönvërsätion ;

8 Jë'süs Christ, the same yës'tërdäy, and to-day, and forever.

9 Be not carried äbout' with dī vërṣ and stränge döc'trines : for it is a good thing that the hëärt be ëstäb'lished with grace. not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an ältar, whereof they have no right to eat which sërve the täb'ër-nä-cle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sänc'tüäry by the high priëst for sin, äre burnt without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jë'süs also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth, thërë'fore, unto him without the camp, beärf'ing his reproach.

14 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 By him, thërë'fore, let us offer the säc'rif'ice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good, and to communicate, forget not : for with such säc'rif'icës God is well pleased.

17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves : for they wätch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief ; for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us : for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live hön'ëstly.

19 But I beseech you the rätter to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now, the God, of peace, that brought ägain' from the dead our Lord Jë'süs, that great Shëp'hërd of the sheep, through the blood of the ëvërläs'ting cövenant,

21 Make you përfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jë'süs Christ : to whom be glory forever and ever Ä'mën'.

22 And I beseech you, brëthren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye, that our bróther Tím'o-thy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Sálute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of It'a-ly sálute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Ā'mén'.

¶ THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

CHAPTER I.

JJAMES, a sérvant of God, and of the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, to the twelve tribes which àre scattered ábroád, greeting.

2 My bréthren, count it all joy when ye fall into di'vērş temptations:

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your fáith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her pèrfect work, that ye may be pèrfect and entire, wánt'ing nóthing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ásk of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and úpbráideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ásk in fáith, nóthing wávering: for he that wávereth is like a wave of the sea, driven with the wind, and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A dóuble minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the bróther of low degree rejoice in that he is exálted;

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the gráss he shall páss áway.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the gráss, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade áway in his ways.

12 Blés'sed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, néither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn áway of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then, when lust hath concéived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not érr, my belóved bréthren.

17 Evéry good gift, and every pèrfect gift, is from ábóve, and cometh down from the Fä'ther of lights, with whom is no váibleness, néither shadow of turning.

18 Óf¹ his own will begat he us with the word of tráth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my belóved bréthren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wéráth:

20 For the wéráth of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay ápárt all filthiness, and superfluity of náughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls:

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceíving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a gláss:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth wát manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the pèrfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blés'sed in his deed.

26 If any man ámong you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tóngue, but deceíveth his own héárt, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Fä'ther, is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the wórl'd.

CHAP. II.

MY bréthren, have not the fáith of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ, the Lord of glory, with respèct of pèrsons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly appárel, and there come in also a poor man, in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respèct to him that wear'eth the gay clóth'ing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool;

4 Àre ye not then partial in yourselves, and àre become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my belóved bréthren, hath not God chosen the poor of this wórl'd, rich in fáith, and heirş² of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?

¹ ov.

² árzt.

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name, by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now, if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath showed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food;

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled: notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well; the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man! that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also, was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAP. III.

MY brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show, out of a good conversation, his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality¹ and without hypocrisy.

18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAP. IV.

FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts, that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not:

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers, and adulteresses, know

ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosever, thêre'fore, will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the hūm'ble.

7 Submit yourselves thêre'fore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep; let your laugh'ter¹ be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 Hūm'ble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, brêthren. He that speaketh evil of his brôther, and judgeth his brôther, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one Law'giver, who is able to save, and to destrôy'; who art thou hat judgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To-day, or to-morrow, we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy, and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not whât shall be on the morrow. For whât is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Thêre'fore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAP. V.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl, for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire: ye have heaped trêas'ure together for the last days.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers, which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sáb'a-ôth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts as in the day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient, thêre fore, brêthren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the hūsbânduân waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 Grudge not one against another, brêthren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brêthren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But, above all things, my brêthren, sweär not; neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anôint'ing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Ê-l'ias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed ear'nestly that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And he prayed again', and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brêthren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert' him;

20 Let him know, that he which convert'eth the sinner from the error of his way, shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

¶ THE FIRST EPIS'TLE GENERAL OF PE'TER.

CHAPTER I.

PETER, an äpö'stle of Jē'sūs Chrīst, to the strangers scattered throughout Pōn'tūs, Ga-la'ti-ā, Cäp-pa-dō'ci-ā, A'si-ā,¹ and Bi-thŷn'i-ā,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Fä'ther, through sanctification of the Spir'it, unto öbe'diēnce² and sprinkling of the blood of Jē'sūs Chrīst: Grace unto you, and peace be multiplied.

3 Blē'ssed be the God and Fä'ther of our Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst, which, according to his äbün'dänt mërcy, hath begotten us ägain' unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jē'sūs Chrīst from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not äway, re'served in heaven for you,

5 Who äre kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the läst time;

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season (if need be,) ye äre in heaviness through manifold temptations;

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and hon'our, and glory, at the appearing of Jē'sūs Chrīst:

8 Whom having not seen, ye löve; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believ'ing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable, and full of glory:

9 Rēcēiv'ing the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Of which salvation the prophets have inquired, and sēarched diligently, who proph'e-sied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Sēarching whät, or whät manner of time, the spirit of Chrīst which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Chrīst, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things which äre now reported unto you, by them that have preached the gös'pël unto you, with the Höly Ghö'st sent down from heaven: which things the ängels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird³ up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end, for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jē'sūs Chrīst:

14 As öbe'diēnt⁴ children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts, in your ignorance:

15 But as he, which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of cönvërsätion;

16 Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holv.

17 And if ye call on the Fä'ther, who without respect of përsöns, judgeth according to every man's work, päss the time of your sö'journing here in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye wëre not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain cönvërsätion rēcēived by tradition from your fä'thers;

19 But with the precious blood of Chrīst, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20 Who verily was foreördäin'ed before the foundation of the wörl'd, but was manifest in these läst times for you:

21 Who by him do believe in God that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spër'it, unto unfeigned löve of the brëthren, see that ye löve one änöther with a pure häert fervently:

23 Being born ägain', not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and äbideth forever.

24 For all flesh is as gräss, and all the glory of man as the flower of gräss. The gräss withereth, and the flower thereof falleth äway:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth forever. And this is the word which by the gös'pël is preached unto you.

CHAP. II.

WHEREFORE, laying ä'side all malice, and all guile,⁵ and hypöc'risēs, and envies, and all evil speakings,

2 As new-born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious:

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and präc'ioüs;⁶

5 Ye also, as lively stones, äre built up a spiritual house, a holy präst'hood, to offer up spiritual säc'rif'ices, äc'cëp-tä-ble to God by Jē'sūs Chrīst.

6 Wherefore also it is cöntained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sī'on a chief corner-stone, elect, präc'ious; and he that believeth on him, shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you, thë're fö're, which believe, he is präc'ious: but unto them which be dis-öbe'diēnt, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disöbe'diēnt: whereunto also they wëre appointed.

1 A'zhe-ä. 2 ö-be'je-ēnse. 3 gërd. 4 ö-be'je-ënt. 5 gyile. 6 präsh'üs.

9 But ye āre a chosen generation, a royal priest'hood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

10 Which in time pāst wēre not a people, but āre now the people of God: which had not obtained mērcy, but now have ōbtāin'ed mērcy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which wār āgainst' the soul;

12 Having your cōnvērsātion hōn'ēst āmōng the Ğēntiles; that, whereas they speak āgainst' you as evil-doers, they may, by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto gōvērners, as unto them that āre sent by him for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of malīc'iousnēss, but as the sērvants of God.

17 Hōn'ōūr all mēn. Lōve the brōtherhood. Fear God. Hōn'ōūr the king.

18 Sērvants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the frōwārd.

19 For this is thānk'wōrthy, if a man for conscience tō'wārd God endure griēf, suffering wōng'fully.

20 For wāt glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? But if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently; this is āc'cēp-tā-ble with God.

21 For even hereunto wēre ye called; because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example,¹ that ye should follow his steps:

22 Who did no sin, nēither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who, when he was reviled, reviled not āgain'; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himsel'f to him that judgeth righteously:

24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness; by whose stripes ye wēre healed.

25 For ye wēre as sheep going āstrāy; but āre now returned unto the Shēp'hērd and Bish'op of your souls.

CHAP. III.

LIKewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own hūsbānds; that if any obey not the word, they also may, without the word, be won by the cōnvērsā'tion of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste cōnvērsā'tion cōupled with fear:

3 Whose ādōrning, let it not be that ōūt'wārd ādōrning of plait'ing the hair and of wear'ing of gold, or of putting on of apparel.

4 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For āfter this manner, in the old time, the holy womēn also, who trusted in God, ādōrn'ed themselves, being in subjection unto their own hūsbānds;

6 Even as Sa'rā obeyed Ā'bra-hām, calling him lord: whose dāughters ye āre as long as ye do well, and āre not āfrāid with any āmāze'ment.

7 Likewise, ye hūsbānds, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving hōn'ōūr unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirš tōgēther of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of ānōther: lōve as brēthren, be pitiful, be cōūrteous;²

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but contrariwise, blessing knowing that ye āre thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For he that will lōve life, and see good days, let him refrāin his tōngue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord āre over the righteous, and his ears āre open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is āgainst' them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy āre ye: and be not āfrāid' of their terror, nēither be troubled:

15 But sānc'tify³ the Lord God in your hearts: and be rēady always to give an ānswer to every man that āsketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear:

16 Having a good conscience: that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil-doers, they may be āshāmed that falsly accuse your good cōnvērsā'tion in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well-doing, than for evil-doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spīr'it:

19 By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison:

20 Which sometime wēre dīsōbē'diēnt, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Nō'e, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls, wēre saved by wāter.

21 The like figure whereunto exu baptism, dōth also now save us, (not the putting āwāy of the filth of the flesh, but the ānswer of a good conscience tō'wārd God) by the resurrection of Jē'sūs Christ :

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels, and authorities, and powers, being made subject unto him.

CHAP. IV.

FORASMUCH then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh, to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time pāst of our life may sūf'rice' us to have wroug't the will of the Gēn'tiles, when we wālked in lāsciv'ious'nēss, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries :

4 Wherein they think it strānge that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you ;

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For, for this cause was the gōs'pēl preached also to them that āre dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand ; be ye thēre'fōre sober, and wātch unto prayer.

8 And ābōve all things have fērvent charity āmōng yourselves: for charity shall cōver the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to ānōther without grudging.

10 As every man hath rēcēived the gift, even so minister the same one to ānōther, as good stēwārd's of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God ; if any man minister, let him do it, as of the ābil'ity which God giveth ; that God in all things may be glorified through Jē'sūs Christ ; to whom be praise and dominion forever and ever. Ā'mēn'.

12 Belōved, think it not strānge cōncērn'ing the fiery trial, which is tō try you, as though some strānge thing happened unto you :

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ye āre partakers of Christ's sufferings ; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy āre ye ; for the Spīr'it of glory, and of God, resteth upon you : on their part he is evil spoken of ; but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let nōne of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thīef, or as an evil-doer, or as a busy-body in other men's matters.

16 Yet, if any man suffer as a Christ'ian,¹ let him not be āshāmed ; but let him glorify God on this behālf.

17 For the time is come, that judgment must begin at the house of God ; and if it first begin at us, whāt shall the end be of them that obey not the gōs'pēl of God ?

18 And if the righteous scārcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear ?

19 Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their souls to him in well-doing, as unto a faithful Chē-ā'tōr.

CHAP. V.

THE elders which are āmōng you I exhört, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed :

2 Feed the flock of God, which is āmōng you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly ; not for filthy lucre, but of a rēady mind ;

3 Nēither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock :

4 And when the chief Shēp'hērd shall appear, ye shall rēcēive a crown of glory that fadeth not āwāy.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder ; yēa, all of you be subject one to ānōther, and be cōlothed with humility : for God rējisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the hūm'ble.

6 Hūn'ble yourselves, thēre'fōre, under the mighty hand of God, that he may exālt you in due time :

7 Cās'ting all your care upon him ; for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant ; because your ād'vērsāry the devil, as a roaring lion, wālketh ābout', seeking whom he may devour ;

9 Whom rējist stēād'fāst in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions āre accomplished in your brēthren that āre in the wōrld.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his etērnal glory by Christ Jē'sūs, āfter that ye have suffered a while, make you pērfect, stāblish, strengthen, settle you :

11 To him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Ā'mēn'.

12 By Syl-va'nūs, a faithful brōther unto you, (as I suppose,) I have written brīefly, exhōr'ting and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at Bāb'y-lōn, elected togēth̄er with you, sālūteth you; and so dōth Mār'çūs my son.

14 Greet ye one ānōth̄er with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that āre in Christ Jē'çūs. Ā'mēn'.

¶ THE SECOND EPIS'TLE GENERAL OF PE'TER.

CHAPTER I.

SIMON PE'TER, a s̄rvant and an āpōstle of Jē'çūs Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us, through the righteousness of God, and our Sāv'ioūr Jē'çūs Christ :

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you, through the knowledge of God, and of Jē'çūs our Lord.

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that p̄rtain' unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virt'ue.¹

4 Whereby āre given unto us exceeding great and precious promiſes ; that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having e-scaped the corruption that is in the wōrld through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith, virtue ; and to virt'ue, knowledge ;

6 And to knowledge, temperance ; and to temperance, patience ; and to patience, godliness ;

7 And to godliness, brōth̄erly kindness ; and to brōth̄erly kindness, charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and ābōund, they make you, that ye shall nēither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jē'çūs Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see āfār off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rāther, brēthren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure ; for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall :

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you ābūn'dantly, into the ēv̄rlās'ting kingdom of our Lord and Sāv'ioūr Jē'çūs Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be ēstāb'lished in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tāb'ēr-nā-cle, to stir you up, by putting you in remembrance ;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tāb'ēr-nā-cle, even as our Lord Jē'çūs Christ hath showed me.

15 Moreover, I will endeavour that ye may be able, āfter my decease, to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunninglydevised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jē'çūs Christ, but wēre eye-witnesses of his māj'esty.²

17 For he rēcēived from God the Fā'ther hōn'ōūr and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my belōved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we hēard, when we wēre with him in the Hōly Mōūt.

19 We have also a more sure word of prōph'ecy ; wherunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star ārise in your hearts :

20 Knowing this first, that no prōph'ecy of the scripture is of any private int̄rprētā'tion.

21 For the prōph'ecy came not in old time by the will of man ; but holy men of God spake as they wēre moved by the Hōly Ghōst.

CHAP. II.

BUT there wēre false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable hēr'es'ies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destrūc'tion.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious³ ways : by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through cōv'ētōūsness shall they with feigned words make mē'r'chāndiſe of you : whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the āngels that sinned, but cāst them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be resērvēd unto judgment ;

5 And spared not the old wōrld, but saved Nō'e, the eighth p̄rson, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the wōrld of the ungodly ;

6 And turning the cities of Sōd'om and Gō-mōr'rāh into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that āfter should live ungodly ;

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy cōnvērsā'tion of the wicked ;

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds :)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reſerve the unjuſt unto the day of judgment to be puniſhed.

10 But chiefly them that walk after the fleſh in the luſt of uncleanness, and deſpiſe government. Presumptuous are they, ſelf-willed, they are not afraid to ſpeak evil of dignities :

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accuſation againſt them before the Lord.

12 But theſe, as natural brute beaſts, made to be taken and deſtroyed, ſpeak evil of the things that they underſtand not, and ſhall utterly periſh in their own corruption ;

13 And ſhall receive the reward of unrighteousneſs, as they that count it pleaſure to riot in the day-time. Spots they are and blemiſhes, ſporting themſelves with their own deceivings while they feaſt with you ;

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot ceaſe from ſin : beguiling unſtable ſouls : a heart they have exerciſed with covetous practices ; cursed children :

15 Which have forſaken the right way, and have gone aſtray, following the way of Baalam, the ſon of Beſor, who loved the wages of unrighteousneſs ;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity : the dumb aſs, ſpeaking with man's voice, forbade the madneſs of the prophet.

17 Theſe are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempeſt ; to whom the miſt of darkneſs is reſerved forever.

18 For when they ſpeak great ſwelling words of vanity, they allure through the luſts of the fleſh, through much wantonneſs, thoſe that were clean eſcaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promiſe them liberty, they themſelves are the ſervants of corruption : for of whom a man is overcome, of the ſame is he brought in bondage.

20 For if, after they have eſcaped the pollutions of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worſe with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteouſneſs, than after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again ; and, The ſow that was waſhed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

THIS ſecond epiſtle, beloved, I now write unto you ; in both which I ſtir up your pure minds by way of remembrance ;

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were ſpoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apoſtles of the Lord and Saviour :

3 Knowing theſe firſt, that there ſhall come in the laſt days ſcoffers, walking after their own luſts,

4 And ſaying, Where is the promiſe of his coming ? for ſince the fathers fell aſleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For theſe they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth ſtanding out of the water, and in the water :

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, periſhed :

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the ſame word are kept in ſtore, reſerved unto fire, againſt the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of theſe one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thouſand years, and a thouſand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not ſlack concerning his promiſe, as ſome men count ſlackneſs ; but is long-ſuffering to usward, not willing that any ſhould periſh, but that all ſhould come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night ; in the which the heavens ſhall paſs away with a great noiſe, and the elements ſhall melt with fervent heat, the earth alſo, and the works that are therein, ſhall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all theſe things ſhall be diſſolved, what manner of perſons ought ye to be in all holy converſation and godlineſs,

12 Looking for and haſting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire ſhall be diſſolved, and the elements ſhall melt with fervent heat ?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promiſe, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteouſneſs.

14 Wherefore, beloved, ſeeing that ye look for ſuch things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without ſpot, and blameleſs :

15 And account that the long-ſuffering of our Lord is ſalvation ; even as our beloved brother Paul alſo, according to the wiſdom given unto him, hath written unto you ;

16 As alſo in all his epiſtles, ſpeaking in them of theſe things ; in which are ſome things hard to be underſtood, which they that are unlearned and unſtable, wreſt, as they do alſo the other ſcriptures, unto their own deſtruction.

17 Ye, thère'fóre, belóved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led áway with the érror of the wick-ed, fall from your own stéad'fástnëss :

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowl-edge of our Lord and Sav'ioür Jē'sūs Chrīst. To him be glory, both now and forever. Ā'mēn'.

¶ THE FIRST EPIS'TLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

THAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life ;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and beár witness, and show unto you that etérnal Life which was with the Fà'ther, and was manifested unto us.)

3 That which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have feilowship with us : and truly our fellowship is with the Fà'ther, and with his Son Jē'sūs Chrīst.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no dárknëss at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and wálk in dárknëss, we lie, and do not the truth ;

7 But if we wálk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with ánothér ; and the blood of Jē'sūs Chrīst his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we de-céive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us

CHAP. II.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an Ād'vō-çate with the Fà'ther, Jē'sūs Chrīst, the rīgh'teóus : 1

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins ; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole wórl'd.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his cōmmānd'mēnts.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keep-eth not his cōmmānd'mēnts, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the lóve of God përfected : here-by know we that we àre in him.

6 He that saith, he ábideth in him, ought himself also so to wálk even as he wálked.

7 Bréthren, I write no new cōmmānd'mēnt unto you, but an old cōmmānd'mēnt which ye had from the beginning. The old cōmmānd'mēnt is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Ágain', a new cōmmānd'mēnt I write unto you, which thing is true in him, and in you ; because the dárknëss is pást, and the true light now shíneth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his bróther, is in dárknëss even until now.

10 He that lóveth his bróther ábideth in the light, and there is nóne occasion of stumbling in him :

11 But he that hateth his bróther is in dárknëss, and wálketh in dárknëss, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that dárknëss hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, be-cause your sins àre forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fàthers, because ye have known him that is from the begin-ning. I write unto you, young men, be-cause ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Fà'ther.

14 I have written unto you, fàthers, be-cause ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye àre strong, and the word of God ábideth in you, and ye have over-come the wicked one.

15 Lóve not the wórl'd, néither the things that àre in the wórl'd. If any man lóve the wórl'd, the lóve of the Fà'ther is not in him.

16 For all that is in the wórl'd, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Fà'ther, but is of the wórl'd.

17 And the wórl'd pásseth áway, and the lust thereof : but he that doeth the will of God ábideth forever.

18 Little children, it is the lást time ; and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now àre there many anti-christs ; whereby we know that it is the lást time.

19 They went out from us, but they wëre not of us ; for if they had been of us, they would no dóubt have continued with us ; but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they wëre not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction from the Ho-ly One, and ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you, because ye know not the truth; but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jē'sūs is the Christ? He is antichrist that denieth the Fa'ther and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Fa'ther: [but he that acknowledgeth the Son, hath the Fa'ther also.]

24 Let that thère'fore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Fa'ther.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you cōncér'ning them that seduce you.

27 But the ānōin'ting, which ye have received of him, ābideth in you; and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same ānōin'ting teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall ābide in him.

28 And now, little children, ābide in him; that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be āshamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAP. III.

BEHOLD, whāt manner of love the Fa'ther hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God! thère'fore the wórld knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Belóved, now are we the sons of God; and it dóth not yet appear whāt we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin, transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever ābideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, nēither known him.

7 Little children, let no man decēive you; he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous:

8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might dēstróy' the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever is born of God dóth not commit sin; for his seed rēmaineth in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this, the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, nēither he that loveth not his bróther.

11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his bróther. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works wēre evil, and his bróther's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brēthren, if the wórld hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brēthren. He that loveth not his bróther ābideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his bróther is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life ābiding in him.

16 Hereby pērcēivē' we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brēthren.

17 But whoso hath this wórld's good, and seeth his bróther have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, nēither in tóngue; but in deed, and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Belóved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence tōw'ard God.

22 And whátsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his cōmmānd'mēnts, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his cōmmānd'mēt, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jē'sūs Christ, and love one another, as he gave us cōmmānd'mēt.

24 And he that keepeth his cōmmānd'mēnts dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he ābideth in us, by the Spír'it which he hath given us.

CHAP. IV.

BELOVED, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the wórld.

2 Hereby know ye the Spír'it of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jē'sūs Christ is come in the flesh, is of God:

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jē'sūs Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spír'it of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come, and even now already is it in the wórld.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the wórld.

5 They are of the world; therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: he that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us. Hereby know we the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God to us, because, that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And we have seen, and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth, is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God, love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

WHOSOEVER believeth that Jesus is the Christ, is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world; and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God, hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life; and this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God: that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true; and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

¶ THE SECOND EPIS'TLE OF JOHN.

THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us forever.

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Fa'ther, and from the Lord Je'sus Christ, the Son of the Fa'ther, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walk'ing in truth, as we have received a command'ment from the Fa'ther.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new command'ment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, That we love one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk after his command'ments. This is the command'ment, That as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Je'sus

Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver, and an antichrist.

8 Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 Whosoever transgresseth and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Fa'ther and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed:

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

13 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

¶ THE THIRD EPIS'TLE OF JOHN.

THE elder unto the well beloved Gai'us, whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayst prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers:

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church; whom if thou bring forward on their journey, after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We, therefore, ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Di-ot're-phes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God; but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself; yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

¶ THE GENERAL EPIS'TLE OF JUDE.

JUDE, the servant of Je'sus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Fa'ther, and preserved in Je'sus Christ, and called;

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation; ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lascivious-

False teachers described.

REVELA'TION. Godly p̄rseverance encouraged nēss, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jē'sūs Christ.

5 I will thēre'fore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Ē'g̃ypt, aft̄erwārd destrōyed them that believed not.

6 And the āngels which kept not their first estate', but left their own habitation, he hath res̄erved in ēv̄rlās'ting chains under darkness, unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sōd'om and Gō-mōr'rah, and the cities ābout' them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going āfter strānge flesh, āre set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of ēt̄rnl fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise' dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Mī'cha-ēl the ārchān'g̃ēl, when contending with the devil, (he' disputed ābout' the body of Mō'sēs,) durst' not bring āgainst' him a railing accusātion, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but wāt they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Wo unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily āfter the ērror of Bā'lāam, for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Čō're.

12 These āre spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they āre without wāter, carried ābout' of winds; trees, whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame: wān'd̄ering stars, to whom is res̄erved the blackness of darkness forever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Ād'ām, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that āre ungodly āmōng them, of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken āgainst him.

16 These āre murmurers, complainers, walk'ing āfter their own lusts, and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's p̄rsons in admiration, because of ādvānt'age.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which w̄ere spoken before of the āp̄stles of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ;

18 How that they told you, there should be mockers in the lāst time, who should walk āfter their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Sp̄ir'it.

20 But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghōst, 21 Keep yourselves in the lōve of God, looking for the m̄ercy of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ unto ēt̄rnl life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the ḡarment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory, with exceeding joy,

25 To the only wise God our Sāv'ioūr, be glory and māj'ēs-ty,¹ dominion and power, both now and ever. Ā'mēn'.

THE REVELA'TION OF ST. JOHN THE DI-VINE.

CHAPTER I.

THE Rēv̄lā'tion of Jē'sūs Christ, which God gave unto him, to show unto his s̄rvants things which must shortly come to p̄ss; and he sent and signified it by his āngel unto his s̄rvant Jōhn:

2 Who bare rē'ōrd of the word of God, and of the tēs'timōny of Jē'sūs Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blēs'sed is he that rēadeth, and they that hear the words of this prōph'ēcy, and keep those things which āre written therein; for the time is at hand.

4 JOHŃ, to the seven churches which āre in Ā'si-ā:¹ Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come: and from the seven spirits which āre before his throne;

5 And from Jē'sūs Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the ēarth: Unto him that lōved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Fā'ther: to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Ā'mēn'.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the ēarth shall wail because of him. Even so, Ā'mēn'.

8 I am Āl-phā and Ō-mē'gā, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Āl-migh'ty.

9 I Jōhn, who also am your brōther, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jē'sūs Christ, was in one isle that is called Pát'mös, for the word of God, and for the tēs'timóny of Jē'sūs Chrīst.

10 I was in the Spīr'it on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, I am A'phā and ō-mē'gā, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in A'si-ā; unto Ēph'e-sūs, and unto Smyr'nā,² and unto Pēr'ga-mös, and unto Thy-a-ti'rā, and unto Sār'dis, and unto Phīl-a-dēl'phi-ā, and unto Lā-ōd-i-cē'ā.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And, being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks, one like unto the Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt³ about' the paps with a golden gir'dle.⁴

14 His head and his hairs wēre white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes wēre as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet like unto fine brāss, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many wāters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars; and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged swōrd; and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead: and he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not: I am the first and the last:

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, A'mēn'; and have the keys of hell, and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mýstery of the seven stars, which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the ángels of the seven churches; and the seven candlesticks, which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

CHAP. II.

UNTO the ángel of the church of Ēph'e-sūs write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who wālketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 I know thy works, and thy lāboūr, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil; and thou hast tried them which say they are apóstles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast lāboūred, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have some'what against' thee, because thou hast left thy first lóve.

5 Remember, thēre'fore, from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works: or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Niç-o-lá'i-tānş, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spīr'it saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the ángel of the church in Smyr'nā write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich,) and I know the blās'phēmy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the sýn'agōgue of Sā'tān.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cāst some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days.* Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spīr'it saith unto the churches; He that overcometh, shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the ángel of the church in Pēr'ga-mös write: These things saith he which hath the sharp swōrd with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest even where Sā'tān's seat is: and thou holdest fāst my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein A'n'ti-pās was my faithful mār'týr, who was slain among you, where Sā'tān dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against' thee, because thou hast there them that hold the dōc'trīne of Bā'lāam, who taught Bā'lāk to cāst a stumbling-block before the children of Īş'ra-ēl, to eat things sēc'rificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the dōc'trīne of the Niç-o-lá'i-tānş, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against' them with the swōrd of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spīr'it saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden mǎn'nā, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the ángel of the church in Thy-a-ti'rā write: These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brāss:

19 I know thy works, and charity, and sēr'vice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works, and the last to be more than the first :

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jēz'a-bēl, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication ; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death ; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts : and I will give unto every one of you, according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thī-a-ti-rā, (as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Sā tān, as they speak,) I will put upon you none other burden ;

25 But that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations :

27 (And he shall rule them with a rod of iron ; as the vessels of a potter, shall they be broken to shivers ;) even as I received of my Fāther.

28 And I will give him the morning star.

29 He that hath an ear let him hear what the Spīr'it saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sār'dis write ; These things saith he that hath the seven Spīr'its of God, and the seven stars : I know thy works, that thou hast a name, that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be wātch'fūl, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die : for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember, thēre'fore, how thou hast received, and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If thēre'fore thou shalt not wātch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sār'dis which have not defiled their garments ; and they shall walk with me in white : for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment : and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Fāther, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spīr'it saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Phīl-a-dēl'phi-ā write ; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of Dā'vīd, he that openeth, and no man shutteth ; and shutteth, and no man openeth ;

8 I know thy works : behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it ; for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the sūn-agōgue of Sā tān, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie ; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly : hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out : and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jē-rū'sa-lēm, which cometh down out of heaven from my God : and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spīr'it saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Lā-ōd-i-cē-ānṣ, write ; These things saith the Ā'mēn', the faithful and true Wit'nēss, the beginning of the creation of God ;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot : I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then, because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot : I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing ; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked :

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayst be rich ; and white raiment, that thou mayst be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear ; and anōint' thine eyes with ēye-salve, that thou mayst see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten : be zēal'ōūs, thēre'fore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock ; if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh, will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Fāther in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spīr'it saith unto the churches.

CHAP. IV.

AFTER this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talk'ing with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I was in the spirit; and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jās'per and a sār'dīne stone: and there was a rainbow round about' the throne, in sight like unto an ěm'ērāld.

4 And round about' the throne wĕre four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thunderings, and voices. And there wĕre seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spīr'its of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glāss like unto crŷ's'tāl; and in the midst of the throne, and round about' the throne, wĕre four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about' him, and they wĕre full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Hōly, hōly, hōly, Lord God Āl-migh'ty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory, and hōn'ōūr, and thanks, to him that sat on the throne, who liveth forever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and wōr'ship him that liveth forever and ever, and cāst their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art wōrthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and hōn'ōūr, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy plēas'ure they are, and wĕre created.

CHAP. V.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne, a book written within and on the back side, sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is wōrthy to open the book, and to lōōse the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in ěarth, neither under the ěarth, was able to open the book, nĕither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found wōrthy to open, and to rĕad the book, nĕither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not; behold, the Lī'ōn of the tribe of Jū'dā, the Root of Da'vīd, hath prĕvail' ed to open the book, and to lōōse the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lāmb, as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spīr'its of God sent forth unto all the ěarth.

7 And he came, and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And, when he had taken the book, the four beasts, and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lāmb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of ōdōūrs, which are the prayers of saints.

9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art wōrthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kindred, and tōngue, and people, and nation;

10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests; and we shall reign on the ěarth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many āngels round about' the throne, and the beasts, and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Wōrthy is the Lāmb that was slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and hōn'ōūr, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every crĕā'ture which is in heaven, and on the ěarth, and under the ěarth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I, saying, Blessing, and hōn'ōūr, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lāmb, forever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Ā'mĕn'. And the four and twenty elders fell down and wōr'shipped him that liveth forever and ever.

CHAP. VI.

AND I saw when the Lāmb opened one of the seals; and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts, saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and, behold, a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bōw; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out ānōther horse that was red; and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the ěarth, and that they should kill one ānōther; and there was given unto him a great swōrd.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo, a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of bāl'-ances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse; and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him: and power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar, the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also, and their brethren, that should be killed, as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld, when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black, as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind:

14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places;

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

CHAP. VII.

AND after these things, I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed a hundred and forty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Asher were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasse were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders, and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God forever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat:

17 For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar, which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense which camewith the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God, out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels, which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail, and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea; and the third part of the sea became blood:

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters:

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying, with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo, to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAP. IX.

AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth; and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace: and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth; and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it: and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breast-plates, as it were breast-plates of iron: and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions; and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is A-bad'don, but in the Greek tongue, he hath his name Apollyon.³

12 One wo is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.⁴

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breast-plates of fire, and of brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not wór'ship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and bráss, and stone, and of wood; which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sórcéres, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAP. X.

AND I saw another mighty ángel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it wére the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the éarth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about' to write: and I héard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the ángel, which I saw stand upon the sea, and upon the éarth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth forever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the éarth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh ángel, when he shall begin to sound, the mýstery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his sérvants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I héard from heaven spake unto me ágain', and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the ángel which standeth upon the sea and upon the éarth.

9 And I went unto the ángel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as hóney.

10 And I took the little book out of the ángel's hand, and ate¹ it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as hóney: and as soon as I had eaten² it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must próph'ésý ágain' before many peoples, and nations, and tóngues, and kings.

CHAP. XI.

AND there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the ángel stood, saying, Rise, and méasúre the temple of God, and the áltar, and them that wór'ship therein.

2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and méasúre it not; for it is given unto the Gén'tiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two mónth's.

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall próph-esý a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth:

4 These are the two olive-trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their próph'e-cy: and have power over wát'ers to turn them to blood, and to smite the éarth with all pláignes, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their tés timóný, the beast that áscén'deth out of the bottomless pit, shall make wár ágainst' them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sód'om and E'gýpt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people, and kindreds, and tóngues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three days and a hálf, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the éarth shall rejoice over them, and make mérry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two próphets tormented them that dwelt on the éarth.

11 And áfter three days and a hálf, the Spír'it of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they héard a great voice from heaven, saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud: and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great éarth'quake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the éarth'quake wére slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant wére affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second wo is pást; and, behold, the third wo cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh ángel sounded: and there wére great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this wórld are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign forever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God, on their seats, fell upon their faces, and wór'shipped God,

17 Saying, we give thee thanks, O Lord God Ál-migh'ty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations wére angry, and thy wór'ath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give rewárd unto thy sérwants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldst destrôy' them which destrôy' the ěarth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there wĕre lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an ěarth'quake, and great hail.

CHAP. XII.

AND there appeared a great wónder in heaven, a wom'an clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she, being with child, cried, trāv'ailing in birth,¹ and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another wónder in heaven, and, behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads, and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cást them to the ěarth: and the dragon stood before the wom'an which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a manchild, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the wom'an fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was wár in heaven; Mí-cha-él² and nis angels fought against' the dragon; and the dragon fought, and his angels,

8 And převail'ed not; nĕither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cást out, that old sĕrpent, called the Dĕv'il,³ and Sā'tān, which decĕiveth the whole world: he was cást out into the ěarth, and his angels wĕre cást out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ; for the accuser of our brĕthren is cást down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lāmb, and by the word of their tĕs'timóny: and they lóved not their lives unto the death.

12 Thĕrĕ'fĕre rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Wo to the inhabitants of the ěarth, and of the sea! for the devíl is come down unto you, having great wráth, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cást unto the ěarth, he přĕsecuted the wom'an, which brought forth the manchild.

14 And to the wom'an wĕre given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place; where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the sĕr-pent.

15 And the sĕrpent cást out of his mouth, wáter as a flood, after the wom'an, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the ěarth helped the wom'an, and the ěarth opened her mouth, and swálowed up the flood which the dragon cást out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wróth with the wom'an, and went to make wár with the remnant of her seed, which keep the cōm-mānd'mĕnts of God, and have the tĕs'timóny of Jĕ'sus Christ.

CHAP. XIII

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blās'phĕmy.

2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a lĕop'árd,⁴ and his feet wĕre as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion; and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it wĕre wóunded to death; and his deadly wóund was healed: and all the wórd wondered after the beast.

4 And they wór'shipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast; and they wór'shipped the beast, saying, who is like unto the beast? Who is able to make wár with him?

5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things, and blās'phĕ-mĕs; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two mónths.

6 And he opened his mouth in blās'phĕ-my against' God, to blās'phĕme' his name, and his táb'ĕr-nā-cle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him to make wár with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tóngues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the ěarth shall wór'ship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lāmb slain from the foundation of the wórd.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 He that leádeth into captivity, shall go into captivity; he that killeth with the swórd, must be killed with the swórd. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the ěarth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the ěarth and them which dwell therein, to 1 bĕrth.

wōr'ship the first beast, whose deadly wōund was healed.

13 And he doeth great wōnders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the ěarth, in the sight of men,

14 And dēcēiveth them that dwell on the ěarth, by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the ěarth, that they should make an image to the beast which had the wōund by a sƵeord, and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not wōr'ship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he caused all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their fōre'hēads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man: and his number is six hundred threescore and six.

CHAP. XIV.

AND I looked, and, lo, a Lāmb stood on the Mōunt Sī'ōn, and with him a hundred forty and four thousand, having his Fā'ther's name written in their fōre'hēads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many wāters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it wēre a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could lēarn that song, but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which wēre redeemed from the ěarth.

4 These āre they which wēre not defiled with wom'en; for they āre vir'gīns. These āre they which follow the Lāmb whithersoever he goeth. These wēre redeemed from āmōng men, being the first fruits unto God, and to the Lāmb.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they āre without fāult before the throne of God.

6 And I saw ānōther āngel fly in the midst of heaven, having the ēvēr'lās'tīng gōs'pēl to preach unto them that dwell on the ěarth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tōngue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and wōr'ship him that made heaven, and ěarth, and the sea, and the fōūn'tāins of wāters.

8 And there followed ānōther āngel, saying, Bāb'y-lōn is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wōrāth of her fornication.

9 And the third āngel followed them, saying, with a loud voice, If any man wōr'ship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his fōre'hēad, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wōrāth of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy āngels, and in the presence of the Lāmb:

11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up forever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who wōr'ship the beast and his image, and whosoever rēcēiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the saints: here āre they that keep the cōmmand'mēnts of God, and the faith of Jē'sūs.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blē'sed āre the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth: Yēa, saith the Spīrīt, that they may rest from their lāboūrs: and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and, behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of Man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And ānōther āngel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap; for the time is come for thee to reap: for the harvest of the ěarth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the ěarth; and the ěarth was reaped.

17 And ānōther āngel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And ānōther āngel came out from the āltar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the ěarth; for her grapes āre fully ripe.

19 And the āngel thrust in his sickle into the ěarth, and gathered the vine of the ěarth, and cāst it into the great wine-press of the wōrāth of God.

20 And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

AND I saw ānōther sign in heaven, a great and marvellous, seven āngels having the seven lāst plāgues; for in them is filled up the wōrāth of God.

2 And I saw as it wēre a sea of glāss mingled with fire; and them that had gotten the vic'tōry over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of gläss, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing the song of Mō'sēs the sērvant of God, and the song of the Lāmb, saying, Great and marvellous āre thy works, Lord God Āl-mīgh'ty; just and true āre thy ways, thou King of saints!

4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and wōr'shīp before thee; for thy judgments āre made manifest.

5 And āfter that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tāb'ēr-nā-cle of the tēs-timōny in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven āngels came out of the temple, having the seven plāgues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts gir'ded¹ with golden gir'dles.²

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven āngels seven golden vials full of the wērāth of God, who liveth forever and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power, and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plāgues of the seven āngels wēre fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

AND I hēard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven āngels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wērāth of God upon the ēārth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the ēārth; and there fell a noisome and griēv'ōūs sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which wōr'shīpped his image.

3 And the second āngel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third āngel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fōūn'tāins of wāters; and they became blood.

5 And I hēard the āngel of the wāters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus;

6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they āre worthy.

7 And I hēard ānōther out of the āltar say, Even so, Lord God Āl-mīgh'ty, true and righteous āre thy judgments.

8 And the fourth āngel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men wēre scorched with great heat, and blāsp'hēmed the name of God, which hath power over these plāgues; and they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth āngel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnāwed their tōngues for pain,

11 And blāsp'hēmed the God of heaven, because of their pains and ſcūr sores, and repented not of their deeds.

¹ gēr'ded.

12 And the sixth āngel poured out his vial upon the great river Eū-phrā'tēs:³ and the wāter thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits, like frogs, come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they āre the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the ēārth, and of the whole wōrld, to gāther them to the battle of that great day of God Āl-mīgh'ty.

15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blēs'sed is he that wātcheth, and keepeth his gārments, lest he wālk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gāthered them togēther into a place, called in the Hē'brew tōngue, Arma-gēd'dōn.

17 And the seventh āngel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there wēre voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great ēārth'quāke, such as was not since men wēre upon the ēārth, so mighty an ēārth'quāke, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and great Bāb'y-lōn came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierce'nēss of his wērāth.

20 And every īs'lānd fled āwāy, and the mōūn'tāins wēre not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone ābout the weight of a talent; and men blāsp'hēmed God because of the plāgue of the hail; for the plāgue thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

AND there came one of the seven āngels, which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will show unto thee the judgment of the great whore, that sitteth upon many wāters:

2 With whom the kings of the ēārth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the ēārth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me āwāy in the spirit into the wilderness; and I saw a wom'an sit upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of names of blāsp'hēmy, having seven heads, and ten horns.

4 And the wom'an was arrayed in purple and scarlet-colour, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pēarls, having a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations, and filthiness of her fornication.

5 And upon her fore head was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the wom'an drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the mār'týrs of Je'sus: and when I saw her, I wō'nd'ered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mý's't'ery of the wom'an, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder (whose names w'ere not written in the book of life from the foundation of the w'orld,) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven g'ró'u'n'táins, on which the wom'an sitteth.

10 And there are seven k'ings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings; which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make wār with the Lāmb, and the Lāmb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, The wāt'ers which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tōngues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the whore, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the wom'an which thou sawest, is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Bāb'y-lōn the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the w'rāth of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the m'ē'r'chānts of the earth are waxed rich through the abūn'dānce of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues:

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double, according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off, for the fear of her torment, saying, A-lās', a-lās'! that great city Bāb'y-lōn, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And the m'ē'r'chānts of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their m'ē'r'chāndīse any more.

12 The m'ē'r'chāndīse of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thy'ne-wood,¹ and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The m'ē'r'chānts of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off, for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, A-lās', a-lās'! that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every ship'mast'er, and all the cōmpany in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood āfār off,

18 And cried, when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, Whāt city is like unto this great city!

19 And they cāst dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Ā-lās', ā-lās'! that great city, wherein wēre made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy āpōstles and prophets; for God hath āvēn'ged you on her.

21 And a mighty āngel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cāst it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Bāb'y-lōn be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be hēard no more at all in thee; and no crāfts'mān, of whātsoever crāft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be hēard no more at all in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be hēard no more at all in thee: for thy mēr'chānts wēre the great men of the ěarth; for by thy sōr'cēries wēre all nations dēceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all that wēre slain upon the ěarth.

CHAP. XIX.

AND āfter these things, I hēard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, *Āl-le-lū'i-ā!*¹ Sālvā'tion, and glory, and hōn'ōūr, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous āre his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the ěarth with her fornication, and hath āvēn'ged the blood of his sērvants at her hand.

3 And āgain' they said, Āl-le-lū'i-ā. And her smoke rose up forever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and wór'shípped God that sat on the throne, saying, Ā'mēn'; Āl-le-lū'i-ā.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his sērvants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I hēard, as it wēre the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many wāters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Āl-le-lū'i-ā: for the Lord God ōm-níp'ō-tent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give hōn'ōūr to him; for the mār'riage of the Lāmb is come, and his wife hath made herself rēady.

8 And to her was grān'ted, that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white; for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.
1 Āl-le-lū'i-āh. 2 Trōd. 3 vēs'tshūre.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed āre they which āre called unto the mār'riage-supper of the Lāmb. And he saith unto me, These āre the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to wór'shípp him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not; I am thy fēl'lōw-sēr'vant, and of thy brēthren that have the tēs'timōny of Jē'gūs. Wór'shípp God: for the tēs'timōny of Jē'gūs is the spirit of prōph'ēcy.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and, behold, a white horse: and he that sat upon him was called Fāith'fūl and True:² and in righteousness he dōth judge and make wār.

12 His eyes wēre as a flame of fire, and on his head wēre many crowns: and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 And he was clōthed with a vēs'tūre³ dipped in blood; and his name is called, The Wórd of God.

14 And the armies which wēre in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and elean.

15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp swōrd, that with it he should smite the nations; and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wērāth of Āl-migh'ty God.

16 And he hath on his vēs'tūre, and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an āngel standing in the sun: and he eried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gāther yourselves togēther unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of cāp'tains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the ěarth, and their armies, gāthered togēther to make wār āgainst' him that sat on the horse, and āgainst' his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the fālse prophet that wrougth miracles before him, with which he dēceived them that had rēceived the mark of the beast, and them that wór'shípped his image. These both wēre cāst ālive into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant wēre slain with the swōrd of him that sat upon the horse, which swōrd proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls wēre filled with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

AND I saw an āngel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit, and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old sērpent, which is the devil, and Sa'tān, and bound him a thousand years.

3 And cāst him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and āfter that, he must be lōosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that wēre beheaded for the witness of Jē'sūs, and for the word of God, and which had not wōrshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their fōre'hēads, or in their hands: and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not āgain' until the thousand years wēre finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blēs'sed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection; on such the second death hath no power; but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years āre expired, Sa'tān shall be lōosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which āre in the four quarters of the ēarth, Gog and Mā'gōg, to gāther them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up on the breadth of the ēarth, and cōm'pāssed the camp of the saints ābout', and the belōved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that dēceived them was cāst into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet āre, and shall be tormented day and night forever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the ēarth and the heaven fled āway; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the books wēre opened; and ānōther book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead wēre judged out of those things which wēre written in the books according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which wēre in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which wēre in them: and they wēre judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell wēre cāst into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cāst into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXI.

AND I saw a new heaven and a new ēarth: for the first heaven and the first ēarth wēre pās'sed āway; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jē-rū'sa-lēm, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride ādōrned for her hū'sband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tab'er-nā-cle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe āway all tears from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things āre pās'sed āway.

5 And he that sat upon the throne, said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words āre true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Ā'phā and Ō-mē'gā, the beginning and the end: I will give unto him that is āthirst', of the fōun'tain of the wāter of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things: and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fear'ful and ūn-bē-liēv'ing, and the abominable, and murderers, and whomongers, and sōr'cēers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake, which burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven lāst plāgues, and tāk'd with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the Lāmb's wife.

10 And he carried me āway in the spirit to a great and high mōun'tāin, and showed me that great city, the holy Jē-rū'sa-lēm, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jā's'pēr-stōne, clear as crēs'tāl;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which āre the names of the twelve tribes of the children of I's'ra-ēl.

13 On the east, three gates; on the north, three gates; on the south, three gates; and on the west, three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve āpōstles of the Lāmb.

15 And he that tāk'd with me had a golden reed to mēās'ure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth four square, and the length is as large as the breadth. And he mēās'ured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length, and the breadth, and the height of it āre equal.

17 And he mēās'ured the wall thereof, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the meas'ure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jās'pér: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear gläss:

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city wère garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jās'pér; the second, sǎp'plūrc;¹ the third chāl'cē-dōn-y;² the fourth, an ēn'ē-raid;

20 The fifth, sār'dōn-y; the sixth, sār'di-ūs; the seventh, chrÿs'ōlite; the eighth, bē'ryl; the ninth, a tō'pāz; the tenth, a chrÿ-sō'pra-sūs;³ the eleventh, a jā'cīnth; the twelfth, an ām'ē-thÿst.

21 And the twelve gates wère twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it wère transparent gläss.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Āl-migh'ty, and the Lāmb, āre the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lāmb is the light thereof.

24 And the nations of them which āre saved shall wālk in the light of it; and the kings of the ēarth do bring their glory and hōn'ōūr unto it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day; for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and hōn'ōūr of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which āre written in the Lāmb's book of life.

CHAP. XXII.

AND he showed me a pure river of wāter of life, clear as crÿs'tal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lāmb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree wère for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lāmb shall be in it; and his sērvants shall sērve him.

4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their fōre'hēads.

5 And there shall be no night there: and they need no candle, neither light of the sun: for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign forever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, these sayings

³ kris-sō'prā-sūs.

āre faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his āngel to show unto his sērvants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly; blēs'sed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prōph'ēcy of this book.

8 And I Jōhn saw these things, and heard them. And when I had hēard and seen, I fell down to wōr'shīp before the feet of the āngel, wltich showed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fēl'lōw-sēr'vant, and of thy brēthren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: wōr'shīp God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prōph'ēcy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still; and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still; and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 I am Āl'phā and Ō-mē'gā, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blēs'sed āre they that do his cōm-mānd'mēnts, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For without āre dogs, and sōr'cērerz, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever lōveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jē'sūs have sent mine āngel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of Dā'vīd, and the bright and morning star.

17 And the spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. And let him that is āthirst', come. And whosoever will, let him take the wāter of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prōph'ēcy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plāgues that āre written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take āway from the words of the book of this prōph'ēcy, God shall take āway his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which āre written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly: Ā'mēn'. Even so, come, Lord Jē'sūs.

21 The grace of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ be with you all. Ā'MEN'.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

From Rev. Mr. Pierpont, Pastor of the Church in Hollis Street, Boston, to the publishers.

Boston, Sept. 2, 1824.

Next in value to those things that help us to a correct understanding of the documents of our religion, are those which help us to a correct reading of them. Inaccuracy in the pronunciation of many words in the Sacred Volume, especially of proper names, is an evil that is not confined to families, at their domestic devotions: it finds its way into our school-houses, and even intrudes itself into too many of our pulpits: producing in the church a diversity of tongues, that is a proof of any thing but apostolical gifts. Every judicious effort to remedy this evil deserves, and will meet, the approbation and patronage of an enlightened christian community;—and I am gratified to find that Mr. Alger's edition of the New Testament, in which Walker's pronunciation has been indicated in the text, has so far succeeded, as to encourage you to publish the whole Bible upon the same plan.

In the pronunciation of the Hebrew names that occur in the holy scriptures, I should not, indeed, consider myself bound by the authority of Walker so implicitly as when it is applied to the pronunciation of the English language generally, or of Greek and Latin proper names. In the pronunciation of the Hebrew names, however, I should very infrequently depart from his authority; and, so long as there is no higher standard than his, accessible to the great proportion even of well educated christians, much will be done when readers of all classes shall be enabled readily to refer to that; and still more, when his pronunciation of our vernacular tongue shall be obtruded upon their notice whenever they consult the oracles of life.

From Mr. Alger's industry, and his well known accuracy in preparing works of this kind, I am persuaded that the publick will be furnished with as correct an edition of the work which you have in hand, as could reasonably be expected from any man; and I most heartily wish you success in your laudable enterprise.

Yours respectfully,

JOHN PIERPONT.

From Mr. Bailey, Principal of the Franklin English Grammar School in Nassau Street.

Boston, March 23, 1825.

Messrs. Lincoln & Edmands.

Having examined attentively and with much satisfaction, the Pronouncing Introduction, Reader and Testament, I am pleased to learn that you contemplate publishing an Edition of the whole Bible on the same plan. Objections have indeed been made, and with reason, to furnishing school books, generally, with artificial helps to the correct pronunciation of words; but in first books, and especially in the Bible, they must be highly useful. It is of great importance that children be early accustomed to conform to a correct standard of orthoepy; and we cannot conceal the fact, if we would, that almost a total disregard to accuracy and system, in this particular, prevails, not only in families and common schools, but also in too many of our academies and colleges. Believing that the Pronouncing Bible may do much to remedy this evil, and, especially, to fix a correct and uniform pronunciation of the Hebrew names, I hope you may receive a liberal patronage in your undertaking.

Respectfully yours, &c.

EBENEZER BAILEY.

From Rev. J. L. Blake, Rector of St. Matthew's Church, and Preceptor of a Young Ladies' Seminary, in Boston, to the publishers.

I am much pleased in learning that you contemplate an edition of the whole Bible on the plan of the "Pronouncing Testament." If the critical accentuation of school books generally would be objectionable, from its tendency to hinder the proper exercise of judgment and memory, with the young, in acquiring a classical and polite pronunciation of the English language, it cannot be objectionable in regard to the Bible and Testament, which, in Schools, are used chiefly, not as class-books, but in connection with devotional exercises, and in families, and by individuals, under circumstances that do not admit of regular instruction to the reader. And, moreover, it is believed, that if each of the younger members of a family should be furnished with a Bible on the plan of the Pronouncing Testament, and should read daily, after having been duly instructed in the Key, in reading by turns the chapters preparatory to morning and evening prayers, they would soon acquire an accuracy and elegance of pronunciation not usually witnessed—and, judging from my own experience, I should have no hesitation in saying, that the elder members of most families might find a benefit in like manner from the habitual use of such a Bible. The Pronouncing Testament will be a sufficient guarantee to all who have seen it, of Mr. Alger's qualifications for the work in which he is engaged; and, those who have seen the neat style of typography, and the good paper and binding of your late publications, will have full confidence, I am well persuaded, that your contemplated edition of the Bible, will be throughout what it should be.

Very respectfully yours,

J. L. BLAKE.

From Mr. Gould, Principal of the Latin School, and Mr. Emerson, the late Principal, and Mr. Miles, the present Principal of the English High School in Boston.

Messrs. Lincoln & Edmands,

We received notice of your intended edition of the Bible, and are very glad that you have undertaken it. An edition for common use, with the pronunciation of proper names and of difficult English words correctly marked, has long been wanted. It cannot fail to be highly useful. Without such a work, a knowledge of the right pronunciation of the Hebrew names can be acquired only by a reference to dictionaries which most readers have neither time nor opportunity to consult. We have no doubt, judging from the New Testament on the same plan which you published, that it will be well executed.

Yours, &c. R. A. GOULD.

Recommendation to the Testament from the Associated Instructors of Youth in the city of Boston.

The committee appointed at the last monthly meeting of the Association, to examine and report their opinion of the merits of an edition of the New Testament, entitled "The Pronouncing Testament," have attended to the service assigned them; and have great pleasure in expressing to the Association, that they consider this attempt of Mr. Alger to apply the principles of Mr. Walker, and the marks and characters used by Mr. Perry, and other Lexicographers, for designating the various sounds of the vowels and consonants to the proper names, and many other words in the sacred Scriptures, as highly laudable, and calculated greatly to aid children and others in acquiring a correct pronunciation of such words; and that his success has been much greater than could reasonably have been expected in a first edition.

Respectfully submitted by your Committee,

THOMAS PAYSON, Chairman.

Boston, Aug. 21, 1822.

At a regular meeting of "The Associated Instructors of Youth in the city of Boston and elsewhere," holden Sept. 25, 1822, the preceding Report was read and accepted.

A true copy.
